ALFREDO REMAINS UNBEATEN IN ASAHI HAI

Carrot Farm's Alfredo (Jpn) (Symboli Kris S) entered Sunday's 1600-meter G1 Asahi Hai Futurity S. unbeaten but untested and, after a scintillating two-length victory over Nakayama's turf, left as Japan's pre-tem juvenile champion male. Word was out on the paternal grandson of Kris S. when he made his belated debut, and he justified his even-money odds with a half-length tally over course and distance Sept. 25. Sent off at similar odds in a metric-mile allowance at Niigata Oct. 29, he won by 1 1/2 lengths, and was bet down from his 5-1 morning-line odds to 2-1 favoritism in the Asahi Hai Futurity. Breaking from post three, Alfredo secured a good tracking spot along the rail as longshot Hakusan Moon (Jpn) (Admire Moon {Jpn}) led. Alfredo was just a length or two back as they turned into the stretch, but was locked in under Australian jock Craig Williams. The longtime pacesetter began to drift off the pine as he tired, though, and Alfredo and Williams took advantage of the dream run with a decisive move that quickly put the result to rest. Meiner Robusto (Jpn) (Zenno El Cid {Ire}) ran second, two lengths off the winner, with Leo Active (Jpn) (Admire Moon {Jpn}) putting in a good late run to be another half-length back in third. Cont. p2

SAHPRESA RETIRED

Trainer Rodolphe Collet has called time on the career of his star distaffer Sahpresa (Sahm--Sorpresa, by Pleasant Tap). Teruya Yoshida's 6-year-old, who registered a unique treble in Newmarket's G1 Sun Chariot S. with a third straight score in the latest renewal, will retire to her owner's Shadai Farm in Japan. Also on the board in six other Group 1 events, most recently when third in the Nov. 20 G1 Mile Championship at "Sahpresa wasn't quite herself for her last run, but over the years I couldn't have asked for anything more from her, and she never disappointed me," Collet told Racing Post. "She has taken us far and wide as well as bringing me my first Group 1. She will leave a big void, but I hope to find another filly like her."

Starlight Knows the Code...

In May of 2006, Starlight Racing and partners were represented in the GI Kentucky Derby by the Todd Pletcher-trained colt Keyed Entry (Honour and Glory).

The colt was a son of the Cryptoclearance mare Ava Knowsthecode, and had punched his ticket to the Derby with a win in the

GII Hutcheson S. and

placings in the

GIII Gotham S. and GI Wood Memorial S.

At last year's

Keeneland September

Sale, Starlight went back to the well for another son of Ava

Knowsthecode, and after Algorithms (Bernardini) improved his record to two-for-two with an eye-catching win in a Gulfstream allowance Friday, it wouldn't be a big surprise if Starlight ended up back at

Algorithms, also trained by Pletcher, was sent off the second choice in the 6 1/2-furlong dash as another son of Bernardini, Darley's Consortium, went postward at odds-on. The bay stalked three wide while shadowing Consortium, moved in tandem into the lane and asserted to beat his rival by a length under Javier Castellano. The final time was a sharp 1:15 2/5, and Algorithms earned a 100 BRIS figure for the win (video). Algorithms was making his first start since airing by 5 1/4 lengths in his five-furlong debut at Belmont in early June. Pletcher said after the race that the GIII Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream Jan. 29, contested over a one-turn mile, was a possible next target.

Starlight, owned by Jack and Laurie Wolf and Donald and Barbara Lucarelli, is no stranger to success on the Derby trail, with horses like Harlan's Holiday (Harlan) and Monba (Maria's Mon) winning Grade I preps while wearing the stable's blue and yellow silks. Keyed Entry was a bit different than that pair, however, in that he probably wasn't a true route horse. He set a new track record winning the 7 1/2-furlong Hutcheson at Gulfstream in the slop after getting to the six-furlong mark in a wild 1:07 3/5. Later, in the nine-furlong Wood, he seemed to struggle in the final furlong while still holding third. And in the Derby, his distance limitations really came to the fore. He set fast :22 3/5 and :46 flat fractions under jockey Patrick Valenzuela and backed up through the field in the stretch.

Wolf is forthright about running Keyed Entry in the Derby. "In hindsight, it was the wrong thing to do," he said. "After the Wood, it was fairly clear that he was better sprinting than going two turns. But we probably got a little of the Derby fever, and we had the earnings to go. But we had two speed ingredients--we had P-Val and we had Keyed Entry--and that was a recipe for disaster. In hindsight, we should have done what the Lost in the Fog guys did--they stuck to sprinting. Keyed Entry was a sprinter."

In fact, the majority of Ava Knowsthecode's offspring have been sprinters, or maybe milers at best. Her good son Justin Phillip (First Samurai) won the seven-furlong GII Woody Stephens S. at Belmont this year and was third in the seven-furlong GI King's Bishop, while Successful Mission (Successful Appeal) notched his lone graded win in the GIII Miami Mile H.

All that makes you wonder how far Algorithms will want to go. The colt, however, seems to sport a different profile than his siblings. His outstanding young sire is by A.P. Indy and excelled at 10 furlongs, winning the GI Travers S. and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at America's Classic distance. Wolf thinks Algorithms has the look of a route horse, too. Cont. p4

"Physically, they are different horses," he said when asked to compare Keyed Entry and Algorithms. "I was at the race Friday and didn't hear it, but someone said that the folks on HRTV were just going on and on about how good this horse looked in the paddock. And they're right. He's had a good bit of time off since his first race, and he's really matured into a professional-looking horse. I was actually talking to Todd this morning, and unlike Justin Philip and unlike Keyed Entry, this horse looks like he truly wants to run two turns--at least a mile and an eighth. From what Todd's saying, it will be exciting to see this horse go two turns."

Laurie & Jack Wolf

Algorithms was acquired by former trainer Frank Brothers on Starlight's behalf for $170,000. It isn't a small sum, but less than Bernardini's $201,209 average in 2010, and Wolf was happy to get him for that amount.

"I don't really know how he slipped through the cracks," said Wolf. "I think maybe one reason is that people couldn't scope him at the sale; or at least he was very hard to scope. With me knowing the owner and breeder of the horse, [Oakbrook Farm's] Pat Brooks, she assured me his breathing was fine. Maybe that scared a few people off. I don't know. I was scratching my head, too. Keyed Entry had done well, Justin Phillip was doing well, and he was a nice horse physically. But for whatever reason, I think we were the only buyers on the horse."

Wolf said that Starlight also made a play for Justin Phillip, purchased by Ahmed Zayat for $400,000 at the 2009 Keeneland September Sale, and for the $625,000 Bernardini full-brother to Algorithms that sold three months ago at this year's renewal of the sale.

"We liked Justin Phillip quite a bit, but got outbid by Mr. Zayat, and this last September at the sales, we were the underbidder on the full-brother," said Wolf. "We went to $610,000, and [Darley's John Ferguson] went to $625,000. I don't know what I was doing trying to bid with those people anyway! But I was talking to Jimmy Bell [Darley President] a week ago, and the horse is over in Aiken [South Carolina] and seems to be doing very well. I'm sure Jimmy was pulling hard for Consortium the other day, but I imagine if they had to get beat, they were glad it was by this horse, given that they have the full."

In the meantime, Wolf said Starlight will take sensible steps down the Classic trail with Algorithms, and hope that path leads to some Derby redemption for his dam. "I think he's a lot different from Keyed Entry, but only time will tell," he said. --LM

Summer Front emerged from this race unscathed in three trips to the post. The bay, the third-highest-priced juvenile at this year's Keeneland April Sale, opened his account with a win sprinting six furlongs on the sod at Belmont Sept. 28. He carried Ramon Dominguez to a first black-type win in the one-mile King Cugat S. on the Aqueduct lawn Nov. 6, and was facing a quality field here. The son of War Front, leaving from post nine in a tangle, sat just off an early crush of horses vying for the lead, and was floated wide settling into a mid-pack position. He continued to race wide on the backstretch while under cover, and at the top of the lane was poised to strike. Hooked just to the outside of favored Finale, he surged past that foe in the final sixteenth as the chalk was able to hold place honors. "It's not easy to win a mile race here [on turf] with a wide trip," said trainer Christophe Clement. "Now he's three-for-three. We've had success for Mr. [Thomas] Moore before with In Summation (Put it Back) and we look forward to next year with this one. We didn't try him on dirt this year, but maybe next year. We'll probably pass the next race ($100,000 Kitten's Joy S. on Jan. 21)." John Velazquez was aboard Finale, making his first start since running seventh as the tepid 4-1 choice in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Churchill Nov. 6. "He ran a great race today, he was just beat by a better horse," said Velazquez. "We were three wide today, but it was not that bad. It was nothing like in the Breeders' Cup. That was wide." Unfazed, jockey Johnny Velazquez settled the big grey into a comfortable tempo, and eased her over to the rail through a pedestrian half-mile in :48.54.  San Pablo donned cap and gown second out at Gulfstream in February, and resurfaced to annex a Monmouth allowance Sept. 11. He was a close-up third in Belmont's Oct. 15 Chief Tamanaco S., earning a 102 Beyer for that effort, and was last seen taking an optional claimer on the main track here Nov. 20 by 4 1/4 lengths. Well-held along the rail behind an opening quarter in :24.36, the headstrong dark bay moved outside to contest a half in :48.27 and six furlongs in 1:12.30. He seized clear command in upper stretch, and glided home to a handy success. Click for the brisnet.com chart or a video replay.

Third time proved the charm as the gelding got off the mark over that course and trip Nov. 19. Let go at 20-1 for this return to the dirt, the chestnut was pressed by Perfect Trippi (Trippi) through an opening quarter in :23.84 and a half mile in :47.74, inched away from that rival in the stretch and was one-length clear of the closing favorite He Can Run (Successful Appeal) at the wire. Good Deed encountered her fair share of problems in her debut going five panels at the Spa Aug. 4 and faded late to be sixth, beaten 14 3/4 lengths. Encountering easier company next time, she galloped home a facile six-length winner in the mud at Hoosier Oct. 1 and followed that effort with another score, stretching to 6 1/2 furlongs at Churchill Downs Oct. 30. Favored this time, the nifty bay jumped out to take the early advantage and led through opening splits of :22.05 and :45.50. Mensa Heat was claimed by these connections for $25,000 from Jack Carava and La Canada Stables in April, and posted threewins from four tries while moving up the class ladder. He took another leap forward when dead-heating for the victory in Del Mar's Pirate's Bounty S. for Cal-breds Sept. 7, and came just 3/4 of a length short of subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Sprint hero Amazombie (Northern Afleet) when filling out the trifecta in Santa Anita's GI Ancient Title S. Oct. 8. He was a no excuses last as 3-2 chalk in the Oct. 29 Cal Cup Sprint back in Arcadia last time. Relaxed off a half in :45.56 here, the dark bay ranged up four-wide along the home bend, seized command in midstretch and kicked home to win going away. Legal Separation, the longest shot in the field of seven, helped spice up the exotics in this closing day feature. Click for the brisnet.com chart or a video replay.

Reneesgotzip lived up to her name right from the bell, however, and grabbed a clear lead through a half in :45.24.
