SEVEN ENTERED IN CIGAR MILE

A field of seven was yesterday entered for Saturday's 23rd renewal of the GI Cigar Mile H. The race, originally run as the NYRA Mile, was renamed in honor of Cigar in 1997. Bill Mott, who trained the two-time Horse of the Year, will saddle 7-5 morning-line favorite To Honor and Serve (Bernardini) in this year's renewal. "It would be a great honor to win a race named after such a great horse," said Mott. "It was an honor when they decided to rename it after Cigar, as it was an important part of his winning streak."

To Honor and Serve
A Coglianese

To Honor and Serve, who captured last year's Gil Rensen S. and Gil Nashua S. over the Aqueduct oval, is coming off a seventh-place finish in the 1 1/4-mile GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 5.

"Shortening back from 1 1/4 miles to a mile is not usually an easy task, but it's possible," Mott added. "I know it's a bit of a squeeze to come back after a race like that, but he's feeling good, it's a Grade I, and probably the last race of the season for him."

Saturday, Aqueduct, post time: 3:20 p.m. EDT

KYLLACHY COLT HEADS TATTS FOAL OPENER

An April-born son of Kyllachy (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) was the standout at Tattersalls Wednesday on the traditionally low-key opening session of the December Foal Sale. The colt was consigned from the Pocock family's Stringston Farm in Somerset and heads to Ireland after Jimmy Murphy of Redpender Stud went to 55,000gns to see off Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock.

Lot 484 Tattersalls

"I successfully pinhooked [MSP-Eng] Nasri (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}), who was bred on the same cross, out of a Selkirk [Sharpen Up] mare, and I like the sire," said Murphy, explaining the purchase. "This was a very nice colt, and he's likely to come back here next year."

Murphy added, "I'm hoping to get five or six foals this week."

Veteran pinhooker Gay O'Callaghan of Yeomanstown Stud, who resold Hong Kong G1 Dim Sum (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) (previously Algol (GB) when racing in Britain), snapped up another colt by the Cheveley Park Stud sire yesterday. O'Callaghan paid 50,000gns for a son of Celestial Princess (GB) (Observatory) consigned from Trickle-down Stud and bred by Ned and Anne Kearney, who have recently relocated from Shropshire in Britain to Oakhill Stud in Ireland.

"I think he made his full price and was a good-moving, well-balanced colt and the one I really wanted today," said O'Callaghan. "He's likely to come back to the October Book 2 next year."

David Myerscough of Colbinstown Stud, who consigns in partnership with David Cox of Baroda Stud, paid 45,000gns for a Royal Applause (GB) colt offered by The Castlebridge Consignment for Leydens Farm Stud.

"He was my pick of the day and I was surprised we were able to afford him; I thought he might have made a bit more," said Myerscough. "He's been bought for a syndicate and will come back here next year."

Eddie O'Leary of County Westmeath-based Lynn Lodge Stud also hit the 45,000gns mark when buying a Compton Place (GB) colt bred by Ballybrennan Stud and another sold through Trickle-down Stud.

The sale continues today with a session starting at 10 a.m. For complete results visit www.tattersalls.com.

TATTERSALLS DECEMBER -- THURSDAY

525, c, Royal Applause (GB)--Luanshya (GB), by First Trump (GB)
Consigned by Hellwood Stud

This February-foaled bay is a full-brother to one of this year's top 2-year-olds, Saigon (GB), who beat Caspar Netscher (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) in the Listed Rose Bowl S. and was third behind that rival in the G2 Mill Reef S. Second in the G3 Horris Hill S. since the catalogue was published, he remains an exciting prospect for 2012.

597, c, Verglas (Ire)--Artisia (Ire), by Peintre Celebre
Consigned by Drumachon Stud

One with a fairly dramatic update, this April-foaled chestnut is a half-brother to recent G1 Melbourne Cup runner-up Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}). From the last crop of the now-deceased Verglas, he is a descendant of the champion Al Bahathri.

677, c, Dubawi (Ire)--Anayid (GB), by A. P. Indy
Consigned by Tweenhills Farm & Stud

Anayid, who is a daughter of the 1994 G1 Fillies' Mile heroine and G1 1000 Guineas runner-up Aqaarid (Nashwan), has already produced the talented listed winner Titus Mills (Ire) from a mating with Dubawi. Held in high regard by trainer Brian Meehan last term, he has not been seen since trailing in the G1 Racing Post Trophy.

688, f, Acclamation (GB)--Sheik'n Swing (GB), by Celtic Swing (GB)
Consigned by Trickle-down Stud

Acclamation is hot at the moment and this is a talking lot, being a half-sister to the 2009 G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte and G3 Cornwallis S. scorer Our Jonathan (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who was also successful in the prestigious Ayr Gold Cup this term. This is the family of the champion Pebbles (GB) and a host of Japanese and Australian talent.

721, c, Invincible Spirit (Ire)--Evangeline (GB), by Sadler's Wells
Consigned by The Castlebridge Consignment

This April-foaled bay is a half-sister to the 2008 G2 Lowther S. winner Infamous Angel (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) whose dam is closely related to a pair of black-type performers in Duchcov (GB) (Caerleon) and Sgt Pepper (Ire) (Fasliyev). Also on the page is the sire Volochine (Ire) and the 2009 G3 Prix du Bois winner Dolled Up (Ire) (Whipper).

OMISSION: High Chaparral was inadvertently omitted from the list of horses represented by three Group/Grade I winners in 2011. We regret the omission.

WILLCOX INN INTEREST SOLD

Roy and Gretchen Jackson's Lael Stable has purchased a 50% interest in G1 Hollywood Derby contender Willcox Inn (Harlan's Holiday) from the partnership group All In Stable. The 3-year-old colt, trained by Mike Stidham, won this year's GII American Derby and GIII Hawthorne Derby. He was also third in last year's GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf and G1 Dixiana Breeders' Futurity. On the board in seven of nine starts, Willcox Inn has won four times to date and has earnings of $480,943.

RAVI'S SONG BACK ON DIRT FOR FALLS CITY

Ravi's Song (Unbridled's Song) has made her most recent starts on the turf, but the gray mare moves back to the main track for her engagement in today's nine-furlong GII Falls City H. at Churchill. While she is coming off runner-up efforts in the June 11 GIII Mint Julep H., July 13 GIII Matchmaker S. and Nov. 6 GIII Cardinal H., Ravi's Song is a multiple stakes winner on conventional dirt. "I think she's going to run well," confirmed trainer Carl Bowman. "She's a three-time stakes winner on the dirt, so she'll have no problem with the surface. I think she'll show she can switch back and forth. There was no scientific reason for putting her on the turf. She had trained well over it and there wasn't a stakes on dirt that really fit her. The purse money is better on the dirt and she will probably make her following start on the dirt at Fair Grounds, so that's why she's back on the main track."

Super Espresso (Medaglia d'Oro), winner of the GIII Allaire DuPont Distaff S., makes her final career start in the Falls City. The 4-year-old filly, third in the GI Ogden Phipps H. and second in the GI Ruffian H., is coming off a seventh-place effort in the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic. "The Ladies' Classic was a bit of a reach," admitted Michael McCarthy, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "This is a logical spot for her. She's getting a bit of a class break and her numbers are as good as or better than everyone else in the field."

Sunday, Tokyo, Japan

JAPAN CUP-G1, ¥521,000,000, 3yo/up, 2400mT
Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}), a stirring five-length winner of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Oct. 2, turned in her final piece of serious work ahead of Sunday's race by working seven furlongs over the dirt course yesterday morning at Tokyo. With regular rider Andrasch Starke aboard, the 3-year-old broke off fairly quickly, with an opening three-eighths of a mile in :37.2. She covered a half in :51.2, and six furlongs in 1:18.6 before receiving a clocking of 1:33.3 for seven furlongs. "We used the dirt course because the turf was a bit firm, but I'm very satisfied with the condition she is in," trainer Peter Schiergen commented. "She's in the same form as she was for the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, so our hopes are high. Her strong point is that she responds very well in the last 400 meters, and can display her strength no matter what kind of race development or course she encounters."

RACETRACK Round-Up

FULL FIELDS FOR HKIR

A total of 54 of the world's top turf horses, including 26 international Group/Grade I winners, have been extended invitations to the Cathay Pacific Hong Kong International Races to be staged Sunday, Dec. 11. With an increase in purse money for the G1 Hong Kong Mile to HK$20 million (US$2.57 million), the meetings four Group 1 events offer total purses of HK$68 million (US$8.7 million). Whereas the G1 Hong Kong Vase is perennially something of an appetizer to the day's other events, this year's renewal could be one of the best ever, as the invitees include Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab), the 2010 G1

Hong Kong Cup hero who opts for this 2400-meter test over a defense of her title. She could square off against the top two finishers from the G1 Emirates Melbourne Cup, Dunaden (Fr) (Nicobar {GB}) and her stablemate Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), who carries the colors of former HKJC Chief Executive Ronald Arculli. Perfect Shirl (Perfect Soul {Ire}), upset winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Filly/Mare Turf, was a late supplement to the field. Reigning Hong Kong Horse of the Year Ambitious Dragon (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) will fly the flag for the home team in the G1 Hong Kong Cup over the 2000 meters, but will face a foreign challenge from the in-form Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}), who is exiting a win in the G1 Champion S. Oct. 15. Victoire Pisa (Jpn) (Neo Universe {Jpn})--this year's G1 Dubai World Cup hero who is slated for a start in this weekend's G1 Japan Cup--could return to his pet distance, while the race could also attract G1 Prince of Wales's S. hero Byword (GB) (Peintre Celebre). The G1 Hong Kong Mile has its defending champ back in the form of the locally based Beauty Flash (NZ) (Golan {Ire}), and he is but one of several chances in a field which includes top New Zealand miler Jimmy Choux (NZ) (Thorn Park {Aus}); G1 Prix du Moulin winner Excelebration (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}); Sahpresa (Sahm), third in last year's Mile; and Japanese Filly Triple Crown winner Apapane (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}). J J the Jet Plane (SAf) (Jet Master {SAf}) has seen his season derailed by injury and will be unable to try to double up in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint, but Singapore's Rocket Man (Aus) (Viscount {Aus}) will try to atone for a narrow defeat 12 months back. To do so he'll need to best a top-class field including two-time Sprint hero Sacred Kingdom (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}); GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint victor Regally Ready (More Than Ready); the filly Curren Chan (Jpn) (Kurofune), recent G1 Sprinters' S. winner; and the twice-defeated Entrapment (Aus) (Halo Homewrecker).

MASSACHUSETTS PASSES GAMING BILL After years of promises and near misses, legislation to expand casino-style gaming was signed into law by Massachusetts Governor Deval Patrick, and the measure, which does not guarantee the creation of a casino or slot machines at Suffolk Downs in East Boston, is set to significantly bolster the state's struggling racing and breeding industry. "We've been hanging on by our fingernails for the last three or four or five years," explained George Brown, chairman of the Massachusetts Thoroughbred Breeders' Association. "Every year, we'd get our hopes up and something would end up going wrong. If not for the hope that this bill would eventually happen, I think a lot of people would have left already, but they hung in there, hoping this was going to happen. Now that it has, I think it'll be a real shot in the arm for the racing people at the track and for us breeders, because there's going to be more money in the breeding program and that should stimulate people to breed horses." Average daily overnight purses which have hovered around the $100,000 mark at Suffolk for the past several years, could increase to as much as $170,000, Brown estimated. The legislation calls for the awarding of three casino licenses in three different regions of the state, each of which will require a licensing fee of $85 million and a minimum capital investment of $500 million. A single slots facility, to hold up to 1,250 slot machines, will be competitively bid. The license fee for this facility will be $25 million with a capital investment of $125 million. Horse racing interests are slated to receive 5% of the licensing fees for the four facilities, while 9% of the revenues from the slots parlor will be earmarked for a "Race Horse Development Fund" to promote live racing in the Commonwealth.

GEORGE WOOLF FINALISTS ANNOUNCED Santa Anita revealed a list of five finalists for the 63rd George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award. Ramon Dominguez, Corey Lanerie, Martin Pedroza, DeShawn Parker and Scott Stevens are the finalists for the 2012 award. The winner will be determined by a vote of jockeys nationwide and will be revealed in January. Santa Anita has presented the Woolf Award annually since 1950 in honor of the jockey who died in a spill at the Arcadia track in 1946.

COLE EYES ANOTHER RECORD WITH REDUX Rapid Redux (Pleasantly Perfect), who set the North American record for most consecutive wins with his 20th straight victory Monday at Mountaineer, could set a new record, according to owner Robert Cole. Cole hopes the 5-year-old, who has won 18 times this year, can surpass Citation's single-season win record of 19. Cole claimed Rapid Redux for $6,250 last October and, since then, the gelding has won 21 of 22 races and earned $246,694. "I grew up reading the Racing Form at the Timonium Fair and the game came naturally to me," Cole explained. "David [Wells] has done a great job training the horse, there is no question about that, but we have had good luck with spotting the horse in the right races. All in all, we have managed the streak very well. I wouldn't put him in a spot where we wouldn't do well." Cole said Rapid Redux could make his next start in the Iron Horse S., part of the claiming crown at Fair Grounds Dec. 3. "I think the best thing to do is go into the national spotlight and give him more attention," Cole said. "The horse came out of the race in fantastic shape. The trainer would have to be comfortable with shipping to Louisiana. The medication rules are different from state to state. If David says the horse is ready, we are going."

Robert Cole

He could not have had a tougher time of it last time out, when he was trapped for an eighth of a mile in the stretch and finally got clear, but too late, as he ran second on the Belmont main track Oct. 7. Heavily favored to finally break through here, Simbamangu stalked the pace three abreast, took command approaching the quarter pole and went on to score by 2 1/2 lengths as the 3-5 favorite. Winner of an off-turf allowance at Ellis Park July 31, Seruni took advantage when Mountaineer's Labor Day S. was washed onto a muddy main track Sept. 5 and scored by 4 3/4 lengths. The chestnut was mildly disappointing when eighth in the R. F. Carey Memorial S. on the Hawthorne turf Oct. 8, but was a strong runner-up in a two-turn route rained off the Keeneland turf Oct. 29. With Mother Nature playing havoc yet again, Seruni was there to capitalize, pouncing from just off the pace to win in fast time. June 18. Desperately wide when a running-on fourth in the GII West Virginia Derby at Mountaineer Aug. 6, he found his best stride too late when fifth behind recent GIII Discovery H. hero Redeemed (Include) in the Oct. 16 Oklahoma Derby. Last but one out of the stretch the first time, Infrattini made some ground up the inside, but was still seventh into the final turn. Patiently handled by Corey Lanerie into the stretch, the homebred was blocked and looked hopelessly beaten entering the final furlong. But, steered off horses' heels shortly thereafter, the 1-5 favorite finished with a flourish to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat. Pulpit's Secret (Pulpit) was a half-length back in second. The bay drilled optional claiming rivals by a half-dozen lengths at Prairie Meadows May 3, but was having her first run since a well-backed seventh in the June 4 Panthers S. at the Iowa track. Quickly clear in this off-turf test, Awesome Symmetry looked in deep water late as Retail Reger (Woke Up Dreamin) tried her up the rail and Hungry Tigress (Hold That Tiger) took a run from the outside, but she held sway for a half-length score as the 19-10 second favorite. HR/TVG STEELE ROAD (Street Cry {Ire}) is the first foal to race out of two-time champion Ashado (Saint Ballado), who was famously purchased for $9 million at Keeneland November back in 2005. Campaigned by Starlight Stable, Paul Saylor and Don Lucarelli, Ashado won the GI Spinaway S. at two and tacked on three more tallies at the highest level in 2003, taking the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI CCA Oaks before capping her season with a victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. She remained in fine form throughout her 4-year-old seasons, registering wins in the GI Ogden Phipps H. and GI Beldame S. before retiring with 12 wins from 21 starts and over $3.9 million in career earnings. Steele Road has been working steadily and is the 9-5 second choice on the morning line to Rockin Boogie (Rockport Harbor), a last-out second at Saratoga Aug. 17. brisnet.com pps

STRAW FLOWER (f, 4, Afleet Alex--Arlucea, by Broad Brush) returned from an 18-month absence to tail off to sixth in a one-mile maiden at Hoosier Park Aug. 10 and was last seen finishing an even, but distant eighth in a seven-furlong Polytrack maiden at Keeneland Oct. 27. Given a textbook ground-saving ride here by Calvin Borel, the homebred lingered in the latter third of the field while always glued to the fence. Given her cue leaving the three-eighths marker, Straw Flower rode the rails into contention in upper stretch. Borel had a chance to tip out three wide, but instead remained committed to an inside run and it nearly cost him. Steadied off the heels of Stephanie Jayne (Hennessy) at the sixteenth pole, Straw Flower was finally switched out and got up for a head success at 14-1. Fabulous Strike to Old Friends:

Fabulous Strike (Smart Strike), winner of the 2007 GI Vosburgh S. has been pensioned at Old Friends Retirement Center in Georgetown, Ky. The 8-year-old was retired from racing in September and was donated to Old Friends by his owner and breeder Walter Downey. "I'm a small-time breeder and he was a once-in-a-lifetime horse for me," Downey said. "After his last start, he came back a bit sore, not at all lame, but in the same breath the trainer and I decided it was time to just let him be a horse." Fabulous Strike is the third Vosburgh winner to retire to Old Friends, following 2002 winner Bonapaw and 1998 Affirmed Success. "We are so happy to add Fabulous Strike to our family of retirees," said Old Friends president and founder Michael Blowen. "We are honored that Walter Downey has entrusted us with his champ. We know Fabulous Strike has many devoted fans and we can't wait for them to come out and visit him here at the farm."

Jockeys' Guild Petitions Illinois Legislators:

Jockeys' Guild National Manager Terry Meyocks has sent an open letter to the Illinois governor and legislators requesting that any legislation permitting slots at racetrack would include provisions for money to be earmarked for the health and well-being of jockeys. In the letter Meyocks says, "Racing interests have said slots are essential at tracks. We, at the Jockeys' Guild, don't necessarily dispute that fact. But there is another issue that I would like for you to consider--an unresolved issue between the Jockeys' Guild and Churchill Downs Inc., owner of Arlington Park, and one of the corporations lobbying for slots. CDI is unwilling to recommit to a long-standing agreement that provides temporary disability, life insurance and AD&D and other benefits for active members, as well as assistance that is provided to disabled riders. As such, we would respectfully ask that the legislation include a requirement of a percentage to be withheld in order to provide for the health and welfare of the jockeys who regularly ride in Illinois, such as in the state of California, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey and Massachusetts." Considered a 2000 Guineas contender by connections at the start of last year, Edinburgh Knight failed to come up to scratch when last of nine in the G3 Craven S. and had been restricted to handicap company on his last 14 starts. Putting up his best performance when taking the seven-furlong handicap that closed out Champions' Day at Ascot last time Oct. 15, the bay took the step back up in class in his stride with a convincing win here. Anchored toward the rear early, he made eye-catching progress between rivals in the stretch and, when asked, ground down The Shrew and Clinical before asserting in the final 100 yards. Lingfield, 13.40, Mdn, £4,900, 2yo, 1m (AWT), 1:39.88, stn.

+ ZIMIRA (IRE) (f, 2, Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Zibilene {GB} {SP-Eng}, by Rainbow Quest), who was led out unsold at 350,000gns as a TATOCT yearling, was placed on the front end after the initial strides. Passed by Widyaan (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) inside the final furlong, the 13-2 shot rallied to regain the initiative in the closing yards and score by a half length. Dansable (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), the close relative of Astronomer Royal (Danzig), was 16-1 and weakened late to beat only one home. The winner is a half to Mathematician (Ire) (Machiavellian), MGSP-Fr, $119,798; and Oracle (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}), G1SP-Ire. Video, courtesy attheraces.com. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £3,170. O-Nurlan Bizakov; B-Barouche Stud Ireland; T-E Dunlop.
