

MUTUAL TRUST STAYS UNDEFEATED IN PRAT

Juddmonte's Mutual Trust (Fr) (Cacique {Fr}) made the most of slow early pace to outgun favored Zoffany (Ire) (Dansili {Ire}) and Strong Suit (Rahy) in a blanket finish in Sunday's G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly.

Sticking close to the restrained early leader Strong Suit,

Mutual Trust was in the right position when the sprint began at the top of the stretch, and headed the long-time leader soon after. Passed again by that rival inside the final furlong while Zoffany struggled to find top gear on his outer, the bay gave a final lunge that proved decisive as Strong Suit faltered and Zoffany ran out of real estate. "He is a very promising colt," racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe told PA Sport. "He showed lots of tenacity today as well, to go with his obvious class." Temps au Temps (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), sent off at 13-1 following a fourth in the May 15 G1 Poules d'Essai de Poulains, refused to race after walking out of the stalls. Cont. p2

MILLIONREASONSWHY TOPS MATRON

The slop-loving Millionreasonswhy (Grand Slam) was let go at 6-1, but ran like the odds-on choice when she came from off the pace to retain her unbeaten tag in Sunday's GII Matron S. at Belmont. Installed at the back of the pack in sixth through an opening quarter in

:22.84, the bay was barely three lengths removed from pacesetter Say a Novena (Songandaprayer). A few paths out while traveling down the backstretch and around the turn, through a half mile in :46.75, the Sagamore representative was fanned four wide turning for home, picked off the leading crew to hit the front midstretch and drove clear late to best Say a Novena by two lengths. Favored Defy Gravity (Bandini) wilted late to be fifth. "She wants longer," said winning trainer Ignacio Correas IV, "We always thought she was good. We chose to run her at Colonial [four-length winner going 5 1/2 furlongs in the slop June 11] to give her some experience. We knew that she had talent. She had a really bad break, but she won anyway. You cannot ask for a horse to do better than she did [in her first start], so why not give her a shot. We'll look at Saratoga; she will take us there. If she comes out good and does good, why not?" Cont. p2

Three-for-three after a course-and-distance debutantes contest May 2, a conditions race at Saint-Cloud May 18 and the G3 Prix Paul de Moussac back over this track and trip June 12, Mutual Trust was the second choice behind the G1 St James's Palace S. runner-up Zoffany. "He's a high-class horse," Teddy Grimthorpe told PA Sport. As for where the Juddmonte homebred might appear next, Grimthorpe added, "The options for Mutual Trust now are fairly obvious over a mile. There's the G1 Prix du Moulin [at Longchamp Sept. 11] and the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois [at Deauville Aug. 15], where I suppose we could meet Goldikova (Ire)." The winner's sire, Cacique, has suffered with fertility problems, and Mutual Trust is one of a limited first-season crop of about 30.

'JACK' ON TRACK IN FUTURITY

Jack's in the Deck (Love of Money) couldn't get a race to go in the maiden ranks at Delaware Park of late. However, trainer Robin Graham's decision to reroute to New York paid dividends as the juvenile romped home an easy four-length winner in Belmont's GII Futurity S. Sunday. Sent off at 14-1, the Maryland-bred settled in a stalking third behind leader Team Six (Lion Heart) through opening splits of :22.97 and :47.18. Ready to go turning for home, Jack's in the Deck took over at midstretch and galloped clear to get his first taste of black-type. "It worked out perfect," said winning trainer Robin Graham. "[There was] a lot of speed in there. I thought at the top of the stretch he was in good shape. I know he likes running at horses, so that was great." Partnering the colt for the first time was Monmouth Park's leading rider, Joe Bravo. "I didn't get too dirty," said Bravo. "I really didn't know what to expect. The horse showed some talent his first time out, but the minute the race started, he showed me that he had these horses today and he looks like he's got a good future ahead of him." In his career bow, Jack's in the Deck closed from off the pace to be second--beaten only a length--in a 4 1/2-panel test at Delaware May 25. "We've been trying to get him into maiden races at Delaware Park, because he's Delaware certified, but the races haven't filled," said Graham. "He's been getting better as he's trained, and we all felt like going longer would be better for him." Skeedattle Stable is a partnership headed by Marylanders Robert White and Lou Rehak. The two have been best friends since childhood and business associates for more than 25 years. They run an overhead door distribution company in the Midlantic region with 400 distributors. They first got into racing more than 15 years ago, and named the partnership after their first horse, Seattle Skeedattle. "She didn't turn out to be much, but we liked the name Skeedattle for racing so we stuck with it," said White. Cont. p3

Horsephotos

MAKING HIS POINT

Flashpoint (Pomeroy) failed in two attempts to get a route of ground, but he was once again dominant when dropped back to a sprint in the GIII Jersey Shore S. The grey galloped to a 6 1/4-length debut score at Aqueduct Jan. 15, and was even more impressive taking the Feb. 26 GII Hutcheson S. at Gulfstream by 7 1/4 lengths. Connections started dreaming of roses, and the 3-year-old made his next appearance in in the Apr. 3 GI Florida Derby. Up to press the pace, he faded late to finish a well-beaten fourth.

Equi-Photo

Without the earnings necessary to make the field for the May 7 GI Kentucky Derby, Flashpoint was sent on to the second leg in the Triple Crown, the May 21 GI Preakness S. He was in front early, but stopped to a walk and was last at the wire. It was time to regroup, and the Peachtree runner was 4-5 doing what he does best yesterday. The crowd's choice dueled through an opening half in :44.46 and romped clear in the pouring rain. "The ultimate goal with this horse is the [GI] King's Bishop [at Saratoga Aug. 27]," trainer Wesley Ward said. "That's the premier race for 3-year-old sprinters in the country, and to win that race would be really good for him as a stallion."

The speedy Quantum Miss (Smoke Glacken) eyes her fourth straight victory in today's GI Prioress S. over six furlongs at Belmont Park. Daniel Ryan's homebred began her win streak with a half-length tally in the Mar. 19 GIII Cicada S. at Aqueduct. After a front-running victory in the Apr. 19 Trevoze S. at Parx, the gray filly romped by 12 lengths in Penn National's Wonders Delight S. Quantum Miss zipped six furlongs in 1:08.63 that day and earned a 104 Beyer speed figure. "I can't see her going into any race better than she went into her last at Penn National," said trainer Anthony Dutrow. "I'm very happy with the way she is now. There's a lot to gain in the Prioress if she's able to run well. Of course, the quality of the horses she'll meet here are better than those at Penn National." Black Swan Stable's Roman Treasure (Roman Ruler) is the 5-2 morning-line choice in the Prioress. Fourth in the Cicada, the dark bay filly is coming off a 4 1/4-length victory in the Miss Royal S. at Belmont June 16. Owner/trainer Amy Tarrant sends out Pomeroys Pistol (Pomeroy). The bay filly won the Jan. 30 GII Forward Gal S. and is coming off a 4 1/2-length victory in Monmouth's Just Smashing S. June 11.

Waldpark entered this open renewal as the only runner with an unbeaten record, but was passed over by jockey Eduardo Pedroza in favor of his stable companion Earl of Tinsdal, and the betting did not inspire confidence. But the bay made light work of this competitive contest under a patient ride from Jozef Bojko to lead home his barnmate and provide Andreas Wohler with a memorable one-two. Anchored early despite a smart break, the homebred was worse than mid-division as the English raider and 2-1 favorite Brown Panther (GB) (Shirocco {Ger}) took the field along. Making smooth progress on the outside at the end of the backstretch, he crept into contention five-wide on the home turn and, after seizing the advantage passing the quarter pole, had matters under control. Waldpark had advertised his class on debut, when making all to win by seven lengths over nine furlongs at Hoppegarten Apr. 17, before following up by five lengths as the highweight in a handicap over an extended 10 furlongs of Krefeld's circuit next time May 15.

Errant when in command at the end of the Listed Iffezheimer Derby-Trial at Baden-Baden June 2, he stayed straight this time when in front in the run to the line. Trainer Andreas Wohler said of the winner, "We are all overjoyed with this result, especially with the week before not having been very satisfactory. Both colts ran great races and got excellent rides. Eduardo Pedroza chose Earl of Tinsdal, as we were not quite sure about the extent of Waldpark's stamina. They will get a small break now and Earl of Tinsdal could go into the [Aug. 14] G1 Rheinland-Pokal at Cologne next, while Waldpark's next target could be the [Sept. 4] G1 Grosser Preis von Baden." Waldpark's extended family includes fellow Derby winners Wilderer (Ger) and Waidwerk (Ger), as well as the champion Windwurf (Ger).

Tamarind Hall, a two-length winner when thrown in for a $15,000 tag at the Big A Mar. 25, scored going a mile in a $25,000 optional claimer at Penn National Apr. 19. Nipped at the line late to be second in a one-mile handicap here May 12, the chestnut romped by 7 3/4 lengths most recently going six panels against allowance foes at Finger Lakes June 11. Sent off at generous odds this time, the filly broke alertly, but was eased back to third through opening splits of :22.62 and :45.55. Ready to roll turning for home, Tamarind Hall came blazing through like a freight train at the top of the stretch and galloped home an easy winner. "In the post parade, she was so strong, on game," said winning rider David Cohen. "Whatever I was, 15-1, she didn't give me that feeling; really a strong horse. I could have moved at any time. There was a nice gap on the turn, and I kind of got her into that and put her into position. When I asked her to go into that hole, she just responded where I didn't want to take anything away from her. She went right through it, and opened by three, four, five lengths within jumps. I just let her be happy and let her do her thing."

Devil By Design failed to hit the board in her last three appearances of 2010, and hadn't been out since fading to ninth in the GII Chilukki S. at Churchill Downs Nov. 6, but she was a different proposition in her 2011 debut. The 5-year-old was trying a synthetic surface for the first time since breaking her maiden in her career opener at Keeneland in October of 2008, and the Arlington faithful took note, sending her off the third choice despite the extended layoff. Rating kindly off the strung-out leaders down the backstretch, Devil By Design closed ground from the rail on the far turn. She angled outside to go after the frontrunners at the top of the lane and, responding to intermittent encouragement, opened up late to pick up her first graded score. "This filly had been off a little while, but I had a ton of confidence in her," jockey Corey Nakatani said. "Ken [McCarthy, assistant to trainer Bill Mott] told me just to be patient with her and give her a chance to win. She's got class, and this is her favorite distance. I felt very confident where I was at. I just bided my time and, when I asked her, she kicked on."

Beatrice Aurore booked her ticket to Epsom when winning the Listed Height of Fashion S. at Goodwood May 18, but failed to see out the mile and a half of the June 3 Oaks and was sixth. Under a hold from Olivier Peslier in this, the bay raced on the tail of the favorite Peinture Abstraite as they followed the steady pace. Allowing that rival first run in the final quarter mile, she reeled her in passing the eighth peg and was pushed out for a cozy score. Trainer John Dunlop's assistant Bertrand Menuisier said, "Obviously, she didn't stay in the Oaks, but still ran well, and we knew she was in good form coming here. We were worried about the lack of pace, but we know she has a good turn of foot, and Olivier Peslier rode a very nice race. We are thinking of the [July 30] G3 Prix de Psyche at Deauville and then the [Aug. 23] G2 Prix de la Nonette there, if the ground is in good condition."

Family One recorded two easy wins over this trip at Saint-Cloud Mar. 28 and at Longchamp Apr. 19, and followed up with a second to the subsequent G2 Queen Mary S. fifth Ruby's Day (GB) (Vital Equine {Ire}) in a conditions event over this course and distance last time May 20. Keen early against the fence in the cat-bird seat behind the leading pair, the bay quickened when angled out to inhale the trail-blazing Pyman's Theory approaching the furlong pole en route to a comfortable success. "He is a very serious horse with a good mind and has done everything asked of him," trainer Yann Barberot said of his first pattern-race winner. "The logical next race is the G2 Prix Robert Papin [at Maisons-Laffitte July 24]." Owner/breeder Francois Duffaut was overjoyed, adding, "I started 19 years ago and it has been a long wait for a first group winner, so you can imagine how happy I am today, especially as he is one of the first homebreds."

Bear It's Time graduated second time out by 6 1/4 lengths last December and returned to add a 5 1/4-length victory in the May 23 Lady Angela S. Trying a route for the first time, the chestnut filly tired to sixth behind Inglorious (Hennessy) in the June 5 Woodbine Oaks last time out. Held in abeyance in the early going, the filly spurted into contention when asked for run turning for home, sputtered slightly in upper stretch, but found her best gear in the final strides to just get a head in front of Niigon's Touch at the wire. "That wasn't fair, the Oaks," said winning trainer Reade Baker. "Emma [Wilson] rode her perfect, but she was too sharp that day, never mind coming back in 13 days. We had a little bit more time [to prepare for the Bison City], and she'll probably be better down the road." Click for the brisnet.com chart or brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. General Quarters, a Grade I winner on dirt and synthetics, took the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic over this course a year ago. Sidelined for 10 months after a seventh-place effort in the Aug. 21 GI Arlington Million, the gray returned with a solid runner-up finish in a salty Churchill main-track allowance June 10. Trainer Tom McCarthy was stoic about his charge's inside draw. "Drawing the rail is sometimes a good thing and it's sometimes a bad thing," McCarthy said. "We'll just have to wait and see." Baryshnikov could have been claimed for $15,000 at Turfway last December, but the 5-year-old has hit the board in all five starts since that opportunity, including a strong runner-up performance behind Paddy o'Prado (El Prado {Ire}) in the May 21 GII Dixie H. last time out. "We started him off for $15,000 just to try to boost his confidence--we didn't think anybody would claim him because of his poor performances," explained trainer Mike Maker. "But he's just been gradually eased up the ladder and, with every step, he's succeeded. We've asked him to do a little more and he's responded." El Caballo, winner of the GIII Colonel Bradley H. over the Fair Grounds lawn in January, moves back to the turf after a 10th-place effort in the June 18 GI Stephen Foster H.

5 Givine (Fr)	Blackdown (Fr)	Talamo	Canani	3-1
6 Celtic Princess (Brz)	Public Purse	Bejarano	Avila	5-2

Givine could give trainer Julio Canani a fourth win in this race. The 4-year-old filly has made just two stateside starts, and is coming off a late-running victory in the six-furlong Great Lady M S. over the Hollywood turf May 29. "Givine has been training unbelievably," Canani enthused. "After her last work, [jockey Joe] Talamo said he loved her. She galloped out 10 lengths in front after that last race. I trained her father, Blackdown, who won three stakes for 3-year-olds on the turf at Del Mar. This one is like her father. She's gray and has a big kick." Givine tuned up for the Royal Heroine with a bullet four-furlong drill in :47 at Hollywood last Wednesday. Wygod homebred Harmonious, a perfect three-for-three at Hollywood, captured last year's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup last October at Keeneland. The 4-year-old filly came up just a nose short in her 2011 unveiling in the Jan. 1 GII Robert Frankel S. and makes her first start running third over the dirt in the Feb. 13 GII La Canada S. Rosemont Stud Syndicate's Wild Mia is coming off a narrow win over Andina in the course-and-trip Redondo Beach S. June 5.

RACETRACK Round-Up

On to the Spa for Dominus...

Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Stables and George Bolton's Dominus (Smart Strike), winner of Saturday's GII Dwyer S., exited the race in "excellent" shape, said assistant trainer Toby Sheets Sunday morning. The dark bay is expected to be sent to Saratoga this week as his connections ponder his next start. "I thought he ran a super race," said Sheets, who oversees trainer Steve Asmussen's Belmont Park division. "He came out of the race excellent. He'll head up to Saratoga in a couple of days, and from there they will decide where to go with him." Among options are the GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga July 30 or the GI Haskell at Monmouth July 31.

“Dudes” Tune Up for Gold Cup...

Trainer Bob Baffert's duo of First Dude (Stephen Got Even) and Game On Dude (Awesome Again) worked together Sunday morning in preparation for Saturday's GI Hollywood Gold Cup. First Dude, under Martin Garcia, completed the six panels in 1:11.20, while Game On Dude was timed in 1:12.20 with exercise rider Gaetano Chapparo in the saddle. "The Dudes worked very well; they're ready," said Baffert. "We're going to put Game On Dude on the lead. A mile and a quarter is no problem for him. The distance should not be a problem for First Dude, either. He's like Shaq--a big intimidating horse." Four-year-old First Dude will be bidding for his third straight win after taking a Santa Anita allowance Apr. 9 and the GIII Alysheba S. at Churchill May 6. Game On Dude returned from a 7 1/2-month layoff to post an optional-claiming score at Santa Anita in January and added the GI Santa Anita H. in March. Second in the GIII Charles Town Classic Apr. 16, he was most recently third in the GIII Lone Star Park H. May 30. Also pointing for the Gold Cup is Miss Match (Arg) (Indygo Shiner), who bids to become the first distaff winner of the race since Princessnesian in 1968. She comes off a third-place finish in the GI Vanity H. June 18. "She loves the distance," John O'Donoghue, assistant to trainer Neil Drysdale, said. "And she's in good form now, coming off a good run."

So You Think's Cox Plate Bid in the Balance...

Connections of So You Think (NZ) (High Chaparral {Ire}) yesterday expanded on the quarantine issues regarding a potential tilt at a third G1 Cox Plate. Aidan O'Brien highlighted the Oct. 22 Moonee Valley contest for the 5-year-old after his win in Saturday's G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown, but it is reported that the Australian authorities will refuse to allow him to stay at Ballydoyle for quarantine. Duncan Ramage, Australian bloodstock manager for minority shareholder Dato Tan Chin Nam, told the Racing Post, "If So You Think came for the Cox Plate, he could not run in the Arc or the Breeders' Cup in the United States." Ramage added, "Dato Tan was very pleased with the win and he is very keen for So You Think to be an ambassador for Australasian racing. He wants him to be a flag bearer around the world, and the horse has two Cox Plates already. The decision will be up to Coolmore and it's great to think of the options he has. As Dato has said, So You Think was the 'Tiger of Australia,' and he wants him to show he is the world's 'Tiger.'" Jockey Seamus Heffernan yesterday reflected on a milestone win in his career. "It was one of the biggest thrills I've got out of racing," Heffernan said. "As long as the horse settled, we were sure we'd get the result we wanted. I have a lot of respect for Workforce (GB), but I had a big belief in So You Think, and he's a very good horse. I've no idea where he'll be going next, but I was just very pleased that yesterday I was on him. It was a very important day for me and the horse. He has a lot of people in Australia following him, too, so it was great for racing all over the world."

First Major Work for Pool Play Since Foster Score...

Pool Play (Silver Deputy) worked at Churchill Downs Sunday morning in his first serious training move since his victory in the June 18 GI Stephen Foster H. The 6-year-old, who was accompanied by his regular exercise rider Melanie Giddings, negotiated five furlongs in 1:03 over a fast main track for trainer Mark Casse. "We just wanted him to go nice and easy," said assistant trainer Norman Casse, the son of the Woodbine-based trainer. "Everything went fine." Pool Play, whose Stephen Foster score marked his debut over a traditional dirt surface, is expected to have one more work at Churchill before heading to New York for the summer. "We'll give him another easy one [work] before going to Saratoga," Casse said. "The plan right now is to ship [to Saratoga] on [July] 10th and work him a day before [Saturday]. We'll save the big works for when we get him up there."

McGaughey Ponders Next Move for Hymn Book...

Hall of Fame trainer Shug McGaughey was mulling his options yesterday with Stuart S. Janney III's homebred Hymn Book (Arch), who finished second in the GII Suburban H. Saturday. "He's a 5-year-old gelding, and everything we get with him is gravy," said McGaughey. "If it looks like maybe the [GI] Whitney [H. at Saratoga Aug. 6] comes up a sloppy track, that could be a possibility. For some of those grass races [at Saratoga], maybe I'll nominate him. Or with an off track, where they've taken it off the turf, maybe we'll run him there." In his most recent start prior to the Suburban, Hymn Book won the off-the-turf Three Coins Up overnight stakes May 19. Brought back four days later on the turf, McGaughey won the race once again, this time with Boisterous (Distorted Humor), who will make his first start in graded stakes company in Saturday's GI Man O' War S. Campaigned by Phipps Stable, Boisterous breezed four furlongs in :49.99 Sunday morning. "I think the distance is fine," said McGaughey. "Where he fits with these horses, I don't have any idea. He's a nice horse, but whether he's a Grade I horse, I don't know. We'll find out. But I like him and like the way he's come along this year. I think he continues to improve. Whether he improves enough to be able to run with Gio Ponti and Bearpath and some of them, we'll just have to wait and see."

Look for the  throughout the TDN graded stakes entries, denoting Keeneland sales graduates.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

+ BIG BLUE NATION (c, 2, Bluegrass Cat--Lilah {GSW, \$510,248}, by Defrere) got lost on the tote at 33-1, but showed good speed from his outside draw to press a pace of :21.81 and :46.00 set by Lockout (Limehouse). The duo continued to duel as they straightened, and Big Blue Nation eventually wore down his speedy rival for the 3/4-length success. The winner was a $55,000 FTKJUL yearling and an $85,000 OBSMAR 2-year-old. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $35,820. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

+ MAAN (c, 2, Malibu Moon--Ambition Unbridled {MSW, \$278,286}, by Unbridled's Song), the 3-2 favorite, chased the pace from fourth through opening fractions of :21.53 and :45.56. He forged to the lead at midstretch and pulled clear to score by 1 1/2 lengths. Moonrush (Malibu Moon) was second, a head in front of Cold Facts (Yes It's True), who had a nose on Officer Prado (Officer). Maan was a $135,000 OBSAUG yearling and a $200,000 FTFFEB juvenile. FAPTITUDE (c, 3, Aptitude--Fapany {MSP}, by Fappiano), second on debut sprinting over Arlington's main track May 30, was sixth over the same June 19. Stretching out and moving to the turf, the 12-1 shot was taken in hand after breaking widest of all in the seven-horse field and angled over to the rail to trail the field into the first turn. Inching closer turning for home, Faptitude swept out five wide at the top of the lane and closed stoutly to win going away by 1 3/4 lengths over Candy Train (Candy Ride {Arg}). The winner is a half-brother to Mississippi Queen (Dixieland Band, GSP, \$139,200). Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $22,400.  Padua Stables' ROTHKO (Arch) was second behind 'TDN Rising Star' Hoorayforhollywood (Storm Cat) on debut at Santa Anita Feb. 21, earning an 88 Beyer Speed Figure. The half to GSW Electrify (Delaware Township) shows an upbeat worktab over the local surface in preparation for his return. Four-year-old Dream Steeler (Unbridled's Song) comes into his unveiling with extremely fast workouts for Mike Maker, who hits at a 25% clip with older first timers sprinting on the dirt, according to DRF Formulator. The gelding is a half to well-regarded MGSW and GISP 3-year-old To Honor and Serve. John Oxley went to $525,000 to secure Majestic Man (Maria's Mon), a half to MGSW Sir Cherokee (Cherokee Run) and MGSW and GISP Miss Isella (Silver Charm), as a juvenile last year at Keeneland April. A ground-saving fourth early, the bay filly swept to the outside for running room at the top of the stretch and was forced further out with a furlong to run, but closed strongly to get her head in front of pacesetter Stormylittlerosey (Consolidator) on the line. Coteau Kitten scored first out here by seven lengths May 6, and nearly doubled that margin of victory when annexing an allowance back in the bayou by 11 1/2 lengths June 10. She appeared to have this field at her mercy, but received a mild challenge from a familiar foe--her maiden entymate Money for Makeup. Stalking behind splits of :21.88 and :46.05, the headliner took over at the top of the lane and held Money for Makeup at bay. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Gallant Son, winner of last year's GIII Inglewood H. going long over the Hollywood turf, had not started since a runner-up effort in the GIII San Francisco Mile at Golden Gate Apr. 30. A stalking fourth in the early going, the dark bay uncorked a strong rally on the turn and reeled in pacesetting Streakin' Mohican. "He's a tough horse in the right spots," said winning trainer Frank Lucarelli. "I liked his chances on the turn, but he'll kind of hang when he gets up to the leaders and I was hoping he didn't get there too soon. He held them off pretty well. We've always talked about it, but we're not sure what his best distance is. I thought a mile was his distance, but I'm not sure that running short like this, he might not be as good or better." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The 2-1 favorite raced in second behind a runaway pacesetter, took charge in upper stretch and pulled away to score by 1 3/4 lengths over Chalula One (Bertrando). + BRIGAND (c, 2, Flutter--Silence Please, by Quiet American) blossomed from a $90,000 FTNAUG yearling to top OBSMAR as a $925,000 2-year-old in training. The bay was 4-5 in his first attempt to earn some of that money back. Vying for the lead through splits of :21.67 and :45.43 three and four-deep, Brigand grabbed sole command turning for home. The race was far from over, however, as 36-1 outsider Cloud Hopper (Stormello), a half to GISW Haimish Hy (Ecton Park), turned on the afterburners to shrink the chalk's lead with every stride. The wire came just in time, though, as Brigand held on by a desperate nose. The winner is a half to Sky Music (Sky Mesa), SW. Smart Ellis (Smarty Jones--Corrazona) was seventh. favorite scampered clear in upper stretch and looked home free, but Making Amends closed determinedly to just get a neck in front on the line. "I wondered why it took him so long to get back [to the winner's circle] and [jockey Patrick Husbands] said he couldn't pull him up," said winning trainer Mark Casse. "He was just getting going. He's a classy horse and he could have a really bright future. Successful over course and distance on debut June 14, Cherry Collect justified favoritism to open her black-type account and suggest she can be a force in the country's upcoming group races. Racing in a close-up second early, the bay took over with a quarter mile remaining and was always holding her sole threat Rosa Eglanteria, in the run to the line.

Off the mark by four lengths from a subsequent winner over seven furlongs at the Capannelle last time June 15, Lucky Chappy turned this into a procession with an all-the-way effort under Carlo Fiocchi. Full of gas on the front end early, the bay kept up a relentless gallop in the straight with no sign that he was paying for his early exertions.
