

PLENTY OF ZIP IN SANTA YNEZ

Reneesgotzip (City Zip) made it two-for-two with a dominating front-running victory as the even-money choice in Sunday's GII Santa Ynez S. at Santa Anita.

Reneesgotzip
Benoit

The chestnut filly sprinted out of the pack to take the early lead, setting fractions of :22.31 and :45.06 while under restraint. She effortlessly kicked clear when challenged on the turn and drifted out four wide into the lane. She powered away down the lane, covering six furlongs in 1:08.69, and sailed home an easy 7 3/4-length victress.

"I've been getting on this horse in the morning for [trainer] Pete [Miller], and she's showed me every time what she can do," explained winning rider Corey Nakatani. "She was a little green coming to the quarter pole today. She shied and drifted out, so I shook her up right there and she responded. She's a tremendous filly." Cont. p3

THE USUAL Q.T. RETURNS IN SAN GABRIEL

The Usual Q.T. (Unusual Heat) returns to the races for the first time in seven months in today's GII San Gabriel S. at Santa Anita. The 6-year-old, winner of the 2010 GI Eddie Read H., has been off since running third in the May 28 GII American H. He was third in last year's San Gabriel. "It's farther than we wanted to run him, but right now our options are pretty much limited," trainer James Cassidy admitted. "I prefer not to run him a mile and an eighth first time back, but it's all that's available." Defending San Gabriel champ Jeranimo (Congaree) rebounded from a seventh-place effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile with a 2 3/4-length victory in the Nov. 26 GII Citation H. at Hollywood last time out. Martin Garcia is back aboard Jeranimo as Garrett Gomez recovers from injury. Imponente Purse (Brz) (Public Purse) captured the July 17 GIII Sunset H. and is coming off third-place efforts in the Aug. 28 GII Del Mar H. and Oct. 2 GII Clement L Hirsch H.

Reneesgotzip, owned by the Lanni Family Trust of the late Terry Lanni, was a front-running debut winner of her only other outing, going six furlongs at Hollywood Park Dec. 18. "I was surprised at how easy she won her first start," Miller admitted. "I thought she might have needed a race, but evidently, she didn't. She had shown a lot of ability, but not this kind of ability."

Miller is confident his charge will be able to stretch out her speed. "Eventually I definitely would like to stretch her out," he said. "I think the way she relaxes and the way she has that nice turn of foot, I do think she will get two turns. I think that's in the future, whether it's her next start or not, we'll just kind of play it by ear."

'BABY' IN A CORNER?

No one puts baby in a corner, but it's possible On Fire Baby (Smoke Glacken) has been put into her toughest career race despite having already won a pair of graded events at Churchill Downs. The Oct. 30 GII Pocahontas S. and Nov. 26 GII Golden Rod S. winner will take on the boys in today's one-mile Smarty Jones S. at Oaklawn. There aren't any monsters in the race, but it's nonetheless a solid group looking to see who might be worthy to progress on to Oaklawn's Derby preps. They include Optimizer (English Channel), the third-place finisher in last fall's GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland. He finished eighth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile next time before running fourth, beaten 2 1/2 lengths, in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club at Churchill Nov. 26. He's been working well for trainer D. Wayne Lukas. Laurie's Rocket (Bluegrass Cat) was beaten just a nose in the Sugar Bowl S. at Fair Grounds Dec. 17 and returns to routing. Junebugred (Corinthian) ships in after a maiden-breaking win at Aqueduct at Nov. 26 and makes his debut for the Steve Hobby barn. Fastestwhogetspaid (Henny Hughes) could spice up the exotics at a price. LECOMTE RUNNERS ON THE WORKTAB

Shared Property (Scat Daddy) tuned up for Saturday's GIII Lecomte S. with a six-furlong work in 1:15.80 at Fair Grounds Saturday. The dark bay gelding won last year's GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity before a sixth-place effort in the Oct. 8 GI Breeders' Futurity. "He's training really well now," trainer Tom Amoss reported. "He still has not won going two turns and that's one of the things we're anxiously looking for at this time. The Lecomte should be a good starting point for us, but the screws may not be completely tight just yet on this horse. I expect him to run very well, but we're also thinking about the rest of the year." Cont. p4

A trio of possible GIII Lecomte S. contenders worked at Fair Grounds Sunday. Zayat Stables' Z Dager (Mizzen Mast), a maiden winner in New Orleans Dec. 15, went a half-mile in :50.80. Terry Hamilton's Hammers Terror (Artie Schiller), who set a track record when graduating at Keeneland last October, went five furlongs in 1:01.40. The dark bay colt is coming off a Dec. 8 Fair Grounds allowance victory. David Randal's Capetown Devil (Cape Town), unbeaten in three lifetime starts, worked five furlongs in 1:02.80.

Alexander Thegreat Gets Lecomte Test

Robert Cartwright's Alexander Thegreat (Cat Thief) will line up in Saturday's GIII Lecomte S. after graduating in his 10th outing at Fair Grounds Dec. 26. "We may be biting off more than we can chew, but I discussed this with the owner and we're going to take a shot in that race," confirmed trainer Bobby Barnett. "We'll blow him out Monday, but the colt is doing really well right now, so the plan is to lead him over there on Saturday to try and win this thing."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

SO YOU THINK HAS DUBAI OPTION

Ballydoyle stalwart So You Think (NZ) (High Chaparral {Ire}) could be in line for a tilt at the Mar. 31 G1 Dubai World Cup, connections suggested yesterday. A tweet from Annemarie O'Brien read, "He will be entered for the race, but obviously no decision will be made until nearer the time." If allowed to take his chance in the carnival highlight, the 6-year-old with eight Group 1s under his belt will be Aidan O'Brien's second representative after Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) finished fourth last year. So You Think hasn't raced since his solid sixth-place run in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Churchill Nov. 5.

"ONE" WAY TRIP TO DUBAI

The good local sprinter Better Be The One (Aus) (More Than Ready) proved an eye-catching winner in Singapore Sunday in his last start before a return trip to Dubai for the World Cup festival. The 5-year-old gelding captured a 1000-meter, $125,000 Open Class race over the Polytrack yesterday. He was making his seasonal debut following his victory in the Saas Fee S. last October, and will now try to improve on his creditable third to J J The Jet Plane (SAf) (Jet Master {SAf}) in the G2 Al Quoz Sprint in Dubai last year. The J Man Stable colorbearer is targeting the same race Mar. 30 and is slated to ship out Feb. 4.

ZAZU RETURNING TO SADLER

Zazu (Tapit), knocked out of last year's GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic, is expected to return to the barn of trainer John Sadler today. Winner of last year's GI Lady's Secret S. and GI Las Virgenes S., the gray filly has been stabled at Rancho Paseana Training Center in Rancho Santa Fe. "She had a little shoulder issue and it should be all resolved," Sadler commented.

A total of 176 yearlings sold for nearly A$7 million Sunday, equating to an average of A$39,588. The median was A$32,250, with the not-sold rate at 22.5%. A large crowd was on hand to watch yearlings sell to buyers from most Australian states, as well as overseas locations such as Macau, Malaysia, Hong Kong, New Zealand, Korea, Ireland and Japan. "It's been a solid day's selling," Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox said. "Like was the case with the first four sessions it is great to see the clearance rate strong. The quality lots attracted strong interested with canny buyers chasing their next racetrack star." The 2012 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale concludes Tuesday with a sixth session, followed by a popular racehorse sale. For results, catalogue and outs, visit www.magicmillions.com.au.

FOND FAREWELL TO GOLDIE

I arrived at the Magic Millions sales complex for the final time Sunday and, I must admit, I felt a wave of nostalgia. This was going to be my last day there before departing the Gold Coast following morning. The fifth session was already underway when I got there, and a large crowd was back to buy some more horses. While trying to dig up some pictures to share with our TDN subscribers, I was vividly reminded of all the great experiences I had during the week. Among the week's events I was fortunate enough to attend was the new owners' orientation and Magic Millions Women event, the novel and unique barrier draw hosted on the Surfer's Paradise beach, the stylish launch party held Tuesday evening, the sales itself and, last but not least, the BMW Magic Millions raceday, hosted Saturday at the Gold Coast Turf Club. In fact, there were a handful of events that I simply couldn't attend because there were just so many to choose from (and because when on the Gold Coast, one just has to squeeze in some beach time). That's a very good problem to have, I reckon (something I picked up from the locals).

It should be noted, the men and women that make up the Magic Millions staff are really top notch. From the moment I arrived, they did everything in their power to make me feel welcome and accommodated, and what I observed through the week is that they pretty much do that for all their patrons.

Special shout outs go to Leigh Spiegel, who was always there to assist with any IT issue that I had with my computer, and Greg Irvine, who is as dynamic as he is talented and he always made sure I was provided for. The two people who truly made it all happen for me, however, were Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox, who is as passionate a visionary as one would ever hope to meet, and Val Hayward, who from the moment it was decided I would visit the Gold Coast, went out of her way to furnish whatever I needed (she has the patience of a saint) to get the job done. My most heartfelt thanks to all of you.

The sale's fourth session also ended ahead of last year's figures, which has to be good news for the company. Those results didn't surprise me because, as advertised, Magic Millions is a really progressive company and the staff works very hard to that end.

I had a great time participating being part of this year's carnival, and genuinely look forward to, hopefully, doing it again (maybe with some of you) next year. So long Gold Coast!

Fuller Wins First Gulfstream Race:

Abigail Fuller, a successful rider in the 1980s and 1990s, won her first race at Gulfstream Park Sunday aboard Rule Number Six (Repent) in the second race. The 52-year-old returned to rider last summer at Calder Race Course. She is best known for riding Mom's Command to victory in the 1985 New York Filly Triple Crown for her father Peter Fuller. "I never rode at this meet," Fuller commented. "It's great. It's always fun to win, but winning at Gulfstream, I've never done that, so it's definitely fun." The mother of three has ridden 581 winners.

Private Jet, who had made all previous 10 starts in South Africa for trainer Geoffrey Woodruff, took the 2009 G1 Computaform Sprint S. Making his stateside debut off a 16-month layoff, the bay gelding stalked the pace through fractions of :22.05 and :44.31, split foes to take over in deep stretch and inched clear to the wire. "We're very proud of him to run like that after such a long layoff," commented winning trainer Kieran McLaughlin. "He had breathing problems and has since had surgery. It's great to see what he can do when he can breathe, and I'm very happy for the connections [bloodstock agent Joe Brocklebank]." As for what is next for Private Jet, McLaughlin added, "We'll probably just wait for the next turf sprint here." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the video replay.

RACE TO URGA (f, 4, Bernstein--Miss Mambo {SW & G1SP-Fr, SP-US, $270,354, by Kingmambo), a maiden winner at Belmont last June, was favored in the Hatoof S. over a yielding Arlington lawn in August, and while she finished 10th, was beaten just two lengths and had the excuse of a rough trip. She returned to run a close-up second in a grassy first-level allowance at Belmont Sept. 21, then was full of run late to win a similar test at Aqueduct Nov. 18. The tepid 5-2 choice with Jose Lezcano in the irons for the first time, the bay miss was bumped slightly going into the first turn and settled well in a mid-pack position. Saving ground all the way, she awaited room along the fence until mid-stretch, when she gamely shot through a narrow inside opening to get up and win by a length. Huge longshot Score Boyera (Scorpion) just held for second over the rallying Font (Pulpit). Sales history: $195,000 RNA yrl '09 KEESEP. Sept. 4, but, after a three-month absence, registered a career score in the Gil Bayakoa H. at Hollywood Dec. 4. She was offered up here at 5-2 odds as Vision in Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) was hammered down to odds-on favoritism making her first start since running third in the Making those odds look generous, Ellafitz jumped out to lead the pressing Briecat (Adcat) through :23.35 and :46.33 fractions while Vision in Gold tracked a few lengths back in third. Races up the 1000-meter straight course at Sha Tin routinely fall to those who have shown a propensity for the trip and usually at the expense of the market leaders who are often cutting back in distance. Such was the case Sunday, as the progressive Eagle Regiment, a five-time winner and never worse than second going five furlongs, took the Centenary Sprint Cup in an event which saw the first nine home covered by 2 1/2 lengths. Victorious in a Class 2 event up the straight Sept. 11, he lost a shoe when 11th over 1200 meters Oct. 9 versus Class 2 company, but atoned for that effort with a nose success from Blaze King (NZ) (Elusive City) back at the 1000 Nov. 27. He entered this 21 pounds worse than Sacred Kingdom in the ratings, but took play from the punters and made good late. With rain falling, Blaze King led after 100 meters, and Eagle Regiment was able to get in right behind it to get some cover. Towards the stands' side, Joy and Fun, the G3 Al Quoz Sprint winner from 2010, was a forward factor, while Sacred Kingdom was guided down right onto the fence. Joy and Fun led into the final 200 meters, with Sacred Kingdom looking ominous up the inside, but Eagle Regiment responded about three off the rail and was along late to score. Let Me Fight won the battle for third, while G1 Hong Kong Sprint hero Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) was beaten just over a length in sixth. "He is a 1000-meter specialist, so I told the owner we would come here and try our best to see what happens, but his rating was 106, coming out of handicaps, and that's a long way below Sacred Kingdom--we couldn't be confident," admitted winning trainer Manfred Man. Eagle Regiment is bred on the same cross responsible for the legendary sprinter Silent Witness (Aus) (out of Jade Tiara {Aus}, by Bureaucracy {NZ}). HKJC.com chart \(video included\).
