SECOND CHANCES

Things did not happen for Carlton House (Street Cry {Ire}) at Epsom, but another day brings another opportunity, and he bids to provide a Royal Classic victory in today's G1 Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby at The Curragh. Beset with a late training setback, The Queen's Darley-bred colt did not aid his cause with a tardy start in the June 4 "Blue Riband." Despite having to race wide around Tattenham Corner and make up considerable ground, he still managed a game third with just three racing plates intact at the finish. Sir Michael Stoute has kept his usual counsel since that day, but the G2 Dante S. winner must have been giving all the right signals under wraps in Newmarket. His owner's racing advisor John Warren revealed that the bay has had a trouble-free run-up. "It's all very exciting, and we're thrilled that the horse has come out of Epsom extremely well," Warren told PA Sport. "It should be a fascinating race, with much of the field from Epsom, apart from the winner, converging on Ireland. It will be interesting to see what these 3-year-olds will do with themselves, and it will interesting to see who has come out of Epsom best. Most of them were unexposed horses going into the Derby, and the margins have been close enough. What we are excited about is that we hope all those little issues that he had going into the Derby are now behind him. I don't think there are any concerns about the trip, the ground or the course. We are just hopeful that he's progressed enough to find himself in front when it counts. I think it's the first Royal runner in the Irish Derby, and it would be a great achievement for the Queen in her career as a racehorse owner to have a Derby winner--that is what we are rooting for." Coolmore foiled the Royal runner three weeks ago and have strong claims of repeating the dose, with a quartet in the race the operation has won 10 times since 1997, including the last six. Aidan O'Brien is looking for a sixth consecutive success with three of the four stable representatives from Epsom, alongside Classic winner Roderic O'Connor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Cont. p2

OH MOMMA!

Edward. P. Evans homebred Buster's Ready (More Than Ready), a smart second in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico May 20, announced her presence with authority in the sophomore filly division with a decisive 4 1/4-length triumph over favored Joyful Victory (Tapit) in Belmont's G1 Mother Goose S. The win marked prominent sire More Than Ready (Southern Halo)'s first Grade I victory in the Northern Hemisphere. "She's been steadily improving all winter and spring, and she's a filly we always felt wanted more distance," trainer Todd Pletcher offered. "Her last race was sort of a breakthrough race for her, and she's kind of finding her rhythm now. She's putting it all together and [it's helped] being able to steadily get some route races. We'll see how she comes out of it; I think the next logical step is the [GI TVG] Coaching Club [American Oaks at Saratoga July 23]." Cont. p6

SCRAPING THE PAINT

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Moss's Zazu (Tapit) gamely went through a narrow opening along the rail at the top of the stretch, and rolled past Plum Pretty (Medaglia d'Oro) to deliver a 1 1/2-length victory in the GII Hollywood Oaks. Cont. p8

Port in a storm!

45 first-crop winners so far, including classy Graded Stakes winner May Day Rose. His second crop is headed by undefeated Stakes winner Banner Bill.

While G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Roderic O'Connor has stamina to prove following a latest eighth in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly June 5, his trio of stablemates are certain to relish this test of staying power. Six of Ballydoyle's eight Irish Derby heroes came here on the back of a run at Epsom, and all are worthy of maximum respect from the stable responsible for filling the trifecta on three separate occasions since 2002, as well as providing the one-two in 2009. Memphis Tennessee (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) bids to emulate his sire's success six years ago, and is still an unexposed type who is open to improvement on his fourth in the June 4 Classic. He made most of the running on that occasion, and with a lead on softer ground could shake up his better-fancied stable companions Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and Seville (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}). Both are looking to repeat the feat of their sires, who turned this into a procession 10 years ago and has already produced two winners from Coolmore. Treasure Beach entered the Derby an outsider, but he was only a head behind Pour Moi (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) at the line, and his prior G3 Chester Vase win has been given weight by the success of that May 5 trial's runner-up Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in last week's G2 King Edward VII S. Seville, who was runner-up to Carlton House in the May 12 G2 Dante S. at York, did not show up in the "Blue Riband" and trailed in 10th, but has the same profile as the yard's 2008 winner Frozen Fire (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}).

IRISH DERBY BREEDERS

ASHLEY HOUSE STUD - Treasure Beach (GB) Owners Brian and Jane Hammond purchased the current Ashley House Stud property in the East Devon village of Dalwood, England, when it was still a dairy farm in 1986, and made the necessary renovations. Ashley House also races under a partnership in the name of Ashley House Racing. The dam of Treasure Beach, Honorine (Ire) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), is still owned by the Hammonds, and will be bred back to New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Teresa & John Connaughton

JOHN CONNAUGHTON - Dunboyne Express (Ire) Connaughton is a retired businessman and a keen rider and huntsman. Originally from Dublin, he made his money in developing and building during the boom. Involved in racing in the past, he took a hiatus, and returned to the sport in earnest 10 years ago. Connaughton's bloodstock interests are based at Barrettstown Stud in Mullingar, Co. Westmeath. Dunboyne Express's dam Love Excelling (Fr) (Polish Precedent) is part of Connaughton's current 10-strong broodmare roster. The half-sister to Love Divine (GB) (Diesis {GB}), dam of Sixties Icon (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), was purchased for 220,000gns at the 2003 Tattersalls December Sale. Connaughton is selling a Raven's Pass half-brother to Dunboyne Express at this fall's Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. He also bred the 2008 G3 Athasi S. winner Prima Luce (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Dunboyne Express is named after a train station that was built beside a plot of land he owns.

Sheikh Mohammed

DARLEY - Carlton House Darley is division of the Thoroughbred racing operation of Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, who became the Ruler of Dubai in 2006. He is also prime minister and vice president of the UAE. Sheikh Mohammed rode as a child, and visited his first racecourse while studying in England in 1967. Ten years later, he celebrated his first win as an owner. Sheikh Mohammed gave The Queen four yearlings as a sign of appreciation after she gave him the runner Highland Glen (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) to race in Dubai. Carlton House was one of the quartet. Headquartered at Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket, which was purchased in 1981, Darley acquired Kildangan Stud in Ireland five years later, and expanded to the U.S. and Australia in 2001. There is also an arm in Japan.

GILLES & ALIETTE FORIEN - Native Khan (Fr) Gilles Forien, chairman of Le-Pin-au-Haras Racecourse, sold the French bloodstock agency FIPS in 2009. His wife, Aliette, is the great-granddaughter of Gabriel Guerlain, who founded Haras de Montaigu in 1903. The stud farm, 360 acres in the Le Merlerault region in France, has been run by four generations of the Guerlain family, with Aliette taking over in 1984 and turning the operation, now called Haras de la Reboursiere & Montaigu, into a commercial enterprise focused on sales yearlings. She also stands a roster of five stallions.

Richard C. Strauss

KILFRUSH STUD - Memphis Tennessee (Ire) Headed by Dallas, Texas, real estate developer Richard C. Strauss, the 300-acre Kilfrush Stud Ltd. in Knocklong, Co. Limerick, Ireland, is the birthplace of Strauss's 1986 Breeder's Cup Mile champion Last Tycoon (Ire) (Try My Best). The farm formerly stood stallions What a Guest (Ire) (Be My Guest) and Exactly Sharp (Sharpen Up {GB}), but now operates primarily as a broodmare operation with limited racing stock. Kilfrush Stud also works closely with neighboring Knocktoran Stud.

Walter Haefner

MOYGLARE STUD - Notable Graduate (Ire) Moyglare Stud was founded by the Swiss-born billionaire Walter Haefner. Born Sept. 13, 1910, Haefner will celebrate his 101st birthday this year. Haefner began his far-flung business empire owning car dealerships in England and Switzerland. In the 1950s, he recognized the importance that computers would have in the industry, and was one of the first in the country to import an IBM computer system. A few years later, he launched Automation Center A.G., a computer services company. Haefner still owns AMAG Automobil-und Moteren, a highly successful Swiss automobile dealership chain. He purchased Moyglare Stud Farm, sitting on 440 acres in Maynooth, Co. Kildare, Ireland, in 1962. Horses owned or bred by Moyglare include the Classic winners Assert (Ire), Bikala (Ire), Refuse to Bend (Ire), Trusted Partner and GI Belmont S. winner Go and Go (Ire), as well as the likes of Group/Grade I winners Brief Truce, Dress to Thrill (Ire), Media Puzzle and Relaxed Gesture (Ire). Last year, Haefner was recognized by Forbes as the world's oldest living billionaire. In 2008, Haefner's daughter Eva-Marie Bucher Haefner took over the running of Moyglare.

Robert Sangster

SWETTENHAM STUD - Roderic O'Connor (Ire) Swettenham Stud is owned by the estate of the late Robert Sangster, who died of pancreatic cancer in 2004 at the age of 67. His three sons--Adam, Guy and Ben--have carried on the prestigious operation, though on a smaller, restructured scale. Ben manages Swettenham's Northern Hemisphere operation from the family's Manton estate in Wiltshire, England, while Adam owns and manages the farm's Australian division. Robert was the son of Vernon Sangster, founder of the Vernon Soccer Pools. Robert inherited the business and sold it in 1987 for a reported $151.2 million. In the 1970s, Sangster joined forces with trainer Vincent O'Brien and Coolmore's John Magnier to develop commercially profitable sires from the horses they raced. The men revolutionized the breeding industry, pioneering the shuttling of stallions to the Southern Hemisphere and building Coolmore Stud into an international powerhouse. Horses carrying Sangster's famed green, blue and white silks included Sadler's Wells, Storm Bird, Alleged, The Minstrel and El Grand Senor.

TATTERSALLS LTD - Seville (Ger) Silverskaya (Silver Hawk), a multiple Group 3 winner in France in 2004, was offered in foal to Galileo (Ire) at Tattersalls December in 2007. Though she was hammered down to agent Charlie Gordon-Watson for 750,000gns, the money never actually never changed hands, and the auction house assumed ownership of the mare. The Derby contender has a 2-year-old full-brother named Lebron (Ire), who is listed as being bred by Rhinestone Bloodstock & Lynch-Bages Ltd.

EL CORREDOR

Two Year Old filly, Little Ms Protocol, sizzles through fractions of :21 3/5ths and :44 and 1/5th to win the Princess Stakes at Louisiana Downs.

Buster's Ready has come a long way since graduating for a $50,000 tag at the Big A last November. A runaway winner in a starter allowance over the inner track Feb. 16, she placed a close third as the heavy favorite in Aqueduct's Out Ruled S. Mar. 13, then won for fun in an off-the-turf allowance Apr. 13. The bay showed further improvement in the Black-Eyed Susan, posting a career-high 96 Beyer when second to "TDN Rising Star" Royal Delta (Empire Maker). Pressing the early pace set by Salty Strike (Smart Strike) here, Buster's Ready battled on between foes at the head of affairs and took off nicely in the stretch after a series of left-handers by John Velazquez to win in style. "We like nice surprises," Velazquez said. "She ran huge. I didn't think I was going to be on the lead, that's for sure. We were planning that I was going to be second or third. But she was doing it so comfortably. She was running the last part!" Alseera (Distorted Humor), a winner of two straight, was uncontrollable in the early stages beneath Alan Garcia and was subsequently pulled up as she bolted to the outer rail.

Sent off the second choice in the face of strong support for the visiting Midday, Misty For Me rebounded from a latest fifth in the G1 Epsom Oaks to show her elder a clean pair of hooves here. Sent straight to the lead by regular partner Seamus Heffernan, the G1 Moyglare Stud S., G1 Prix Marcel Bousac and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine kept turning the screw in the straight as Tom Queally started to send out distress signals on the hot favorite. In no danger from the quarter pole, the blaze-faced bay was allowed to cruise to the line with her ears pricked for an emphatic score. Misty For Me is set to try a mile and a half again now, despite her latest run in the June 3 Epsom Classic. Trainer Aidan O'Brien stated that the July 17 G1 Irish Oaks was on her agenda. "We are delighted with that, and Seamie gave her a wonderful ride," the Ballydoyle conditioner said. "She had the form in the book and things just didn't work out at Epsom, but we learnt a lot from that, and it was her first try at a mile and a half. The Irish Oaks is very much a possibility."

Court of the Realm was beaten just a head in his turf debut here second out last August, and returned to be third later that month, but the light switch came on when he returned to the Polytrack Sept. 18--he romped by 6 1/4 lengths. The bay got on a roll after that, taking a first-level allowance by 3 1/4 lengths in October and a salty $62,500 optional claimer by 5 1/2 lengths in November, earning a 98 Beyer Speed Figure. Court of the Realm picked right up where he left off May 22 after wintering at trainer Peter Berringer's farm in nearby Rockwood, cruising to a 3 3/4-length victory in a seven-furlong off-the-turf optional claimer over GSW Jungle Wave (Hold That Tiger). Whether it was the surface switch, the expected pace scenario or the step up in class, the 4-year-old was ignored in the wagering as he sought his fifth-straight trip to the winner's circle, and he made his doubters pay. Stalking from the pocket behind splits of :24 flat and :47 flat set by Fifty Proof and defending champ Grand Adventure (Grand Slam), Court of the Realm tipped out for clear sailing at the top of the lane. He ground out the win once his head was in front, and would not allow a resilient Fifty Proof to come back on him. Society's Chairman came from very far back to complete the trifecta. "I really like this horse...and he just gets better and better," said Berringer. "We really had nowhere to go, but we had to run, so we said we'd give it try and see what he can do in the future. He's the best [I've ever trained]. We'll take a break for a month--I'll talk to the owners and see what they want to do [next] and make a decision."

The regally bred Giants Play (click for TDN pedigree note), a maiden winner at fifth asking over Kempton's all-weather last September for trainer Michael Stoute, failed to get her picture taken in her next five attempts. Third in a Gulfstream allowance in her first try for the Christophe Clement barn Feb. 18, she followed with a third in the GIII Orchid S.

Mar. 20 and a second behind Hibaayeb in the GII Sheepshead Bay S. May 28. Sent to the front here, the Newsells Park Stud colorbearer walked through glacial fractions of :26.34 and :52.99, and had just enough left in the tank to collect her valuable first stakes victory. The winner's dam Playful Act (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) set a then-record for a broodmare when selling for $10.5 million to John Ferguson at the 2007 Keeneland November sale. "Rajiv [Maragh] gave her a great ride," Clement commented. "Very well bred, so to win a graded stakes was a goal this year. Where do we go next? I don't have a clue. It's an amazing pedigree, and she's obviously a very valuable mare." An equipment change helped Giants Play take it to the next level. "She was rank last time and was fighting too much," Clement added. "This time we ran her with a net [over her nose], put her on the lead, and she was a lot more relaxed. She ran a very game race. The net sits on their nostrils and, for some, it relaxes them."

second in the GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 5, then received a break. A good third in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 6, the gray lined up as the second-choice in this four-horse affair. Zazu bided her time in third as Plum Pretty tracked loose-on- the-lead Wallstreeter (Street Cry {Ire}) through fractions of :23.48,

:47.02 and 1:12 flat. Joel Rosario opted to squeeze through with Zazu on the rail to pass the tiring front-runner, while Plum Pretty challenged on the outside. Plum Pretty was doing best in upper stretch, but Zazu soon powered by to take it in style. "It was pretty tight down on the inside, but [David Flores on Wallstreeter] left the rail open enough for me to get through," jockey Joel Rosario revealed. "I was able to keep my eye on Plum Pretty the whole race because I knew she was the one to beat. I waited on the inside until the last possible moment. I saw the hole open and took it from there. If [Flores] didn't move out a little, I would have had to go around."

outside, the bargain FTKOCT yearling came charging as the wire loomed to get up for a narrow victory. She becomes the first stakes winner for her freshman sire (by Holy Bull), and gave trainer Garry Simms a reason to smile. Simms, who has been battling melanoma since 2010, said, "I've had two bone marrow transplants and stem cells since December, but I'm doing well now." He added, "She's a nice filly, has a ton of heart and does everything right." Flashy Lassie opened her account with a nine-length tally against $20,000 maiden claimers under the Twin Spires May 13. Her dam, Lemon Pop Lassie, was bought by breeder Hugh King III for $40,000 as a KEESEP yearling, but failed to hit the board in three career starts. Flashy Lassie is her first foal. King, a Lexington native, worked on horse farms in Kentucky before starting his own commercial breeding operation in 1974. He operated Kings Way Farm near Paris for many years, but sold the farm and reduced the broodmare band from a high of 30, and now has three mares. Lemon Pop Lassie has a yearling filly by Artie Schiller and a filly of 2011 by U S Ranger.

Sidelined thereafter, the Zayat Stables colorbearer resurfaced to annex a Hollywood allowance May 29, and was backed as the third choice in his graded debut here. Placed in second through fractions of :23.18 and :46.83, he hit the gas on the far turn, gained the lead at the top of the stretch, and outslugged local hope Sherriff Cogburn to the wire. Little Miss Holly, third in the Silverbulletday S. at Fair Grounds Jan. 22, reported home a well-beaten ninth behind Daisy Devine (Kafwain) in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks Mar. 26. Third in an off-the-turf Keeneland allowance Apr. 22, the chestnut followed with a win in an allowance at Churchill Downs last time May 19. Taking another crack at graded company here, Little Miss Holly stalked the early leaders in third through a half mile in :47.10, gained command at the top of the stretch and drew off to collect her first stakes trophy. Daisy Devine, backed as the 1-2 chalk, tired to finish a well-beaten fifth.

Summer Soiree posted just a 6-1-0-3 record last year for Cindy Jones at Delaware, but returned a new horse down at Oaklawn over the winter when the conditioner's husband Larry Jones returned from retirement and took over as listed trainer. The bay annexed a Jan. 30 allowance in Hot Springs by 9 3/4 lengths, and romped by 10 3/4 lengths in the GIII Bourbonette Oaks at Turfway Mar. 26. Barry Irwin's Team Valor International then purchased Summer Soiree from Brereton and Bret Jones and Wahoo Partners, with GI Kentucky Oaks glory in mind, but the speedster set the pace May 6 before fading to 10th in her first try for Graham Motion. In her usual spot on the engine here after rating briefly, the bay led through a comfortable half in :48.58 and six furlongs in 1:12.12. She poured it on in lane, leaving her next-best foe 8 1/2 lengths in her wake. "She's been doing great since being in Maryland," said Motion. "She's a real handful around the barn in the morning. When I saw her move to the lead early, I was a little worried, but I guess for no reason. I was happy to see her relax. Having sat off horses early on is going to help her a lot down the road. She's a very talented filly, and today was a very impressive performance." Rider Gabriel Saez added, "That was really something. She's something special."

Settled in mid-division from the gate here, the chestnut moved up to stalk the reluctant leader Admiral of the Red on the home turn and, after being pushed to the front at the quarter pole, surged clear to hammer his rivals. "We thought that he was very unlucky at Pontefract on Sunday when he was knocked over coming with a run," trainer Ed Dunlop commented. "We knew he'd like this type of ground and we knew he'd stay well. He was very impressive today. He belongs to Ronnie Arculli, who is based in Hong Kong, and we've discussed things like the G1 Melbourne Cup [at Flemington Nov. 1] and we'll consider the G1 Irish St Leger [at The Curragh Sept. 10] on this type of ground. Experience produced an eye-catching display when a strong-closing runner-up to Somasach over five furlongs at Tipperary June 1, and duly opened her account as expected next time over this trip at Navan a fortnight later. She was settled in rear early by a confident Wayne Lordan, and her jockey let the leading quartet fight it out before unleashing her widest of all to take command from 150 yards out, asserting for a comfortable tally. Winning trainer David Wachman said, "She is a filly with plenty of speed and a touch of class, but wants better ground than this, like a lot by her sire. She is very straightforward, with plenty of size and strength and a high cruising speed. She is in all the big races, and might step up to seven later on for the G1 Moyglare Stud S. Successful in the Listed Abernant S. at Newmarket on his seasonal return Apr. 14, Genki was not helped by the draw when seventh in the G2 Duke of York S. at York May 11, and was reportedly unsuited by the loose ground when eighth in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot a week previously. Slowly away and racing towards the tail of the field initially, the veteran moved up menacingly on the heels of the leaders passing the quarter pole. Urged past Regal Parade soon after, the chestnut was driven to overcome Doncaster Rover in the photo. "He traveled well and I got a great tow into the race," jockey George Baker explained. "I thought that Regal Parade would lead me for a little bit longer and I had to push my way out a bit, but he's done it well. I've never ridden him before, but Steve Drowne said he can miss the break, but don't worry and let him warm into the race. I might have won a little bit farther if I'd followed the second horse through."

Libranno enjoyed a highly profitable juvenile season, taking the six-furlong G2 July S. at this track and the G2 Richmond S. at Goodwood over the same trip later that month. Second on his sophomore debut in the G3 Craven S. over a mile on this town's other venue Apr. 14, the bay ran fourth in the Listed Pavilion S. back at six at Ascot Apr. 27 and third in the Listed Leisure S. also over that trip at Windsor last time May 23. Racing in front hard against the stand's-side rail as the field spread across the track through the opening exchanges. He was shaken up with three furlongs to race and driven out to lead his favored group home. Richard Hannon Jr. said, "I think it was a big advantage Ryan [Moore] getting a nice run up this near side. I thought Pausanias was going the better of the two through the race, but they're two very good horses. We'll probably go for the [July 26] G2 Lennox S. at Goodwood from here. It's the next logical step for both of them. Pausanias wants top of the ground, and Libranno looks back to his best. He's been a long time out of the winner's enclosure, and it's been a tough time for him, as it is for 3-year-olds that were good 2-year-olds." Click for the Racing Post chart or the [brisnet.com PPs. Juddmonte Big Guns Readied...

Khalid Abdullah's Workforce (GB) (King's Best) and Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) were the subject of upbeat bulletins yesterday ahead of their respective upcoming targets. The former, who is set to go head-to-head with So You Think (NZ) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in Saturday's G1 Coral-Eclipse at Sandown, pleased connections in his workout yesterday. "He's in good form and worked nicely this morning," the owner-breeder's racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe said of the Sir Michael Stoute trainee. "Everyone seemed very pleased--he picked up his lead horse nicely, so we're happy with him, and he's heading to Sandown." After adding that Workforce's group-winning stable companion Confront (GB) (Nayef) would join him in the 10-furlong contest, Grimthorpe turned his attentions to Frankel. "The G1 Sussex S. [at Goodwood July 27] looks to be the general idea," he added. "He came out of the Ascot race fine and is in good nick and, at this moment, we would be heading there. All the decisions are made in the best interest of the horse and where we think he best fits, so it looks a realistically nice target."

5	4	Sarafina (Fr)	Refuse To Bend (Ire)	Lemaire	deRyr-Dpre

All carry 128 pounds, bar Sarafina, 125.

This represents a straightforward task for Sarafina, who is looking for a third win at the top level after her exploits in last year's G1 Prix Saint-Alary and G1 Prix de Diane. Third in the G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in the fall, the homebred was runner-up in the G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp on her seasonal debut Apr. 30, where Cirrus des Aigles was a length behind in third. She tackled a left-handed track with aplomb for the first time when annexing the May 23 G2 Prix Corrida here in her latest, and defeat will be a disappointing outcome here. There is a possibility that Cirrus des Aigles is still improving and, after the Ganay, he went within a neck of beating Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) in the May 22 G1 Prix d'Ispahan over an extended nine furlongs at Longchamp. On a line through the Prix Corrida runner-up Announce (GB) (Selkirk), he should not be able to reverse form with Sarafina, as he did not have as much in hand of that filly when beating her in the 10-furlong G3 la Coupe back at Longchamp last time June 13. Silver Pond upset Behkabad (Fr) (Cape Cross {Ire}) when in receipt of seven pounds from that rival in the June 5 G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly, but is up against it in this category.

The reigning JRA Horse of the Year now two years running, Buena Vista is your likely favorite here. The 5-year-old mare, trained by Hiroyoshi Matsuda from Ritto Training Centre, was beaten by last year's Filly Triple Crown winner Apapane (Jpn) (King Kamehaeha {Jpn}) in the G1 Victoria Mile last time, but a flat mile is not her optimal distance, and she should improve on the stretch-out as she goes in search of her sixth Group 1 win.

Buena Vista Japan Racing

Matsuda is confident of a turnaround. "There's no comparison to how she was for her last race," he said. "She wasn't sharp at all when she worked before [that race], but she's got her legs underneath her now and isn't uptight. She's relaxed. I don't think I've seen her this good in a long time. She's in top form. She might look a little heavy around the waistline, but she'll look fit when the race comes around. She's a far more intelligent horse than any of us can imagine. A year for a horse is about five years for a person. We'll have to see how that affects her. We owe it to win this one for the fans." The Kojiro Hashiguchi-trained Rose Kingdom, the defending G1 Japan Cup champ, finished 11th in the G1 Tenno Sho (Spring) last time, the worst outing of his career. His reluctance to settle in the 3200-meter race didn't help his cause, and Australian jockey Craig Williams hops aboard with the hopes of a smoother trip on firm track conditions that should prove to Rose Kingdom's liking. 8	5	Pagera (Fr)	Gentlewave (Ire)	Blondel	Fouin

All carry 123 pounds, bar Danedream, 128.

Danedream is burdened with a five-pound penalty courtesy of her latest win in the 11-furlong G2 Oaks d'Italia at the San Siro May 29, but the manner of that 6 1/2-length success suggests she is worthy of respect. Among the talented home brigade is the June 5 G3 Prix de Royaumont scorer Testosterone and the unbeaten Aga Khan homebred Shankardeh. The latter followed a debut win at Lyon-Parilly Apr. 29 with a smooth follow-up in a course-and-distance conditions event last time May 23, and could be anything. Andre Fabre has won this seven times since 1987, and relies on Avongrove, who needs to improve on a latest fourth behind Testosterone in the Royaumont.

All carry 127 pounds.

Aidan O'Brien is looking for a remarkable 12th edition since 1997 and has the May 11 Naas conditions scorer Choir as his main contender, alongside the June 3 course-and-distance maiden scorer Vault. Standing in their way is Tough As Nails, who was a short-head second to Ballydoyle's G2 Coventry S. scorer Power (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the May 21 Listed Marble Hill S. over five furlongs here. The Richard Hannon trainee Lilbourne Lad spreadeagled the field on his last visit to these shores in the Listed Rochestown S. at Naas June 6, and his stable hold him in the highest regard. "Lilbourne Lad has done nothing wrong and is arguably unlucky not to go there unbeaten, as he did not stretch them enough when beaten at Newmarket," Hannon commented. "He then won a listed race very impressively at Naas and is in great nick, though our one worry is the rain-softened ground. He has so far only raced on good/fast ground, so we are going into the unknown, though we are optimistic that he will handle the conditions and, in any event, the forecast is for the weather to pick up."

Last year's G1 Deutsches Derby third and G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit winner Russian Tango was a latest neck second to Night Magic (Ger) (Sholokhov {Ire}) in the G2 Grosser Preis der Badischen Unternehmen over 11 furlongs June 5. Lucas Cranach, who was demoted to second in the Listed Prix Bedel at Lyon-Parilly last time May 25, rates a threat, as does the consistent Sir Lando. He was runner-up to the top domestic runner Scalo (Ger) (Lando {Ger}) in the G2 Gerling-Preis over this trip at Cologne May 8, and was in that same spot after the G3 Stockholms Stora Pris over a near 10-furlong trip at Taby on his latest outing May 31.

Essence Hit Man was unsuccessful in his first turf try, fading to seventh when racing seven panels in an allowance test in August of 2009. The 4-year-old gelding gives it another go here. The winner of a pair of Canadian-bred sprint stakes last year, he was a distant second in the GII Amsterdam S. at the Spa. The Cappuccitti homebred was third in a pair of starts at Woodbine in September to cap the campaign, and returned after a six-month layoff to take the Jacques Cartier S. on the local Poly Apr. 17. Second after setting the pace in the GIII Vigil S. at seven panels, he shortens up in his second grass attempt. Signature Red defends his title in this event. The 5-year-old was off the board in his next three outings, but rebounded to run second in an allowance on Halloween and in the GIII Kennedy Road S. Nov. 20. Runner-up in the Jacques Cartier, he was most recently third to the top pick in the Vigil. Stormy Lord, on the board in six of eight last year, looks to make it two in a row in graded-stakes company. The gelding came back after 6 1/2 months on the bench to wire the field going seven furlongs on soft turf in the May 29 GII Connaught Cup.

Apr. 16, seeks his second straight win after a sharp tally in Woodbine's Marine S. May 21.

A 'STAR' TURN IN ESTRELLAS CLASSIC

By Diego Mitagstein

Star Runner (Arg) (Southern Halo) is the best horse in Argentina. He made that clear yesterday with a decisive victory in the 2000-meter G1 Gran Premio Estrellas Classic, crown jewel of the XXI edition of the Carreras de las Estrellas at San Isidro Racecourse in Argentina. The Classic, which like every other race on the card was contested over very soft turf, saw 5-year-old Star Runner sit two or three lengths off the solid pace of Cocho (Arg) (Sunray Spirit) before moving wide to challenge as they made the left-hand turn into the stretch. Under his own resolve, he took a narrow advantage in the straight while moving in tandem with Vitaminado (Arg) (Not for Sale {Arg}), shrugged off that rival 200 meters out and was given just a hands-and-heels ride to the wire. Gran Diogenes (Arg) (Incurable Optimist) closed resolutely to fill the place spot while never threatening the winner.

Star Runner was bred by Haras La Quebrada, whose former owner, the late Hernan Ceriani Cernadas, was one of the founders of the Fundacion Equina Argentina, the organizer of the series, and who is honored at every Classic. That gave the victory added meaning to his son, Hernan Jr., a feeling shared by winning jockey Jose Ricardo Mendez. "This is a great horse with a lot of class," said the rider. "He made the trip without any kind of problems and, in the stretch, finished in a great form. Undoubtedly, he is one of the best horses I have ridden."

Suggestive Boy (center)
Marcelo Sarachi/Turf Diario

In the 1600-meter G1 Juvenile, Suggestive Boy (Arg) (Easing Along) rebounded from his disappointing fifth-place try in the G1 Gran Premio Gran Criterium to beat Escape of Glory (Arg) (Lode) by a short neck, with Rabid In the Rye (Arg) (Catcher in the Rye {Ire}) another short neck behind in third. The victory likely secures him the title as Argentina's champion 2-year-old colt. Brazilian champion rider Jorge Ricardo can be given much credit for the success of the colt, who was bred by Jorge Cardemil's Haras Futuro and who runs in the colors of Jose Cerrillo's Haras Pozo de Luna.

"Suggestive Boy had 10 kilos more in his last race, and that was the reason he failed," explained winning trainer Alfredo Gaitan Dassie. "Today the colt was perfect, and he showed it."

In the 1600-meter G1 Gran Premio Estrellas Juvenile Fillies, Gamuza Fina (Arg) (Equal Stripes {Arg}) made her first start over San Isidro's sod and remained undefeated, beating Personal Dot (Arg) (Not for Sale {Arg}) by a half-length. Bred by Alejandro and Julio Menditeguy's Haras Abolengo, the winner has the same sire and breeder as Coordenada (Arg), who captured this race a year ago. The Juvenile Fillies was essentially a match race between Gamuza Fina and Personal Dot, and was resolved only in the final meters, when the chestnut Gamuza Fina forged to a narrow lead.

Gamuza Fina (#3)
Marcelo Sarachi/Turf Diario

The biggest upset on the card came in the G1 Gran Premio Estrellas Distaff, when Jumbalaya (Arg) (Pure Prize) gave Stud-Haras La Providencia its third consecutive victory in the race, after the successes of Ollagua (Arg)--also by Pure Prize --in 2009 and 2010. Jumbalaya, trained by the Brazilian Jose Martins Alves, beat Tattoum (Arg) (Lode) by three lengths, with heavy favorite Malpensa (Arg) (Orpen) another four lengths adrift in third. Catch the Mad (Arg) (Catcher In the Rye {Ire}), Argentina's reigning Mare of the Year, could do no better than fourth.

Cafrune (Arg) (Colonial Affair) may be just four, but was a seasoned veteran with 13 wins in 36 starts heading into yesterday's event. He proved the brightest star in the G1 Mile, coming from behind to beat Pick Out (Arg) (Brancusi) by 1 1/2 lengths. Cafrune is owned by Jose Mastellone's Stud S. de B. and was bred by Victoria and Patricio Duggan's Haras El Paraiso.

The final Group 1 on the Carreras de las Estrellas card was the 1000-meter G1 Sprint, where Uruguayan jockey Pablo Falero guided Evo Emperor (Arg) (Emperor Jones) to a two-length victory over favored Hidebound (Arg) (Grand Slam), with former Sprint champion El Noi (Arg) (Anjiz) in third. The win gave Juan Carlos Bago's Haras Firmamento its 100th Group 1 victory as breeder. Filoso Emperor (Arg) (Emperor Jones), morning-line favorite in the Sprint, was a late scratch after suffering an injury to his right front foot.

The ungraded Estrellas Junior Sprint and Clasico Provincias Argentinas were won by Benefactor (Arg) (Grand Reward) and Candy King (Arg) (King's Best), respectively.

NEWS TODAY

OPEN ENROLLMENT TO BC PROGRAM

CONCLUDES THURSDAY (Edited press release)

Deadline for Open Enrollment of previously non-nominated yearlings and horses of racing age to the Breeders' Cup program concludes Thursday, June 30. The Open Enrollment period is available to any previously non-nominated horse sired by any stallion standing anywhere in the world that has been nominated to the Breeders' Cup in 2011. Last year, the Breeders' Cup Board passed sweeping changes to its worldwide nomination program to increase the number of eligible runners for the 2011 Breeders' Cup World Championships. Among those changes was the offer of a special one-time, fee-based program this year for previously non-nominated horses.

The fee payment structure is as follows:

Yearlings (Born in 2010): $3,000

2-year-olds (Born in 2009): $6,000

3-year-old/older (Born in 2008 and earlier): $25,000

Upon expiration of the one-time open enrollment, the late nominations fees will revert to standard rates for horses that were not previously nominated (e.g., $100,000/$200,000--horses of racing age fee). "The open enrollment program is providing a great opportunity for North American owners, and those in the international market, to nominate their racing stock at extremely favorable prices," said Dora Delgado, Breeders' Cup senior vice president, racing and nominations. "We want to provide those who did not nominate under the previous system, especially in the yearling category at $3,000 per individual, and owners of 2-year-olds who want their runners in the new Juvenile Sprint, the chance to take advantage of the full benefits of the Breeders' Cup program." These newly nominated horses will experience the same benefits as those runners nominated as foals under the previous system. They will receive full eligibility to the redesigned Breeders' Cup Challenge "Win and You're In" Series. Any horse that wins a Challenge race in 2011, in addition to having an automatic starting position in the corresponding Championships race, will also have its entry fees paid and receive a travel allowance when they start in the Breeders' Cup World Championships, which offers $26 million in purses and awards. Additionally, foal nominators of every BC Challenge winner will receive a $10,000 nominator award. Non-nominated horses may be enrolled online at www.members.breederscup.com.

Eve Giselle was two-for-two as a juvenile in 2009, and made it three in a row in an optional claimer at Oaklawn Park in January of 2010. Third when making her black-type bow in the Martha Washington S. in Hot Springs that February, she was out of action for 13 months following that effort. The bay made a winning return in an optional test at Oaklawn Mar. 19, and was last seen finishing third by 3/4 of a length against similar in Arkansas Apr. 14. Sent through from the rail to vie for the early lead here, she lost the advantage as they came around the bend. Eve Giselle switched leads when they straightened for home and, after just one right-handed tap, accelerated away from odds-on Tar Heel Mom to post a handy score. She was making her career debut in stakes company, but that proved no obstacle to Brereton Jones's homebred Tu Endie Wei. Rated off the pace as Hope for a Win (Old Forester) jetted out to a daylight lead through a sizzling opening quarter in :20 3/5, the bay angled outside for the stretch drive, swept past the leg-weary leader and pulled away to win handily. Jockey Jim McAleney, who tapped the filly once and then took her in hand in the final yards, said, "I didn't want to rush her--I wanted her to have a nice introduction to racing. I let her do her thing, and it was talent that got her home." The final time for the five furlongs on the Poly was :56.93, two ticks off the track record. Tu Endie Wie is a half-sister to Canadian Horse of the Year Biofuel (Stormin Fever), who was a champion at two and three. Trainer Reade Baker, who also handled Biofuel, said that the younger sister had "come to hand" quicker than her Sovereign Award-winning sibling. And while she proved plenty quick enough to handle five furlongs, he has hopes that two turns will be within her scope. "Let's pray that, on Breeders' Cup day, [a route of ground] isn't a problem," Baker said. Jones bred the second dam, unraced Upper Dancer, with Warner L. Jones Jr. The sole breeder of dam Ms. Cornstalk, he sent her through the ring as a short yearling at KEEJAN 2005, but bought her back for $35,000. Ms. Cornstalk never made it to the races, but the decision to keep her has borne fruit in the breeding shed. She has a yearling filly by Flashy Bull and a colt of 2011 by Pulpit. Upperline galloped away to a 4 3/4-length score in the GIII Arlington Park Oaks last July, but disappeared after the victory. She made her return at Fair Grounds, running second in an off-the-turf optional claimer Feb. 5 before annexing a pair of stakes on the sod Feb. 26 and Mar. 26. Steadied at the start of the May 7 GII Distaff Turf Mile S. at Churchill Downs, she was hustled up to press the pace before fading to ninth. The bay was the 2-1 chalk in the GIII Arlington Matron S. three weeks later, but could do no better than an even fourth. Upperline was second choice in her Woodbine bow. Breaking on even terms with her four rivals, she was allowed to ease back while tucked inside early. She was content to trail the tightly bunched field down the backstretch, then edged off the rail and started to roll approaching the far turn. The 4-year-old filly was third at the top of the lane and drove past the leaders in the final furlong to win going away. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Clement Rock made one start for Malcolm Pierce at Fair Grounds over the winter, but didn't do much running, finishing last of 11 in an off-the-turf sprint Mar. 4. Given some time to regroup and turned over to Mark Casse, the Florida-bred switched to the turf in a June 10 affair over this sweeping course and earned his diploma with aplomb. Sent off as the second choice here, the Melnyk homebred bided his time early while moving comfortably behind splits of :24 1/5 and :48 1/5. He checked briefly in upper stretch before dashing to the inside--reminiscent of the move he made in his debut--and powered home like a freight train down on the rail once he saw daylight.

Clement Rock is the fourth foal from Ellesmere, who was purchased by Eugene Melnyk for $380,000 as a FTSAUG yearling. Though she bankrolled just $78,994, the stakes-placed chestnut has been a solid producer for Melnyk; her earlier foals include the talented sprinter Carnacks Choice and GSW Bridgetown. She has an unraced 2-year-old Broken Vow colt named Scotts Gap and a yearling Harlington filly, and foaled a full-sister to Bridgetown this season. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Jukebox Jury, who earned ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ status at two, annexed the G1 Preis Von Europa at Cologne in September 2009 and the G2 Jockey Club S. on the Rowley Mile here last May. Rested since running fourth in the G1 Deutschland Preis at Hamburg last July, the grey showed no signs of rustiness by breaking smartly. Allowed his own way up front from the outset, he was traveling much the best passing the three-furlong pole and kicked on soon after before sticking grimly to his task. "The ironic thing was that there was no obvious problem, he just didn't seem to be enjoying the game, and we decided to give him a break, let him out in a paddock and give him complete time off," trainer Mark Johnston explained. "As so often happens, that turned out to be a mistake, and we had a lot of problems bringing him back. He put on a lot of weight and had a stress fracture of the tibia, a common thing when you've let them down and the bones go a bit soft. It was a listed race, but there were Group 1 performers in there, and I'm very pleased to see him get his head back in front again." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Nationalism, gelded since finishing his 2010 campaign with a seventh place in the Listed Ben Marshall S. at Newmarket in October, pulled hard before running on strongly for fourth in the G3 Diomed S. on his seasonal debut at Epsom June 4, and again took a keen hold in midfield through the early stages here. Making smooth headway to take a gap outside the quarter pole, the homebred threw down his challenge in the final eighth and led at the post in a desperate finish. This renewal lost much interest with the late scratch of the impressive Pontefract maiden winner My Propeller (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) due to the rain-softened conditions, and it had an open feel beforehand. Lily's Angel went three-for-three in Chester's Lily Agnes Conditions S. May 4 before losing her unbeaten tag when third in Beverley's former-Listed Hilary Needler Trophy three weeks later. Up from five furlongs for the first time in Royal Ascot's G3 Albany S., the bay was a creditable fifth there before regaining the winning thread under a masterful ride here. Switched off early by Richard Hughes, she settled under cover in mid-pack and, after being produced on the stand's side, rolled by Pearl Diva in the final 50 yards to win snugly. Having spent much of the winter racing on the all-weather in both England and France over shorter trips, Tominator hinted at better to come over this trip with staying-on efforts in handicaps over 14 furlongs on the Rowley Mile May 14 and over a mile and a half at Hamilton last time June 8, finishing sixth and third, respectively. Dropped onto the rail from his wide box to race with one horse behind him as last year's winner Overturn (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) set a strong pace until the top of the stretch, the grey crept stealthily through the field as they continued up the Gosforth Park straight. Pushed to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs to race, he needed only a couple of backhanders from his apprentice rider to land this valuable prize. "It's a big moment, and it makes a change to get on a nice horse like this," jockey Paul Pickard said. "For Mr. Hollinshead to give me a chance to ride him in a race like this is brilliant. Mr. Hollinshead said to ride him as if he didn't get the trip, but he got the trip there alright." Video, courtesy attheraces.com.

Dominant, confined to two juvenile starts, followed a debut win over seven furlongs at Goodwood in September with an eighth placing behind Fury (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the £500,000 Tattersalls Millions 2YO Trophy over that trip on the Rowley Mile here the following month. Returning to be an unlucky second in a 10-furlong handicap at Sandown Apr. 24, the black colt ran fifth as the 13-8 favorite for Newbury's London Gold Cup H. last time May 14. Stepping up markedly on that effort on this rain-softened turf, he overcame early keenness when tracking the leading trio to take control passing the quarter pole and open up for an impressive success in a fast time. "He's a lovely horse and did it well today," trainer Roger Varian commented. "It was very quick ground at Newbury, and they didn't go quick and then sprinted, so at no stage did he look comfortable. We had good rain last night and getting his toe in suited him. I thought it was a pretty good field, and the handicapper will probably take us out of handicaps now. He's progressive, but is not a horse to run back quick and is best fresh." Video, courtesy Racing UK.
