BACK TO WORK

Khalid Abdullah's Workforce (GB) (King's Best) makes his eagerly-awaited seasonal debut in today's G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown, which has been won by the likes of Commanche Run (GB), Mtoto (GB), Opera House (GB), Pilsudski (Ire), Bosra Sham, Shiva (Jpn) and Notnowcato (GB) in recent times. The cream of the "TDN Rising Stars" in 2010, the Epsom Derby and Arc hero is saddled with a seven-pound penalty and his trainer Sir Michael Stoute--who boasts five renewals--is not expecting any fireworks. "He has done very well physically, as one would expect as he was a big, scopey horse last year that still needed to fill out in certain areas," he said. "I think he is going to really need this race. Although he didn't run in the Breeders' Cup, he did travel to Kentucky and we prepared him for the race, so we decided that we wouldn't be in a rush with him this year. His first target was the Tattersalls Gold Cup last Sunday, but we decided not to take him to Ireland, as the race looked tough enough, so we've ended up going to Sandown." Stoute continued, "It is not a race that I particularly like, as a Group 1 winner has to carry a seven-pound penalty, which is very tough but we are glad to get him back on the racecourse. We are putting him back two furlongs just to get his season started, and his work has been pleasing me, but with a big horse like this, it's hard to get him tuned up first time. We've got him in the G1 Eclipse S. [at Sandown July 2] and G1 Prince of Wales's S. [at Royal Ascot June 15], but we will see what happens here and review it."

All carry 126 pounds bar Workforce, 133.

Among the talented performers in receipt of weight here are the 2009 G1 Criterium International winner and 2010 G1 Irish Derby third Jan Vermeer, 2010 G1 Eclipse S. runner-up Sri Putra and 2009 G1 Racing Post Trophy runner-up and 2010 G3 Craven S. winner Elusive Pimpernel. Third on his return from injury in Newmarket's G3 Earl of Sefton S. last time Apr. 14, the latter has always promised to make his mark at a high level. "We were delighted with his comeback run at Newmarket," Patrick Cooper, racing manager for owners Windflower Overseas Holdings, said. "Hopefully, he can step up on that and away we go. In my view the trip, the ground and the uphill finish at Sandown should suit him well."

Holberg reappears for Godolphin after a creditable latest sixth in the Nov. 2 G1 Melbourne Cup and is an intriguing prospect for the upcoming major marathon contests. Successful over two miles in Royal Ascot's G3 Queen's Vase at three, he added two listed wins in the Tapster S. and Foundation S. over 12 and 10 furlongs at Goodwood last term. "Holberg worked well on Sunday, and he looks in good form at the moment," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "He always seems to run well when he is fresh, and I am looking to see him get his season off to a good start." Last year's winner Akmal bids to emulate the staying favorites Double Trigger (Ire) (Ela-Mana-Mou {Ire}) and Persian Punch (Ire) (Persian Heights {GB}) by recording back-to-back wins here, but has been largely disappointing since and was an uninspiring third in Newbury's Listed Aston Park S. over 13 furlongs 12 days ago. "He likes to bowl along," owner/breeder Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Racing Manager Angus Gold told PA Sport. "If he's good enough he'll win, if he isn't he won't." Shadwell's other representative Nehaam is racing for the first time since finishing runner-up to Akmal in the G3 Jockey Club Cup at Newmarket in October 2009. "He had problems early last year in his joints which held him up, so we had to give him plenty of time off," Gold revealed. "He went back to the stud where they did a good job and they've done the same at John Gosden's. He's bound to need the race after over a year off, but at least we're getting him back on the track."

Classic Corner

All Systems Go for Carlton...

The Queen's Carlton House (Street Cry {Ire}) passed his last serious home test ahead of next Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby yesterday. After the gallop on Newmarket's Watered Gallop, trainer Sir Michael Stoute said of the May 12 G2 Dante S. winner, "I've been happy with his preparation. He worked this morning and it was very satisfactory, so he seems in good shape. Let's just hope things go smoothly between now and Derby day. The Dante was a slowly run race which is never satisfactory--one would have preferred a truly run race--but what we do know is that he does quicken. We hope he'll stay and he's a well-balanced horse with good rhythm."

JRHA CATALOGS 468 FOR JULY SELECT SALE
 Japan Racing Horse Association announced 240 yearlings and 228 foals will be offered at the annual July Select Sale, conducted July 11-12 at Northern Horse Park near New Chitose Airport, Japan. The catalogue, which will be available online starting June 11, can be accessed at <http://www.jrha-selectsale.com>. Printed catalogues will go to post June 21. The catalogue contains offspring by accomplished stallions Neo Universe (Jpn), responsible for G1 Dubai World Cup hero Victoire Pisa (Jpn); and Wild Rush, sire of G1SW Transcend (Jpn). Stay Gold (Jpn), sire of Nakayama Festa (Jpn)--purchased for ¥10,000,000 at JRHA sale in 2007--who finished second to Workforce (GB) (King's Best) in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe last autumn, and 2010 leading freshman sire Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) will be represented by their yearlings and foals as well.

NOTE: Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse To Bend {Ire})'s winning time of 2:10.50 in Monday's G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud established a new track record.

RODDICKTON (h, 5, Newfoundland--Dynachime, by Dynaformer) was benched following a third-place finish in an entry-level allowance at Gulfstream last March. A rusty eighth in a similar contest at that track Jan. 8, the dark bay was a non-threatening sixth behind Christmas for Liam (Saint Liam) in another main-track test in Hallandale Feb. 27. He shifted to the infield for a $30,000 tag at Gulfstream Mar. 24 and notched that elusive second career win, and parlayed that confidence booster into a victory over $50,000 claimers on Keeneland's Polytrack Apr. 28. Available here at 5-1, Roddickton enjoyed a ground-saving journey just behind the leaders. He angled out for running room in midstretch and forged clear to take it by 1 1/4 lengths over Capital Market (Indian Charlie). ALSEERA (f, 3, Distorted Humor--Unbridled Idol, by Unbridled), a $500,000 KEESEP yearling, raced in fifth throughout her Aug. 20 unveiling at Saratoga. She made amends with a front-running success over this track and trip Sept. 16, but hadn't faced the starter since. Sent off at 3-1, Alseera lucked into a dream trip when Tempest Storm (Malibu Moon) and even-money Does It Every Time (Malibu Moon) duked it out up front. Jockey Alan Garcia eased the Shadwell colorbearer to the outside entering the stretch and the sophomore responded readily, drawing off to post a 2 1/2-length triumph while being taken in hand late. Does It Every Time won the battle for second. The winner's dam is a full-sister to champion Anees, as well as SW Sorcerer (Summer Squall). The Brushwood homebred tried different tactics over the same course Apr. 9 and, after forcing the issue from the start, settled for second by a neck. Sent off as the 2-1 second choice here, the bay colt was reined back by jockey Joe Bravo and settled in seventh. Philly Ace was stuck inside behind a wall of horses in midstretch, but fired a fastball to get through and proved a handy 1 1/4-length winner. Break the Glass made it a Smart Strike exacta. Philly Ace, a half-brother to Slambino (Grand Slam), MSP, $271,462; and Spring of Fame (Grand Slam), SW-Fr, GSP-UAE & SP-GB, $273,332, was produced by a half-sister to the good turf horses Ends Well (Lyphard) and Fred Astaire (Nijinsky II). ## NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

INTERNATIONAL SUMMIT TO ADDRESS RACE DAY MEDICATION AT BELMONT PARK, JUNE 13-14

The Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTTC), along with the NTRA and the American Association of Equine Practitioners (AAEP), will host an "International Summit to Address Race Day Medication" on June 13-14 at Belmont Park.

The Summit will bring together representatives of major horse racing jurisdictions from around the world. Among the topics that trainers, veterinarians and regulators will discuss are: the current status of medication issues in racing; regulatory issues surrounding race day medication; veterinary viewpoints on the management of Exercise Induced Pulmonary Hemorrhage (EIPH); and management and treatment of EIPH from the perspective of trainers.

Day 1 of the two-day Summit is open to anyone who registers in advance. Cost per person is $40 and includes lunch at Belmont Park. Members of the media must be credentialed. Access the NTRA press release for more information on the Summit, including speaker information and registration details for the public and media.

For more information contact Joe Bacigalupo, director of membership development, (800) 792-6872, ext. 677 or visit www.SupportHorseRacing.org.

This fascinating contest features the G1 2000 Guineas fifth Fury and ninth Loving Spirit, who will give more guidance as to the absolute merit of Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire})'s awesome performance in that Apr. 30 Newmarket Classic. Fury had the subsequent G2 Dante S. third Pisco Sour (Lemon Drop Kid) and G2 Railway S. winner Formosina (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) behind when capturing the £500,000 Tattersalls Millions 2YO Trophy at Newmarket in October and gets five pounds from the Apr. 13 Listed European Free H. scorer Pausanias. Trainer Richard Hannon commented, "Pausanias has to shoulder a five-pound penalty for having won the Free H. at Newmarket, so it is a tough task, but he is a big colt, and we thought he would have needed that comeback race. He is bound to be sharper and the step up to a mile won't be a problem, while Sandown also do a good job with the watering, so the ground should not be as fast as it was at Newmarket, which is another plus."

STRATUM FILLY TOPS MM NATIONAL SALE

Edited Press Release

A Stratum (Aus) half-sister to New Zealand champion juvenile Anabandana (Aus) topped the first session of the Magic Millions National Weanling Sale on the Gold Coast, bringing A$220,000 from New Zealand's

magicmillions.com.au

Whakanui Stud. She was catalogued as lot 175 by Reavill Farm. "She's a beautiful filly," Whakanui's Tim Bodle said. "She had the looks as well as a great pedigree. We will retain the filly to race and then eventually she will join our broodmare band--she won't be going through the sales as a yearling." The top-priced filly is the seventh foal of the regally related and top producing Nureyev mare Great Notice. In addition to Anabandana, Great Notice is also the dam of the stakes winning juvenile Gybe (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and three other winners. A colt by Duke of Marmalade (Ire) was the second-highest priced lot on the day, selling for A$150,000. Melbourne based bloodstock agent Cameron Cooke purchased the colt, who was originally passed in, from the draft of Erinvale Thoroughbreds. He was consigned as lot 238. "I'm a huge fan of Duke of Marmalade, and I liked this bloke the moment I saw him at Erinvale before coming up to the Gold Coast," Cooke commented. "I purchased him for a Victorian based client and he may be retained to race, but no decision will be made just yet; he could turn up in a sale as a yearling. The colt was my pick of the sale and he looks a ready made racehorse." During the opening session, 131 weanlings realized A$3.425 million for an average of A$23,299. The clearance rate was 69%. The numbers were down across the board compared to last year's first session, which saw 209 weanlings bring A$7,743,500 for an average of A$37,050. The 2010 clearance rate was 88%. Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox said the opening sale figures were in line with other auctions held in the region during the past six months. "It is a tough market at the moment and today was no different," Cox offered. "There are a number of factors that are in play--including the economy and the high Australian dollar, which is limiting the spend as well as keeping down the numbers of international visitors." He continued, "Most vendors met the market on a tough day and those who supported the sale with quality individuals were rewarded. Buyers at the sale today got some great value and I'm certain they will look back on this sale and be thankful they were here." The second session of the auction will be held at the Gold Coast Sales Complex today at 10 a.m.

AFRICA

CAPE MARE AND WEANLING SALE TO BE HELD THURSDAY

The South African Thoroughbred Breeders Association will hold its annual Cape Mare and Weanling Sale at Sandringham Farm near Cape Town Thursday.

The sale has a long history of netting future top-class producers. The dams of champions Pocket Power (SAf) and Pierre Jourdan (SAf) both went through the ring at this sale. In fact, when Stormsvlei (SAf) went through the ring in 2003, she was carrying future J&B Met winner and recent Singapore Cup runner-up River Jetex (SAf).

Thursday's sale has catalogued 179 horses--144 broodmares or broodmare prospects, three horses in training, and 24 weanlings.

Covering sires include leading sires Trippi, Silvano (Ger), Dynasty (SAf) and Tiger Ridge, whilst young stallions represented by their first mares in foal include Prix Maurice de Gheest winner King's Apostle (Ire) and Group 1 winning sprinter Seventh Rock (Aus).

There are a number of high-class racemares on sale, including former Equus Champion Bella Bianca (Arg) (Ahmad {Arg}), who is consigned by Varsfontein Stud. A former winner of the G1 Gold Cup, Bella Bianca sells in foal to Kingmambo's half-brother, Judpot (A.P. Indy--Miesque).

Amongst the proven producers on offer, Tudor Vino (SAf) (Silvino), stands out. Already dam of an Equus Champion 2yo in Carnadore (SAf) (National Emblem {SAf}), the mare is now offered in foal to Trippi. She is consigned by Drakenstein Stud.

The sale, which starts at 11 a.m., offers weanlings by proven stallions such as Dynasty and Tiger Ridge. The catalogue is available online at www.tba.co.za.
