THE UPWARD SPIRAL

Whoever wins today's GIII Vinery Racing Spiral S. at Turfway Park, contested over nine furlongs on the Polytrack, will be registering their first graded victory. They will also be virtually guaranteed a spot in the starting gate for the GI Kentucky Derby, based on the Spiral's hefty $500,000 purse.

Went the Day Well teamvalor.com

For those who think that a Grade III shouldn't essentially be a "Win and You're In" event might have a point, but they might also be surprised at how keen an indicator the Spiral has been for Classic success in the past two decades. Beginning in 1990, the race--then called the Jim Beam S.--was won in succession by Summer Squall, Hansel, Lil E. Tee and Prairie Bayou. All went on to win jewels of the Triple Crown. More recently, Perfect Drift ('02) and Hard Spun ('07) both parlayed Spiral victories into Derby placings, and last year, Team Valor International's Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) put the Spiral back in the spotlight after his stirring win on the first Saturday in May.

Coming into the 2012 edition of the Spiral, Animal Kingdom's stablemate Went the Day Well (Proud Citizen) will vie for favoritism along with the 3-1 morning-line choice Heavy Breathing (Giant's Causeway). The former, pegged at 4-1, is coming off a late-running score against Gulfstream maiden foes Mar. 3. And while a big effort could put Barry Irwin's Team Valor and trainer Graham Motion back into the Derby mix, his conditioner said the horse hasn't been pushed to make the Run for the Roses. Cont. p3

REID WINNER ROYAL ASCOT BOUND?

When they last met, Hay List (Aus) (Statue of Liberty) defeated the 3-year-old Foxwedge (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) into third when giving that rival 17 pounds in the Mar. 10 G1 Newmarket H. The sophomore colt seemed at a distinct disadvantage in Friday's

G1 William Reid S. under the lights at Moonee Valley, meeting Hay List on 13 pounds' worse terms, but he unleashed a wicked turn of foot in the stretch to best the odds-on favorite by 3/4 of a length. "Geez he's a good colt, he's got that real x-factor about him," commented jockey Nash Rawiller. "Even tonight he thought it was a big game, but when we got out there in the race he switched on and I was confident a long way from home." Purchased for A$925,000 out of the 2010 Inglis Easter Yearling Sale, Foxwedge will be considered for races such as the G1 King's Stand S. and G1 Diamond Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot and the G1 Darley July Cup the following month. Chart p7

Florida Breezes

Fasig-Tipton held the under-tack preview for Monday's Florida Selected Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training Friday, with a pair of juveniles from the Eddie Woods consignment sharing top billing. Hip 65, a filly by Malibu Moon, and hip 67, a Lion Heart colt, stopped the timer in :10 flat at Palm Meadows. Jessica Martini and Marie Kizenko report from South Florida.

SPIRALING TOWARD THE DERBY

Best of luck to the full field of contenders and all their connections in today's $500,000

Vinery Racing Spiral S. (G3)

Last year's winner went on to win the Kentucky Derby!!

Tom Ludt, President/ John Gasper, General Manager

"I just don't want to get carried away trying to get back there," said Motion. "I don't want to change my philosophy. Last year, we were adamant that the horses had to get us there, and Animal Kingdom took us there. Barry was very much on the same page. I think it's going to be the same this year. Neither one of us is going to be all out to run in the Derby. The horses will have to show us they belong."

Heavy Breathing
Adam Coglianese

The unbeaten Heavy Breathing, meanwhile, won on debut in Hallandale going 7 1/2 panels Feb. 8 and added a nine-furlong optional claimer Mar. 3. Trainer Mike Maker has won the Spiral twice before, first in 2006 with the ill-fated With a City (City Zip), then two years ago with the Ramsey homebred Dean's Kitten (Kitten's Joy). He has two chances here, and they line up next to each other in the starting gate. In post nine is Tiffany and George Veloudis's Tizanexpense (Tiznow), who doubled up victories in off-the-turf races at Fair Grounds Dec. 23 and Jan. 26 before an even seventh in the GII Risen Star S. in his stakes bow Feb. 25. From post 10 goes Mr. Prankster (It's No Joke), winner of the Turfway Prevue S. Jan. 7 and WEBN S. Feb. 4. He took a step backward in his latest, running fourth as the odds-on choice in the local John Battaglia Memorial S. Mar. 3.

HIGH STAKES:
Handicapping the week's biggest races
 with Brian DiDonato

GIII VINERY RACING SPIRAL S. - This race looks like a good spot for a longshot, and Stealcas (Lawyer Ron) fits the bill. The most interesting thing about him is a bit abstract, but bear with me. Stealcas, a $35,000 KEENOV weanling who RNA'd for the same price as an OBSAUG yearling, entered his Saratoga debut with a ton of hype. He had turned in an excellent eighth in :10 flat at OBSMAR (VIDEO), garnering a winning bid of $320,000, and everyone who had seen the breeze was expecting big things in his unveiling. The chestnut was backed down to 9-5 favoritism for that July 30 debut, but was a dull fourth. He filled the same slot in a key heat at Gulfstream Dec. 24--again as the favorite--and graduated on the stretch-out Jan. 19 with a 79 Beyer. He was a decent sixth last time in the GIII Gotham S. Mar. 3 after breaking poorly, but still hasn't come close to living up to his early reputation. There's a very good reason why Stealcas might finally live up to the hype here at Turfway, though. It's important to note that his breeze at OBS was over the synthetic Safetrack surface, and this will be the first time in his racing career that he's been on another all-weather track. Doesn't it seem logical that maybe he was a synthetic horse all along? There's at least a decent chance that that's the case, and considering he doesn't need to move up too much as it is to contend with this bunch, you're certainly getting the right price to hold that opinion. Half of Stealcas's lone sibling's wins have come on synthetic surfaces, which certainly doesn't hurt his cause either. Trainer Mark Casse's success adding blinkers is another positive angle. According to DRF Formulator, the conditioner boasts a gaudy $3.67 ROI over the past season (5/21 24%) in the 'blinkers on' category, which includes Prospective's recent victory in the GII Tampa Bay Derby. Prospective moved up eight Beyer points from his top with the hood--a similar improvement from Stealcas may very well win this, but if he runs on this surface like he did at OBS, he could perform even better.

NEWSDAD, SIMMARD: ROUND 2

After 11 furlongs, it took a photo to separate Simmard (Dixieland Band) and Newsdad (Arch) in the grassy GII Mac Diarmida S. at Gulfstream Feb. 26, with the former getting the call by a nose. Now the pair face off again, this time adding another panel in the 1 1/2-mile GII Pan American S. at Gulfstream. Simmard was registering a breakthrough victory Mac Diarmida after running second by a neck in the GI Northern Dancer S. at Woodbine last September and by a half-length in the GII W.L. McKnight H. at Calder Nov. 26. Trainer Roger Attfield thinks the veteran is just hitting his best stride at the age of seven. "He simply got better with age, as some do," Attfield commented. "It's really just been the last year to year and a half that he found his best form." Newsdad has shown flashes of brilliance in his career, but has yet to put it all together in a graded event. The James Karp colorbearer won off by 6 3/4 lengths in a wire-to-wire win in a Gulfstream optional claimer Jan. 28, but showed his versatility by coming from off the pace in the Mac Diarmida. He's reunited with Julien Leparoux.

Older horses need more Grade I races

‘LOVE’ & ‘LINGERIE’ IN BOURBONETTE

Newtown Anner Stud's More Than Love (More Than Ready), already a graded stakes winner on the lawn, gets a new test as she tries to transfer that form to Turfway's Polytrack in today's GIII Bourbonette S. And a tough test it will be. The John Terranova-trained filly broke her maiden by a length in a 1 1/16-mile maiden on the grass at Belmont last October, then shipped to California to get her nose down in the GIII Miesque S. at Hollywood Nov. 25. She got away with dawdling fractions in the Florida Oaks at Tampa Feb. 4, but just failed to last when second by a nose. Now, she spots her rivals from four to six pounds, and could be a susceptible favorite if bettors indeed follow Mike Battaglia's morning line. Gary Barber and Eclipse Thoroughbreds's In Lingerie (Unbridled's Song) makes a circuitous return to Florence. She aired by 6 1/4 lengths in an impressive debut victory here Jan. 14 under the care of trainer Stephen Lyster. Sold privately to current connections and transferred to Todd Pletcher in Florida, she ran a solid second to the impressive Zo Impressive (Hard Spun) in a one-mile allowance Feb. 25. Venetian Sonata (Bernardini), full-sister to GSW Wilburn, could spice up the exotics at a big price.

WOODS DUO SHARES FASIG BULLET

A pair of juveniles from the consignment of Eddie Woods shared the furlong bullet work of :10 flat during yesterday's under-tack preview of Fasig-Tipton's Florida Sale of Selected Two-Year-Olds in Training at Palm Meadows Training Center in Boynton Beach, Florida.

The results were no surprise to Woods. "We were expecting them both to work fast and they did," he said. "We had high expectations for both coming in, they made the trip and worked up to our expectations."

The first to record the bullet time was hip 67, a son of Lion Heart out of Obligation North (Valley Crossing). The bay colt was a $25,000 Keeneland November weanling and sold last September at Keeneland for $115,000.

"He is a beautiful horse," Woods said yesterday. "He is a big scopey horse with a lot of air underneath him. He looks like a classy horse."

Working in the second of four sets yesterday, hip 65, a daughter of Malibu Moon out of More Than Pretty (More Than Ready), earned the co-bullet with her :10 flat drill.

"She is a very typical Malibu Moon," Woods commented. "She's a very American-looking filly, very quick. She's a great mover."

The filly was a $90,000 Keeneland September purchase.

A Well-Attended Affair

The under-tack show got underway at 10 a.m. yesterday, under a brilliant blue sky and temperatures in the mid-70s. The temperature topped out at 80 degrees during the final set of workers and, according to Woods, the Palm Meadows track played true all day.

"For us, the track was very fair," Woods said. "After maybe the first or second, I could have told you exactly how each of ours would work and they did exactly that. I think the wind picked up a little later in the day, but it was coming out of the southeast, coming over your right shoulder instead of right into you, and it was only about 5-6 miles per hour, so I don't think it made that much of a difference."

This is the second year that Fasig has held its Florida sale at Palm Meadows and Woods was one of many singing the venue's praises.

"Palm Meadows is a fabulous place to sell," the Irishman said. "It is a luxury, from the track to the facilities and the barns. It's first class."

The under-tack show attracted a near capacity crowd in the grandstand area, with the regular cast of characters, including John Moynihan and Barbara Banke of Stonestreet Stable, WinStar's Elliott Walden, West Point Thoroughbred's Terry Finley, Godolphin's John Ferguson, EQB's Patti Miller and Jeff Seder, and Peachtree Stable's John Fort, as well as bloodstock agents Steve Young, David Ingordo, Doug Cauthen, and Debbie Easter, all taking shelter from the sun in Fasig's temporary grandstand in front of the track's finish line.

Among those who braved the sun, Ben McElroy and Gerry Dilger camped out along the rail just past the finish line and Coolmore's Demi O'Byrne taking in the action closer to the turn.

Trainers were well-represented at the preview, with Dale Romans, Steve Asmussen, Jim Bond, Chad Brown, Eddie Kenneally, Kiaran McLaughlin and Patrick Biancone all in attendance. Todd Pletcher watched the show from a spot just below the clocker's stand.

When the works wrapped up shortly after 3 p.m., Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning declared the day a success.

"I think it went very, very well," Browning said. "I thought we had a very consistent racetrack from start to finish. It looked like horses got across the racetrack very well and consistently from start to finish. You couldn't hear a sound at all on the racetrack all day long. And that is what you hope to have happen at an under-tack show."

Unlike last year when the bullet was a blistering :9 3/5, no horse broke the 10-second barrier Friday. Browning thinks that slower works is an increasing trend at 2-year-old sales.

"I think that is something that we're seeing in the 2-year-old sales, the men and women who are presenting horses for sale are presenting horses that have pedigrees and have physical conformations that are designed to win important races at a mile, mile and an eighth, and hopefully a mile and a quarter, rather than a horse that will win first time out going four and a half," he explained. "As a result, you would expect the times to be not as bullet fast across the board. So I think that's a trend that we're seeing at all the 2-year-old sales."

There is No Place Like Home

The Florida sale's new home at Palm Meadows has given trainers based at the Boynton Beach facility the chance to watch sales horses over the course of several days and they are taking advantage.

"You get a chance to see the horses every day, sometimes you make a literal note in a book, sometimes it's just a mental note," trainer Rick Violette explained. "But it's more accessible to go over to where the consignors are, and they're going to have so much work to do Saturday and Sunday. That's probably the best thing [about having the sale at Palm Meadows]. But our approach is pretty much the same--they still have to perform today [at the under-tack show] and cool out well, look good, and have some pedigree."

Trainer Dale Romans agreed. "I think it's an edge anytime you can watch them gallop," he said. "You can see as much galloping as you can breezing, sometimes more."

Dale Romans

Boyd Browning said the sales company is more than happy with its new home.

"We love the facility," he said. "I think it is as good a facility as there is in the world, for both horses and humans, especially horses. Horses thrive while they are here. It's a great facility and you have got a bunch of the top owners and trainers in the world that are used to horses working here and understand the relevancy of the times from seeing their other top horses working at this racetrack throughout the winter and spring. I think it's a great facility for a 2-year-old sale."

Inside Information...

There are plenty of the usual names among the consignors at this year's Fasig-Tipton Florida Sale, but making its first appearance on the list is the Texas-based Inside Move operation helmed by Bethe Deal. Born and raised in the Lone Star State, Deal is the great-granddaughter of Emerson Woodward, an oilman and horse owner who campaigned 1941 Kentucky Oaks winner Valdina Myth, and was later named to the Texas Horse Racing Hall of Fame. She is the daughter of Robert Woodward, and began managing his farm in 1990. She is currently based on a 100-acre farm in Sabinal, Texas, and also owns a farm in Louisiana not far from New Orleans.

Bethe Deal

"I rode hunters and jumpers growing up," said Deal. "As for the racehorses, I thought I'd try it, so bought a couple of horses, and it went well for me."

Deal soon branched out into pinhooking. "I really enjoyed going out and looking at the babies," she explained. "Watching them develop into something--I love that aspect of it. You're always hoping for the diamond in the rough."

Deal keeps an open mind when going over the offerings at yearling auctions, but has a few ground rules. Cont. p10

"Conformation is the first thing, and then it depends on if I like their attitude, how they present themselves," she said. "The good horses just have a class about them."

Like many pinhookers, Deal has been attempting to emphasize quality over quantity.

"This [past] year, I didn't buy as many as I have before," she said. "There were five total, and I tried to get the nicer ones. Right now, with the way things are, you've got to have something that people want to come look at."

Inside Move will has a pair of colts slated to sell Monday. Hip 3 is a colt from the first crop of champion Midnight Lute (Real Quiet) that was acquired for $90,000 at FTKOCT, and hip 113 is a son of Flashy Bull--The Wrong Face (Marlin) that Deal paid $200,000 at FTKJUL. Deal conceded that wasn't an insignificant amount, but felt he was the real deal.

"I thought he was a beautiful animal, number one," she said. "I had three days of watching him and looking at him. So many of them get tired at the sales, but he just kept walking right on. I loved his attitude."

As Winston Churchill said, attitude is a little thing that makes a big difference. --MK

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ...AT THE SALES

"So far the horses have looked pretty good, there are a lot of good horses here. There always are and it looks like this year is no different. It's a good catalogue--always is. Fasig is first-class in everything they do."

Trainer Dale Romans

"We are probably showing a little bit more discipline in our buying [at this year's 2-year-old sales] and I think that is a good thing. It's always competitive, but we'll find out in the next couple of years how we did--that is the magic of our business. We just got here, our guys have been here all week, but it seems like there are a lot of horses that are breezing well. It is interesting because up in Ocala you have the synthetic track and here you have the dirt track, so we'll see over the next couple of days, but overall it's a great place to be."

Bodemeister Work a Perfect '10'...

GII San Felipe S. runner-up and ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Bodemeister (Empire Maker) got some unexpected company yesterday morning, as he was one of 10 horses who breezed virtually simultaneously just after the 8 a.m. renovation break. Working alongside his stablemate Splendid Fortune (Giant's Causeway), Bodemeister went a half-mile in a crisp :46.80 while the maiden Splendid Fortune covered the distance in :47.60. "When Bodemeister broke off, there must have been 10 horses breaking off at the same time," trainer Bob Baffert explained. "He [jockey Martin Garcia] got him behind and the horse came back filthy dirty, but he was fine. He couldn't have had a better work schooling today with the dirt hitting him." Bodemeister is a candidate for the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 7 or the GI Arkansas Derby Apr. 14.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

All Too Hard Unlikely for Slipper...

Patinack Farm's All Too Hard (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}), the half-brother to supermare Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) who has won his only two trips to the post to date, is increasingly unlikely to make an appearance in the G1 Golden Slipper S. two weeks from today, co-trainer Wayne Hawkes told Racing and Sports. He is expected to make his next appearance in the G2 Pago Pago S. at Rosehill next Saturday. "We'll run him on Saturday then we'll just see how he is and decide after the Pago Pago," Hawkes said. All Too Hard remains a well-backed 5-1 in ante-post wagering for the Slipper, but just three horses have completed the Pago Pago--Slipper double, and only Stratum (Aus) has accomplished it in the last 27 years. Should he miss the Slipper, All Too Hard could return a week later in the G1 AJC Sires' Produce S. over 1400 meters at Randwick before stretching out to a mile in the G1 Champagne S. Apr. 28.

Zenyatta Booked to Tapit for 2012...

After delivering a colt by Bernardini (A.P. Indy) a few weeks ago, Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) will visit another A.P. Indy-line stallion, Gainesway's Tapit (Pulpit), this breeding season, her owners Jerry and Ann Moss announced yesterday. "Zenyatta's pedigree is a great match to the A.P. Indy sire line, and in choosing Tapit, we think this will be a dynamic mating," her owners said in a release. "Her first mating was to Bernardini, a son of A.P. Indy, and we are thrilled with her colt." Tapit is the sire of three Breeders' Cup winners from his first four crops to race, including champion juveniles Hansen and Stardom Bound.

No Development at Newmarket...

Lord Derby's planned development of Newmarket's Hatchfield Farm yesterday reached a dead end after his appeal against the refusal of his application was turned down. Controversy has surrounded the scheduled building of 1,200 houses on the site, and the campaigners opposed to the development, which included Tattersalls, Darley and Godolphin, learned yesterday that they have won the day after the Secretary of State and planning inspector threw out the appeal. Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony commented, "This is the result that we were expecting and hoping for. It is a triumph for the town of Newmarket, for the racing industry and for common sense. Lord Derby's application to build 1,200 houses on Hatchfield Farm has been unanimously rejected by Forest Heath District Council Planning Committee, Newmarket Town Council and now by the planning inspector and the Secretary of State who should both be congratulated for acting so decisively and with such clarity. Their unequivocal decision must now be recognised as the end of the line for this wholly inappropriate development. We should also take this opportunity to thank Darley, Godolphin, Jockey Club Estates and Save Historic Newmarket as well as our MP Matthew Hancock all of whom have worked tirelessly to achieve this wonderful result."

NEW YORK

Fewer Scratches on Friday Aqueduct Card:

Eight horses were scratched prior to yesterday's card at Aqueduct, considerably less than the two prior days. On Wednesday, 18 of the 73 horses entered were scratched and 14 of the 71 entered on Thursday were scratched. There has been speculation that the inordinate amount of scratches is a direct result of the rash of breakdowns that occurred over the inner dirt track, which brought added attention to the dangers of racing and had Gov. Andrew Cuomo demanding that NYRA work overtime to put an end to the problem. According to the New York Daily News, NYRA is now requiring a steward to accompany the veterinarians on their morning rounds when they examine the day's starters. "The association vets are conducting their pre-race exams in the same manner as in the past," NYRA President and CEO Charlie Hayward said. "Wednesday and Thursday, there were a few more NYRA vet scratches, but more of the increase came from the vets employed by the trainers. Things seem to have normalized on [Friday's] card."

Fair Grounds to Offer 18-Race, Closing Weekend Card:

Fair Grounds was forced to cancel its Thursday card this week after heavy rains, but the New Orleans track is making up for it in a big way. Fair Grounds announced that it is holding a record 18-race program next Friday, Mar. 30, previously scheduled to be a "Starlight Racing" card. First post has been pushed up to 12:40 p.m., though the Starlight Racing events on that date--a college sports-themed party with music by Groovy 7 and DJ Kemistry--will begin as originally scheduled at 5 p.m. The Starlight party will carry on in the Clubhouse until 11 p.m. Fair Grounds will conclude its 2011/2012 meet with the $1 million GII Louisiana Derby, to be held Sunday, Apr. 1.

Comedero Forced From Hot Springs With Fever:

Star Arkansas-bred Comedero (Posse) will be scratched from today's $75,000 Hot Springs S. at Oaklawn after spiking a fever, trainer Michael Stidham reports. The 5-year-old gelding, a 10-time stakes winner and hero of the 2010 GIII Chick Lang S. at Pimlico, is four-for-four at Oaklawn and would have been the prohibitive favorite against open competition. "It stinks because he was doing really good," said the Fair Grounds-based Stidham, who trains the horse for owner Peter Redekop. "They went to pull him out [Friday] morning and his temp was 102 degrees. We're treating him there and maybe we will send him straight on to Keeneland in a couple days, because we're leaving [Fair Grounds] right now."

Chips All In kicked off his career three-for-three for trainer Adam Kitchingman and owner Danny Valdez, and a majority interest in the colt was purchased after he annexed Arapahoe Park's Gold Rush Futurity in August. The bay dropped a close one in Golden Gate's Golden Nugget S. in November in his first try for Jeff Mullins, and he took to the turf to annex the course-and-distance Eddie Logan S. Dec. 31. The bay was coming off a well-beaten try on the main track in the GII Robert B. Lewis S. Feb. 4. Pestered by recent Baffle S. winner Tones throughout, Chips All In dug in gamely in the lane and refused to relinquish his advantage. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

6:17p HRTV 10th-FG, $49K, Alw/Opt Clm ($50K), N1X, 3yo, 6f Bourbon Lane Stable and Wayne Lynn's BOURBON COURAGE (Lion Heart) was ignored on debut here Feb. 3, but turned in a monster effort at 15-1 to score by 4 1/4 lengths with a 103 Beyer Speed Figure. That figure was the second-highest earned by a 3-year-old this year, and the sky may very well be the limit for this Kellyn Gorder trainee. Jerry Durant's Macho Macho (Macho Uno) was sixth, beaten 16 lengths by Bourbon Courage in what was also his unveiling, but the grey returned to score here Feb. 25 by 2 1/2 lengths in a sharp effort. Out of a daughter of GISW Fantastic Look (Green Dancer) and a half to GISW Designed For Luck (Rahy), the $160,000 KEESEP yearling is the only runner in this field who is Triple Crown nominated. SISTER MOON (f, 3, Dixie Union--Shimmer, by Pulpit) was a shoe-in for ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ status when she romped by 9 3/4 lengths first out at Del Mar Aug. 21, earning a 92 Beyer Speed Figure and breaking the 5 1/2-furlong track record. The homebred returned over this track and trip for the Oct. 22 Anoakia S., and was a decent second to undefeated Ismene (Tribal Rule). Backed all the way down to 1-9 with the defection of fellow "Rising Star" Mamma Kimbo (Discreet Cat), Sister Moon took it to Wobegon (Saint Anddan) early from the two path through splits of :21.22 and :43.53. She inched clear around the home bend, and cruised to the wire under a hand ride to score by 5 1/2 lengths. British import Hidden Passion (Elusive Quality) grabbed second from Wobegon. earned the ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ distinction at Hollywood Nov. 13, he was beaten 2 1/4 lengths by recent GIII Rebel S. winner Castaway (Street Sense) going 8 1/2 furlongs Jan. 21. Holy Candy was coming off a head defeat at the hands of GIII Sunland Derby entrant Stirred Up (Lemon Drop Kid) Mar. 3, and was off at 1-2 here. Loping along early behind loose-on-the-lead Eaton Hall (El Corredor), the heavy favorite swung wide in the lane and took a few strides to get going before unleashing a powerful late rally to blow by the front-runner and hand him a 3 1/2-length defeat. Holy Candy got his final quarter in :23.05, and put some 15 lengths on his competition during the gallop-out. "We've thought all along he was our best 3-year-old and it was nice to see him finish and gallop out the way he did today," said trainer John Sadler. "In his last couple of races, things have kind of worked against us. We caught a sealed track a couple races back and we've just felt that he needs to be able to make a quarter-mile run." In terms of a next spot, the conditioner said, "We'll look at some graded stakes, including the [Apr. 7 GI] Santa Anita Derby. We're definitely thinking about getting the [graded] earnings he'd need to run in the Kentucky Derby." Holy Candy is out of an unraced daughter of GI Ashland S. winner Lunar Spook (Silver Ghost). He is the middle of five full-brothers--5-year-old Halloween Candy, a $119,000 earner, is the only other one to race. Pegram Re-elected to TOC Board; Incumbents Do Well:

The Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) yesterday announced the results of its 2012 Board of Directors election. Incumbents performed well, with eight of 10 retaining their seats in an election that saw 30 candidates vie for 15 openings. Leading the way was TOC Chairman Mike Pegram. The successful owner and breeder was overwhelmingly re-elected with 1,352 votes, by far the largest winning margin over the next candidate. The others who were elected, listed in order of votes received, were: Kathy Walsh*, John Sadler*, Bob Baffert, Ed Moger, Ron McAnally*, Madeline Auerbach, Mark Dedomenico, Dennis Cardoza, Pablo Suarez, Mike Harrington*, George Todaro*, Mike Wellman*, George Krikorian*, and Jack Owens. Those with asterisks next to their names are newly elected; the rest were incumbents. The top five vote getters are elected to serve three-year terms; the second five vote getters two-year terms; and the final five vote getters one-year terms. The newly elected board will be seated at the TOC's April board meeting. The vote was tallied by TrueBallot. The TOC reported that an "astounding" voter turnout of nearly 30% was realized. "I'm very proud of our TOC members, who really stepped up to the plate and voted in record numbers for this election," said Pegram. "They have elected an impressive group of individuals to represent them at a very important time. We truly appreciate the participation of all 30 of this year's candidates. And we look forward to working with the newly elected board members toward a productive 2012 and beyond."

Poll: 3/4 of Ontarians Approve of Slots at Racetracks:

As horse tracks in Ontario fight to keep revenue generated by VLTs, a new survey conducted by Forum Research on behalf of the Ontario Horse Racing Industry Association (OHRIA) shows that nearly three-quarters of Ontarians back the program known as "Slots at the Racetracks." According to the survey, 74% approve of the program, while 61% approve of the specific terms of the current deal the government has with Ontario's horse racing tracks. The vast majority, 84%, say it is important that the 60,000 jobs connected to Ontario's racing and breeding industry stay in the province, and 31% say it is "extremely important." The tracks currently receive 20% of slot revenues, a figure 43% thought was the right percentage, although 30% thought the figure is too low. "It is clear Ontarians understand the importance of Ontario's horse racing and breeding association and that they want their government to act to protect this industry," said Sue Leslie, president of OHRIA. "We hope the government will commit to honoring the existing contracts through 2015 and developing a sustainable way forward for the industry so that we can continue generating more than $1.1 billion dollars per year for healthcare." ITALY

MERANO HITS TROUBLE

Merano racecourse could be in danger of closure after Italy's ruling body failed to deliver vital funding, the Racing Post reported yesterday. The track's redevelopment scheme is short by €10 million and Luis Durnwalder, the president of the province of Bolzano, where Merano is situated, explained, "Unfortunately, the government does not have any extra money for horse racing. This €10 million had been promised by UNIRE/ASSI who run horse racing in Italy, but it has not been forthcoming and so the work to redevelop Merano is unable to be completed. Without that additional funding to finish work on the facilities and with ASSI looking to cut Merano's fixtures, there is very little incentive to maintain Merano as a racecourse and the site could be used for other things." Renowned for its jumping fixtures and flagship steeplechase the Gran Premio Merano, the track also plays host to the Listed Premio Terme di Merano.
