'TIZ' SHOWS THE WAY IN MET MILE

Heading into Monday's GI Metropolitan Mile at Belmont Park, Tizway (Tiznow) hadn't visited the winner's circle since last October's GII Kelso H. Despite failing to score in three starts since, the 6-year-old was sent off the lukewarm 3-1 choice to improve on a third-place finish in last year's installment of the Memorial Day feature. Up close to prompt pacesetter Tackleberry (Montbrook) through opening splits of

:23.17 and :45.57, the dark bay overtook his rival at the quarter pole, opened up a comfortable cushion and was kept to task by an energetic Rajiv Maragh to collect a career high victory. Further back in second--beaten 2 3/4 lengths--was 36-1 longshot Rodman (Malibu Moon) closed to be second, while Caixa Electronica (Arromaches) rounded out the trifecta. "It was a great trip," said winning Maragh. "I had a good post and my horse broke well. He was always running for me--I really didn't have to do much, just get him going at the right time and he held them off pretty fine. It was pretty straight forward--I broke out of the gate, I just ran a straight line, dropped in a little when I went to the turn, gave my horse the cue and he was always into the bridle. He was ready. My horse is more of a steady kind of horse, and he keeps picking it up gradually, so the race flow suited him pretty well. We went off decent in the first quarter and then we just gradually started picking up, and that's running into my horse's style. He'll kill you with a high cruising speed, that's what's his weapon." Cont. p2

DUBAWI HEIGHTS TOPS IN GAMELY

Dubawi Heights (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) didn't have the easiest time of it, but the 4-year-old was able to get her head on the line to collect her fourth consecutive victory in yesterday's G1 Gamely S. at Hollywood Park.

Armed with hot West Coast rider Joel Rosario, the Simon Callaghan-trained filly didn't let Celtic Princess (Brz) (Public Purse) get far out of her sights through opening splits of :23.26, :47.52 and 1:11.68. With the leader appearing to give her the slip at the head of the stretch, Dubawi

Heights had more to give, and wore down her gallant rival late to eke out a head victory, in the process collecting her first title at the Grade I level.

"[Celtic Princess] got such an easy lead early, but my filly was traveling really nice and I had a lot of confidence in her," explained Rosario. "Last year when I rode her, she was behind horses and had a lot of trouble. Now she showed me that she can run through anything. I can see the improvement from race to race. She gets a hold of the track a lot better. The more she races, the better she gets." Cont. p4

Tizway, who proved his ability over a distance of ground when third in the 2009 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, shipped around the world for the G1 Japan Cup Dirt at Hanshin but had to settle for 12th. Back on U.S. soil, the dark bay came home third behind Quality Road (Elusive Quality) and Musket Man (Yonaguska) in last spring's Met Mile, galloped home a five length winner in the GII Kelso H. and ended the season with a fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Churchill Nov. 6.

Up close in the early going in his seasonal bow in the Mar. 12 GII Gulfstream Park H., Tizway found himself only a neck shy back in third before filling the same spot most recently in a sloppy renewal of the nine-furlong GIII Charles Town Classic Apr. 16.

With his victory in the Met Mile, which is part of the Breeders' Cup Challenge series, Tizway is now guaranteed a spot in the starting gate and will have his pre-entry and entry fees waived for the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Churchill Downs in November, with his connections to receive a $10,000 travel allowance for the race. Bond, however, is also considering a start in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at 10 furlongs. "I'll probably look at the [GI] Whitney, Aug. 6 at Saratoga," confirmed Bond. "It's our home base. We'll back up from the Breeders' Cup and, basically, start looking backwards and try to find the right spots for him. I know this horse will run a mile and a quarter. It depends on what kind the horses are at the end of the year. We all know what can happen."

WINTER REIGNS OVER SAND POINT

Winter Memories (El Prado {Ire}) added yet another notch on her belt yesterday with an emphatic victory in Belmont's GII Sands Point S. Content to track a leisurely early pace of :26.11 and :51.41, the 3-5 choice easily rolled up from the outside to assume command at the head of the stretch and strode clear to post the confident victory. Celestial Kitten (Kitten's Joy) rallied to collect the runner-up spot, while Parting Words (Artie Schiller) rounded out the trifecta. Final time for the 1 1/16-mile test was 1:42.61. "She just galloped over there," said winning rider Jose Lezcano. "I had to go very close to the pace, but when I asked her, she gave me the same kick she always gives me and she picked it up very quick. She usually sits back and makes a run, but today there was no pace in the race, so I had to do what I had to do. This is the kind of filly you can do whatever you want with, you can keep her close or you can take her back. Today, with six horses and no pace, I had to put her in the race."

Trainer Jimmy Toner was unconcerned about how his closing filly would contend with the pedestrian early pace. "Ordinarily, you don't want to be that close, but when they go in :51 you can't be 10 lengths back," he explained. "Now that she's getting racier, she wants to be more forward. As soon as they started slowing it down, she took him up there. We discussed the lack of pace beforehand, but I don't tell Jose what to do. He knows the filly really well and gets along with her."

Representing Darby Dan's Phillips Racing partnership, the homebred launched her career with a 1 1/2-length score at the Spa last September before romping home a 5 1/4-length winner in a soggy edition of the 1 1/16-mile GIII Ms Grillo S. at Belmont Oct. 3. Sent off the even-money choice in the Nov. 5 GII Breeders' Cup Junvenile Fillies Turf at Churchill Downs, she had to settle for second behind More Than Real (More Than Ready) in the eight furlong event. Given some time off following that effort, the filly returned with a narrow win in Keeneland's GIII Appalachian S. Apr. 21. "Our main goal is the [GI] Queen Elizabeth II [at Keeneland in October]," Toner added, "We'll figure out the best way to get her there and look at the [GII] Lake George [July 27] and [GII] Lake Placid [Aug. 21] in Saratoga." Group 1 winner--in a sales' restricted race at Newmarket. Sent to the U.S. for her 2010 campaign, the bay was runner-up at Santa Anita's Oak Tree meeting in her second start stateside, before breaking through with a victory going 8 1/2 panels over Hollywood's turf course Nov. 28. Back at Santa Anita for a win in a one-mile allowance test Apr. 1, the English-bred made it three straight with a 1 1/2-length tally in the GIII Wilshire H. here Apr. 30. "Everything we've asked, she's really come well for us, this filly," said Simon Callaghan, who trains the filly for a partnership that includes his father, Neville. "She's really improved and progressed each time. She was a good filly in Europe, stakes placed as a 2-year-old, but she's had a few injuries and setbacks, which kept her off the track as a 3-year-old. She's getting better with age and maturing." Callaghan added, "We thought she would get this distance, but we thought a mile and an eighth would be the limit. But [Joel Rosario] was very confident and had her up there the whole way. The filly has done us proud." As to where the filly might make her next appearance, Callaghan said, "She's had four races pretty quick. She's nominated for the [GI] Beverly D. [Arlington in August], which is obviously a big jump up in distance. There are also a couple of races at Del Mar. I don't know, w'll have a talk with the owners and think about it."

Rafael Bejarano, who was aboard runner-up Celtic Princess, was also pleased with the Brazilian bred's effort. "At the top of the stretch, I thought I was going to win the race, because I had so much confidence in her and she tries so hard," said Bejarano, who won this event in 2010 with the late Tuscan Evening (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and with Precious Kitten (Catenus) in 2008. "She showed me a big kick. My horse and [Dubawi Heights] were the only two that kept running. They both finished really strong."

HOUSE HEADS DERBY 17

The Queen's Carlton House (Street Cry {Ire}) will face a maximum of 16 rivals in Saturday's G1 Investec Derby after the six-day declarations were made yesterday. Almost certain to start favorite for the blue riband, the Sir Michael Stoute trainee will face a clutch of colts from Coolmore interests with the list showing a quintet from Aidan O'Brien's Ballydoyle stable alongside the Andre Fabre-trained Pour Moi (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). The Queen's Racing Manager John Warren had nothing but good news for fans of the G2 Dante S. winner yesterday. "Carlton House is all on target for Epsom," Warren said. "He had a nice blow yesterday at Newmarket and the trainer is very happy with him at this point. Carlton House will be kept ticking over this week. There is excitement all round and I think the whole country is starting to focus on it and everyone is excited by the prospect."

Godolphin left in a trio, but are expected to field a sole representative in the general 16-1 shot Ocean War (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}). Nevertheless, Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum will be watching the unfolding story of Carlton House keenly, as he bred the colt and presented him to the monarch as a present. "I am sure he would be absolutely thrilled, almost as excited as The Queen," Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented yesterday. "Obviously, everyone wants The Queen to win and we'll all be trying our best to beat Carlton House, but having gifted the colt to The Queen I think it would mean a huge amount to Sheikh Mohammed. He's incredibly excited about the whole possibility. He draws so much pleasure from seeing other people enjoy tremendous success. He's a real giver and it would mean an awful lot having bred the colt, and the mare was one of the first Godolphin had at the very beginning. He bred, trained and owned Street Cry with Godolphin, so it's a very close family for him." Crisford added, "We're very much leaning toward Ocean War being our Derby contender, with Casamento (Ire) (Shamardal) going for the [June 5] G1 Prix du Jockey-Club and Genius Beast (Kingmambo) waiting for the G2 King Edward VII S. [at Royal Ascot June 17]. All three have stayed in at the confirmation stage, but that gives us a little bit more time as a precautionary measure unless we have to change our plans at the last minute." Of the May 1 Listed Newmarket S. scorer Ocean War, Crisford said, "He's unbeaten this season and we like his very tenacious attitude."

Crisford continued, "A mile and a half will suit him very well, as will a truly run race and we expect him to be do all his best work at the finish. On the book, he's got plenty to find and has to improve a great deal on what he's done so far but he's done nothing but please us."

As Godolphin have with the Chantilly-bound Casamento, Aidan O'Brien has left in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Roderic O'Connor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) as a precaution only, since he is booked for the French equivalent a day later. Kieren Fallon was declared as the rider of one of the stable's four intended runners, Recital (Fr) (Montjeu {Ire}), whom he partnered to success in the May 8 G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown. Christophe Soumillon will be aboard the G2 Dante S. runner-up Seville (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}), with Colm O'Donoghue on the May 5 G3 Chester Vase victor Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and Joseph O'Brien on the Derrinstown Derby Trial second Memphis Tennessee (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}). Fallon's decision leaves Ed Dunlop without a jockey for Vefa Araci's G1 2000 Guineas third Native Khan (Fr) (Azamour {Ire}), whom he had ridden at the "Breakfast With the Stars" morning at Epsom on Thursday. "Obviously, I'm disappointed for the clients who specifically wanted Kieren, but the enticement of the great Ballydoyle battleship steered him towards their horse," Dunlop told PA Sport. "Hopefully, when we confirm our replacement, I'll be very happy with the situation."

Alongside Pour Moi, France is set to have another representative in His Highness The Aga Khan's Vadamar (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}) after the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Georges Rimaud confirmed the May 7 G2 Prix Greffulhe third on course. "We have decided to let him run," Rimaud told PA Sport. "He worked well this morning, I am told. The horse has to improve, but we hope he can. Pour Moi is a good horse as well, obviously, but we believe Vadamar has the right to run."

With the current going described as good, Clerk of the Course and Director of Racing Andrew Cooper will be continuing to water this week. "We are expecting up to two millimetres of rain early this evening, while there is an outside chance of a shower tomorrow," Cooper said yesterday. "Otherwise, the week is forecast to be dry and warm. The Investec Derby Festival starts on Friday with Investec Ladies' Day and the forecast then is for temperatures in the low 20's Celsius, with similar weather on Saturday, Investec Derby Day. At the moment, we are planning to do two more circuits of watering, with the first starting on the hill this evening. We will put on six millimetres all round, completing around the course tomorrow. The second lot of watering will commence on Wednesday on the hill and be finished on Thursday. We have not decided yet how much water will be used then. The aim is to have ground no quicker than good-to-firm on Saturday for the Investec Derby."

GI Santa Anita H. winner Game On Dude took the lion's share of the crowd's support here, but it was another gelded son of Awesome Again, the old war horse Awesome Gem, who landed the spoils. Seventh in the GIII Breeders' Cup Marathon last fall, the 8-year-old looked like his best days might indeed be behind him when he finished third in a grassy Golden Gate allowance Apr. 2 and then sixth in the GIII Charles Town Classic Apr. 16. The latter effort was perhaps better than it looked, as Duke of Mischief (Graeme Hall), Game On Dude and yesterday's GI Met Mile hero Tizway (Tiznow) filled the trifecta, and Awesome Gem subsequently outran his 15-1 odds when a near-miss fourth in the thrilling blanket finish of the GIII Alysheba S. at Churchill May 6.

Partnered with Robby Albarado for the first time in the Lone Star H. and gifted a perfect ride, Awesome Gem stalked in the clear in third as Game On Dude kept Lydia's Last Step (Spanish Step) company through sensible fractions. Albarado pressed the button nearing the quarter pole, and Awesome Gem responded well, forging to the front and leveling out nicely on his way to his eighth career victory in 43 starts. Game On Dude came home a no-excuse third. "He broke really well and put himself in the race," said winning rider Robby Albarado. "I was worried about him backing up a little bit but he was fine up the backside and content. When I called on him, he took it to them."

Trainer Bart Evans's homebred Wasted Tears has been a monster at Lone Star, winning all of her five starts here entering the Ouija Board, and she continued her dominance in her first start since last November's GI Matriarch S. at Hollywood. The 6-year-old mare began a seven-race winning skein at Lone Star back in 2009, an impressive run that included that year's Ouija Board and the 2010 renewal, as well. She followed the latter score with a nose victory in the GI John C. Mabee S. at Del Mar in August, then just failed to last when a close-up fifth in the GI First Lady S. at Keeneland in October. Connections went hunting for Grade I glory again in the Matriarch, but she found Gypsy's Warning (SAf) (Mogok) too strong that day in a runner-up effort. Sent off the hot 2-5 favorite in her 2011 bow, Wasted Tears duelled for the lead with Sheer Beauty in the first furlong before taking back a bit to stalk fast :22.77 and :46.26 splits. She cruised up under her own resolve to assume command heading into the far turn and, once given the cue by Leparoux, sprinted away from the pack en route to the daylight tally. "I've never had one quite like her. She's so intelligent and she has such a high cruising speed," said winning trainer Bart Evans. "She's kind of like an airplane, once she reaches cruising altitude she'll tell you to take the seat belt off."

raced in fifth in the clear up the backstretch as part of a strung-out field, led by Marquet Madness (Pico Central {Brz}), a stablemate to MGISW Presious Passion (Royal Anthem) who tried to emulate that free-wheeling gelding by racing out to a clear advantage. Marquet Madness turned into the lane with a 2 1/2-length cushion and looked a sure winner at the furlong grounds, but a swarm of rivals closed in in the final strides, including Denomination, who sliced between rivals and narrowly outfinished Unbridled Essence. "Heading into the far turn, she gave me the sensation that all she needed was a hole and she was going to run for me," said winning jockey Joe Bravo. "She was well within herself. I'm just really thankful for being on this horse today."

Taking advantage of blazing early splits, Churchill ace Sassy Image, fresh off her upset victory in the GI Humana Distaff on Kentucky Derby day, closed resolutely under the Twin Spires and just nipped a game Beat the Blues in the shade of the post. A winner of four of five at Churchill before yesterday, Sassy Image captured the GIII Pocahontas S. and GII Golden Rod S. here at two, but after opening her 2010 season with a win in the Sweetest Chant S. at Gulfstream, she failed to make an impact in the GII Davona Dale S. and was shelved. Fifth in her second start back, the GIII Sabin S. in Hallendale Feb. 19, she underwent throat surgery. She was dismissed at 16-1 odds in her return in the Humana, but a half in :44 3/5 set the table for the late-running miss, and she took advantage with a three-length victory over the first-class Hilda's Passion (Canadian Frontier). Churchill-based Dale Romans opted to keep the filly local after that breakthrough score, and she came through his surging stable.

Sassy Image sat in a mid-pack position as Starlite Starbrite (Mutakddim) and Beat the Blues tore through :21.54 and :44.65 fractions. Tipped wide by Corey Lanerie, she gained with every stride down the stretch and just tagged a very game Beat the Blues. "I was lucky to get the mount on her today with Robby [Albarado, regular rider] being out of town," said Lanerie. "At the quarter pole, I thought I was definitely going to win, but I wasn't so sure at the sixteenth pole. When we hit the wire, I knew we won. Things have just seemed to fall into place this meet." Added Romans, "She loves this track and she ran good. That was a little more work than I expected, but they ran so fast, and there's only so fast a horse can run. We'll look at a couple of different spots for her now. We may go to Saratoga for the GI Ballerina [Aug. 27]. We'll probably run her in one more sprint, and then give her a route race before the Breeders' Cup [GI Ladies Classic at Churchill Downs Nov. 4]. We're going to try and make her a champion, and to get that she'll probably have to win the [Ladies' Classic]."

California stewards once again were faced with a tough decision in a graded race, and when the CushionTrack settled, they chose to DQ Amazombie from the win here after a roughly run stretch drive. Camp Victory was the beneficiary, but having taken some of the abuse, was hardly an undeserving winner. The race began uneventfully enough, with defending champion Cost of Freedom (Cee's Tizzy) racing out to the lead. He was soon joined to the inside by Indian Firewater (Indian Charlie), and the pair carved out splits of :22.20 and :44.40. The closers began gearing up two furlongs out. M One Rifle was first on the scene, and Camp Victory, glued to his hip, followed suit with a strong rally. Amazombie, meanwhile, was angled off the rail by Mike Smith, who hoped to split the quartet in mid-stretch. The hole he was gunning for narrowed just as he arrived, however, and he bumped M One Rifle hard, who in turn knocked into Camp Victory. Amazombie scampered away to a clear-cut success, but the last horse had barely passed the wire before the inquiry sign was posted. After a lengthy review, stewards ruled Smith at fault, and took Amazombie's number down. It was a career score for Camp Victory, who was haltered away from West Point Thoroughbreds and trainer John Sadler for $40,000 out of a winning effort at Santa Anita Feb. 13. He came back to win an optional claimer Mar. 27, then just missed by a nose in the down-the-hill GIII San Simeon H. across town Apr. 16.

The eminently likable Bold Chieftain was looking for his first win in the Berkeley after running second the past two years, and the 17-time winner gave it his all once again, but the relative youngster Uh Oh Bango wouldn't be denied in an exciting finish. Uh Oh Bango came up just a neck short of a huge payday when second to Rule (Roman Ruler) in the 2009 GIII Delta Jackpot S., but after running fourth in the GII Rebel S. and GI Arkansas Derby last year, he went to the sidelines. Moved to the West Coast for the 2011 season while remaining in the stable of Kory Owens, the 4-year-old colt hit the board in three consecutive allowance races at Santa Anita early in the year before finally getting the 'w' in a Hollywood optional claimer May 12. Back in stakes company as a 9-2 chance, the bay shadowed pacesetter Our Nautique (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) through :24.90, :49.73 and 1:13.61 fractions. He finally worked his way past that rival at the furlong grounds before immediately being tackled by the rallying Bold Chieftain, and while it looked for a second like he himself would have to settle for place honors, he reasserted in the last jump to get an initial graded tally.

Awesome Feather on the Comeback Trail...

Champion Awesome Feather (Awesome Of Course), sidelined since taking the Nov. 5 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, had her second workout of the year yesterday, going a half in :48.12 on the Belmont main track Sunday. It was the fourth-fastest of 19 at the distance. The 3-year-old had gone three-eighths in :36 3/5 May 24. Perfect in six starts last year for owner/breeder Jacks Or Better Farm and trainer Stanley Gold, the Florida-bred captured the BC Juvenile Fillies by 2 1/4 lengths as the 4-1 choice. Two days later, she went through the ring at the Fasig-Tipton November sale and was sold to Adena Springs for $2.3 million. But, after joining the Chad Brown barn at Palm Meadows in Florida, it was discovered that she had a tendon problem and her racing career was in doubt. Rather than retire her, however, connections opted to give her the time off and try to bring her back for a sophomore campaign. "We're not out of the woods yet, but so far everything looks good," Brown told Daily Racing Form. "We're real, real patient. She's breezed twice, she's gone well. We started her up and took our time--you got to be really patient with these types of injuries." The conditioner added, "For her to even get back and get a couple of works in and to be traveling as smooth as she is is encouraging. Arguably, she's traveling better than she was. Even in the Breeders' Cup she didn't switch leads, she was on her left lead the whole way. Both times I worked her she switched leads on a dime and was smooth as silk. That's a good sign. I just can't be sure these things are going to hold. You just don't know." Brown has not yet pinpointed a comeback race, but commented, "If she were to put another couple of works in a row like she did today and still look tight and sound, then I'll probably start searching."

Goldi Set for Queen Anne...
Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) has been given the green light to run in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 14. Trainer Freddy Head had stalled on a decision in the immediate aftermath of her return success in last Sunday's G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp, but confirmed his plans to Racing Post yesterday. "We are going to Ascot for the Queen Anne," Head said. "She has come out of the d'Ispahan very well and will improve for that run."

Stakes Company Next for C J Russell...

C J Russell (El Corredor), who recorded the fastest time for six furlongs at the Churchill Downs meet Sunday, is likely to make his next start in stakes company, according to trainer Bob Baffert's assistant, Peter Hutton. "He came out of the race great," confirmed Hutton. Owned by Mike Pegram, the homebred took the $75,000 optional claimer for 3-year-olds in 1:08.92. Looking down the road, Hutton added, "He'll probably stretch out and run in stakes company next. He may go to New York, but we might keep him [at Churchill Downs] and run him in the GIII Matt Winn S. [June 18]."

Nehro Readies for Belmont...

Nehro (Mineshaft), with exercise rider Carlos Rosas aboard, worked six furlongs Monday morning at Churchill Downs in preparation for the June 11 GI Belmont S. Accompanied by his stablemate, George Bolton and Stonestreet Stables' Dominus (Smart Strike), the Steve Asmussen trained colt completed the task in 1:12.20, with fractional times of :12, :24.20, :36.20, :48 and 1:00. He galloped out seven furlongs in 1:25.60 and a mile in 1:39. "I was very pleased with the move," Asmussen said. "Obviously we stuck Nehro in company and asked him for a good work. It was the best work I've seen him lay down." In three prior starts, the dark bay finished runner-up in the GII Louisiana Derby, GII Arkansas Derby and GI Kentucky Derby. Dominus, a 5 1/4-length winner at Santa Anita Mar. 26, was runner-up in his most recent start in the Apr. 30 GIII Derby Trial S. "In his defense, it's probably the first time he's got to work on a fast track in about two months," Asmussen said. "I think you saw why we were not wanting a sloppy track for the Derby." The work is the final major move for the Zayat Stables representative at Churchill before being shipped to New York. Asmussen indicated Nehro would probably depart for Belmont Thursday evening, with a final pre-Belmont work early next week. "That's been something we've talked about that we had to get through this work to decide," Asmussen said. "You don't mind that, having the barn [at Belmont] and everything."

Shackleford Arrives at Belmont

Michael Lauffer and Bill Cubbedge's Shackleford (Forestry) arrived at Belmont Park just before 10 a.m. yesterday in advance of a possible start in the June 11

Adam Coglianese

GI Belmont S. "He looks good," said Scotty Everett, assistant trainer to Dale Romans. "We are excited to have him here at Belmont." According to Romans, the winner of the May 21 GI Preakness S. will walk the shedrow at Romans' barn today before going to the track tomorrow. A final decision on his status for the Belmont is expected later this week. Shackleford, a half-brother to the GI Alabama S. heroine Lady Joanne (Orientate), will seek to become the 19th horse to complete the Preakness-Belmont double, a feat last accomplished by 2005's 3-year-old champion, Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet).

GROUP 1 WINNER ARAPAHO MISS TOPS MM

MONDAY She only won twice in her 26-race career, but Arapaho Miss (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}--Happy Heart {Fr}, by Exit to Nowhere) got it done when it

Arapaho Miss magicmillions.com.au counted most, taking the G1 VRC Oaks at Flemington in 2007. She earned A$708,950 in her four seasons on the track. Now six, the mare topped the proceedings at Monday's session of the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale on the Gold Coast. In foal to Lonhro (Aus), the mare was offered by Amarina

Farm, and went to Gerry Harvey's Baramul Stud for A$650,000 (US$694,621). "She's a quality mare in foal to an in-form stallion," Harvey remarked. "She is a welcome addition to the Baramul Stud broodmare band. We've been able to buy some lovely mares over the past couple of days." Arapaho Miss is a half to G1SP Heartsareforlove (Aus) (Hussonet). Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox was pleased that the brisk business that marked Sunday's session was still in evidence yesterday. "It's been pleasing to see that yesterday's solid opening to the sale has continued today with good interest at most levels of the market," Cox said. "The quality mares put up for sale attracted plenty of interest...people came wanting to do business and that is what has happened. There was a good vibe around the grounds over the past few days." The final day of the National Broodmare Sale is set for Tuesday, with bidding beginning at 10 a.m. "There will be some great value on offer tomorrow," Cox added. For complete results, go to www.magicmillions.com.au.

Back in 1985, the catalogue for the complete dispersal of the Newstead Farm Trust included an enlightening summary by Ed Bowen.

“Hallmark of the professional breeding operation often is that rare and priceless creation--the Blue Hen mare,” Bowen wrote. “If, in a lifetime, a breeder acquires one of them, he can count himself blessed. If it happens twice, he can count himself lucky, and if it continues to happen, we must begin to think the breeder is both of the above--and a little bit smart, too.”

“Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Hardin bred Thoroughbreds for nearly three decades at their lovely Newstead Farm in Virginia, and there came the couple’s way a series of mares whose quality meant each could have stood alone as foundation matron to a successful operation.” Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

COOLMORE

The dispersal confirmed the truth of Bowen's words, with six of the 18 mares achieving seven-figure prices, including four which sold for figures between $3 million and $7 million.

It was a similar story with the Trust's weanlings. Three of them broke the previous record for a weanling, the new figure being $2.5 million, and some of Newstead's yearling fillies had earlier sold well at Saratoga.

These reminiscences were prompted by another fine performance from the Italian-trained Worthadd, who has followed up his fine second to Canford Cliffs in the G1 Lockinge S. with his third victory at Group 2 level. The third dam of this winner of last year's Italian 2000 Guineas and Derby is Newstead's White Star Line, who was bought by Sheikh Mohammed's Darley Stud Management for $3 million. His second dam, Urjwan, was another purchase for the Maktoum family, with Sheikh Hamdan investing $850,000 in the yearling daughter of Seattle Slew.

White Star Line's price reflected a first-rate pedigree, combined with sterling achievements on the track. This daughter of Northern Dancer had recorded Grade I triumphs in the Kentucky Oaks, Delaware Oaks and Alabama S. What's more, she was a daughter of Fast Line, a Mr. Busher mare who surely qualified as a blue hen. Fast Line's other stakes winners were Filiberto, winner of the G1 Prix Morny in 1972, as well as that fine producer Fairway Fun. Her daughters also produced the outstanding French filly Northern Trick (a three-parts sister to White Star Line) and the CCA Oaks winner Magazine.

White Star Line also ended up with an admirable number of black-type performers to her credit--six to be precise--but Worthadd's second dam, the mile winner Urjwan, didn't rank among White Star Line's best offspring. However, this daughter of Seattle Slew has helped maintain the family fortunes, with two of her daughters producing winners of a European Derby. Her Shirley Heights filly Dawlah was first off the mark, producing Dai Jin (Peintre Celebre), winner of the German Derby seven years before Worthadd landed the Italian version.

The family has also enjoyed European classic success with Northern Trick's grand-daughter Light Shift (Kingmambo), winner of the 2007 Oaks, and with White Star Line's granddaughter Valley of Gold (Shirley Heights), winner of the G1 Oaks d'Italia. Altogether four of White Star Line's daughters have produced a total of six group winners, the other Group 1 winner among them being Preseli (Caerleon) (Moyglare Stud S.).

Bernardini is another whose female line traces to Fast Line.

Urjwan spent the majority of her broodmare career in Europe before being switched back to her native U.S., where she visited Rahy in 1999. She produced a filly which was sent to race in Italy after being knocked down to her vendor as a yearling. Named Wigman, the filly won from a mile to 1 3/8 miles. Wigman's talented half-brother Jiyush (Generous) stayed even better, one of his wins coming over 2 1/4 miles, and another half-brother, Historic (Sadler's Wells), was a good staying hurdler. These two, though, were by stallions which stayed a good deal better than Rahy.

Worthadd had only a short head to spare at the end of the Derby Italiano over 1 3/8 miles, and he seems much more at home around a mile. Much the same could have been said of his admirable sire Dubawi, even though this son of Dubai Millennium stayed well enough to fill third place behind Motivator in the Derby.

I think it is fair to say that breeders had fleeting doubts about Dubawi during those difficult third and fourth seasons. After covering plenty of mares at Dalham Hall Stud in his first two years at a fee of £25,000, Dubawi was switched to Ireland to stand his third season at a fee of €40,000. That season resulted in 72 foals, as opposed to 118 in his first crop and 115 in his second. Switching him back to Dalham Hall and reducing his fee to £15,000 in his fourth season didn't help, as his book totalled 68.

Fortunately, Dubawi's first runners quickly dispelled any doubts about his ability and he was greatly in demand in 2010. With his fee raised to £55,000 in 2011, following the Group 1 or Group 2 victories of Makfi, Poet's Voice, Monterosso, Irish Field, Prince Bishop, Sand Vixen and Worthadd, there are currently only two English-based stallions standing at a higher fee.

America is beginning to see some of Dubawi's progeny, with Dubawi Heights winning the GIII Wilshire H. and yesterday's GI Gamely S. and Surrey Star the La Puente S. His stock continues to shine in Europe, where Perfect Tribute has become his 13th group winner from his first two European crops (14th if you include the Hong Kong Group 1 winner Lucky Nine). His 22 stakes winners also include Dubawi Gold, runner-up in both the English and Irish 2,000 Guineas, and Havane Smoker, runner-up in the French equivalent.

It looks as though Dubawi is suited by mares from the Blushing Groom line. Havane Smoker and Worthadd are both out of Rahy mares, whereas Surrey Star is out of a granddaughter. Dubawi's surprisingly fast daughter Astrophysical Jet is out of a Rainbow Quest mare.

Breeders therefore have an alternative route to two others which have already proved themselves. One is the Danzig line, which has enjoyed stakes success with Poet's Voice, Makfi, Dubawi Gold, Lucky Nine, Perfect Tribute and Frankenstein, and the other is the Nijinsky line, which has produced three group winners in Anna Salai, Irish Field and Dubawi Heights.

NEWS TODAY

GAMING BILL PASSES ILLINOIS HOUSE Illinois took a huge step toward expanding gambling Monday when the state's House approved a bill that would permit slot machines at its racetracks, including Arlington Park and Hawthorne Racecourse. The major package also included provisions for a land-based casino in Chicago, up to four more casinos around the state, and slot machines at Chicago's two airports. The bill, approved by a 65-50 vote, now goes to the Senate. Gov. Pat Quinn would ultimately have to sign the measure into law, though it is unclear whether he supports the legislation. The bill has one prominent backer in Chicago's new mayor, Rahm Emanuel, who said in a statement, "I am pleased that the Illinois House has approved legislation that allows for a casino in Chicago, and I urge the Illinois Senate to act swiftly to pass this bill. A Chicago casino will spur local economic growth and provide jobs to Chicagoans, both needed to get our city moving again. The Chicago Tribune reported that Arlington Heights Rep. David Harris, in whose district Arlington Park sits, said that he would reluctantly support the legislation, noting that the shuttering of Arlington Park would cost Arlington Heights a million dollars in year in revenues.

Dean's Kitten was looking for his first victory since taking last year's GII Lane's End S. The chestnut moved back to the turf after a 14th-place effort in the 2010 GI Kentucky Derby with his best finish a third, disqualified to fourth, in the GII American Derby in July. He was second over synthetic tracks in Turfway's Tejano Run S. Mar. 19 and again in Keeneland's GIII Ben Ali S. last time out Apr. 23. Back on the grass and favored to get back into the winner's circle, Dean's Kitten broke on top from the rail and set a moderate pace before sneaking away from the field into the stretch and was easily the best in a confident victory. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Grandacious concluded her juvenile season by attempting to wire the field in the GIII Delta Princess S. at Delta Downs, but was caught near the wire and settled for third, beaten 3/4 of a length for all of the marbles. Second in the My Trusty Cat S. at the same track Jan. 14, the bay was thoroughly drubbed as the 6-5 chalk in Oaklawn's Martha Washington S. Feb. 12, and faded to fifth in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks Mar. 26. Dropped back to six furlongs in a local allowance Apr. 24, Grandacious lived up to her name with a front-running, 12 1/4-length triumph, and was odds-on here. Off a step slowly, the crowd's choice settled in third, made her move approaching the stretch and was always holding Attache at bay. Motovato, third in last year's GII Gulfstream Park Sprint Championship and second in the GII Gulfstream Park H., went to the sidelines after winning the Sumter S. at this track last May. He resurfaced exactly a year late to run second in a May 1 optional claimer last time out. First or second in all eight of his Calder outings, the bay chased the pace before sticking his head in front after three-quarters in 1:13.36 and opened a clear lead in upper stretch before holding sway late over Mambo Meister. "It was tough getting back to where he is now off a year layoff," admitted winning trainer Marty Wolfson. "Ideally, I would have gotten another race into him before this one, but he ran very well. I was getting him ready for this race last year. There really wasn't a specific physical problem, but he just wasn't right and I stopped on him. I've got a small division at Monmouth now and I'll send him up there where there are more opportunities." Winning rider Luis Saez added, "We got a perfect trip. I thought the early pace would be faster, but it didn't develop so we just ran along comfortably in second most of the way. I let my horse run up to challenge around the last turn and the favorite, Jackson Bend, came with us, but my horse was doing it all on his own. Once I started to encourage him, he was able to open up." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The 5-2 third choice, adding blinkers for this fourth go, saved ground along the rail while stalking the early pace. He pulled his way between foes to challenge for the lead leaving the backstretch, took a slim advantage into the lane and was headed by Joey Whispers (Langfuhr), but battled back and inched clear to win by 1 3/4 lengths. Savannah Bay (Mineshaft) nosed out Joey Whispers for second. The winner was a $250,000 KEESEP yearling. He was claimed for $50,000 from his breeder WinStar Farm and trainer Bill Mott out of a fourth-place finish over Keeneland's all-weather track Apr. 10. The 3-1 shot broke from the outside post in the 11-horse field and angled over to rate in mid-pack. He moved into contention on the final turn and took charge with authority in upper stretch en route to a 3 1/4-length victory. Legend of Navarone (War Front), who made a big move to take the lead into the stretch, was second. Three Hundred (Smart Strike), bumped at the start, never got on track and finished 10th. CHRB Institutes Random Drug Testing for Jockeys:

During their monthly meeting last Thursday, the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) approved a rule to allow random drug testing of jockeys. The rule calls for a random drawing of no more than nine names once during each race meet in California, with two drawings taking place if the meet lasts more than six months. Jockeys will also undergo drug screening during their mandatory annual physicals. According to a release from the CHRB, Chairman Keith Brackpool has reported that the Medication and Track Safety Committee is considering implementing similar rules for other track personnel and/or racing officials.
