LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING IN DONN

No matter your appetite, today's GI Donn H. at Gulfstream Park should have something to satisfy. The nine-furlong event has attracted a pair of Classic winners from 2011 in the form of GI Preakness S. hero Shackleford (Forestry) and GI Belmont S. upsetter Ruler On Ice (Roman Ruler) and up-and-coming sorts such as Trickmeister (Proud Citizen) and Redeemed (Include), both of whom are conditioned by the beleaguered Richard Dutrow Jr. Also in the mix are horses trained by the likes of Pletcher, McGaughey, McLaughlin and Mott, yet it is a race lacking a true standout. Shackleford could go off a slight choice, in spite of many questions to answer. The stout chestnut failed to win in five tries following his success at Old Hilltop, closing the season with a solid runner-up effort behind Caleb's Posse (Posse) in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile. Though his Preakness win came over a bit more distance than today's race, there remains some doubt about his ability in a truly run affair. But trainer Dale Romans believes he's got the homebred ready to roll. "He hasn't missed a beat," said Romans last Saturday after his final breeze (five furlongs in 1:01 2/5). "He hasn't missed a beat in his life. It's nature. He's just tough. He's always been a big strong, good training colt" Ruler On Ice was also shut out in his five post-Classic appearances, closing from 10th to be third in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 5 prior to an even fifth in the GI Clark H. 20 days later. "We thought he might have a chance to be 3-year-old champion if he won that race, but he came out of the race with a little lung infection that took a while to clean out," said trainer Kelly Breen of the Clark. "He's doing great now," "We're looking for a good transition from his 3- to 4-year-old season." Donn H. cont. p5

Shackleford EquiPhoto

CAVIAR DREAMS

Just before midnight on the American east coast, Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) will attempt to take her career record to a perfect 18-for-18 in the G1 C. F. Orr S. at Caulfield in suburban Melbourne. The sensational 5-year-old mare, who has amassed earnings in excess of A$4.5 million, was spelled off her 2 3/4-length success in the G1 Patinack Classic Nov. 5, returning to win the G2 Australia S. Jan. 27. It's seven furlongs for the first time in her life, and trainer Peter Moody thinks she'll be suited by the added distance. "I've always felt she'd be just as explosive if not more so out to 1400 meters and I've suggested even possibly a mile," he told AAP. "For an extremely fast horse she's very relaxed. Most horses with her sprinting prowess are usually bull-at-a-gate types in their races, they are up and charging on the bridle. but she goes to sleep." TVG has live coverage at 11:50 p.m.

Taking Gulfstream By Storm

Get Stormy (Stormy Atlantic) looms the one to down in today's co-featured GI Gulfstream Park Turf H. in Hallandale. Underfoot conditions should play some kind of role, as rains have pelted the region for the last couple of days.

GET STORMY BACK IN WIDE-OPEN GP TURF

While Sullimar Stable's Get Stormy (Stormy Atlantic) is the only Grade I winner in today's GI Gulfstream Park Turf H., he's far from a cinch as he faces nine solid foes and expected early pressure. Last term's winner of the GI Maker's Mark Mile S. at Keeneland in April and the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. at Churchill Downs the following month was on the board in three subsequent efforts, but finished off 2011 with a 12th-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile Nov. 5. The strapping bay has been legged up at Palm Meadows in the interim, where he's been firing bullets over the lawn. "I don't even want to talk about the Breeders' Cup," trainer Tom Bush told Daily Racing Form. "He's run two dreadful races in his career and both were in the Breeders' Cup for which I have no explanation. He's coming into this race well, although the layoff is a bit of a concern going a mile and one eighth. Pace may have an influence but I haven't babied him, I've trained him very hard and I just hope we've done enough. I certainly think we have." Phipps Stable homebred Boisterous (Distorted Humor) blossomed last year, completing his 4-year-old season with victories in the GIII Knickerbocker S. at Belmont Oct. 15 and the GII Red Smith H. at the Big A Nov. 5. The former came on yielding ground, which should be the going today, as rain has forced races off the turf at Gulfstream all week. "He's always been a good horse, but we kind of got off track with him in the [GI Sword Dancer S. at Saratoga Aug. 13, where he was fifth]," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "He came back strong in the fall and then got a little break at a farm in Ocala before bringing him down here." The top four across the wire in the 8 1/2-furlong GIII Fort Lauderdale S. here Jan. 14 return. Silver Medallion (Badge of Silver) came out on top, followed by Yummy With Butter (Silvador), DQ'd to sixth for interference, Hollinger (Black Minnaloushe) and Kindergarden Kid (Dynaformer). Of the four, Kindergarden Kid came home the fastest--in :28.35 for 5/16ths. More ground and more pace could prove advantageous to the Lael Stables colorbearer.

SANAGAS DEBUTS FOR NEW CONNECTIONS

Sanagas (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}), who figures to be a solid favorite in today's GII San Marcos S., will look to up his win streak to three as he debuts for new connections. The dark bay was imported by Andreas Jacobs from his native Germany last term, and took the

Aug. 5 1 5/8-mile John's Call S. at Saratoga for Graham Motion in his second stateside start. He got graded black-type with a score in the off-the-turf GIII Sycamore S. at Keeneland two starts later Oct. 20, and put an exclamation point on his season with a powerful 3 1/4-length romp in the GI Hollywood Turf Cup Nov. 19. BC3 Thoroughbreds and David Bernsen subsequently purchased the strong stayer, and have a tilt at the G1 Melbourne Cup pencilled in for this November. "He's a tremendous work horse," new trainer Peter Miller told Daily Racing Form. "I didn't know what to expect." He added, "I'm hoping we can maintain the form he had with Graham. I don't think he needs to get any better." Bourbon Bay (Sligo Bay {Ire}) will look to defend his 2011 San Marcos title--he boasts a 6-5-1-0 record over this turf course, and comes off a runner-up effort to Sanagas in the Hollywood Turf Cup. The Usual Q. T. (Unusual Heat) has been on the board, but never on top, in his last seven efforts. His last victory came in the 2010 GI Eddie Read S. Third last time behind Norvsky (Vronsky) in the nine-furlong GII San Gabriel S. here Jan. 16 while coming off a lay-off since the previous May, trainer James Cassidy is expecting a step forward from the 6-year-old.

Meister of His Domain...

Trickmeister is the more celebrated of the two Dutrow runners and brings a five-for-five record into his graded-stakes debut. The ☼ "TDN Rising Star" ☼ won his first three starts for former owners Brereton C. Jones and Timothy Thornton, including the 2010 Barbaro S., before being sold privately to his current connections. He added the Pleasant Colony S. in his first start in new colors, but went missing for nearly 16 months. He showed little rust in that comeback race, streaking home to annex the Dec. 17 Harlan's Holiday S. by 5 1/4 lengths.

Trickmeister Horsephotos

Redeemed is more of a wild card, though may be closer in talent to his stablemate than most people think. Despite a pedigree that screams long, the bay was runner-up to Caleb's Posse in the GII Amsterdam S. before filling the same spot behind Wilburn (Bernardini) in the Sept. 5 Smarty Jones S. The Virginia-bred scooped the Oct. 16 Oklahoma Derby, defeating ☼ "TDN Rising Star" ☼ Alternation (Distorted Humor) on the wire, and exits a very easy victory in the GIII Discovery H. at Aqueduct in Nov. 18. That he lines up here is a huge vote of confidence from the barn and he looms a live longshot.

EVER SO LUCKY OUT OF HUTCH

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Ever So Lucky (Indian Charlie), who was expected to make his 3-year-old debut in today's GII Hutcheson S. at Gulfstream Park, will instead remain in the barn and await the GII Swale S. Mar. 10, trainer Jonathan Sheppard said late Friday. "We really hadn't been able to train the way we wanted to because the track's been so bad," he stated, referring to the sloppy main track over the past few days. "The horse had a little issue out of the race at Churchill, so we decided it wouldn't be in his best interest right now. We'll wait for the Swale." Starlight Racing, who is represented on the Derby trail by GIII Holy Bull S. hero Algorithms (Bernardini), sends out maiden winner Thunder Moccasin (A.P. Warrior) here. The bay took his Dec. 24 debut wire-to-wire, and the second-, third- and fourth-place finishers have all since returned to win at least one race. "This is kind of an ambitious move, making a graded-stakes start after just one maiden start," trainer Todd Pletcher opined. "But he's training forwardly and he's training professionally." Il Villano (Pollard's Vision) ships in from the Midlantic region and shortens up off a decent third to Alpha (Bernardini) in the Jan. 7 Count Fleet S. Prior to that, he won back-to-back stakes going six furlongs, and is possessed of a lightning-quick first step that should land him on the engine.

Juddmonte Farms' Newmarket base has announced a batch of elite matings for a selection of its broodmare band. Kind (Ire) (Danehill), dam of the unbeaten World Champion Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), will again visit Galileo in a mating that would result in a full-sibling to the 2011 Horse of the Year. The recently retired MG1SW Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) will also be covered by the Coolmore sire. Other elite matings announced will remain in house. Soviet Moon (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), dam of the 2010 G1 Epsom Derby and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero Workforce (GB) (King's Best), will visit Zamindar, as will Clepsydra (GB) (Sadler's Wells), dam of the Group 1 winners Passage of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Timepiece (GB) (Zamindar). Midsummer (GB) (Kingmambo) has another date with Oasis Dream, and this mating would produce a full-sibling to Midday; and Fame at Last (Quest for Fame {GB}), dam of the G1 Prix du Jockey Club runner-up and MGSW Famous Name (GB) (Dansili {GB}), will again visit Dansili.

Dear Editor,

In the short obit on Josh Gifford today, it omitted that he was immortalized in the movie "Champions," a film I consider to be the best racing movie of all time and one that made me cry. Anybody that saw Mr. Gifford being portrayed by Edward Woodward will never forget the trials and tribulations he underwent in preparing Aldaniti to win the Grand National. Here is a more fleshed-out link about Mr. Gifford:

EXPLOSION AT KESMARC FLORIDA KILLS WOMAN, HORSE A 28-year-old woman and a horse were killed Friday morning after an explosion in a hyperbaric chamber at the Kesmarc equine rehab center in Ocala, Florida. According to reports, the explosion also critically injured a second woman, who was flown by helicopter to Shands at the University of Florida in Gainesville. The Marion County

Sheriff's Office said that Erica Marshall, 28, was killed, while Sorcha Moneley, 33, was seriously injured. Both were reportedly Kesmarc employees.

Authorities were told that the horse was inside the chamber and began kicking, and before the women could shut off the chamber, the explosion occurred. Dramatic photos of the scene show a gaping hole in the side of one of the center's buildings and debris scattered in a roughly 150-foot diameter, including on the roof of an adjacent building. The chamber itself can be seen lying on its side. There was no word of what caused the explosion. According to eventingnation.com, the horse killed was an eventer named Landmark's Legendary Affaire and was owned by Ms. Jacquelline Mars. According to the site, the horse was being treated for recurring EPM.

The Florida branch of Kesmarc--the Kentucky Equine Sports Medicine & Rehabilitation Center--opened its doors in 2009 as a joint venture between the original Kesmarc facility in Versailles, Kentucky, and the father-son duo of Robert and Myron Miller. The Millers purchased the former Farnsworth Farm and redeveloped the property to include the current Kesmarc facilities.

Kesmarc Florida features a 100,000 square-foot building that can accommodate up to 75 horses. The facility has underwater treadmills, an indoor swimming pool, an indoor synthetic jogging track and Eurociser. According to its website, Kesmarc grads include Eclipse champions Ginger Punch and Kitten's Joy.

How Do Hyperbaric Chambers Work?

The use of hyperbaric chambers to treat injuries or ailments has grown in Thoroughbred racing in recent years. But how does it work, and what does it do? Hyperbaric oxygen therapy (HBOT) employs a chamber pressurized up to three times the average amount of normal atmospheric pressure to deliver 100% oxygen to a patient. HBOT was originally developed to treat divers suffering from gas bubbles in the blood, but other benefits were soon discovered. In horses, HBOT therapy can be used to treat everything from colic symptoms and internal abscesses to soft-tissue injuries and reproductive problems. While not common, hyperbaric chamber explosions have happened before. In 2009, an Italian woman and her 4-year-old grandson were killed in Lauderdale-by-the-Sea in Florida when an explosion occurred in the chamber in which the boy was being treated. Because oxygen is highly flammable, anything that can cause a spark inside the chamber during use can produce dire consequences.

HARDENED WILDCAT (g, 3, Hard Spun--Wild Snitch {GSW & GISP, $152,200}, by Forest Wildcat), a half-brother to Vengeful Wildcat (Vindication), MSW & MGSP, $232,750, debuted with a fifth over the Big A inner Dec. 3. He put that effort behind him with a sharp graduation Jan. 14 and was 1-2 to keep up the momentum. The chestnut broke to the right a bit from his outside post, but straightened himself out to race in fifth. He ranged up three wide to engage the leaders and, despite being reluctant to change leads, surged to the front late to take it by 3/4 of a length. Pacesetter Perfect Trippi (Trippi) held second by a half-length from Copy My Swagger (Easing Along) between horses. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $74,700. WILL'S WILDCAT (g, 4, Eurosilver--Wildcat Lady, by Forest Wildcat) looked sharp in winning the six-furlong "Jimmy V..." S. at Churchill Nov. 4, but regressed when stretched out and upped in class in his next two. He ran a distant eighth in the GI Clark H. Nov. 25, and most recently backed up to eighth in the GIII Hal's Hope H. after setting the pace going a mile at Gulfstream Jan. 14. Sent off at 7-2, the chestnut assumed his usual spot on the front end and held Tahitian Warrior (Maria's Mon) at bay down the stretch to score by a head. Third in her first two starts back in the summer, the Wertheimer homebred ran second in an allowance on the Breeders' Cup undercard at Churchill Nov. 5. She switched to turf for her latest and missed by a half-length at Gulfstream Dec. 11, but was even-money in her return to the main track. Exchange Wagering Takes Heat:

Exchange wagering doesn't appear to be headed to California any time soon after the California Horse Racing Board heard opposition from tracks and horsemen's organizations at a meeting Thursday. Members of the board said they would refrain from making a recommendation at this time, casting doubt on the future of the controversial form of wagering in the state. "It seems to me this isn't cooked yet," said CHRB Vice Chairman Davis Israel after listening to four hours of testimony. "There are too many objections from too many important stakeholders. This has to be fully contemplated, and the rules and regulations need to be tied down. We need to be realistic about how much time it's going to take." Representatives from several groups spoke at the meeting, including Betfair-TVG, which hopes to conduct exchange wagering in the U.S. Also represented were the racetracks Del Mar and Santa Anita, as well as the Thoroughbred Owners of California and the California Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association. Opposition centered around concerns that exchange wagering might cannibalize current pari-mutuel pools, and on the integrity of the sport in light of a form of wagering that allows handicappers to bet on a horse to lose. Representatives from Betfair, which popularized exchange wagering in the UK, and from Del Mar came out in support of exchange wagering. Scott Daruty--representing three Stronach Group enterprises in Golden Gate Fields, Santa Anita and the advance deposit wagering service XpressBet--was opposed. Daruty said that the Stronach tracks would not offer exchange wagering even if it was passed in California. Also in opposition were the two horsemen's groups, who cited concerns over integrity and issues of public perception.
