HANSEN READY FOR BLUE GRASS

Champion Hansen (Tapit) will take a ton of money this afternoon in the $750,000 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland. Having scored two impressive wins on Turfway's Polytrack last fall, the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero bounced back from his lone defeat to show a new dimension in stalking the pace en route to victory in the GIII Gotham S. last out Mar. 3. Trainer Mike Maker had the pale grey colt school at the Keeneland gate yesterday (video). "He stumbled in the [GIII] Holy Bull [Jan. 29], and in the Gotham he did not get away very well, but he behaved himself," Maker noted.

Should Hansen take home the $450,000 first-place check, he would be the richest Kentucky Derby starter in history, surpassing the $1,719,040 bankrolled by Snow Chief in 1986. Cont. p6

ARKANSAS BODES WELL FOR BAFFERT

Trainer Bob Baffert, whose entrants have been running lights out at Oaklawn this season, has a dynamic duo for the meet's marquee event, today's $1-million GI Arkansas Derby. Breeders' Cup Juvenile Sprint hero Secret Circle (Eddington) has stepped up to take the GIII Southwest S. and GII Rebel S., and stablemate Bodemeister (Empire Maker) jumped from a "TDN Rising Star" maiden win to run a game second in the GII San Felipe S. Mar. 10. Baffert will take the blinkers off the latter colt. "It's all new to him," the conditioner told Daily Racing Form. "He's shipping and running, so you never know how they're going to react to that. We're going to find out a lot about him. But he's been training well. He looks great. I expect him to run a big race." Cont. p5

'PLUM' BEST IN APPLE BLOSSOM

Fresh from winning Wednesday's GII Fantasy S. at Oaklawn with Mamma Kimbo (Discreet Cat), Peachtree Stable and trainer Bob Baffert teamed up once more with Plum Pretty (Medaglia d'Oro) Friday evening. Last year's GI Kentucky Oaks heroine was bet down to 1-2, and lived up to the billing with an easy win. "She's been working really well, and she ran like she's been working," said Baffert. The Hall of Famer will map out Plum Pretty's campaign upon her return to California Sunday. Cont. p3

MAKERS 4-1-1

Much of the pre-race focus of the GI Maker's 46 Mile at Keeneland centered on Grade I winners Get Stormy (Stormy Atlantic) and Turallure (Wando), but it was a longshot who took home the souvenir bottle. Data Link (War Front), rallying widest of all, forged past his more heralded rivals to win for owner/breeder Stuart S. Janney III. "I did think if we got to the quarter pole--if we weren't too far back--he would have a chance to catch up, because I thought he would kick," said winning trainer Shug McGaughey. Turallure, making his first since finishing second by a nose in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile, was runner-up once more. Cont. p4

After her determined victory in the GI Kentucky Oaks last May, Plum Pretty was second in her next two starts--the GII Hollywood Oaks and GI CCA Oaks--before finishing fourth in the GI Alabama S. to division champ Royal Delta (Empire Maker). She returned to her native Pennsylvania with a big win in the GII Cotillion S., but faded to fifth in her 2011 finale, the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic. Her return to action was made easier last week when the connections of defending champion Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) announced that they were skipping the contest due to the weight spread, and Plum Pretty settled into the catbird seat. She tugged her way up to lead approaching the stretch, and summarily put away her rivals before being hand-riden in the final furlong.

"She kind of came away from there on the wrong foot, but I think about it, and it was the best thing that happened," said winning rider Rafael Bejarano. "I saw the other filly get sent and that was good for me. She was great relaxing, and after a half-mile I felt in total control."

Plum Pretty's dam Liszy RNA'd for $725,000 when offered in foal to Lookin At Lucky at FTKNOV in 2011. Liszy has a 2-year-old Dixie Union filly and produced a Ghostzapper filly last April.

Data Link swept a pair of Gulfstream grass allowance races last winter and had trainer Shug McGaughey considering the GI Blue Grass S., but an issue with a hind ankle surfaced and forced the bay to the sidelines. Fourth in an overnight stakes over a soft Belmont turf course in his Oct. 28 return, the homebred regained the winning thread in a one-mile test at Gulfstream Dec. 4, and came into this contest off a close third to Doubles Partner in the GIII Canadian Turf H. at the Hallandale oval Mar. 3.

Breaking from the outside, Data Link and Alex Solis came away last and were content to caboose the small field as Get Stormy emerged with the early lead. Guided to the outside while drawing nearer on the far turn, Data Link had clear sailing, while Doubles Partner was forced to angle in when Get Stormy began to tire. The Janney colorbearer finished up best of all and was a neck in front at the wire. "He ran a good race to Doubles Partner, but it was just so hard to catch up at Gulfstream," McGaughey added. "After the race, I asked Alex, 'What about Keeneland?', and he said, 'I think he'll be fine there.'"

Data Link is out of stakes-winning Database (Known Fact), a full-sister to Vespers, the dam of Hymn Book (Arch), who captured the GI Donn H. earlier this year for Janney and McGaughey. Database has a pair of full-sisters to the Maker's 46 winner as her 2-year-old and yearling, and was bred to Afleet Alex late last spring.

While Baffert's pair looks very tough, there are several colts in this field that should appreciate the added distance. Bluegrass Hall's homebred Optimizer (English Channel) caught the eye when rallying for second behind Secret Circle in the Rebel (video), and a fast pace up front could see him post an upset. "He was flying, and we saw enough to give us hope for this one," trainer D. Wayne Lukas told Daily Racing Form.

Trainer Todd Pletcher has also shipped in two colts that are a bit under the radar here. Bortolazzo Stable's Stat (Unbridled's Song) bounced back from a rusty fourth in his 2012 opener to draw off by 6 1/4 lengths in a one-mile Gulfstream optional claimer Mar. 17 (video), and Dogwood Stable's Raconteur (A.P. Indy) got up just in time to take Laurel's Private Terms S. Mar. 17 (video). "In his last start, he settled well and really got to rolling down the lane," Pletcher told DRF. "He always tries, and he's a well-bred horse suited for the distance."

J. Kirk and Judy Robison's Isn't He Clever (Smarty Jones) ran a bang-up second in the Gill Sunland Derby three weeks ago, earning a 99 Beyer Speed Figure, and will race without blinkers this time. Trainer Henry Dominguez will see if his charge belongs in Louisville May 5. "He's got enough earnings that if we're at least third here, we'll get in to the Derby field," Dominguez said. "This is the first time we're really going to test him and find out what caliber he is. He's going to tell us a lot about where we need to run him going forward. Everybody says he's a second-tier horse--we really need to find out what kind of a horse he is."

Fast Scat

Quick, who has the highest lifetime Beyer Speed Figure in the Blue Grass field? You might have guessed

Scatman (rail) in the Southwest Coady Photography

Hansen, or one of the four other graded stakes winners in the race, but that distinction in fact belongs to Scatman (Scat Daddy). Having broken his maiden in a sprint over this surface in October while having his final start for Eddie Kenneally, the bay colt kicked off his tenure for Michael Lauer with an optional claiming score at Oaklawn Jan. 29 (video).

He then earned a 101 Beyer Speed Figure while running Secret Circle (Eddington) to a half-length in the faster division of the GIII Southwest S. Feb. 20 (video), and faced early pressure before winding up third to the same colt in the GII Rebel S. Mar. 17 at Oaklawn (video). It will be up to Shaun Bridgmohan to work out a good trip for the colt after drawing the 13 hole. Bruce Gibbs, who gave Scatman his early lessons for owner/breeders Jim and Ellen O'Grady of JEOG Racing, thinks the 3-year-old has room for improvement.

"He has been [racing] on the front end, but we believe he can settle and make a run from behind," Gibbs said. "He [has] won at Keeneland, and we're hoping no one tells him how far the Blue Grass is."

The Jenny Wiley was boosted to Grade I status for this year, and has drawn a talented group of six. Zagora

(Fr) (Green Tune) will be a deserving favorite. Winner of the GI Diana S. at Saratoga last summer, the chestnut annexed each of her starts at Tampa Bay over the winter, the GIII Endeavour Feb. 4 and GIII Hillsborough S. Mar. 10. "Both races have been excellent," said trainer Chad Brown. "She's come back as a 5-year-old even a little bit bigger and stronger than last year and a little bit faster, so we're excited about her this year." Aruna (Mr. Greeley) emerged from her runner-up finish in the Diana to capture the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. on Keeneland's Polytrack in October, and capped 2012 with a fifth--beaten just a length--in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf at Churchill Nov. 4. The Jenny Wiley will kick off a campaign that could take Aruna back to the championship event, which will be held at Santa Anita Nov. 3-4. "We plan to run her five times this year and hope to wind up at the Breeders' Cup," said trainer Graham Motion.

A MILLION REASONS WHY

If you put up the money, they will come. With a $1-million purse for the second straight year, the GII Charles Town Classic has pulled together runners from all parts of the country, though perhaps not the division's first string. The Arizona-bred Uh Oh Bango (Top Hit) is in career form. After capturing the GII San Pasqual H. at Santa Anita Jan. 7, the dark bay was second to Game On Dude (Awesome Again) in the GII San Antonio S. Feb. 5, and most recently rallied to be third in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 3. "I think he finally figured out how he likes to run, and I think the riders have started to figure him out," trainer Kory Owens told Daily Racing Form. The popular Tackleberry (Montbrook) ran fourth in last year's renewal, and was given a vacation following a ninth in the GI Met Mile. He resumed with a good second to Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno) in the GII Gulfstream Park H. Mar. 10, and trainer Luis Olivares thinks that will set his charge up perfectly. "I thought his comeback race was real good," Olivares told DRF. "He's ready for Saturday. "I think there is less speed than last year, and the track is playing real fast this year. It may help him. He doesn't have to be on the lead, he can lay second, too."

HANDICAP SHOWDOWN

Two of the top older horses in the country lock horns in today's GII Oaklawn H. Ron the Greek (Full Mandate) has taken his game to the next level since joining the Hall of Fame Bill Mott barn, finishing no worse than second in five attempts. The 5-year-old followed a strong second to Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno) in the $400,000 Florida Sunshine Millions Classic S. with a dominating win in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 3. Hymn Book (Arch) continues to get better with age as well. Second in last year's GI Cigar Mile H., the 6-year-old kicked off the season with a narrow victory in the GI Donn H. at Gulfstream Feb. 11, good for a 106 Beyer Speed Figure. Oaklawn Park horse-for-course Alternation (Distorted Humor) looks for his third straight victory in Arkansas after beginning the campaign with smart scores in the Essex H. Feb. 4 and the GIII Razorback H. Mar. 10. "We always felt he would be a better 4-year-old," trainer Donnie Von Hemel told Daily Racing Form. "He was a big colt, and just wasn't as precocious as horses you think of as being 2- or 3-year-old prospects. It was a matter of just not wanting to push the horse a couple times last year because sometimes if you push too hard with a 3-year-old, you won't have a 4-year-old season."

‘TRICKY’ TURN BACK

Godolphin’s It’s Tricky (Mineshaft) cuts back in distance to seven furlongs for today’s GII Distaff H. at the Big A. Last term’s GI Breeders’ Cup Ladies’ Classic runner-up kicked off her 4-year-old campaign with a win in the 1 1/16-mile GII Top Flight H. over the inner surface Mar. 3. She defeated Turbulent Descent (Congrats) going a one-turn mile in Belmont’s GI Acorn S. last June. “The seven-eighths is a turn back from the 1

1/16 miles of the Top Flight, but she ran a huge race at a mile around one turn at Belmont in the Acorn, and we’re pointing for the [GI] Ogden Phipps [going 1 1/16 miles] at Belmont May 28, which is also run around one turn,” trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said. Defending Distaff champ Nicole H (Mr. Greeley) had a two-race winning streak snapped when a close second in Laurel’s GII Barbara Fritchie H. Feb. 18. “We ran her back a little quick in the Barbara Fritchie, so we gave her some time and this worked out well,” trainer Mike Hushion commented. “She’s doing well--everything’s pretty straightforward with her, she’s not a quirky filly, very simple to train. I might prefer it to be six furlongs, but she’s run terrific going seven-eighths, too.”

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Lockinge Doubts for Frankel...

Khalid Abdullah's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe yesterday provided an update on the setback suffered by ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), describing the G1 Lockinge S. as "very unlikely" at this stage. The brilliant unbeaten colt is set to undergo a scan in Newmarket late next week after sustaining the injury during work Wednesday morning. Originally, the 4-year-old had been set to return in the May 19 mile contest, but this setback appears to have cancelled out that opportunity.

"He suffered this injury on Wednesday morning working on racecourse side. and he was found to be a bit sore and there was some filling in his right foreleg," Grimthorpe explained. "Henry [Cecil] thought originally that he might have struck into himself in the gallop, as he's a very exuberant and extravagant mover. The initial scan, which was done on a portable scan, showed no damage and no hole or lesion, which is positive and led us to believe and hope it was just a superficial or minor injury. But obviously, with a horse of this nature, or any horse actually, we have to be incredibly careful, especially with injuries of this type in this area. He's getting the best care he can get at the moment, and he'll go into the Equine Hospital in Newmarket and have a scan which will tell us definitely if there is any damage. There is no point in doing it earlier, because there is still some hemorrhaging which has caused the filling and that needs to dissipate. That will probably take about a week to clear, and after the scan we'll get good pictures on the scan and it will tell us if there is any damage at all.

"At the moment, we are still in the unknown, but we are all very hopeful for a positive outcome," Grimthorpe continued. "There will be nothing definitive until the end of next week. I think it would be too early to rule him out of Royal Ascot, but I would say that Newbury would be very unlikely. The horse will tell us, but he's going to miss a week, and the race is May 19, so it's all getting a bit tight. If he was right and recovered, I don't think Henry would want to rush him into Newbury, or even Royal Ascot if needs be. If he were right and we were happy with him, he would get into his normal program and we would race him when the best time came. There is no schedule as far as that goes. Prince Khalid has been owning horses for 40 years now, so he has experienced all the very highs and all the very lows. His mantra has always been that he wants to do the best for his horses. Frankel is a third-generation homebred, so it has never been a case of what is the cleverest or most commercial thing to do, but what is the best thing to do. His scan will probably be Friday, just to get a clear picture."

NYTHA Advances Medication Reform Proposal

Edited press release

The New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association has advanced a plan to reform medication policies. The five-point plan, first presented last year, is designed to address many of the issues that have recently brought criticism to the sport. "While we are hoping for industry-wide support for our proposal, our first obligation is to New York, and we believe the initiative should start here," NYTHA President Rick Violette Jr. said. "These exact points were presented to several industry organizations and leaders last year, only to fall on mostly deaf ears. This is the time to get on the bus, or move out of the way." New York is currently in compliance with one of the five points; the goal is that the plan will become a blueprint for medication policies in racing jurisdictions nationwide.

The five points of the plan are:

- A threshold of 2mcg of Bute (phenylbutazone) in post-race testing for all runners, not just graded stakes horses. Currently, the New York State Racing and Wagering Board rule mandates a 48-hour withdrawal for Bute for all horses.
- No "Adjunct" raceday medication allowed. "Adjunct" medications are used in some jurisdictions to prevent exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhage. They are not allowed in New York.
- A 15-day withdrawal for Depo-Medrol (methylprednisolone acetate). Four-day withdrawal for other corticosteroids.
- A 7-day withdrawal for clenbuterol. The current withdrawal period in New York is four days.
- Third-party administrators for raceday Lasix. Lasix will be administered by veterinarians hired by either the racetrack or the state. That is the current NYRA policy, but would become NYSRWB regulation.

The plan has been put before the New York State Racing and Wagering Board. In order for the medication reform proposal to be adopted, the NYSRWB must start the rule-changing process, which begins with a 45-day public comment period. Public hearings will be scheduled if there is opposition to the plan.

Triple Threats

Alpha Heading to Kentucky Monday

Godolphin's Alpha (Bernardini) emerged from his game second in last week's GI Wood Memorial S. with some lacerations, but will ship to Kentucky Monday for a tilt at the GI Kentucky Derby May 5. "He's got a gash on his leg that we just wanted to ultrasound and make sure it's fine, and everything is good," said Art Magnuson, assistant to trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. "He took a pretty hard knock coming into that first turn and to still run like he did, that was quite a race." The GIII Withers S. winner will van to the Bluegrass State. "Since it's Kentucky, we're just going to truck," said Magnuson. "We've had good luck doing that--box stall, overnight, he'll be fine. Going to and from Florida a lot of times we fly because there are planes available, and I'm sure there will be planes going to Kentucky, but we want to go when we want to go. So, we'll leave Monday afternoon, and he'll be there Tuesday morning."

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Fred Pope is an amazingly committed and passionate person to persevere with such common sense, perspective, and practicality over so many years while his voice and ideas have been all but ignored by those who wear the emperor's new clothes.

What could possibly sustain this man to speak out year after year in an effort to help our dysfunctional and leaderless "game" find direction and productive traction? We should create a special Eclipse Award for extraordinary life-time dedication to our industry and give it to Fred.

One more time (in his TDN letter of April 13) Fred has pointed out the obvious, and as of now, his observations and ideas have again been ignored by those who eventually will be judged for their ineffectual conduct and inaction while horse racing in America teeters on a tipping point and slides toward further decline in perception, reputation, and viability.

As Fred indicated, "I presented a viable strategy (click here) for TOBA to use, which does not require approval by the racing commissions, or any other body. It simply requires the racehorse owner to make the 2-year-old eligible for graded stakes status. A major part of the eligibility is to have the horse tested. If the horse meets the levels set by the International Federation of Horseracing Authorities (IFHA), then graded status is earned...making your horse eligible is an established strategy in North America."

Given that horse racing is under a microscope and the object of emotionally laden nation-wide scrutiny, the AGSC's recent decisions are numbing and dispiriting. AGSC members have illustrated that in the midst of complexity, the simplest solutions, paradoxically, can sometimes be the hardest to grasp and implement.

The AGSC's failure to provide meaningful leadership, however, provides an opportunity for Breeders' Cup officials to grab the reins and lead by example. Because it is positioned with singular power to enact and enforce rules governing participation in its proprietary races, the Breeders' Cup can do what's right and make a real difference related to drug use (as well as whipping) while likely causing a welcome and needed trickle-down effect throughout the industry.

As Fred states, "The Breeders' Cup rules are not on the honor system. They test. The Breeders' Cup needs to enter this conversation in their own best interests [and in the interest of the entire industry]. Their 2-year-old races will ban meds for the first time. They need to talk with the AGSC and support [a] ban in all 2-year-old graded stakes."

Mahubo scored in his stateside debut over this turf course for a $35,000 tag in November before losing a close one at Gulfstream Dec. 16. Third in Hallandale Feb. 5, the 6-year-old was coming off another narrow second-place finish in a Florida optional claimer Mar. 18 and was heavily favored returning to the site of his most recent victory. Kept in the clear in mid-pack of this compact group, Mahubo swung wide and struck the front while lugging out a bit in upper stretch. Rustler Hustler would not go away, but the favorite eventually wore down that rival and held off a late bid from stretch-running Indy Scent to get it done.

Safe Crossing was fifth wide a wide trip in her seasonal bow at Gulfstream Jan. 5, finished second at that venue Feb. 4 and took a narrow decision three weeks after that. She had fired a pair of very quick bullets at Gulfstream and one over the Polytrack here Apr. 9 since her last start, and immediately grabbed command here. Doling out reasonable splits while clear, the Augustin colorbearer kicked home in the lane and was never seriously threatened despite failing to switch leads until the very late stages. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

A solid fourth behind Summer Front (War Front) in Gulfstream's Dania Beach S. Dec. 18, he resurfaced to finish fifth after some early trouble in the GIII Palm Beach S. in Hallandale Mar. 11. Favored at 8-5 here, the Ramsey homebred sat a stalking trip in fourth through a half-mile in :48.42, challenged for command while four wide at the head of affairs, and hit the gas in the stretch en route to a 1 1/4-length decision. Keeneland to Host 'Pink Day' Sunday:

In conjunction with Kentucky First Lady Jane Beshear's 'Horses and Hope' initiative, Keeneland will play host to 'Pink Day' tomorrow with a series of special events. There will be live music, a ladies-only handicapping contest, prize drawings and other special 'Pink Day' activities. A special survivor luncheon will take place before the races at 11 a.m. in the Keeneland Sales Pavilion sponsored by the First Lady, Kentucky Cancer Program, Embry's and WLEX television. Prior to tomorrow's seventh race at Keeneland, horse racing's leading lady, reigning Horse of the Year Havre de Grace, will be paraded in the Keeneland paddock, with her appearance coming at approximately 4 p.m.

'Walk to Beat Cancer' at Santa Anita Apr. 22:

Edited press release

Santa Anita will present a second annual "On Track To Beat Cancer" event on closing day, Apr. 22. The public is encouraged to join jockeys, horsemen and celebrities in a walk down Santa Anita's historic homestretch to raise money to support City of Hope find cures for women's cancers. "This was a very successful fundraiser last year and all facets of the racing industry came together to help fund cures for women's cancers," said Santa Anita Vice President of Sales and Marketing Chris Quinn. "We expect to have a couple thousand people participating and we hope when they finish on the track, they'll join us for some live music and our Party in the Paddock, which should be a lot of fun." All participants are encouraged to wear purple. "We'll have purple-colored "On Track To Beat Cancer" T shirts available for everyone," said Quinn. "We're hoping to create a sea of purple and for those who would like to show their support for City of Hope's women's cancer research, treatment and education programs, they'll get the T shirt, a wrist band and be able to walk down the stretch for just $10 dollars." For more information about the "On Track To Beat Cancer" event, visit santaanita.com. To learn more about City of Hope's Women's Cancers Program, visit womenscancers.cityofhope.org.

third favorite, the grey was slowly away from the eight hole, but began to make decent inside progress approaching the turn. Just behind the first flight of horses nearing the lane, he was switched off heels by Barend Vorster to about the three path and came home willingly to score while racing on his right lead the length of the stretch. "The owners have been very understanding and I thank them for their patience," said assistant trainer Ricardo Le Grange. "We were then able to put him back on a working program and we knew right away he had ability. He's still very green as you could tell from tonight. He missed the start, but Barend was able to get him to settle and once he peel him to the outside, he let down quite well. As long as he stays sound, I think he will prove a pretty smart horse for us." Click for a video replay.

IRELAND

HRI TRIAL 48-HOUR DECS

Horse Racing Ireland yesterday announced that it is to trial 48-hour declarations for Dundalk's fixture next Wednesday in an indication that it is set to follow the example of Britain. Jason Morris, HRI Director of Racing, said, "I would stress that this is a one-off trial at Dundalk next Wednesday to allow us to evaluate the impact on international betting turnover, particularly from France, of 48-hour declarations as compared to 24-hour declarations. It is possible that more Dundalk evening fixtures during the winter period may be covered by France in the future, but a major stumbling block would be the lack of 48-hour declarations, as this means that the races do not get the same level of coverage in the French racing journals. The trial next Wednesday will allow all parties to evaluate the effect that this has on turnover."

GOFFS RE-JIG SCHEDULE

Goffs yesterday announced that the Sportsman's Sale has been reinstated immediately after its flagship Orby in October. A day after declaring a move of the less-select third session to a date later that month, the Kildare company backtracked and revealed that it will proceed the Orby on Oct. 5. Chief Executive Henry Beeby explained, "Having listened to feedback from the ITBA and our valued vendors and acknowledging the affection in which the Sportsman's Sale is held, we have made the decision to reintroduce it in its established position following the two-day Orby select sale. By giving this sale its own identity, we believe we can raise the profile of the yearlings on offer and provide an excellent platform for commercial Irish breeders."
