SATURDAY IN THE PARK

Yesterday's card at Belmont Park was dubbed as "Super Saturday," and it sure lived up to the billing despite wet conditions. Last year's champion juvenile Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) proved to be one of the brightest stars on the day, getting back on track against older horses with a sharp three-length win over Jackson Bend (Hear No Evil) in the GII Kelso H. The Repole Stable colorbearer has his sights set on the GI Breeders' Cup Classic next. Fox Hill Farm's Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) apparently has plenty left in the tank after defeating the boys in the GI Woodward S. this summer, returning to her own division with a dominating 8 1/4-length win in the GI Beldame Invitational S. She will be pointed to the $5-million centerpiece at Churchill as well. Preston Stables's Flat Out (Flatter) finally got his Grade I victory with a smart 2 1/4-length success over Drosselmeyer (Distorted Humor) in the Jockey Club Gold Cup. Favored Stay Thirsty (Bernardini), taking on older horses for the first time in his career, had to settle for third. Stacelita (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}), owned by Martin Schwartz, made it two straight top shelf wins following her heroics in the GI Beverly D.

Parbhoo's Giant Ryan (Freud) pulled off the only real upset of the day, delivering a 12-1 victory in the GI Vosburgh Invitational. Favored Trappe Shot (Tapit) completed the superfecta.

S. with a two-length decision in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational. Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) just hung on to record his third straight Grade I win in this country in the Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational. The Mrs. Fitri Hay, Derrick Smith, Mrs. John Magnier and Michael Tabor colorbearer held off Dean's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) by a nose. Shivananda

ONE FOR THE LADIES?

With Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}), Galikova (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}), Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab) and Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) in the line-up, today's renewal of the G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe could be all about the females. Few have managed to overhaul the colts in this feature, but the strengthening and upgrading of Europe's distaff program may be bringing a return to the era of Allez France, Ivanjica, Three Troikas (Fr), Detroit (Fr), Gold River (Fr), Akiyda (GB) and All Along (Fr), who all triumphed here from 1974-1983. Sarafina represents the powerful axis of His Highness The Aga Khan and Alain de Royer-Dupre, who masterminded the success of the best filly in generations Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) here in 2008, and some may suggest she is unlucky not to have already captured Europe's feature. Hampered before rallying into third behind Workforce (GB) (King's Best) 12 months ago, the homebred has cruised through her light 4-year-old campaign, which has been crafted with this race in mind. Playing her trump card acceleration to outclass the subsequent G1 Prix Jean Romanet winner Announce (GB) (Selkirk) in the G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud May 23, the "TDN Rising Star" performed the same trick at the expense of Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) in the June 26 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud before defeating Hiruno d'Amour (Jpn) (Manhattan Cafe {Jpn}) and St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) under Christophe Lemaire in the course-and-distance G2 Prix Foy last time Sept. 11.

Se... believe!

Elusive Quality's exceptional son Sepoy, Australian champion and winner of the world's richest two-year-old race last season, beats older horses in the G1 Manikato under a hand ride. He's one of the greats...

"We wanted to make as less an effort as possible in the Foy and when she changed legs at the end, she was very impressive," Lemaire said. "I had to go through a narrow gap there, but she wasn't scared. Even if the statistics are not for us, I am sure she can do it, as she is a very strong and classy filly." De Royer-Dupre added, "She was very well for the Arc last year and finished well having had a terrible race, but this year she looks more mature. We didn't want to run her too much this season to keep her fresh for the Arc. She doesn't need too much work and is easy to train. She has a good turn of foot and can go on any ground. If she runs well, she could run against the colts in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf."

A Wertheimer Gala?

With two leading chances in the 2-year-old races as well as Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) in the preceding G1 Prix de la Foret, the Wertheimer operation could be enjoying a benefit before that stellar performer's half-sister Galikova (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}) steps out for this test. The 🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 broke through at the highest level when besting Ecurie la Boetie's June 26 G2 Prix de Malleret winner Testosterone (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) and The Aga Khan's Aug. 12 G3 Prix Minerve scorer Shareta (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) in the Sept. 11 G1 Prix Vermeille. She previously finished runner-up in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly June 12 and won the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville Aug. 15, so she has as much experience as connections have been able to put her way ahead of this contest. "I knew she was going to make a lot of progress, but I wasn't sure she would be an Arc filly," explained trainer Freddy Head, who won this race four times as a jockey. "I knew she was a good filly, but like her sister she needed a bit of time, and was not precocious. She is no problem to deal with, is very easy to train and has speed and stays."

He continued, "She is easier than Goldikova, who has more temperament and is a bit more coltish. In the Vermeille, I was very impressed by the way she relaxed and then finished. The weight-for-age is in the favor of the 3-year-olds, and she is the right type for the Arc. I fancy her a lot. Winning a Group 1 was the goal and this is the cherry on the cake--if she doesn't win, there will be other Group 1s and she will improve again. Next year, she definitely stays in training and will be a lovely 4-year-old, so we know we have time. I don't think she will go up to six like her sister, but she will have a good year next year." Three-time Arc-winner Olivier Peslier added, "She is in good form and won well last time, and in the Diane she wasn't 100%, despite finishing second. At Deauville and Longchamp, she showed she is improving and her form is very good. It is hard to win with a 3-year-old filly, and not so many have done it, but she is very well and has a chance. Sarafina won well last time and the Japanese aren't bad either, nor is Reliable Man, but the race is open."

Hard and Fast Trends...

In recent times, 3-year-old colts have dominated proceedings by accounting for 13 of the last 17 Arc winners. Andre Fabre was responsible for five of those, making his tally seven in total since Trempolino got him off the mark in 1988. Blighted by a virus in his stable this season, Chantilly's maestro has also lost the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby hero Pour Moi (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) from his armory, but still has a live contender in the Rothschild Family's Meandre (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}). Impressive when accounting for Seville (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}), Reliable Man (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris over this track and trip, the grey homebred was reported to have suffered an interrupted preparation ahead of his respectable two-length second to Reliable Man in the all-important prep, the G2 Prix Niel, over the same course and distance Sept. 11. Reliable Man, who had won the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly June 5, is bidding to become the first to follow up here since that Classic was dropped to 1 5/16 miles in 2005. Trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre would have preferred the softer ground he encountered in the Niel, but still holds high hopes for the Pride Racing Club's contender, who bids to emulate his sire's success here after winning the Prix du Jockey Club in its old guise as a 12-furlong Classic in 2003. "He is not too different from Dalakhani, he has the same ability and has a long acceleration, is easy to ride and is never anxious before a race and never pulls," de Royer-Dupre said.

De Royer-Dupre continued, "He is mature and Gerald [Mosse] has a good connection with him. I knew from the beginning he was a Group 1 horse, and he is up there with the best. The ground was too firm for him in the Grand Prix de Paris, after which he had a temperature and coughed, so we can forget the race. He showed what he could do last time on good-to-soft and that is best for him. If it's too firm, it's not good."

Owner-breeder Sven Hanson, whose syndicate is named after his 2006 Arc runner-up Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), reiterated that last point when adding, "We are excited, but we would like to see some rain, as the good-to-soft ground description at Longchamp for the Grand Prix de Paris was definitely wrong. He is improving and has only ran five times. Pride went very close in 2006, and you need to be very lucky in the Arc, where usually one of about 10 can win."

The Winner Unmasked?

For much of the summer and early fall, Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was John Gosden's Arc hope, but with the Indian summer putting paid to that prospect, an able deputy has emerged in Bjorn Nielsen's Masked Marvel (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). Successful in Goodwood's Listed Cocked Hat S. May 18 and Newmarket's G3 Bahrain Trophy July 7 either side of an eighth placing in the Epsom Derby, the bay rose to prominence with a three-length success in the Sept. 10 G1 St Leger. Supplemented this week, he will bid to end a long run of winners of that Doncaster Classic to meet with defeat here. "He is in good form and supplementing was the right thing to do," Gosden said yesterday, before voicing concerns over the Longchamp officials' watering policy. "My only concern is that they have got the ground right and it's not too loose, which it can be when you start watering as late as they are. He wouldn't like false ground, and I hope when he puts his foot down, it doesn't move around too much underneath."

John Gosden

Two For the Rising Sun...

In the year of the G1 Dubai World Cup winner Victoire Pisa (Jpn) (Neo Universe {Jpn}), an Arc win for Japan would bookend a breakthrough season. Since the brave but ultimately vain effort of El Condor Pasa (Kingmambo) in 1999, the nation has chased the dream with relish, and Deep Impact (Jpn) and Nakayama Festa (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) have both gone close in recent times. The latter went down by only a head 12 months ago and is joined by compatriot Hiruno d'Amour. They put in respectable trials when fourth and second, respectively, in the Prix Foy. Nakayama Festa improved at least a stone on his second in that prep last year, and was entering the latest renewal off a 10-month break, so could be in the mix again. Hiruno d'Amour, who was also running off a long absence having been aimed at this race since his success in the G1 Tenno Sho at Kyoto May 1, has been impressing work-watchers in the last few days and has strong credentials. Tony Clout, who has stabled Nakayama Festa, is hopeful last year's Arc runner-up can hold his own once more. "The Japanese horses have a lot of speed and can carry it a long way, like El Condor Pasa, and this one is the same," Clout said. "I was impressed with the way he ran last time. It is quite an open race, and both Japanese horses can be there with a good chance."

A FLAT OUT RUNNER

Preston Stables's Flat Out announced his presence with a sparkling win in Belmont's GII Suburban H. July 2, and returned to Big Sandy with authority in Saturday's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup. Placed in a perfect spot in fourth through fractions of :24.17 and :48.56, Flat Out set his sights on the pacesetting Rodman (Malibu Moon) entering the stretch, took over shortly thereafter and held last year's GI Belmont S. hero Drosselmeyer safe. "Alex [Solis] rode him perfect," Charles "Scooter" Dickey said of Flat Out, who was also second-best in Saratoga's GI Whitney H. Aug. 6 and GI Woodward S. Sept. 3. "He did everything perfectly. I never was worried about the 1 1/4 miles. It seemed to be a decent pace. I liked the :48 [seconds]; that's just the way he likes to run. He seems to like this track, he's two-for-two [and] he ran two real good races at Saratoga. You can't knock those horses (Tizway and Have de Grace) he ran against there. This is my first Grade I win; you wouldn't believe how big this is. I've been training since 1963. It's tremendous. It's hard to fathom, but I like it." Flat Out will take on Havre de Grace (Saint Liam), Tizway (Tiznow) and Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic next. "We're going to be there and try them," Dickey continued. "We'll go back to Monmouth tonight and ship to Kentucky the day after tomorrow." Owner Art Preston added, "It's about time, isn't it? He's a great horse--he's run a lot of good seconds and everything, and he just had the race he needed today. It's the first Gold Cup we've run in, and to win the first one, that's pretty special. It was his race today. Everything worked out." Sophomore Stay Thirsty, slightly favored off wins in the GII Jim Dandy S. and GI Travers S., had no real excuses while third. He finished a strong second in the GI Belmont S., contested over a sloppy track. "Talking to [jockey] Javier [Castellano] he felt like he struggled with the racetrack a bit," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "His comment was that this was a different type of muddy track than Belmont S. day, which was a really sloppy, splash-through-it type track. In spite of that, it wasn't a bad effort. At the end of the day, it was his first time against older horses and we think he can improve on this." GIANT KILLER

Giant Ryan was given little respect despite riding a five-race winning streak into the loaded GI Vosburgh Invitational, but he made 'em all pay. The GI Smile Sprint H. victor was hustled to the front by Cornelio Velasquez, zipped through fractions of :22.10 and :44.36, and dug in gamely over the sloppy going to outkick Force Freeze to the line. "He was already qualified for the Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' with the Smile," trainer Bisnath Parboo, a native of Trinidad, said. "This is the eighth race for the year. He needed a break after the Smile." Giant Ryan lines up next for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill Downs. He is owned by the trainer's son Shivananda Parbhoo, who spells his last name differently. "If he couldn't lead, he'd sit second," Parbhoo added. "This is his home track. I will keep him here [at Belmont] for a week or two and then he will ship directly to Churchill Downs. He will leave three weeks before the Breeders' Cup. This was to see if he could compete with the best horses."

Giant Ryan's winning streak began with a state-bred optional claiming score over the Aqueduct inner Mar. 4. He defeated Empire-breds again over the Big A main in the Hamlet S. Apr. 6, then added an open $75,000 optional claimer in the Belmont slop May 4. The bay earned a career-high 105 Beyer in Calder's Ponche H. June 11, and was freshened following his score during the Summit of Speed program.

Trappe Shot (Tapit), favored at even-money, tracked the leaders for most of the way and just got nailed late for third. "We got squeezed a little bit at the break," trainer Kieran McLaughlin commented. "Basically, [rider John Velasquez] said they weren't coming back. Speed held up. He didn't run that bad. When you're even money, it's disappointing. It seems like it's always something with the track or this or that. The same thing happened last time. It's just tough. He's such a good horse. It's a shame. We'll regroup and figure out what to do from here."

Second-choice Euroears (Langfuhr), last seen annexing Del Mar's GI Bing Crosby S. July 31, was squeezed early and failed to recover.

Sept. 3, including GI Jockey Club Gold Cup hero Flat Out (Flatter), added another notch to her belt with a brilliant display in Saturday's GI Beldame Invitational at Belmont Park. Facing only four rivals here, the heavy favorite rated kindly in third as Life at Ten (Malibu Moon) began to run off through an opening quarter in :23.53. Havre de Grace was much closer while holding her position in third through a half mile in :46.71, challenged for the lead at the head of affairs, and made it look mighty easy in the stretch, punching her ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Classic in style. "She had plenty in reserve," trainer Larry Jones said of the Fox Hill Farm colorbearer. "We didn't want to have to use 110%, but it was there if we needed it. I was a little concerned and had never seen her run over this type of track, but she responded. I don't think we had to ask for her best. She and I are still learning each other. I think we're starting to get there. We've got her fit now, and we don't have to put electrifying works in her. She's dead fit." Havre de Grace won four of her previous five trips to post this term, including the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Apr. 15 and Delaware's GIII Obeah S. June 11. She lost a heartbreaker to her arch-rival Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) in the GII Delaware H. July 16. As he did earlier this week on NTRA's teleconference, Jones paid his star filly the ultimate compliment. "I seriously think this is the closest I've ever witnessed the perfect race horse," Jones said. "I thought Secretariat was that when he retired. If she has a flaw anywhere, anyhow, I haven't found it." As for the Breeders' Cup Classic, Jones added, "She has the speed to match up with them. I'm sure we will see Uncle Mo (Uncle Charlie) in there. He was very impressive 30 minutes ago, and it should make it very interesting." Regular rider Ramon Dominguez was in the irons. "It was very easy," he said. "She was in control the whole time, and turning for home I made sure I had her running. I got after her some, and when I took a peek back inside three-sixteenths she was in front by many, and she did it pretty easy. She's a special horse. Being a filly, it's like she's the underdog, so to speak. She's as good as the males, to me. Physically, the way she handled herself and her power, she's really a racehorse. You never underestimate anybody, but I wouldn't trade places with anybody, either."

Miracle Who? Miracle Man

Miracle Man's first crop of registered NY Bred yearlings will be on sale at the Fasig-Tipton sale in Timonium, MD, October 4 - 5, 2011. Miracle Man is the best bred Stallion value in New York. His dam side goes back 12 straight generations of Stakes winners and producers. He won short and long, dirt and turf. Miracle Man set the Track Record at Monmouth Park for 1 1/16 miles on the Turf in 2006. He won races where he defeated Silver Train (Breeders' Cup Sprint Champion) and Unbridled Energy.

BLANCO FINISH

Cape Blanco was 3-5 on the tote board, but he didn't have it easy in the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic. The chestnut had to fight it out all the way to the line before getting the nod by a nostril over the longest shot in the field, 14-1 Dean's Kitten. The winner of the G1 Irish Derby and G1 Irish Champion S. at three, Cape Blanco had been off the board in his first three tries this term, and found himself packing his bags after a sixth in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 9. But he bested champ Gio Ponti (Tale of the Cat) in the July 9 GI Man o'War S. and in the Aug. 13 GI Arlington Million, and was odds-on to make it three in a row. Mission Approved (With Approval) jumped out to an early lead, with Cape Blanco tailgating, and slogged through six panels in 1:19 1/5. The favorite collared the leader on the far turn and opened daylight at the top of the lane, but Dean's Kitten ate into the advantage before missing by an inch. Asked if the 4-year-old would be back for the Nov. 5 GI Breeders' Cup Turf, Ashford Stud's Charlie O'Connor, representing the winning owners, said, "I'd imagine that will be the drill, but they'll bring him home and [trainer] Aidan [O'Brien] will see how he comes out of the race, and Aidan will decide."

ALL THAT AND MO!

The champ is back. Uncle Mo looked more like the horse that was perfect in three attempts as a juvenile yesterday, running away in style over older horses in the GII Kelso H. at Belmont Park. Unchallenged through an opening quarter in :23.47, the GI King's Bishop S. runner-up picked up the pace to lead through a sharp half mile in :46.03. Forego S. winner Jackson Bend made an eye-catching move on the far turn to challenge for the lead inside of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero, but couldn't match strides when altering course to the outside in the stretch, and was a clear-cut second-best. Owner Mike Repole made it very clear which race he wants to see Uncle Mo compete in on the Breeders' Cup card. "I love the [GI Breeders' Cup] Classic," Repole commented. "I want to win the Classic. If Mo was in the Mile and won, and Stay Thirsty was in the Classic and finished third, it would be a decision I would regret for the rest of my life. Why not take two shots at a race everybody wants to win?"

BIG BOUQUET FOR STACELITA

Martin Schwartz's Stacelita was bet down to 1-2 on the strength of her superlative resume, and came through for her many backers. Breaking from the outside, the dark mare was caught in the five path on the first bend, but settled into an easy rhythm. The ground was deemed yielding, and Dynaslew duly set poky splits of :26.09 and :53.48 with Deluxe (Storm Cat) sitting in second and Stacelita just behind in the three path. After six panels in 1:20.87, rider Ramon Dominguez let out a notch on Stacelita and the favorite picked it up readily. She ranged up turning for home, effectively putting her rivals to the sword, and quickened away in style. "I wasn't happy about being wide, but I was very pleased with the way she was handling herself," Dominguez explained. "When she saw the light, she wanted to run. She felt like she was playing with those fillies. She was just really in control."

Stacelita had a fine campaign at three in her native France. Following her win in the 2009 G1 Prix Saint-Alary, U.S.-based financier Martin Schwartz purchased a controlling interest, and she carried his orange-and-blue colors to wins in the G1 Prix de Diane and the G1 Prix Vermeille (the latter via disqualification). Her 4-year-old campaign didn't quite hit those heights; she visited the winner's enclosure twice in six starts, the G3 La Coupe in June and the G1 Prix Jean Romanet in August. Narrowly beaten in the G1 Prix de l'Opera Oct. 3, she signed off on 2010 with an eighth-place finish in the G1 Hong Kong Cup Dec. 12.

She began 2011 with an attempted title defense in the La Coupe at Longchamp June 13 and finished third in what would be her French finale for trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. Stacelita took on the boys once more in her U.S. bow, the G1 United Nations S. at Monmouth July 2 and wound up third, beaten a length. She was subsequently turned over to conditioner Chad Brown, and christened that partnership with a rail-skimming run to victory in the G1 Beverly D. S. at Arlington Aug. 13. That was a Breeders' Cup Challenge "Win and You're In" race, and the Flower Bowl was her second consecutive win in that category. Her sights are firmly set on the G1 Breeders' Cup F/M Turf at Churchill Nov. 4.

"She is a remarkable horse and she's had an outstanding career to this point," Brown stated. "Hopefully, she can cap it off with a win in the Breeders' Cup. Most likely we will stay here until the week of the Breeders' Cup and do all her training here. She seems to like New York. Her training to this point, knock wood, has been flawless at Belmont, so the plan is to stay here as long as we could before the Breeders' Cup."

Creative Cause earned 🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 status with his 4 3/4-length debut victory going five panels on Hollywood's Cushion Track July 16, and confirmed that promise by winning the GII Best Pal S. at Del Mar Aug. 7. However, sent off at 4-5 in the GI Del Mar Futurity a month later, he was bumped in the stretch and crossed the line third, a length behind the winner Drill. He was put up to second when Majestic City (City Zip) was taken down, and was the second choice to Drill this time. Creative Cause traveled strongly in second as Ruler of Dubai towed them along through a soft :48.50 opening half. The steel grey colt asserted himself through the far turn and had a clear advantage by the time they hit the eighth pole. Drill, who had been stuck inside before shifting out, did his best to reel in the winner, but Creative Cause was not for catching. "When I asked him to go, he just took off," said jockey Joel Rosario. "I don't know how good he is, but he ran his best race today."

Z-MONEY

The ultra-consistent Zazu was a serious contender to give owners Jerry and Ann Moss their fourth straight win in the GI Lady's Secret S. at Santa Anita, but her task was made that much easier when champion Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) never lifted a hoof. "She's been a little unlucky in a couple of races, but to me this is your top 3-year-old filly in the country," stated winning trainer John Sadler. "I mean, obviously Blind Luck didn't run her best. I'm making the case for Zazu. I hope the other filly comes out okay." Blind Luck's co-owner and conditioner Jerry Hollendorfer took the blame and said it was "a bad training job."

Zazu does have strong Eclipse Award credentials. Having traded decisions with Turbulent Descent (Congrats) in the GI Las Virgenes S. and GI Santa Anita Oaks this winter, the grey ran third to Plum Pretty (Medaglia d'Oro) in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 6. She turned the tables on that rival in the GII Hollywood Oaks June 25, and finished a neck behind Ultra Blend in her first attempt against her elders, the GII Clement L. Hirsch S. at Del Mar Aug. 6. Unhurried here as Champagne d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) and Ask the Moon (Malibu Moon) duked it out up front, Zazu uncorked a four-wide move to reach contention, and was confidently handled by Joel Rosario late. "No disrespect to the other horses today, but she only ran about four jumps when we turned for home and then she shut it down," said Rosario.

GAME TIME

Trainer Bob Baffert warned before the Goodwood that Game On Dude would be sent to the front regardless of how the race unfolded. That, frankly, looked like a tactical error after the 4-year-old gelding and jockey Chantal Sutherland were drawn into a wicked speed duel with longshot Tres Borrachos (Ecton Park). But in one of the better performances of the year by an older horse, Game On Dude not only survived the blistering pace, but had plenty in reserve to account for the late charge of another Awesome Again gelding, Awesome Gem, while collecting a second top-level win. Game On Dude, fourth in last year's GI Belmont S., emerged on the national scene with an upset win in a controversial running of the GI Santa Anita H. in March. He failed to get it done in his next three, however, placing second and third in the GIII Charles Town Classic in April and GIII Lone Star Park H. in May, respectively, before a gutsy, narrow loss to stablemate First Dude (Stephen Got Even) in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup July 9. At 5-2 in the GI Pacific Classic last out, he attended eventual winner Acclamation (Unusual Heat)'s modest fractions while never actually getting the lead, and packed it in late to be fourth. Sent off the even-money choice in the Goodwood to make amends, Game On Dude was hustled out and pressured Tres Borrachos through sprint-like :22 1/5, :45 1/5 and 1:09 splits as they drew off from the rest. Tres Borrachos relinquished the lead three furlongs out, and the race appeared to be at the mercy of another Baffert runner, the stalking Coil. But Game On Dude never let that foe engage and safely held the late charge of Awesome Gem. As they galloped out, Game On Dude quickly opened up a wide advantage on the runner-up. "Bob wanted this horse in the race early," said Sutherland. "He's the boss, and it agreed with his style. We broke a little sluggish and I wanted to be sure and press Joel [Rosario, on Tres Borrachos]. Kudos to Bob. His horses are always fit, and to run like he did today, he had to be fit." Added Baffert, "That is his running style, and when you get away from that, he doesn't run well. He likes to get it out there and go. I told Chantal to have the lead at all costs, and I thought down the backside I shouldn't have said at all costs. [But] you just have to let him run, because that's the way he wants to run. I have lot of confidence in Chantal." Trainer Craig Dollase said of the runner-up, "The horse is amazing. We'll see how he comes back out of this. He ran great. His form is good right now. We'll take this and see how he comes out of it."

REACHING NEW HEIGHTS

The 4-year-old filly Dubawi Heights proved she is indeed the queen of California's deep female turf division with an authoritative second Grade I tally here. Shipped over from Europe last year, she embarked on a four-race winning skein in November that began with a maiden score at Hollywood and culminated with a hard-fought win in the GI Gamely S. at Hollywood May 30. The latter win gave young trainer Simon Callaghan his first top-level victory, and the filly lost little in defeat trying to give him his second in the GI Beverly D. H. over a yielding Arlington lawn Aug. 13 in her latest. In a particularly contentious renewal of that 1 3/16-mile race, Dubawi Heights led into the stretch and, while no real match for Stacelita (Ger) (Monsun {Ger})--also the winner of yesterday's GI Flower Bowl Invitational at Belmont--she finished a game second on ground with more give than she probably likes. Back to California and firm turf here, the crowd's 2-1 choice kept close tabs on her leading stablemate Turning Top (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), overhauled that one in the lane and flew home under Joel Rosario. Cozi Rosie, produced too late by Garrett Gomez, was clearly second best. Rosario was winning his third Grade I on the card, having taken the GI Norfolk S. with Creative Cause (Giant's Causeway) and the GI Lady's Secret S. with Zazu (Tapit). "I don't think I've ever won three Grade Is in one day," said the rider. "When you're in a race, you never know what can happen. She gives you everything she has and she tries very hard. Every time she runs she gets better. Before, you had to ask her to be close to the pace and now, she does it on her own." Added Callaghan, "The race really went to plan. There didn't look to be too much speed in the race, and she's the sort of filly that you can tactically put her anywhere." Callaghan said the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf is now the next likely target for Dubawi Heights. "She's improved with every race, and she'll go there I'm sure with a great chance," he said. "The form stacks up good. It makes sense, I think, to go there." John Sadler, trainer of the runner-up, said she too would probably head to Churchill. "I think so, as long as she comes out of it good. She ran great. We got stopped on the turn a little bit and the pace was slow, but she finished very fast, so we thought she ran very well."

She had been beaten in three straight since taking the May 6 GI Kentucky Oaks by a neck, but Plum Pretty found the Cotillion ripe for the picking. The speedy filly held the lead at midstretch in the June 25 GII Hollywood Oaks, but was caught late and ran second to Zazu (Tapit). In front nearly every step of the way in the July 23 GI CCA Oaks at Belmont, she was again denied the win, with It's Tricky getting up for a 3/4-length score.

Connections decided to give the 10 panels of the Aug. 20 GI Alabama S. a try, but the distance was more than Plum Pretty could handle, and she faded down the lane to finish a distant fourth. There was no catching her with the drop back to 1 1/16 miles yesterday. Sent right to the front, she cut out fractions of :23 and :46 3/5. Her rivals gave vain chase around the turn, and Plum Pretty was all alone down the lane, with jockey Rafael Bejarano taking her in hand in the final yards. Wilburn, who topped the 2010 Keeneland April Sale, looked like he might be any kind when he landed his career opener at Santa Anita in March. His stock fell a bit when he ran seventh at 3-5 in an optional claimer at the Arcadia oval in April, but he has come on strongly in recent months. After rebounding with an allowance win at Churchill May 15, the handsome bay finished fourth in the Matt Winn S. at that track June 18, and slipped a spot in Monmouth's Long Branch S. July 9. He had a confidence-boosting score over older rivals in an optional claimer at the Jersey Shore oval Aug. 7, then celebrated Labor Day with a determined effort in the Smarty Jones S. at Parx. Sent off as the second choice here, Wilburn was content to race in fourth as Decisive Moment (With Distinction) outfooted Shackleford to the lead. The Stonestreet colorbearer was moving under a full head of steam entering the far turn and, given his cue by jockey Julien Leparoux, went through willingly before drawing off with style. Shackleford attempted to go with him while three wide, but was no match. "There was an opening [on the inside] all the time," Leparoux told Daily Racing Form. "But I didn't want to move too early. I took a shot going up in there, and he took off. Good horses respond like that."

Mike Maker, hotter than a habanero chili, has been at it again. The Maker-trained Dean's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) came within a nose of taking Saturday's GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic at 14-1, and he upset odds-on A Z Warrior (Bernardini) with Juanita here. The dark bay was claimed from breeder Padua Stables and trainer Michael Trombetta for a mere $25,000 after running third at Gulfstream Park in March, and opened her account under new management with a starter-allowance score at Churchill May 6. She wired the field in an optional claimer on the Indiana Downs turf June 14 before tiring to fourth in a stakes on a soft Penn National sod July 19. Freshened over the summer, she was making her return off the two-month vacation here. Gifted easy fractions of :24 2/5 and :48 4/5 in her graded bow, Juanita was set down at the top of the lane and opened up on her rivals. Jockey Julien Leparoux took a belated look back inside the eighth pole, and wrapped up late.

Byword hit the heights when posting a game win in last term's G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot, but endured an enforced absence after annexing the G3 Prix du Chemin de Fer du Nord in tidy fashion at Chantilly last time June 12. Juddmonte's chestnut raced fifth in the wake of fourth-placed Cirrus des Aigles after the initial strides of this comeback. Sent in pursuit as that rival quickened to the fore inside the two pole, he kept on resolutely under continued urging to prevail in the shades of the post. "Byword had not run since June because of a minor setback, but he proved there that he is now back on track," commented racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe. "The plan is to now go for the [G1] Hong Kong Cup [at Sha Tin Dec. 11]."

Sea of Heartbreak has made sure progress through the ranks and garnered minor prizes in the May 1 G3 Dahlia S. at Newmarket in her campaign opener, the May 21 Listed Festival S. at Goodwood next time and the June 13 Listed Warwickshire Oaks. Earning a first stakes win in the July 31 Listed Chalice S. at Newbury, she returned to that Berkshire venue to hit the board in the Sept. 17 G3 Arc Trial last time and was game here to surpass all previous achievements. The eventual winner was restrained in third as Modeyra set a sedate tempo. Shaken up in mid-stretch, she unleashed an impressive turn if foot in the latter stages to swoop for success in the shades of the post. "At first my father wanted to take Sea of Heartbreak straight to the [G1] E.P. Taylor S. in Canada, but was tempted by this race when he saw how few runners were left in at the forfeit stage," explained trainer Roger Charlton's son Harry. "She took her chance and it has paid off. She's a very game filly, and maybe the slow pace worked in her favor because she stays the trip well and can quicken. The E.P Taylor is in two weeks' time, and she might still go there if she is well. She goes to the sales at the end of the year, and the more black type the better."

Rajsaman realised the second-highest price at last year's Arqana Arc Sale--purchased out of the Aga Khan's draft--and yielded an early dividend on that €440,000 investment when claiming a personal best in the May 1 G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud. He has chased home the cream of the world's milers since that success, finishing third behind Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) in the May 22 G1 Prix d'Isphahan at this track, fourth to Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the July 27 G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood, and third again in the Sept. 11 G1 Prix du Moulin back here once more last time. Rajsaman raced in a handy fourth along the fence after an alert exit, but was shuffled back one spot at halfway in this lesser spot. Inching away from the rail once straightening for home, he was ridden closer approaching the eighth pole, and one final lunge carried him beyond Rio de La Plata in the final stride to reverse the form of their latest outing. "What a lovely and consistent horse Rajsaman is," enthused winning conditioner Freddy Head. "He never runs a bad race and fully deserved to win at this level again. We will continue to chase that elusive Group 1 for him, and we will try that in the [G1] Hong Kong Mile [at Sha Tin Dec. 11]." Rajsaman finished fourth in last year's renewal of that HK$14-million event.

Shankardeh, who was unraced as a juvenile, shed maiden status at Lyon-Parilly in her first go Apr. 29 and doubled up in a Saint-Cloud conditions heat May 23. Hitting the board in the June 26 G2 Prix de Malleret back at Saint-Cloud next time, she was a last-out second in the latest incarnation of the G3 Lillie Langtry S. at Goodwood July 28, and was resolute in this marathon to claim a first pattern-race score.

Shankardeh led at a crawl early, but was relegated to second turning onto the back straight. Coming under pressure off the home turn, she regained the lead under stern urging passing the eighth pole and stayed on in determined fashion to just hold the late thrust of Miss Lago. "I think Shankardeh deserved that," said trainer Mikel Delzangles. "She's been very consistent since the start of the season, and was not beaten far by good fillies in her last two runs. She is a very easy ride and can be positioned anywhere during the race. She got first run on the others when quickening, and I think that made the difference today. She is entered at Ascot [for British Champions Day] in two week's time, but that might come too soon for her. The [G1] Prix Royal-Oak [back here Oct. 23] is another possibility." That latter contest might also be on runner-up Miss Lago's agenda according to trainer Elie Lellouche, who said, "Miss Lago was a shade unlucky, but ran on very well nonetheless. She might take her chance in the Royal-Oak if the ground is in her favor. She loves it heavy." Shankardeh's second dam Sharamana is a group-winning half-sister to the great Shergar (Ire) (Great Nephew {GB}).

Royal Rock took this race in 2009, but his next two visits to Berkshire resulted in unplaced runs in the 2010 renewal and in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at the Royal meeting June 18. Also off the board in the G3 Hackwood S. over this trip at Newbury July 16, the bay was third in the Listed Hopeful S. at Newmarket Aug. 27 before gaining a well-timed boost to his confidence when taking a conditions event at Yarmouth on his latest outing Sept. 13. Held up in rear early off the moderate tempo, he traveled sweetly into contention passing halfway and when asked to close responded with a strong-closing run to overhaul Desert Poppy in the final 50 yards as Rose Bonheur got going too late. "He's a smashing old horse who hasn't had a lot of racing due to small issues, and Mr. [Chris] Wall [trainer] and his team have done really well to have him spot-on," jockey Ted Durcan commented after completing an afternoon group-race double. "He won well at Yarmouth last time and that was probably a sweetener for him and everything here went well. He likes a bit of ease in the ground and always sparkles in the autumn. We went slow early on, but he is a hold-up horse and he has to be ridden like that. He is honest and helps you." Wall is looking at the G2 British Champions Series Sprint back at this venue in a fortnight's time.

Formerly trained by Aidan O'Brien, Quest For Peace broke his maiden over 10 furlongs at Leopardstown Apr. 10 before following up in the Listed Lenebane S. over this trip at Roscommon July 4. Now under the care of Luca Cumani, the bay got off to the perfect start for his new connections by overcoming the returning 2010 G1 St Leger hero Arctic Cosmos. Keen early in that rival's slipstream, he always had dead aim on the market leader and after rolling by with a quarter mile remaining gradually asserted for an initial pattern-race victory. "He'd been doing very good work at home--he's been working out of his boots," jockey Kieren Fallon commented. "It was a messy race and they didn't go very quick in front, but picked up from five out, which helped him. He's got a big future, as he's a lovely, sensible horse with a great nature. Hopefully, he can go the right way now, and he's an honest horse." Cumani added, "I'm very grateful to Terry Henderson and his partners for buying the horse, and he's a great addition to the yard. We got him going in September and he's been looking good. He'll probably have one more run this year and then we'll leave it until next year." John Gosden said of Arctic Cosmos, who is being pointed at the Oct. 16 GI Canadian International, "He's been off a long time with a serious leg injury, and he's run an absolute blinder, so I'm delighted with him. He got a little bit tired, but he was bound to, and it has been quite dry at home to be getting work into these horses. All being well, we'll be able to press straight into Canada now. He is certainly going the right way and he'll come on a bundle for the run."

Ponty Acclaim was not disgraced when seventh in Newbury's Weatherbys Super Sprint over an extended five-furlong trip July 16 and when sixth in the DBS Premier Yearling S. over six at York Aug. 18. Back at the minimum trip and to winning ways for the third time in a conditions event at Ripon Aug. 30, the bay put in a rare disappointing effort when unplaced behind Caledonia Lady in Ayr's Listed Harry Rosebery S. again over this trip on her latest outing Sept. 16. Always close to the early pace, she was committed before the furlong pole and after subduing Miss Lahar there asserted in the run to the line. "She's huge and scopey and will strengthen over the winter," jockey Ted Durcan said. "She has run well all year and has only run one average race, and that was at Ayr last time on heavy ground that she hated. She's honest and has loads of speed, and all you have to do is aim her."

D-DAY FOR DABIRSIM

Unbeaten and impressive in the G1 Prix Morny, Dabirsim is in pole position to take full advantage of an absence of serious firepower from Britain and Ireland in today's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere. With only three home wins since 2001, the Parisian crowds will be downhearted if the domestic defense is not on top at the end of this renewal, which lacks the customary strength in depth. Dabirsim took a major step forward in Deauville's 2-year-old highlight last time Aug. 21, where the re-opposing Sofast was back in fourth. Confirming the impression he had made in that track's G3 Prix de Cabourg July 31, the colt who is putting trainer Christophe Ferland on the map could seal the position as France's leading juvenile if he can extend his superiority over this extra panel. Sofast has already shown his appreciation of this course and distance when building on his Morny education to swoop late and defeat Mac Row and the favored American Devil in the G3 Prix la Rochette Sept. 4. Pierre-Yves Bureau, racing manager to the Wertheimer brothers, told PA Sport, "Seven furlongs is always a bit special in Longchamp and is quite unusual. He won very well the other day, but when you look at the form, we have to improve a lot to get closer to Dabirsim, who was better than our horse in the Prix Morny."

Fort Bastion is the sole British threat to the French alliance and, although he is still a maiden, he has run into Maybe (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot June 18 and Entifaadha (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the G3 Acomb S. at York Aug. 17.

DECLARATION OF INTENT

Today's G1 Prix de l'Opera lost some major luster after Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab) was aimed at the Arc, and Juddmonte has seized the day when supplementing up-and-comer Announce. Starting this term with a win in the G3 Prix Allez France over this trip at Chantilly May 2, the homebred was two-lengths second to Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}) in the G2 Prix Corrida back at that venue three weeks later. Second again behind Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) in the G3 La Coupe over this track and trip June 13, she was fourth as that rival dominated the July 20 G3 Grand Prix de Vichy before beating Timepiece (GB) (Zamindar) and last year's Opera heroine Lily of the Valley (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville last time Aug. 21. "She's in very good form and she won't mind the faster going--she goes well on it--so from that point of view it's good," the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe told PA Sport. "She's had a good season and, after Deauville, this has always been the plan." Banimpire has already won five times in pattern company this season and a repeat of her success in the Curragh's G2 Royal Whip S. Aug. 7 would see her hard to beat here. She is another who may have been unsuited by York's slower ground when a last-out fifth in the Aug. 18 G1 Yorkshire Oaks and has enjoyed a 45-day break subsequently, having raced regularly since mid-March. Sandy's Charm recorded a five-length success in the G3 Prix de Lieurey over a mile at Deauville Aug. 12 and may have still been feeling the effects of that effort when runner-up in the G3 Prix Quincey back over that track and trip 16 days later. She is up in trip here, as is the potentially exciting Nahrain, who defends an unbeaten record for the Roger Varian team and comes here a fresh filly off a first black-type score in the July 2 Listed Distaff S. at Sandown.

LAST CHANCE TO SEE

With 14 Group 1 wins under her belt and a trinity of GI Breeders' Cup Miles, Goldikova enters the G1 Prix de la Foret with nothing to prove as she takes some of the stardust from the build-up to the Arc. Super-smooth under her longstanding partner in crime Olivier Peslier in this race last year, she has the ideal post position to provide Longchamp with a triumphant French farewell before she bids adieu to international racing fans at Churchill Downs. Undoubtedly as good as ever in 2011, the Wertheimers' queen has added another G1 Prix d'Ispahan and G1 Prix Rothschild to her tally at the expense of Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) and Sahpresa (Sahm), and they could hardly have advertised the form any better subsequently. Her latest second to Immortal Verse (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville Aug. 15 was forgivable given the state of the ground in Normandy, and she has been freshened up since by her expert trainer Freddy Head. "We are very happy with the ground conditions, and she has a pacemaker, which should help her to relax," the owner-breeders' Racing Manager Pierre-Yves Bureau told PA Sport. "This is going to be her final race in France and, of course, we are very excited. We hope she can finish her racing in France on a high, especially as it is Arc day and there will be so many people there." Lining up against her is this year's G1 July Cup and G1 Sprint Cup hero Dream Ahead, who has given the impression in both those championship contests at Newmarket July 9 and Haydock Sept. 3 that there was more in the locker. His one blot this term came when an inexplicable seventh as the heavy favorite for the Aug. 7 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at a track he had won the G1 Prix Morny at in 2010. "He is becoming more and more mature, and we've always felt he'll get seven furlongs," trainer David Simcock said of the colt, who is likely to be racing for the last time here.

"We didn't want to drop back to Group 2 company, and the ground will be safe with the Arc being run soon after," Simcock added. "I am delighted with him and his work has been good, but my only worry is I thought he was going well before the Prix Maurice de Gheest and that was a bad day. There is a deal being finalised, so this is the likely to be the last run for Khalifa Dasmal, but in all honesty I don't know what else he can achieve." Worthadd is no back-number here on his second to Canford Cliffs (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury May 14 and subsequent easy win in the G2 Premio Carlo Vittadini at the San Siro May 29, but he was disappointing when trailing in the Jacques le Marois and has significant ground to make up on Goldikova.

A 'TENDA' MOMENT

Like Dabirsim (Fr) (Hat Trick {Jpn}) in the 2-year-old colts' highlight, 🍀 "TDN Rising Star" 🍀 Zantenda bids to maintain her perfect tally and provide a day of note for France in today's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. Stepping up on her fluent debut success at Deauville Aug. 23 to annexe the G3 Prix d'Aumale over this track and trip Sept. 8, she holds the runner-up Rajastani on that form and the manner of her performance there suggests that was the tip of the iceberg. The Wertheimers could have a day to remember on the Bois de Boulogne, and their Racing Manager Pierre-Yves Bureau told PA Sport, "She is doing very well and she is a very impressive filly, physically. Her last furlong in the Prix d'Aumale was quite impressive, and we were very happy with her that day. We think she will be happy with the ground and it is a good race, with the John Gosden filly probably being the main opposition." That Gosden representative is Elusive Kate, who has already shown her liking for these shores when landing Deauville's Listed Prix Six Perfections July 30 and G3 Prix du Calvados Aug. 20. Maybe (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is absent, but her form is represented by the Irish fillies Fire Lily and Yellow Rosebud. The former, who took the July 17 G3 Anglesey S. at The Curragh, was 1 3/4-lengths second to that Ballydoyle heavyweight in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. over this trip back there last time Aug. 28, while Yellow Rosebud was 2 1/2 lengths behind her in the G2 Debutante S. also in Kildare Aug. 7. Godolphin's 2-year-old fillies are carrying all before them, and it is significant that Falls of Lora has been supplemented here.

Her stylish 3 1/2-length success in a mile conditions event at Ascot Sept. 3 marked her as above-average and she will provide a marker for the boys in blue regarding their stable stars. "Falls of Lora heads to Longchamp in good form," trainer Mahmood Al Zarooni said. "Kieren Fallon gave her a very good ride at Ascot, and I am pleased that he is riding the filly again, while the fast ground should be no problem for her. She is taking a big step up in class and it's a bit like an exam for her, as we will know a lot more about her ability afterwards."

NO WAY IN

French-trained winners of the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp are a rarity, with only a trio managing to stave off the overseas challenge since 1978. This time, the aptly named Prohibit, who has developed into one of Europe's top sprinters this season, has the ideal rail draw to hammer home the British dominance of this contest and give the raiders a ninth renewal since 2002. Having registered a career-high when upstaging Star Witness (Aus) (Starcraft {NZ}) in the G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot June 14, the ex-Juddmonte representative was third behind the re-opposing Margot Did in York's G1 Nunthorpe S. Aug. 19. Despite shouldering a seven-pound penalty in the G3 Prix du Petit Couvert over this course and distance Sept. 11, he still managed to beat Mar Adentro by a head and has strong claims on that form. "He's in great form and primed," trainer Robert Cowell said. "I never expected him to win his last race, so it was quite something, and he's being ridden closer to the pace now and has been a lot more consistent as a result. It is only three weeks since he last ran and I can't believe he's gone downhill since then--his coat has turned a bit, but he looks fantastic and full of himself, so he's ready for action." Drawn next to Prohibit in two is last year's G1 Nunthorpe S. hero Sole Power, who had that rival back in third when annexing Haydock's G2 Temple S. May 21. Off the board in three of his last four starts including in the Sept. 3 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup, his trainer Eddie Lynam is hoping he can rekindle some magic here. "He's got a great draw and I'm happy with the horse and ground," Lynam said. "On his day he's very good and he needs a very fast five on a flat track on fast ground. He got that in May and at York last year, and I'd imagine the sprint track will ride a bit quicker than the round track. He seems in very good form despite a busy season."

Also from Ireland is Requinto, who bids to become the first juvenile to triumph since Sigy (Fr) in 1978. He has already tackled his elders and failed to shine when trailing in the Nunthorpe, but connections blamed the slow ground for that below-par effort. He had shown how much he relishes this type of surface with wins either side in the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood July 26 and G2 Flying Childers S. at Doncaster Sept. 9, but his draw in 11 will make life trickier. The Nunthorpe heroine Margot Did has to prove that her authoritative win in that York contest was no fluke, and trainer Michael Bell expects her to hold her own. "We are all geared up for Margot Did's run in the Prix de l'Abbaye, and if she reproduces her Nunthorpe run she should take all the beating," he commented. "It is a great shame that Hayley [Turner] will not be able to ride her, but Jamie [Spencer] will be a brilliant substitute and, hopefully, they will prove a winning combination."

A BRIDGE TOO FAR?

Today's G1 Prix du Cadran has a light feel to it overall, with no Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) or Westerner (GB) (Danehill) in evidence, but last year's winner Gentoo adds some interest attempting to emulate the latter in recording back-to-back successes. Also the winner of the G1 Prix Royal-Oak here last term, he showed he retained all his ability on his return when failing by a half-length to give Kasbah Bliss eight pounds in the Listed Prix Right Royal over nearly two miles at Saint-Cloud Apr. 8. It may prove that he faced mission impossible up against Hiruno d'Amour (Jpn) (Manhattan Cafe {Jpn}) when ninth in the G1 Tenno Sho at Kyoto May 1 and was running over an inadequate 1 5/16-mile trip when fifth in Deauville's Listed Prix de Reux Aug. 2. His only truly disappointing effort came when last of all in the G2 Prix Kergorlay back at that Normandy venue on his latest outing Aug. 21, and he needs to rebound here.

Maria Royal, who beat High Heeled (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in the G2 Prix de Royallieu at this meeting 12 months ago, was behind Gentoo when fourth in the Royal-Oak and fifth in the Prix de Reux before finishing a distant fourth behind Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) on testing ground in the Sept. 4 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden. She is a fascinating contender upped to this marathon trip. The Andre Fabre trainee Ley Hunter shaped as if extreme stamina tests were the way forward when winning this track's G2 Prix Gladiateur over nearly two miles last time Sept. 11. Fabre also saddles the May 22 G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier winner Brigantin, who was third in both the G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot June 16 and Prix Kergorlay but only seventh behind his stable companion in the Gladiateur.

A NEW LEAF

After a plethora of Grade I races and Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" events on Saturday, just one race fits both bills in the U.S. today, the GI Oak Leaf S. at Santa Anita. Weemissfrankie parlayed a stylish debut victory at Del Mar July 20 to another rallying score in the GI Debutante at that track Sept. 3, and the chestnut is bred to handle this stretch-out. "You've seen her gallop-outs, right?" trainer Peter Eurton told Daily Racing Form. "They tell me she wants to go farther. I think more distance will actually help her." Eurton added, "Everything tells us she likes the dirt. In her works, she gets over this surface without a hiccup. I haven't seen any change." She'll need to be on her best game to preserve her unbeaten record here, since the Oak Leaf has a full field of talented fillies. Self Preservation was making her first start in the U.S. when she was second in the Del Mar Debutante. Bob Baffert will saddle the highly regarded Candrea, a debut winner at Hollywood July 7 who added the Phil D. Shepherd S. at Fairplex Sept. 16.

ACCLAMATION GAME

Acclamation, the leading grass horse on the West Coast, scratched out of Saturday's GI Goodwood S. on dirt in favor of the GII Clement L. Hirsch Turf Championship S. this afternoon at Santa Anita. The Cal-bred is in the midst of a four-race winning streak, taking the GII Jim Murray Memorial H. and GI Charles Whittingham H. at Hollywood, the GI Eddie Read H. at Del Mar--all on turf--before switching to Polytrack to annex the GI Pacific Classic Aug. 28. "We went for what's better for the horse and what's better for him in five weeks, rather than the Grade I and the amount of money," trainer Don Warren told Daily Racing Form. "We weighed the pros and cons of both races. We like the surface, on turf; we like the post and the distance better." Acclamation's main target this fall is the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Churchill Nov. 5, but the 5-year-old is not currently nominated to the Breeders' Cup program.

CAN YOU DIG IT?

J. Kirk and Judy Robison's She Digs Me seeks his fourth straight victory in today's GII Nashua S. at Belmont Park. The chestnut graduated by a nose at Churchill Downs July 2, then added stakes wins in Monmouth Park's Tyro S. July 24 and GIII Sapling S. Sept. 3 (video). The Nashua and GIII Tempted S., both traditionally held at

Aqueduct going a mile later in the fall, were cut back in distance and moved up on the calendar to serve as preps for the newly created Breeders' Cup Juvenile Sprint. "This horse has always done everything right, and he likes Monmouth," trainer Steve Asmussen's assistant Toby Sheets commented. "This is a logical progression. He breezed well, and he'll have to step up his game a little." Seeker, a debut third behind Vexor at the Spa Aug. 10, thrived over a sloppy track in his next attempt upstate Sept. 5, rolling by 6 1/2 lengths. The Ron Winchell colorbearer is also trained by Asmussen. Goldmark Farm's Vexor failed to build off his maiden win and never got it going over a wet track in the GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. Sept. 5, reporting home a distant eighth. "The horse hated the sloppy track in the Hopeful," trainer John Kimmel offered. "[Jockey] David Cohen said after the race that when he came out to warm up, he was slipping and stumbling and didn't even want to go onto the track. He ran a zero [Beyer Speed Figure]; that's like going backwards." Trinniberg gets a chance to validate his runner-up effort performance at 68-1 in the Hopeful.

'GEORGIE' SEEKS REBOUND IN TEMPTED

Georgie's Angel, heroine of the GIII Schuylerville S. at Saratoga July 22, looks to get back on track in Belmont's GIII Tempted S. following a disappointing fourth in the GI Spinaway S. Sept. 4. "I didn't think she got a wonderful trip in the Spinaway," trainer Todd Pletcher revealed of the Sheffer Racing Stable, Ronald Stocks and Betsy Wells colorbearer. "She was kind of stuck down inside and didn't seem to fire her 'A' race." Will this race serve as a Breeders' Cup prep for Georgie's Angel? "We're just focused on the Tempted and we'll see how that goes," Pletcher replied. "Hopefully, she runs so well we have to reconsider where we are. We're optimistic that at some point she might stretch out." Perennial Song is favored on the morning-line at 7-5 following a pair of sharp victories at Parx, including a three-length wire-to-wire allowance score Sept. 20 (video). She is trained by Tony Dutrow on behalf of Michael Pietrangelo and William Harrigan.

HIT OR MISS

The New York area has been hit with plenty of rain during the last week, which will make the going a bit soft for today's GIII Miss Grillo S. at Belmont. Aaura Michele graduated in front-running style in a sprint over this course June 29, then came back to annex the P.G. Johnson S. over good ground at Saratoga Aug. 31. That was the Siena Farms homebred's first time competing with Lasix, and she displayed a new dimension by coming from just off the pace. "She rated better than I expected and she was good in behind horses," said trainer Bill Mott. "She showed what I thought was a nice, explosive kick coming home." Bourbonstreetgirl had a wide trip when third in the P.G. Johnson, but might be able to make her presence felt here if she can work out a more favorable journey.

A MAJOR PLAYER

Team Valor International's unbeaten State of Play earned an automatic spot in the starting gate for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf with a victory in Saratoga's GII With Anticipation S. Sept. 1 (video). The $13,000 KEESEP yearling purchase previously annexed a maiden win going 5 1/2 furlongs over the Saratoga spinach July 27. "He's done great and everything has gone to plan," trainer Graham Motion commented. "He's a straightforward horse and is pretty adaptable. He settled well last time for Ramon [Dominguez]. We already have our ticket to the Breeders' Cup, and this race was the closest to our home." Captain Webb failed to land a blow when sixth as the 5-2 favorite in the With Anticipation. "It was a very disappointing performance," trainer Todd Pletcher offered of the Jim Scatuorchio homebred. "He kind of got stuck inside and shuffled back in a pacesetter race, and he lacked room in the stretch to give his best effort. We're hoping for a better set-up and a better trip."

SALES NEWS

GLORIOUS SIGHT SELLS FOR 1.7 MILLION

There was much expectation ahead of the offering of the 3-year-old filly Glorious Sight (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}--Zelding {Ire}, by Warning {GB}) at Arqana's Arc Sale last night, and the event did not disappoint as she fetched a cool €1.7 million when selling to Oceanic Bloodstock. A product of Kilfrush Stud, Richard Strauss's relative of Immortal Verse (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) had considerable residual value even before placing in two Classics this year. Despite being in the shadow of that high-class dual Group 1-winning stable companion throughout 2011, the descendant of the matriarch Mill Princess (Ire) boasted a top-class profile in her own right. She opened her black-type account in Longchamp's Listed Prix Finlande in April, was second in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches back there the following month and third in Chantilly's G1 Prix de Diane in June. Also fourth in both the G1 Prix Saint-Alary back and G1 Prix Jean Prat, she was offered as hip 49 with the additional draw of being declared to run in today's G1 G1 Prix de l'Opera de Longchamp. Michel Zerolo of Oceanic revealed that she had been bought for Andreas Putsch, who owns Haras de Saint Pair in Normandy. "She was obviously the horse of the sale, and such a pedigree comes around at public auction once in every 10 or so years, so we didn't want to miss out," Zerolo commented. "She is such a good filly, as well, and ultimately Mr. Putsch will breed from her--that is the ultimate goal. She will run in her new owner's colors tomorrow, and everything is possible. She could race on afterwards or be retired. All will be decided after she runs."

West On Point..

Earlier, a pair of Carlos Laffon-Parias offerings were in the headlines. Hip 10, the wild-card entry Limonar (Ire) (Street Cry {Ire}), had looked full of potential when winning the Listed Prix Coronation over a mile at Saint-Cloud last month, and has notable residual value being out of a half to G1SW Bachelor Duke (Miswaki). The 3-year-old is bound for the States after Nicolas Clement won the day at €580,000 on behalf of Terry Finley's West Point Thoroughbreds.

Chantilly Bloodstock Agency were also on hand to snap up the other of the stable's offerings as hip 38, the 4-year-old colt Silver Pond (Fr) (Act One {GB}). Successful in the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly in June, the grey was bought for €510,000 and will run in today's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in the silks of Saeed Nasser Al Romaihi, whose Rajsaman (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) had captured the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein earlier in the afternoon. "Mr. Al Romaihi has had very good luck with this sale, as the first horse he bought here was Marinous (Fr) (Numerous) who went on to win the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville and ran well in the Arc last year, and the second was Rajsaman," the Agency's Gerard Larrieu explained.

"I said to him, 'How many yearlings would you have to buy with a chance of running in the Arc when you can have one that is due to run in the race tomorrow?' and he okay'd the plan to buy. After his run tomorrow, he will be transferred to Freddy Head and, depending on how he does, it will then be decided what happens next."

A Duo For Stroud...

Anthony Stroud was in action again at this auction and purchased a pair who had placed in the afternoon's group races at Longchamp. Best Dating (Ire) (King's Best), the 4-year-old gelding who was third in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein yesterday, was another wildcard consigned as hip 50. He had previously annexed the G3 Prix du Pin over seven furlongs, also at Longchamp, and was purchased for €340,000. Stroud also paid €310,000 for the 4-year-old gelding Shimraan (Fr) (Rainbow Quest), who was third in the G2 Prix Dollar. His Highness The Aga Khan's high-profile cast-off, consigned as hip 37, had been successful in last year's G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte.

Also selling for €310,000 was the Criquette Head-Maarek-consigned hip 45, the sophomore colt Cool Dude (Fr) (Lemon Drop Kid), who placed in two listed contests earlier this season and was not disgraced when a close-up fifth in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam in July. He was snapped up by Hong Kong owner Dr. Howard Liang.

Hip 33, the 3-year-old filly Realisatrice (Fr) (Numerous), was another high-profile broodmare prospect to sell out of Robert Collet's yard alongside the sale topper. Placed at listed level, the half-sister to G1SW Rouvres (Fr) (Anabaa) was bought for €220,000 by Narvick International.

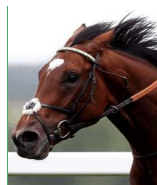

Two of the high-profile members of the current Classic crop suffered mixed fortunes. Last year's G1 Criterium International runner up Salto (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) was led out unsold at €160,000, while the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains runner-up Havane Smoker (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), consigned as hip 56, sold for €190,000 to Ning Li. Another not to sell was hip 17, today's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere contender Mac Row (Ire) (Le Vie dei Colori {GB}). Runner-up in the G3 Prix de la Rochette and third in the G2 Prix Robert Papin this term, the Jean-Claude Rouget-trained juvenile colt failed to make his reserve at €280,000.

Despite the inevitable late withdrawals and RNAs, this renewal far outstripped its predecessor with the big lots helping the gross to almost double and the average of €218,862 to jump up by 51%. Vitally, the median of €140,000 also increased by 47% on 2010. Full results are available on www.arqana.com.

RACETRACK Round-Up

Banned Euthanized...

Glen Hill Farm's three-time graded stakes winner Banned (Kitten's Joy--Cardinali, by Capote) was euthanized Saturday morning after developing laminitis following surgery to repair fractured sesamoids last week. "Heavy hearted to report that Banned didn't make it," tweeted Glen Hill president Craig Bernick yesterday. "He ended up foundering in his good foot this morning, and we did what's right for him." An eye-catching winner of the GII American Turf S. at Churchill Downs in May and most recently the narrow victor of the GII Del Mar Derby Sept. 4, Banned completed his career with a 10-5-1-2 record and earnings of $599,476. A $130,000 FTKOCT yearling bred by Ken and Sarah Ramsey, the Tom Proctor trainee will be buried at Glen Hill Farm in Ocala.

Coupe de Ville, who shed maiden status at Newmarket June 18, was first home in a July 16 Newbury conditions event and got his hat trick with a battling success in the Listed Stonehenge S. at Salisbury Aug. 19. He slipped to fifth behind Tell Dad in another sales race here last time Sept. 17 and delivered, despite a troubled trip, to lead home a Richard Hannon stable exacta in Europe's richest juvenile race. Settled mid-division before a shortage of room at halfway forced him to drop back, he was pulled wide in search of daylight and a few backhanders saw him finish strongly to assert superiority 75 yards from the line. "Coupe de Ville would have been very unlucky if he hadn't won--he found enough trouble," said Hannon. "I thought about three [furlongs] out that his chance had gone, but he picked up and ran on well. He was meeting Tell Dad on seven pounds worse terms than the last race, and he's run a blinder, too. I'd say Coupe de Ville will go one mile to a mile and a quarter. Tell Dad will be a seven-furlong to a mile horse, and he's a tough little devil."

Samitar, who let loose her maiden tag when winning the June 17 G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot, took second in a valuable sales race at Newmarket's July course Aug. 27 and ran third in the Sept. 9 G2 May Hill S. at Doncaster. Her place atop the betting for this was secured when just caught close home by Lyric of Light (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}) in the G1 Fillies' Mile going an extra panel here one week ago. Breaking well to race prominently through the early fractions, she was ridden into a clear lead 1 1/2 furlongs from home and ran on well under a drive up the hill to secure this valuable purse. "We know the family well as we have trained many of her siblings, and all of them thrive on racing," explained trainer's son Mick Channon, Jr. "She is great, as she is so versatile and can run from the front and the back. [Jockey] Sam [Hitchcott] knows her well, as he rides her at home, and he gave her a great ride today. She looks the type to go for the [G1 1000] Guineas [back at this track May 6] next year."

This week: the 47th anniversary of Kelso's 5th straight victory in the Jockey Club Gold Cup. Bohemia Stable's indomitable 7-year-old gelding defeated the 3-year-old Roman Brother in a comprehensive effort. Roman Brother came back to win the '65 renewal and was named co-Horse of the Year with Mocassin. Kelso's fifth straight Gold Cup, along with a win over future Hall of Famer Gun Bow in the DC International less than two weeks later, earned him a fifth straight Horse of the Year title, too.

The mighty Kelso ran two more seasons, until he was 9, after his fifth Gold Cup. He won three of six starts in '65, including a runaway win in the Stymie H. over 1 1/4 miles at Aqueduct in September. The following season, he made a single start, finishing fourth in a six-furlong tightener in a Hialeah allowance before a training injury spelled his retirement. With a record of 63-39-12-2, Kelso was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1967. He died in 1983 and was buried at owner Allaire du Pont's farm in Maryland.

Champion Tops Own 2 Miles*
Mark; Routs Roman Brother and Quadrangle at Aqueduct

By CHARLES HATTON
Staff Correspondent

AQUEDUCT, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Kelso is mighty and shall prevail. Accompanied by a roar like Niagara, Mrs. R. C. duPont's marvelous old champion set a new world money-winning record of $1,803,362, reduced his own American 2 miles record to 3:19 1/2, and won his fifth straight Jockey Club Gold Cup as he pulled up to five presumptuous rivals in that $108,600 classic this memorable afternoon.

Milo Valenzuela let the four-time Horse of the Year roll to the finish five and a half lengths in front of Louis Wolfson's gallant three-year-old Roman Brother while the latter led Paul Mellon's leg weary Quadrangle six lengths for the place. An interval of 16 lengths ensued and Polizonte was fourth in this proud old weight-for-age test of speed and stamina.

The crowd of 51,122 who made "Kelly" favorite at $2.90 for $2 clapped, cheered and whistled as he went to the post, then practically brought down the roof when he left Roman Brother atop the stretch and began drawing away with long, easy pendulistic strides.

His stroll added $70,590 to his earlier earnings and topped Round Table's challenging old record of $1,749,869. This was

The happy Valenzuela had some interesting comment on dismounting from Kelso, saying:

"I had plenty of horse and let him run along easy until we passed the board the first time and I saw that :48 1/2 for the half on the teletimer.

"Then I realized I had plenty of horse power and when we got into the backstretch, I picked him up and yelled at him. "He just took off.

"I don't know whether I hit him or not coming to the stretch. Maybe once. But I was waving the stick at him.

"I looked around and they were not closing on us. He was running real easy at the finish."

Willie Shoemaker, who gave tough little Roman Brother a thoughtful ride, declared: "This gelding ran big. At the five-eighths pole I thought he might have some chance of catching Kelso. But he wasn't good enough.

In front soon after the start, the Weber homebred doled out good fractions while tracked intently by 2-1 second choice How Do I Win (Corinthian). The latter called it a day at the quarter pole, but by then Hierro (Hard Spun) was making a four-wide sweep into contention. Wildcat's Smile ran third when unveiled in a New York-bred maiden on Saratoga's opening day and duly graduated by 7 3/4 lengths in a similar contest Aug. 14. She was 2-5 in the Lady Finger S. at this track on Labor Day, but settled for second, and was taking on the boys this time. The complexion of the race changed immediately when Repole Stable's favored Zow (Bluegrass Cat) stumbled at the start and lost his rider. Wildcat's Smile settled in sixth, moved up to challenge pacesetter Bay Park Boy turning for home and forged clear to score a big payday for owner/breeder Francis Paolangeli. She faced a double-digit deficit in a 6 1/2-furlong allowance Aug. 10 and did well to round out the trifecta. Prominent from between horses into the clubhouse turn, Fugitive Angel was three wide in third as they raced into the final bend. She challenged three abreast at the quarter pole, worked her way to a narrow advantage in upper stretch and held sway as Grecian Maiden closed nicely from the outside.

Grace Hall led every step of the way to register a three-length victory over six furlongs at Delaware Park July 30, then, on something of a whim, was offered to the wolves in the GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga Sept. 4. Many surmised she was the less-preferred half of the Tony Dutrow-trained entry with True Feelings (Latent Heat), but while that one struggled home sixth, Grace Hall came with a powerful late run to upset the apple cart. Auditioning for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies here, the bay was content to stalk from up close in second and did so quite willingly. She took command under a long hold after six furlongs and ran out a very professional and impressive winner. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

She was sent off the 3-1 favorite and negotiated a slalom course in the stretch for a highly improbable victory. Second last out of the stretch the first time, she improved her position a bit into the backside, but found herself trailing with a half-mile to race. She switched gears on the turn and was full of run at the quarter pole, but that's when the adventure began for jockey Omar Moreno. GOOD DEED (f, 2, Broken Vow--Hidden Assets {GSW, $298,313}, by Mt. Livermore) was sent off the 5-2 favorite for her Aug. 4 debut at Saratoga, but was nervous at the gate, was bumped nearing the stretch and tailed off the finish sixth. No better than the 3-1 third choice here, the homebred half to Due Date (El Prado {Ire}), MSW & MGSP, $276,788; and Country Day (Speightstown), MSW, $248,829, disputed the pace from between rivals, was narrowly in front turning for home and sprinted clear to take it by six lengths. Favored Dypsy made it a one-two finish for Broken Vow. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $23,800. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

 + SILENTIO (c, 2, Silent Name {Jpn}--Listen A. P., by A.P. Indy) went postward at 7-1 while seeking to become the sixth winner for his freshman sire (by Sunday Silence). Tucked into a rail-skimming fourth by jockey Garrett Gomez, the dark bay waited for favored pacesetter Big Bad Barry (Bernstein) to drift out turning for home. He quickened up stylishly, shot clear and dug in gamely to deny Battle Force (Giant's Causeway) by 3/4 of a length. They were the sole first-time starters in the field. Big Bad Barry backed up to finish last. The winner is Wertheimer homebred in the truest sense: his third dam Soundings (Mr. Prospector) was secured by the brothers for $310,000 in 1988, while his sire also carried the famed blue-and-white colors. Among the runners descending from Soundings and campaigned by the Wertheimers are G1SWs Green Tune (Green Dancer) and Pas de Reponse (Danzig). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000. PHILIP ROBINSON RETIRES

Philip Robinson yesterday announced his retirement from the saddle after a 33-year career. The news comes soon after the untimely death of former trainer Michael Jarvis and the 50-year-old's split with trainer Clive Brittain. "I'm looking forward to my retirement a great deal," Robinson told PA Sport. "I've got a couple of things to explore, but I'm not quite sure which way to go at the moment. I'm doing my trainers modules, just in case that's the road I want to go down, but it's only an option at this stage and I'm certainly in no rush." Robinson, who came to prominence when partnering Pebbles (GB) to glory in the 1984 1000 Guineas, was also successful in the Irish equivalent the following year on Katies (Ire), in the 1993 G1 St Leger on Bob's Return (Ire) (Bob Back), in the millennium renewals of the Irish 1000 Guineas on Crimplene (Ire) (Lion Cavern) and G1 Prix du Jockey Club on Holding Court (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) and the following year's 1000 Guineas with Ameerat (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}). He was champion apprentice twice and went on to twice become the only Brit to be champion jockey in Hong Kong. "I'm very pleased with how my career has gone," he added. "It's been a lot of hard work, but I've taken a lot of enjoyment out of it. The Hong Kong experience was one of my biggest achievements. I was lucky enough to have my family with me all the time in Hong Kong and that was something I had set my sights on." Perhaps the best that he partnered in a career that ended in last Saturday's prestigious Cambridgeshire H. was the high-class Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent), who he steered to five of his six Group 1 successes for the Michael Jarvis stable. "I was lucky to have Michael Jarvis in my life," Robinson added. "I think him passing away last week made me sit back and realise that there are more important things in life than race-riding. If there was another Michael Jarvis out there, I could have gone on for a few more years. The fact is that there is only one Michael Jarvis and he was always going to be such a hard act to follow. I miss him greatly, as a boss and a great friend. I've ridden some great horses, and Rakti was certainly the greatest challenge, but I always think it's unfair to label one horse as my favourite. That said, I always had a soft spot for Crimplene because of how game she was and how much improvement she made. I always said she was just a listed horse, but then she won the Guineas, the Coronation and the Nassau. She was a real fighter. You've got to draw the line somewhere, and this felt like the right time."

Apart from the odd dip into pattern company, Pastoral Player has been a handicap mainstay for the past two seasons and took a richly deserved spot at the top of the podium in this valuable heat. He was a creditable fifth, on unsuitably soft going, in the valuable Ayr Gold Cup H. last time Sept. 17 and was decisive here after exhibiting a fine turn of foot. Anchored at the back of the peloton until making smooth headway from the two pole, he quickened smartly to challenge entering the final eighth and drew off late under urging. "The success is all down to what the [stable] lads and the trainer do with him, as he is not easy," said winning rider Darryll Holland. "He has to go to post early and can be a bit of a bugger in the stalls, but when he puts it together, he's very good. I think the moodier he is the better he is, because when he's quiet and not playing up he's not quite on his game. He ran a great race in the Ayr Gold Cup last week, so I knew I came here with a big chance. I don't think there's a big difference between a top handicap and a group race, and if he could find another couple of lengths he'd be in the frame for one." Video, courtesy attheraces.com.

Five-furlong specialist Move In Time, who was runner-up in this card's G3 Cornwallis S. 12 months ago, had shown consistency this season when third in both the Listed Prix Cor de Chasse over 5 1/2 furlongs at Fontainebleau Apr. 1 and the Listed Scurry S. over this trip at Sandown June 11. Upping his game slightly when filling the same spot in the G3 Sapphire S. at The Curragh June 26, the chestnut ran second in the Listed Abergwaun S. at Tipperary Aug. 5 and fourth in the G3 Flying Five back at The Curragh Aug. 28. Soon in front here, he kept finding more in game fashion despite drifting left in the closing stages and just held on as Addictive Dream ate into his advantage with every stride. Smart at two, Crying Lightening was beaten only by the subsequent G1 Fillies' Mile heroine White Moonstone (Dynaformer) in Newmarket's G3 Sweet Solera S. and finished up with a fourth in the G3 Prix du Calvados at Deauville in August. After three runs at Meydan, she came good when capturing the Mar. 10 Dubai Duty Free Tennis Championships conditions race over seven furlongs before returning to Britain to be eighth in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. over that trip at Newmarket Apr. 13. Seventh in the G3 Sceptre S. after a break at Doncaster last time Sept. 8, she benefitted from a class drop and positive tactics to make all in game fashion here. "We got a couple of reports back from Dubai that she hadn't trained on, but we kept her there because we'd seen enough at home, and she managed to win a nice race," owner Joey Barton said. "She ran well at Doncaster and Jamie Spencer said after riding her that she'd win next time out." Video, courtesy attheraces.com.

Principal Role followed a second black-type win in Newcastle's Listed Hoppings S. June 24 with a career-best third behind stable companion Middy (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB} in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood July 30. Seventh in the G3 Winter Hill S. at Windsor Aug. 27, the bay took the Listed John Musker S. in comfortable fashion at Yarmouth last time Sept. 14 and was untroubled to rack up a fourth at this level. Close up in midfield early, the homebred cruised to the front after the two-furlong marker and was punched out late to hold the staying-on Poplin.

Following her comfortable win in a six-furlong Goodwood handicap Aug. 27, Blanche Dubawi coped well with the rise in class when third in the Listed Starlit S. back over that track and trip on her latest outing Sept. 10. Held up with only one behind through the first half of this contest, the bay found herself behind a wall of horses and stumbled two furlongs from home, but when gathered up and angled out, hit the front in the final strides. Reigning Hong Kong Horse of the Year Ambitious Dragon, unraced since capping his brilliant 2010/11 season with a victory in the G1 Audemars Piguet QEII Cup in May, picked up right where he left off here. A winner of a record-equaling seven races last term--including the Hong Kong Derby--Ambitious Dragon was held toward the rear by Douglas Whyte, but came with a sustain run while widest of all and needed just token encouragement to cruise home well clear. The win was especially impressive as the gelding was "nowhere near his peak," according to trainer Tony Millard. "He's improved," said Millard incredulously. "He's actually improved! I thought he might run third or fourth, and I'd have been very pleased with that because this was just the start of his preparation for the international meeting in December. But to beat horses like that ridden hands and heels was just unbelievable. That was something to behold." Whyte heaped on the praise, adding, "Probably the best horse I've ever ridden. I'd given him a breather. We were about three quarters back and he was very, very comfortable. Then I just gave him a squeeze and he ran past them so quickly it was incredible. He is the most amazing horse to ride. This is the sort of horse you dream about all your life. It's just beautiful." Click for the Racing Post chart or video.

In the other big race on the card, the star-crossed Entrapment (Aus) (Halo Homewrecker) put up an impressive performance in his own right. After spending almost 1 1/2 years on the sidelines with a neurological problem in his left hind so rare that there wasn't even a medical name for it, the 5-year-old gelding won the Sha Tin Sprint Trophy in fine style.

Racing up on the pace without cover with Whyte in the stirrups yet again, Entrapment hit the front 300 meters out and asserted to best last season's champion sprinter Sacred Kingdom (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) by 3/4 lengths. "He can train a bit that John Size, can't he?" Whyte said of the winning conditioner. The South African jockey added, "I can't think of two horses I've ridden who've been more memorable. Especially coming back from a break like that. These are the horses you dream about." Over 28,000 attended the meeting at Sha Tin. Click for the Racing Post chart or video.
