ONE DAY IN THE VALLEY

Twelve months ago, Winchell Thoroughbreds' Tapizar (Tapit) looked to be a solid Classic contender following his impressive score in the GIII Sham S. at Santa Anita. However, the bay colt was sidelined following a fifth in the GII Robert B. Lewis S. in February and missed out on the big prizes of the spring and summer. The homebred defeated a salty group in his Oct. 8 return at Belmont, and most recently was fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Churchill Nov. 5.

Tapizar

Tapizar has drawn the outside for this afternoon's GII San Fernando S. at Santa Anita. "He's very fast, and they're going to have to pick up their feet to beat him," said jockey Corey Nakatani. Nakatani will be taking over the reins. Regular rider Garrett Gomez is recovering from a broken heel sustained last Saturday. Also in the field are Prayer for Relief (Jump Start), who will seek to give trainer Bob Baffert a belated birthday present; and Irish Art (Artie Schiller), making his dirt bow after finishing second in the grassy GIII Sir Beaufort S. on opening day. "It would give us another dimension for the horse," said trainer Carla Gaines. "He has always trained well on the dirt. [It's] a short field and it was tempting to try." Field p3

JACKSON HEIGHTS

Jackson Bend (Hear No Evil) kicks off his 5-year-old campaign against a solid group in the GIII Hal's Hope S. at Gulfstream this afternoon.

Jackson Bend

Remodeled as a one-turn runner last summer, the liver chestnut captured the GI Forego S. at Saratoga Sept. 3, then ran second to Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) in the GII Kelso H. at Belmont Oct. 1 before closing out 2011 with a third as the favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill Nov. 5. "Obviously, he's best at seven furlongs," acknowledged trainer Nick Zito. "I mean, he's 2-for-2.

The reason I'm starting at a mile is I'm obviously not going to run six furlongs--and seven furlongs, it's impossible to get a race. He's a good miler. He ran second to Uncle Mo, and if Uncle Mo wasn't in it, he would have won it." Cont. p3-4

'CHOICE' COLT BACK ON TOP AT MM

More than one heart was broken when Coolmore swooped in to buy Thursday's A$960,000 session topper, a colt by Fastnet Rock (Aus), at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Sale, and among them was trainer Gerald Ryan. Not ready to be denied again, the Sydney-based trainer tenaciously outlasted his competition to secure lot 532, a son of Redoute's Choice (Aus) for A$750,000 during Friday's third session. "It was a different story and [he was] so much better," said Ryan, commenting on his ability to succeed where he had failed one day earlier. "I'd given up, because I couldn't get it together the past two days, but it wasn't until he was around in the back [walking ring], I said 'no, I couldn't let this horse go.'" Consigned by Reavill Farm, the colt is out of listed winner Cloister (Aus) (Marauding {Aus}), a daughter of Group 3 heroine Pampas Fire (Aus) (Prince True {Aus}). The Oct. 13 foal is from the family of Zeditave. "I really liked the horse, and he is one of the best colts in the whole sale," Ryan said. "He's athletic and he has a sensational pedigree. Mr. [John] Messara [of Arrowfield Stud] recommended him, and he reckoned the colt probably moves as well as any of the Redoute's Choice colts we've seen." Cont. p5

More From Magic Millions

The TDN's Christina Bossinakis continues her coverage from the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, which saw a $750,000 son of Redoute's Choice (Aus) top Friday's action. Trainer Gerald Ryan signed the ticket. The second-highest price was $680,000 for a More Than Ready colt who will be trained by Gai Waterhouse.

Racing Action Heats Up

Tapizar (Tapit) tops the field in the GII San Fernando S. at Santa Anita, while Jackson Bend (Hear No Evil) gears up his 2012 campaign in the GIII Hal's Hope S. at Gulfstream, and Flat Out (Flatter) tests the turf in the GIII Ft. Lauderdale S. Meanwhile, Australian sensation Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) is nearing her return to action.

Jackson Bend has been training very smartly at Palm Meadows in recent weeks. "I couldn't ask for anything more," added trainer Nick Zito. "He looks tremendous. I just hope it's not too tough a race first time back. It's a good race to come back in, and that's what we need." Defending champion Soaring Empire is back for another round, but hasn't faced the starter since rallying to win the Majestic Light S. at Monmouth July 31. "We're looking for a good race from him," said trainer Cam Gambolati. "It's not an easy race, with Jackson Bend in there, but we hope he runs a good race." Field p4

MAGIC MILLIONS MY SALE MY HORSE MY CHAMPION

GOLD COAST YEARLING SALE

WWW.MAGICMILLIONS.COM.AU

Giving Ryan special interest in the colt was the fact that the former jockey trained the yearling's full-sister Melito (Aus), who headed the 3YO Classification in Australia for the 2009-10 season. Winner of five group events, including the G1 TJ Smith S., G1 Winter S. and G2 Silver Slipper S., the filly retired with earnings of A$1,937,350.

"He looks like his sire, but he is very much like his sister," Ryan explained. "But he looks like he'll run earlier than his sister."

When asked if Ryan was reminded of the colt's sister when he looked at him in the back ring, Ryan quipped, "No, he just reminded me of a good horse."

Waterhouse & Harron Back in Action Friday...

Trainer Gai Waterhouse and bloodstock agent James Harron made a fast start at the Gold Coast Yearling sale earlier this week, and the duo was still firing Friday, collecting 19 head overall, led by the session's second top seller. A member of the Newgate Farm consignment, lot 457--a colt by More Than Ready out of Aqua d'Amore (Aus) (Danehill)--realized a A$680,000 final bid from the new pairing.

"He was one of our top picks of the sale," said Harron. "He is by a champion stallion and a champion 2-year-old sire, and this is one of the best crosses in Australia with Danehill."

Harron continued, "He has been a star from the start. He is a really good-moving colt that is very strong in his action and he looks like he'll be early. He is just ideal for the sort of horses we are trying to target."

The Sept. 20 foal is the second offspring by Aqua d'Amore, winner of the G1 Futurity S. and an earner of almost A$2 million. Campaigned by Coolmore Stud, Aqua d'Amore was trained by Waterhouse throughout her racing career.

"She was as fantastic racemare for Gai and the cross really works," he said. "I worked for Gai when she trained this mare, so I'm familiar with her. There definitely are some similarities between her and this colt, especially streaming from the Danehill side."

During Friday's session, the Sydney-based conditioner and the Irishman also secured lot 458, a filly by first-crop sire Northern Meteor (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) out of listed-placed Aristocracy (Aus) (Danehill) for A$110,000. In tandem with Blue Sky Thoroughbreds, Waterhouse and Harron bought lot 489, a filly by Fastnet Rock (Aus) out of listed winner Black Minx (NZ) (Lonhro {Aus}) for A$220,000—who is from the family of Group 2 winner Faith Hill (Aus) (Danehill); and lot 534, a colt by More Than Ready that realized A$200,000.

They concluded the session by spending A$150,000 for lot 536, a filly by Myboycharlie (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) out of Come Fly With Me (Aus) (More Than Ready); and A$50,000 for lot 531, a filly by Northern Meteor out of Cliantha, who brought A$50,000.

"We definitely came here to try and get as many nice horses as we can," said Harron. "It has been a great sale for Gai over the years, and we have been looking for some really up-and-running types and we have been able to find them here."

Commenting on his overall sense of the sale thus far, Harron concluded, "Day 1 was a little patchy, although it offered some some good value, but I think it's heated up really well over the last two days. The competition is strong for the good lots, but there definitely is value there for many of the horses here."

Burns Lights up with Sebring Colt...

Coming into this year's Magic Millions Gold Coast sale, Ron Burns of Ronstel Thoroughbreds admitted a pair of colts would be his main targets at the venue.

Lot 139

The first, a colt by Fastnet Rock (Aus) out of Rose of Cimmaron (Aus), escaped him on day 2 of the sale, going to Coolmore for A$960,000. Undeterred, Burns came back swinging for the second, and he walked away with a colt by Sebring (Aus) with a final bid of A$450,000

Friday afternoon. Offered by Murrulla Stud as lot 399, the chestnut is out of the winning mare Valda Merceda (Aus) (Hennessy), a half-sister to Group 1 winner Bawalaskana (Aus) (Straight Strike) and Damaschino (Aus) (Last Tycoon {Ire}), victorious at the Group 3 level. The 13-year-old mare is already responsible for multiple winner Sir Hallowell (Aus) (More Than Ready). Serving as advisor on both purchases was Gosford-based trainer Angela Davies, who is expected to condition both horses.

"He was pretty spectacular," said Burns. "He seems to have stallion potential, so he was one we had to have."

Showing his affinity for the first-crop stallion Sebring (Aus) (More Than Ready), a champion 2-year-old and G1 Golden Slipper winner, Burns also secured a filly by that sire on day 1, paying A$200,000 for lot 139, out of the Rory's Jester (Aus) mare Miss Lucille (Aus).

"He was a pretty spectacular horse himself and he is stamping them very well. They look like they may be runners," said Burns. "We might be taking a little bit of a risk, but if his offspring perform, you won't be able to buy them for this price next year."

Burns, whose principal business is in construction, currently has a racing team of approximately 40 horses, which are spread out between trainers, including Gai Waterhouse, Gary Portelli and Paul Perry. In addition to nine broodmares, who are boarded at several studs throughout the Hunter Valley. Burns, who entered the racing game 15 years ago, hit paydirt immediately, campaigning group winner Stella Marie (Aus).

"I bought one and I was really good and I thought 'This is easy, so I'll do it again.'" he commented. "Then you find out it's not quite that easy, but we're really enjoying it."

His other purchases at the sale include lot 62, a filly by Encosta de Lago (Aus) out of Kishkat (Aus) (Spinning World) (A$200,000); lot 138, a colt by Redoute's Choice (Aus) out of Miss Jakeo (Aus) (Unbridled's Song) (co-session topper Monday--A$450,000); lot 331, a filly by Shamardal out of Starfish (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) (A$420,000); and lot 412, a colt by More Than Ready out of Waterwise (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) (A$360,000). During yesterday's session, Segenhoe also purchased lot 455, a Sebring filly that brought A$50,000.

Despite being the underbidder on several lots over the first three days of selling, Maloney indicated that there were several bargains to be had a Magic Millions this week.

"The colts we bought here would have brought A$1-million here two years ago," explained Maloney.

Maloney, who admitted he is in search for future stallions, was high on his latest acquisitions.

"He was just a beautifully turned-out colt with good proportions," said Maloney about the son of Redoute's

Among the principals involved in the selection process for Segenhoe is stud manager Royston Murphy and racing manager Bill Mitchell.

After getting into racing at a young age, Maloney started off with trotters before venturing into the Thoroughbred game. Segenhoe Stud, which spans approximately 2000 acres in the Hunter Valley, was secured by Maloney in January 2011. According to Maloney, the operation tends toward buying accomplished race fillies and mares for his burgeoning broodmare band. Heading the stud's purchases is Group 3 winner and Group 1-placed Sister Madly (Redoute's Choice {Aus})--a A$1-million buy at last spring's Magic Millions National Broodmare sale. The filly was purchased from Ian Smith's Edinburgh Park, who also bred and sold Thursday's session-topping Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Rose of Cimmaron (Aus) colt for A$960,000.

Segenhoe currently has 20 broodmares at the farm, with an additional 20 young horses, and Maloney hopes to build his band to about 100 head within the next two years. The operation, which aims to ultimately have approximately 40 racehorses, currently has horses under the care of trainers John O'Shea, Gai Waterhouse, Anthony Cummings, John Sadler and Peter Moody.

Showing they will travel anywhere to find the right type of horse for the Segenhoe program, stud representatives recently traveled to the U.S. for the Fasig-Tipton November sale in Lexington. At that venue, the stud secured GSW Buckleupbuttercup (Najran) for A$600,000. The 5-year-old is currently waiting to clear quarantine in New Zealand and is expected to resume training after she arrives in Australia.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Black Caviar Could Trial Ahead of Return...

Luke Nolen, the regular rider of the undefeated Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}), suspects that trainer Peter Moody will send the 5-year-old out for a Tuesday morning barrier trial at Caulfield Racecourse. Black Caviar is set to return to the races in the G1 Australia S. under the lights at Moonee Valley, which would mark her first start since she ran her winning streak to 16 straight in the G1 Patinack Farm Classic at Flemington Nov. 5. "She comes to hand pretty quickly, but personally I think she will have a blowout in a trial on Tuesday, as she's going over 1200 meters first up, not 1000 meters, and then she's aimed at 1400-meter races at her next two after that," Nolen told Australian Associated Press. Black Caviar is tentatively scheduled to take in the G1 C F Orr S. Feb. 11 and the G1 Futurity S. two weeks later, both over the metric seven furlongs. Future plans call for Black Caviar to make an appearance at the Royal Ascot meeting in June.

Sarafina Joins Yoshida Band...

Triple Group 1-winning heroine Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse to Bend {Ire}--Sanariya {Ire}, by Darshaan {GB}) has been purchased by Teruya Yoshida and will visit Deep Impact (Jpn), Racing Post confirmed yesterday. The luminary's price tag has not been revealed, but the deal was brokered by Eugenio Columbo, who acts as a regular agent for the Shadai Farm supremo. Campaigned during her racing career by breeder His Highness the Aga Khan, the bay was trained by Alain de Royer-Dupre to capture six of her 11 starts.

Irish Races Upgraded...

Horse Racing Ireland has received approval from the European Pattern Committee to promote the Aug. 23 Fairy Bridge S. and the Irish St Leger Trial S. from listed to Group 3 status for their 2012 renewals. HRI has also announced the creation of a pair of new listed stakes, one to be conducted for 3-year-old fillies over 10 furlongs at Naas June 27, the other a seven-furlong event for older fillies and mares at Galway in late July or early August. "The promotion of these races to Group 3 status and the creation of the two new listed races further re-enforces HRI's commitment towards its key strategic policy of encouraging the production and retention of high quality horses in Ireland under both codes," commented HRI's Director of Racing Jason Morris. "The changes announced today will further strengthen the program for older fillies, encouraging the retention of high-quality mares in Ireland and thereby providing a boost to the breeding industry."

GIII Toboggan H. at Aqueduct Feb. 4 for his swift charge, is hopeful the hardware will come his way at Monday's Eclipse Award ceremonies. "Maybe we'll win it," Spawr said. "I keep hearing that Caleb's Posse will win, but looking at his record, I'm not impressed with the horse except for his Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile win at Churchill Downs...Caleb's Posse was cross-entered in the Dirt Mile and the Sprint, but ran in the Mile. So [they] had an option, but chose to run in the Mile, not the Sprint, so what is that telling you?"

KING AND CRUSADER DQ'D DUE TO MEDICATION ISSUE James Riccio's King and Crusader (Lion Heart) has been disqualified from his 16-1 victory in the Maryland Juvenile Championship S. at Laurel Dec. 17 due to the fact that he received Lasix too close to the race. Glib (Great Notion), who crossed the line second as the even-money choice, has been declared the winner. The decision was made earlier this week by Maryland Racing Commission stewards Phil Grove, John Burke and Adam Campola after a hearing last Saturday. The trainers of the second-, third- and fourth-place finishers of the race filed a protest after discovering that King and Crusader, shipping in from Rick Dutrow Jr.'s Aqueduct barn, was treated with Lasix by a private veterinarian within two hours of the race, a violation of COMAR 09.10.03.04 B. Riccio has until Jan. 18 to file an appeal on the decision. King and Crusader came back to win yesterday's first race at Aqueduct.

FASIG-TIPTON CATALOGUES 425 FOR KENTUCKY WINTER MIXED SALE Fasig-Tipton has catalogued 425 head for the Kentucky Winter Mixed Sale, which will be held Feb. 6 at Newtown Paddocks in Lexington. In addition to broodmares and racing and broodmare prospects, the catalogue also has newly turned yearlings, horses of racing age, and a lifetime breeding right to Congrats (A.P. Indy). "We are extremely pleased with the size and quality of this year's catalogue," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning. "There are several attractive racing and broodmare prospects, a number of mares in-foal to prominent stallions, and the short yearlings should prove very popular. Additionally, the sale's placement on the calendar works very well for those looking to buy a mare prior to breeding season." The catalogue will be available online at www.fasigtipton.com, and can be seen via the equineline sales catalogue app.

CHURCHILL SPRING SCHEDULE WORTH $7.275 MILLION Churchill Downs announced a stakes schedule worth $7.275 million at its upcoming spring meet Apr. 28-July 1. Headlined by the $2-million GI Kentucky Derby and $1-million GI Kentucky Oaks, the Louisville oval will conduct 23 graded stakes, and revealed that the $400,000 GI Stephen Foster H. will be run under the lights for the first time June 16. Other Grade I events during the meet will be the $500,000 Woodford Reserve Turf Classic and $300,000 Humana Distaff S. May 5.

Though the overall value of the stakes schedule is down from 2011, some purses were boosted, including the GII Churchill Downs S., which is now a $400,000 event. "But our stakes purses are basically flat to last year's total, and we've had to do some adjusting within our available purse funds to make the overall schedule of our top races as attractive as possible to both horsemen and racing fans," said Kevin Flanery, the track's president. "The schedule continues to offer strong events in every division of horses, but the lack of growth in those purses continues to reflect the challenges Churchill Downs and Kentucky's horse industry face in the continued growth of direct gaming competition from neighboring and other racing markets that benefit from gaming revenues."

Migliore Hosting "New Owners Luncheon" at Big A:

Edited press release

Former jockey Richard Migliore will be the host of the New York Racing Association "New Owners Luncheon" at Aqueduct Feb. 4. Initiated at Belmont Park last spring, the program provides a comprehensive introduction and overview of thoroughbred ownership in an effort to bring new owners to the sport of horse racing. The event will begin at 8 a.m. with a continental breakfast in the Equestris restaurant, followed by presentations and Q&A sessions with trainers Bruce Brown and Carlos Martin, owner Roddy Valente, and representatives from the racing partnerships Castle Village Stable and Drawing Away Stable. In addition, NYRA Raceday host Ernie Munick will conduct a handicapping seminar for the day's races. Throughout the day, guests also will have the opportunity to meet many of the Big A's leading jockeys, trainers and owners, visit the paddock and participate in a winner's circle trophy presentation. Registration fee is $50, which includes a continental breakfast and lunch in Equestris, the above activities, an official racing program and a giveaway bag.

Sweet Flattery and Day of Litany, both making their second starts, were deemed inseparable at the wire by the photo finish camera. Day of Litany had a tough trip when rallying to finish fourth, beaten two lengths, in her career debut on the Woodbine weeds Aug. 1, and was the 5-2 favorite here despite the lengthy absence.

Sweet Flattery, meanwhile, was a very game second in her kickoff on the local turf course Dec. 2, and went postward at 7-2. Day of Litany assumed the lead soon after the start and traveled nicely, but was joined by Sweet Flattery entering the stretch. Both fillies fought on gamely and treated the Fair Grounds faithful to a battle royal before both coming away winners. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the video replay.

Tote Issue at Fair Grounds Friday Forces Races 3,4 to be Run for Purse Money Only:

Edited press release

A tote failure on track forced officials to suspend wagering on Friday's third and fourth races at the Fair Grounds, which were run for purse money only. The failure occurred about six minutes to post time for the third race, and was fixed more than one hour later at 2:55 p.m. CST. Per the Louisiana State Racing Commission's rules of racing, win, place, show, exacta, trifecta and superfecta wagers on Races 3 and 4 were refunded. Live Daily Double and Pick Three bets were paid out to tickets that were still live after Race 2. Early Pick Four bets beginning in Race 2 were paid to tickets with the correct winners in the first and last legs, while "All" was used for the two middle legs run for purse money only.

"We sincerely apologize to our fans for this tote failure, but especially to those holding tickets that otherwise might have been winners," said Fair Grounds Vice President and General Manager Eric Halstrom. "We have yet to determine a specific cause, but we do know that the issue was with our contracted tote provider, Amtote. Despite Amtote's best efforts, there was no way to offer wagering on those two races."

Fair Grounds Donating $2,500 to Rescue Organizations:

Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots announced a $2,500 gift to two local rescue organizations to help relocate over 40 neglected horses discovered last week at a farm in Many, Louisiana. The gift will be shared by the Louisiana Horse Rescue Association, a nonprofit dedicated to the rescue and placement of racehorses; and Remember Me Racehorse Rescue, a nonprofit founded and operated by Donna Keen, wife of trainer Dallas Keen. "All of us at Fair Grounds were sickened by the news of what happened up north," said Fair Grounds Racing Secretary Jason Boulet, a Louisiana Horse Rescue Association board member. "Horses of all breeds are animals that possess considerable intelligence, and anyone who has been around them knows they experience a wide range of emotions. Abusive and neglectful treatment of horses is simply unacceptable." The racetrack has set up a process for other horse lovers to donate to Louisiana Horse Rescue and Remember Me Racehorse Rescue online. Visit FairGroundsRaceCourse.com/Shop to make a credit card payment in any amount, with the full amount to go to horse rescue efforts. To go directly to the donation page, visit fairgroundsgifts.myshopify.com/collections/donate-to.

Exhi to Stand in Ontario:

Multiple graded stakes winner Exhi (Maria's Mon--Soldera, by Polish Numbers) will stand the 2012 breeding season at T.C. Westmeath Stud Farm in Ontario as part of a partnership between that farm, Highland Stock Farm and Margaux Stallions LLC. The 5-year-old will stand for C$3,500 stands and nurses; multiple mare discounts will be available. Trained by Todd Pletcher for breeders Alain and Gerard Wertheimer, the bay captured the Gil Coolmore Lexington S. and Gill Ben Ali S. at Keeneland. He also won the Victoria Park S. and Marine S. at Woodbine. Exhi, a descendant of Canadian champion Fanfreluche, compiled a record of 16-6-4-2 and earned $807,917.

Ismene on Road to Recovery:

Unbeaten Ismene (Tribal Rule) is recuperating following surgery to remove an ankle chip following her victory in the California Breeders' Champion S. at Santa Anita Dec. 26. Prior to that, the dark bay captured the Anoakia S. Oct. 22. "The sutures will be out in another week and there's absolutely no swelling from the surgery," said trainer Bill Spawr. "We're excited that everything is going on schedule--maybe ahead of schedule--but we're going to give her plenty of time. We'll give her 90 days and have her back in training some time after that."

EXPLOSION AT CUTS PROTEST

Protests over the proposed cuts to racing's finances took a dramatic turn on Thursday after an explosive device was detonated outside Rome's parliament building. As a gathering of interested parties descended on Piazza Montecitorio, the device was set off in a reported attempt to gain entry to parliament but no injuries were inflicted. Italian racing's headquarters were also the target after the protesters took on Assi, which has proceeded Unire as the country's ruling authority. Government officials are currently raising the possibility of diverting some of the finance from the gaming industry to the sport, with Tuesday set to be a vital day in parliament which is set to prompt another protest as Italy continues without racing in 2012.

VON BOETTICHER TAKES OVER IN MUNICH

Dietrich von Boetticher, the owner of Gestut Ammerland, has been elected the new president of the Munich Race Club. Having already held the position from 1989 to 1995, the leading owner-breeder is back at the helm as a result of the dissent of members relating to financial problems regarding the sale of a large area of unused land. Previous president Dr Norbert Poth was edged out in a close vote, with von Boetticher promising to provide the necessary funds pending the closure of the land deal vital to the survival of the troubled track.

An 11,000gns purchase out of the Michael Stoute yard, Treble Jig took a 2400-meter handicap on turf at Abu Dhabi Dec. 11, but raced too freely in a 2800-meter affair over the Meydan Tapeta Dec. 31 and failed to complete the course. Transitioning to dirt here, Treble Jig made the majority of the running and stretched away from his rivals for an impressive victory. "His pedigree offered every hope he would like the dirt and he has," winning rider Wayne Smith told Racing Post. "You could ignore his Meydan effort when he was far too keen over a trip probably too far and he was impressive at Abu Dhabi before that."
