

ANIMAL KINGDOM TO RETURN SATURDAY

Team Valor International's Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}), the reigning GI Kentucky Derby winner and 3-year-old champion of 2011, will make his much anticipated return to the races in a third-level allowance on the turf at Gulfstream Park this

Animal Kingdom

Saturday afternoon. He will be having his first run since finishing sixth in the GI Belmont S. last June. "I'm very excited to get him back, and now that we've entered him, I'm extremely anxious," Motion said. "I have been pleasantly surprised how quickly he's come around. I think he got a good base in him at Fair Hill before he came down here. Once he got down here, we've gotten some serious works on the grass." Since his arrival in South Florida, the chestnut colt has recorded eight workouts, his last five on the grass, and all the fastest on the day. Team Valor had previously announced that Animal Kingdom was being pointed for the Feb. 25 GIII Tampa Bay S. as a prep for the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 31.

'HOUNDS' BACK QUICK FOR AL FAHIDI FORT

Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa al Maktoum's Master of Hounds (Kingmambo), a decent third to Mendip (Harlan's Holiday) in the G2 Al Maktoum Challenge-R2 seven days ago, returns to the turf for the first time since his 2-year-old season in tonight's G2 Al Fahidi Fort S. at Meydan. A maiden winner and Group 1-placed on the grass as a juvenile, he just missed in the G2 UAE Derby last March and was a respectable fifth in the GI Kentucky Derby before trudging home 10th in the GI Belmont S. He returned from a

June layoff to be an eye-catching runner-up in Round 1 of the Maktoum Challenge Jan. 12. Cont. p3

BLACK CAVIAR GETS GREEN LIGHT FOR 19

Reasoning that she'd need strong work over 1000 meters, race or no race, trainer Peter Moody has entered undefeated Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) yesterday for Saturday's G1 Coolmore Lightning S. up the 1000-meter straight course at Flemington.

Black Caviar Bronwen Healy

Cutting back in trip a week after her victory in the G1 C. F. Orr S. going 1400 meters, she is quoted at her longest ante-post odds since last May--she's a 1-10 chance on TAB Sportsbet to open. "I can't see her firming and being shorter than $1.10 because this is a stronger race and she is back from 1400 meters to 1000 meters," TAB Book Manager Craig McDonald told Australian Associated Press. To run her unbeaten streak to 19, the supermare will need to dispose of Hay List (Aus) (Statue of Liberty), whom she defeated by 3 1/4 lengths into second in last year's Lightning S. He has played bridesmaid to Black Caviar a total of three times. He has an excellent record of three wins from five starts when first-up, and is quoted as $9 (8-1) second choice on TAB Sportsbet. Foxwedge (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) is a distant third choice in the wagering, but is widely regarded as a sneaky chance Saturday. Three of his four career victories have come when he's been fresh, and he was last seen finishing a bang-up second to top-class Sepoy (Aus) (Elusive Quality) in the G1 Coolmore S. going this course and distance late last October.

Adirondack King got in his final piece of serious work over a muddy Oaklawn strip Wednesday morning, covering a half-mile in :49 2/5 before galloping out five panels in 1:02. "John said to go easy out there and concentrate on galloping an extra eighth at the end," said jockey Carlos Marquez Jr. "But he went really nice. Some horses need to make an adjustment to this track. He went right through it like he'd been here before."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Dabirsim Points to Home Classic...

Simon Springer's dual Group 1 winner Dabirsim (Fr) (Hat Trick {Jpn}) will begin his sophomore campaign in the Apr. 15 G3 Prix de Fontainebleau at Longchamp, according to conditioner Christophe Ferland. The unbeaten G1 Prix Morny and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere victor, who was rated joint-highest European juvenile in the World Thoroughbred Rankings, will then point to the May 12 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains--back over the same Bois de Boulogne mile--rather than tackle the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket one week earlier. "We've decided Dabirsim will be trained for the Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp," Ferland told Racing Post. "His reappearance will be in the Prix de Fontainebleau over the same course at Longchamp, which we know suits him well."

Havre de Grace Records Half-Mile Work...

Fox Hill Farms' Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) continued to prepare for her 5-year-old debut, breezing a half-mile in :48 3/5 Wednesday morning at the Fair Grounds. The 2011 Horse of the Year was one of the first horses onto the track and broke off at the four-furlong pole, skipping along through fractions of :12 3/5, :24 2/5 and :36 1/5 before galloping out five-eighths of a mile in 1:04 2/5. "She pulled up really good and she's moving forward nicely," trainer Larry Jones said a few hours later during the renovation break. "She'll get ready real quick. It won't take her long." Havre de Grace is a candidate for a pair of local races--the New Orleans Ladies S. Mar. 17 or the GII New Orleans H. Apr. 1. She could also venture to Arkansas to defend her title in the GIII Azeri S. Mar. 17. "We'll start trying to make a game plan here in the next week or 10 days," Jones added. "I'll wait until I gallop her back after this one, and I can let [owner] Rick [Porter] know if she gets a little stiff or sore or whatever. I figure we'll be ready to go in four weeks or less."

Havre de Grace

Frumious to Miss Golden Shaheen...

George and Mary Clare Schmitt's Frumious (Grindstone), winner of three straight races, including a last-out score in the GII Palos Verdes S. Jan. 21, has suffered an injury and will be forced to miss an intended start in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen at Meydan Mar. 31. Without specifying the nature of the injury, trainer Jeff Bonde told Daily Racing Form that the 6-year-old gelding "aggravated himself" and would be out of action about 60 days. The California-bred, who raced in the GI CashCall Futurity in 2008, commenced his recent winning streak by taking a $40,000 claimer over the Hollywood Cushion Track Dec. 9. Frumious has won six of his 15 career starts for earnings of $259,192.

Manhattan lawyer buys one of Saratoga's largest horse farms "A horse breeder and Manhattan attorney is buying one of Saratoga County's largest horse farms in a purchase set to close next week. NJ Horsemen, state near accord on racetrack "Stakeholders may be inching toward a resolution that would allow the state to finally secure a lessee to take over operation of Monmouth Park. Sen. Loaded for bear beneath Rajiv Maragh on the turn for home, the bay found room along the inside in the stretch and took off impressively when asked en route to a smart victory. "She's done well from the beginning," trainer Christophe Clement revealed. "She'll go in a stakes next time. She's a good horse, and he rode her like a good horse. He got a great trip. He got her to the inside and had a good trip." Clement added that the Gill Honey Fox at Gulfstream Mar. 18 is a possibility for Future Generation's next start. THOROUGHBRED AFTERCARE ALLIANCE

The Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) recently launched with the support of a broad-based group of Thoroughbred industry stakeholders, including owners, trainers, breeders, racetracks, jockeys, aftercare professionals and other industry groups. The TAA will both accredit aftercare facilities that care for Thoroughbreds whose careers have ended and raise funds for those facilities that earn accreditation.

Breeders' Cup Limited, The Jockey Club and Keeneland provided seed money to fund the TAA. Additional support was provided by Adena Springs North, CARMA, Fasig-Tipton, The Jockeys' Guild, New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, The New York Racing Association, Ocala Breeders' Sales Company and Thoroughbred Charities of America (TCA).

Also, TCA, the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association and the National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA) provided staff support in advance of the launch. The NTRA will continue in this role going forward.

The TAA will accredit aftercare facilities based on a Code of Standards covering operations, education, horse management, facility services and adoption policies. Simultaneously, the TAA will raise funds on behalf of accredited facilities via institutional contributions that are to be directed 100% to program services rather than to fundraising or general administrative costs.

For more information contact Mike Ziegler, executive director of NTRA Safety & Integrity Alliance, (859) 422-2668 or visit www.ntraaftercare.com.

MIDNIGHT VISIT (f, 4, Henny Hughes--Open Window, by Tremolino) won three of her first four starts against New York-breds, including the Love Is Eternal S. in her sophomore finale at the Big A last April. The chestnut had faced the starter only once since, a seventh-place finish in an open $62,500 optional claimer over this course Jan. 20. Backed at 3-1 here, she gained the lead just before posting an opening quarter in :24.65, sailed through an easy half-mile in :48.68, and had plenty left in the stretch, reporting home a 2 1/2-length winner. Smart Stride (Smart Strike) was second. The victress is a half-sister to Wild Chick (Forest Wildcat), GSP, $171,282. Sales history: $160,000 yrl '09 FTKJUL; $275,000 2yo '10 FTFEB. Acquired for $23,000 as a horse of racing age at the OBSJAN sale, he was backed as a 2-1 chance while debuting for his new connections here. Chasing from the inside in fourth through an opening quarter in :23.57, the bay was angled off the fence for the stretch drive, rocketed past French Fury (Mineshaft) shortly thereafter and enjoyed a 2 3/4-length margin over Percussion (Bluegrass Cat) at the wire. Churchill Adds Three Derby Partners:

Edited Press Release

Churchill Downs Racetrack today announced three new partners for the upcoming $2-million-guaranteed Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands, the historic track's signature race.

Under the new partnership agreements, Moët & Chandon Champagne, one of the world's most iconic brands, will introduce the all new "Moët & Chandon Toast to the Kentucky Derby" which will take place during the festivities preceding the running of the race. Moët will continue the celebratory tradition at Churchill Downs with a toast as fans raise their glasses to the Kentucky Derby.

BLUE04, the first completely natural oxygenated enhanced water, will infuse a creative theme into the Kentucky Derby "Blue Room" (formerly known as the "Green Room"), where celebrities will refresh themselves after walking the Red Carpet.

SandRidge Energy is the presenting sponsor of the celebratory "Kentucky Derby Winner's Party" immediately following the race. This invitation-only event is the finale of the historic race day as the winning owner, trainer, jockey and government officials gather to toast another successful running of the Kentucky Derby.

"Churchill Downs is very pleased to welcome these brands into our stable of fine sponsors," said Kevin Flanery, president of Churchill Downs Racetrack. "Our partnerships make it possible for us to continue to extend and refine the many exciting events that surround the Kentucky Derby, a great American tradition and a springtime weekend-long sports party known and loved around the world."

ADVANCES AT GOFFS FEBRUARY

Despite a greatly reduced clearance rate of under 55%, session one of Goffs' two-day February Mixed Sale still registered significant advances, as six yearlings usurped last year's highest price at the auction house's Kill venue yesterday. Leading the way was Swordlestown Little's Hip 170, a filly from the first crop of Coolmore sire and multiple Group 1 winner Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who was knocked down to Tim Hyde for €200,000. The March-foaled bay, who was withdrawn from the November Foal sale here, is out of Sogno Verde (Ire) (Green Desert) and is a half-sister to last term's G2 Railway S. hero Lilbourne Lad (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}).

The six-figure barrier was broken again within the hour when Darley Stud Management acquired The Castlebridge Consignment's Hip 183, a colt by Darley's own New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), for €120,000. From the family of 2010 G1 Prix de l'Abbaye heroine Gild Edge Girl (GB) (Monsieur Bond {Ire}), he is out of Tarbela (Ire) (Grand Lodge), a daughter of the G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas placegetter Tarwiya (Ire) (Dominion {GB}), and is a half-brother to the 2009 Listed Chesham S. victor Big Audio (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}).

Swordlestown Little's Hip 60, a Marju (Ire) colt, shared the bronze medal and set the early pace when fetching €75,000 from BBA Ireland. From the family of G1 Irish 1000 Guineas third Khaytada (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}), he is a full-brother to the 2007 Listed Heron S. winner Massive (Ire). His price was matched by Jockey Hall Stud's Hip 207 later in the afternoon. Selling to Robert Allcock, the Duke of Marmalade (Ire) colt is out of a winning half-sister to the 2009 G1 Phoenix S. runner-up Air Chief Marshal (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}).

The day closed with turnover more than doubling last year's yield, albeit from a 50% bigger book, at €1,878,300. The average and median both recorded forward surges, gaining 56% and 20%, respectively.

"We are delighted with the level of trade today," commented Goffs' Chief Executive Henry Beeby. "An improved catalogue has seen strong competition amongst a large and diverse bunch of buyers, and the fact that we have far surpassed last year's top-priced yearling on six different occasions clearly demonstrates the quality of horses on offer."

Today's concluding session begins at 10 a.m., and full results can be viewed at www.goff.com.

Xtension has since gone on to win the G1 Champions Mile. Trying the city course in his first start since, Military Attack broke well and took full advantage of his low draw to sit a rail-skimming trip. Put to a drive approaching the 600-meter mark, he accelerated sharply, cut the corner beautifully into the stretch and rallied up the fence to score by a convincing 1 3/4 lengths. Though time is short and he finds himself well down in the rankings at this point, Military Attack does hold an entry for this year's HK $16 million ($2,063,536) Hong Kong Derby over 2000 meters of the Sha Tin turf Mar. 18. MYBOYCHARLIE FILLY TOPS PERTH SELECT SALE

A filly from the first crop of French champion Myboycharlie (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) topped yesterday's first session of the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale with a final bid of A$75,000 (US$80,544). Consigned by Korilya Stud as lot 248, the bay filly was purchased by trainer Joe Byrne on behalf of his Malaysian-based client Wayne Lim Woie Chet. Lim, who purchased two horses during Tuesday's premier session of the sale, also bought a colt by Street Boss for A$70,000 from Yarradale Stud yesterday. From 154 head catalogued, 95 lots sold for A$2,424,000. The average was A$25,516 and the median was A$20,000. The buy-back rate was 35%. Comparison figures are unavailable because the sale is being conducted in a new format this year. "The quality lots tonight attracted strong interest and were the subject of spirited bidding," Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox said. "Obviously we would like to see the clearance rate climb tomorrow during the final session of the select sale. There is some exceptional value on offer and there's no doubt the successful buyers would be thrilled with the purchases." The select sale continues today at 11 a.m. The sale's general session begins Saturday at 5:30 p.m., followed by a racehorse sale.
