I'LL HAVE ANOTHER JOGS AT PIMLICO

Kentucky Derby winner I'll Have Another (Flower Alley) made his first trip over the Pimlico surface Wednesday, jogging once around the track in his first racetrack appearance since winning the Derby last Saturday. "His energy level is fantastic, something that we want to see his first time back on the track," Jack Siston, assistant to trainer Doug O'Neill, said. "You wouldn't want to see him with his head down going along there. As soon as he knew he was going back to the track, he was full of energy. He knows what he's doing. Obviously, he couldn't wait to get back out there. It's as if he's never had a race. He's doing fantastic."

I'll Have Another

Siston, who oversaw I'll Have Another's trip from Louisville to Baltimore Monday, added that he has been impressed how the Derby winner has handled everything so far. "It's the way he takes it all in," he said. "We shipped him into Kentucky and it was like he was stabled his whole life there. He came out of the race as if he never ran. He shipped great. He went out to the track fantastic this morning. If after he won the GI Santa Anita Derby, we got a pen out and wrote down what we would like to see, he's showing us that."

UNION RAGS TO SKIP PREAKNESS

Union Rags (Dixie Union), a troubled seventh in the GI Kentucky Derby, will skip the Mar. 19 GI Preakness S., according to Philadelphia Daily News. The strapping bay colt will instead be pointed towards the June 9 GI Belmont S. Trainer Michael Matz called Union Rags' Derby trip a "disaster," but yesterday told the Pa Daily News, "He was out in the paddock Tuesday, he's really good."

TRINNIBERG POSSIBLE FOR PREAKNESS

Trinniberg (Teuflesberg), who chased pacesetter Bodemeister (Empire Maker) before fading to 17th in the GI Kentucky Derby, may make a start in the May 19 GI Preakness S. if the Derby runner-up skips the race. "If Bodemeister is going to the Preakness, I'm not going to go," owner Shivananda Parbhoo told Daily Racing Form. If he's not going, I'll go to the Preakness." If Trinniberg does not start in the Preakness, he will go in the June 9 GI Woody Stephens S. at Belmont Park.

VIVE LE VASE

Once used by the greats Shergar (Ire) and Old Vic (GB), the G3 Chester Vase dipped in quality in the 1990s and early 2000s, but has enjoyed a renaissance of late with the star names Papal Bull (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) collecting en route to bigger and better things. All Coolmore-owned, the last-named inched out the subsequent King George hero Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) before annexing the G1 Irish Derby himself in one of the more heavyweight renewals. David Livingston (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) represents the Co. Tipperary operation this time and he rates highly in Ballydoyle's current pecking order due to his success in the G2 Beresford S. over a mile at The Curragh in September. As a result of that, he was forced to carry a five-pound penalty on his comeback in the 10-furlong G3 Ballysax S. at Leopardstown and ran an encouraging race to be fifth behind the re-opposing runner-up Call To Battle (Ire) (King's Best). Of the home team, Khalid Abdullah's Model Pupil (GB) (Sinndar {Ire}) represents the Charlie Hills stable which has proven successful around this circuit down the years. Cont. p4

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

CHUCK BERRY ARRIVES

Argentine standout Chuck Berry (Arg) (Grand Reward) will join trainer Bill Mott after clearing quarantine in Florida.

Turf Diario/Marcelo Sarachi

Owned by a syndicate managed by John Fulton, the bay colt captured the 2011 G1 Gran Premio Polla de Potrillos while trained by Roberto Bullrich. "He's a special colt," said John Fulton. "He has nothing more to prove here in Argentina, so it's on to bigger and better things. I am especially grateful to our wonderful partners that include Roy and Gretchen Jackson, Chuck Merrick, Gary and Betty Biszantz, Ian and Sandra Jamieson, Latane and Randall Ware, Arthur and Staci Hancock, Art Preston, Lori Kirk Wagner, Chris Wagner, Jinny Lee, Antonio and Florencia Bullrich. Let's hope he can continue his success in America."

HILLS PRAISES VETS AFTER PEARL INJURY

Trainer Charlie Hills yesterday paid tribute to the officials responsible for dealing with the ill-fated Gray Pearl (GB) (Excellent Art {GB}) at Newmarket on Sunday. Raymond Mould's filly, who was a promising third in the G2 Rockfel S. on only her second start in October, was euthanized after sustaining a spinal cord injury when becoming stuck under the starting stalls ahead of the G1 1000 Guineas. "The post-mortem has been done, and it came back exactly as the vets said at the time," Hills said. "It is nice that they were right in their judgment, as unfortunate as it was that they had to put her down. The vets made the right decisions, and the stalls handlers did a very good job. By the time I got down there after five to 10 minutes, the decision had already been made. It's very sad, but that's racing and is one of those things."

O'BRIEN PICKS UP BAN

Joseph O'Brien was yesterday handed a four-day suspension at Chester which threatens to rule him out of the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas. After being found guilty of excessive use of the whip on the Listed Cheshire Oaks runner-up Betterbetterbetter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the Ballydoyle number one is due to be out of action May 23-26 but can apply to the British Horseracing Authority to defer the ban as Group 1 racing is scheduled.

GRADE 1 WINNER & MILLIONAIRE MORNING LINE

Tiznow – Indian Snow, by A.P. Indy

Future Lane's End stallion and a LE sales graduate, Morning Line returned to the track after a layoff to take the Grade 2 Mervyn LeRoy H. Trainer John Shirreffs said "He's a very classy horse," and jockey Joe Talamo added, "He was absolutely cruising the first part. He got right up to the lead and put his ears up."

MORNING LINE has also won the Grade 1 Carter & the Grade 2 Pennsylvania Derby & was second in the Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile and the Grade 1 Donn H. His earnings are now in excess of $1.2 million.

BLACK-TYPE PREVIEWS

Model Pupil beat the well-touted Shantaram (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in one of the hottest maidens run so far this term over 10 furlongs at Newmarket last time Apr. 18. Trainer Charlie Hills commented yesterday, "He's a horse who is very lightly raced and certainly improved to win last time. He has come out of that race very well and I think he should enjoy the ground and the trip shouldn't be a problem on pedigree."

The Kentucky Derby: Great Fun And A Must-Do For Your Bucket List

"I'll Have Another, as in I'll Have Another Kentucky Derby, hopefully as soon as next year. I just returned from Louisville, Churchill Downs, and "The Most Exciting Two Minutes in Sports," and I can sum my experience up in one word: Awesome." Larry Olmsted, Forbes

Take the Holy Bull route

Dear Bob Baffert,
"Have you heard the story about the trainer and his losing favorite in the Kentucky Derby? No, we're not talking about 2001 and your colt, Point Given. Rather, this was a speedster that dominated his final Kentucky Derby prep race three weeks before the big event. He had shown incomparable brilliance going one and one-eighth miles. The betting public responded and wagered gobs of cash on his chances. Unfortunately, he lost and even the talents of Hall of Fame jockey Mike Smith couldn't get him home first. No, Bob. This isn't about Bodemeister, Saturday's runner-up in America's greatest race, with that very same Mike Smith riding. We are referring to Holy Bull, who went to post in the 1994 Derby as the 2-1 betting choice." Nick Kling, Troy Record

Racing, not journalism, needs to change

"Slings and arrows. Name-calling. Finger-pointing. For the most part, that has been Thoroughbred racing's response to recent New York Times pieces on the sport. The investigative journalism pointed out deficiencies, gaps, out-and-out ugliness on the topic of safety for horses and jockeys. The Times might distinguish between Quarter Horse and Thoroughbred racing, and could point out that medication violations can often be overages of permitted substances rather than pre-meditated attempts to cheat, but those aren't logical beefs considering the situation. To the public, it's horse racing, it's supposed to be clean and it's making a mistake if it ignores the point that something must change. Something big." Joe Clancy, St-Publishing

In UAE, horses are big business as well as passion

"When an economic crisis in Uruguay strained the finances of Pio Olascoaga Amaya's family farm, he found salvation halfway across the world: the horse racing industry of Dubai." Martin Dokoupil, Reuters

Aquitania, a strong third in Aqueduct's Interborough S. Jan. 1, tired to finish fourth in the GII Barbara Fritchie H. at Laurel Feb. 18. The gray got back on track with a win in the Lynclar S. at the Big A Mar. 21, and entered off a second-place finish in Pimlico's Primonetta S. Apr. 14. Sent off as the second-choice here, she was sent to the front for her rail draw, enjoyed a narrow lead as they raced four across the track on the far turn, and kept on finding more in the stretch to splash home an easy winner. GISW Her Smile (Include), favored at 3-5, was placed in the race early by Javier Castellano, but came up empty in the stretch. CHESHIRE OAKS cont.

Dr Marwan Koukash's love of Chester saw the increasingly influential owner persuade trainer Mark Johnston to try Good Morning Star in this established Epsom Oaks trial despite the filly's modest race record. Like a certain 1000 Guineas heroine, she had taken a few tries to get off the mark and finally managed the feat in a handicap over 10 furlongs on Lingfield's Polytrack Jan. 18. And similar to many of her stable's winter runners, the diminutive bay has benefitted from that early conditioning, but she suggested she had only limited capabilities when third in a 12-furlong handicap at Beverley Apr. 18. Racing in rear early under Franny Norton, she still had plenty of ground to make up on the final turn as Joseph O'Brien sent favored Betterbetterbetter to the lead. Grinding down that rival in the shade of the post, she upset Ballydoyle's current momentum to provide another eyebrow-raising result on the European racing scene. "I did think it was a very open race beforehand, but we didn't expect to win with a 50-1 shot," winning trainer Mark Johnston commented. "She didn't get the best of breaks and was boxed in, but Franny knows his way out of a pocket around here. We'll have to go home and take stock, as if it wasn't for Dr Marwan, she wouldn't be running here. His obsession with Chester means he would rather win this than the Epsom Oaks, and we took a chance, as she was the best we had."

Betterbetterbetter's trainer Aidan O'Brien said, "We were very happy with her, as she had become very lazy at home. We learned a lot today about how to ride her next time and it was a good experience for her. She traveled well and maybe Joseph might wait a bit longer before going to the front next time. She's a possible for the [June 1] G1 Epsom Oaks." Click for the Racing Post chart. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

NATIONWIDE PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ISSUED IN H-2B VISA CASE

A Federal District Court Judge in Florida recently issued a nationwide preliminary injunction that prevents the Department of Labor (DOL) from implementing a controversial new H-2B visa temporary worker program rule.

On February 21, 2012, the new program rule was published with an effective date of April 23, 2012. This date was later extended to April 27, 2012. As a result of the preliminary injunction in Florida on April 26, implementation of the new rule has been delayed pending a final ruling by the court on the matter.

The rule would require employers to follow several new procedures when utilizing the H-2B program, including how they recruit U.S. workers for job openings and how they define temporary need and full time employment. These measures could present challenges for employers, such as trainers and owners in the Thoroughbred industry, and lead to higher costs and increased administrative burdens. Read more about the changes here.

Litigants in the case against the DOL include the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and representatives from the landscape and forestry industries. The court has ordered the parties to file motions for summary judgment on June 25, 2012.

Donald McCain, son of the late legendary national hunt trainer Ginger, has not taken long to establish a formidable reputation in the jumps sphere and he proved once again that he can do it on the flat when saddling a one-two in this prestigious marathon. Like last year's winner Overturn, Ile de Re is a hurdler who had started out on the flat initially and he had provided early indication of his ability when third to no less than Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) in the 2009 Listed Grand Prix du Lion d'Angers. Bought out of Freddy Head's yard last summer, the grey went to Ian Williams and had suffered an inauspicious last outing on the level when unshipping his rider during Doncaster's November H. Now a different proposition following a profitable spell over timber and switch of yards once again, he brought his abundant staying power to play to deny the highly popular Champion Hurdle runner-up Overturn another pillar-to-post victory. Gaining a vital inside position in mid-pack after a weather-induced flag start, he was angled off the fence with six furlongs to race as Overturn increased the pressure.

That flashy rival had succeeded in destroying all rivals bar his stable companion and the final furlong was all Ile de Re's as he rolled to a career-best. "Ian Williams has to take the credit for this, as he has only been with me for three weeks," McCain commented. "I thought Overturn would win turning for home, but in the last furlong the weight and ground has told and he is in the Gold Cup [at Ascot June 21]. I was delighted to get Ile de Re and we knew he'd like the ground. The Northumberland Plate H. [at Newcastle June 30] will be next for him." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

SILVER TRAIN TO SHUTTLE TO BRAZIL

Silver Train (Old Trieste--Riddeninthestars, by Cormorant), sire of seven black-type winners including Italian highweight Silver Ocean, will shuttle to Siquiera & Mercadante in Parana, Brazil, for the 2012 Southern Hemisphere season. Victorious in the 2005 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, Silver Train relocated from the Vinery to Northview PA in Peach Bottom in September 2011. "Silver Train has been received very well in the Mid-Atlantic region since his relocation for the 2012 season," commented Carl McEntee, director of bloodstock for Northview Stallion Station. In 2011 Silver Train was represented by several stakes horses and was leading second crop sire by number of winners. With the ever growing global market, we are delighted that Silver Train will be available to the breeders of Brazil."

Catalogued as lot 632, So Divine, Group 3-placed in New Zealand, was offered by Goodwood Stud and was purchased by John Foote, who saw off Danny Rolston on behalf of Willow Park Stud. "She's a Group placed sister to a Derby winner and her dam has had a number of good fillies that are going to very good stallions so there is a lot of potential in the family," said Foote, who was bidding on behalf of Australian interests. "There are a few good options but I haven't worked out a stallion for her yet. I knew she would make at least $100,000 and was hoping to get her as close to that as possible, as it worked out she was almost exactly $100,000 Australian so that was about right."
