VIVE LA FRA-NCE!

Runner-up over 1 5/16 miles in the G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp last time Apr. 29, Haras de la Perelle's Giofra (GB) (Dansili {GB}) rewarded the decision by trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre to revert to a mile when upstaging some star names in yesterday's G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket. Sent off at 10-1, the homebred enjoyed the perfect rail trip under cover not far from the tepid early pace and was sent in pursuit of the enterprisingly ridden Elusive Kate (Elusive Quality) inside the final quarter. Getting to that rival with 100 yards to race, the bay asserted under driving from Christophe Soumillon to score by a half-length, with compatriot Siyouma (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) 3/4 of a length back in third to further underline the strength of the French challenge. "The pace wasn't that quick and a quicker pace would have been better, as she was a bit keen," Soumillon said. Cont. p3

WE WAIT

While there is no denying his latent class, it is the fortunes of Khalid Abdullah's Bated Breath (GB) (Dansili {GB}) which have been in the lap of the gods of late, and he has earned the unfortunate tag of 'nearly horse' after four runner-up finishes at the top level ahead of today's G1 Darley July Cup at Newmarket. On the last occasion, the homebred was denied his favored fast surface in the June 19 G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot and that is the case again here, as Britain's wet summer continues to play havoc. Trainer Roger Charlton is unsure as to whether he should run on the prevalent easy ground and stressed yesterday that a late decision was on the cards. "I'm afraid it will probably be tomorrow before we make a final decision," he told PA Sport. "There's been more rain overnight, and the ground is going to be soft whichever way you look at it. It's a feeling of frustration really. It applies to a lot of trainers, I'm sure, this weather is driving us mad, as so few Flat horses want soft ground. He's as well as I can have him and he must have a favourite's chance, but on soft ground I just don't know. I'm tempted to run but I will be guided by the owner." Cont. p7

Plagued with a leg injury on the eve of her intended racecourse introduction, Giofra was eventually unleashed in a small event at Moulins last September and was an unpromising fifth in that before winning a mile maiden at Compiègne and Longchamp's Listed Prix Casimir Delamarre over nine furlongs the following month. Returning to put her then stable companion Vadamar (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}) to the sword in the 10-furlong G2 Prix d'Harcourt back at the latter venue Apr. 8, she made no impact on Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) when a clear second in the Prix Ganay three weeks later. Positioned near to the steady early tempo set by Lay Time (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), she allowed Elusive Kate first run and for a while, it looked as if Frankie Dettori had stolen the show on that returning G1 Prix Marcel Boussac heroine.

Giofra Racing Post/Martin Lynch

Despite her game rally against the fence, Giofra was always holding the edge after they had hooked up at the furlong marker, and her stamina counted in the dash to the line. "We have known for a long time that she is a great filly and, although she has run very well this year, she was very fresh," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre commented. "It was the first time we have asked her to give her maximum--on the last two occasions, she either won very easily or was an easy second--and she gave all when asked today. She was very good at three, but had a leg problem and an operation, so we had to wait. I think she could be an Arc horse if she stays 12 furlongs. The program could be the [Aug. 4] G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood or [Aug. 19] or G1 Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville, followed by the [Oct. 7] Arc if the ground is good or the G1 Prix de l'Opera de Longchamp if it is soft." Gestut Ammerland's Golden Lilac (Ire) (Danehill), who drew comparisons from Andre Fabre before the race with the illustrious Banks Hill (GB) (Danehill), was a bitter disappointment as the 10-11 favorite and completely failed to fire before trailing in among the back-markers. "She didn't settle and ran too free," her conditioner explained.

Sendmylovetorose banished the memory of her fruitless trip to Royal Ascot with a game success to extend her perfect tally in this prestigious affair on her return to Britain. Successful by 5 1/2 lengths in a Navan maiden on debut June 9, the bay was forced to be withdrawn after getting down in the stalls before the Royal meeting's G3 Albany S., but bounced back to win The Curragh's G3 Grangecon Stud S. over this trip July 1. Giving no trouble this time, she was not in a strong position early worse than mid-division and veered left away from Colm O'Donoghue's whip when asked to close approaching the final quarter. Working her way to the front before the furlong pole as Maureen found racing room in behind, she was being eased down late as that rival whittled down her margin. "She's still relatively inexperienced, as I didn't get to teach her much on the first two runs," jockey Colm O'Donoghue explained. "She's got the ability and handles the ground, and is a lovely filly who has gone from strength to strength. [Trainer] Andy [Oliver] gave me a lot of confidence and said to do my own thing. She's quite light on her feet and could handle better ground too--she's got the class to do it on that ground, and that's the sign of a good filly. She's still raw and green, so there is more to come." Connections are eyeing up a tilt at the G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh Aug. 12.

Following a latest win in Hoppegarten's Listed Preis Pfingst over this trip May 27, Dominik Moser spotted this opportunity and was rewarded with a first group-race success for his game and tough standard-bearer.

Breaking well to race prominently alongside last year's G1 Nunthorpe S. winner Margot Did (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), the bay gained the edge with a quarter mile remaining and, despite the attentions of Hallelujah and Sioux Rising, held on for the all-important pattern win. ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Imperial Monarch (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is currently the understudy to Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) at Ballydoyle and, after making way for his star stable companion in the G1 Irish Derby, has a crack at the big time in today's G1 Juddmonte Grand Prix de Paris. Unlucky when one of the worst victims of the traffic issues in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly last time June 3, the Apr. 28 G3 Sandown

Imperial Monarch
Racing Post/Martin Lynch

Classic Trial winner should have a more straightforward trip in this select field. "French races can be quite messy and it's hard to get a very accurate guide on the form, but hopefully he can run a big race," Joseph O'Brien commented. "I don't see the course at Longchamp posing much of a problem, but he's stepping up in trip, and that's probably a question mark. You'd imagine he'd stay the extra two furlongs on pedigree, but you never know until they go and do it. He's always felt like a very good horse, and he's been given some time to come to himself."

O'Brien continued, "He won very nicely at Sandown and I think you can write off the race at Chantilly, so hopefully we can get off on the right foot this time." The Niarchos Family's Main Sequence (Aldebaran), who beat Thursday's G3 Bahrain Trophy hero Shantaram (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the May 12 G3 Lingfield Derby Trial over this trip on the Polytrack, lost his unbeaten record when second to Camelot in the June 2 G1 Epsom Derby. Kept back for this subsequently, the homebred may be compromised by likely testing conditions. "He's in good order, but I would be a little bit concerned about the ground," trainer Daiv Lanigan told PA Sport. "I think he'll run unless it became extreme or something, so we'll see what happens. He likes a nice, strong pace and to pass horses. We wouldn't want it to turn into a sprint, but a nice even pace all round. It's his last chance to run against 3-year-olds, so it would be nice if he could win, as it's going to be tougher for him against the older horses. We'll get this out of the way before we make any other plans, but we don't want to be too hard on him this year, as he'll stay in training next year all going well. He's strengthening all the time, and I think next year is really going to be his year, so if we can campaign him this year with that in mind I think that will be in the best interests of the horse." Cont. p7

Stand by: the yearlings from one of the best-bred crops by a single stallion in American thoroughbred history are about to go under the hammer. Medaglia d'Oro, the stallion who produced the best-performing first crop on record, attracted a phenomenal 2010 book of mares. That crop has already yielded a record $2.6 million weanling filly. Yearlings from it await your inspection at Saratoga.

The best dirt stallion in the US also gets excellent runners on turf: multiple G2 winner Marketing Mix is rated the second-best turf filly Stateside this year and he already has four G1 winners/performers on grass.

Of the home team, Godolphin's Saint Baudolino (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) spearheads a trio from the Andre Fabre stable successful on 11 occasions. After winning Chantilly's G3 Prix de Guiche over nine furlongs May 11, the homebred lost out by just 3/4 of a length to Saonois (Fr) (Chichicastenango {Fr}) in the Prix du Jockey Club. He had the Wertheimers' Nutello (Lemon Drop Kid), Joerg Vasicek's Top Trip (GB) (Dubai Destination) and Pandora Stud's Hard Dream (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) back in third, fifth and seventh, respectively, with Imperial Monarch in eighth and Kirsten Rausing's Albion (GB) (With Approval) in 12th. The latter, previously second in the G2 Prix Greffulhe at Saint-Cloud May 5, also hails from the Fabre stable and is bred to appreciate this distance more than his barnmate. That also applies to the third Fabre runner Last Train (GB) (Rail Link {GB}), the sponsors' representative who was third in a 10-furlong conditions event at Chantilly May 18 and runner-up in a 10 1/2-furlong contest here last time June 2. His sire won this race six years ago, and he is a half-brother to Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and three-parts brother to Kind (Ire) (Danehill), who needs no introduction.

Another who will dislike the soft is Qatar Racing's supplemented Strong Suit, who was set to revert to sprinting after a latest flop in the one-mile G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 19. "The owners were aware of the risk they were taking when they supplemented Strong Suit at the start of the week, but their first priority is the horse and if we think that the ground will be unsuitable, then he will not run," trainer Richard Hannon said of last year's G2 Challenge S. and G2 Lennox S. scorer. Unlike the aforementioned duo, Godolphin's Sepoy could be at home on the surface, as he has winning form on similar. He has succeeded at Group 1 level four times in his native Australia, so there are no question marks as to his capabilities in this company, and connections are keen that he bury the memory of his latest effort when running too freely and trailing in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen on the Tapeta at Meydan Mar. 31. New trainer Mahmood Al Zarooni commented, "Sepoy disappointed in Dubai and I am not sure why he ran badly--maybe it was the surface or the traveling from Australia. He looks in good form at the moment and is doing everything the right way. Soft ground should suit him, because he won the Manikato S. on similar ground. His form in Australia was very impressive, and it will be interesting to see how it compares with the form of European horses." Cont. p8

Another bound for a return to Australia after this is Ortensia, who also has a disappointment to put behind her after finishing ninth as the joint-favorite for the King's Stand. Her previous win in the Mar. 31 G1 Al Quoz Sprint is a more accurate measure of her ability, and conditioner Paul Messara is hoping she can rebound and provide Australia with a first renewal after the failures of a host of top-class sprinters including Choisir (Aus), Exceed and Excel (Aus), Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}), Scenic Blast (Aus) (Scenic {Ire}) and Star Witness (Aus) Starcraft {NZ}). "She's still working really well and I can see her running her best," he said earlier this week. "She worked on the course proper here, and I'm very pleased with her going into the race. We prefer the firmer the better, and it's no doubt the track here is very soft, but, if she can run up to her best, she can be involved in the finish. We expect her to bounce back and she'll certainly be competitive."

ON THE 'WAR' PATH

A year ago, trainer Aidan O'Brien shipped Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) for Belmont's GI Man O'War S., and his victory there started a three-race sequence that culminated in an Eclipse Award. Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) picks up the Ballydoyle baton for today's renewal of the $600,000 contest. The 4-year-old is no stranger to these shores, as witnessed by his victory in Arlington's GI Secretariat S. last summer, but he will need to improve on his first two appearances this season. Fourth in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Meydan Mar. 31, the bay could do no better than ninth in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin Apr. 29. He will race with Lasix this afternoon. Among his rivals is the up-and-coming Point of Entry (Dynaformer), who continued his rise through the ranks with a second straight defeat of Tahoe Lake (Brz) (Know Heights {Ire}) in the GII Elkhorn S. at Keeneland Apr. 27. That came 15 days after his 12-furlong allowance win at the Lexington oval, and trainer Shug McGaughey opted to freshen up the Phipps homebred with an eye to the bigger summer events. "Being a Dynaformer, it took him awhile to come around," said McGaughey. "His two races at Keeneland were good races, and I just thought after I ran him back in [15] days that I'd give him a bit of a blow here and, hopefully, have a fresh horse for the rest of the year. I think he's a true mile-and three-eighths to a mile-and-a-half kind of horse."

DANGEROUS 'GUEST'

Betfair Hollywood Park's 12th running of the GI American Oaks features all the expected local players and some formidable domestic shippers, but a foreign invader from a dangerous barn could be poised to follow in the footsteps of Dimitrova and Cesario (Jpn) and take this one for the away team. When Rae Guest sends one across the Atlantic, he means business, and the British-based conditioner has Miss Cato (GB) (Notnowcato {GB}) for this. In two North American starts, Guest has won once and run second the other time--Serious Attitude (Ire) (Mtoto {GB}) took Woodbine's GI Nearctic S. at 23-1 in 2010, and Rosa Grace (GB) (Lomitas {GB}) was runner-up in the 2008 GII Lake Placid S. at 12-1. Miss Cato, never off the board in seven prior tries, was purchased privately by Three Chimneys Racing from breeder A. H. Bennett after a Sandown handicap victory May 24. She was second in Newbury's Lord Weinstock Memorial S. at this distance last time June 14, and was flattered when that event's winner Great Heavens (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) returned to annex the G2 Lancashire Oaks a week ago. Guest blew out Miss Cato three furlongs in :36 3/5 here Thursday. Also representing Europe is fellow British-based Nayarra (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), whose lone win in 13 tries for conditioner Michael Channon came against the boys in San Siro's G1 Gran Criterium last October. The Prince A. A. Faisal colorbearer also worked three furlongs upon arrival in California, earning the bullet for a :36 flat move Wednesday. Cont. p9

The one-two-three finishers in the local June 9 GII Honeymoon H. are back for this prestigious contest. They were separated by a nose and a half-length last time, and appear well-matched again. Winner My Gi Gi (E Dubai) was transferred by owners Conner and Jacobsen from Brian Koriner to Peter Eurton two back, and came up a nose short in the May 5 GIII Seniorita S. for her new conditioner. Two other runners have exited that event to score. Honeymoon runner-up Lady of Shamrock (Scat Daddy) has been installed the 5-2 morning line favorite here, having nearly overcome a very slow pace with a late flourish to lose a tough one to My Gi Gi. She was all the rage when she showed impressive late kick in the Mar. 10 China Doll S. and Apr. 7 GIII Providencia S. at Santa Anita, and more ground could be to her liking. "She probably should have won [the Honeymoon] last time," trainer John Sadler said of Lady of Shamrock. "But she's doing great. She's going to love the mile and a quarter. I know the competition's pretty good, but I like my horse." Stormy Lucy (Stormy Atlantic) is the outsider of the Honeymoon top three at 20-1 on the morning line, but it's not as if her two foes separated themselves by much last time, and Stormy Lucy appears to be in career form.

Colonial Flag (Pleasant Tap) and Left a Message (Mr. Greeley) were second and fourth, respectively, last time in Churchill's GIII Regret S. "I didn't get a chance to look at the competition, but I think she's a real nice filly and I hope she fits," trainer Michael Matz said Thursday of Colonial Flag, who is a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Filly/Mare Turf winner Shared Account (Pleasantly Perfect). "She's getting better every race. She shipped in well and was good on the track today, so it's up to her now." Glen Hill's Left a Message was flying late in the Regret and recorded the fasted final furlong of all runners in the race at :11.63. She is expected to stay with trainer Tom Proctor's Del Mar string after this.

HOMETOWN HEROINE?

Grace Hall (Empire Maker) won't have to far to travel for the $400,000 GII Delaware Oaks this afternoon. Perfect in two starts at her home base, the bay filly has performed admirably on the road as well for trainer Tony Dutrow. She annexed the GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga last year, and was a romping winner of the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks Mar. 31 prior to her third-place finish as the 5-2 choice in the GI Kentucky Oaks at Churchill May 4. Grace Hall will be coupled with Singlet (Real Quiet), who attempts two turns for the first time here, and will be joined by another stablemate in Wicked Mizz (Mizzen Mast), winner of Delaware's Go for Wand S. June 9. California-based conditioner Jerry Hollendorfer is no stranger to flying into the "First State," as his exploits with champion Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) show the past two summers. He brings Via Villaggio (Bernardini) this time. The dark bay may not have the high profile that Blind Luck possessed at this juncture, but is certainly no slouch, capturing the GIII Railbird S. at Betfair Hollywood Park as a 10-1 shot May 19 ahead of her third-place finish in the GII Hollywood Oaks June 23. Via Villaggio has not raced on conventional dirt since a pair of placings in sprints at the California fairs last year. ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Aubby K (Street Sense) tries two turns following a third in the GI Acorn S. at Belmont May 28.

A Gleam Invitational Handicap

WIN AND YOU'RE IN[®]

WELL-MATCHED SPRINTERS SEEK BC BERTH

An evenly matched group of seven lines up today in Betfair Hollywood Park's GII A Gleam H., which holds added significance as a "Win and You're In" event for the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint. C R K Stable's accomplished millionaire Switch (Quiet American) gets the morning line nod, but she'll be seeking her first win since the GI Santa Monica S. last January. Second in the Breeders' Cup to end her 2011 season, the five-year-old was fifth in Churchill's GI Humana Distaff May 5 and fourth last time in a very strong renewal of the local Desert Stormer H. going six panels here June 16. "Her last race in the Desert

Switch Reed Palmer

Stormer was a little better than her first effort this year," said conditioner John Sadler. "Six furlongs is a little short for her. Hopefully, that race got her ready for the A Gleam. She's doing well and I think this is a make-or-break race for her. It should help that there's a lot of speed in there." George and Mary Clare Schmitt's Izzy Rules (Peace Rules) should be providing most of the pace. The hard-knocking GIII Las Flores H. winner was second to Turbulent Descent (Congrats) in the Desert Stormer after carving out solid splits. This will be her first seven-furlong try. Mildly Offensive (Sharp Humor) chased Izzy Rules early on in the Desert Stormer and she could serve as a presser again from her inside draw. The dark bay was fourth after leading early in the Humana Distaff. Teddy's Promise (Salt Lake) was fifth in the Desert Stormer after annexing the five-furlong Time to Leave S. here May 6. Trainer Ron Ellis thinks the GI La Brea S. winner's finish in the Desert Stormer can be ignored. "She broke slowly, bobbled and got stuck on the inside, which she doesn't like," he explained. "She's drawn toward the outside Saturday and that should help."

SANTA ANITA RENAMES STAKES

Officials at Santa Anita Park in Arcadia, California, home of the 2012 Breeders' Cup Nov. 2 and 3, have announced that they have renamed 14 stakes events, including six Grade I tests.

"This has been an important process for all of us involved with live racing here at Santa Anita," said Rick Hammerle, Santa Anita Vice President of Racing. "We did a lot of research and tried hard to make sure each name had a tangible meaning, either geographically, historically or culturally.

The changes are as follows:

LIGHTING THE FLAME

In the year the Games come to Britain, it is fitting that Julie Wood's Olympic Glory (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) has already established a foothold on the upper ranks of the juvenile division and bids to extend his influence in today's G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket. Impressive on debut at Goodwood June 8, he was beaten just 3/4 of a length when finishing strongly to be second to "TDN Rising Star" Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) in the G2 Coventry S. over six furlongs at Royal Ascot June 19. He had the highly-regarded pair of Cristoforo Colombo (Henrythenavigator) and Sir Prancealot (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) behind on that occasion, with Godolphin's Artigiano (Distorted Humor) and Joseph Allen and Coolmore's Lines of Battle (War Front) in fifth and sixth respectively. "It was on the soft side when Olympic Glory made an impressive winning debut at Goodwood, so we hope that he will cope with the conditions okay," trainer Richard Hannon said. "He was doing all his best work at the end when runner-up in the Coventry S. at Royal Ascot, and we all walked off the stands that day saying 'seven furlongs next time' and this looks the perfect race." Lines of Battle earned "TDN Rising Star" status on his winning debut over six furlongs at The Curragh May 27, and that form has worked out well in the interim with the third Probably (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) going on to success in the G2 Railway S. He may not be helped by the soft ground, which also applies to Artigiano, whose trainer Mahmood Al Zarooni said, "Artigiano has improved since Royal Ascot and he looks in really good form. The step up to seven furlongs will suit him much better, and a nice pace will play to his strengths. I am hopeful of another good run."

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

GREEN AND PURPLE

A secured spot in the GII Breeders' Cup Marathon at Santa Anita is on the line for the winner of today's GIII Greenwood Cup S. at Parx. Breaking from the rail is Redeemed (Include), who showed his prowess at this 12-furlong distance with an authoritative display in the GII Brooklyn H. at Belmont June 8. He is even-money on the morning line against a veteran group that includes Birdrun (Birdstone), who was put up to first in last year's renewal. Second in the 2011 BC Marathon, the chestnut will need to bounce back from his rough effort in the Brooklyn, where he stumbled badly at the start. Eldaafer (A.P. Indy), the 2010 BC Marathon hero, completed the Brooklyn exacta last out.

Who needs Rapid Redux? Silver Max (Badge of Silver) has flashed his front-running speed in five straight wins, and goes for his sixth straight this afternoon in the GIII American Derby at Arlington Park. The bay most recently set a course record in romping in the one-mile Oliver S. at Indiana Downs June 13, and will need to ration out his early energy while stretching out to 9 1/2 furlongs here. The Pizza Man (English Channel) is perfect in three starts on turf against his fellow Ilini, and gets a class test here following rallying win in a local state-bred allowance June 22.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Homecoming Queen Retired...

This year's G1 1000 Guineas winner Homecoming Queen (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}--Lagrion, by Diesis {GB}) has been retired, Aidan O'Brien announced yesterday. Successful by nine lengths in the Newmarket mile Classic in May, the 3/4-sister to Dylan Thomas (Ire) had failed to hit the board subsequently in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Coronation S. and connections have opted to call time on her career. Owned by Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith, the Tower Bloodstock-bred filly who is also a half to the former champion juvenile filly Queen's Logic (Ire) (Grand Lodge) was the winner of four of her 16 starts and just under €350,000 in prize money. Her successes also included the G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial in April and last year's Listed Lanwades & Staffordstown Studs S. "It has been decided that Homecoming Queen has done enough and she has been retired," the Ballydoyle conditioner said. "She was a brilliant filly and her performance at Newmarket was very special. She has a wonderful pedigree and did us all proud."

The former Marco Botti inmate Halfsin (Ire) (Haafhd {GB}) headed a clutch of last-day purchases heading to the Middle East. Bought for 58,000gns, he is now the property of Indian owner Ahsan Ali Syed, whose other sporting interests include ownership of Spanish football club Racing Santander and potential involvement in a Formula 1 team. Bahraini agent Daylami Hussain, acting on behalf of the owner, said, "He's going to Bahrain, but Mr. Syed has a plan to buy more horses for Dubai and the UK and he already has horses in training here with David O'Meara. He also owns a stud farm in Deauville."

A pair of colts hit the 50,000gns mark and will both now be heading overseas. The 77-rated Peter Anders (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) leaves Mark Johnston's stable for Qatar, and his new owner Abdul Aziz Al Buainain is hoping he will shape into a Derby horse in the Gulf. "He will hopefully run in December and if he is good enough he will be aimed at the Qatar Derby," Al Buainain commented. Also following a similar path is the American-bred 3-year-old Ghostwriting, a dual winner last year for the resurgent Ghostzapper. The Darley homebred, a half-brother to GIII Transylvania S. winner Stormalory (Storm Cat), was bought by Jalil Al Mallah, who will race him in either Qatar or Dubai. Ghostwriting was one of seven horses bought by the Bahrain trainer for a total of 106,000gns.

Among others heading for the Middle East are the former Richard Hannon trainees Amazing Storm (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}), a dual winner last year at two who was bought by Greg Chung of Linden Lodge Bloodstock for 48,000gns; and Valley Of Destiny (GB) (Three Valleys), whose most recent run at Newmarket June 8 saw him finish second to subsequent G2 King Edward VII S. winner Thomas Chippendale (Ire) (Dansili {GB}).

One who has only a short journey to make is the Cheveley Park Stud homebred Uprise (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who will move from the Bury side of Newmarket to racecourse side after being bought by trainer George Margaron from Sir Michael Stoute's stable. Margaron hopes the 3-year-old has improvement to come after breaking his maiden over six furlongs June 29.

"He seems a progressive 3-year-old type and looks a sprinter in the making," said the trainer. "Sir Michael is not one for over-revving sprinters."

Richard Venn was the busiest agent in action at the sale, signing for 15 lots and acting for a variety of nations. With Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony admitting in his closing statement that the sale "suffered from a greater number of withdrawals than usual," the agent agreed that a bigger catalogue would have helped him fill his orders. Cont. p14

TATTERSALLS JULY SALE

July 11-13

CLEARANCE RATE STRONG DESPITE FALL IN TURNOVER

By Emma Berry

Trainer Alan McCabe arrived at the July sale intent on buying Swerve (GB) and, despite some stiff competition from rival interested parties, he duly achieved his aim, paying 80,000gns through agent Tom Malone for the 3-year-old daughter of Oasis Dream (GB).

Indicating that the filly is for a new client, McCabe, the trainer of German 2000 Guineas winner Caspar Netscher said, "She has some good form, and seems a nice honest filly, who can run from the front. She came up against a few good ones of Aidan's [O'Brien] in Ireland and looks as though she could be listed or group class. She was the one we came to buy."

Swerve topped both the entire 40-strong Juddmonte consignment and the final day of the July Sale, which saw sold stickers on the rumps of 118 of the 126 lots offered for another decent clearance rate of 94%. Overall, the sale achieved 89% clearance and an aggregate of 4,745,400gns, down 20% on the 2011 total. In line with this drop, the average and median across the three days shrank to 11,804gns (down 9%) and 6,500gns (down 7%).

"I have more still to buy and could have done with 200 more lots really," said Venn. "But we all understand that withdrawals happen, especially at horses-in-training sales. I've been buying for jumps trainers and also for owners in Dubai, Libya, Kuwait, Holland, and I'm trying to buy for Belgium."

National Hunt trainers were out in force at Tattersalls over the last two days of the sale, with the most active being Donald McCain, who is taking home six new jumping recruits to Cheshire. McCain, who has a penchant for the offspring of former Juddmonte stallion Beat Hollow, who is now standing under the jumping banner at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland, couldn't resist adding his unraced 2-year-old daughter Style Setter (GB) to his list of purchases for 10,000gns. His most expensive acquisition was Dansili 3-year-old Counsel (Ire), a beautifully bred gelding from the family of Brian Boru, Sea Moon and Workforce, who was bought for 40,000gns when offered by Highclere Thoroughbred Racing.

Buoyed by a highly encouraging clearance rate, Edmond Mahony commented, "Sometimes statistics do not tell the full story, and the key indicators for the 2012 Tattersalls July Sale are a case in point. While the returns have not matched those of last year, there has been sustained international demand at all levels of the market from start to finish and a clearance rate in the region of 90% tells the real story. The sheer number of overseas buyers at Park Paddocks this week, the 220,000gns sale-topper Esentepe, and the healthy British and Irish participation, have all yet again demonstrated the enduring global appeal of mixed sales at Tattersalls." He continued, "Looking ahead to the yearling sales, our team of inspectors have all commented on the high standard of yearlings they have seen throughout Britain, Ireland and further afield in recent months. There appear to be some truly outstanding yearlings heading for Book 1 of the October Yearling Sale and we would be confident that the catalogues for all three books will be very well received when they are published next month."

The October Yearling Sale begins at Tattersalls on October 9.

BRAMLAGE: REPORTS ON RACEHORSE INJURY RATES, MEDICATIONS 'MISLEADING'

Larry Bramlage, chief orthopedic surgeon at Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital, released a statement yesterday saying he was concerned that the public “did not have all of the facts” in the wake of the New York Times's most recent front-page story on horse racing, which alleged that I'll Have Another (Flower Alley) may have had serious physical ailments prior to, and in addition to, the tendon injury which ended his career. Bramlage was interviewed by NBC Nightly News with Brian Williams regarding the story, but accused them of “selective editing” of the piece.

Dr. Bramlage roodandriddle.com

His statement read: In my opinion, The New York Times piece published on July 11 titled 'I'll Have Another had history of ailments, records show' was closer to tabloid journalism than in-depth reporting, as was the selective editing demonstrated on the July 11 edition of NBC's Nightly News with Brian Williams.

Our increased awareness of equine injuries has increased the number of times that we help the horse off the track, but those are not necessarily indications that the horse has had a serious problem. In fact, statistics indicate the number of Thoroughbred injuries has trended downward with the increased caution. The misinterpretation of the medical terminology 'osteoarthritis', and the substitution of 'major painkillers' for anti-inflammatory medications is unfair to the uninformed general public. It's useful only to sell newspapers, not to allow the public to understand what actually happened for the horse. The phenylbutazone given to I'll Have Another is from the same drug group as aspirin and ibuprofen in humans, can't be given to a horse within 24 hours of a race, and is tested for with blood and urine samples at all levels of the sport. Dexamethasone is a corticosteroid used as an anti-inflammatory as well.

There have been 11 horses that have won two of the three legs of the Triple Crown in the last 33 years. I would guess that almost all of those horses had x-rays after winning the second leg as a monitoring, precautionary measure. That's routine veterinary care, and would be akin to the kind of examinations that human Olympic athletes who just qualified in the U.S. championships will undergo prior to competing in the Olympics at the end of July.

While veterinary ethics preclude us from speculating on I'll Have Another's case specifically as we were not the attending veterinarian, the records provided to New York State Racing and Wagering Board do not indicate anything inappropriate. No illegal, unprofessional, or medically unwarranted medication was given to this horse. We totally agree with the approach that Dr. Jim Hunt, attending veterinarian, took to get this horse ready for a possible Triple Crown run.”

Bramlage, a member of The Jockey Club, is also past president of the American Association of Equine Practitioners and the American College of Veterinary Surgeons.

Darley
Flying Start

“Taking It To the Next Level”

Two days after many in the thoroughbred industry gathered at Fasig-Tipton's Newtown Paddocks for the Kentucky July select yearling sale, the auction house was buzzing once again with activity. This time, instead of bidding on future racehorses, industry leaders gave of their time July 12 in order to invest in the industry's future workforce.

During an event called “Taking it to the next level,” the 12 members of 2011-2013 Darley Flying Start class presented business concepts to four members of the Bluegrass Angels, Central Kentucky's oldest seed-funding organization, as well as a crowd of people from within the Thoroughbred industry.

Fasig-Tipton's Reed Ringler served as the MC for the night. Those in attendance included Mill Ridge Farm and Nicoma Bloodstock's Headley Bell, Keeneland's Geoffrey Russell, and former trainer John Ward, who is now the executive director of the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission. Additionally, several graduates from Darley Flying Start were on hand to give support to those currently in the program.

The object of the evening was to deliver the best mock business concept that could succeed within the Thoroughbred industry and make money for those involved. The Bluegrass Angels served as the judges.

After cocktails and dinner, the presentations got underway. The Darley Flying Start members were broken up into groups of three, leading to four presentations. Under the format, they were given 15 minutes to present their concept. A 10 minute question-and-answer session with the Bluegrass

Angels followed, and then the judges were given five minutes to score the presentation. Cont. p16

The presentations were: the “Natural Equine Therapy Center” (presented by Ian Thompson, Steve O'Connor and Sophie Ignarski); the “Global Equine Development Programme” (presented by Emma Pearce, Jack Davison and Jin Tian); the “MyFarm iPad App” (presented by Stephen Heath, Madoka Kamei and Sarah Fishback); and “Thoroughbred Job Solutions” (presented by Patricia Calkins, James Clarke and Sebastien Desmontils).

Although the Bluegrass Angels agreed that all of the concepts were presented well, in the end they chose the Natural Equine Therapy Center as the winner. The idea behind the project was to open an equine therapy center close to Belmont Park, as there is not one currently located next to the track.

The presentations marked the conclusion of the the students' time in Central Kentucky. Next month, they will head to Australia to kick off the second year of the program.

“To all of the Darley employees, we thank you for you patience in the last six months,” said Calkins, who spoke on behalf of the group. “We have had incredible mentors and have thoroughly enjoyed our time here. Above all else, we would like to thank Sheikh Mohammed. It is his vision that has provided us all with this incredible opportunity.”

Darley Flying Start, which began in 2003, has an estimated 77 graduates across the world working within the Thoroughbred industry, including the TDN's Gary King. Each year, 12 students are selected to participate in the two-year program, which involves working in Ireland, England, the United States, Australia and Dubai.

“The Flying Start is not about 12 people doing a course,” explained Clodagh Kavanagh, the Darley Flying Start course manager. “It is about providing people to the industry to make it stronger, to make it better for everybody coming into it and everybody within it. Every year, I always have 12 people who so want a job in the industry and they want to get a start.”

Everything that Bill Finley wrote about Governor Christie and Atlantic City (TDN Op/Ed, 7/12/2012) are correct. My only criticism is that he was much too gentle in his criticism of the Governor (and I vote Republican). It would be awful to believe our Governor is just a politician who panders to the special interests who support his campaigns and those of his friends. We all had hoped that Christie was much more than that but it appears we were fooled once again by the image of a leader rather than the real thing. Any thinking person who understands NJ racing and gaming can see that the two industries must unite for mutual benefits and survival. Somehow that message has escaped the "thinkers" of Atlantic City or perhaps they know what we know but want to go to the Meadowlands after they wipe out both harness and thoroughbred racing. Monmouth Park would also attract a large summer audience for the casinos and it is one of the last great racetracks in existence. The A.C. folks must think, "Why share, when they can have it all". Greed is not a good thing but don't expect the owners of the roulette wheels to understand something like the concept of mutual benefits.

NEW YORK

Horsemen Survey to be Presented to NY Legislature:

The New York Horse Racing and Agricultural Industry Alliance is surveying horsemen to demonstrate the importance of the equine and agricultural industries to the New York economy. The alliance, newly formed in February, is comprised of the New York Thoroughbred Breeders Inc., the New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, the New York Farm Bureau and seven Standardbred organizations. "An up-to-date 2012 study will be vital to the argument that the equine industry cannot be left behind as New York moves forward into the casino era," said NYTB Executive Director Jeffrey Cannizzo. The findings of the survey will be presented to the state legislature. "It's critical that we make the legislators understand just how many jobs and how many businesses are reliant on a healthy racing industry," NYTHA President Rick Violette Jr. stated. Those wishing to participate in the survey can do so here.

Master of War was fifth on debut behind the subsequent Listed scorer Morawij (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) in a strong Haydock maiden May 24 before returning to that venue to win in comfortable fashion June 1. Not disgraced when ninth behind ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) in a particularly strong renewal of the G2 Coventry S. over this trip at Royal Ascot 18 days later, the chestnut showed he was still progressing with a clear-cut win in this heat. Always prominent, he started to take command inside the final quarter and was hand ridden to assert from the chasing pack.

Having annexed the Listed Woodcote S. over this trip at Epsom last June, Fulbright had to wait 12 months to return to the winner's spot and that came over seven furlongs on this strip June 22. Off the board in handicaps over that trip and a mile on testing ground at Newcastle and Sandown June 30 and July 7, the bay was back in his comfort zone here and duly delivered to land this valuable prize. Prominent early against the apparently favored stand's side rail, he was in front passing the quarter pole before his extra stamina reserves kicked in. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

DUBAI PRINCE (IRE) (c, 4, Shamardal--Desert Frolic {Ire}, by Persian Bold {Ire}), the winner of the 2010 G3 Killavullan S. for Dermot Weld before his transfer to Godolphin, had won only one of his last four starts, and was returning after a lengthy absence following a no-show in the G2 Dubai City of Gold over 12 furlongs at Meydan Mar. 10. Sent off the 5-2 second choice in this four-runner affair, the bay was restrained early and ended up last of the quartet as a result. Produced down the center of the track by Ahmed Ajtebi, he overhauled Fury (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) with over 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and, despite veering right in the closing stages, held a comfortable 4 1/2-length margin over that rival at the line. Sales history: 48,000gns wnlg '08 TATDEC. Lifetime Record: GSW-Ire, 7-4-0-0, £49,943. Video, courtesy Racing UK. O-Godolphin; B-Mrs Eithne Hamilton; T-Mahmood Al Zarooni.

+ GHURAIR (c, 2, Elusive Quality--Alta Moda {GB}, by Sadler's Wells), a 180,000gns TATOCT yearling, raced along the rail in eighth after the initial strides. Making smooth headway inside the three-furlong marker, the 3-1 favorite quickened to the front approaching the final eighth and ran on well for tender use of the persuader to score by 1 1/2 lengths from Improvisation (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). Afonso de Sousa (Henrythenavigator), a half to Big Brown (Boundary), led until headed inside the final quarter mile and finished fourth. "He felt pretty smart and, temperament-wise, he's A1," said winning rider Paul Hanagan. "It was a messy race, but the way he traveled made the job easier. He was green going to post and he was green when he hit the front, but it was to be expected as he's only a baby. I gave him a few flicks [of the whip] just to teach him his job and that introduction will have done him good." Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £6,469. Click for the Racing Post chart. MISS YOU TOO (GB) (f, 2, Montjeu {Ire}--Portrait of a Lady {Ire} {SP-Eng}, by Peintre Celebre), runner-up on debut over six furlongs at Goodwood June 22, was keen early close to the pace. In front passing the three-furlong pole, the 4-5 pick drew away despite hanging left to win by four lengths, geared down, from Woody Bay (GB) (New Approach {Ire}). The winner is a full-sister to Vitruvian Man (GB), GSP-Ire. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £7,624. [Video, courtesy Racing UK.

O-Prime Oak Buildings Ltd; B-Plantation Stud & Amarvilas Bloodstock; T-Mick Channon.

MARSHGATE LANE (c, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Louvain {Ire} {GSW-US, MSP-Fr, $223,742}, by Sinndar {Ire}), runner-up going one mile here on debut June 23, settled with just one behind until making smooth headway on the outside once into the final half-mile. Delivered for his bid approaching the closing panel, the 7-2 joint-favorite was driven up the climb to deny stablemate Ruwaiyan (Cape Cross {Ire}) by a head on the line. Leo Luna (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), kin to Sea Moon (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}) and Brian Boru (GB) (Sadler's Wells), was detached in rear, but made late headway to finish seventh. Marshgate Lane is a half to Louvakhova (Maria's Mon), SW-US, $116,316. Sales history: $350,000 yrl '10 FTSAUG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £7,432. Video, courtesy Racing UK. + AMBERLEY HEIGHTS (IRE) (f, 2, Elnadim--Fawaayid {MSW-Ire}, by Vaguely Noble {Ire}), a 37,000gns TATOCT yearling, was steadied in rear from the break in this opening show. Taking a stray hit on the nose when easing into contention with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the crowd's 2-1 choice was shaken up soon after and ran on well under final-furlong urging to best the game It's Taboo (GB) (Tobougg {Ire}) by a neck nearing the line. The winner is a 3/4-sister to Green Lady (Ire) (Green Desert), SW & MGSP-Fr. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £4,561. Video, courtesy Racing UK. O-Elaine Chivers; B-Tinnakill Bloodstock & Alan Byrne; T-Richard Hannon.

Newbury, 14.15, Mdn, £7,050, 2yo, 7fT, 1:31.81, sf.

+ MONTIRIDGE (IRE) (c, 2, Ramonti {Fr}--Elegant Ridge {Ire} {GSP-US & Ger, SP-Ity, $229,192}, by Indian Ridge {Ire}), raced under a firm grip in midfield after the early strides of this debut. Cruising into contention at the two pole, the 7-2 chance challenged on the bridle entering the final eighth and kept on strongly under tender urging to assert by 1 1/4 lengths from One Word More (Ire) (Thousand Words {GB}). He is the fifth winner for his freshman sire (by Martino Alonso {Ire}). Sales history: €10,000 RNA yrl '11 GOFFEB; £55,000 yrl '11 DONAUG. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £4,561.
