THE DREAM LIVES ON

Many scoffed when Dream Ahead (Diktat {GB}) was awarded joint-champion status with Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) at the end of his juvenile year, but Khalifa Dasmal's colt had the last laugh yesterday with a highly impressive win in Newmarket's G1 Darley July Cup. Despite his striking wins in the G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S. last term, the dark bay was overshadowed when fifth behind Frankel in the G1 Dewhurst S., and the subsequent opinion of the international handicappers was met with much derision. After a promising comeback fifth in the June 14 G1 St James's Palace S., the well-backed 7-1 shot was always traveling supremely easily under the deputising Hayley Turner here. Although he was temporarily short of room with a furlong to race, Dream Ahead swamped Bated Breath (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the final 50 yards to win by a half-length without coming off the bridle. For his jockey, who was handed the ride as regular pilot William Buick was on duty for the Gosden yard at Ascot, it was a dream result, and she joined Alex Greaves as the only other female of her profession to win a Group 1 in Britain. "I haven't sat on this horse before, so I can't take any credit," Turner said. "I'm thrilled to have the opportunity, and the Simcock team have done a fantastic job with him." The winner will target the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville Aug. 7. Cont. p3

DUDE, WHERE'S THE WIRE?

Game On Dude (Awesome Again) led for 9.999 of the 10 furlongs in the G1 Hollywood Gold Cup, but he came up about an inch short as stablemate First Dude (Stephen Got Even) nailed him on the wire at Hollywood Park Saturday. Cont. p2

DRAWING A BLANCO

He had been off the board in four starts since posting a 5 1/2-length victory in the G1 Irish Champion S. last September, but Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) proved much the best in the G1 Man o'War S. at Belmont Park. A well-backed 3-1 despite coming off a distant sixth in the June 14 G1 Queen Anne S. going a mile at Royal Ascot, the chestnut was adding Lasix for his U.S. debut. He drove to the front on the turn and held two-time Man o'War hero Gio Ponti (Tale of the Cat) at bay to prevail. Cont. p4

IMAGE IS EVERYTHING

Sassy Image (Broken Vow) came flying down the center of the stretch at Calder to win Saturday's G1 Princess Rooney S. by a nostril over Musical Romance (Concorde's Tune). It was the third straight stakes win for the 4-year-old, who took the G1 Humana Distaff S. May 7 and the GIII Winning Colors S. May 30. "Mike [Smith] said she wasn't handling the track in the early going and she dropped out of it down the backstretch," trainer Dale Romans said. "He got her to the outside...and she got up to win it. Considering that she didn't like the track, it might have been her most impressive race ever." Cont. p5

First Dude was shut out in 12 straight starts after breaking his maiden at Gulfstream in January of 2010, but he did place in five Grade I events over that stretch.

Connections opted to drop him down in quest of that elusive second victory after off-the-board performances in the Nov. 6 GI Breeders' Cup Classic and Jan. 29 Sunshine Millions Classic and, after moving to the Bob Baffert barn, in the Mar. 5 GI Santa Anita H. The bay finally disposed of his NW1X condition in Arcadia Apr. 9, and he has been unbeatable since that confidence boost. Chantal Sutherland sent stablemate Game On Dude right to the front, and they cut out reasonable fractions with favored Twirling Candy applying some pressure. The even-money chalk made his bid as they came around the bend, getting on even terms and looking as if he would come through for the crowd. He couldn't get by Game On Dude, however, and Sutherland set sail for home. But the race wasn't over. First Dude, unhurried early, unleashed a powerful stretch drive, cutting into the deficit like a Tea Party congressman, and he hit the line a nose in front.

Dream Ahead posted notice of his inherent talent with a nine-length win on debut over six furlongs at Nottingham 12 months ago, and it was a measure of his trainer's belief in him that he was pitched straight into Deauville's showpiece juvenile heat, the G1 Prix Morny, on his next start the following month. After disposing of eventual G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero Tin Horse (Ire) (Sakhee) there, he was dominant on soft ground when thrashing G2 Coventry S. winner Strong Suit (Rahy) by nine lengths in the G1 Middle Park S. on the Rowley Mile here at the start of October.

That visually stunning performance ensured he would join Frankel on the highest perch, even after he flopped behind that behemoth 15 days later in the Dewhurst, which David Simcock put down to being brought back too quickly after the Middle Park. Trained for the spring Classics, he was forced to miss every one as the customary rain stayed away from Britain, France and Ireland, but the ground finally came right for a tilt at a mile in Royal Ascot's St James's Palace. Far from disgraced when on the heels of the main protagonists there in fifth, Dream Ahead showed that sprinting was his game, and there was just enough moisture after Thursday's downpour for him to put his speed to the test against some hardened dragsters here. Drawn in the two hole, he sat hard against the fence in the slipstream of Libranno (GB) (Librettist), who set an ever-increasing tempo for the initial five furlongs. Hayley Turner brought Dream Ahead between rivals at the furlong pole, but she was forced to stop riding for a few strides, as the new leader Bated Breath began to drift right under Steve Drowne. When gifted the gap, Dream Ahead found an extra gear in an instant, and he was completely in command at the line. "Steve [Drowne]'s horse started to hang right and caused a bit of interference, but it's always the case when you're on a horse that travels so well that he gets you out of trouble," said Turner. "It's massive." Her opportunity had come about after William Buick was claimed to ride at York, and Jamie Spencer was Stateside with Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Simcock added, "I'm relieved and really pleased that he has enhanced his reputation from last year--it's all about the horse. I was surprised how good the ground was on Friday and, as long as it was safe, we said we'd run. There is a great cover of grass out there, and he traveled very well and has a terrific turn of foot. Hayley was very confident going into the race--she's got a very good strike rate for me and is a confident girl, so she deserves it." Australian raider Star Witness (Aus) (Starcraft {NZ}) eventually usurped Delegator (GB) (Dansili {GB}) for favoritism at 4-1, but, like that Godolphin raider, never looked likely to play a serious part and finished 10th, with the latter staying on at one pace to be fifth.

Cape Blanco had a stellar sophomore season, batting .500 with wins in the G2 Dante S., G1 Irish Derby and G1 Irish Champion S. But he was eased late when 13th in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe to end the year, and had failed to hit the board in three prior tries, all against top company, this term. Fourth in the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 26, he returned to fill the same spot in the Apr. 30 G1 Prix Ganay, and beat just one home in the G1 Queen Anne S. June 14. The chestnut turned it around stretching out off that stiff mile test. Up to press the pace from second through pedestrian splits over the rain-softened course, Cape Blanco went after leader Mission Approved on the turn and led them into the straight. He wandered a bit once in front as Mission Approved fought on gamely from the rail, but opened up in the final yards and was not threatened as Gio Ponti closed ground late. Charlie O'Connor, representing the Coolmore conglomerate, said, "We always like to support American racing...and we thought this horse would suit the race. He proved we were right. We were a little bit worried when it was a little bit slow, but Jamie [Spencer] gave him a great ride and he kicked on at the right time. He's back to his best form."

Sassy Image was a solid 2-year-old, taking the GIII Pocahontas S. and GII Golden Rod S., but made only two starts at three in 2010. The chestnut captured the Sweetest Chant S. when it came off the lawn at Gulfstream that January, then disappeared for 11 months after running fifth in the GII Davona Dale S. the next month. Second in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Jan. 14, she hit the brakes and ran last in the GIII Sabin S. Feb. 19, and was given time to regroup. The vacation worked like a charm. Sassy Image upset the field in the GI Humana Distaff at 16-1 and was a neck in front at the finish of the GIII Winning Colors S. at Churchill, both in May. She was the chalk to add to her skein. Dead last as the dueling leaders zipped a half in :44 4/5, she was barely in the picture as the frontrunners entered the turn, and her cause seemed hopeless at the top of the lane. But jockey Mike Smith went to work and Sassy Image responded, rolling past the field to get her nose in front in the very last jump. Owner Jerry Romans, the older brother of trainer Dale Romans, is the vice president of information management for Reynolds American, the parent company of R.J. Giant Ryan made it five in a row with a desperate final surge in the Smile. The 6-year-old took a state-bred optional claimer at Aqueduct Mar. 4 and added a half-length tally in the restricted Hamlet S. at the Big A Apr. 6. Giant Ryan let Irrefutable lead them along through a quarter in :22 1/5 and a half in :45 2/5 before hitting the gas as they straightened for home. Devilish Lady dug in gamely to take the first graded event of the Summit of Speed in a photo. The dark bay was claimed for $16,000 from owner Jacqueline Tortora at Calder last September and came right back to be third in the Cassidy S. the following month. She then put together a four-race winning streak, taking two at Calder before heading north to add the Dec. 26 Sandpiper S. and Jan. 15 Gasparilla S. at Tampa to her resume. The streak stuttered when she ran sixth in the GII Forward Gal S. at Gulfstream 15 days later, but the Florida-bred miss rebounded with two seconds at Tampa and a head score in the Cherokee Frolic S. in Hallandale Apr. 24. She was looking to get back to the winner's circle after fourth-place efforts in a pair of local overnight stakes May 14 and May 28. Off a step slowly from her inside post, she ranged up inside Just Louise (Five Star Day) after an opening quarter in :22 2/5. Devilish Lady put away the pacesetter at the top of the lane and looked to be home free until White Merlot came at her from the rail, but she dug into the reserves and had just enough to eke out the win.

Dick Turpin, last year's G1 Prix Jean Prat hero, put in a rare below-par effort when only fourth behind stablemate Canford Cliffs (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury May 14. He fared even worse over the extended nine-furlong trip of Longchamp's G1 Prix d'Ispahan just eight days later, where he was last of nine behind Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa). Despite those knockdowns, his odds of 2-1 in the absence of Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk) looked generous here. Settled alongside the smooth-traveling Fanualter behind early, he cruised upsides Red Jazz (Johannesburg) before being sent to the front nearing the furlong marker, and was always holding the progressive runner-up. "I can't believe the price he was--his last two runs haven't been great, but we gave him two quick ones and I don't think it suited him," trainer Richard Hannon said, adding, "We'll have a look at the G1 Sussex S. [at Goodwood July 27] and follow the ground, really."

Dreamy Kid, on the board in two of his first three tries, came back after nearly four months on the shelf to graduate by a nose on the Hollywood Cushion May 26. The bay finished fourth in an optional claimer June 26, and was understandably ignored making his stakes bow here. Rated at the tail of the tightly bunched five-horse field, he was still last under a patient Joe Talamo as favorites Coil and Runflatout (Flatter) cut out six furlongs in a moderate 1:12.98. Talamo sent Dreamy Kid between horses at the top of the lane, then eased outside the leaders and went on the attack. Coil had put away Runflatout at the eighth pole and stolen a clear lead, but the longshot ran him down in the shadow of the wire. Robert Evans purchased dam Dreams for $300,000 as a KEEJUL yearling in 1998. An allowance winner on the turf at Saratoga in the last of her eight starts, she has produced eight foals, including a yearling full-brother to Dreamy Kid and a 2011 filly by Tiznow.

Indiano was the odds-on chalk and ran to the tote board. Perfect in five starts and a champion in Panama, the bay made his American bow in a Gulfstream allowance test Mar. 20 and finished second by a half-length. The runner-up once again in the GII Swale S. Apr. 3, he stretched to a mile for the GIII Derby Trial at Churchill at the end of the month and tired late to be fifth. He was favored over his four Carry Back foes after taking the Unbridled S. over this track and trip by 4 1/4 lengths June 11. A stalking third through fractions of :21 4/5 and :45 2/5, Indiano had little trouble collaring the leaders at the top of the lane and he opened up under a confident Luis Saez to win handily. Dam Separata was campaigned by Indiano's breeder, Gerald Ford's Diamond A Racing. A Group 1 winner in her native Chile, she captured a pair of stakes in the U.S. under the Diamond A colors, and set a course record of :55 4/5 on the turf at Churchill Downs in 2001. The mare slipped her foal of 2010, and was bred to Pleasantly Perfect for 2011.

St. John's River had been second in her last three attempts, but was beaten just a half-length in the Mar. 26 GII Fair Grounds Oaks and by a neck in the May 6 GI Kentucky Oaks. She faced a seemingly easier field this time, but just barely got the nod. The bay trailed the field as Strike The Moon cruised along through a half in :48 3/5 and six panels in 1:13, and had to fan six wide behind horses at the top of the lane. The frontrunner was getting leg weary, but it took nearly every inch of the stretch before St. John's River ran her down. The winner was bred by owner Dr. Dede McGehee's Heaven Trees Farm in Lexington. An equine veterinarian, McGehee purchased the 120-acre property in 1995, and has an average of 100 mares on the farm, of which she owns all or part of about 15. She acquired dam Adventurous Di, in foal to Include, for just $17,000 at KEENOV 2003. The resulting foal was millionaire and multiple Grade I winner Panty Raid, who had sold for $110,000 at FTKJUL 2005. McGehee also sold a Woodman colt out of the mare for $135,000. She has a yearling colt by Medaglia d'Oro and was bred to Street Sense for 2011.

Willcox Inn, who famously dashed past Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) in a Polytrack maiden at Arlington last September, stamped himself as a serious player among his peers with this authoritative display. Second in his seasonal opener at Fair Grounds, the dark bay failed to make an impact when eighth in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 16, but he put those defeats behind him with a stylish success in the 8 1/2-furlong Arlington Classic May 28, and made today's 2-1 price look most generous. Willcox Inn rated in third as Zoebear (Bellamy Road) dashed well clear early, but swallowed up that rival easily heading into the second turn. He opened up a bit of daylight at the head of the lane and strode home smartly. The sophomore, whose dam is a half-sister to top-class turfers Cetewayo (His Majesty) and Dynaforce (Dynaformer), has now won the first two legs of the "Mid-America Triple," and will bid to complete the sweep in the GI Secretariat S. Tajaweed, winner of the G3 Dee S. as a 3-year-old for trainer Sir Michael Stoute, captured his first appearance for Dan Peitz at Arlington last spring, but failed to build on that in his next seven at-bats. Third in last year's renewal of this contest before finishing sixth in the GI Arlington Million, he kicked off his 6-year-old season with a narrow second going a mile over this course May 8. He was the bridesmaid once more in Churchill's Opening Verse S. June 17, but had plenty of support at the windows this time. Content to settle near the back of the pack as longshot Amun Re (Great Pyramid {Ire}) and Interaction (Arg) (Easing Along) disputed through fair fractions, the dark bay made his way to the outside to deliver his run. Tajaweed rallied up the center of the course to end the drought. "We decided to stop on him last winter, turn him out, point for this race and the Million [Aug. 13]," Peitz said. "Nine months later, here we are, and we're on our way to the Million."

Red Duke followed an eye-catching debut third in a six-furlong conditions event at Pontefract May 27 with a maiden score over a panel further at Redcar June 18. Settled in mid-division by Kieren Fallon in the early stages here, the chestnut raced against the rail before being switched out for his effort as Chandlery rolled by inside the final quarter. Reeling in that rival with 100 yards remaining, the Kentucky-bred was always in control on the run to the line, with his rider using just his hands and heels. "He got good speed figures for his win at Redcar, and I liked him coming here today," Fallon commented. "He did it well and was idling with me when he got to the front, so there is a lot to come." Trainer John Quinn told PA Sport, "He's a group winner now, and we'll go home and think about what we do next. I hope he's a Guineas horse." Ben Walden's Gracefield acquired Red Duke's dam, a winning daughter of 1987 G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Bint Pasha, for $500,000 at KEENOV in 2002. Saudia's resulting Theatrical (Ire) colt sold for $290,000, and her subsequent foals also did well in the sales ring, with a $300,000 Dynaformer yearling colt in 2005, and a $420,000 Giant's Causeway weanling colt in 2007. Another Giant's Causeway colt out of Saudia made $425,000 at FTSAUG in 2009. The mare produced a Street Sense colt last April before being bred to Artie Schiller. Cara Bloodstock signed the ticket on Red Duke at KEESEP 2010; consigned by Mocklershill Stud, the colt topped the DBS Breeze-Up sale in April. Established in 1978, Mocklershill in Co. Tipperary is the operation of Willie and Michael Browne.

Cheetah capped off her British campaign with a nose victory in a handicap at Kempton last November, and opened her U.S. account with an off-the-turf allowance tally at Keeneland Apr. 23. The grey filly was off to a stumbling start in the GII Sheepshead Bay S. at Belmont May 28 before closing ground to be third. She had the smoothest of journeys here. Rated well off the pace as longshot Ainamaa (Lemon Drop Kid) took them along through fractions of :23 2.5, :47 1/5 and 1:11 4/5, she still had the pacesetter to catch when they swung into the lane. Cheetah dashed through an opening at the hedge and was gone, opening up to win as much the best. Owner Robert Scarborough is chairman of Australia's Moonee Valley Racing Club. He bought his first racehorse while still in college more than 40 years ago, and is now a leading commercial breeder Down Under, operating Wood Nook with his wife Rosemary. Scarborough's Mauralakana (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) took the 2008 GI Beverly D. S. and earned more than $1.6 million.

Fantasia, a multiple Group 3 winner in Britain for trainer Luca Cumani, joined Christophe Clement's string in time for her 4-year-old season. The blaze-faced bay needed six starts on these shores before finally getting her picture taken in Woodbine's River Memories S. in October. This year, she hit the board in both the GII Jenny

Wiley S. at Keeneland in April and GII Distaff Turf Mile at Churchill May 7 before finishing second in the GI Just a Game S. over the soggy Belmont sod June 11 in her most recent appearance. Sent off as the second choice here, Fantasia saved ground while settled near the rear. Even-money Wasted Tears (Najran) attempted her usual wire-to-window tactics, but Fantasia began to draw closer on the far turn, and made her move while three wide. She struck the front inside the eighth pole and got the job done under an energetic Rajiv Maragh.

When on her game, Miss Keller might be the most talented runner in this field. She took the GII Canadian S. over course and distance with authority last September, and was runner-up in the GI E.P. Taylor S. the following month. The bay has failed to hit the board in her last three races, however, most recently in the GII Nassau S. June 4 when she finished behind four of today's rivals--Bay to Bay, Never Retreat, Valli With a Vow, and Forest Uproar, in that order. The ground was yielding that day, and firmer ground might be more to Miss Keller's liking. John Velazquez ventures north to ride Mekong Melody, this event's defending champ. She finished off last term with a win in the GIII Long Island H. at Aqueduct in November, but was last in her seasonal bow in the Nassau. The David Egan homebred prefers a lot more ground than the one-mile trip she got last time. Lightly raced Stars to Shine is an intriguing fresh face. She posted a 5-3-1-0 record last year at age three, and was a decent fast-closing fifth in the GII Mrs. Revere to close out the semester. The dark bay appears to have improved with age, as she overcame some traffic trouble to take an allowance here by 2 1/2 lengths June 11.

Q AND A WITH THE BREEDERS' CUP BOARD OF DIRECTORS CANDIDATES

The last two years, the TDN has given candidates for the Breeders' Cup board the opportunity to let us know what they would like to accomplish, should they be elected. On July 7, Breeders' Cup announced the six individuals who are in the running for the three open seats on the Breeders' Cup Board of Directors. Voting began Wednesday, and will continue through next Wednesday, when Breeders' Cup hosts its annual members' meeting in Lexington. The top three vote getters each will serve a 4-year term. We posed the following question to each of the candidates:

Q: What do you think is the biggest issue facing the Breeders' Cup today and, if voted to the Breeders' Cup Board of Directors, how would you propose this issue be solved?

Richard Santulli:

The question really is: what can the Breeders' Cup do, as an organization, to change the direction of the thoroughbred industry. The Breeders' Cup, along with the Jockey Club, is only one of two institutions in our industry with the ability to create meaningful change. So the question isn't really about what we can do with the Breeders' Cup as an event; we're good at that. We need to do whatever we can to change the direction in which the industry is going. The Breeders' Cup needs to use its balance sheet and the power and commitment of our Board and Members to effect the changes we need. Everyone knows what those changes are—the public perception of the sport has to be different. We need television—real television—a racing series, to fix the medication issue, deal with the whipping of horses, the retirement of horses. There are too many races, we need a social media strategy, we need to develop games. The industry has to realize the gamblers drive the game; you can't disregard them. We have to make it easier to bet. Within the next three years, everything will be done on hand-held devices, and the industry needs to be set up in a way they can use those devices to bet and watch races.

These are not Breeders' Cup-related issues. These are industry issues. But at the Breeders' Cup, we are the people who, along with The Jockey Club, can solve them. We have fallen into a hole, and it's not going to be a six-month fix. It's going to be a long-term fix. But we can fix it.

pounds from Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) when the two rivals renew acquaintances for the sixth time in the 10-furlong event. "Well, I was hoping for more," trainer Jerry Hollendorfer, referring to the break in weight, admitted yesterday, "but since she's already run and won at Delaware and, since the purse money is good, that's where we're going to go." Currently, Blind Luck, who was also under consideration for Del Mar's GI Clement L. Hirsch S. Aug. 6, has a 3-2 advantage when the two have raced head-to-head, but Havre de Grace will be favored to run her record this year to four wins from as many starts. Blind Luck will have one additional work at Hollywood Park Tuesday morning and ships to Delaware Wednesday.

Bret Jones:

The biggest issue facing the Breeders' Cup today is the same issue that is confronting our industry as a whole: Horse racing continues to lose significance in contemporary sports culture. It is apparent to anyone that picks up a sports section or watches SportsCenter that our game is an afterthought in the national sports consciousness. There are an avalanche of reasons as to why we have fallen behind, most of which have been dissected innumerable times in our industry periodicals and various op/ed pieces over the last couple of years. And while we all feel we have an understanding of what our industry's problems are, we also share the great frustration of knowing that there are significant barriers to the implementation of the changes horse racing needs.

While I am the first to regret the absence of a strong centralized governing body or commissioner that could more easily bring about these changes, I remain optimistic about the future of our sport for two reasons. 1) horse racing is a sellable product and 2) I have a tremendous belief in the ability of the Breeders' Cup to take on this much-needed role of industry leader. I believe horse racing is a sellable product because I have seen kings of industry, celebrities and the most accomplished of our society become literally addicted to our game. I am also yet to bring a friend to the track for the first time that doesn't tell me afterwards that they had a great day and can't wait to come back again. These are reasons for optimism.

My belief in the Breeders' Cup stems from knowing that the board is comprised of some of the best minds in our game and, just as importantly, I know this board is motivated to make the Breeders' Cup the true leader that our industry so desperately needs right now. I have been extremely encouraged in my first year as a Breeders' Cup member as it has been marked by two tangible successes for both the organization and industry at large.

The new International Stallions Nomination Program and revamped Win and You're In Series represent important steps in both growing our sport internationally and helping to add much needed significance to the period between the Triple Crown Series and the Breeders' Cup--all while rewarding the breeders that are the backbone of the organization.

My experiences of the past year have only strengthened my conviction that the Breeders' Cup represents the single greatest vehicle to implement the changes that our sport still desperately needs if we are to regain relevance in the current sports landscape. The Breeders' Cup is in a position, through its possession of our game's most coveted races, to change horse racing's perceived illegal drug culture by barring medication violators from our championship, bring about the transparency and wagering integrity that our all-important gamblers must have if we are to attract their gambling dollar, and continue to tie in the rest of the racing calendar to the Championship weekend so that Saturday racing once again means something to more than just our shrinking number of core fans. These changes are critical if we wish to make horse racing the marketable game that it deserves to be. I am running for the Breeders' Cup Board of Directors because, as a young person whose entire business future is invested in this industry, I am wholly dedicated to seeing that horse racing reverses its current path and secures its longevity. The Breeders' Cup can be the greatest catalyst to this end, and I want to be a part of this all-important effort.

FASIG-TIPTON JULY Selected Yearlings

Tuesday, July 12 10:00 a.m.

Red Gables Steps Up at Fasig...

Tonya Johnson grew up with hunters and jumpers in England and had early aims on being a riding instructor, but when a literal bad break--a fractured leg--ended

Tonya Johnson

those dreams, Johnson shifted gears and took focus on working with Thoroughbreds. Today, she owns and operates Red Gables Stud, which has five horses catalogued at Fasig-Tipton July. Red Gables is your typical small operation, in that each day brings any assortment of atypical challenges, but Johnson relishes those challenges and is sees her operation as a throwback to the days when farms bred, raised and sold their yearlings.

"People ask what's different between us and other consignors, and I say it goes back to when farms sold under their own names, rather than sending the horses to big consignors," she said. "One of the benefits of doing it that way is that you get to know the horses a whole lot more, and when people ask you questions at the sales about those horses, you can tell them the answer. You've been around them since they were born. I like to think we've got something to offer in that regard. It's fun to raise them and prep them and send them on their way."

Johnson first came to the U.S. in 1994 as an equine science student on work placement. She worked at Tom Evans's Trackside Farm before returning to England, but after her leg injury decided to return to the States. She rang Irish expat Pat Costello, whom she met while working at Trackside, and Costello offered her a job at his Drumkenny Farm. "I worked with Pat for seven years there, and eventually became assistant manager and then manager of the farm," said Johnson. Costello eventually refocused his efforts on Paramount Sales, and Johnson moved on to work with a few other farms. When she became pregnant with her second child, Johnson decided it was time for a change.

"I was trying to figure out how to juggle everything, and I had some very good, loyal clients, and just thought it would be a good time to start my own small operation," she said. "That way I could manage my time better--I wanted to be a mom, but at the same time I wanted to work. So I started Red Gables in 2007. Today, it's great, and my kids come to work with me quite a bit."

Johnson is married to Jay Johnson, who works at the Hagyard Equine Medical Institute. "Oddly enough, he's allergic to horses," laughed Johnson. "But he works at the pharmacy at Hagyard." The couple have two young daughters, Olivia, 5, and Veda, 3.

Red Gables, named after the Victorian house Johnson grew up in as a child, bred about 35 mares this past spring, primarily for outside clients. Her client list includes prominent owner and breeder George Strawbridge Jr., who boards a few overflow mares at Red Gables, including Screening (Unbridled), dam of this year's GII Robert B. Lewis S. hero Anthony's Cross (Indian Charlie). "He's a wonderful person, and you couldn't ask for a better guy to work for," Johnson said of Strawbridge. The 10-year-old Screening, a half-sister to GSW Smart Bid (Smart Strike) and two other stakes winners, is back in foal to Indian Charlie.

On June 12, another 3-year-old colt with ties to Red Gables, Moonshine Mullin (Albert the Great), made news in Canada when winning the $150,000 Victoria Park S. Co-bred and owned by Johnson's father-in-law Dan Johnson, Moonshine Mullin was bred, born and raised at Red Gables, and pushed his career earnings to $165,811 in the Victoria Park. "We're quite chuffed with him," said Johnson. "He's done very well and I'm proud of him." Moonshine Mullin could appear next in the States, in the GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga July 30.

Johnson hopes her draft at the July Sale is comprised of equally talented stock. Save for one weanling-to-yearling pinhook, each member of the consignment was raised at Red Gables. That includes hip 131, a filly from the first crop of champion Midnight Lute (Real Quiet). She is the first foal produced by the good racefilly Sweet Breanna (Sahm), who banked over

Hip 131, f, Midnight Lute--Sweet Breanna

$350,000 with performances that included runner-up finishes in the Woodbine Oaks and Bison City S. in Canada. The filly's second dam is GSW and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies second Sweet Roberta (Roberto).

"She doesn't really look like Midnight Lute; I don't know if that's a good thing or if people want to hear that," said Johnson. "From what I've heard, he's made them a little like him. They're large horses and a little awkward as yearlings. But she's not. She's very well put-together, which she gets from her mom. She's got great conformation and is a very well-balanced, great-moving filly, and she's very smart."

Johnson continued, "She was actually in the Keeneland [November] Sale, but the owner bought her back [for $55,000], because people were trying to buy her to pinhook. You can't fault her, really, and that's a great horse to have. Her mother was a very good filly, and if she's half the runner her mother was, she'll be good to go." The filly was bred by Beclawat Stable.

Red Gables also offers a colt bred on the same cross as this year's GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Plum Pretty. Selling as hip 98, the colt is by Medaglia d'Oro out of an A.P. Indy mare, the unraced 10-year-old September Dolly. It's the extended family of A.P. Indy's Grade I-winning daughter A. P. Adventure. Hip 98 is one of two Medaglia d'Oro colts in the sale.

The pinhooked yearling is hip 191, a colt from the first crop of Grade II winner Notional (In Excess {Ire}).

Johnson & Hip 191, c, Notional

From the family of A Phenomenon and champion Pleasant Stage, the colt's second dam is GISW Seattle Meteor (Seattle Slew). Out of the Pleasant Colony mare Beaming Meteor, he is a half-brother to SP Moonquake (Mr.

Greeley). Paris Racing Group acquired him for just $15,000 at Keeneland November.

"We bought him to be aimed at this sale," said Johnson. "The owner, Sabrina Spalding, loves horses and wanted to have a little fun. So we picked him out, and he has been a lot of fun. I think he's going to do OK. You might be taking a little risk with a Notional, but he's a very nice individual. He was a very rangy, scopey-looking weanling, and she wanted to pick one out who was big and who we could possibly aim toward this sale. I had to be careful with him over the winter not to overfeed him and such; he wasn't one you could just throw out in the field and say, 'Well, we'll see you in the spring!' But he's very racy looking--he's very long through his neck and back and has a lot of leg underneath him. He's got great, short cannon bones, which a lot of people like. And he's got an attitude. He's going to be entertaining."

Going forward, Johnson said she doesn't have any grandiose plans for Red Gables, other than to offer good customer service for her clients and buyers, and the best care she can provide for her horses. "I don't have any intentions of being huge," she said. "We pride ourselves on treating our horses very much as individuals. Some people might say we spoil our horses a little bit, but I guess that's okay."

Busy Saturday at Fasig-Tipton...

The Lexington area was hit by torrential downpours on Thursday and Friday, but the skies behaved themselves Saturday and shoppers took advantage of the fine weather. Juvenile pinhookers Eddie Woods and Ciaran Dunne were among those present, joining the likes of trainer Kenny McPeck, who shopped alongside his daughter, as well as EQB's Patrice Miller and bloodstock agents Pete Bradley and Mike Ryan. The day didn't go off without a hitch, however. There were not one but two incidents when yearlings briefly got loose, and while there were no injuries, Gainesway's Michael Hernon took a pretty good hit while attempting to scamper clear of two loose horses between barns 7 and 8. Hernon was knocked down, but bounced back up like a champ and later quipped, "My back was out before this, but I think that chestnut knocked something back in. It feels great." Both of the horses, as well as a horse who earlier got loose near barn 5, were apprehended without incident.

Hill Made Parter at McMahon Bloodstock...

McMahon Bloodstock LLC announced this week that Jamie Hill has been made a partner in the Lexington bloodstock agency, which will now be known as McMahon & Hill Bloodstock LLC. McMahon Bloodstock was founded in 2001 by Michael and Natanya McMahon, and is a regular purchaser at major sales. McMahon has been active in the weanling-to-yearling pinhooking market, is actively involved in seasons and shares, and manages a large portfolio of mares in Kentucky, New York and Florida, in addition to operating the public racing stable Bourbon Lane Stable. "We have made nice steady growth since Jamie came on," said Mike McMahon. "Our client service is better, and we are doing a lot more deals. Jamie is a big part of that and deserves to participate in the profits. We have been friends for almost 20 years. This was an absolute win/win decision for Natanya and me." Added Hill, "Mike and I wanted to grow the company. We brought out The Bottom Line last year and had great success. The new products we are rolling out are going to really be exciting, and I wanted my name on them. I could not wait to get more involved."

Callmethesqueeze missed by a nose against $50,000 maidens in an off-turf event May 5, but switched to the spinach for a one-length graduation 10 days later. A non-factor when sixth in the May 28 Regal Gal S. back on the main track, the bay was most recently a one-length winner of a grassy first-level allowance June 10. Content to sit back early on as Prize Informant opened a sizable advantage, Callmethesqueeze got going in earnest nearing the quarter pole. She still had plenty to do at that point, but took aim on the drifting-out pacesetter in the stretch, got her head in front at the sixteenth pole and just held for the win. Click for the brisnet.com chart or video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

SAFE CROSSING (f, 3, Stormy Atlantic--Ava Darling, by Gilded Time) was dismissed at debut odds of 14-1 for these sharp connections in an Apr. 14 turf maiden at Keeneland, but turned in an eye-catching rally from the rear and stormed past all of her competition to score by 1 1/4 lengths over next-out Churchill graduate Maid of Heaven (Empire Maker). Favored here at 6-5 against a field reduced to five by scratches, the Strawbridge runner set a decent pace up front, turned back a mild bid from Be My Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}) after six furlongs and opened it up late to take it by three lengths. Belle Watling Undergoes Myectomy:

Belle Watling (Chi) (Dushyantor), a four-time Group 1 winner in her native country who was most recently ninth in the GI United Nations S. at Monmouth Park, has since undergone a myectomy to correct a breathing issue, trainer Patrick Biancone reports. "The jockey said she could not breathe, so we tried the surgery," the Frenchman commented. Belle Watling won 13 of her 16 starts in Chile and her final 10 appearances, including the G1 Chilean Derby in 2009 and last year's G1 Gran Premio Association Latinoamericana. She is winless in her five U.S. starts, her best performance coming when a close fourth in the GII Sheepshead Bay S. May 28.

CITYSCAPE HAS FRENCH OPTION Trainer Roger Charlton is considering next Saturday's G3 Prix Messidor for Khalid Abdullah's Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk) after the 5-year-old was withdrawn from the G2 Summer Mile at Ascot yesterday. Third in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot last time June 14, the chestnut could be targeted at the Maisons-Laffitte contest after the rains failed to arrive in Berkshire. "The idea is to run him when the ground has an element of soft in it, so good-to-soft would be perfect," Charlton explained. "I was a bit concerned the ground would be too fast. At the Royal meeting, he got away with it and came out of the race fine, but I want to preserve him for a decent race when the conditions are right. I'd like to send him to France before the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois [at Deauville Aug. 15], so the Messidor could be a nice race for him."

Tactician, a staying-on second in a handicap at Newmarket's Rowley Mile on seasonal reappearance May 14, was a leading fancy for the highly valuable Northumberland Plate H. at Newcastle the following month, but was withdrawn due to the rain-softened ground. Sent straight to the lead and travelling best turning for home here, he kicked on soon after, and buckled down as Fox Hunt pushed him all the way to the line. Her Majesty The Queen's bay homebred will likely point to the Ebor H. back here Aug. 20. "He's a tough horse and a true stayer," said winning rider Eddie Ahern. "I thought if we got to the front and did our own thing, it might work. Sometimes it doesn't, but today it did. I was going fast, then slow, and this lad's hard to pass. After an easy win in a valuable nine-furlong handicap at Newmarket's Guineas meeting Apr. 30, Green Destiny was a major gamble for the Listed Wolferton H. at Royal Ascot June 17, but faded into seventh after being hampered early on. Dropped into the rear from his unfavorable wide draw here, the bay had only one rival behind him three furlongs from home before making rapid progress to lead 300 meters later. He drew clear from his sole serious rival Modun in the run to the line, and was firmly in command under his claiming jockey Adam Beschizza. "He won it empahctically," commented the 19-year-old after the career-defining moment. "I went for a little gap, which took me into the wrong position and I had to rein back, but he passed the field so easily." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Desert Gazelle was well-touted for this debut, but started as the 7-2 second choice in the face of significant support for Cheveley Park's 9-4 favorite Ladyship (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), a daughter of Peeress (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) who was also making her career bow. Showing a professional attitude from the outset to race prominently, the $400,000 FTSAUG yearling was given a squeeze by Frankie Dettori to make her presence felt passing halfway, and arrived on the front end traveling ominously approaching the final furlong. Scooting clear under hand riding up the rising ground, the chestnut had a four-length margin to spare over Cheworee (GB) (Milk It Mick {GB}), with the initially keen Ladyship staying on encouragingly to be a further half-length behind in third. Desert Gazelle's dam is a half-sister to 2009 GI Belmont S. runner-up Dunkirk (Unbridled's Song), and her second dam captured the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Mother Goose S. in 2000.
