DISORDER IN THE DERBY

It might have been fitting, but it certainly wasn't expected, that the 99th running of the GII Louisiana Derby would be won by a 99-1 shot. That unsung runner, Raut LLC's Hero of Order (Sharp Humor), was let go at 109-1 to be exact, but he defied those odds to hold off favored Mark Valeski (Proud Citizen) by a diminishing half-length and secure a career best for owner/trainer Gennadi Dorochenko. California invader Rousing Sermon (Lucky Pulpit) ran on late from the back of the pack to be third. "You see, I brought not expensive horses, but I make these horses expensive," quipped

Dorochenko, a Russian immigrant who purchased Hero of Order for just $3,000 as a KEESEP yearling. Singing high praises of rider Eddie Martin, Jr., who was winning his home track's centerpiece for the first time, he added, "Eddie is the best jockey. We are around horses together, I give him chance. A lot of jockeys have ridden [Hero of Order] and everything but he does exactly what I tell him, he wins."

GRAND SLAM DEAD AT 17

Grand Slam (Gone West--Bright Candles, El Gran Senor) died Saturday at Ashford Stud in Kentucky due to heart failure, according to a statement issued by Coolmore. He was 17. Trained by D. Wayne Lukas and owned by Robert and Christina Baker, William Mack and David Cornstein, the son of fellow Lukas-trained MGSW and MGISP Bright Candles kicked off his juvenile campaign with a track-record setting 11-length romp going 5 1/2 furlongs at Belmont Park in July. Later that fall, the bay added victories in the GI Champagne S. and GI Futurity S. before failing to finish in a problem-laden running of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. At three, he added a score in the GII Peter Pan S., finished second in the GII Swaps S. and GII Jerome H. and was also third in the GI Haskell Invitational H. The Overbrook Farm bred rounded out his sophomore campaign, and his career, with a runner-up finish in the 1998 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. Cont. p8

Hero of Order wasn't the only horse to outrun his odds on Fair Grounds' closing day card Sunday. Nates Mineshaft (Mineshaft) followed in the footsteps of his sire to romp by 7 1/4 lengths the GII New Orleans H. at 9-1, while Gary and Mary West and trainer Chad Brown completed a successful weekend with Casino Host (Dynaformer)'s 10-1 victory in the GII Mervin H. Muniz Jr. Memorial H. The pick three connecting those three graded events paid a whopping $105,930 for a $2 investment.

An Unsung Hero...

Hero of Order switched back and forth between maiden special weight and maiden claiming company at various Midwestern venues until breaking through with a five-length success going six panels at this oval in try number nine Jan. 17. He was part of a very hot pace when fifth in the GIII Lecomte S. here Jan. 21, then was a close third in a Feb. 11 optional claimer before being thrown back into the deep end when fourth, beaten six lengths, behind El Padrino (Pulpit) and Mark Valeski in the Feb. 25 GII Risen Star S.

Hung a bit wide into the first turn here from the 11 post, Hero of Order chased fleet-footed sprinter Comisky's Humor (Sharp Humor) through splits of :23.39 and :47.71. He took over when the pacesetter dropped anchor on the far turn, and opened up about a length advantage turning for home. Fully extended and traveling with a very low head carriage as Mark Valeski beared down on him ominously, Hero of Order summoned all his heart, with some exuberant encouragement from Martin, to find the wire and blow up the tote. Despite appearing as if he had emptied out every ounce he had during the running of the race, the bomber opened up some five lengths on the rest of his foes on the gallop out.

"Well, he told me just to ride him and it worked," said Martin of the pre-race instructions he received from Dorochenko. "I was surprised I didn't get pressured more than I did. You know, I had my target in front of me and he just let me inherit the lead around the turn and off we went." Dorochenko said that Hero of Order would definitely go on to the May 5 GI Kentucky Derby. He is not Triple Crown nominated, and would have to be supplemented at draw time for $200,0000.

"He ran great. He tries hard," said rider Rosie Napravnik of the runner-up, who Daily Racing Form later reported lost a shoe during the running of the Louisiana Derby. "That other horse may have been counted out, but [Mark Valeski] runs well every time he runs. He's a lightly raced horse. I still have confidence going forward. He's a hard-knocking horse and he ran very well."

Huge Win for Dorochenko Barn...

Hero of Order's 109-1 upset in yesterday's GII Louisiana Derby shocked just about everyone but his trainer Gennadi Dorochenko. The Russian-born conditioner, who said he was surprised at his horse's big price, has been something of an enigma in racing and sales circles over the past few years. In both arenas, he's quietly made a name for himself as a man who works with quantity over quality. To wit, at the 2010 Keeneland September Sale--the same sale he purchased Hero of Order at for $3,000--Dorochenko signed for a whopping 122 horses for a total of $2,227,100. That equated to an average of $18,255. Dorochenko buys under the name Raut LLC.

Hodges Photography

Last summer at Arlington, Dorochenko had a good number of those purchases in his barn, and kept the racing office at the Chicago-area track happy with a strategy of running early and often. But while most of Dorochenko's wins came in claiming events, he did enjoy some success in stakes events. Last August, he sent out the filly Santina Dond (El Prado {Ire}) to a 31-1 surprise in the Hatoof S. on the Arlington Million undercard. In all, Dorochenko was represented by 440 starters in 2011. A total of 45 won (10.2%), with 34 seconds and 47 thirds. His runners earned $840,113, or roughly a third more than Hero of Order's Louisiana Derby payday.

Dorochenko, who stands 5'2", grew up around horses and was jockey in Krasnodar, a city of about 750,000 in Southern Russia, according to a profile by the Daily Racing Form's Marcus Hersh that ran last September. The 63-year-old came to the States in 1993, and reportedly lived on the streets for a time as he looked for work on the Santa Anita backstretch. He would go on to ride or train in Washington State, Delaware Park and in Northern California. In 2008, he began buying in earnest at Keeneland September, acquiring 25 horses for $206,700, and has continued to ramp up his participation since. He owns Hero of Order with his wife, Irina.

Nates Mineshaft had proven the ultimate horse for course during this Fair Grounds meet, but some out-of-town invaders allowed the 5-year-old ridgling to sneak under the radar yet again here. Transferred to trainer Austin Smith from Martin Rosado off a fourth-place run in the Evangeline Downs Mile H. last August, Nate's Mineshaft didn't look much like a Grade II winner when fourth in a Turfway optional claimer in December. He was dropped in for a $25,000 tag in an 8 1/2-furlong off-the-turfer here Dec. 28, and his connections were surely breathing sighs of relief when the bay returned to his stall following a 4 3/4-length breakthrough success. A similar performance followed Jan. 19, but Nates Mineshaft was completely ignored in the GIII Mineshaft H. here Feb. 25. As the longest shot of six horses at 13-1, the frontrunner annexed the race named for his sire--who took this event in 2003--by 2 3/4 lengths with a career-best 98 Beyer Speed Figure.

Emerging with the lead after a hotly contested early shuffle for position, Nates Mineshaft doled out splits of :23.21, :46.86 and 1:11.18 over a track that appeared to be lightning-quick all day. He showed no signs of slowing entering the stretch despite his early exertions, and the bay strode out beautifully after a few rein shakes from pilot Jessie Campbell to leave title defender Mission Impazible in his dust and lower the track record set by Phantom On Tour in the 1998 Mineshaft, by 2/5 of a second.

"You are seeing a horse that has just been blossoming," said Campbell. "I tried to take him back and he wasn't having any of it. He wanted to run. That's where his mind is--full of confidence." He continued, "When I hit the half-mile pole, I mean, this horse was still in my hands, he was still kind of pulling on me a little bit. You know he's just full of run like the other day. I cannot say enough of [trainer] Austin Smith and what he has done with this horse. You just don't see this happen every day. Austin Smith and his team, his wife, the grooms, unbelievable."

Nates Mineshaft and Campbell turn for home with the lead Lou Hodges

Smith, who was winning the biggest race of his career, added, "He kind of got a breather when he opened up down the backstretch. He likes this track. When I first got him, I didn't train him hard. A lot of work has been done on him and he's really changed a lot. This was awesome. This is a replay I'll love to watch." Smith continued, "I'm happy for the horse. Nehro Misses New Orleans; Heads to Oaklawn H'cap...

Zayat Stables' Nehro (Mineshaft), runner-up in last season's GI Kentucky Derby, was forced to miss yesterday's New Orleans H. after tying up shortly following training at Fair Grounds Saturday. "He came back tied up [from his exercise Saturday morning]," confirmed Ahmed Zayat. "He's fine right now. We're very cautious with him, obviously, because he's a very nice colt. We want to err on the right side, so we decided the right thing to do is to make sure he's 100%..Because he wasn't going to be 100% by the race, [trainer Steve Asmussen] and I decided that he needed every chance to show what he's made of so we decided to scratch him" As for what might come next for the dark bay, Zayat said, "The next logical step would be the [GII] Oaklawn H., which is Apr. 14. We will ship him, hopefully, [Monday], whenever he gets well, and breeze him there on Wednesday and go from there." Also runner up in last year's GI Arkansas Derby and GI Louisiana Derby, the colt kicked off 2012 with a 7 1/4-length romp in a Feb. 25 allowance. "We believe he's actually much better than last year when he was a very nice, late-developing colt, " added Zayat. "But he's actually doing much, much better and working much, much better. He's much more focused. We were very happy with where he was at and believed he would have run very, very big."

Casino Host Caps Hot Roll for Wests/Brown...

Gary and Mary West and trainer Chad Brown captured Saturday's GIII Appleton S. at Gulfstream with the progressive 4-year-old colt Corporate Jungle (Giant's Causeway), and struck again in Sunday's Muniz with another improving 4-year-old in Casino Host. After breaking his maiden last May, Casino Host raced in most of the premier turf events for 3-year-old colts, and while he never embarrassed himself, he wasn't a serious threat in most of them, either. A close-up third in the GII Virginia Derby at Colonial in July, he then ran fifth in the GI Secretariat S. at Arlington in August and was sixth in the GI Jamaican H. at Belmont in October. At 16-1 in the GI Hollywood Derby in his seasonal finale Nov. 27, he finished sixth again, beaten 2 1/2 lengths by Ultimate Eagle (Mizzen Mast). Facing non-graded company for the first time in five starts in his latest, he came through with a confidence-boosting score over Gulfstream first-level allowance foes Feb. 4, and carried that confidence forward into this.

Taken back under John Velazquez, the $290,000 KEESEP yearling settled into an ideal mid-pack position as Mr. Vegas (Freud) got to the half in a modest :50.04. Casino Host began inching up on the outside after three quarters in 1:14.39, and was one of four or five in with a chance in upper stretch as they fanned out. At the sixteenth pole, he and Papaw Bodie emerged as the final holdouts, and with the wire approaching, asserted gamely. "I talked to Chad this morning, and he wanted me to give the horse a good run up and put him into the pace and don't let him too far back, and at least have somebody in front of him," said Velazquez. "If he's too far back at the eighth pole he is not going to catch them. If he's close enough, within two lengths, he is going to finish. He was right. He was right there on the money, and when I asked [Casino Host], he responded and put a good fight down the lane."

Moonwalk in Paris bettered runner-up finishes at Longchamp and Bordeaux with a Dec. 16 conditions score on Deauville's Fibersand strip, and opened this campaign in winning style on Chantilly's Polytrack last time Mar. 3. He was held up last of the seven runners until taking closer order off the home turn switched back to turf in this stakes bow. Drifting left when making his bid passing the 300-meters pole, the eventual winner kept on strongly under mainly whipless urging, but had to survive a stewards' enquiry before celebrating a career high. "Moonwalk in Paris hasn't stopped improving since last year and that was his first race on a left-handed course," said Jean-Claude Rouget. "We like to use waiting tactics with him, because he's kind of stiff and needs to warm up before making his move. The next logical step is the [May 1 G2] Prix du Muguet [back here] and, if all is well, he will come back for that."

Gemologist Works for Wood...

WinStar's undefeated Gemologist (Tiznow) breezed five furlongs at Palm Meadows Training Center yesterday in his final serious work before Saturday's $1-million GI Wood Memorial S. at Aqueduct. The Todd Pletcher-trained colt stopped the clock in 1:00.44 under exercise rider Hector Ramos, the fastest of six workouts at the distance. "I was really, really pleased," said Pletcher. "He was going well, in hand, throughout." Gemologist is coming off an eye-catching return to the races in a one-mile Gulfstream allowance Mar. 16, where he blitzed the competition, including GI Hopeful S. hero Currency Swap (High Cotton), by seven lengths. The $310,000 KEENOV weanling went three-for-three last year, following a debut win at Turfway in September with an allowance score at Churchill in October. In his stakes debut and seasonal finale, he beat ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Ever So Lucky (Indian Charlie) by 1 3/4 lengths in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. under the Twin Spires in late November.

Big weekend, Big results, Big Blue

3/31 - GRACE HALL (KEESEP'10) wins the GII Gulfstream Oaks.

3/31 - SUMMER APPLAUSE (FTKJUL'10) comes in second by a whisker in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks and DISPOSABLE PLEASURE (FTKJUL'10) takes third.

4/1 - NATES MINESHAFT (FTKOCT'08) breaks the track record in the GII New Orleans H. at Fair Grounds.

"We came in with high hopes this winter, as he was undefeated as a 2-year-old with two wins at Churchill Downs," said Pletcher. "Because his return was delayed, he might have been a little under the radar for some, but certainly not for us. From a conditioning standpoint, I thought he got exactly what he needed [out of the comeback race]. Hopefully, he continues moving forwardly." Despite winning the Kentucky Jockey Club, Gemologist will need a good showing in the Wood if connections hope to make the starting gate for the GI Kentucky Derby. Before the weekend stakes action, he had only $103,855 in graded earnings, ranking 29th on the earnings list. Pletcher said Gemologist is scheduled to fly from Florida to New York on Wednesday.

Wood Hopefuls Breeze at Belmont...

GI Wood Memorial S. hopefuls Street Life (Street Sense) and The Lumber Guy (Grand Slam) both breezed yesterday over Belmont's training track in New York. The former, owned by Magnolia Racing Stable and Hidden Brook Farm, worked four panels in :48.10 (2/43), and galloped out five furlongs in a strong 1:00.71 under Junior Alvarado. "He did it easy, in hand, no problem," said Cherie DeVaux, assistant to trainer Chad Brown. "He breezes faster than he runs; he's got it figured out. He knows what he's doing. And, he came back well." Off the board in his debut at Gulfstream Jan. 5, Street Life was tabbed a ⚡ "TDN Rising Star" ⚡ when he made a dazzling late run from the back of the pack to graduate going two turns at Aqueduct Feb. 11. He unleashed a similarly impressive rally last time out when winning the 1 1/16-mile Broad Brush S. over the inner Mar. 17.

Barry Schwartz's undefeated The Lumber Guy, who will be looking to honor his recently deceased sire when making his third career start in the Wood, turned in a five-furlong breeze in 1:01.83. "He went in 1:01 and change and did most of it the last three-eighths of a mile, and the gallop out was good," said trainer Michael Hushion. "He went out [six furlongs] in 1:16. I thought it was fine. I'm happy with it. I think we're going to give [the Wood] a try." The New York-bred colt romped by 9 1/4 lengths over Empire-breds in a six-furlong maiden special at The Big A Jan. 28. He handled open company, and an added furlong, in the $75,000 Miracle Wood S. at Laurel Feb. 25, and Hushion said he's willing to see if the gray can handle two turns in the Wood. "He's just a man, kind of at the level where you'd like them to be: strong, a little bit of a bully, and he eats real good," said Hushion. "That's the way you want a horse like that to be, but he's not over the top, either. He's a nice horse to train."

Top Four Exit Florida Derby in Good Order...

The top four finishers in Saturday's GI Florida Derby-- Take Charge Indy (A.P. Indy), Reveron (Songandaprayer), Union Rags (Dixie Union) and El Padrino (Pulpit)--have all reportedly exited their efforts well and appear on their respective ways to Churchill Downs for the GI Kentucky Derby May 5. "It was pretty straightforward," Pat Byrne, conditioner of Charles and Maribeth Sandford's victor Take Charge Indy, reflected Sunday. "He broke sharp and [rider Calvin Borel] did a super job." Byrne added, "He's an awful fast horse.

Take Charge Indy Courtney Stafford

He's a good colt. You know, the racetrack was in great shape and there was no secret how the racetrack was playing. My horse has tactical speed and he's fast... I wouldn't call it a souped-up track. Horses were running on or close to the lead. My horse can be close or taken back. It worked out fine." Byrne said Take Charge Indy will ship from Florida to Churchill in about 10 days.

Michael Matz, trainer of favored third-place finisher Union Rags, said, "I think he ran his race, I just think they went slow the first part and there wasn't much we could do about it." He added, "I'm sure he got a lot of experience out of the race and, hopefully, [jockey Julien Leparoux] learned more about him too." Matz said that he had not finalized plans for Union Rags leading up to the Kentucky Derby yet. "We're going to be here [in Florida] for at least two weeks, then after that we're going to make the decision whether we go up to Keeneland, Churchill or stay here," he explained. "Those are three options and a lot depends on how the weather is. We'll play it by ear."

Bourbon Courage to Derby Trial...

Bourbon Courage Lou Hodges

Churchill Downs's one-mile GIII Derby Trial S. Apr. 28. The bay earned a gaudy 103 Beyer Speed Figure for a 4 1/4-length debut romp at Fair Grounds Feb. 3, and proved that effort was no fluke with a 6 3/4-length optional claiming success back in the bayou Mar.

24. The flashy colt could have an even bigger engagement if all goes well next time. "It's always best to take these things one race at a time," said Evan Downing, assistant to trainer Kellyn Gorder. "But if this horse runs as well in the Derby Trial as we think he could, obviously the [GI Preakness S. at Pimlico May 19] would be something to think about."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Havre de Grace Primes for Apple Blossom...

Defending Horse of the Year Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) was given her final preparatory move at Fair Grounds Sunday morning before shipping to Oaklawn to try and defend her title in the Apr. 13 GI Apple Blossom S. The Fox Hill Farm colorbearer breezed five furlongs in 1:02 2/5. The move was the 13th fastest of 26 at that distance.

"The work was good and about halfway up the worktab in terms of how fast it was," said trainer Larry Jones. "The main thing was letting her stretch her legs before putting her on the van for the ride up there."

Last year, Havre de Grace kicked off the season with a win over Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) in Oaklawn's GIII Azeri S. before taking the Apple Blossom as the co-high weight while toting 119 lbs. A winner in her first start of the 2012 season win the Mar. 17 New Orleans Ladies S., the 5-year-old can be expected to carry top weight once again in the Apple Blossom, but her connections hope for "a fair shake" in her next assignment.

"I know she's going to be the top-weight," affirmed Jones. "She better be the top-weight, she's earned it. We just don't want to take a pounding in the weights and we want the spread to be fair. I'm sure it will work out, because I know Mr. [Charles] Cella understands these things. I was in there against Zenyatta [in 2010] when Mr. Cella did all he could to get her to come to the Apple Blossom. He changed the distance for her and that was something that helped get her there. Now, I'm not saying we're Zenyatta or that we deserve that, but Oaklawn is a place that wants to see horses like her run and I think that's going to help us get a fair shake."

Nominations for the Apple Blossom, which closed Mar. 31, will be released Wednesday. Weight assignments will be announced Saturday. Others expected to be nominated are last year's GI Kentucky Oaks winner Plum Pretty (Medaglia d'Oro), MGISW It's Tricky (Mineshaft), MSW Absinthe Minded (Quiet American) and this year's Azeri winner Tiz Miz Sue (Tiznow).

Ganay Option for Aigles...

Trainer Corine Barande-Barbe is looking at the Apr. 29 G1 Prix Ganay for Saturday's G1 Dubai Sheema Classic hero Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}). Following the 6-year-old's neck defeat of St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the 12-furlong contest at Meydan, he looks set to resume domestic duties in Longchamp's mile-and-a-quarter feature. "His next race could maybe be the Prix Ganay," his conditioner told PA Sport. "There are not that many Group 1 options for him in France. The horse is very well this morning. I went to see him and it is like he only had a walk yesterday. He's really fantastic. The G1 Prince of Wales's S. and the King George are possibilities--I won't make any decisions now as I want to appreciate his win and see him when he is back home. Things will work themselves out."

Horse-racing industry laments move to scrap Slots at Racetracks program "Ontario Finance Minister Dwight Duncan was messing with a lot of hearts, and a lot of livelihoods, when he delivered a budget last Tuesday that proposed to scrap the Slots at Racetracks program that helped shore up the racing industry as lotteries and casinos changed the gaming culture over recent decades." Jim Coyle, Toronto Star

Florida Derby Day Breaks Handle, Attendance Records:
Edited Press Release

Gulfstream Park set new standards on Saturday's Florida Derby Day for attendance and on-track and total handle. Total handle on Gulfstream's program, which included seven stakes races worth $1.9 million, including the 61st running of the GI Florida Derby, was $24.615 million, eclipsing the mark set last year on Derby Day of $19.759 million. The figure represented an increase of 24.58%. On-track handle Saturday at Gulfstream was $2.982 million, breaking the record set last year of $2.242 million--an increase of 32.98%. Meanwhile, attendance on Florida Derby Day was approximately 18,000, surpassing the previous mark set last year of approximately 14,500. "The energy and excitement in our facility Saturday was extraordinary," said Gulfstream President and General Manager Timothy Ritvo. "The weather was perfect, the quality of racing was unparalleled, our jockeys and horses all returned safely, and our fans had a wonderful experience. Record-setting days like Saturday celebrate the vision of our Chairman, Mr. Frank Stronach."

Star Guitar, defending champ in this event and looking for his ninth straight victory, became Louisiana's leading state-bred runner with this determined victory. The classy veteran concluded his 2011 campaign with a win in the Dec. 10 Louisiana Classic S. at Fair Grounds and returned this term with a 3 1/4-length win in the Feb. 4 Louisiana Premier Night Championship S. Six wide into the first turn, Star Guitar rated in midpack behind a runaway leader. He came five wide into the lane and closed relentlessly to get a nose in front of Populist Politics with the late-flying Get in Da House just failing to catch the top two. "Well, first of all, I must say that there's no owner that could actually imagine that this happening to them," said winning owner Evelyn Benoit, who took the Kenner S. with Gantry (Pulpit) earlier on the card. "We worked very hard. This team of Al Stall and Pam Fitzgerald and the whole barn. They did an amazing job just to keep this horse in all conditions and this horse has run on every racetrack in this state and every kind of condition of heat, mud up to above his ankles, and I just want to say Pam and I always looked at each other and we knew...we never told this to anyone..he's simply the best and today we get to say he proved it. He deserves it. I'm thrilled. I love Louisiana. I'm so happy it happened here at the Fair Grounds." Trainer Al Stall paid tribute to Star Guitar in the winner's circle. "Well, he's a type of horse that gives you a lot of confidence going into a race," Stall said. "Honestly, I was a little worried going into the turn. He looked like he had to get him to run a little bit, which is unusual. I would have to say he ran his 'B' race or so, but he's just that kind of horse. He just overcomes the weight he is carrying, the wide trip. That's Star Guitar. That's why he is who he is." Benoit added that Star Guitar would likely make his next start at Churchill Downs in the GIII Alysheba S. on Kentucky Oaks day, a race in which he ran third in 2009. Look at the Time had finished first in each of his previous three starts, with the only blemish on his record coming via disqualification when he was placed fourth in his six-furlong debut Dec. 23. He officially graduated second-time out with a 2 3/4-length win over one mile and 70 yards Jan. 28 and was coming off a 3 1/4-length victory in his turf bow in the Feb. 25 Gentilly S. Back on the main track here, the bay gelding was taken in hand soon after the break and settled into mid-pack. Stuck behind a wall of horses in upper stretch, Look at the Time split rivals in the final furlong and powered clear under a hand ride. "This is fabulous," said winning rider Corey Lanerie. "This horse has a turn of foot that's unbelievable." Click for brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

NEW YORK

Dominguez to Return to Riding Friday:

Leading New York-based jockey Ramon Dominguez is expected to return to the saddle at Aqueduct Friday following a collarbone injury he suffered at that venue Mar. 18. "I'm feeling pretty good and am hoping to ride a few horses on Friday," said the Venezuelan native, who is scheduled to see a doctor Monday for final clearance to ride. "It's only been two weeks and I can feel big progress from one day to the next." Dominguez is expected to pilot Alpha (Bernardini) in Saturday's GI Resorts World Casino New York City Wood Memorial S. at the Ozone Park oval.

CALIFORNIA

CHRB Medication Committee to Hold Public Meeting:

The California Horse Racing Board Medication and Track Safety Committee will hold a public meeting Apr. 11 to discuss action and a number of proposals related to the safety of racehorses and the integrity of the sport. The meeting will begin at 2 p.m. in the Baldwin Terrace Room at Santa Anita. Among the issues to be discussed: allowing a claim to be voided if a post-race sample detects a prohibited drug substance; the impact of large purses on lower-level claiming races; whether to require six months of veterinary medical records for any horse that dies within the jurisdiction of the board; and the committee will discuss a proposal to add the drugs zilpaterol and ractopamine to the prohibited practices list. Dr. Sue Stover, head of the UC Davis' Veterinary Orthopedic Research Laboratory, will discuss a computer-based educational module for trainers explaining how and why racing and training injuries occur. The meeting's full agenda can be viewed at www.chrb.ca.gov.

Kesampour holds entries for the June 3 G1 Prix du Jockey Club and July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris, and the Aga Khan's homebred chestnut entered this trial for the former with a perfect tally. Comfortably on top in a one-mile maiden at this track Oct. 30, he trounced the opposition by five lengths and more stepped up two panels here again last time Nov. 22. Kesampour was sharp from the gate in this and led at a smooth rhythm from the outset. With his rivals toiling soon after turning for home, he was nudged to the line inside the final eighth to easily outclass the field. "Kesampour is obviously a good horse and he won in very good style again," enthused winning conditioner Mikel Delzangles. "He will probably improve more, but we have yet to decide which race will come next for him. Races like the [Apr. 23 G2] Prix Noailles [at Longchamp], the [May 5 G2] Prix Greffulhe [here] and the [May 13 G2] Prix Hocquart [at Longchamp] are all under consideration."

REINHARD DELIUS DEAD

Reinhard Delius, owner of Gestut Ravensberg, died last week, aged 89. Having taken over the management of the stud at the age of 23, he oversaw the breeding of three winners of the Deutsches Derby, including last year's hero Waldpark (Ger) (Dubawi {Ire}). Delius's son Johann-Henrich is now in charge of the establishment, which was founded by Delius's grandfather Paul Niemoller before the World War I.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.
