

BARRETT'S RISING

Barretts kicks off the American 2-year-old sales season today with its March Sale of Selected 2-Year-Olds in Training at the Hinds Pavilion at Fairplex in Pomona. The single-session sale gets underway at 6 p.m. PST. Action on the grounds has been lively, helped, no doubt, by a strong run for recent Barretts grads, including Testa Matta (Tapit)--sold by Scott Bergsrud's SAB Training for $60,000 to Narvick International in 2008--who recently won Japan's G1 February S.

Testa Matta
Horsephotos

"I've seen more people on the sales grounds than I have in three or four years," said Sequel Bloodstock's Becky Thomas. "There are more Japanese groups--[Barretts'] Kim Lloyd told me there were nine groups--and a lot of people that weren't here last year. Demi O'Byrne is here, Todd Pletcher was here--I don't remember him being here in many years, if at all. Plus all the usual people have been here. The West Point [Thoroughbreds] guys were here. Carla Gaines came in this afternoon, Bob Baffert was here in the morning, John Sadler and Mr. [Ron] McAnally were at the breeze show, and I expect them be here [Monday]. It's been strong. None of my horses have stayed in the barn."

Only a few years ago, the future of the Barretts March Sale appeared to be under a veil of uncertainty. The 2012 edition, however, could be buoyed by its prominent position as the first 2-year-old sale of the American sales' season, as well as a significantly bigger catalogue of 149 over the 2011 renewal's 106. This year's catalogue also represents an increase over 2010, when 135 2-year-olds were catalogued.

Jockeying for a position between the traditional season opener, the OBS February sale, in addition to the OBS March sale, Fasig-Tipton's Calder sale (now Florida sale) and Keeneland's 2-year-olds in Training sale, the little-sale-that-could bravely held on as the world economy plummeted. Following OBS's decision in 2009 to sack the February sale, in addition to a significant market adjustment in bloodstock, Barretts has persevered to establish its position in an ultra-competitive 2-year-old market. "There's a good feeling out here, and I think people are reinvigorated," said Thomas.

HANSEN DOING WELL; EYES WOOD

Juvenile champion Hansen (Tapit) was doing well Sunday following his impressive three-length victory over a full field in the GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct Saturday. "He came back good, ate everything up, and is good today," reported Nelson Donis, assistant to trainer Mike Maker. The Dr. Kendall Hansen and Harvey Diamond representative was scheduled to ship to Turfway Park Monday and await Friday's opening of Churchill Downs's Trakside training facility, where Maker is based. Immediately after the Gotham, the Mar. 24 GIII Spiral S. at Turfway was floated as a possible next objective on Hansen's path to the GI Kentucky Derby, but connections reported Sunday that, due to timing, the grey will ship back up to New York for the Apr. 7 GI Wood Memorial S. "That was one of the main reasons for going to the Gotham," Maker told Daily Racing Form. "That was our plan. I think we'll be on the same page for the Wood." Of the new rating dimension Hansen showed in the Gotham while shedding blinkers, Maker told the publication, "Hopefully, we maintain where we're at right now. That's kind of how we'd like to see him handle the pace scenario--like he did." Gotham runner-up My Adonis (Pleasantly Perfect) will also return for the Wood.

Racetrack Round-up...

After a big day of racing comes a day of mapping out future appearances, and Sunday was no different. The connections of the evenly matched top three finishers from the GIII Tom Fool H.--Calibrachoa (Southern Image), Caleb's Posse (Posse) and Emcee (Unbridled's Song)--have all committed to the GI Carter H. at the Big A Apr. 7. It figures to be a doozy, as the Beyer Speed Figures the trio earned currently sit at the top of all figures recorded in North America so far this year... We've also got more coverage of the 3-year-old division, including the final odds from Pool 2 of the Kentucky Derby Future Wager and Pool 1 of the Kentucky Oaks Future Wager.

Two New 'Rising Stars'

Flashy Dresser Coglianesse

A pair of sophomores garnered 'TDN Rising Star' status for head-turning performances Sunday. Flashy Dresser (Flashy Bull) sparkled in his Gulfstream unveiling for owner/trainer Fred Seitz, and Gainesway's Small Kitchen (Corinthian) stayed unbeaten in Louisiana.

8, f, Pure Prize--Gatherindy, by A.P. Indy
Consigned by Sequel Bloodstock (Becky Thomas), agent

This filly is a daughter of the stakes-producing Gatherindy, a half-sister to GISW Pure Clan, probably the best racehorse by Pure Prize. "She's showing very well," said consignor Becky Thomas. "She's a real pretty mover and galloped out well [at the breeze show]." Hip 129 breezed an eighth in :10 1/5.

18, c, Candy Ride (Arg)--Sweet and Clever, by Mr. Greeley

Consigned by Wavertree Stables, Inc. (Ciaran Dunne), Agent 1

This colt was acquired for $220,000 at Keeneland September, and consignor Ciaran Dunne says he looks the part. "He is one of the most expensive yearlings we bought," said Dunne. "I think he would be a headliner at almost any sale. Physically, he is a very strong horse, and he is a tremendous representation of the sire. He's not the biggest horse in the world, but he is very well balanced. Probably his best attribute is the way he moves. He is just a beautiful mover at the end of a shank. When we got him home after we bought him, he was every bit as good with somebody on his back as he was with somebody at his head. He's the fastest horse we have here, but he's not just fast, he has a ton of quality. Every year we bring horses here that we think will stand out, and that's why we brought him." The colt breezed an eight in :10 3/5 at the under-tack show.

45, c, Unbridled's Song--A Little Gem, by Yonaguska
Consigned by Wavertree Stables, Inc. (Ciaran Dunne), Agent VIII

This colt's dam was a good juvenile back in 2007, with her wins including Monmouth's Sorority S. An $85,000 weanling, he was bought back for $135,000 as an FTKJUL yearling. "[The owners] didn't get him sold as a yearling because they weren't going to just give him away," said consignor Ciaran Dunne. "They believed in him and they stayed with him, and he has done really well since. His greatest attribute as a yearling, which makes him special now, is the way he moves. He's not your typical Unbridled's Song. He is a very handy horse who is not overly big or a heavy-bodied horse. He is just a very smooth and athletic horse." Hip 45 breezed an eighth in :10 1/5.

50, f, Big Brown--Bobbie Use, by Not for Love
Consigned by Eddie Woods, Agent LXI

This filly is from the first crop of the brilliant dual Classic winner Big Brown (Boundary), who was offered as a 2-year-old by the same consignor. "She is a really beautiful-moving filly and is quite nice," said Eddie Woods. "You'd have to be very pleased with Big Brown's offspring so far, because they move so well and they are nice, scopey and clean-looking horses." Hip 50 breezed an eighth in :10 2/5.

75, f, Malibu Moon--Ever Hopeful, by With Approval
Consigned by Sequel Bloodstock (Becky Thomas), agent

From the family of Personal Ensign, et al., this gray filly is by a sire who has been represented by such top distaffers as Devil May Care, Life at Ten, Ask the Moon, etc. "She's a really pretty, really solid mover," said consignor Becky Thomas. "She's another who hasn't stayed in the barn." Hip 75 breezed an eighth in :10 2/5.

82, f, Empire Maker--Fortunate Event,
by Event of the Year

Wavertree Stables, Inc. (Ciaran Dunne), Agent III

This is the first foal from a stakes-placed earner of over $320,000. "She would shine almost anywhere we would have taken her," said consignor Ciaran Dunne. "In my opinion, she is probably better than some of the nice Empire Maker fillies that we have seen do well on the racetrack. She is a lovely filly. She is elegant, and is long and lean like a two-turn filly. But when you stand behind her, she has this great big hind end, and a big ol' gaskin on her. We didn't particularly expect for her to be early, but the fact that she is offers a real added bonus." Hip 82 breezed an eighth in :10 2/5.

88, f, Indian Charlie--Golden Marlin, by Marlin

Consigned by Sequel Bloodstock (Becky Thomas), agent

This filly's dam was a durable sort who won seven races from two to five, including the GIII Dogwood S. at Churchill and a pair of black-type events at Turfway. Hip 88 breezed an eighth in :10 2/5.

103, c, Big Brown--Ivanavinalot, by West Acre

Consigned by Eddie Woods, Agent XIX

This colt is another by Big Brown from Eddie Woods, and reminds the consignor of his accomplished sire in many ways. "He is a really nice colt," said Woods. "He looks just like his dad and he moves like him, too. They are alike in terms of looks and mannerisms, and he is a beautiful mover like his sire. He is a big, long-striding and pleasant horse." The colt was produced by the likeable, hard-knocking Grade II winner Ivanavinalot. "I am very familiar with the mare because we had her on the farm, and we sold Big Brown, so we are very familiar with the family," said Woods. Hip 103 breezed an eighth in :10 2/5.

129, c, Lawyer Ron--Now Cope With This, by Tiznow

Consigned by Eddie Woods, Agent IX

The late Lawyer Ron was a first-rate racehorse and is now proving an effective sire. His son Drill won the GI Del Mar Futurity last summer and recently came back to win the GII San Vicente S. "He's not very typical of the sire, but he is a very good-looking horse that is a good size and well balanced," said consignor Eddie Woods. "He goes very well." # RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Tom Fool Top Three All Expected for Carter...

Calibrachoa (Southern Image), Caleb's Posse (Posse) and Emcee (Unbridled's Song)--first, second and third respectively and separated by less than a length in Saturday's GIII Tom Fool H. at Aqueduct--are all slated to return for the GI Carter H. Apr. 7. "Calibrachoa looks as good as he did going into it," Todd Pletcher assistant Whit Beckman said. "He ran his race and he was finally able to put a couple together back-to-back. He loves that inner track at Aqueduct and everything went his way [Saturday] for sure." Calibrachoa earned a 111 Beyer Speed Figure for his effort--the highest of any performance in North America this year--with the 110 Caleb's Posse earned and 108 Emcee ran falling second and third on the overall list.

Coglianese Photo

Caleb's Posse, already a Grade I winner at the seven-furlong distance of the Carter with his victory over another Repole runner--Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie)--in last year's King's Bishop S., will make a pit stop in Kentucky before re-joining trainer Donnie Von Hemel's string at Oaklawn to prep for his return to the Big Apple. "He came out of the race really well and cleaned up all his feed," said assistant trainer Kristal Campbell. "He's still ornery and raring to go."

Godolphin's Emcee, who was making just his third start in the Tom Fool, was backed all the way down to 6-5 favoritism, but held his own against much more seasoned rivals. "It was a really, really good performance," Art Magnuson, Kieran McLaughlin's assistant, said. "It's really hard to do that [in a horse's third start]." He continued, "Calibrachoa is a nice horse who loves the inner track, and Caleb's Posse ran huge again. We're happy to be with those horses. I thought at 6-5 maybe we were overbet a bit, but we're really happy with the way he ran. He's getting better all the time, and that was an education. That wasn't an other-than allowance. [Jockey] Johnny Velazquez [said the horse] loves to go even further than six--seven furlongs, a mile. There will be plenty of time to try. He's pretty cool." Magnuson also said that fellow Godolphin colorbearer It's Tricky (Mineshaft) was doing well after her easy score in the GII Top Flight H., but that her next race would be decided at a later date.

Millionreasonswhy to Comely...

Sagamore Farm's Millionreasonswhy (Grand Slam), winner of last July's GII Matron S. at Belmont and a close second to eventual champion juvenile filly My Miss Aurelia (Smart Strike) in the GII Adirondack S. at Saratoga in August, returned a solid 1 1/4-length winner in Laurel's Wide Country S. Saturday, and will now look to return to the graded ranks in Aqueduct's GIII Comely S. Apr. 7. "You can never say with 100% certainty, but we'll probably run at Aqueduct," said trainer Ignacio Correas IV. "She came out of the race great, and we're going to go for it. We wanted to see her run a good race--not necessarily win, but run strong to the wire and try hard. She had been training well and did what I expected." The bay, who earned a career-best 93 Beyer figure for Saturday's victory, could also be Kentucky-bound if all goes well at Aqueduct. "I thought we'd go seven furlongs to a mile and then maybe the GI Kentucky Oaks," said Correas. "I don't think distance will be an issue."

Millionreasonswhy Jim McCue, MJC

Motor City Possible for Swale...

Lantern Hill Farm homebred Motor City (Street Sense) is under consideration for next Saturday's seven-furlong GII Swale S. at Gulfstream after working five furlongs in 1:01 4/5 at Palm Meadows Sunday morning. "We are considering the Swale, but first want to see how he comes out of today's work," trainer Ian Wilkes said yesterday. "He is a confirmed closer, which wouldn't really help him a lot at Gulfstream, but he's got to get started at some point. We'll continue to discuss the options for him over the next couple of days." Motor City took the one-mile GIII Iroquois S. at Churchill Downs Oct. 30 in his most recent appearance.

Polytrack allowance Sunday at Kranji Racecourse. The $100,000 allowance race serves as a prep for the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, the event in which Rocket Man notched an elusive first win at the highest level in 2011. Soon in front beneath Barend Vorster, the $5.30 favorite (1-16) was allowed a soft time of it on the engine, covering the opening four panels in a very leisurely :47.96. It was all academic from there, as Rocket Man pulled away to score by 4 3/4 lengths over Rapido Star (Safe in the USA), the $299 (58-1) second choice (video). The final time was 1:10.95. "This was the perfect prep run for him. It should get him right for Dubai," said trainer Patrick Shaw. "Considering he hasn't raced for a while and he was giving weight to the others, it was a superb effort. He was also ridden hands and heels, which was perfect. I couldn't be happier with that run. He was down six kilos on his body weight, but I was okay with that weight (479kg). He's always raced a bit lighter in Dubai, round about 472kg, and that is perfect." Rocket Man departs for Dubai Mar. 24.

Dabirsim Voted France's HOTY...

Simon Springer's unbeaten Dabirsim (Fr) (Hat Trick {Jpn}) was yesterday honored as France's Horse of the Year at the annual awards organised by the publication Courses et Elevage and France Galop. Results for each category--based on votes cast by racing journalists--were announced at Auteuil racecourse. Dabirsim, who annexed the G1 Prix Morny and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere to close a perfect five-race freshman campaign, also picked up the champion 2-year-old accolade. "This is a great honor, and to have such a horse under my care is fantastic," said trainer Christophe Ferland. "Dabirsim's doing well, we're looking forward to the new season, and he will kick off in the [G3] Prix de Fontainebleau. Of course, why not hope to be back here next year?"

Gestut Ammerland's homebred Golden Lilac (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who won both the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane, emerged top in the 3-year-old distaffers' division. "I have been very lucky with Golden Lilac and with Lope de Vega the year before," admitted Dietrich von Boetticher. "I bought their dams in France and, as a breeder, I couldn't ask for more than winning Classic doubles with both. I visited Golden Lilac at the stable this morning, and [trainer] Andre Fabre is quite confident she will have a good season." Pride Racing Club's G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Reliable Man (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) scooped the champion 3-year-old colt prize, while last term's G1 Champion S. victor Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) was named champion older horse. "Cirrus des Aigles is a little horse, who has come from nowhere with no breeding," explained trainer Corine Barande-Barbe. "He has gone to the top by virtue of his talent, we owe him so much, and we're very honored to be distinguished today."

Deacon Blues Out for Season...

Joint-European champion sprinter Deacon Blues (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) will miss the entire 2012 campaign through injury, according to trainer James Fanshawe. The 5-year-old bay garnered Royal Ascot's competitive Wokingham H. in June, and remained unbeaten thereafter when subsequently upped to pattern grade last season. He bagged a trio of Group 3 events--the Hackwood S., the Phoenix Sprint S. and Dubai International World Trophy--before registering a career high in the inaugural G2 British Champions Sprint S. back at Ascot in October. "We discovered some unusual warmth in his left-fore leg on Friday evening," Fanshawe told PA Sport. "We had him scanned on Saturday, and we found a small tear in a tendon, which I'm afraid rules him out for the season. It's a big blow for the yard and his owners, but with injuries like this you cannot rush them. The main thing is to give him every possible chance of a full recovery."

RE: Bill Oppenheim and the TOBA

"Applause for Bill O. taking a stand against humbug. Now joined by Strawbridge & Weber, this could be the start of something big. Any other major players ready to stand up and be counted, then join together and take over leadership? J. David Richardson and his group displayed their moral cowardice. They caved in to pressure from the trainers. most of whom are devotees of doping horses. The TOBA leaders should resign en masse."

Letters
TO THE EDITOR

I went to Venezuela recently on behalf of the Breeders' Cup and wasn't sure what to expect. I hadn't been there in 15 years and was very aware of the dramatic change in the government.

I came away overwhelmed by what I saw. I visited Haras Los Aguacates, Haras Los Samanes Polo & Racing and Haras Urama and found all to be world class. Every detail in the construction has been thought-out thoroughly and no expense spared. These facilities would stand out anywhere in the Thoroughbred world. The owners and professionals on these farms are dedicated to raising the horse in the best manner possible and are totally informed on nutrition and all other aspects of caring for the horse.

Their investment in bloodstock over the last few years is substantial, with the importation of very good stallions and well-bred mares. Haras Los Samanes Polo & Racing is even sending two mares to Sea the Stars, which gives one the impression that these people are determined to be a force in racing and breeding on a global basis.

I also visited the racetracks in Valencia and Caracas. These facilities are owned by the government and have not been kept up very well, but the owners' associations have worked diligently to make the best of the situation. They are extremely passionate about racing and are tireless in their efforts to improve the conditions for the horses and of the racetrack.

Considering the quality of the yearlings, 2-year-olds and breeding stock that I saw, the knowledge of the professionals and the dedication of the owners and breeders, there is no doubt in my mind that Venezuela will soon make a lot of noise around the world in our industry. Venezuela is a country with a population that is passionate about the sport and with breeders determined to produce top racehorses. I believe that they will. Venezuela is one to watch, for sure.

OBITUARIES

Geoff Stein, 58

Geoff Stein, a Thoroughbred owner and one of the most respected and influential persons in the Standardbred industry, died Sunday at age 58.

Along with partner Dave Reid, Stein operated Preferred Equine, harness racing's largest sales agency. Stein was one of the sport's biggest consignors and also operated the Lexington Select Yearling Sale, one of the sport's two major sales. It was held every fall in Lexington at the Fasig-Tipton sales grounds. Stein was also one of the co-owners of the filly Moni Maker, considered by many to be the greatest trotter ever.

In recent years, Stein began to expand into Thoroughbreds. Along with Reid, he operated Ice Wine Stable and partnered with trainer Wesley Ward. Ice Wine enjoyed instant success with horses like stakes winners Final Mesa (Sky Mesa) and Italo (With Distinction).

"This is terrible news," Ward said. "He was really enjoying the Thoroughbreds. We had some great luck together and were having a great time. You can invest a ton of money in these horses and never get lucky, but every year he has been involved we have had stakes horses. This is just shocking news."

Inspired, winner of last year's Jenny Wade H. at Penn National, was coming off a wire-to-wire 1 1/2-length victory in the Jan. 21 Pan Zareta S. at Fair Grounds. The chestnut mare moved quickly to take control of the pace, setting fractions of :22.13 and :44.01 and held sway for her second straight stakes victory.

"The truth of the matter is that in her past few races we've tried to do so many things with her," explained winning trainer Allen Iwinski. "When she was getting beat, we were taking her back, trying to get her to do something that wasn't really her. When Johnny [Velazquez] rode her the first time here [Dec. 24] we tried to rate her that day. Johnny said, 'I had them. I think I should have let her go and run her own race.' So we did that at the Fair Grounds and she just ran away from there. She's not real fast from the gate, but when she gets rolling, she rolls. But she wants to go out there and do her thing. She's a much better filly when you let her do her thing." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

The 4-5 favorite chased the pacesetter before surging to the lead in upper stretch and drawing clear to an easy three-length victory. "It's nice to have him back," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said. "He trained very well. I didn't give Javier [Castellano] any specific instructions. I didn't know whether he would end up close to the pace or not, but he rode him perfectly and we're pleased to have him ride." As for where Soldat will start next, McLaughlin added, "He'll be pointed for a campaign in major turf stakes this year. The lightly raced Mr Gruff was a perfect three-for-three in 2010, including a title defense in the GIII San Simeon H. and a runner-up effort in the GI Shoemaker Mile S. He shipped to Dubai for Meydan's G2 Al Quoz Sprint last March, where he was 16th, and only made one more 2011 start, scoring in Hollywood's Night Mover S. Nov. 18. He was coming off a dead-heat third-place finish over this downhill course Jan. 8, and garnered odds-on favoritism here. Setting a pressured pace throughout, the old timer proved no worse for wear in the stretch and kept finding more to deny Ain't No Other. ### Tyler Baze Hospitalized, Headed to Rehab:

Beleaguered jockey Tyler Baze will enter rehab in the near future after reportedly being hospitalized Friday night. A story in the Daily Racing Form cited a friend of the rider's who said that Baze had been admitted because of an alcohol-related illness, and was expected to remain hospitalized through the weekend. The 29-year-old Baze, a former leading rider in California, has had issues with alcohol in the past. Last September, he was suspended indefinitely by Del Mar stewards for failing to submit to a random Breathalyzer test. In October, stewards suspended him for 90 days for the same incident, retroactive to Sept. 1, meaning he was eligible to return to riding in early December. As part of the suspension, however, Baze was to complete a 30-day residency for rehabilitation. He still has not completed the residency and remains indefinitely suspended. Baze received an Eclipse Award in 2000 as the nation's leading apprentice rider. Last May, Baze's cousin Michael Baze, also a rider, died at Churchill Downs from a drug overdose of cocaine and oxymorphone.

SILVANO COLT, TRIPPI FILLY JOINT CAPE

SALES TOPPERS Book Two of the inaugural Cape Premier Yearling Sale ended Sunday with mixed results, as well as accolades from both vendors and buyers happy with the layout and style of the new sales company. For the first time, the regional Cape sale was hosted at Kenilworth Racecourse--and conducted by the new company Cape Thoroughbred Sales--and the venue proved a huge hit. It is the first time in many years that only one regional sale was offered to Cape breeders, and this resulted in the rather generously sized catalogue. The sale originally catalogued 405 horses, a number which was whittled down to 369 after some late withdrawals. Of the horses to pass through the ring, 62 failed to make their reserve. The sale averaged R83,569 (US$11,111).

The progeny of leading sire Silvano (Ger) proved very popular, and the stallion was responsible for three of the top 10 yearlings sold. Two yearlings made R400,000 (US$53,181) to jointly top the sale. Lot 181, a handsome colt by leading sire Silvano, was knocked down to the country's leading owner, Markus Jooste. Consigned by Daytona Stud, the colt, named Silver Image, is out of Al Mufti matron Saratoga Shadow (SAf).

The co-topper was a filly by the hugely exciting sire Trippi. Lot 270, who goes by the moniker of Midnight Magenta, was consigned by Arc-En-Ciel Stud. Out of the Diesis (GB) mare Yellow Zinia, a full to Group 3 winner and G1 St. James's Palace S. third Duck Row, the filly was purchased by top Cape trainer Joey Ramsden.

Feedback from trainers was largely positive. Brett Crawford, conditioner of Jackson (SAf), said of the sale, "There are some nice individuals on offer, and it is a good market for buyers to pick up nice horses."

Gaynor Rupert, whose Drakenstein Stud is home to Trippi, reflected after the sale, "It is definitely a buyers' market. There are some wonderful opportunities for buyers to pick a good quality horse."

Robin Bruss, CEO of the Cape Thoroughbred Sales (CTS), was pleased with the sale's results. "The sale proved strong at the end, although it has not been easy for the Cape to sell 750 horses in just three months," Bruss said. "This is more than the Cape has ever sold in such a short space of time. This company is doing exceptionally well at the moment--with all three stakes-winning juveniles in the country having been previously purchased off last year's Cape Premier Yearling Sale! This event was not just about selling yearlings, but we also have tried to make it a fun event, and are trying to draw people into the sport by placing emphasis on the fun of racing. We promise value for money, and make it possible to purchase champions at affordable prices."

Lucky Nine and Glorious Days transferred a hot battle on the tote straight onto the Sha Tin turf, and the G1 Hong Kong Sprint hero punched his ticket to the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, though he had to overcome a stewards' inquiry. The 5-year-old peaked with a breakthrough success on International Day Dec. 11, but circumstances conspired against him when a close sixth in the Centenary Sprint Cup Jan. 15. He came into this off a strong runner-up effort in the Chairman's Sprint Prize Feb. 5 and was slightly favored from the previously unbeaten Glorious Days. Drawn on the fence, Lucky Nine jumped well and sat in third, just off a speed duel, as Glorious Days was allowed to drift back towards the rear beneath Douglas Whyte. Steered off the fence three wide at the head of the lane, Lucky Nine surged to the front at about the 250, but was immediately confronted by Glorious Days, and the stage was set. The two seemed to brush entering the final furlong and Lucky Nine was drifting away from the inside for the balance of the tussle, but found the line first and the result was ultimately allowed to stand. "Lucky Nine stuck to his guns really well and he was strong over the concluding stages," said winning trainer Caspar Fownes. "Obviously, you've got a very good horse challenging us on the outside and he made a real good race of it." And now, barring any changes, it's off to the desert. "We will have a chat [about Dubai] and see how he is," Fownes explained. "He has had his injections to go there, so there is a good chance we will go. Bringing him back in distance [to six furlongs] is a little bit of a query, but he will probably appreciate the long straight on that surface [Tapeta]."
