A DAN-DY FOSTER

Morton Fink's Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) will look to follow up on a sensational seasonal return in the Gill Ben Ali S. at Keeneland Apr. 22 in today's GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs, the first of six "Win and You're In" races for the Breeders' Cup Classic division.

Wise Dan

A winner of half of his six career starts beneath the Twin Spires, Wise Dan gave his owner a fair bit of redemption when he raced away to take the GI Clark H. by a widening margin last November. Fink had seen his colors taken down 12 months prior when Successful Dan (Successful Appeal) crossed the line first in the Clark only to be controversially disqualified. Wise Dan has one start under his belt this term, a stunning, track-record setting effort in the Ben Ali. Trainer Charlie Lopresti believes his charge is ready for this test. "Wise Dan is spot on," Lopresti commented from his barn at Keeneland. "He was even rearing up when we were grazing him [Thursday] morning." But Lopresti is taking nothing for granted. "Everyone is expecting him to run the same kind of race he ran in the Ben Ali, but this is a lot tougher spot," he explained. Cont. p4

A BEAUTY OF A DIANE

Beauty Parlour (GB) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) will face just 11 rivals as she bids to complete the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches-G1 Prix de Diane double at Chantilly tomorrow. Keeping her unbeaten record intact in the May 13 Longchamp mile contest when last seen, Ecurie Wildenstein's "TDN Rising Star" has received a wide draw in nine as she bids to emulate the recent dual Classic heroines

Beauty Parlour
Racing Post/Edward Whitaker

Divine Proportions (Kingmambo), Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) and Golden Lilac (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). As usual, His Highness The Aga Khan is strongly represented with the Alain de Royer-Dupre-trained duo of Sagawara (GB) (Shamardal) and Dalkala (Giant's Causeway) and the supplemented Jean-Claude Rouget trainee Valyra (GB) (Azamour {Ire}). A win from any of that trio will see the famed owner-breeder surpass the 6-time-winning owner Auguste Lupin and create a new record of his own. Sagawara booked her slot in this contest with a game short-neck defeat of the re-opposing Rjwa (Ire) (Muhtathir {GB}), with another of tomorrow's rivals in Forces of Darkness (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) the same margin away in third, in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary at Longchamp last time May 27 and bids to become the fourth to follow up success there with glory here since 1998. Dalkala, whose dam Daltaya (Fr) (Anabaa) was disappointing when beating only two home in the 2006 edition of this Classic, is the choice of Christophe-Patrice Lemaire over her stable companion Sagawara. The unbeaten winner of the May 15 G3 Prix Cleopatre has history against her, as no filly has won that 1 5/16-mile Saint-Cloud prep and this race since Pawneese (Ire) in 1976. Cont. p3

All carry 126 pounds.

"Christophe [Lemaire] had the choice of all three runners, not just my two," Alain de Royer-Dupre, who has saddled six winners--all for The Aga Khan--told PA Sport. "Dalkala was very impressive the last day at Saint-Cloud in a Group 3, but I'm a little bit worried about the ground. It may be a little soft for her. I always think Giant's Causeways are better on good ground. I have no doubts about her condition, the race is at the right time for her, it's just the ground. Sagawara will be okay on the ground, she has had two runs on soft ground and coped with it. Her dam is by Linamix and I'm sure she can adapt well. She is already a Group 1 winner. Normally the Saint-Alary is not good timing to run in the Diane, but I hope it didn't take too much out of her."

Valyra has no black-type form to commend her, but also boasts a perfect record and was impressive when registering a three-length success in a 10-furlong conditions event here last time May 18. She could be in line to play a pace-making role here, as her half-sister Valasyra (Fr) (Sinndar {Ire}) did two years ago in aid of the same connections' ultimately successful Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}).

There were just two scratchings yesterday, with Aidan O'Brien opting to keep Twirl (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Wonderful (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) at home. Ground conditions are expected to ride good-to-soft, soft in places tomorrow after a drying forecast.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Stephen Foster Handicap

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

Quantity of Quality...

The Foster is anything but a fait accompli for Wise Dan, as several of his rivals have actually posted faster speed figures on conventional dirt. Most would have regarded Fort Larned (E Dubai) as a one-hit wonder when he Beyered 108 in defeating a somewhat suspect field in the GIII Skip Away S. over 9 1/2 furlongs at Gulfstream Mar. 31. But he ran right back to that figure and was an excellent runner-up to Successful Dan in the GIII Alysheba S. on Oaks Day May 4. Pin Oak homebred and ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Alternation (Distorted Humor) is unblemished in four starts this year, including a victory over GI Santa Anita H. hero Ron the Greek (Full Mandate) in the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 14. The dark bay enters the Foster off a narrow victory over 2011 GI Kentucky Derby bridesmaid Nehro (Mineshaft) in the GIII Pimlico Special May 18. Mission Impazible (Unbridled's Song) is winless in five tries at Churchill, but frequently goes close as evidenced by his second-place efforts in last year's Foster and Clark. He endured a wide trip last time out in the Pimlico Special S. and was beaten 1 1/4 lengths into fourth by Alternation. Nates Mineshaft (Mineshaft) will be allowed to free-wheel from the rail in an attempt to duplicate his front-running scores in the GII New Orleans H. and GIII Lone Star Park H. His one tour of Churchill resulted in a sixth in the Alysheba. Successful Dan was entered as an insurance policy for Wise Dan and is likely to be scratched.

Fort Larned

INCLUDE ME OUT LOOKS TOUGH IN VANITY

Jay Em Ess's Include Me Out (Include) solidified her status as the best handicap mare in Southern California with a comprehensive victory in the 1 1/16-mile GII Marjorie L. Everett H. at Betfair Hollywood Park May 19, and looks to build on a three-race winning skein in today's GI Vanity H. over nine furlongs. The Ron Ellis-trained 4-year-old was a solid allowance-type sprinter last season, but once stretched to two turns, has been unbeatable in 2012. She captured the GII La Canada at Santa Anita Jan. 22, the GI Santa Margarita S. Mar. 17, and proved Hollywood's Cushion Track was no issue in her latest. Rock and Glory (Rock Hard Ten) stands an excellent chance to gain some Grade I black-type if she retains her current form. The Mercedes homebred has been a revelation with a stretch-out to two turns, having won her maiden by 8 1/4 lengths in the Santa Anita slop Apr. 13 before romping by 11 1/4 lengths in a local allowance May 10. Zazu (Tapit) has been scratched with a hind-end issue, trainer John Sadler told Daily Racing Form. Ellafitz (Tiznow) has also been withdrawn.

DUBAI HANGOVER FOR DELTA?

Besilu Stables' Royal Delta (Empire Maker) makes a reasonably quick return to the races following an unsuccessful trip to Dubai in tonight's GII Fleur de Lis H., in which she'll spot seemingly outclassed rivals anywhere from five to eight pounds. When last she visited Churchill Downs, Royal Delta ran away with the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic Nov. 3 and with it champion 3-year-old filly honors. Trainer Bill Mott elected to give the ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ a single prep for the G1 Dubai World Cup in Gulfstream's GIII Sabin S. and she was runner-up, albeit a distant one, to Awesome Maria (Maria's Mon) in that Feb. 25 test. Forwardly placed in the World Cup, she remained in the thick of it to the three-furlong marker, but gave way thereafter to finish ninth. St. John's River (Include), the 2011 GI Kentucky Derby second-place finisher, looks the only threat to Royal Delta off a comeback second in the GII La Troienne S. May 4.

Saturday, Churchill Downs, post time: 9:05 p.m. EDT

HILL PRINCE LURES INTERESTING BUNCH

A wide-open field of 11 sophomore males faces the starter in today's GIII Hill Prince S. at Belmont Park, with no standout, but several with standout potential. Waterford Stable's Summer Front (War Front) puts an undefeated turf record on the line, and returns to the grass off a disappointing eighth in the GII Peter Pan S. May 12. The bay, a $475,000 KEEAPR juvenile purchase last year, was a two-time stakes winner on the lawn last season and can rebound here. Team Valor's Howe Great (Hat Trick {Jpn}) defeated Classic-placed Dullahan (Even the Score) in the GIII Palm Beach S. at Gulfstream Mar. 11 ahead of a fifth to that foe in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 14. The dark bay had no luck last time out in the GII American Turf S. May 4, drawing widest in 13 and hitting the gate before rallying late for third. Star Channel (English Channel) won three straight on the turf, including the restricted Sophomore Turf S. at Tampa Apr. 7, but dumped Javier Castellano nearing the quarter pole in the American Turf. The Hill Prince has plenty of pedigree appeal as well. Margano (Dynaformer), a full brother to Barbaro, looks to improve off a second in the seven-furlong Tiller S. May 20, while Film Shot (Distorted Humor), a son of GISW turfer Film Maker (Dynaformer), looks for some graded black-type. Field p7

WHO'LL WINN? ANYONE'S GUESS

There are just five pieces to the puzzle in tonight's GIII Matt Winn S., but it isn't necessarily an easy one to piece together, as a case can be made for virtually any of the contestants. Neck 'n Neck (Flower Alley) was on the fringes in Florida over the winter, and wasn't entirely off the screen when fifth in the GIII Sam F. Davis S. in February, fourth to Union Rags (Dixie Union) in the GII Fasig-Tipton Fountain of Youth S. Feb. 26 and fifth in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 31. Connections regrouped and the dark bay overwhelmed a first-level allowance at this venue by 6 1/2 lengths May 10. The flow of this heat may just work in his favor. Right to Vote (Political Force), third to the recent GI Belmont S. winner in the GI Champagne S. last fall, defeated a couple of next-out winners in his Mar. 24 comebacker sprinting at Gulfstream, then made the bulk of the running before being run down late by Mark Valeski (Proud Citizen) in Belmont's GII Peter Pan S. May 12. He should have some company up front in the form of Master Rick (Master Command), who missed the break in the Peter Pan and was sixth, but before that was an impressive winner of the Northern Spur S. at Oaklawn from just off the pace. Stealcas (Lawyer Ron) was beaten a neck by subsequent Belmont runner-up Paynter (Awesome Again) when third in the GIII Derby Trial S. Apr. 28 and he made light work of a one-mile allowance May 31. He's another who should like the shape of the race.

11 GOOD ONES IN THE REGRET

A strong, well-matched group of 11 sophomore fillies lines up for tonight's GIII Regret S. at Churchill Downs, and how the pace scenario unfolds will likely determine who walks away with the hardware in the nine-furlong turf event. The inclusion of first-time turfer Funny Proposition (Medaglia d'Oro), a sharp last-out winner after attending lively fractions in a two-turn optional claimer at Churchill May 4, could aid the closers, including Centre Court (Smart Strike). In her fourth career start, a nine-furlong maiden special over this course May 19, she rallied from well back and drew off to a 4 3/4-length win. Javier Castellano, who wins at a terrific 27% clip on the sod, hops aboard for the first time. Colonial Flag (Pleasant Tap) beat Centre Court in a Keeneland maiden in mid-April, then added a Belmont optional claimer May 13. Augustin homebred Coup (Empire Maker) lived up to favoritism in the Hilltop S. at Pimlico May 18, though her winning BRIS fig was an uninspiring 82.

'Rock' on Course for Cup Showdown...

Michael O'Flynn's Saddler's Rock (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) has received an upbeat bulletin from trainer John Oxx ahead of Thursday's G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot, for which a list of 13 remained at yesterday's six-day stage. Last year's G2 Doncaster Cup winner was having his first run subsequently when runner-up under a seven-pound penalty in last Friday's Listed Saval Beg S. at Leopardstown. "He stays well and races lazily--he is relaxed off the bridle and conserves his energy, which is what you need in Cup races," trainer John Oxx said. "He also has a good turn-of-foot at the end of extreme distances, which is a rare quality among stayers." Among his opponents is Fitri Hay and Derrick Smith's 2011 hero Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), who bids to emulate Ballydoyle's Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in recording back-to-back successes in the marathon feature, while that stable could also be represented by Susan Magnier's May 11 G3 Ormonde S. scorer Memphis Tennessee (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}). Godolphin also have a duo in last year's runner-up Opinion Poll (Ire) (Halling) from the Mahmood Al Zarooni barn and the Saeed bin Suroor-trained May 2 G3 Sagaro S. scorer Colour Vision (Fr) (Rainbow Quest), with Frankie Dettori on the former. Ground conditions at Ascot have deteriorated again, with nine millimeters of rain on Friday turning the official description back to soft. While showers are still forecast over the weekend, an improved picture is expected from the start of the meeting on Tuesday.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Mother Goose Looking Like Oaks Rematch...

Next Saturday's G1 Mother Goose S. at Belmont Park looks to be boiling down to a rematch between Believe You Can (Proud Citizen) and Broadway's Alibi (Vindication), the first- and second-place finishers in the G1 Kentucky Oaks May 4. Believe You Can, who provided her owner/breeder Brereton C. Jones with a second Oaks success, is to depart Churchill Downs by van today, with an arrival in New York early Sunday. She is tentatively scheduled to breeze at Belmont Monday or Tuesday. "The biggest thing is getting her there," said trainer Larry Jones. "There are no flights available. If she handles the trip and handles the track, we're running." Broadway's Alibi and GII Black-Eyed Susan S. runner-up Disposablepleasure (Giacomo) will breeze Sunday, after which trainer Todd Pletcher will make a decision on their Mother Goose participation. "If they both breeze as well as they did last Sunday, there's a good chance we'll run them both, but we'll see," the trainer said.

RETIREMENTS

Lightening Pearl Retired...

Last year's G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Lightening Pearl (Ire) (Marju {Ire}--Jioconda {Ire}, by Rossini) has been retired following her lackluster effort in Thursday's G3 Ballyogan S. at Leopardstown. Pearl Bloodstock's filly, who was also successful in the G3 Round Tower S. and third in the G2 Debutante S. last term, was 13th in the G1 1000 Guineas and beat only three rivals in her latest outing. "She hasn't been giving us the vibes this year, which I was afraid of as her mum and her sister didn't train on," trainer Ger Lyons told PA Sport. "There were no excuses ground-wise, the ground was good-to-firm in the straight. She arrived there two-out if good enough, but she didn't show any signs of encouragement that she was in love with the job. She'll always hold a place for me. I trained Sheikh Fahad his first winner and also his first Group 1 winner and I hope it's the start of a long relationship." The owner's Racing Manager David Redvers added, "She was fairly disappointing last night and Ger feels that she has not grown an inch or put on a pound of weight since winning the Cheveley Park. We could no doubt find Listed races and Group 3s to win going forward, but she owes us nothing. She gave Sheikh Fahad his first ever Group 1 winner, so we thought we'd stop with her now. It's a very difficult programme for 3-year-old sprinters. We could have kept her in training for the G3 Summer S. at York, which was our plan, but unless she was going to reach Group 1 level, Sheikh Fahad doesn't see the point in carrying on. He'd rather have her as a lovely broodmare."

Yawanna Twist (Yonaguska--Twist and Pop, by Oliver's Twist), a top New York-bred and winner of this year's GII General George H., was euthanized after fracturing a femur while getting up following routine ankle surgery, Daily Racing Form reports. The 5-year-old underwent the procedure at Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital in Lexington, but apparently "got up the wrong way," trainer Rick Dutrow told the Form. Runner-up in the GIII Gotham S. and GIII Illinois Derby ahead of a close fourth in the GI Preakness S., Yawanna Twist was third in the GI Carter H. and twice won allowance races in 2011, but recorded a career best in the General George, defeating barnmate This Ones For Phil (Untuttable). A winner of five of his 13 career starts, Yawanna Twist amassed earnings of $525,467.

Instant Racing Case Overturned:

Instant Racing will continue at Kentucky Downs for the time being, but advocates of the VLT-styled form of gaming suffered a setback yesterday when the Kentucky Court of Appeals vacated a decision from a lower court declaring the game legal. The decision adds another level of uncertainty as several tracks in the state consider installing the "historical horse racing" machines. Right now, only Kentucky Downs has Instant Racing, although Ellis Park was granted approval to open an Instant Racing parlor and was expected to do so in the near future.

In a 2-1 ruling released Friday, the Court of Appeals said the Franklin Circuit Court erred when it denied a request by the Family Foundation to allow for it to engage in "discovery"--or the collection of pre-trial evidence--in a case last summer challenging the legality of Instant Racing in Kentucky. Instant Racing uses historical race results and pools wagers in parimutuel fashion.

At the time, the Family Foundation, an anti-expanded-gaming group in based in Kentucky, sought to "examine the manner in which the wagers are pooled and how odds are calculated," according to yesterday's ruling, but were ultimately denied the chance to "develop proof." As such, the Court of Appeals said they could not review the lower court's decision that declared Instant Racing legal because that decision was based on inadequate evidence. Judges Janet and Joseph Lambert signed the majority opinion. The dissenting vote came from Judge Sara Combs, who said the lower court acted appropriately when it declared that Instant Racing fell within the guidelines set forth by the state's regulation of parimutuel wagering.

"Today's opinion is a victory for transparency," said Family Foundation attorney Stan Cave, who argued the case both in the Franklin Circuit Court and the Court of Appeals.

What happens next is unclear. The decision could be appealed the Kentucky State Supreme Court, or the case could be reheard at the Franklin Circuit Court.

The Kentucky Horse Racing Commission approved Instant Racing, made popular at Oaklawn Park, in 2010. The machines at Kentucky Downs, opened to the public last September, have generated nearly $2 million for purses and state breeders' awards.

Kentucky Gov. Steve Beshear, a proponent of Instant Racing, said in a statement, "Counsel for the various parties are reviewing the opinion of this divided court and evaluating the next steps. Although a majority on the court believed that further facts needed to be developed before they could render a decision, I am confident that the authority of the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission to authorize wagering on historical horse racing will be affirmed. In the meantime, I am pleased that the status quo has been maintained so our race tracks can continue to offer these exotic wagers until the case is decided."

IHRC Cancels Live Programs at Indiana Downs:

Following a directive from the Indiana Horse Racing Commission, officials at Indiana Downs in Shelbyville announced the cancellation of the live programs scheduled for Friday, June 15 and Saturday, June 16. Responding to a request from horsemen, the Commission will take time to assess the safety of the track. In a release, track officials said that the cancellation was being done “in an exercise of an abundance of caution to protect the safety of horse and rider.” They also “vehemently” disagreed with the assertion from horsemen that the track was unsafe and went on to say that, after 42 of 60 live dates, it was on track for one of the safest race meets in the country. Officials at Indiana Downs expect live racing to resume Monday, June 18.

HOT ROOTS (f, 3, Indian Charlie--Mother, by Lion Hearted) closed out the 2011 Churchill fall meet with a visually impressive maiden victory, but couldn't quite keep pace with the likes of Miss Netta (Street Sense) in a Gulfstream two-turn allowance and finished fifth. Third after setting the majority of the pace in a similar event Feb. 1, she was a distant last of eight going a one-turn mile Feb. 28 and was last seen finishing a well-beaten fifth sprinting over the Keeneland Poly Apr. 6. Taking a fair amount of play here at 3-1 despite the recent efforts, Hot Roots stalked the pace from second before drawing on even terms at the quarter pole. “Jockey for a Cause” Event Set for July 18:

Edited Press Release

The inaugural “Jockey for a Cause” Charity Event will take place July 18 at 6:00 p.m. (PDT) at the DeHaven Estate in Rancho Santa Fe, following opening-day races at Del Mar Thoroughbred Club. The party will be hosted by California horse owner Jeff DeHaven.

“There are some 2000 jockeys in the United States, and they have one of the most dangerous jobs in the world,” explained DeHaven. “Many of them have to work without adequate health insurance, life insurance or retirement fund, which puts a severe hardship on them and their families. I want this event to help make their lives easier.”

Proceeds from the event will provide funding for two charities--The Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund (PDJF) and The Jockey Club Safety Net Foundation, which assists riders and others in the industry facing a financial crisis.

“Permanently disabled jockeys depend on the PDJF for financial assistance,” said Nancy LaSala, Executive Director of the PDJF. “The PDJF was established to provide long term assistance to jockeys who have suffered on-track catastrophic injuries. Since its inception in 2006, it has been, and continues to be, challenged to meet its financial goals to meet the day-to-day needs of these men and women. We have great hopes that ‘Jockey for a Cause’ will help provide security for our injured riders and are very appreciative to Jeff for his commitment to these athletes.”

Added Nancy Kelly, executive director of The Jockey Club Safety Net Foundation, “The Jockey Club Safety Net Foundation helps not only jockeys, but many others in the industry in their time of need. Trainers, grooms, exercise riders, hot walkers, farm workers and front office personnel turn to us, and we want to be there to help. ‘Jockey for a Cause’ will help us help those valuable members of the industry.”

Tickets for “Jockey for a Cause” are available at www.pdjf.org. Further event and sponsorship information may be found at www.pdjf.org or www.tjcfoundation.org. Questions about sponsorships may be directed to Jeff DeHaven, 805-469-6800 or jdpmae@gmail.com. The party will be produced by Amey Hoey of Aimstar Events. ### ARAAFA DIES

Araafa (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre--Resurgence {GB}, by Polar Falcon) died on Friday morning from an apparent ruptured blood vessel in his heart, Racing Post revealed yesterday. The former G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace S. hero had just arrived at Kenneth Cullinane and Deirdre Lusby's Woodlands Stud in County Galway, having stood at Plantation Stud in Newmarket for the first five years of his stallion career. Araafa, whose dam is a sister to leading sire Pivotal (GB), was trained by Jeremy Nosedo, and after finishing fourth in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, captured the Irish equivalent in testing conditions before adding the Royal Ascot prize to his tally and finishing runner-up in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. back at the latter track. Plantation Stud's owners Dermot and Perle O'Rourke still owned Araafa at the time of his death and he was set to pursue a role as a dual-purpose sire. Tony Nerses, racing manager to former owners Imad Al Sagar and Saleh Al Homaizi, told the trade daily, "He was a great racehorse and gave us our first Classic win. He had the looks to complement his pedigree. It's very sad."

New Appointments at ITM:

Edited Press Release

Horse Racing Ireland yesterday announced a number of additions to the team at Irish Thoroughbred Marketing. Joe Osborne and Dick O'Sullivan have been appointed to the ITM Advisory Committee. Osborne is the recently appointed Chairman of the Irish Thoroughbred Breeders Association and a previous long-serving ITM Committee member. O'Sullivan has previously served as Chairman and General Manager of ITM, and is currently Manager of Punchestown racecourse. Elaine Hatton, a Senior Marketing Executive with Glanbia, will join ITM July 23 in the position of General Manager. Liam Glynn, a graduate of Equine Business Studies in NUI Maynooth, has also joined the team as a Marketing Assistant. Sean Clancy has been appointed as USA agent for ITM.

ATC Backs New Media Rights Deal:

The Australian Turf Club has supported a deal that would join the Club and Victorian racing industry with the country and provincial racing associates to consolidate television broadcast rights into TVN. If approved by TVN shareholders, stakeholders and regulators, the new deal will take effect in December. "This is the next stage in TVN's evolution," said ATC Chairman John Cornish yesterday. "Today's announcement provides us with the opportunity to further improve TVN and focus on growing racing against other wagering options such as sports betting by aggregating our best content together and focusing on long term competitive improvements." If the deal is approved, TVN will hold the rights to all Victorian and NSW racing until 2028.

FLANDERS FIELDS COLT TOPS PERU SELECT SALE

Fantastico (Per), a flashy chestnut colt from the third crop of the A.P. Indy stallion Flanders Fields, realized a final bid of $76,000 from veteran trainer Sabino Arias on behalf of Stud Altamar to top the two-day traditional Peruvian Breeders' Association Select Sale of yearlings. The sale was conducted on Monday and Wednesday evening at Hipodromo de Monterrico's Adolfo Vasquez Pequeno sales ring in Lima. Consigned by Haras San Pablo, the opening session-leading consignor with a record average of $60,250, Fantastico (Per) is the second foal out of champion grass mare Sza Sza Gabor (Per) (Shuailaan). Stud Altamar also campaigned 2011 Group 3 winner and three-time Classic-placed Private Affair (Per) (Privately Held), winner of the CTT-TOC H. in her U.S. debut at Del Mar last year.

Flanders Fields is a stakes-placed winner out of champion Flanders (Seeking the Gold). From his first crop, the stallion is already responsible for winner Catibel (Per), heroine of the 2011 G1 Clasico Enrique Ayulo Pardo (Peruvian Oaks).

Trainer Eduardo Pianezzi, representing Stud El Enigmatico, bought the second highest-priced colt of the sale, going to $75,000 for Metal (Per), a bay colt by leading sire Privately Held (Private Account). Metal is the fourth foal out of Champion 2-year-old and 2003 G1 Peruvian Oaks heroine Fastway (Combsway).

At the end of Monday's first session, 33 youngsters went under the hammer for more than $879,000, with an average price of $26,636. More than $764,500 was traded on Wednesday's final session, with an average of $25,483 for the 30 fillies offered in the catalog. Sale graduates are eligible to participate in the 2013 Clasico Selectos, which offers over $100,000 in purses.
