DEFINITELY MAYBE?

Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Maybe (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) failed to fire on all cylinders when losing her unbeaten tag in last month's G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket--

Maybe Racing Post/Cranham

her first start since annexing August's G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh--but she can follow the stable's lead when lining up for today's G1 Investec Oaks at Epsom. She was one of the main sufferers when Gray Pearl (GB) (Excellent Art {GB})'s fatal injury caused a significant delay to proceedings at Newmarket, but stablemate Power (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) bounced back from his Rowley Mile reverse to garner last week's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, and confidence is high she can repeat the dose stepped up a half mile for this comeback. "The ground was a bit on the slow side, but we were very happy with her run in the [1000] Guineas," commented trainer Aidan O'Brien. "It was her first run of the year and perhaps she laboured a little bit through the race, but she was in the stalls a long time and lots of things happened. She is by Galileo and has a fast pedigree so a mile and a half is unknown until we do it. She's a big and powerful filly, she always was, but is very well balanced. It's all about balance." Cont. p3

JUST NINE FOR EPSOM'S DERBY

With just a single-digit field set to go postward for tomorrow's G1 Investec Derby at Epsom, the fewest since nine lined up for the 1907 renewal, the effect of yesterday's draw takes on less significance than is usually the case. Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Pocahontas Syndicate colorbearer Bonfire (GB) (Manduro {Ger}), who will exit the eight hole, will become Andrew Balding's first runner in the Blue Riband event, although the trainer has already bagged a Classic here, courtesy of Casual Look (Red Ransom) in the 2003 G1 Oaks. Last month's G2 Dante S. victor will be partnered by Jimmy Fortune, who is confident the bay will handle the hullabaloo of the Derby preamble. "People have commented on Bonfire's temperament, but he's just a jack the lad, because he likes to do things his own way," Fortune said. "No way does he worry or get upset. He is very genuine and is a very easy ride when he is going. I was very impressed with him in the Dante--he travelled very well and we got there far too early, but I was very impressed by the way he stuck his head out. He certainly won going away. I think he will stay, but he is not guaranteed to stay so we won't know until the day." Cont. p5

CARLTON HOUSE RETURNS A WINNER

Aside from Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), Carlton House (Street Cry {Ire}) was last summer's major talking horse early in the season but, things had gone eerily quiet regarding The Queen's colt following a lackluster fourth in last June's G1 Irish Derby.

Carlton House

Racing Post/Cranham

Well-supported for this seasonal return, the handsome 4-year-old came from off the pace to land Thursday's G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown. "We were happy with his home work and had him as fit as we could without taking any chances," trainer Sir Michael Stoute explained. "We were hopeful, as his home work had been of good quality. There weren't any serious problems last year, but they were enough to prevent him from running for the rest of the season." As for what comes next for the bay, Stoute added, "We wouldn't want to go more than 10 furlongs with him at this stage, so we'll go for the G1 Prince of Wales's S. [at Royal Ascot June 20] next and take it one step at a time. Next time will tell us what trip he needs, as we need to see how he switches off." Cont. p8

CLOSE CALL FOR I'LL HAVE ANOTHER

I'll Have Another
Horsephotos

I'll Have Another (Flower Alley) narrowly avoided a serious incident at Belmont Thursday morning when a loose horse dumped her rider and ran off, coming within inches of the Triple Crown aspirant as he stretched his legs along the outer rail. J. Paul Reddam's superstar appeared unfazed by the incident, however, and went about his business, galloping a mile.

O'Brien Flexes Six-Pack...

Trainer Aidan O'Brien, who registered the last of his three successes with Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in 2006, is six-handed in this quest for a fourth renewal. In addition to Maybe, he also saddles Kissed (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Twirl (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Betterbetterbetter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Devotion (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}), and Was (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Kissed, who is a 3/4-sister to last year's G1 Derby hero Pour Moi (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), will run in the Derrick Smith colors only if the ground is deemed suitable. She stepped up from an eye-catching maiden score, which earned a TDN Rising Star tag, at Navan in October, and justified that accolade when making a hugely impressive seasonal return in April's Listed Salsabil S. back at the Co. Meath track last time. Betterbetterbetter loomed large and looked likely to bag last month's Listed Cheshire Oaks, but was collared late to finish second at the Roodeye circuit. O'Brien thinks a change of plan might benefit Roisin Henry and Susan Magnier's bay here. "Betterbetterbetter ran a good race at Chester and [jockey] Joseph [O'Brien] said, if he was riding her again, he might delay her challenge." Colm O'Donoghue steps in for the ride with that option. Twirl gave plenty, but was delivered a knockout blow by the smooth-travelling The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}) when runner-up in last month's G3 Musidora S. at York. O'Brien has indicated she will relish stepping up to the mile-and-a-half trip. Cont. p4

The Fugue Bids for Musidora Repetition...

Lady Lloyd-Webber's The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}) was pitched in at the deep end following an October maiden score at Newmarket, and emerged with great credit by finishing fourth in the G1 1000 Guineas back at the Rowley Mile on seasonal debut. She flourished from there and toyed with Twirl in the G3 Musidora S. before unleashing a decisive kick, and continues on the right path according to William Buick. "I'm going into the race with a lot of confidence because The Fugue has every box ticked," Buick blogged. "From the first time I sat on her I realised she had class, it was just a matter of how much. The 1000 Guineas was just her second run and she had a bad trip that day, getting struck into early on. It was a tribute to the Clarehaven team that she came back so well at York. The Guineas had brought her on, but the step up to 10 furlongs in the Musidora played to her strengths, and she quickened to win like a class filly. I wanted to make sure she had the easiest time possible and that the race would bring her further forward for the Oaks, and that's certainly the case. I don't have any serious concerns for the trip and there's no reason to think she won't stay the distance. She's a very agile filly so she should handle the track as well as anything else in the field."

Watering Policy Continues...

With showers forecast in the area of Epsom in midweek, clerk of the course Andrew Cooper nonetheless maintained a low-key policy of minimal watering, and revealed the track's official going remained as "good, good-to-firm in places" on the eve of Epsom's first Classic. "We started watering on Tuesday of last week and have not been putting big volumes on, just keeping the ground at or near where it was," explained Cooper. "The [forecast] rain never came Wednesday, though there were showers in the area, but we weren't banking or depending on showers anyway. The forecast is mainly dry. In terms of watering, it is a question of fine tuning. We put three millimeters of water on the home straight Thursday afternoon. The ground remains good, good to firm in places. It is predominantly good ground, certainly from the Oaks start down to the beginning of the straight. It is quicker in places in the home straight and in some areas of the climb up the back. It's nice racing ground."

Cavaleiro (Ire) (Sir Percy {GB}), top female jockey Hayley Turner's first ride in the race, represents Marcus Tregoning, who saddled his sire (by Mark of Esteem {Ire}) to glory in 2006. He is drawn in one. Despite

Tregoning & Cavaleiro
Racing Post/Whitaker

100-1 odds being freely quoted for the chestnut, Tregoning believes he is hitting form at just the right time. "The piece of work Cavaleiro did at Lingfield on Saturday was the best bit of work he has done all year and we were very happy with that," said Tregoning. "I really do like him--he will stay very well and, hopefully, he will be able to go the pace. We can do what we want with him as he is a very straightforward ride, and I imagine we will be tracking the pace. They don't normally hang around in the Derby. It's extraordinary having such a small field, possibly because people are scared of taking on Camelot, but it's a strange year. It's a huge opportunity for Hayley Turner and for everyone. I think she is very good for racing and she will give Cavaleiro a very good ride."

George Strawbridge's homebred Thought Worthy (Dynaformer), who will break from stall six, seeks to uphold, or even enhance, family tradition. He ran second in a mud-spattered renewal of the G3 Sandown Classic Trial and bagged the Listed Fairway S. at Newmarket two weeks ago, a race also taken off two runs by sibling Lucarno en route to a fourth in this in 2007. Connections are confident the 12-furlong trip is within compass, but have doubts the course's unique undulations may not suit the strapping bay. "Thought Worthy is taking the same path as his [full] brother," said trainer John Gosden. "He will stay the trip, but the hill might be a bit of a question mark." Ballydoyle's odds-on favorite Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) has been allocated the five box, while stablemate Astrology (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is next-but-one in seven.

Having shown the abundant class which rocketed him to Derby favoritism when winning the G2 Dante S. at York in May, the Darley-bred prized gift from Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum suffered a late setback when knocking a near-fore joint too close to the first Saturday in June for comfort. In the event, the bay ran a highly creditable third in the Blue Riband, but the bubble appeared to burst when he was a lackluster fourth in the Curragh equivalent later in June. Keen and fresh racing in a pocket in third on this belated return, he was short of room at the quarter pole but after muscling through a gap between I'm a Dreamer (Ire) (Noverre) and Hunter's Light a furlong later took complete control. "We had a go at preparing him for the G1 Champion S., but we weren't quite happy with him so had to abandon that plan," said Stoute. "What happened to him in the lead-up to the Derby was the worst possible thing, as he needed icing in the morning, at midday, at evening stables and at 10 o'clock at night. All that fussing interrupted his program and meant I couldn't train him as I wanted to, so his chance was badly compromised. I was pleased that although he was fresh today because the gallop wasn't strong enough and used up quite a lot of energy early on, he filled up and went through a narrow gap and wanted it."

A day after dismissing rumors of his supposed imminent retirement, Frankie Dettori was partaking in his trademark flying dismount in the royal blue after the genuine and consistent stayer Opinion Poll outclassed his rivals here. Having mixed it with the likes of Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Duncan (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) last term, the dual G2 Lonsdale Cup and G2 Goodwood Cup hero showed he had lost none of his verve when adding an eventful G3 Dubai Gold Cup to his tally at the expense of another top-level scorer Joshua Tree (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) at Meydan last time Mar. 31. Settled in fifth throughout the early stages as Chiberta King set an honest pace, the bay was full of run when finally asked to extend approaching the final furlong and duly brushed aside the long-time leader and prominent runner Ibicenco in a show of authority. In doing so, he took his total earnings to just shy of £1 million and booked his return to Royal Ascot for another tilt at Fame and Glory in the June 21 G1 Gold Cup. "He is a complete professional who has never missed a beat," Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford said. "Very few horses can handle Dubai and run throughout the year but with him you have to keep him going. We need to know when to peak him and give him downtime, so he can do Dubai and Europe. Ascot is the target and he seems to handle fast ground really well now."

Close Call for I'll Have Another...

I'll Have Another (Flower Alley) narrowly avoided a serious incident at Belmont Thursday morning when a loose horse from the Carl Domino barn dumped her rider and ran off, coming within inches of the Triple Crown aspirant as he stretched his legs along the outer rail. J. Paul Reddam's superstar appeared unfazed by the incident, however, and went about his business, galloping a mile. "Once we dodged that, everything went well," said trainer Doug O'Neill. "He jogged great, galloped super. I noticed every day he's cooling out even quicker. He seems like he loves it here, and he's really getting used to the oval and getting used to the footing, and I couldn't be happier with the way he's going." Cont. p10

O'Neill said I'll Have Another's rider, Mario Gutierrez, would arrive in New York Monday and would be at the track starting Tuesday. The conditioner was working on finding mounts for Gutierrez leading up to the June 9 GI Belmont S. so that the young rider can get acquainted with the track. O'Neill said he was forced to withdraw Boxeur des Rues (Smart Strike) from consideration for the GII Brooklyn H. at the Belmont trip June 8 because he wasn't training well, but said at the very least that Gutierrez will ride a pair of O'Neill/Reddam turf runners next week.

"Somebody said [Gutierrez] might get a mount [in the Brooklyn], and Paul's been kind enough to say, 'If you find a horse that would have a legitimate chance in there, [I'd] invest in it to help Mario,'" O'Neill revealed. "It would be great to have Mario get a chance to ride a mile and a half the day before the Belmont. It's been talked about, but we're kind of running out of time. Hopefully there's a trainer out there with a horse that's got a chance that still needs a pilot and will give Mario a chance." Gutierrez was scheduled to appear on "Late Night with Jimmy Fallon" Thursday night on NBC.

Belmont Hopefuls to Have Designated Training Time...

Following I'll Have Another's near miss yesterday morning, it was announced by NYRA that Belmont S. contenders would be granted exclusive access to the track from 8:30 a.m. to 8:45 a.m.--immediately after the maintenance break. Belmont horses are not limited to visiting the track at that time, however.

Alpha Out of Belmont...

Godolphin's Alpha (Bernardini) was ruled out of the Belmont Thursday by trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. "He spiked a temperature on Tuesday evening--103," revealed McLaughlin. "He was fine by 11 p.m. that evening after treatment, fine yesterday, and he's fine today, but it's too high a temperature too close to the race. It's unfortunate." A winner of the GIII Withers S. at Aqueduct Feb. 4 and a close second in the GI Wood Memorial S. Apr. 7, Alpha was 12th in the GI Kentucky Derby after a rough start.

Five Sixteen Confirmed for Belmont...

Recent maiden winner Five Sixteen (Invasor {Arg}), last seen finishing fourth in an Aqueduct allowance Apr. 18, was officially confirmed for the Belmont yesterday. "Five Sixteen is turning out to be a pretty special horse," said Anthony Bonomo, whose wife Mary races Five Sixteen under the nom de course MeB Stables and who personally races under the name Brooklyn Boyz Stable. "He's named after our son [Anthony Bonomo, Jr.]'s birthday. He's our general manager of both stables. We're excited about it. [Trainer] Dominick [Schettino] doesn't have time to be excited, but all the credit to Dominick because he's the guy who told us six months ago that he was a horse who could run in the Belmont because he could get the distance and was training well."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Trinniberg Preps for Woody Stephens...

Shivananda Racing's Trinniberg (Teuflesberg) tuned up for his upcoming engagement in the GII Woody Stephens S. June 9 by breezing five furlongs in a sharp :59.40 Thursday morning at Calder Race Course. It was the fastest of five moves at the distance and :2 3/5 better than the joint second-best time. "He came back super nice," owner Shivananda Parbhoo said. "Did you see the breeze? It was unbelievable; he went so well." Trinniberg proved elusive in two starts at sprint distances to kick off 2012, scoring by a half-dozen lengths in the GIII Swale S. Mar. 10 and by three front-running lengths in the GIII Bay Shore S. The dark bay most recently contested the pace alongside Bodemeister (Empire Maker) in the GI Kentucky Derby May 5 before dropping tamely away to finish well back in 17th. "Once [jockey] Willie [Martinez] knew he wasn't finishing in the top three that day, he went easy on him," Parbhoo said. "And that's why we're able to make a race like this; the Derby didn't take that much out of him." Trinniberg could be joined on his trip up Interstate 95 by GI Vosburgh S. hero Giant Ryan (Freud), who is a candidate for the June 9 GII True North S. He also holds a nomination to the Ponche S. at Calder the same afternoon.

Magic Millions National Weanling Select Sale at the Gold Coast.

Offered by Eliza Park, lot lot 857 drew bids from several different interests, including the Newgate Farm team, who secured him for A$255,000. "He's the most outstanding individual I've seen offered at a weanling sale for at least five years," Henry Field insisted. "Just a stunning colt--the pick of the sale and he's by a speed Group 1 winning son of Fastnet Rock--that's a no-brainer."

The Sept. 1 foal is out of Regal Arena (Aus) (Arena {Aus}), a full-sister to Group 1 winner Regal Cheer (Aus).

"We will most likely offer him as a yearling, hopefully up here at the Gold Coast in January," Field added.

The top priced filly of the session was lot 822, a daughter of Fastnet Rock, who brought A$200,000 from Bowcock Bloodstock. The filly is also expected to be returned to the Gold Coast in January. Consigned by Fig Tree Thoroughbreds, the bay is out of Kitty Cash (Aus) (Secret Savings), a half-sister to G1SP Tom Coureuse (Aus) (Beautiful Crown) and Yellow Diamond (Aus) (Commands {Aus}).

Through two days of the select weanling sale, a total of 244 lots grossed A$8,397,200, up from A$7,355,000 realized from 281 sold in 2011. The cumulative average of A$34,415 was up 30% over last year's A$26,274.

"It's been a great couple of day's selling at the National Weanling Sale," said Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox. "There's very good confidence in the industry. Magic Millions has worked hard with the support of vendors and buyers alike. The enthusiasm of all involved was unabated throughout the sale. The increases across the board in this sale has continued the trend of all Magic Millions sales this year and we know that the future participation of vendors and buyers is assured."

The National Sale continues Friday with a general session of broodmares, beginning at 10 a.m. (Qld time). for the complete results, visit www.magicmillions.com.au.

Q AND A WITH THE BREEDERS' CUP CANDIDATES

On May 24, Breeders' Cup Ltd. announced the 22 candidates who will stand for election to the Breeders' Cup Board of Members and Trustees. There are 16 openings on the Board and each term is four years. Voting begins June 4. The bios of the 22 candidates are available in documents circulated to the voters--

Breeders' Cup foal and stallion nominators--and the TDN once again will provide additional information on the candidates' viewpoints. To that end, we posed the following question to each of the candidates, and have given them 400 words or fewer in which to respond.

Q: What do you anticipate you will be able to contribute to the Breeders' Cup's initiatives and committees and what aspects of your experiences and background will make you an asset to both?

Clem Murphy, Coolmore/Ballydoyle Racing

In 2010 only 1,200 yearlings bred outside of North America were eligible to run in the Breeders' Cup. On the recommendation of the Breeders' Cup Racing and

Nominations Committee, the Breeders' Cup expanded its nomination program to broaden international participation, and we have seen this figure increase to in the region of 20,000 eligible yearlings in 2012. While we are obviously delighted with these increased numbers, this is only half the battle on the road to the Breeders' Cup becoming a truly international event. Now that these horses will all be eligible, the challenge for the future is to make sure that the very best runners from around the globe actually turn up en masse on our two biggest days year in, year out.

In both 2010 and 2011 the Coolmore racing partnership of Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith received the Montblanc Rieussec Star Award as outstanding owners of the Breeders' Cup Challenge Series. I have represented this partnership on the Breeders' Cup board for several years now and, as very significant players in world racing, I feel strongly that they deserve continued representation on the board. Over the past number of years, the partnership have demonstrated their 100% commitment to the Breeders' Cup Championships, and their intention is to continue to this commitment in the future.

After spending six years with the international accounting firm Price Waterhouse, I joined an embryonic Coolmore in 1978 and have witnessed it develop into the international player it is today, with major operations in Ireland, the United States and Australia. In my role as bloodstock consultant, I am a regular participant at all the major yearling and breeding stock sales around the world on behalf of Coolmore.

As chairman of the very active BC Racing and Nominations Committee, I am delighted that so many international stallion owners, breeders and racehorse owners have embraced the new program, and I look forward to working towards the day that the Breeders' Cup becomes the real Olympics of Thoroughbred racing with the very best horses representing all the major racing nations around the globe.

Thank you.

Andreas Jacobs

My name may not be familiar in North America which is why I would like to briefly introduce myself. My family has been breeding horses for many generations.

We have also been passionate horse riders--my father was even part of the Olympic team.

Fifty years ago, my grandfather established Gestut Fahrhof in Germany, a leading owner and breeder over the past 30 years, with close to 20 champion breeder and about the same number of champion owner titles. After I succeeded my grandfather in 1995, I extended our interest in breeding and racing by acquiring Maine Chance Farms in South Africa (2002), and acquiring Newsells Park Stud in England, which I have supervised since 2007. In total, we currently have 280 mares and stand 10 stallions, of which six are nominated to the Breeders' Cup. In the past, Fahrhof stood Surumu, Acatenango, and Lomitas. Today, we are standing Equiano, Mount Nelson, Silvano, Black Minnaloushe, Tiger Hill, Campanologist, Gitano Hernando and a few others.

In America we maintain racing stables with Graham Motion and Christophe Clement. In 2011, we won a Grade 2 with Giant's Play (Belmont Park) and a Grade 1 with Sanagas (Hollywood Park), both homebred horses.

As you may know, Germany has very strict rules to stand stallions. They have to have a minimum rating, and--more importantly--stallions that ran on Lasix or bute are not entitled to breeders premiums. So naturally, I am in favor of no-drug policies for the Breeders Cup races.

In addition, I would like to carry Breeders' Cup to the next level and make it a more global concept and brand. With my base in Europe and South Africa, I am happy to reach out for even more support outside the U.S. For example, I am excited that the "Grosser Preis von Baden" in Baden-Baden (a racecourse I took over in 2010) was accepted by the Breeders' Cup as part of the "Win and You're In" program. This was an important step to attract more European-trained horses to the Breeders' Cup. Overall, I see tremendous opportunities for Breeders' Cup expansion and co-operation internationally.

George Isaacs, Bridlewood Farm

In my mind, the Breeders' Cup stands for the pinnacle of excellence in racing and personifies the best our equine industry has to offer to showcase our great sport.

Growing up in Lexington, KY, and beginning to work with Thoroughbreds at age 17, my love of horses began early. When Mr. Gaines created the program to help revitalize our industry, I was working at Gainesway Farm as a stallion groom. It was certainly a surreal experience and energizing time as the Breeders Cup was unfolding before our very eyes.

I have witnessed a marked improvement in the organization recently, especially the event itself, since changing to a two-day format. There are still many important industry challenges ahead, and how the Breeders' Cup Board resolves these issues will set the tone and serve as an example for the rest of the industry to follow. The Lasix and race-day medication issue is such a divided topic, and how that is addressed could be the single most important issue the Board faces in the near term. A continuation of the improved marketing strategy to attract new owners and fans alike is paramount.

The reason I feel like I can make a difference on the Board is simple and can be summarized in one word "COMMITTED." I'm currently the Treasurer and have also served as a Director, President and Chairman of the Florida Thoroughbred Farm Managers', Inc Board. Additionally, I am on the College of Central Florida Foundation Board, and also serve as Chairman of its Equine Studies Program Advisory Board which I helped develop. Previously, I served as a Florida Thoroughbred Breeders and Owners Association (FTBOA) Director for six years during which time we were able to get a major tax reduction for the breeders' awards implemented through changes by the Florida State legislators. Having many years of Board experience under my belt, I enjoy the challenge of working with other energetic people to solve problems and accomplish key initiatives.

As a long-time general manager of Bridlewood Farm which is a large Thoroughbred breeding and training operation, and as a breeder, owner, pinhooker and an advisor to other recognized breeding programs, I feel I can offer an experienced, diverse, compassionate perspective on the issues at hand. I would welcome the opportunity of getting more involved and representing Florida by working hard for the betterment of our industry.

Although Bridlewood Farm has yet to breed a Breeders' Cup Winner, we've had numerous starters and had a second-place finish in the Breeders' Cup Mile with Forbidden Apple and last year with Birdrun in the Breeders' Cup Marathon. Since the inception of the Breeders' Cup, Bridlewood Farm has continued to nominate each crop of 50+ foals and all of our stallions annually.

Thank you for the honor of being nominated with all the other great candidates, and I would appreciate your consideration for election.

Lincoln Collins

What makes the Breeders' Cup special are the "great moments" that only happen when great horses are brought together at one venue. From my first "live" experience, having taken the subway to a grey and forbidding Aqueduct in 1985, to Churchill Downs in 2011, those moments crowd together in my mind to create a trove of memories which represent the essence of our sport.

Over the last 30 years I have amassed a great deal of experience of horse racing in North America and around the world in the never-ending quest to find a good horse. I believe that international competition is a vital component of the Breeders' Cup, not only from the point of view of finding out which the best horses in the world really are, but also as a stimulus to fan interest both here and beyond our borders. The Breeders' Cup needs the best horses from around the world to compete in it if it is to be a true "World Championship," and I will be committed to attracting them.

In addition to my international expertise, I bring a record of opposition to the permissive use of medication in racing and believe that the elimination of Lasix from Breeders' Cup competition is just a first step toward an ultimate goal of completely drug-free Breeders' Cup participants. It is vital that we eliminate drugs in order to maintain the credibility of American racing at home and abroad, attract new fans, and bring international participants to the Breeders' Cup.

Unfortunately, the last several years have seen racing face crisis after crisis and a heap of negative publicity. Our response to crisis and bad press has often been to turn inward and become defensive when our best response would be to honestly confront our problems and work tirelessly to promote what is best in the sport at home and abroad. Too often, infighting and factionalism have characterized the organizations charged with improving our sport. The Breeders' Cup must remain above petty squabbles and realize that sincere people can disagree while building the consensus necessary for the enterprise to prosper.

I believe that my international background and North American focus make me well qualified to be a Member, and I will work diligently in any area of the Breeders' Cup where my experience may be of use.

W. Bruce Lunsford

With more than 40 years in business, as an entrepreneur, an attorney, and a CPA, I have founded numerous companies and served on the board of directors of a variety of public and private entities.

Additionally, my involvement in the entertainment industry as an investor and co-producer of nine feature films has given me an understanding of many of the nuances involved in finding the appropriate audience.

Furthermore, I have had a strong interest in public service throughout my career, from my early days serving in the administration of Governor John Y. Brown, Jr. as Kentucky's Secretary of Commerce and continuing with my participation on the Board of Trustees of the University of Kentucky and Centre College, as well as Chairman of Kentucky Country Day School and the Kentucky Economic Development Corporation.

For the better portion of my career, I have been fortunate to participate in the Thoroughbred industry as an owner and breeder. I am devoted to the pursuit of maintaining excellence and integrity in the industry that I have been passionate about since my college days when I was thrilled to watch Abe's Hope win the 1966 Bluegrass S. Since that time, I have had the pleasure of working with an outstanding group of individuals in the industry who fully dedicate themselves to the sport of racing.

Lastly, I have fond memories of the Breeders' Cup as a venue for showcasing the best of the best in an atmosphere of glamour and style. In November of 1994, I had the pleasure of serving as Chairman of the Kentucky Celebration of the Breeders' Cup, a very successful fundraiser at the Kentucky Center for the Arts, featuring Ray Charles and Gladys Knight. In addition, I recall the honor of attending the first Breeders' Cup, as a guest of John Gaines, and seeing John Forsythe introduce Frank Sinatra. I believe that having such significant talent associated with the Breeders' Cup is a key element to maintaining the level it has achieved as the gold standard.

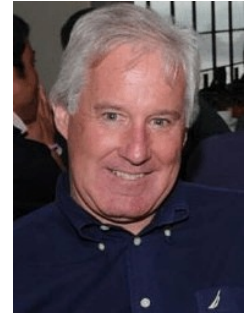

I would welcome the opportunity to utilize my experience in all of these areas to contribute to the Breeders' Cup's initiatives and committees in an effort to continue to strengthen the industry that has brought me great joy, as well as a sincere appreciation for the challenges faced daily by horsemen and racing enthusiasts throughout the world.

Thank you for your consideration.

Jack Brothers, Hidden Brook Farm

During my first term as a Breeders' Cup Board member, I gained invaluable experience regarding our operations and an understanding of both the immediate and long-term goals of our organization. I appreciated the opportunity to work with many knowledgeable and dedicated members, and enjoyed my time served on three committees-- Racing and Nominations, Governance, and the Enhanced Experience committees.

I agree with my co-members that much has been accomplished over the past few years; but I also recognize that many immediate challenges continue to face the Breeders' Cup and our industry. As members of the Breeders' Cup, we are entrusted with the stewardship of an internationally respected brand poised to be at the forefront of initiatives that could make a lasting and positive impact on our industry.

As a Board member, I would continue to welcome those challenges, and lobby our industry to support positive initiatives. As a farm owner and breeder with an active racing stable, I am well versed in many facets of our sport and have forged valuable relationships across a broad spectrum of our industry. As a result of these strong associations, I remain positioned to be a positive ambassador for the Breeders' Cup, and will continue to be active on several committees.

CARNEGIE TO PLAY INTERNATIONAL ROLE AT TRAKUS Edited Press Release

Carter Carnegie, most recently the Senior Vice President of Sales for Breeders' Cup Ltd., has been engaged by Trakus's business development team to help expand the company's footprint in Europe and the rest of the world. Carnegie, who spent 10 years at Breeders' Cup, is credited with bringing in new marketing partners and sponsorship revenue, and promoting the event to an international audience. He previously worked for Host Communications, one of the country's leading sports marketing agencies, and is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He was born and raised in France. "I am pleased to be able to use my international contacts and experience in racing to help introduce the Trakus technology to a worldwide audience," said Carnegie, who has signed on in a part-time role. "I plan to use the skills I honed at the Breeders' Cup and the enthusiasm I have for this transformational technology to help racing fans worldwide follow and enjoy our beautiful sport more easily, while I continue to determine what my next full-time opportunity will be." He continued, "Of course, I am familiar with the Trakus technology, having used it at the Breeders' Cup the past two years. One of the things I enjoy about the product is the modernization as to how fans can consume the game, without challenging the traditional aspects that are so appreciated." Trakus's Chairman, Barry Weisbord, added, "Carter spent the last 10 years successfully engaging with the worldwide racing community. At Trakus, we feel very fortunate to be able to add him to our team during his transitional period. It's a rare opportunity to engage someone of his experience and stature, with his unique skill set." Trakus, which provides instant full-field tracking, innovative motion graphics, virtual cameras and automated video indexing, is currently employed at seven tracks in North America, with five more set to come online in 2012 and 2013; and three racecourses internationally.

Backstretch Worker Art Exhibit June 6:

Edited Press Release

Hofstra University and the Backstretch Employee Service Team (B.E.S.T.) are collaborating on a premier art exhibition showcasing the talents of backstretch workers and their families. A free, public reception to open the exhibit will take place on Wednesday, June 6 at Hofstra's Joan and Donald E. Axinn Library. The event is sponsored by Hofstra University, B.E.S.T., and The New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA). The exhibit, entitled "PRIDE - Celebrating the Art of the Backstretch Workers of Belmont Park and Aqueduct Racetrack," is made up of various original works of art and photography by backstretch workers and their families, including children. Artistic expression is encouraged among the workers by B.E.S.T. as a means of relaxation and release from a long day at the track handling vital behind-the-scenes work. "There are more than 20 very impressive works of art that will be on display," said B.E.S.T. Executive Director Paul Ruchames. "They are all done by untrained, unschooled artists with remarkable talent. We deeply appreciate Hofstra's generosity in hosting this event, bringing the rich contributions of backstretch workers to light. In fact, this is the first of what we hope will be an ongoing collaboration with Hofstra University." The reception is being held from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Lowenfeld Gallery and Exhibition Hall on the 10th floor of the Axinn Library on Hofstra's South Campus and features music performed live by native Columbian saxophonist and flautist Jay Rodriguez, twice nominated for Grammy Awards as best Latin and jazz artist. Reception guests will enjoy hors d'oeuvres, beverages and an exhibition space that is surrounded by windows, offering an unrestricted view of New York City and Eastern Long Island. Free parking is available. The art exhibition is also free and will be on display for five weeks. For more information about the exhibit, or to RSVP for the reception, please contact Nuevia Greene at 516-463-6158.

INDUSTRY INFO*Online Qualifiers Start Sunday for BC Betting Challenge: Edited Press Release

Horse racing's biggest live money tournament, the $400,000 Breeders' Cup Betting Challenge (BCBC) will launch a series of online qualifying contests for players wanting to participate in the Championship event at Santa Anita Nov. 2-3. The online qualifying contests begin this Sunday, June 3 at www.bcqualify.com. "These online qualifying contests offer players a chance to win a Breeders' Cup Betting Challenge seat for as little as $100, a fraction of the full $10,000 buy-in," said Breeders' Cup Betting Challenge Administrator Ken Kirchner. "This event is the ultimate big-money betting contest and the online qualifiers have provided a simple way for all fans to participate." Two of the top three finishers in last year's BCBC came from online qualifiers, including the winner Patrick McGoey and third-place finisher John Allunario. McGoey collected over $270,000, the first-place prize of $160,000 and his accumulated bankroll of $110,600. "It was an incredible experience to turn a $100 online qualifying spot into a $270,000 win," said McGoey. "And to do so at the Breeders' Cup race was a once-in-a-lifetime thrill." The BCBC is unique in its format as the $7,500 of the $10,000 entry fee is dedicated to each player's live money bankroll, with $2,500 remaining going into the overall prize pool. The tournament winner is the player that has accumulated the highest live money bankroll over the two-day event. Not only does the winner get to keep their entire live money bankroll, but they also receive a significant share of the prize pool. In 2011, the accumulated cash winnings and prize money topped $950,000. "The BCBC is horse racing's World Series of Poker," said poker pro Michael 'the Grinder' Mizrahi. "I can't wait to get to Santa Anita on Nov. 2 and compete against the top horseplayers in the country." The June 3, 10 and 17 qualifying events are a two-round format with a $100 entry fee. The top 10% of players from each event advance to the Round Two final on June 24, where up to seven players will earn a full $10,000 qualifying spot into the Breeders' Cup Betting Challenge. The 2012 Betting Challenge is expected to have a prize pool of $400,000, with $175,000 first-place prize (based on 150 players). Prize money is paid to the top 10 finishers. Each contestant also keeps all monies in their betting bankroll.

Cogito dealt with the well-regarded subsequent winner Nine Realms (GB) (Green Desert) in a manner which suggested he was a colt with a bright future in a seven-furlong Newmarket maiden on debut Apr. 18. Up against some big reputations and proven stakes performers here, the bay had to make another leap forward, but belied his inexperience to book a possible ticket to Royal Ascot and the June 19 G1 St James's Palace S. Settled close to the moderate early pace in sixth, he had dead aim on Stipulate as that rival gained the edge with over a furlong remaining and reeled him in under coaxing from Frankie Dettori in the final yards. "He is cool and relaxed and very easy to train," conditioner Brian Meehan explained. "He doesn't take a lot of work, so when he had a bad blood picture before his intended start in last Saturday's Listed King Charles II S., we decided to come for this. We always felt he was a stakes horse, and he has aspirations in America later on. There is no point hiding him away now and I would hope he would be able to have a crack at the St James's Palace if Paul Reddam and [Racing Manager] Jamie McCalmont agree with that. Frankie said he was very natural and that he was always going to get there, and I think on that evidence he'll get a little further."

Off the mark at first asking despite showing keenness at Bath May 16, was restrained this time behind the early leaders. Running into traffic after showing a sharp turn of acceleration passing halfway, the bay was sent up a slim gap on the rail to lead with a furlong remaining en route to a decisive success. "He won his first race very well and since then he's settled down, and we were expecting him to have improved a lot," Richard Hannon Jr commented. "He looks a very useful 2-year-old and Hughesy loved him. The five furlongs of the G2 Norfolk S. [at Royal Ascot June 21] will be no problem, but he looks like he'll stay six furlongs, too, so there is no rush to decide which race he will go for there. He looked pretty special to me tonight."
