ARQANA FINALE GETS UNDERWAY

Over the next four days, Arqana hosts the official finale of the European auction program with its Breeding Stock Sale, which has enjoyed a successful year on the track. Leading the way is the €17,000 purchase Danedrop (Ire) (Danehill), now famous for producing the ground-breaking filly Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}). Alongside her unforgettable victory in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, the latter boasts the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin and G2 Oaks d'Italia on her resume. Another product of a mare sold here who hit the heights this year is the amazingly consistent and resilient Cirrus des Aigles (Fr)

(Even Top {Ire}), whose defeat of So You Think (NZ) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in the G1 Champion S. earned him Cartier Older Horse of the Year status last month.

Others on the honor roll include the 2011 G2 Prix Kergorlay winner and G1 Irish St Leger dead-heater Jukebox Jury (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), whose dam Mare Aux Fees (GB) (Kenmare {Fr}) sold for just €30,000 seven years ago; the recent G1 Criterium International hero French Fifteen (Fr) (Turtle Bowl {Ire}), whose dam Spring Morning (Fr) (Ashkalani {Ire}) proved a snip at just €11,000 in 2008; and this year's G2 Prix de Malleret scorer and G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Testosterone (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), the progeny of the €30,000 graduate Epopee (Ire) (Sadler's Wells).

Other broodmares purchased here include Shemriyna (Ire) (King of Kings {Ire}), who subsequently produced the G2 Prix Eugene Adam winner Shimraan (Fr) (Rainbow Quest); and Lady Vettori (GB) (Vettori {Ire}), whose 2010 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and G1 Prix du Jockey-Club hero Lope de Vega (Ire) (Shamardal) is one of the feature covering sires in this catalogue. Alpine Rose (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) was sold in training for €550,000 in 2008 and went on to take the following year's G1 Prix Jean Romanet. Cont. p2

MILLIONAIRE HAYNESFIELD RETIRED

Harvey Weinstein's Turtle Bird Stable's Haynesfield (Speightstown--Nothing Special, by Tejabo), an authoritative four-length winner over subsequent champion Blame (Arch) in the 2010 G1 Jockey Club Gold Cup S. at Belmont Park, has been retired. Trained throughout his career by Steve Asmussen, the chestnut also recorded wins in the 2010 GII Suburban H., the Empire Classic S. in 2009 and 2011, and the 2009 Count Fleet S. and Whirlaway S. He came within a head of annexing last year's G1 Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile H. as well. "Haynesfield gave us a lot of thrills and memories over the last four seasons, but the race that will always stand out was his decisive win in the Jockey Club Gold Cup over Blame, handing him his only loss that year," said Toby Sheets, assistant to Asmussen. "Beating him in a Grade I at equal weights in his championship season was a tremendous accomplishment by a gifted horse. We will miss having him around the barn." Bred in New York by Barry Weisbord and Margaret Santulli, Haynesfield brought $100,000 as a KEESEP yearling and $20,000 as a KEEAPR juvenile. The 5-year-old retires with a record of 19-10-2-1 and earnings of $1,319,480. Stud plans are pending.

Recent sales here have seen the now-established "Wild Card" entry system prove successful, and another who could continue that trend today is the 3-year-old filly Racemate (GB) (Hurricane Run {Ire}). She opened her black-type account in Tuesday's Listed Prix Belle de Nuit at Fontainebleau and is offered as hip 190. Racemate's family is that of the sensational Coup de Folie dynasty and, as the Arqana press release states, she "provides a rare opportunity to step into one of the most successful Niarchos families with a black-type performer."

Two others who have joined the fray late are hip 120, last year's G3 Prix des Reservoirs runner-up Footsteppy (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}); and the Marquesa de Moratalla's hip 180, the 3-year-old filly Chinese Wall (Ire) (Aussie Rules), who was successful in the Listed Prix de la Vallee d'Auge and runner-up in the G3 Prix d'Arenberg last term. All of the leading vendors are present again with significant drafts. They include His Highness The Aga Khan Studs, Haras du Mezeray, Darley, Wertheimer et Frere, the Coulonces Consignment, Haras de la Louviere and Haras d'Etreham.

Of the covering sires catalogued, there is the opportunity to acquire the first progeny of the likes of Equiano (Fr), Makfi (GB), Paco Boy (Ire), Rip Van Winkle (Ire), Starspangledbanner (Aus) and Vision d'Etat (Fr). Alongside the fillies and mares, 229 foals are on offer and the vast majority are qualified for the lucrative French owners' premiums. Recent adverts for this generation include the current G1 Melbourne Cup title-holder Dunaden (Fr) (Nicobar {GB}), who fetched just €1,500 in 2006; and this year's G3 Prix d'Hedouville winner Ivory Land (Fr) (Lando {Ger}), who was bought for €27,000 in 2007. First-crop sires include Bushranger, Doctor Dino (Fr), Le Havre (Ire) and Naaqos (GB). The sale closes with some stallion shares; one of those is the opportunity to acquire 2% of Stormy River (Fr). Selling gets underway at 11 a.m. Full catalogue and updates are available on www.arqana.com.

The View From Arqana - General Manager Olivier Delloye:

"This sale is slightly different from last year, as the yearlings we once sold here were offered in November during the Horses-In-Training Sale, which was a positive move. The four-day December Sale is now strictly a breeding sale, with an extra half day on Tuesday with National Hunt pedigrees.

We do have a strong catalogue, both in quantity and quality that has been very well received, especially by the English clients. We do not have a real star, but really nice pedigrees, with the choice there for fillies out of training and young mares. The Aga Khan draft is of a high standard from families rarely seen on the market. This is also true for the Wertheimer consignment, as well as others mares, like the dams of Silver Frost (Ire), Montmartre (Fr) and Ivory Land (Fr), which gives the possibility to produce a yearling half-brother or half-sister to a Group 1 winner. We also have sisters to Group 1 winners Pour Moi (Ire), Moonlight Cloud (GB) and Cape Blanco (Ire). This is an important sale that gives the opportunity to breeders to reconstruct their stock with young mares to produce the yearlings of the future. I hope they will invest. The sales of the coming years are built from this one.

"Regarding the foals, it is more complicated, as historically this an under-developed market in France. The foals market reflects partly the stallion market in the country, and with our stallions being what they are, it seems logical that the foal market in France is not as strong as it is in England or Ireland. We feel encouraged by the results of the sales at Keeneland and Fasig-Tipton. When the quality is there, the demand is there. The signs are positive, even if the market is not bullish and people remain cautious in their investments. We can be reasonably confident--we do not pretend that we will reach the heights of the recent Arc Sale, but we should, especially on Saturday, sell a reasonable number of mares above the €100,000 mark. We expect a lot of Japanese, Australian and Turkish buyers, and people from India who are approaching the French market with interesting potential. I hope also that French buyers will be there because, as I said previously, this sale prepares for the sales to come."

ARQANA DECEMBER - DAY ONE HIP HAPPENINGS

137, Siyouma (Ire), f, 3, Medicean (GB)--Sichilla (Ire), by Danehill

Consigned by Aga Khan Studs

His Highness' draft habitually draws the keenest interest, and this winning daughter of a stakes-placed half-sister to the MG1SW Slickly (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) justifies the interest. She is a half-sister to the champion juvenile Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}).

152, Dandesha (Fr), f, 3, Dansili (GB)--Darashandeh (Ire), by Darshaan (GB)

Consigned by Aga Khan Studs

This is another select offering from the Aga Khan draft, and she also comes with a win on her palmarès. Out of the G1 Prix Saint-Alary fourth Darashandeh, she is a half-sister to the G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Darsi (Fr) (Polish Precedent) and also hails from the family of G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches victress and MG1SW Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar).

161, Insoumise (Ire), f, 3, Galileo (Ire)--Featherquest (GB), by Rainbow Quest

Consigned by Wertheimer & Frere

Another welcoming selection of Alain and Gerard Wertheimer's excess stock is bolstered by this maiden daughter of Galileo (Ire). She is a half-sister to the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud victress and top-table yardstick Plumania (GB) (Anabaa), and the G2 Prix de Royallieu winner Balladeuse (Fr) (Singspiel {Ire}). This term's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine and MG1SW Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) squeezes in at the bottom of the page. Cont. p4

177, Vakiyla (Fr), f, 3, Galileo (Ire)--Vadaza (Fr), by Zafonic

Consigned by Aga Khan Studs

This maiden, out of the dual listed-placed Vadaza, is the product of a line nurtured by the late Jean-Luc Lagardere. From the family of Valixir (Ire) (Tremolino), Val Royal (Fr) (Royal Academy), et al, she is a half-sister to the G1 Prix Saint-Alary victress Vadawina (Ire) (Unfuwain) and the dual Group 3-winning "TDN Rising Star" ♀ Vadapolina (Fr) (Tremolino).

179, Extreme Green (GB), f, 4, Motivator (GB)--Ventura (Ire), by Spectrum (Ire)

Consigned by The Castlebridge Consignment

Offered as a filly in training, this winner showcases the latest chapter from a family active on the track and in the ring this term. Although acquired privately since, she is sure to provide a significant increase on the 2,000gns she was knocked down for at Tattersalls' Autumn Horses-in-Training sale two years ago. Her half-sister Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) upgraded the page with victory in August's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at the nearby Deauville track, and her yearling half-brother (by Manduro {Ger}) sold for €400,000 at this venue that same month. Dam Ventura (Ire) kept the family profile high when changing hands for 900,000gns at Tattersalls' December Sale earlier this week.

213, Artistique (Ire), m, 15, Linamix (Fr)--Armarama (GB), by Persian Bold (Ire)

Consigned by Aga Khan Studs

Selling in foal to Cape Cross (Ire), this veteran of the draft is out of the G1 Oaks d'Italia runner-up Armarama. From the family of Kalaglow (Ire), she is the dam of five winners, including the G1 Juddmonte Grand Prix de Paris hero Montmartre (Fr) (Montjeu {Ire}).

Steven Marshall, the Managing Director of the California-based Western Energy Production, obtained a controlling interest from Mike Ryan in Silver Medallion following wins in the 2010 Eddie Logan S. on Santa Anita's grass and this term's GIII El Camino Real Derby over the Golden Gate all-weather in February. The bay could do no better than fourth as the 5-2 favorite in the GI Santa Anita Derby, and repeated that performance in Keeneland's GIII Coolmore Lexington S. in April, his final start for trainer Steve Asmussen. Transferred to Todd Pletcher, he was second-best in a grassy $80,000 optional tagger at Woodbine Oct. 7, and entered off a third-place finish in the GIII Commonwealth Turf S. at Churchill Nov. 3. Stalking the early pace through fractions of :24.49 and :49.70 here, Silver Medallion hit the gas as they straightened for home and powered clear in the stretch to post a decisive victory. "This is a very nice grass horse," jockey Javier Castellano said. "We were very lucky today with how the race unfolded, with only one speed horse. [Silver Medallion] settled nicely and I think that was the key today. He was very relaxed in the beginning and ready to run in the stretch. He did it the right way." (Click HERE for a feature on Black Rock Stables principal Steven Marshall that ran during TDN's coverage of this year's Keeneland September sale).

Casablanca Smile, a multiple Group 1 winner and dual champion in her native country for Stud Carillanca, hit the board in her first three tries against stakes company in the U.S. for Green Hills Farm in 2010 before annexing Keeneland's Rood and Riddle Dowager S. by seven lengths that October. The bay had made only one start since, placing second in this race Jan. 2. Backed as the second-choice despite the lengthy layoff, she coasted on the front end through fractions of :25.31 and :51.63, and kept on finding more in the stretch, pulling off a graded stakes double for jockey Javier Castellano. "She's a very, very classy filly," trainer Shug McGaughey offered. "Naturally, you'd be concerned going this distance off that kind of layoff, but I liked that three quarters in 1:18. I thought she'd run good today, and if she got beat, it would simply be the layoff. I'll talk to the owner about her future in the next week and we'll map out a plan."

TRANSCEND'S RACE TO LOSE DESPITE DRAW

A full field of 16 will line up in Sunday's G1 Japan Cup Dirt at Hanshin, with defending champion and heavy favorite Transcend (Jpn) (Wild Rush) drawing widest of all. Despite a parking-lot post, trainer Takayuki Yasuda thinks the 5-year-old has the tools to give himself a good trip. "He's matured so much mentally," said Yasuda. "He's probably at his best when he's on the lead, but he proved in his last start and the one before that he is capable of coming off the pace. Given his form right now, I think he'll be fine regardless of how the race unfolds." A winner of half of his 18 career starts, Transcend followed his Dirt Cup victory last year with a win in the G1 February S. at Tokyo. He was dismissed at 40-1 in the G1 Dubai World Cup in March, but, after setting the pace, hung on to finish a game half-length adrift of Victoire Pisa (Jpn) (Neo Universe {Jpn}) while giving Japan the exacta in the world's richest race. Offered some time off, Transcend returned to win the 1600-meter Mile Championship Nambu Hai by a head over Danon Come On (Jpn) (Symboli Kris S). He rallied to finish second to the streaking Smart Falcon (Jpn) (Gold Allure {Jpn}) in the 2000-meter JBC Classic at Ohi Nov. 3 (video), but with that well-regarded foe skipping the Cup--he didn't bounce out of the JBC Classic like connections had hoped--Transcend now looks like the horse to beat.

Transcend
japanracing.jp

"We're the champion...and we want to defend our title," said Yasuda. "If we win here, we have a shot of winning dirt horse of the year. We've got our hopes up, and I expect nothing less than a victory. Our goal is to win the Dubai World Cup next year." The winner of the 2009 Japan Dirt Cup, Espoir City (Jpn) (Gold Allure {Jpn}), made the trip to Churchill for last year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic and, after finishing 10th of 12 to Blame (Arch), didn't attempt to defend his Cup title. Cont. p8

Espoir City hasn't quite been at his best most of this season, but has missed the frame only once in five starts, and his 3 1/2-length tally over Tosho Freak (Jpn) (King Kamhmeha {Jpn}) in the 1800-meter G3 Miyako S. at Kyoto Nov. 6 proves he's still capable of a big effort. "He's a completely different horse [now] compared to the way he's been over the past year," said jockey Tetsuzo Sato. "You can see it in his eyes. When he's in form, he's got that vibe, that attitude that intimidates other horses, and that's how he is right now. We're very determined to beat [Transcend]. I think the horse himself wants to win another Grade 1 badly."

WOJCIECHOWSKI NAMED OBS DIRECTOR OF SALES

Edited Press Release

Tod Wojciechowski has been named the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company Director of Sales, it was announced yesterday. He replaces Tom Ventura, who will assume the OBS presidency upon the retirement of Tom Chiota in June. Wojciechowski, a Cornell University graduate with extensive experience in many facets of the horse industry, will begin his duties shortly after the first of the year. "We are pleased to add Tod to our management team on a permanent basis," said OBS Board Chairman Mike O'Farrell. "His previous experience at OBS assures a smooth transition when Tom Ventura takes over for Tom Chiota. Tod is a good horseman with a unique combination of an Ivy League education and practical experience as both a buyer and consignor. He brings a valuable perspective to OBS."

Correction: Gio Ponti was incorrectly credited with six Grade I wins instead of seven in Bill Oppenheim's column in Friday's TDN. We regret the error.

New York sired
NY-breds in 2012

It was a big week for South African owner-breeder Gaynor Rupert, owner of Drakenstein Stud Farm, which stands top stallions Trippi and Horse Chestnut. Ebony Flyer, a crack filly of which she is part owner, easily dispatched a field of top females last Sunday, and is on track for the G1 L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Jan. 7 at Kenilworth Racecourse in Cape Town. The TDN managed to catch up with South Africa's busiest woman for a chat.

Last Time I Laughed Out Loud:

A week ago when my 81-year-old mother climbed over her security fence and broke her door down to get into her house after her grandson had accidentally gone off with her keys.

Last Time I Cried Over a Horse:

When Jet Master died, because although I did not have personal dealings with him he sired many of my horses and he was a great South African stallion. I also knew how hard the vets at Drakenstein Veterinary Clinic had worked to try to save him.

Last Injury:

A golf elbow last year.

Last Racetrack Food I Ate:

A toasted cheese at Durbanville Racetrack on the 15th October when Ebony Flyer won the GR 3 Diana Stakes.

Last Gift I Bought:

A bottle of Tammy Fraser perfume from my daughter Hanneli's shop Merchants in Cape Town.

Last Major Regret:

Not buying Court Vision when I had the chance.

Last Prank I Played:

I threw a stone into the reeds along the riverside at Leopard Creek behind a friend of ours when he went down to pick up a tin that had fallen. He got the fright of his life as anything could be lurking in the reeds – buffalo, hippo, crocodile, elephant or even a lion. On the other side of the house stretches the Kruger National Park so one is not supposed to enter that area.

Last Thing I said that I Immediately Regretted:

"I'm going to give up wine for Lent."

Here Comes Ben & Justenuffhumor to McMahon:

Here Comes Ben (Street Cry {Ire}--Chasetheragingwind, by Dayjur) and Justenuffhumor (Distorted Humor--Justenuffheart, by Broad Brush) have been added to the 2012 McMahon of Saratoga Thoroughbreds stallion roster, it was announced Friday. Owned and bred by Marianne and Brandon Chase, Here Comes Ben registered a career high annexing the 2010 GI Forego S. at Saratoga. He heads to the breeding shed with a record of 17-7-1-3 and earnings of $410,764. MGSW Justenuffhumor, a $550,000 KESEEP yearling graduate, relocates to McMahon after standing his first season at stud at Vinery New York. "Here Comes Ben is by Darley star Street Cry, sire of Horse of the Year Zenyatta and Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense," Joe McMahon commented. "Breeders' Cup [Mile] placed Justenuffhumor is by Distorted Humor, sire of champion dual classic winner Funny Cide, a McMahon graduate, as well as 2011 Breeders' Cup Classic and Belmont S. winner Drosselmeyer. New York is poised to become a leading state in breeding and racing and McMahon of Saratoga Thoroughbreds is committed to the future of our industry here." Here Comes Ben will stand for $7,500 and Justenuffhumor will command a $5,000 fee. Both stud fees are live foal guaranteed.

Big A Casino to Open Full Facility Dec. 16:

Edited Press Release

Less than six weeks after the grand opening of Resorts World Casino New York City at Aqueduct, the remaining two floors of the new facility will debut Friday, Dec. 16, it was announced Friday. The remaining 2,514 of 5,000 Video Lottery Terminals and Electronic Table Games at the new 5th Avenue Casino and two new 250-seat fine dining restaurants are among the additions. "We have been truly humbled by the response of New Yorkers and tourists alike and we thank them for their ongoing support and patronage," said Michael Speller, President of Resorts World New York. "Due to the hard work of our 1,500-person staff, we're confident that we will be able to continue providing the highest level of service to our customers as we unveil the second stage of our facility."

The form of that race was flattered when the runner-up, Sacristy (Pulpit) defeated a group of Churchill maidens by nearly seven lengths Nov. 10, and Applauding was sent off at a dime on the dollar to negotiate this next step. Drawn inside here, Applauding was ridden for speed and showed the way through an opening two furlongs in :21.79. Traveling comfortably on the turn, she turned back a mild bid at the head of the lane, and, under no more than hands-and-heels riding from Shane Sellers, was a half-dozen lengths clear of Lulu Wong (Badge of Silver) at the wire. "Those are the kind that make your job easy," Sellers said.

"There's not a jockey in that room that couldn't have rode her today....I don't think that two turns is going to be a problem for her at all. She's got tactical speed. I really believe that two turns is going to be her ticket." Winning trainer Al Stall Jr. said the filly's next start would come at a mile and 70 yards in the Silverbulletday S. Jan. 21. Yesterday's Results:

3rd-WOX, $58,134, Msw, 2yo, 1 1/16m (AWT), 1:45 4/5, ft.

BLUEDACIOUS (c, 2, Bluegrass Cat--Unbridled Con, by Unbridled's Song) overcame a slow start to pick up his first victory in five starts for trainer Mark Casse. A solid third in the GIII Grey S. at Woodbine two starts back, Bluedacious was sent off as the heavy favorite against maidens at the Canadian track Oct. 29, but was third again after breaking slowly, then making a late move. Leaving from the outside in the field of seven yesterday, the gray colt raced in midpack early before coming four wide on the far turn to join leading duo entering the stretch. Put to a drive at the eighth pole, Bluedacious overtook the leaders and was able to hold sway through the final furlong to post a one-length victory at odds of 5-2 over Moon Traveler (Malibu Moon). Lifetime Record: GSP, 5-1-1-2, $71,661. Click for the [brisnet.com chart](http://brisnet.com chart) or video.

DOMINGUEZ, VELAZQUEZ HEAD JOCK

SERIES The Japan Racing Association's World Super Jockeys Series, a two-day, four-race series held today and tomorrow at Hanshin Racecourse, has attracted a stellar international cast that includes two of America's best riders, Eclipse Award winners Ramon Dominguez and John Velazquez, as well Ireland's Johnny Murtagh and Hong Kong's Brett Prebble. Launched in 1987, the series pairs up jockeys and Japanese-based horses chosen randomly by drawing. Points are awarded for each race, and the jockey with the most points at the end of the second day wins. Last season, Great Britain's Ryan Moore claimed the title, edging Australia's Craig Williams and Ireland's Murtagh. Mike Smith, the lone American rider, finishing in a tie for 13th. This year, riders representing France, Germany, Ireland, the United Kingdom, the U.S., Australia and Hong Kong will line up against seven Japanese riders. The four races are:
