'SEA' GETS GREEN LIGHT FOR DERBY CLASH

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Born To Sea (Ire)

(Invincible Spirit {Ire}) has been confirmed an intended runner in Saturday's G1 Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby at The Curragh, which will be the first time that Christopher Tsui's homebred has tackled a distance beyond a mile. Trainer John Oxx explained that the 3/4-brother to Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) was "thriving" after finishing fourth in last Tuesday's G1 St. James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot. Johnny Murtagh will partner the sophomore. "I'll talk to the owners and make a final decision, but I expect he will run," the conditioner told PA Sport. "He's going from strength to strength. All the rain is a bit of a worry. I'd like to see him on a bit of fast ground, but he's got his brother's constitution. He takes everything in and doesn't worry. He's thriving from race to race and putting on weight. This horse is quite settled now in his races, and I think he can take another race. The opportunity is there to try him at a longer trip. He'll definitely like a mile and a quarter, but going straight from a mile to a mile and a half in one swoop is a bit risky. In the circumstances, we have to take a chance."

Oxx will also be represented by Jaber Abdullah's Akeed Mofeed (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), but will withdraw Neil Jones's Call To Battle (Ire) (King's Best) after that colt suffered a setback. "Call To Battle has a foot abscess," Oxx added. "It's quite nasty and rules him out at the weekend." Akeed Mofeed, who has not been seen since finishing runner-up in the G2 Beresford S. at The Curragh in September, will be partnered by Niall McCullagh in the 12-furlong Classic. "I ride Akeed Mofeed regularly at Mr. Oxx's yard, so I am well acquainted with the horse," McCullagh told PA Sport. "Hopefully, it will work out. He's a nice horse and he's back going quite well now."

GODOLPHIN BUY INTO DAWN APPROACH

Godolphin have purchased a majority share in Jim Bolger's G2 Coventry S. winner Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}), it was announced yesterday. The ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★, who is unbeaten in four starts culminating in last Tuesday's six-furlong juvenile highlight of the Royal meeting, will remain in training at Coolcullen for this year and will race in Godolphin's colors before a decision about his 3-year-old career is made later in 2012. Simon Crisford, Godolphin's racing manager, commented, "We are delighted Dawn Approach will race for Godolphin and look forward to seeing him run at the highest level throughout his career. It is fantastic how well New Approach has started his stallion career and Dawn Approach appears to have inherited many of his qualities." After the Coventry, Bolger highlighted the Sept. 15 G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien S. at The Curragh as the next target for the chestnut, who also annexed the Listed Rochestown S. at Naas June 4.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

‘BREATH’ HAS JULY CUP AIM

Khalid Abdullah's Bated Breath (GB) (Dansili {GB}) will bid to go one better than last year in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 14, trainer Roger Charlton confirmed yesterday. Beaten only by Dream Ahead (Diktat {GB}) in the six-furlong contest in 2011, the G2 Temple S. winner was finishing runner-up for the fourth time at the top level in last Tuesday's G1 King's Stand S. His conditioner said, "We are looking at the July Cup with Bated Breath. He has come out of his race at Royal Ascot in good form. He is a very consistent horse and ran right up to his best in the King's Stand on ground that wasn't ideal. He has run over five furlongs this year, but I think the step up to six furlongs will suit him. We are also looking at the July Cup with Genki (Ire) (Shinko Forest {Ire}), who ran well in the race last year." The Charlton-trained duo were among the 28 remaining entries following the latest forfeit stage, and another likely to take his chance is Fawzi Nass's Krypton Factor (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}). He was sixth behind Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) in Saturday's G1 Diamond Jubilee S. and the owner, and trainer's Racing Manager Oliver St Lawrence commented, "Krypton Factor is an intended runner in the July Cup. He is fine after his race at Royal Ascot, but he would have preferred firmer ground. He ran a creditable race--he was beaten just over two lengths--and was in the middle of the course where we think the ground was a bit softer. On grass, he wants the ground firmer than it was at Ascot. The uphill finish at Newmarket will suit him, too, but the ground is the main thing with him." Aidan O'Brien has mile Group 1 winners Excelebration (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) and Power (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the mix, while George Strawbridge's Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Godolphin's Sepoy (Aus) (Elusive Quality) are other intriguing contenders.

STRAIGHT STORY-G2

Ellis Park betting on Instant Racing

"Ellis Park owner Ron Geary plans to place a multimillion-dollar bet on the legality of operating Instant Racing gambling machines in Kentucky. Geary announced the racetrack will proceed with the installation of 177 of the devices, which combine horse racing bets with the speed and flash of slot machines." Chuck Stinnett, The Henderson Gleaner

Racing board members sound off on Illinois Derby snub

"Removing the Illinois Derby from the list of qualifying races for the Kentucky Derby did not go over well with at least two members of the Illinois Racing Board. Angelo Ciambone and Allan Monat expressed their displeasure at Tuesday's board meeting." Neil Milbert, Chicago Tribune

Civil War changed racing forever – starting with re-capture of Asteroid

"They're taking Asteroid!" someone shouted to Robert A. Alexander, owner of Woodburn Stud, and of its top Thoroughbred – many said the top Thoroughbred in America – Asteroid. Confederate raiders had invaded Alexander's farm, just across the Woodford County line from Lexington, looking for horses, and they found some of the finest in the world." Robert L Treadway, KY Forward

D. Wayne Lukas: Part 1-4

cleanhorseracing.org

A number of racing industry leaders--including D. Wayne Lukas--weigh in on the ongoing medication debate. In a four-part series, the Hall of Fame trainer outlines the issues surrounding the use and management of Lasix, the owner's role in medication reform, a uniform medication policy and funding for labs to ensure proper testing.

Racing's Older Fanbase

"No one, certainly not me, is suggesting that the cultivation of a younger fan base isn't worthwhile. Of course it is. And if you get lucky and lock a few younger fans in, you will have a group of fans you can rely on for decades – providing they are treated halfway decently along the way. But to infer that aiming young is the only hope is absurd. The game might be contracting, but it is not dying. Even in slumping times, annual total handle is around $10 billion. That's not dying." Mike Watchmaker, Daily Racing Form

Shanghai Bobby took in one of the earliest baby races of the season and proved more than equal to the task, clearing off to debut a four-length winner at Aqueduct Apr. 19 over the filly Ju Ju Eyeballs (Gators N Bears), who defeated colts in her next start at Monmouth Park. Given some time following that effort, the Starlight runner was backed into long odds-on favoritism and clung on late to remain unbeaten in his young career. Quickly away, Shanghai Bobby was joined to his outside by Cay Pomeroy (Pomeroy), and the duo slugged it out through fractions of :21.93 and :44.63.

While Cay Pomeroy called it a day, Shanghai Bobby declared victory in the battle, but the war was joined by Handsome Jack, who loomed a serious danger at the eighth pole. But he couldn't quite work his way past the chalk, who was actually inching away at the wire. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

SEASONED WARRIOR (Majestic Warrior) gets her career started for Charlotte Weber's Live Oak Plantation, who bred the bay filly from Sovereign Award winner and GSW Saoirse (Cure the Blues). The mare, acquired by Live Oak carrying eventual MGSW & GISP Hide and Chic (Seeking the Gold) for $2.2 million at KEENOV in 2001, has been an outstanding producer for the Florida-based outfit, as she is also responsible this filly's 3/4-sister, the MSW Autobahn Girl (A.P. Indy) and MSP Saoirse Cat (Storm Cat). The morning-line favorite at 8-5 is E Paul Robsham Stables' Lucky Friend (Friends Lake), whose second dam is a full sister to prominent sire Songandaprayer (Unbridled's Song). brisnet.com pps

 About 30 minutes after the juvenile fillies take their crack, 2-year-old males will take to the track for a wide-open maiden. The Todd Pletcher barn is represented by Repole Stable's ONETWENTYEIGHT (Discreet Cat), a half-brother to the durable MGSW Tackleberry (Montbrook), who cost $150K at this year's OBSMAR sale in Central Florida. Also kin to SP Trippin Star (Trippi), the Florida-bred is out of a half-sister to GISW Outofthebox (Montbrook). brisnet.com pps

7:36p TVG 8th, BHP, $50K, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f (AWT)
 Racegoers and punters will have to hang around until the end of the Hollywood card to witness the career debut of the recently named EXECUTIVEPRIVILEGE (First Samurai). Just a $23K acquisition as a KEESEP yearling last fall, the bay turned in a quarter-mile breeze in :21 flat (video) ahead of this year's OBSAPR sale and was hammered down to The Three Amigos for a sales-topping bid of $650K. Those three amigos are Mike Pegram, Karl Watson and Paul Weitman, who only named the filly last Friday, a day before she capped her worktab with a strong half in :48 1/5 from the gate at Santa Anita. Despite that promising looking tab, trainer Bob Baffert is on record in Daily Racing Form as saying he wishes the race were a bit shorter and that "she might get tired." brisnet.com pps

TIREE (g, 3, Smoke Glacken--Diva Dyna, by Grand Slam) closed his freshman campaign with a runner-up effort in a Sept. 24 maiden over this track and trip. He entered this perfect in a pair of tries this season, having graduated by 2 1/2 lengths May 16 before following up with a two-length allowance tally 15 days later. A stalking third for the opening half-mile of this one, Tiree came three wide into the stretch, lost a bit of momentum when he shifted in leaving the eighth pole, but was able to run down Midnight Medic (Dark Kestrel) to take it by a half-length as the 9-2 fourth choice. Churchill Adjusts Post Times:

In the face of triple-digit temperatures, Churchill Downs has amended its racing schedule for the coming weekend. The Louisville track has cancelled its Thursday card and pushed back first post time for racing Friday through Sunday until 6:30 p.m. each day. "Given the record-setting heat expected throughout the closing weekend of our Spring Meet, we hope the shift of our Friday 'Twilight Racing' program and Sunday's closing day racing program to nighttime programs is a solution that, given the forecast for extreme heat, is one that works for our horsemen and our racing fans," said Churchill Downs Racetrack President Kevin Flanery. "The installation of our permanent lights three years ago has allowed the flexibility to adapt to the extreme heat and develop a schedule that eases our most serious concerns about the safety of our equine and human athletes, meets the needs of our horsemen by preserving races scheduled for the meet's final three days, and provides fans who wish to enjoy Churchill Downs racing--either on-track, online or at satellite wagering centers--the opportunity to do so."

INDUSTRY INFO

Rood & Riddle to Host Educational Forum:

Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital will conduct an educational forum on radiographic and throat abnormalities in sales yearlings July 18 at the Fasig-Tipton Sales Pavilion in Saratoga Springs, NY. Moderated by Dr. Scott Ahlschwede, the panel will discuss types of radiographic and throat abnormalities and their impact on sale and racing with and without surgery. There will also be a discussion about the recent changes in the conditions of sale regarding Veterinary Radiographic Reports at public auction, as well as a question and answer session. The panel of veterinary experts include: Larry Bramlage DVM, Dipl. ACVS; Scott Pierce DVM; and Debbie Spike-Pierce DVM.

“With the new changes to the conditions of sale guaranteeing accuracy of veterinary repository reports, this is the perfect time to familiarize breeders, consignors and buyers with real examples of X-ray lesions and scope findings and share with them our thoughts on their significance,” said Ahlschwede, a New York-based Rood & Riddle equine practitioner.

The event, sponsored by the New York Thoroughbred Breeders Association, New York Thoroughbred Breeding and Development Fund, and Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital, begins with a welcome reception at 6 p.m. The panel discussion will run from 7:00-8:30pm. If you plan to attend, please RSVP by July 13 to rrh@roodandriddle.com or by phone to (859) 233-0371.

NTRA Advantage Savings Pass $100-Million:

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association's Advantage program has topped the $100-million mark in savings to the horse racing industry since the group purchasing arm was established in 2002. Sales and services purchased through the Advantage program have topped $612 million.

“NTRA Advantage is one of the first national programs that the NTRA created to improve the economics of the horse industry,” said Alex Waldrop, President and CEO of the NTRA. “By aggregating the collective buying power of the horse industry, NTRA Advantage has been able to make a significant difference in the bottom lines of horse operations large and small.”

NTRA Advantage offers savings through vendors such as John Deere, UPS, Sherwin-Williams, OfficeMax, Pfizer Animal Health, Flair Equine Nasal Strips and Hagyard Pharmacy.

JUDDMONTE DOMINATE OF TBA AWARDS

Khalid Abdullah's Juddmonte operation was once again the main focus at the annual Thoroughbred Breeders' Association Awards, collecting the prestigious Queen's Silver Cup for the eighth time since 2000. That honor, which is presented to the leading British-based breeder in terms of prize money, was granted at the function at Tattersalls alongside a third consecutive BBA Silver Cigar Box--for standing the leading British-based sire by prize money in Oasis Dream (GB)--and the TBA Silver Rose Bowl--a discretionary award for Flat breeder of the year. Also honored at the Shadwell-sponsored awards was David and Patricia Thompson's Cheveley Park Stud, who received the Barleythorpe Stud Silver Cup after Pivotal (GB) recorded the highest number of individual winners by a British-based stallion for the seventh consecutive year and an eighth in total. That stud also collected the Tattersalls Silver Salver after Dutch Art (GB) was named the leading British-based first-season sire, while the H J Joel Silver Salver for Flat broodmare of the year was given to Darley for Summertime Legacy (GB) (Darshaan {GB}), dam of the G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Wavering (Ire) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}) and G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud scorer Mandaeon (GB) (Manduro {Ger}).

Tardy at the break, the bay was soon traveling easily as Remember Alexander (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}) set off into a clear lead. Inglis Australian Weanling Sale cont.

"Vendors that brought quality offerings to today's sale were well rewarded by the strong local and international buying bench assembled, who no doubt are well aware of the strong demand for Australian-bred Thoroughbreds in the yearling sale ring," said Inglis Bloodstock Director Jonathan D'Arcy. "The progeny of Fastnet Rock have been in high demand at all of Inglis' sales this year and that continued today, but it was also great to see a number of those weanlings that featured in the TVN First Season Sire Showcase overnight sell well today."

Coolmore Stud's Fastnet Rock colt, out of dual Group 2 winner Bird Of Fire (NZ) (Stravinsky), had plenty of admirers at Newmarket yesterday. Offered as Lot 22, the colt elicited several bids from around the pavilion before weighing in as the highest priced weanling in Australasia this year when selling to J. Scott of Victoria for A$270,000.

Coolmore Stud also provided the top priced filly of the session in Lot 172, by Fastnet Rock. Out of listed winner and Group 1 placed Sarah Vee (Aus) (End Sweep), the filly sold to Victoria's Musk Creek Farm for A$250,000. The Oct. 23 foal is a half to multiple group placed Rahveel (Aus) (Zabeel {NZ}). Musk Creek has already tasted success with the progeny of Fastnet Rock, having pinhooked this year's Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale topper for A$500,000 at Oaklands in March.

The progeny of Fastnet Rock's Group 1-winning son Wanted (Aus) was also figured prominent Wednesday when a pair of his weanlings featured in the TVN First Season Sire Showcase sold well. Lot 198 out of Tiger Storm (Aus) (Hold That Tiger), a half-sister to MGSW Stormhill (Aus) (Danehill); and Lot 64 out of Evening Charmer (Woodman), realized final bids of A$100,000 and A$80,000, respectively. Also reaching the six figure mark on Day 1 was Lot 75, a colt by Exceed and Excel (Aus) that brought A$100,000. Out Fizzi Lizzi (Aus) (Royal Academy), the Edinglassie Stud offering was purchased by New Zealand's Regal Farm.

Coolmore Stud finished the opening session as the leading vendor by aggregate after having sold 23 weanlings for a total of A$980,000. Other vendors to clear over A$150,000 in sales on Day 1 were Edinglassie, Patinack Farm, Broadwater Thoroughbreds, Middlebrook Valley Lodge, Eliza Park, Amarina Farm and Fairhill Farm, who sold Group 1 Manawatu Sire's Produce S. winner Choice Bro at this sale in 2010.

"Very pleasing to see a wide range of purchasers on the buyers list today, from pinhookers and breeders to owners, agents and trainers," D'Arcy said.

Musk Creek Farm rounded out the session as the leading individual buyer, purchasing six weanlings for A$397,000. New Zealand pinhookers exercised their buying power by securing 16 weanlings for a total of A$663,000.

The sale continues 10 a.m. Thursday and concludes Friday. For complete results from day 1, click here. The complete catalog can be found at www.inglis.com.au.
