

SWEET WIN FOR TAPITSFLY IN HONEY FOX

Frank Jones Jr.'s homebred Tapitsfly (Tapit) surged to the lead in the dying strides to take Sunday's GII Honey Fox S. at Gulfstream Park by 3/4 lengths over Bay to Bay (Sligo Bay {Ire}) and La Reine Lionne (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}). The gray mare, winner of the 2009 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, broke alertly, was taken in hand and allowed to settle in mid-pack as pacesetter Romacaca (Running Stag) took the field through fractions of :24.44, :47.94 and 1:11.00. The pacesetter began to tire in upper stretch and La Reine Lionne inherited the lead with Bay to Bay closing strongly, but it was the long-striding Tapitsfly who found her best gear late from the outside to hit the wire first.

Tapitsfly
A Coglianese

Bay to Bay just edged La Reine Lionne for second.

"Everything went good," reported winning rider Julien Leparoux. "She broke sharp, but relaxed right away for me. It was a nice comfortable pace in front for us. She came out in the straight and finished up really good."

BAFFERT HAPPY WITH SECRET CIRCLE

The way Secret Circle (Eddington) won Saturday's GII Rebel S. at Oaklawn Park has trainer Bob Baffert eager for the Apr. 14 GI Arkansas Derby. "The win was exciting and the way he did it was promising," Baffert said Sunday. "It was a good schooling for him and I think he should get a lot out of it, although my guys tell me he was hardly blowing when he got back."

Secret Circle
Coady Photography

The trainer did admit he has some work to do with Secret Circle. "He keeps shutting it down too early," he said. "He kind of pulls himself up and throws out an anchor. I thought he was just going to blow by, but he waited a little bit. We can fix that with competition and try and work that out of him."

EL PADRINO WORKS FOR FLORIDA DERBY

El Padrino (Pulpit), winner of the GII Risen Star S., tuned up for a possible start in the Mar. 31 GI Florida Derby with a five-furlong drill at Palm Meadows yesterday. The Let's Go Stable runner covered the distance in 1:01 1/5. "It was a very good work with a strong gallop out," reported trainer Todd Pletcher.

Also possible for the Florida Derby, Klaravich Stable and William Lawrence's News Pending (Harlan's Holiday) went five furlongs at Gulfstream Park in 1:02 2/5 for trainer Dale Romans. He is coming off a runner-up effort in the GII Fasig-Tipton Fountain of Youth S.

WOOD LIKELY FOR STREET LIFE

Street Life (Street Sense) may have earned himself a start in the Apr. 7 GI Wood Memorial S. after his half-length victory in Saturday's Broad Brush S. (video). "I thought he ran well and he overcame a slow pace," said trainer Chad Brown. "He's still learning, but he has talent." Brown added, "I'd definitely consider the Wood. The race is back a little quick, but we wouldn't have to ship. And he hasn't really had the chance to run into an honest pace."

STAT ON THE IMPROVE

Bortolazzo Stable's Stat (Unbridled's Song), second in last year's GII Three Chimneys Saratoga Special, rebounded from a troubled fourth-place effort over a sloppy track in his sophomore debut Feb. 9 to take a optional claimer at Gulfstream Saturday by 6 1/4 lengths (video). The victory impressed trainer Todd Pletcher. "It was a big improvement from last time. "His last two races were on a sloppy track. We were happy to get him on a fast track and it looked like he ran much better." As for what is next for the gray colt, Pletcher added, "We'll see how he bounces out of this race and go from there. I think he might [stretch out], he's still learning."

Tapitsfly was sidelined for over a year after her determined score over Rose Catherine (Speightstown) in the 2009 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. And, while hitting the board in three graded stakes races in 2011, the mare had managed only one victory since--an allowance win over the Gulfstream lawn last April. She was coming off a third-place effort in a blanket finish in the Jan. 7 GIII Marshua's River S.

"It's hard to believe that this is her first graded stakes win," said Dale Romans, who trains Tapitsfly for longtime client Frank Jones. "The Breeders' Cup wasn't graded yet when she won. She really deserves this to go along with her Breeders' Cup. She's won some good races and we tried her in the [GI] Spinster S. [where she ran 12th] last fall thinking she might like the Poly. It's a prestigious race, but didn't work out. She'll be strictly turf from now on. She's learned to relax and is a better horse this year."

As for what is next for Tapitsfly, Romans added, "I haven't got any races picked out for her. It's a long year. We'll sit down and map out a schedule that makes sense at some point."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

BRILLIANT SPEED TO RETURN IN APPLETON

Live Oak Plantation's Brilliant Speed (Dynaformer) will make his 2012 debut in the Mar. 31 GIII Appleton S. at Gulfstream Park. The 4-year-old, who won last year's

Brilliant Speed
Horsephotos

GI Toyota Blue Grass S. and was third in the GI Belmont S., has not been out since running third in the GI Emirates Airline Breeders' Cup Turf at Churchill Downs. "He's been training very well," said trainer Tom Albertrani. "If you remember him last year, he was always a little light framed. He's matured and muscled up more as an older horse. He's been training very forwardly."

Brilliant Speed's year-younger brother Souper Speedy (Indian Charlie), a debut winner at Belmont last October before a runner-up effort in the Nov. 26 GII Remsen S., is taking things a little more slowly. "We just decided to slow things down," Albertrani explained. "He just didn't seem to settle in, so we decided to back off on him and give him some time. There was nothing physically wrong with him. He just wasn't himself. We'll be seeing him later in the year."

PERFECT SHIRL OUT OF SHEEMA CLASSIC

G1 Emirates Airline Breeders' Cup F/M Turf winner Perfect Shirl (Perfect Soul {Ire}) will miss her intended next start in the Mar. 31 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. "She was scheduled to work [Friday], but strained an ankle and we had to cancel," said trainer Roger Attfield. "It isn't serious, but she will need time." Perfect Shirl had been expected to contest the G1 Carlos Pellegrini in Buenos Aires, but that trip was called off because of travel difficulties. In her only start since last year's Breeders' Cup, the 5-year-old was eighth in the Feb. 25 GIII The Very One S. "It's been a disappointing winter for her after having to cancel the trip to Argentina in December," Attfield admitted. "She'll be back at some point as the season goes on."

The results of yesterday's G3 Abu Dhabi Championship will appear in tomorrow's TDN.

In the end, it was Fay Fay who had the Whyte stuff.

Hong Kong's perennial leading rider and trainer John

Size were handed a near death sentence with the 14

hole at Thursday's barrier draw, but the Durban Demon pulled a rabbit out of the hat to land the Derby for the second year in a row (Ambitious Dragon {NZ}, 2011).

Fay Fay was a handy winner of Class 2 handicaps Dec.

11 and Jan. 1, earning him a quote of 1-2 for the Hong Kong Classic Mile Jan. 25. He came to win the race following a three-wide trip, but was run down late by the upstart Sweet Orange. The bay had some traffic trouble in the middle stages of the Hong Kong Classic

Cup Feb. 19, but was essentially excuse-free from there and settled for fourth, two lengths adrift of Zaidan (Street Cry {Ire}). That somewhat subpar effort sprinkled with a wide alley left Fay Fay without a friend in the overnight betting, but he firmed to be the third choice at post time.

Away well enough, Whyte pushed the button early and allowed his mount to go up to be a forward factor as Bullish Champion (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) tried to put them to sleep up front. With his chief rivals further behind and with the race being run at a moderate tempo, Fay Fay was always going to get first crack and did so while three wide at the head of the lane. Zaidan, also fairly handy in the running, edged to the front with about a furlong to race, but Fay Fay engaged him soon after and stayed on, as Same World lunged late. Sweet Orange found himself with plenty of work to do on the turn, was in very tight in the stretch and may have won the race had the wire come a few strides later. "It's always nice to win a big race and in Hong Kong the big race to win is the Derby," said Size, winning the event for the first time. "Fay Fay won a race very early as a 2-year-old, which is probably a bit unusual for a Derby winner. Through injury, he had more than 12 months off the track through his 3-year-old year, but that has probably stood him in good stead as I've been able to step him up at his leisure and he made steady progress to the point that he got into the Group 1 races." The winner could go next in the G1 Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup over this track and distance Apr. 29. A crowd of 53,000 turned out at Sha Tin yesterday, producing a turnover of HK$1.204 million.

Turbo Compressor had never stepped foot on the turf, but had very solid main-track credentials--enough to warrant favoritism in this spot. The bay annexed Calder's Carl G. Rose Classic H. Nov. 12 by 10 1/2 lengths, and was coming off a third-place finish in the Sunshine Millions Classic here Jan. 28. The one-two finishers of that event flattered its form nicely, as runner-up Ron the Greek (Full Mandate) invaded California to grab the Mar. 3 GI Santa Anita H. while winner Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno) took last Saturday's GII Gulfstream Park H. as a heavy favorite. Sent right to the front as expected, Turbo Compressor recorded splits of :23.21, :47.19 and 1:10.88 and faced no resistance as he leveled off nicely in the lane to win big. She made just one start in 2011--a third-place effort in a Saratoga allowance July 28--but garnered 3-2 favoritism in this comebacker. Saving all the ground from a stalking position, the homebred slipped through an opening on the rail in midstretch and held sway over longshot Gob Smacked (With Distinction) to take it by a length. He was third in an optional claimer for Scott Volk at Monmouth last out Sept. 11, and was part of a 3-1 entry with fellow JMJ representative Kentucky Reign (Distorted Humor) this time. Lopez Out Two Months After Saturday Spill:

Jockeys Paco Lopez and Antonio Gallardo were expected to be released from Memorial Regional Hospital yesterday. The two riders were involved in a spill in Saturday's last race at Gulfstream Park. Lopez suffered a broken collarbone and six fractured ribs and is expected to miss up to two months. Gallardo was reported sore, but with no broken bones. Jockey Luis Jurado was uninjured in the spill. The three horses involved in the accident also escaped injury.

Third in the Gill Fall Highweight H. on the main track here Nov. 24, the dark bay annexed a Parx allowance two back Feb. 6 and was coming off a fourth-place finish in that oval's Bensalem S. just five days ago. Well-held along the rail in this compact five-horse field, the 6-year-old appeared poised to explode at the head of the lane, but with no seam through which to do it. She was adding blinkers this time on the turnback, and was well-supported down to 2-1. Mob Wife (Closing Argument) set the pace, and opened up in midstretch, but she began to shorten stride noticeably as I Bet Toni Knows and others gained on her rapidly. I Bet Toni Knows outkicked Dyna Vision (City Zip) to win it by 1 1/2 lengths, while the pacesetter fell nearing the wire, dropping rider Ramon Dominguez and taking Suave N Sassy (Suave) her. Reports revealed that both horses exited the incident relatively unscathed. Dominguez and Suave N Sassy's rider Samuel Camacho, Jr. were taken to North Shore University Hospital. Both jockeys' x-rays came back negative, but Dominguez suffered a dislocated clavicle and will miss some time. Canonize got his first win since 2010 with a sharp 2 1/2-length score going seven panels here Feb. 3, and the 6-year-old was coming off a fourth-place finish behind The Factor (War Front) in the Gil San Carlos S. Feb. 25. Away alertly from the outside gate, Canonize allowed Gladding to show the way as he eyed the frontrunner from the two path. That pair began to quicken exiting the turn, and hit the lane isolated from the rest of the field. Canonize appeared to have Gladding's measure in mid-stretch, and he held that foe at bay in the waning strides for a first black-type success. "It's been a blast," said owner Samantha Siegel of a weekend that also included a victory in the GI Santa Margarita S. with fellow Ron Ellis trainee Include Me Out (Include) the day before. ### MARTINO ALONSO DIES

Martino Alonso (Ire) (Marju {Ire}--Cheerful Note {GB}, by Cure the Blues), sire of Ramonti (Fr), has been euthanized after breaking his leg in his paddock, the Racing Post reported yesterday. The 18-year-old G1 Premio Roma runner-up and resident of Azienda Agricola Antezzate had quickly established himself as one of Italy's leading sires. His small first crop included the 2005 G1 Derby Italiano winner Ramonti and that high-class performer went on to register another five successes at the top level for trainer Alduino Botti and later the Godolphin operation and now stands at Allevamento di Besnate. Martino Alonso was also responsible for the group-class Dagda Mor (Ity), Marcret (Ity), Marshade (Ity) and Rumsfeld (Ity) prior to being sensationally kidnapped in late 2009 only to be found six months later.

Canford Cliffs accounted for five victories at the highest level during his three seasons on the track, including the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, G1 St. James's Palace S., G1 Sussex S., G1 Queen Anne S. and G1 Lochinge S. The bay, who retired with $1,470,383 in earnings, also scored in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot during his juvenile season.

Cape Blanco, who earned top billing as a 3-year-old in Ireland at 9.5-11f and 11-14f, will shuttle from Ashford Stud in Kentucky to New Zealand, where he will take up service at Sir Patrick Hogan's Cambridge Stud. A fee has yet to be set for Cape Blanco. Both champions will stand in association with Coolmore.

"In Cape Blanco we're getting access to a five-time Group I-winning horse, who is beautifully bred as a son of the world champion sire Galileo and out of a mare [Laurel Delight], who won four races and was speedy enough to win at five furlongs [1000m] and who has been such a good producer that she was named 2010 Irish broodmare of the year," said Hogan. Cape Blanco, winner of the G2 Futurity S. and G3 Tyro S. at two, added scores in the G1 Irish Derby, G1 Irish Champions S. and G2 Dante S. at three. Sent Stateside for his 4-year-old season, the chestnut added wins in the G1 Arlington Million, G1 Man O' War S. and G1 Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational S. prior to earning the champion turf horse title. The winner of nine of 15 lifetime starts, the colt retired with earnings of $3,853,216.

"I'm so excited about this horse because you can't buy this kind of stallion any more," stated Hogan, whose Cambridge Stud also stands leading sire Zabeel (NZ). "If he was for sale, our kind of money couldn't buy him. We've done this twice before with Cape Cross and Stravinsky, two stallions that we couldn't purchase, but they proved how commercial and popular they were."
