AN OPEN AND SHUT CASE?

Even allowing for the obvious outstanding prospects of Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) in today's G1 Dubai Duty

Camelot with Aidan & Joseph O'Brien
Caroline Norris

Free Irish Derby, the reading of recent alumni of the Curragh Classic confirm the impression that there is no plausible place to look for the winner other than Ballydoyle. Setting a record 12 months ago when saddling a sixth consecutive winner, Aidan O'Brien also engineered an unprecedented fourth one-two-three in the race since 2002, and few would rule out another trifecta this time. Camelot's credentials are clear for all to see and, despite ground concerns, a defeat for the first G1 2000 Guineas/G1 Epsom Derby winner to attempt this treble since Nijinsky in 1970 will be a major shock. Should the conditions undermine his natural elan, his stable companion and "TDN Rising Star" Imperial Monarch (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Epsom third Astrology (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) are in line to pick up the pieces. "Camelot is a very good-actioned horse, and although he won the Guineas on slowish ground, it was lovely fast ground at Epsom," O'Brien warned when interviewed on RTE Radio. "We would obviously have concerns if it went very soft and it is not ideal so the more it dries out, the better it is for him. He's always shown a lot of speed, class and courage and is just one of those unique horses that come along very rarely."

In any other year, Imperial Monarch would hold strong claims of Classic glory following an encouraging win in the Apr. 28 G3 Sandown Classic Trial and a luckless trip in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly June 3. Like the 2010 hero Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), he bids to put a no-show in the old "French Derby" firmly behind him, but O'Brien will have a close look at him after he gave connections a late scare. "We hope to run Imperial Monarch, but when we were shoeing him, he just had a slight little pulse in his foot," O'Brien explained. "We hope that doesn't turn into anything." Cont. p3

CALIFORNIA DREAMIN'

Betfair Hollywood Park will host a pair of Grade I tests this afternoon. "TDN Rising Star" The Factor (War Front) will bid to put his Dubai disappointment behind him in the G1 Triple Bend H., while a field of eight veterans will bid to secure a spot in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile by virtue of the "Win and You're In" Challenge program in the G1 Shoemaker Mile. Little Mike (Spanish Steps), winner of five of his last six, ships in for trainer Dale Romans. Cont. p4

STARS SET FOR PALERMO

The 22nd renewal of the "Carreras de las Estrellas" will be contested today at Hipodromo Palermo in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Modeled on the Breeders' Cup, the event is comprised of six Group 1 races across various divisions, and the marquee race is the P1.1 million

(US$243,000) G1 Gran Premio Estrellas Classic. A field of eight has assembled for the 2000-meter race, with Expressive Halo (Arg) (Halo Sunshine), winner of the G1 GP Carlos Pellegrini in December and the

G1 GP Republica Argentina May 1, expected to go off as the favorite. Malibu Queen (Arg) (Bernstein) will look to continue her winning streak in the G1 GP Estrellas Distaff. The Santa Maria de Araras homebred has won three straight at today's 2000-meter distance, including the G1 GP Gilberto Lorena Apr. 2 and the G1 GP Criadores May 1 at Palermo. The G1 GP Estrellas Juvenile features the stakes debut of Curioso Johan (Arg) (Johannesburg), who aired by eight lengths over this track and trip June 1. He will need to counter the experience of Van Perpignan (Arg) (Van Nistelrooy), the winner of four of six career starts, including a pair of Copa Bullrich contests May 11 and June 1. Cont. p7

The Jockey Club's James Gagliano has written an open letter to the industry, saying that reformed racing medication rules would enhance the integrity of the sport. This comes on the heels of the spate of dermorphin positives in Louisiana.

Astrology, whose solid Derby effort came on the back of an 11-length success in the G3 Dee S. run on deep ground at Chester May 11, has since disappointed when nearly 10-lengths fourth as the 8-11 favorite in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot. That came only eight days ago, but such is the Ballydoyle trainer's skill at getting his horses back from poor runs quickly it is almost an irrelevance. It is also worth remembering that five of the stable's last six winners had been placed or worse at Epsom before taking the necessary step forward in this Classic.

St Jovite provided Jim Bolger with an unforgettable day here 20 years ago, and the guru of Coolcullen covets another victory. The admirable Light Heavy (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) has his work cut out on the formbook, though. Neither his 2 1/2-length defeat of Call To Battle (Ire) (King's Best) in the Apr. 15 G3 Ballysax S. nor his neck margin over Tower Rock (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) in the May 13 G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial--both staged over 10 furlongs at Leopardstown--are strong enough performances to suggest that he will shake up Camelot. What he does have in his favor is an aptitude for battle, and it is impossible to rule out how much improvement Bolger can eke out at this trip. "He'd prefer better ground, I'm sure, but I'd imagine that will be the case with most of them," Bolger told PA Sport. "He's unbeaten this year and goes there in good form. He's won his trials, and down the years they've been a good pointer to Epsom and the Curragh. I'm sure he'll give a good account of himself." Moyglare Stud's Speaking of Which (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) is still an uncertain starter, according to the operation's manager Stan Cosgrove.

Think About It!

"We're just not sure about the trip in the soft ground," Cosgrove told PA Sport. "We'll make a final decision tomorrow morning. The thing is we don't want to mess him up long-term by running him on really bad ground, so we'll just have to see."

The Curragh's manager Paul Hensey is expecting a mainly dry lead-up to this evening's feature. "It is soft, heavy in places, but it's a lovely bright day today so it should be soft by the start of the meeting," he said yesterday morning.

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

WHO'S A 'SHOE' IN?

Dale Romans made a successful foray with Thorn Song (Unbridled's Song) to annex the 2009 renewal of this race, and is hoping to secure a GI Breeders' Cup Mile spot for Little Mike (Spanish Steps). The front-running bay most recently flaunted his speed with a wire-to-window score in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill May 5. "He's a speed horse," Romans confirmed. "He's fast and he has endurance. If anyone tries to run with him, they'll pay the price." The usual local suspects--Mr. Commons (Artie Schiller), Jeranimo (Congaree) and Liberian Freighter (Bertrando)--will attempt to reel in Little Mike, and there's an intriguing new face in the form of Suggestive Boy (Arg) (Easing Along) from the Ron McAnally barn. The bay captured the G1 Estrellas Juvenile on the San Isidro sod 12 months ago, and added victories in the G1 Gran Premio Dos Mil Guineas in August and G1 Gran Premio Jockey Club Oct. 15. "He acts like a good horse and he trains like a good horse," McAnally told Daily Racing Form. "When the boy sets him down at the end of his works, he comes with a real good turn of foot. I don't need to look at my watch to see how good he's doing it."

MAJOR FACTOR

George Bolton and Fog City Stable's multiple Grade I winner The Factor (War Front) kicked off 2012 with a sparkling win in the GII San Carlos S. at Santa Anita Feb. 25, but uncharacteristically never saw the lead in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen at Meydan Mar. 31 before crossing the wire sixth. The grey has been training smartly in recent weeks, and trainer Bob Baffert believes his charge will bounce back from his desert sojourn. "The Dubai race is a throw-out," Baffert told Daily Racing Form. "He was dull and flat." Defending champion Smiling Tiger (Hold That Tiger) was sidelined after finishing fourth to The Factor in the GI Pat O'Brien S. at Del Mar last summer. He came back to run fifth in a rousing renewal of the GII Churchill Downs S. on the Kentucky Derby undercard, and most recently overcame a poor start to finish third in the GII True North H. at Belmont June 9. Camp Victory (Forest Camp), second in both the Triple Bend and Pat O'Brien in 2011, will bid to give trainer Mike Mitchell a boost before he undergoes surgery Monday. The 5-year-old is coming off a third to Roman Threat (Roman Ruler) and Centralintelligence (Smarty Jones) in the GIII Los Angeles H. at this track on Memorial Day.

Flaxman Holdings' Aruna (Mr. Greeley) got back on track last out in the GII Sheepshead Bay S. over this course May 26, and will be favored to keep up the good work today in the GII New York S. "The [Sheepshead Bay and the New York] are similar races, but the New York will be more akin to a Grade I in terms of the caliber of the horses who will be competing in it," trainer Graham Motion offered. Among her rivals is Banimpire (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), who will be making her first start for owner Martin Schwartz after selling for €2.3 million at Goffs in November. Winner of the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot, the dark bay missed by a nose in the G1 Irish Oaks in July. She was also third in the G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp Oct. 2 before finishing up her tenure for trainer Jim Bolger with an uncharacteristic seventh in the G2 British Champion Fillies & Mares S. at Ascot Oct. 15. She will race with Lasix in her initial outing for trainer Chad Brown. Mystical Star (Ghostzapper) had an interesting time of it in the Sheepshead Bay. She broke through the gate a split second before the remainder of the field was away, and wound up at the back of the pack before jockey Jose Lezcano persevered with her. The Cheyenne Stables colorbearer made her way forward and wound up crossing the line third behind Aruna and Hit It Rich (Smart Strike) at 15-1, but was disqualified and placed eighth because of the problems at the start. "The race was over when she broke 15 lengths out of it, but she ran a really good race," said Christophe Lorieul, assistant to trainer Christophe Clement.

SECOND SEASON STARTS IN DWYER

A septet of sophomores will bid to get the second half of the year going in the GII Dwyer S. at Belmont. Unstoppable U (Exchange Rate) captured his first two starts before getting thrown in the deep--and long--end of the GI Belmont S. June 9. The grey was forwardly placed early before tiring to finish sixth, beaten 11 lengths, but should appreciate cutting back to 8 1/2 panels here. "Hopefully, he runs like we know he can," said Lars Becdelamotte, assistant to trainer Ken McPeek. "We think he's a horse that is capable of running in a race like the Travers. He has to show us he's the horse we think he is in this race. He doesn't have to win, but he's got to be right there at the wire."

HANSEN RETURNS IN IOWA

Champion Hansen (Tapit) is 2-5 on the morning line of the GIII Iowa Derby tonight at Prairie Meadows, and certainly will take a majority of the money by the time "they're off" is heard. The flashy colt showed he could settle off the pace when rallying to take the GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct in March, but he couldn't fend off Dullahan (Even the Score) when second in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland Apr. 14. He was up close early before winding up ninth in the GI Kentucky Derby May 5, and certainly doesn't face the likes of I'll Have Another (Flower Alley) or Bodemeister (Empire Maker) this time.

BABIES SET FOR BASHFORD MANOR

Tonight's GIII Bashford Manor S. at Churchill brings together an octet that might be heard from for a while. Donegal Racing's Roman's Avenue (Street Sense) looked like he might be any kind when he was tabbed a "TDN Rising Star" after his debut score under the Twin Spires May 27. Also in the field is Positively (Distorted Humor), a half-brother to leading sire Malibu Moon (A.P. Indy). The bay colt had an educational debut before putting it all together with a sharp win over next-out winner John Gordon (Orientate) at this track June 8. Trainer Garry Simms, battling multiple myeloma, won last week's GIII Debutante S. and is looking to make it a double with Circle Unbroken (Broken Vow). The dark bay has the field's highest last-out Beyer Speed Figure of 79, earned in a successful career debut June 17. "Making history like that would be more important for my kids," Simms said. "Down the road they can look back and talk about it. That would mean the most to me. It's about my family and my owners now. It's not about me anymore."

Horse racing news will come to CNN en Español on Al Galope
"Starting Saturday, June 30th at 9:00 pm (ET), CNN en Español will broadcast Al Galope, a new sports program that will present the highlights of horse racing." CNN

The Day At the Races
"The Breeders' Cup will not be held at Belmont Park in 2013, according to a source close to the negotiations. Belmont was as a frontrunner earlier this year, but a conflict with the New York City Marathon has caused the track to drop out of the running, as most of the hotels in the city are already booked due to the Marathon." Jerry Bossert, Daily News

Purses Boosted for Eight Races on Thoroughbred Stakes at Fair Grounds "Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots has boosted the purses of eight open-company races on its 2012-2013 stakes schedule released today, marking the third straight year the average stakes purse has increased at the New Orleans racetrack. Last season the track raised purses on 19 stakes events." Jim Mulvihill, SportsNOLA

BACK ON TRACK

Aidan O'Brien's sheer domination of the G2 Railway S. has suffered a glitch of late, with the last two renewals of the Curragh's marker of the juvenile status quo going to British invaders. Today's renewal should see Ballydoyle's sequence reinstated, as Susan Magnier's Cristoforo Colombo (Henrythenavigator) boasts the strongest piece of form by some margin. Third behind TDN Rising Star Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) in Royal Ascot's G2 Coventry S. 11 days ago, he shares a similar profile to the stable's 2001 and 2006 winners Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) and Holy Roman Emperor (Ire).

Cristoforo Colombo is joined by another son of Henrythenavigator in Pedro the Great, who trailed Dawn Approach when fifth on a stiff debut ask in the June 4 Listed Rochestown S. at Naas before scoring by 4 1/4 lengths in a Leopardstown maiden over this trip 17 days later. O'Brien is edging nearer to the record of 14 wins set by his predecessor at Rosegreen, and one colt who could deny a 12th success for the current Co. Tipperary maestro is Michael Tabor's Probably (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). He was third behind another TDN Rising Star in Lines of Battle (War Front) and Leitir Mor (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire})--who were sixth and seventh in the Coventry, respectively--on debut over this track and trip May 27. He did not look to have made a giant leap forward with a subsequent workmanlike win over seven furlongs at Limerick June 16. "He's in good form and I've been happy with what he has done so far," trainer David Wachman told PA Sport. "It's a good race and he has never experienced ground like this before, but, hopefully, he should run a nice race."

THE ROAD BACK

It is a familiar path that is trod at this time of year. Those who went into the spring and summer Classics with major claims only to come up short now have to re-establish their reputations and build anew. Such a campaigner is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Abtaal (Rock Hard Ten), who had the majority excited as he went to the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 5 before coming out worst of the French trio when eighth behind Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). It may be that the ground there was too easy for his liking, despite having handled cut when winning the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon at Saint-Cloud in October and when second in the G3 Prix Djebel at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 5. Despite a slow start, it is hard not to anticipate bigger things from Khalid Abdullah's Mainsail (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), a close relative of the Juddmonte luminary Rail Link (GB) (Dansili {GB}). Family relations is not all he has to recommend him, as he was the decisive three-length winner of the nine-furlong Listed Prix Matchem at Maisons-Laffitte last time June 6, with the subsequent listed winner Bayrir (Fr) (Medicean {GB}) back in fourth.

REFORMED RACING MEDICATION RULES WOULD ENHANCE INTEGRITY OF SPORT

By James L. Gagliano

“There’s no legitimate use for dermorphin in racing. This drug in horses is an abuse of the horse. This puts the horse’s life in danger. It puts the jockey’s life in danger. This is an attempt to cheat. This is bad stuff. This is doping.”

That is how Charles Gardiner, the executive director of the Louisiana State Racing Commission, reacted in the New Orleans Times-Picayune when news broke recently that 10 horses that had raced at Louisiana tracks has tested positive for the powerful, pain-killing drug dermorphin.

Only a few trainers in Louisiana have been named at this time, but we understand that there are dozens of dermorphin positives from multiple states on the horizon. The trainers in Louisiana whose horses have tested positive for dermorphin were issued six-month suspensions.

Three months ago, The Jockey Club published an updated version of its Reformed Racing Medication Rules. Those new rules feature a cumulative penalty system featuring stronger penalties for repeat violations. Fines, disqualifications and even lifetime suspensions would be possible for those persistently operating outside regulatory limits.

(They are available at:

If those rules were in effect in Louisiana, or any of the other states in which the same drug has been found recently, any trainer found to have treated a horse with dermorphin would have received, at a minimum, 150 points on his record, a 10-year suspension and a $37,000 fine.

It is abundantly clear that the current enforcement system is not working properly. The regulatory penalty structure has failed.

We see evidence of this with these blatant attempts by a few unscrupulous parties to beat our drug-testing system. We see more evidence of this in the high proportion of drug violations that only result in fines – fines that are trivial in amount when compared to the purses at stake.

Penalties for repeat offenders have been particularly and excruciatingly deficient.

In fact, there is no better example of the failure of our penalty system than dermorphin. According to published reports, one of the recent “positives” for dermorphin in Louisiana is associated with a horse whose trainer is alleged to have two prior Class 1 violations on his record. Drugs in this class, according to Racing Commissioners International guidelines, have no generally accepted medical use in the racing horse and their pharmacologic potential for altering the performance of a racing horse is very high.

Sadly, inconsequential penalties have become just another cost of doing business. Fines for medication violations are often no more than a small percentage of monthly drug and veterinary expenses in a stable.

The harm these incidents do to our sport is immeasurable and irreparable. The dermorphin (“frog juice”) stories ended up on the front page of The New York Times and on the TIME magazine website, among many other mainstream outlets.

We are not the only sport that plays constant catch-up on new performance-enhancing drugs. Look no further than the use of anabolic steroids in baseball or EPO in cycling.

But the general public does not, and should not be expected to, differentiate between therapeutic and performance-enhancing drugs in racing. That is why all race-day medications should be prohibited.

The Jockey Club has committed substantial resources to reinvigorate the sport of Thoroughbred racing with a host of fan and owner development initiatives, ranging from television programming and social games and to the creation and launch of a new brand (America’s Best Racing).

But we cannot address sustainability issues for our sport until image, integrity, and animal welfare issues, triggered most of all by lax and inconsistent drug policies, are managed and contained.

Otherwise, we will suffer death by a thousand cuts.

Our hats go off to Petra Hartmann of Industrial Laboratories Co. Inc. in the Denver area for conducting research that led to the development of a post-race test that found and identified dermorphin.

Clearly, we need to improve the standards of all of our drug-testing labs, accredit them and then ensure that they share their common procedures and findings in a unified effort to improve the integrity of the sport.

Back in January, the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTC) board of directors voted to shift the group’s main research focus from therapeutic medications to drugs that pose an immediate threat to the integrity of racing.

That was a good decision.

Regulators know we have to reform our rules, and so do most horsemen.

“Problems like we’re having now with dermorphin, quite simply, can be traced to three issues,” said Dr. Rick Arthur, the equine medical director for the California Horse Racing Board. “Our laboratories are underfunded, our research is underfunded, and our penalties are inadequate.”

A longtime owner, breeder and trainer named Christine Janks recently took our industry to task for its lackadaisical approach to drugs and penalties in a commentary that appeared in the Paulick Report.

She said, “I wonder about all the people defrauded out of winnings while this has been going on, and I wonder if racing will ever get serious about getting rid of the criminals...Maybe we ought to try a novel approach: Give the honest guy a chance.”

If someone within our industry feels that way, we can only imagine how fans or prospective fans feel as they digest reports about frog juice and other illegal elements.

It was heartening to see the Thoroughbred Racing Associations board of directors call for the implementation of uniform regulations regarding more restrictive use of a limited number of therapeutic drugs, a strong penalty structure for violators, and the elimination of treatment practices that could imperil the welfare of the horse when racing.

It is encouraging to see industry organizations such as Breeders’ Cup Limited and the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association taking steps to reform drug policies, and it is comforting to see racing commissions moving in the same direction.

The decision by the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission on June 13 to begin a phase out of furosemide in graded or listed stakes races was one example.

New rules in New Mexico take effect July 31 and include lowering the legal level of non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs that horses can receive before racing, which was recommended by the RMTC and The Jockey Club’s Thoroughbred Safety Committee.

Charles Gardiner is exactly right when he talks about dermorphin.

This is bad stuff. This is doping.

We need to make reforms and we need to do so now. The racing commissions of this country should redesign their rules. And the adoption of Reformed Racing Medication Rules is a good place to start.

James L. Gagliano is the president and chief operating officer of The Jockey Club.

BRINGING UP BABY

courtesy Jon Forbes/NYRA

Baby J debuted a half-length winner on Thursday at Belmont Park for retired jockey Juvenal Diaz, but, if all goes according to plan, the filly will soon carrying somebody else's colors, the former rider said on Friday.

"I never keep them," said Diaz. "If I do keep one, it's because I can't sell them!"

On Thursday, Baby J took the lead a sixteenth of a mile into the race, repelled a pair of challengers nearing the quarter pole, and was driven home by jockey Junior Alvarado to hold off a late bid from Seasoned Warrior. Baby J became the first winner for her freshman sire, 2008 Gil Woody Stephens victor J Be K (Silver Deputy).

Diaz, who rode Meadowlake and Black Tie Affair and won 3,164 races while riding primarily in the Chicago area, bought Two Item Limit for $20,000 as a yearling in 1999 before selling her for $50,000 at auction the following spring. Two Item Limit went on to win three graded stakes, place in the 2001 Breeders' Cup Distaff and two other Grade I races, and earn a shade over $1 million.

After purchasing Blind Luck for $11,000 at a yearling sale in 2008, Diaz sold the filly privately following her 13 1/4-length debut win against claimers at Calder Race Course. Blind Luck later became 2010's champion 3-year-old filly after winning races such as the G1 Kentucky Oaks and G1 Alabama, and earned $3.2 million over the course of her three-year career.

To stay within his budget while scouting horses at auctions, Diaz said he focuses on horses who are athletic instead of horses with top pedigrees or who have perfect conformation, with Baby J being a perfect example.

Baby J at Belmont

"[Baby J is] a very athletic, racy filly," said Diaz. "She's very fluid and nice moving. That's the kind of horse I try to buy. Blind Luck was the same way, but she was on the smaller side and was very gangly when I bought her. Baby J was more mature and she always trained forwardly. She was ready before I ever bred her."

Diaz said he hoped to sell Baby J for $70,000 at Fasig-Tipton's Florida sale in March, but she failed to meet her reserve when the bidding stopped at $65,000.

"She worked awfully good and had one of the best gallop-outs, but the buyers didn't like her conformation, so they walked," said Diaz. "They want them to look like a model, but she didn't."

Following the auction, Diaz placed Baby J with trainer Michelle Nihei. The retired rider said Nihei worked tirelessly to help Baby J overcome her fear of the starting gate, and for that he hopes the filly's new owner, whoever it may be, will keep her in Nihei's barn.

"I got a lot of calls [after the race], and I hope I can sell her to somebody who will keep her with Michelle because she put a lot of work into her," said Diaz. "She was scared to go into the gate, so we schooled her at the gate almost every day. She had always trained the way you'd like to see them train, but you never know until they actually race."

TVG Kaleem Shah's TAKE CONTROL (A.P. Indy) makes his extra-belated second start. The son of Horse of the Year and Hall of Famer Azeri (Jade Hunter) scored first out as a late-season 2-year-old at Santa Anita in December of 2009 (when that venue still had a synthetic surface), but he has been in and out of training ever since due to shin problems. The $7.7M KEESEP RNA and $1.9M KEEAPR juvenile has been working regularly in Arcadia since late May, and goes out for a trainer who's scoring with upwards of 40% of his runners this meet. BREEDERS' GROUP FRACTURES

His Highness The Aga Khan has caused a shockwave in the French breeding industry by resigning from the Syndicate des Eleveurs, which serves as the country's breeders' association. It is believed that the move is a direct result of the imposed changes to the long-established and popular breeders' premiums and could lead to further high-profile members stepping down to form a splinter group. Among the alterations to the scheme is the cutting of the basic rate of breeders' premiums to 10% from the current level of 14 for foals born in 2014. Despite the promise that it will increase to 15% if the horse was conceived in France, the new rule means that horses merely born and raised in the country will enjoy the reduced amount only. The Aga Khan's Bloodstock Manager Georges Rimaud told Jour de Galop, "I think that there are others apart from us who had the same reaction to the measures which passed the vote which don't coincide with their vision for breeding. If other people resign, I believe it will be because they don't feel represented. The position I hold is solely mine and that of the concern that I represent. I am not the leader of any dissident group. I only represent the Aga Khan Studs, and we have the feeling that we are not being listened to within the body of the breeders' association."

Bjorn Nielsen's Michelangelo (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) has so far been handled in a manner befitting his excellent pedigree and 550,000gns price tag. He can start to pay dividends in today's £150,000 Tattersalls Millions 3YO Cup at Newmarket. Early indications as to his ability were clear when he debuted in the May 5 Listed Newmarket S. over this trip on the Rowley Mile. In the shake-up where it mattered when third behind Noble Mission (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) there, the blueblood learned from that experience when overcoming a solid opponent in Expense Claim (Ire) (Intikhab) to win the Listed Cockeyed Hat S. over a panel further at Goodwood last time May 25. "He is a nice, progressive colt who has taken a bit of time to come to himself," trainer John Gosden commented. "We were delighted with his win at Goodwood last time." As usual in these races, the wheat has to be separated from the chaff and Sultan Ahmad Shah's Cameron Highland (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) still has potential coming back off a break after a third in Epsom's Derby Trial Conditions S. over an extended 10-furlong trip last time Apr. 25.

AFONSO DE SOUSA (Henrythenavigator) starts out in the Michael Tabor silks on ground which is certain to play against him. A bold show from the $300,000 KEESEP yearling and half-brother to dual Classic winner Big Brown (Boundary) will point to an above-average level of ability. Aidan O'Brien also saddles another son of Henrythenavigator in Susan Magnier's colorbearer George Vancouver, a half-brother to Saarland (Unbridled), who was fifth on debut at Navan earlier this month.

URSA MAJOR (IRE) (c, 3, Galileo {Ire}--Inchyre {GB}, by Shirley Heights {GB}), runner-up to Ballydoyle's pattern-race performer Athens (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) in a 10-furlong conditions event at Navan Apr. 29 before winning a handicap over this course and distance by seven lengths June 10, was held up early and over-raced as a result of the steady tempo. Niggled at before the home turn, the 100,000gns TATOCT yearling showed courage to grab the lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining en route to a 1 1/2-length verdict over Buy Back Bob (Ire) (Big Bad Bob {Ire}) as the 11-4 favorite. + SINANIYA (f, 2, More Than Ready--Sindirana {Ire} {SW-Eng}, by Kalanisi {Ire}), from the extended family of champion Sinndar (Ire) (Grand Lodge), was sent off at 11-2 in her unveiling. She broke tardily before showing dash to lead after a furlong. Always traveling strongly in the hands of Johnny Murtagh, the homebred appeared to have the race won a long way from home and may have been tiring late to score by a diminishing head margin from My Special J's (Harlan's Holiday). "The going is testing and Sinaniya tired a bit at the end, but she hung on," trainer John Oxx told Irish Racing Online. "I didn't think she'd win on the ground, as both sides of her pedigree suggest she wants it better. We won't be in any hurry with her and we'll then try to get a bit of black-type." Where (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), the daughter of Virginia Waters (Kingmambo), started as the 4-1 second choice, and after showing prominently out wide, could only find one pace late on to finish sixth. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €10,350.

Rolling to the front with ease passing the quarter pole, the 2-1 second favorite asserted to score by 3 1/2 lengths from Lady Jock (Ire) (Giant's Causeway). Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, €9,985. FASTNET ROCK YEARLING TOPS INGLIS

The 2012 Inglis Australian Weanling and Bloodstock Sale came to a close Friday at Newmarket in Sydney, where A$6,476,400 ($1US = A$0.995)--up 12% on last year's sale--was traded on racing and breeding stock over the past three days. The highest price during yesterday's session was recorded by lot 576, a colt by Fastnet Rock (Aus) from Mis Excitabull (Holy Bull), bringing A$100,000 from David Hayes Racing. He was offered by Fairhill Farm. "Eighty-five percent of all stock offered in Sydney this week was sold, a great result, and I have no doubt that given the depth of buying bench assembled for the weanlings if we had more quality lots entered they also would have found very suitable new homes," Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster said. "Over 80 individual buyers from all states of Australia, as well as New Zealand, Singapore, Macau and Hong King featured during the Select Session Weanlings, a clear indication that the market for quality weanlings in Australia is far more than just pinhookers."
