GI TVG Coaching Club American Oaks July 23, turned the tables in style with an eye-catching 5 1/2-length win in Saratoga's GI TVG Alabama S. Saturday. Trainer Bill Mott also campaigned Royal Delta's multiple graded stakes winning dam Delta Princess (A.P. Indy) on behalf of owner/breeder Saud bin Khaled, who passed away earlier this year. "It's a great race to win," Mott commented. "We've won it before with Sweet Symphony [2005], and it's just special. The owner of the horse, who is a special friend of mine, is not with us today, but I'm sure he is watching. We have always thought she was a nice filly, and she proves us right all the time." THE WORD OF ENGELS

The G1 Prix Morny prize has evaded the domestically-trained juveniles for the last seven years and, if the formbook is to be trusted, it looks like its going overseas once again as Frederick Engels (GB) (Iceman {GB}) pays a visit to Normandy. His human namesake would have been proud of his travails so far, rising from the working ranks of the North of England to prominence in the starmaking circuits of the South. Since his defeat by the ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Shumoos (Distorted Humor) in a Haydock maiden May 28, he has not looked back and garnered a prize at Royal Ascot when annexing the June 14 Listed Windsor Castle S., in which Friday's G2 Gimcrack S. winner Caspar Netscher (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) was third. Taken to Newmarket's July festival, the bay bested the G2 Coventry S. runner-up Roman Soldier (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) in the G2 July S. over this trip July 7 and was still well in contention when nearly put through the rails in the G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh Aug 7. Trainer David Brown is confident he can bounce back from that ordeal, which has appeared to leave no mark. "He came back from Ireland doing everything he normally does and took it so professionally," he said. "I was fearful watching it, as it looked like he went under the rails, but he was like a tiger afterwards. I think he is still is what we believe him to be and I'm sure he's going to get seven furlongs or a mile in time, because he's so laid-back." Cont. p9

Tabbed as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ following a jaw-dropping 12-length debut win at Belmont last October, Royal Delta finally resurfaced with a lackluster ninth as the 8-5 chalk over the tricky Tampa main course in the Suncoast S. Mar. 12. She quickly got back on track with an allowance win over Keeneland's Polytrack Apr. 15, then posted a sharp score in Pimlico's GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 20. The Saratoga faithful gave four of her five rival rivals a better chance here after she completed the trifecta in the CCA Oaks last time.

With Jose Lezcano aboard, Royal Delta sat in third along the inside as Plum Pretty cruised through fractions of :24.54 and :49.31. Swung out three wide for her stretch run, she unleashed an explosive rally while drifting in sharply and almost hitting the rail, but quickly straightened out and turned the Alabama into a laugher.

"I think she needed it [the TVG Coaching Club American Oaks] in a lot of ways, not just conditioning, but also mentally," Mott revealed. "She was a little fresh in that race, and we tried to sit in behind; further [back]. Today the plan was to lay closer and let her find her stride, and she was able to do that. She was really comfortable."

Mott continued, "Jose [Lezcano] did a great job, and she had plenty left. It's a matter of her relaxing and conserving energy for the final run, which she didn't do the time before. The filly was able to draw away from the field which was good, but we will have to go back to the films to watch it again. When she went past them, it was like they shot her out of a slingshot."

The Hall of Fame trainer was considering a switch to grass for Royal Delta prior to her big win yesterday. Mott is currently leaving his options open for her next start.

"We've got those [grass] options down the road," Mott said. "I think she's a filly that seems to do anything. She will run over any surface. She has won on the synthetics, won a Grade I on the dirt, and has worked well over the grass. Our options are always open [with her], but there is nothing like a good old-fashioned dirt race like the [TVG] Alabama."

He concluded, "I guess [future plans] have to be discussed, but [staying on the dirt] is the most logical thing."

It's Tricky, attempting to sweep the TVG Triple Tiara following wins in the GI Acorn S. and CCA Oaks, had to settle for second.

"She ran well," trainer Kieran McLaughlin said. "I thought we ran our race and looked good. The winner probably needed her last race and a mile and a quarter. But we ran a nice race; no excuse. We couldn't have done anything different. We were just second-best."

Shackleford Breezes for Travers...

Preakness hero Shackleford (Forestry) geared up for next Saturday's GI Travers S. with a five-furlong move in 1:00.87 at Saratoga Saturday. Regular rider Jesus Castanon was in the irons for the move. "I thought it went perfect today," trainer Dale Romans said. "We just wanted him to break off nice and easy and finish strong. He finished great and galloped out really good. I couldn't be happier with the way he did it." Owned by Mike Lauffer and W.D. Cubbedge, the strapping chestnut heads to the Midsummer Derby following a game second in the GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park July 31. "The track [Saratoga] has been a bit different this year than in years past but this horse has seemed to really like it," Romans continued. "Ever since he's been here he has gotten over it in good shape and we did a lot with him last week to make sure he's fit enough for this track and I'm glad we did because today he looked like he skipped around there." Shackleford, a game fourth in the GI Kentucky Derby and also fifth in the GI Belmont S., has emerged from the grueling Triple Crown series no worse for the wear. "He's seemed to improve after every race that he's run; he just keeps getting better," Romans said. "He's one of the few horses that I've ever had that the more work he does the better he gets. He came out of the Haskell in great shape. He won the Preakness but he sure seems like he is an improving horse to me. The more he does the better he gets." Click for video.

Ruler On Ice Works at Monmouth...

George and Lori Hall's GI Belmont S. hero Ruler On Ice (Roman Ruler) worked four furlongs in :48.60 at Monmouth Saturday in preparation of Saratoga's GI Travers S. Aug. 27. The GI Haskell Invitational S. third-place finisher worked in company with stablemate GII Louisiana Derby winner Pants on Fire (Jump Start). "He went very easily," trainer Kelly Breen reported. "We duplicated everything like we did last time. He worked with Pants on Fire. They went together and both hit the wire in :48 3/5." Ruler On Ice was guided through the move by jockey Jose Valdivia Jr. As for travel plans to the Spa Breen added, "We'll either leave Friday afternoon or real early Saturday morning. He's comfortable here at Monmouth, it's his home. We'll just try and keep him in his routine before shipping north." Breen concluded, "Everything was great and he's right on schedule for the Travers."

Blind Luck Staying Put...

If Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) runs next Sunday, it will be in the GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar, trainer Jerry Hollendorfer revealed Saturday. Last year's champion 3-year-old filly was also consideration for Saratoga's GI Personal Ensign S. or Monmouth's GII Molly Pitcher S. "We're not going to New York. We're not going to New Jersey," Hollendorfer said. "If we run anywhere, it will be here." Blind Luck made it three straights wins with a game nose victory over her arch rival Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) in the GII Delaware H. July 16. She will breeze either Tuesday or Wednesday.

Coolmore Buy Into Excelebration...

Coolmore have purchased a share in the impressive G2 Hungerford S. winner Excelebration (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), Racing Post revealed yesterday. While it is expected that the Marco Botti-trained 3-year-old will continue to race in the silks of Giuliano Manfredini for the remainder of this season, no decision has been made about when he will be retired. According to the Post, the deal was concluded on Coolmore's behalf by Blandford Bloodstock. Excelebration, whose six-length success in Saturday's seven-furlong contest at Newbury was preceded by a seven-length score in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) at Cologne May 22 and third in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 14, is being aimed at the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp Sept. 11.

Summer Soiree scored in only one of her six trips to post while trained by Cindy Jones as a juvenile last year, but has really put it all together as a sophomore. Transferred to her husband Larry Jones, Summer Soiree rolled by 9 3/4 lengths in an Oaklawn allowance Jan. 30, then added Turfway's GIII Bourbonette Oaks by double digits Mar. 26, her final start for Wahoo Partners LLC and Brereton C. and Bret Jones. Purchased privately by Team Valor International and transferred to trainer Graham Motion, she tired to 10th after setting the pace in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 6, but looked like a new filly on the lawn in her next start, running off with Monmouth's GIII Boiling Springs S. June 25. Slightly favored here, she sat in second through a half mile in :46.96. With Gabriel Saez aboard, the bay took over down the backstretch, opened daylight at the head of affairs, and just had enough left in the tank to register her first win at the highest level. "Team Valor and partners are really excited to get Summer Soiree a much-deserved Grade I win," Team Valor's COO Bradley Weisbord said from Del Mar. "To run three quarters in 1:10.22 on that turf course, and still hold on, showed what a great effort she put in. It looks like she has found a new home on turf, and being only three years old, we look to have a lot more success in big races with her. It was a great training job by Graham Motion and his team to leave their home base and travel across the country and win a Grade I race with her." Saez added, "I knew we were going a little quick early, but she was comfortable. She handled it all well; she liked the turf. When we went to the second turn, I said it was time to go. That was the plan. I wanted to put some lengths between me and the others. She picked it right up. I knew they were coming, but I had to keep riding. I had to get her home."

Eve Giselle was perfect in a pair of starts at two for Nickel Rocket Stable and trainer Andrew Simoff, including a starter-allowance score at Monmouth Park in September. The bay faced the starter twice for these connections during her sophomore campaign, which concluded with a runner-up finish in Oaklawn's Martha Washington S. in February. She returned in March with a $40,000 optional claiming win in Arkansas, then placed a close third in a $75,000 optional tagger Apr. 14. Freshened and stepped up to stakes company, the Florida-bred earned a career high 99 Beyer when annexing Delaware's Sweet And Sassy S. June 25, then completed the exacta as the 1-5 chalk in Penn National's Daylily S. last time July 15. Firing three bullets in the interim, Eve Giselle was favored to get back on track here. Forcing the issue from third after breaking from post 10, she tugged her way to the front on the turn for home and gamely turned back the runner-up in the stretch to post her first graded victory.

Where's Sterling was the second choice trying graded company for the first time, and proved up to the task. Second in two of three outings last year, he opened 2011 with a maiden score at Gulfstream Jan. 21. The bay came back to take an allowance going nine furlongs two starts later Mar. 24, then stepped up to the black-type ranks and ran fourth in the May 30 Memorial Day S. at Calder. Making his Monmouth bow after a couple of solid works over the track, Where's Sterling broke with the field, but was taken in hand and eased back off the early pace. Cont. p6

On the heels of the leaders around the clubhouse turn and down the backstretch, he was set down on the final bend and angled to the outside as they wheeled into the lane. Southern Ridge got first run to lead them into the final furlong, but Where's Sterling chased him down, hitting the front in at the sixteenth pole and, needing just a wave of the whip to take control, winning by a margin that flattered the runner-up. "We got up here a couple of months ago, and he got a little sick," trainer Nick Canani said, explaining the two-plus month break between races. "It took a little longer than expected to get him back to the races, but he raced great."

A maiden winner and runner-up in this track's Canadian Juvenile S. at two while trained by Barry Brown, Freedoms Traveler had new conditioner in 2011, owing to the death of Brown, who succumbed to cancer after a long battle this past May. Third in six-furlong allowance tests May 21 and June 5 for Brown's longtime partner Lianne Knechtel, the grey gelding scored an allowance win June 19 and followed up with an emotional score in the July 9 Ky Alta H., one day after a memorial service was held in honor of Brown. He couldn't quite get to Peter Redekop's Inhisglory (Pure Prize) when in receipt of three pounds from that foe in the Count Lathum H. July 30, but was well-backed in this longest Derby in North America. Restrained early on as they went a good gallop up front, Freedoms Traveler had improved to about midfield after the first of two circuits on the bullring.

He began to take closer order approaching the final three furlongs, swept in front and opened up an unassailable margin to give connections a poignant success.

The story of Freedoms Traveler began in 2002, when Randy and Donna Feddema purchased a son of Free House with an eye on having a competitive sophomore colt a few years later. There was one small problem. "He couldn't run because of a foot injury," Donna Feddema explained. Instead, the horse that would come to be known as Peacenfreedom was sent to stud by his owners, who supported the stallion with their own mares, including Lunar Gem (Tiffany Ice). She won nearly a third of her 36 career starts, at places like Stampede Park, Northlands and Manor Downs, and earned all of $56,000. But she got her name in lights yesterday as the producer of a Grade III winner.

Opinion Poll took this event last year, when in the care of Michael Jarvis, and ran fourth in the G2 Doncaster Cup the following month before hitting the board in October's G1 Prix Royal-Oak at Longchamp. Opening up this season with a second-place finish in a Jan. 27 Meydan handicap, he occupied the same berth in the Feb. 17 Listed Nad Al Sheba Trophy and closed his Dubai campaign by hitting the board in the Mar. 10 G3 DRC Gold Cup. The bay returned to European action with a a fourth in the May 22 G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier at Longchamp, was a three-length second to Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the June 16 G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot and arrived here off a gutsy win in the July 28 G2 Goodwood Cup. Opinion Poll observed patient tactics in a midfield sixth for most of this marathon and angled into the clear for his run soon after turning for home. Ridden along passing the quarter-mile marker, he hooked up with Duncan at the eighth pole and the pair fought tooth and nail in the closing stages, brushing together twice, before Opinion Poll asserted superiority nearing the line. He survived the inevitable stewards' enquiry.

Beaten a head when runner-up to Vault (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) on debut in a six-furlong maiden at this venue June 3, Dragon Pulse went one better over that trip at Leopardstown July 21 and took a leap forward to dent some reputations among the major flat yards here. Restrained in last by a confident Fran Berry early, the bay was full of run as Dave McCabe took Astrology to the front inside the final quarter. Allowed a breather, he quickened when the button was pressed to swamp the eventual third-place finisher at the furlong pole as Parish Hall fought for the runner's-up spot. "He did it very well and the further he went, the better he was going," trainer Jessica Harrington, who had supplemented Dragon Pulse for this race, commented. "He is in the G2 Beresford S. [at the Curragh Sept. 25], but we might supplement him for the G1 National S. [at The Curragh Sept. 10] if it isn't good-to-firm."

Elusive Kate, who was a June 4 debut fourth at Doncaster, opened her account with an all-weather maiden win at Kempton June 15 and earned black-type with an easy victory in the July 30 Listed Prix Six Perfections over this course and distance. She broke well from her inside box to lead along the rail until joined before halfway in this, a departure from hold-up tactics last time. Ridden along when threatened by Mashoora approaching the final eighth, the bay found plenty under minimal encouragement to increase her advantage in the closing stages and was comfortably on top of that rival at the wire. "The boss was quite confident she would run a good race today and left it to Olivier how to ride her," John Gosden's traveling head lad Les Reynolds said. "He knew it would be better to have her closer to the pace and rode a beautiful race. She always hits a flat spot about two out and then kicks on again and finds more. She is very talented." Tom Goff, who bought the winner from the dispersal of Clovelly Farms, was underbidder on her Mineshaft half-brother--who sold for $350,000--at Saratoga last week and revealed that Alec Head now owns the dam.

Run in a deluge of rain, this select renewal featured a commanding all-the-way win for Talwar, who looked best served by the testing conditions. He had dominated from the front when registering a four-length success over this track and trip July 1 before beating Trumpet Major (Ire) (Arakan) by a short head in Ascot's Listed Winkfield S. last time July 23. This was billed as a rematch, but after Talwar was allowed his own way at the head of affairs, he made a mockery of that idea by pulling clear inside the final quarter.

Topping the French colts is Family One, who deserves his title as the leading home-trained contender after clear-cut wins in the July 3 G3 Prix du Bois at Chantilly and G2 Prix Robert Papin at Maisons-Laffitte last time July 24. Dabirsim may have something to find with the two principals, but created a lasting impression with his success in the G3 Prix de Cabourg over this track and trip July 31. Dont Teutch, who is the sole filly in the line-up, has outside claims on the form of her win in Vichy's Listed Prix des Reves d'Or over five furlongs July 19, which was given a boost when the fourth Calahorra (Fr) (Soave {Ger}) picked up a listed prize this week. While this race is predominantly about precocity, it can sometimes throw up one of the stars of the future among the unexposed types and Freddy Head could be unleashing another of his Deauville specials in Sofast, who upset the well-regarded Abtaal (Rock Hard Ten) in a course-and-distance debutantes race Aug. 2.

CALLING TIME

The G1 Darley Prix Jean Romanet is already shrouded in controversy before the runners line up, with Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab) denied a run by a vagary of the French rules. That leaves the latest renewal without a true star, but in ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Timepiece, it has a growing force among the distaff ranks. Always held in the highest regard by Sir Henry Cecil, the Juddmonte homebred has been gradually coaxed into demonstrating her true ability by the patient approach of her trainer, who used the June 13 Listed Warwickshire Oaks as a confidence booster. She stepped back over two furlongs to the mile of Newmarket's

Timepiece
Horsephotos

G1 Falmouth S., and after sitting close to a steady pace, was sent on to hold Sahpresa (Sahm) in that July 8 contest, where Lily of the Valley was seventh. Timepiece was third behind Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois again over a mile here July 31 and may benefit from going back up in trip. Jockey Tom Queally said, "I was very happy with her that day as she ran straight all the way to the line and, as Snow Fairy is now out of the race, I have to fancy my chances." Last year's G1 Prix de l'Opera heroine Lily of the Valley is better than the bare form of her off-the-board efforts in the G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud May 23 and Falmouth, while Announce warrants respect from the Andre Fabre stable. Second in the Corrida, she was no match for Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) when splitting that rival and Stacelita (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}) in Longchamp's G3 La Coupe June 13 before running fourth behind that winner in the July 20 G3 Grand Prix de Vichy.

ALL AMERICAIN

Now that he is back on the right track, last year's G1 Melbourne Cup hero Americain can take another step towards a return journey to Flemington as he bids for back-to-back renewals of the the G2 Darley Prix Kergorlay. Below-par since returning to Europe, he had regained his verve on his latest outing when taking this venue's Aug. 2 Listed Prix de Reux over 1 9/16 miles, where Ley Hunter and Gentoo were fourth and fifth, respectively. Last year, Manighar was a short-neck second trying to give the Alain de Royer-Dupre trainee two pounds, and he is better off at the weights this time. After a creditable fourth in the G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot June 16, he was disappointing when only eighth in the July 28 G2 Goodwood Cup and has questions to answer. ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Jukebox Jury has shown he retains ability this term with a win in the Listed Fred Archer S. at Newmarket June 25 and third in the G3 Glorious S. at Goodwood July 29. It is significant that the only time he has tried more than 12 furlongs was when he won the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville in 2009.

WINTER WONDERLAND

Winter Memories is the 4-5 morning-line favorite for the GII Lake Placid S. at Saratoga Sunday, and with very good reason. The grey filly has been beaten just once in her six career starts, and is perfect in two Spa appearances. A maiden winner over this course in her debut last September, she evidenced a scintillating show of late speed to turn the local July 27 GII Lake George S. into a laughter, winning by 4 1/2 lengths. "It was an incredible turn of foot, and I don't think she had that last year," said trainer Jimmy Toner.

Winter Memories
Horsephotos

"Last year, I think she was grinding away at them." The 3-year-old goes beyond 1 1/16 miles for the first time, but that's not a worry for her connections. "I don't think the distance will make any difference to her," said Toner, adding, "I think the pace scenario is a question mark, because you like to have pace. It's a different type of a race for her. If they go quick up front, she'll be 10-12 lengths [back]. If they don't go quick up front, she'll be as close up as she was in the Sands Point." Last early in the Lake George, Winter Memories was sitting in third, just a half-length from the front, through a half in :51 2/5 in the May 30 GIII Sands Point S. She kicked clear late to win by three lengths. Looking to take down the favorite is Emory Hamilton's Hungry Island. The bay steps up to the graded-stakes ranks in quest of her fourth straight victory. She took a maiden race May 6, an allowance event June 8 and the Recording S. July 2, all on the Belmont spinach. Kathmanblu, three-for-six on the grass, was second in the P.G. Johnson S. at the Spa last summer. She enters this off a fourth in the June 18 GIII Regret S. on the turf at Churchill.

THE PROOF IS IN THE PUDDING

As is his habit, Fifty Proof will try to take 'em gate to wire in the GII Sky Classic S. at Woodbine this afternoon. First or second in seven of eight tries on the local sod, the 5-year-old gelding kicked off 2011 with wins in an optional claimer Apr. 22 and the GIII Eclipse S. on the Poly May 28. He cut out the pace in the June 25 GII King Edward S. at a mile and the July 24 GII Nijinsky S. at nine panels before yielding grudgingly late to be a close-up second on both occasions. Stretching out to 10 furlongs might seem to be a bit of a...stretch...but the chestnut handled the distance just fine in his only previous attempt, an allowance test over this course just over a year ago. Grassy goes for his first win of the year off a pair of solid second-place efforts. The Claiborne and Dilschneider homebred was beaten 3/4 of a length in the Three Coins Up S. at 1 1/4 miles on a yielding Belmont lawn May 22, and missed by a neck behind Musketier in Woodbine's GIII Singpiel S. at 1 1/2 miles June 26. The well-traveled Smart Bid visits his sixth different racetrack in his last six starts. The Augustin homebred captured the Mar. 26 GII Mervin Muniz Jr. H. at Fair Grounds, ran second in the Feb. 5 GI Gulfstream Park Turf H., May 7 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic and June 18 Colonial Turf Cup, and was most recently fourth in the July 23 GI Eddie Read S. at Del Mar.

KING OF THE HALL By Christina Bossinakis
(Final Installment of a 3-part series)

Damsel of the Hall # 6?...

With already five in the bag, it isn't outside the realm of possibility that Lukas might have another addition to his illustrious quintet before long. Lukas offered some insight as to who might be worthy of inclusion in the Racing Hall of Fame.

"I think Landaluce has a shot to get in," Lukas offered. "She would be high on the list to get into the Hall of Fame if you had my vote. She was simply unbelievable, but she might be penalized, because she only made five lifetime starts, but she definitely belongs there."

Lukas purchased the striking bay for $650,000 at the 1981 Keeneland July yearling sale on behalf of Texas oilmen Lloyd French and Barry Beal, who Lukas had brought over from his Quarter Horse racing days. Introduced to Lukas via Mel Hatley--another significant association from the Quarter Horse industry--the pair named their filly after a guide on a Spanish ranch they'd once visited, Francisco Landaluce.

From the first foal crop of Triple Crown hero Seattle Slew, the dark bay won her career debut at Hollywood Park by six lengths a week before wowing spectators with a 21-length victory in the 1982 GII Hollywood Lassie S. The filly completed the six-furlong test in 1:08 flat. (Video, courtesy Youtube)

"If you go back and look at the Lassie S., which is now named the Landaluce S., just before they got to the turn, they were all about a length or so, apart," explained Lukas. "If you stop the tape and ask who might win it, well, you might think any one of four or five horses might win it from there. Then you let the tape run and, from the quarter pole to the wire, she opens up 21 lengths."

"The best line that came out of the race was from [jockey] Ray Sibille, who finished second in that race [aboard Bold Out Line]. Laffit Pincay [riding Landaluce] never pulled up a horse in his career--he would just let them gallop out until they got tired," Lukas deadpanned. "Ray returned to the scales first, and the press comes running down because they had never seen anything like it, 21 lengths from the quarter pole to the wire, because so few horses can do that. A reporter asked Ray his thoughts, and he said, 'I beat everybody I could see.'"

The filly added victories in the one-mile GI Del Mar Debutante S. and seven-panel GIII Anoakia S. before once again running away to an easy victory in the GI Oak Leaf S. at Santa Anita. Pointed toward the GI Hollywood Starlet S., the filly became ill with a viral infection six days prior to the race. She deteriorated as the infection slowly spread through her internal organs, shutting them down, and finally gave up the fight on Dec. 11, 1982.

"She died in my arms in the stall," Lukas said. "It was brutal. The groom had a nervous break down and I damn well almost did, too. To have one that good, that great, and to watch her go like that. We had a big ceremony for her in the infield at Hollywood Park."

While many would continue to mull over what might have been, Lukas offered a different perspective:

"You search and you look, and then all of a sudden, it comes, that star, and you know you have been blessed with something special."

Hall Also Eligibles...

High on Lukas's list to potentially receive their own plaque in the Hall is Bob and Beverly Lewis' Charismatic.

"I think Charismatic has a shot because he almost won the Triple Crown," offered Lukas.

While the robust chestnut appeared to merit consideration for the Hall of Fame when he concluded his career on the track, Lukas pointed out that was not always the case.

Charismatic

"He was such an underachiever; he was lazy, overweight and not very focused," recalled Lukas. "I started really drilling on him--it's what you might call 'Tough love.' I started to ask him to things I had never asked another horse to do, and he started to get a really rippled look to him. I ran him in a claiming race [at Santa Anita] and nobody even looked twice to reach in and get him."

Adding with a laugh, he said, "Maybe about 2,000 guys said they were going to claim him now."

The colt was a narrow second in the GIII El Camino Real Derby before coming home fourth--beaten 8 1/4 lengths by General Challenge--in the GI Santa Anita Derby.

"I told Bob Lewis I thought we could win the Kentucky Derby. He told me, 'Wayne, don't go drinking your bath water.'" Lukas said with a laugh.

According to Lukas, the turning point for the son of Summer Squall occurred two weeks later when the colt was shipped to Kentucky for the GII Lexington S. Accompanied by Hall of Fame jockey Jerry Bailey, the colt came from off the pace to win by an emphatic 2 1/4 lengths.

"He ran a brilliant race in the Lexington--I really thought I got the horse to turn the corner. The next morning, Jerry Bailey came to me and said, 'If I hadn't taken a retainer to ride Worldy Manner for the Maktoums, I would give them their money back and ride your horse in the Kentucky Derby.' About an hour later, I ran into Pat Day, who ran second [with Yankee Victor in the Lexington], and he said he felt our horse ran by him so easily that he thought I had a great shot to win the Derby with him. That's two Hall of Famers in an hour, so I was feeling pretty good going in to the Derby."

Lukas continued, "That year, I also had Cat Thief [subsequent winner of the Breeders' Cup Classic], who was 7-2, while Charismatic was 31-1. But going into the paddock and saddling them, I really thought Charismatic was the best."

With Chris Antley aboard, Charismatic won the Derby before adding the Preakness two weeks later. Contrary to Lukas's orders, Charismatic was placed unusually close to the early pace by Antley in the Belmont, and weakened late to be third, beaten 1 1/2 lengths. In a dramatic turn of events, the colt was pulled up after breaking down soon after the wire.

"Charismatic should be considered for the Hall of Fame," suggested Lukas. "He was the best horse that year and should have won the Triple Crown."

Although they are unlikely candidates for the Hall of Fame, largely due to truncated campaigns, Lukas still ranks a pair of brilliant juveniles--Grand Canyon and Saratoga Six--among his very best.

Saratoga Six--named for the six investors in the $2.2-million Fasig-Tipton Saratoga select yearling graduate--won four straight, including the Balboa S. and GI Del Mar Futurity, but was injured soon after that career high victory.

"If you pin [jockey Angel] Cordero down, who rode the likes of Seattle Slew, he would tell you the best horse he ever rode was Saratoga Six," stated Lukas. "He said Saratoga Six did things he couldn't believe a racehorse could do."

While Saratoga Six was unable to fulfill his promise after heading to stud early because of injury, the fate of Grand Canyon would take a much more ominous path.

"Grand Canyon was just a beautiful horse," said Lukas. "I had Criminal Type [Horse of the Year in 1990] run in an allowance race at Hollywood Park--he won going a mile in 1:34 3/5. The next race was the [GI] Hollywood Futurity and Grand Canyon ran in 1:33 flat. He was just unbelievable."

Saratoga Six

Just as was the case with the brilliant, but ill-fated filly Landaluce earlier in the decade, Lukas would have to watch from the sidelines as another potential star faded.

"The outrider bumped him with the pony as [jockey Angel] Cordero was trying to pull him up after that win," he said. "He ruptured a blood vessel in his right leg and he foundered two days later. I thought he was a Triple Crown winner; in fact, I thought he could win with one leg tied up. He was something else."

The Lukas Legacy...

He is solidly entrenched in the Hall of Fame through his own exploits as well as those of his former pupils, but Lukas acknowledged that subsequent generations of racing fans, as well as racing writers, are becoming more and more detached from the luminaries of yesteryear.

“The collective voters are getting younger,” Lukas pointed out. “You don't have as many guys like [turf writers] Joe Hirsch or Bill Nack anymore. When you throw out names like Landaluce and Effervescing, young people won't have any idea who they were and simply won't be able to relate to them. Maybe now, with Youtube, they can pull up the videos on those horses and get an impression of how good those horses actually were. It's important to pass it along to future generations.”

Lukas' roster of past champions, Classic heroes and Grade I winners reads like a veritable who's who of racing's elite: Effervescing, Terlingua, Codex, Althea, Capote, Tank's Prospect, Serena's Song, Landaluce, Thunder Gulch, Timber Country, Tabasco Cat, Winning Colors, Lady's Secret, Criminal Type, Charismatic, Grindstone, Twilight Ridge, Family Style Life's Magic, Capote, Success Express, Sacahuista, Open Mind, Is It True, Gulch, Steinlen (GB), Flanders, Boston Harbor, Cat Thief, Cash Run, Commendable, Spain, Orientate, Folklore. While Lukas' horsemanship, discipline and dedication gave his contemporaries something to respect and, even fear, it was the early lessons learned along the bush tracks of Wisconsin that molded him into the man that would eventually change the modern face of racing.

Saratoga.com

The polished looks, refined manners and silver tongues of the current generation of trainers have seemingly become the norm and not the exception among today's racing leaders. Despite the passing years, most in the industry today are fully aware of where the trend began.

“The days of the guy sitting outside a stall whittling and spitting tobacco are gone,” said Lukas. “And what's wrong with getting a three-piece suit and a sharp tie, and dealing with these corporate guys and having the barn look like a million bucks?”

But while the Team Lukas mantra earned him fame and recognition--both within and beyond racing's borders, it was not well received by all.

“The criticism never phased me,” admitted Lukas. “That comes from my coaching background. If you're going to be a coach in a major school, you better have a thick skin. The alumni, the press, everybody is going to second guess you.

So when I came along, I didn't worry about the criticism, because I was going to do it my way. I did it my way--and things changed, little by little.”

How does the basketball coach turned horse trainer think he might be remembered by future generations?

“We tried to raise the bar a little bit,” Lukas offered. “Many give us credit for changing the game. We showed people you can have horses coast to coast, run them everywhere and get them to perform where they fit best. Also, after being a basketball coach for 10 years, I can't help myself but teach.”

While the names and the number of championships, the titles and awards may fade with the passing of time and the emergence of new generations, Lukas believes his legacy will continue through what he believes to be among his most significant of accomplishments--the assistants who came through his barn.

“I like to think that I imparted something of value to those young men,” he said. “Having said that, I think those guys [former assistants] were going to be successful if they had never met me, but maybe I pushed them along a little quicker. It was the appearance of the barn and the horses, a lot of the little things that go unnoticed, that helped make a difference. But I also tried to change those kids' lives. I still love them, I really do. It's just the coach in me, I guess.”

Sent off as the 3-1 second choice, the blaze-faced gelding was unhurried in the early stages. He made a strong, wide move entering the stretch and was carried out a bit by Cribnote (Read the Footnotes), but was resolute and hit the wire a neck in front of Ground Force (Bowman's Band), who was down on the inside. That fact, combined with this visit to open company, earned him a morning-line quote of 15-1 from oddsmaker Eric Donovan, but the betting public saw it differently and sent the homebred away at 6-1. Quickly in front beneath Ramon Dominguez, B Shanny set the pace a bit off the inside and began to widen on the turn. He cut the corner into the stretch, opened a bit of daylight and held sway late for a 3/4-length victory. El Padrino (Pulpit), a bit tardy to begin, had lots of running to do in the lane, and made up most of that deficit, while Grandpa Len (Rockport Harbor) took a photo for third from Tritap (Tapit). Trapped out deep as they raced under the line the first time, Javier Castellano had to check Fantastic Song off heels, but that move allowed him to drop down onto the fence into the first turn. The SARATOGA Spotlight Race of the Day

Race 6 - MSW, f, 2yo, 5 1/2ft

Fly to the Sky (Lone Star Sky) didn't do anything particularly encouraging in her sloppy-track debut here July 25, but the Walter New homebred was entered that day for the turf and will get it this time if Mother Nature cooperates. The chestnut is the first foal out of Flying Circle (Pembroke), an accomplished turf sprint stakes winner for these connections who broke her maiden at second asking. Trainer David Fawkes has had a cold Saratoga meet so far, but he does extremely well in turf sprints in general and all of the relevant subcategories therein. Fawkes scored with 9-1 2-year-old second timer Valley of Avoca (Intidab) towards the end of the Belmont meet when putting her on the turf for the first time. Pletcher-trained Sweet Cat (Kitten's Joy) will be tough, but don't rule out Fly to the Sky. Yesterday's Results: News Pending was rank throughout and never factored. Other picks from the TDN Blog did a bit better, however, as Unbridled Command was a narrowly beaten runner-up in the second at 10-1 and Royal Delta paid $13.00 for her 5 1/2-length triumph in the Alabama. For more Saratoga analysis, visit the TDN Blog or follow Brian on Twitter.

3rd-MTH, $45,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 1m70y, 1:45 3/5, ft. MISSREDHEAD (f, 2, Lion Heart--Monkton Miss, by Out of Place), fourth when unveiled for a $40,000 tag in a local sprint July 8, was most recently sixth in another 5 1/2-furlong dash at the Jersey Shore July 30.

Stretching out and getting first-time Lasix here, the chestnut was forced into an overland trip from her outside post. She poked her head in front approaching the eighth pole, but faced an immediate danger from Mine Own (Mineshaft), who snuck through on the fence. The two fillies duked it out before Missredhead got the bob on the wire. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $28,850. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Stars to Shine, who concluded her sophomore season with a close fifth in the GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill Nov. 20, kicked off 2011 with an allowance win on the Woodbine weeds June 11. She followed that with a troubled fifth in the GII Dance Smartly S. over the same course July 10, but was favored in this Polytrack affair. Though the blaze-faced miss was forced into a wide trip while racing just off the pace, she shrugged off a bid from Ariana D. entering the stretch and kicked clear late for her first black-type victory. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Bet down 4-5 for this career opener, the iron grey was content to race in second as Caribaya Queen (Vronsky) showed the way. Blue Heart looked like she'd roll right by the pacesetter turning for home, but that filly dug in gamely on the inside, and the favorite needed the length of the stretch to get by for a half-length victory. The chestnut paired up wins at Fair Grounds during the winter of her 3-year-old campaign, but was benched after finishing seventh in the Mardi Gras H. in February 2010. A rusty seventh in her return at Hoosier in October, the Florida-bred was most recently third in a dash on the Churchill spinach Nov. 19. Sweet Swap had some big shoes and lofty expectations to live up to, being a full sibling to and GISW Sidney's Candy, $1,043,560; that chestnut earned ★ "TDN Rising Star" status when he set a track record at Del Mar back in 2009. There may be more and better to come from Sweet Swap, but he got his career off on a high note nonetheless, staying on gamely for a two-length debut victory Saturday afternoon at Del Mar. A bit reluctant to load, the homebred left the gate well enough, but had to be ridden along to take up the running entering the far turn. He showed another gear to put a couple of lengths on his rivals in upper stretch and was never threatened on his way to a 1 3/4-length triumph. Castaway (Street Sense), a $435,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, was up late for second. The winner's dam, Fair Exchange, was bred to Candy Ride this past spring. The race was left to Include Me Out and Blazing Along (Medaglia d'Oro) at that point, with the former scoring by 2 3/4 lengths. It was another 7 3/4 lengths back to third. CTHA Files Petition To Decertify TOC:

The California Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association gathered more than 1,000 signatures for a petition filed Saturday that would remove the Thoroughbred Owners of California as the representative of the horsemen in the state. The CTHA, formed earlier this year, is campaigning to replace the TOC in that position. If the petition is granted, an election will be held to determine who will represent the horsemen in the Golden State. In a statement, CTHA President David Wilson said, "We have been working to reunify and revitalize Thoroughbred racing in California. Earlier this month, we reached out to the TOC to try to resolve our difference. Unfortunately, the TOC has refused even to respond to our offer." In response, the TOC President Lou Raffetto countered, "This is an attempt led by a small group of individuals that does not have the best interests of the owners in mind. Simply put, the leadership of the CTHA does not want a strong owners' organization, but seeks to merge it into one that can be controlled by trainers." The CTHA has asserted it has more than 7,000 members.

Dropped into midfield following a sharp break here, he was asked for his effort three furlongs from home and closed with a strong late run to collar Majestic Myles in the shadow of the post. "It was a decent pace and he traveled well," said winning rider Silvestre de Sousa. "He hit a bit of a flat spot from about four [furlongs] out, but I tried to keep him interested and rolling, and he did it well. He's so tough and genuine." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

My Propeller, a May 27 debut seventh at Newmarket, blitzed the opposition by 17 lengths and more when breaking through at Pontefract June 19, but slipped to 10th when tackling the July 8 G2 Cherry Hinton S. at Newmarket's other track last time. Quickly into stride and racing fourth in isolation along the stands' side rail, she was last off the bridle when shaken up approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under mild urging in the closing stages to register a first black-type score in cozy fashion. "Our horses have been on fire in the last two weeks, and My Propeller appreciated going back to five [furlongs] against lesser opposition," conditioner Peter Chapple-Hyam's travelling head lad Ronan Meehan told PA Sport. "The owner [soccer player Joey Barton] couldn't get here as [his team] Newcastle [United] were playing today, and he'll be a happy man as they won, too." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Formerly with Geoff Wragg and then Michael Bell, Moyenne Corniche was always considered a pattern-race performer and proved that when splitting the Group 1 performers Spacious (GB) (Nayef) and Alexandros (GB) (Kingmambo) in a conditions event at Doncaster in September 2008. He managed a second in the Listed Prix Tantieme over 1 5/16 mile at Saint-Cloud the following season and was only tried over extended trips this term after Brian Ellison acquired him. Runner-up to Investissement in a handicap over this trip at Goodwood Apr. 30, he was third behind the subsequent G3 Curragh Cup winner Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) in the Listed Braveheart S. at Hamilton May 13 before running off the board in both the two-mile Northumberland Plate at Newcastle June 25 and John Smith's Cup over an extended 10 furlongs here last time July 9. Held up in rear initially as Joseph O'Brien took up the running on The Queen's Tactician, he started to make progress from the tail of the field at the top of the straight as the long-time leader was assaulted on both sides. While Tactician stuck to his guns and eventually warded off Investissement, the Royal runner had no answer to the late surge of Moyenne Corniche in the final 100 yards. "I knew he was bouncing and he loves that bit of cut in the ground," Ellison said. "I just wish I'd entered him in the Melbourne Cup now."

This renamed Ballycullen S. was all about Fame and Glory beforehand, but Fictional Account didn't read the script and gatecrashed the G1 Gold Cup hero's homecoming to cause a shock in this stamina test. Only sixth here last year, Fictional Account had managed one win since--in the Sept. 26 Listed Fenwolf S. at Ascot--and finished off the radar in Royal Ascot's showpiece before hitting the board in the Listed Challenge S. at Leopardstown last time July 14. Positioned in second until setting sail for home at the top of the straight, she came under increased urging as Fame and Glory threatened inside the final quarter mile and was driven out in the latter stages to keep that illustrious rival at bay.

We might also look at the G1 Irish St Leger back here [Sept. 10], but everything is ground-dependent. In fairness to everyone at The Curragh, they had the ground perfect today."
