FABRE TO MAKE LATE LILAC DECISION

Trainer Andre Fabre's quest for a sixth renewal of Deauville's G1 Prix du Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard - Jacques le Marois remains in doubt, despite his sole contender Golden Lilac (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) yesterday featuring among 11 declarations for the €600,000 contest. With Golden Lilac set to exit the 10 hole, Fabre waited before giving late approval for Gestut Ammerland's dual Classic heroine and "TDN Rising Star" to participate in the July 29 G1 Prix Rothschild-- where she ran second to Elusive Kate (Elusive Quality) over the same one-mile strip--and he will do likewise tomorrow. "It is 50-50 like last time and I will see how things are shaping up" Fabre told Racing Post. "It's a tough-looking race against all the colts so I will make a late decision. The other option is to wait for next week's [G1] Prix Jean Romanet." The home defense is bolstered by "TDN Rising Star" Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who is set to make a swift comeback from stall four after retaining her title in last weekend's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at the Normandy track. Cont. p6

SHARP WIN IN HALL OF FAME

Continuing his upward trajectory, Quick Wit (Sharp Humor) battled with favored Csaba (Kitten's Joy) to land his first graded stakes score in a sloppy edition of the GIII National Museum of Racing Hall Fame S. Friday at Saratoga. Settled in a stalking third through opening splits of :23.63 and :48.08, the dark bay collared Csaba at the head of the lane and battled all the way to the wire to eke out a nose victory. Daddy Nose Best (Scat Daddy) was third. Cont. p9

HALL OF FAME WELCOMES SIX MEMBERS

Racing fans packed the Humphrey S. Finney Pavilion in Saratoga Springs Friday morning to welcome the class of 2012 inductees into the National Thoroughbred Racing Hall of Fame. The ceremony got underway with the introduction of previously inducted Hall of Famers, including jockeys Jerry Bailey, Chris McCarron, Ron Turcotte, Randy Romero, Kent Desormeaux, Edgar Prado and Jose Santos, as well as trainers Nick Zito, Carl Nafzger, D. Wayne Lukas, Shug McGaughey and Bill Mott. The loudest cheers came for returning Hall of Famers Angel Cordero and Allen Jerkens--whose introduction from emcee Tom Durkin revealed "he hates to be called the Giant Killer, so we won't mention that."

Todd Pletcher & John Velazquez

The 2012 human inductees included jockey John Velazquez, and trainers Roger Attfield and Robert Wheeler. Ghostzapper (Awesome Again) was the sole equine member inducted this year. Cont. p10

'DAN' LOOKS TO BOUNCE BACK

Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) kicked off a three-race win skein on the GII Fayette S. over Keeneland's Polytrack last October before adding a convincing victory in the GI Clark H. on the Churchill Downs dirt Nov. 25. Given some time off following that fine effort, the gelding kicked off 2012 with a rousing 10 1/2-length score in the nine-panel GIII Ben Ali S. at Keeneland Apr. 22. Favored in his latest start, the chestnut found GI Santa Anita H. hero Ron the Greek (Full Mandate) a head too good in Churchill's June 16 GI Stephen Foster H. over nine furlongs and tries to get back on top with this drop in trip. Data Link (War Front), victorious in the Apr. 13 GI Maker's Mark Mile at Keeneland, was a troubled fifth in the nine-furlong GI Turf Classic at Churchill May 5. Well supported last time out in the GII Monmouth S. June 10, the bay came on late to score a length and attempts to add his third win of the season.

QUALITY OVER QUANTITY IN LA JOLLA

The connections of just five sophomore colts and geldings have signed on for today's GII La Jolla H., the final lead-up race for the GII Del Mar Derby 22 days down the road. The aptly named My Best Brother (Stormy Atlantic) looks to take his winning streak to four since breaking his maiden in a six-furlong turf sprint at Hollywood Park May 27. The full brother to the late GISW Stormello has since successfully stretched out to two turns and enters this off a front-running score in the faster division of the opening-day Oceanside S. July 18. Despite setting a pace trainer Julio Canani thought was too strong, My Best Brother still managed a final quarter mile in :23.78 to score by a half-length, with Old Time Hockey (Smarty Jones) further back in third. The Glen Hill homebred should appreciate today's extra real estate, and trainer Tom Proctor likes his chances. "He's got a shot in there," the conditioner told Daily Racing Form. "He just keeps improving every race."

Old Time Hockey gets a four-pound pull under today's handicap conditions, but will still need a bit of improvement here to figure on the wire. The overachieving Chips All In (North Light {Ire}) looks to have the best chance of keeping company up front with My Best Brother, though the speed he has shown has never been as sharp as the favorite. That being said, he is arguably the class of the race, and the three-time stakes winner exits a neck defeat at the hands of Midnight Crooner (War Chant) in the other division of the Oceanside. The latter is passing the La Jolla and will train up to the Del Mar Derby, trainer Bob Baffert said.

PRIMED FOR THE POMONE

Today's G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville sees His Highness The Aga Khan's highly regarded Dalkala (Giant's Causeway) attempt to return to winning ways after a disappointing show in the G1 Prix de Diane. Only fifth in that June 17 Chantilly Classic, the homebred had previously created a big impression when winning the G3 Prix Cleopatre by four lengths over 1 5/16 miles at Saint-Cloud May 15. Robert Ehrnrooth's Sarah Lynx (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) won this 12 months ago and has to give Dalkala 12 pounds weight-for-age on this belated seasonal reintroduction, but it is significant that she has been kept in training after her four-length win in the G1 Canadian International at Woodbine in October. Not a factor on two subsequent starts in the Nov. 27 G1 Japan Cup and Dec. 11 G1 Hong Kong Vase, she will probably strip fitter for this run as she is geared towards another autumn campaign. Two other intriguing contenders are Teruya Yoshida's Pirika (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}), who was successful in the Listed Prix de la Pepiniere over 10 furlongs at Maisons-Laffitte last time July 22 and the Wertheimers' May 28 G2 Prix Corrida scorer Solemia (Ire) (Poliglote {GB}).

THE SKY'S THE LIMIT

Richard Hannon's renaissance in recent years has come about largely due to his skill with juveniles and it could be a case of more of the same today as the unbeaten Sky Lantern (Ire) (Red Clubs {Ire}) lines up in Newmarket's G3 Sweet Solera S. Following a 3 1/2-length debut win over six furlongs at Goodwood May 24 with a harder-fought success in the Listed Coolmore Stud EBF Sprint S. over that trip at Naas June 4, she steps up in trip but her conditioner is certain that will play into her hands. "Sky Lantern was impressive when winning her Listed race at Naas, but we purposely gave Royal Ascot a miss, as it would not have done her any good mentally taking on the speed merchants in the Albany," explained trainer Richard Hannon. "She has plenty of pace, but this step up to seven furlongs was always going to be the right progression, and she has thrived for a break." Godolphin have taken this for the last three years and rely on Certify (Elusive Quality), who opened her account in style at the first time of asking in a six-furlong maiden 30 days ago. The runner-up on that occasion, Pearl Sea (Ire) (Elusive City), has since scored impressively at Goodwood, and the Mahmood Al Zarooni runner is certain to appreciate this good-to-firm ground over the soft that she encountered on debut. "Certify won her maiden well and has been in good form since," said trainer Mahmood Al Zarooni. "I think seven furlongs will be no problem, as she won going away at Newmarket, and I expect the step up in distance to suit her. It was soft ground for her debut, but she should have no problem with faster going. She works on Tapeta at home and that surface rides quite quickly. She has done nothing wrong so far, and now we have to find out how good she is." Another unbeaten filly is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Reyaadah (GB) (Tamayuz {GB}), who also scored over six furlongs here on her racecourse bow June 29 and is therefore another tackling seven panels for the first time.

BLUE-BLOOD MAKES STAKES DEBUT

Becky Winemiller's Wine Princess (Ghostzapper) seeks to add some black-type of her own to her already impressive page in today's GIII Monmouth Oaks. The $475,000 KEESEP yearling, a daughter of champion Azeri (Jade Hunter), upped her record on the main track to two-for-two with a solid 2 1/2-length success against first-level allowance foes at Churchill Downs last time June 29. She enters this off a five-furlong bullet in 1:00 flat in Louisville Aug. 3 for trainer Steve Margolis. Paul Pompa Jr.'s Morrow Cove (Orientate) figures to take some beating as she returns off a 4 3/4-length score in the local Serena's Song S. July 15. Pompa purchased the dark bay privately from Bortolazzo Stable after she romped by 10 3/4 lengths in a Delaware allowance two back May 19, but kept her in the Todd Pletcher barn. "Hopefully, she can duplicate that last performance," said Anthony Sciametta, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "She's been training great and breezed good [here Aug. 5]. She's an easy keeper. She's very well behaved and she likes to train." Gillian Campbell, R Group Management and Greenwood Lodge Farm purchased Jemima's Pearl (Distorted Humor) early this spring, and turned her over to trainer Bob Baffert for a third-place finish in Oaklawn's GII Fantasy S. Apr. 11 and a 10th-place run in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 4. Bret Calhoun will now take over training duties on the bay, who blew out three furlongs in :35 3/5 in her first move over the strip Aug. 5. "The owners decided to send her where she'd have a few more opportunities," Calhoun explained. "They sent her here with this race in mind. I've only had her for a couple of weeks. She was flown from Southern California to my barn in Lexington and then was vanned here just recently." He added, "She's only had that one work over the track but I look forward to her running a good race on Saturday."

and he had to fight hard for it, but he prevailed in the end. I was just working my horse as hard as I could and trying keep him motivated until the end. Fortunately, he held on to win. [Dale Romans told me] to try to get him in a good, forward position out of the gate. It seemed like the track was really favoring the speed horses, so we didn't want to have too much work to do. He was just always there for me. He put me where I needed to be and finished up strong." A winner going 7 1/2 panels at Gulfstream Jan. 28, Quick Wit finished a non-threatening third in the Feb. 11 GII Hutcheson S. A well-beaten seventh in his next two graded starts on the dirt, including the Apr. 28 GIII Derby Trial S., he crossed the third but was promoted to second in an 8 1/2-furlong turf allowance at Churchill Downs May 18. Favored in a nine-furlong grass event back at the Louisville oval June 21, the sophomore came home a two-length winner before finishing a respectable fifth--beaten only 2 1/4 lengths--in the July 14 GIII American Derby at Arlington.

"This horse has form on the dirt," said winning trainer Dale Romans. "I thought if it came off [the grass] he might have a better chance. It was just a matter of if he would move up. He has steadily improved and gotten better and better. We bought him out of the [2011 Keeneland Association November Breeding Stock Sale] relatively cheap and he's gotten better and better. I'm a huge fan of [Quick Wit's sire] Sharp Humor because he was my horse. When they hit the wire, I thought we'd won."

Trainer Todd Pletcher made the presentation for John Velazquez, a two-time Eclipse champion, winner of 11 Breeders' Cup races, two GI Belmont S. and last year's GI Kentucky Derby.

"I read yesterday that he becomes the 96th jockey inducted into the Hall of Fame," Pletcher said during the introduction. "You know there is no magic number or certain amount of money won or stakes won or Classics that makes one eligible for the Hall of Fame. But whatever that magic number is, I think with Johnny's induction today, the bar has been raised to an all new level. I say that, not only because of his ability in the saddle, we all know what a terrific rider he is, more important than that to me is that he is a terrific role model, terrific husband, caring father, and just an all around really super human being."

Velazquez was choked up at several points during his acceptance speech, at one point backing away from the microphone only to have Durkin encourage him back to the podium to continue. Eventually, Velazquez was joined on stage by his wife, Leona. Velazquez thanked several trainers for helping him achieve milestones in his riding career, including his father-in-law Leo O'Brien.

He picked out trainer Michael Dickinson, with whom he won his first Breeders' Cup race aboard Da Hoss in the 1998 GI Mile.

"I was at Churchill Downs and was riding five Breeders' Cup races," Velazquez recalled. "[Dickinson] came in with a piece of paper and gave me a map and told me he had walked the track and he showed me where he wanted me to be at each spot and to not move to soon. He said, 'If you are going to win a Breeders' Cup race today, it will be with Da Hoss.'"

Velazquez also thanked Pletcher and Michael Matz, who each gave him a leg up on a GI Belmont S. winner, and Graham Motion, for whom Velazquez rode Kentucky Derby winner Animal Kingdom in 2011.

Puerto Rican native John Velazquez emigrated to the United States in 1990 to pursue a career as a jockey. He has since ridden in over 25,000 races and is ranked fourth for all-time earnings with upwards of $250 million. Highlights of his career include winning the 2011 GI Kentucky Derby with Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}), the 2007 GI Belmont S. with Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) and the 2012 Belmont on Union Rags (Dixie Union). He is a five-time winner of the Saratoga riding title and was presented the Eclipse Award for Outstanding Jockey in both 2004 and 2005.

The 2012 Hall of Fame inductees

New Hall of Fame trainer Roger Attfield

Former CEO of Woodbine Entertainment Group David Willmot presented trainer Roger Attfield into the Hall of Fame. "We in Canada, even though Roger will come up here and speak with an English accent, we in Canada consider Roger 'Our Roger Attfield,' very much Canadian and certainly the greatest trainer since 1900."

Willmot sited Attfield for his ability to keep veteran runners sound and happy and performing at a top level. "On Queen's Plate day in June of this year, there was a Grade III at 1 1/2 miles on the turf at Woodbine and it was just an amazing sight to see two horses trained by Roger and the total ages of the two horses was 17, Muskietier and Simnard, running happily, healthily and sound and battling head to head coming down the stretch. I think that is such a credit to Roger, that he knows a happy horse, he knows how to keep a horse happy and how to extend their careers."

Attfield, an eight-time Sovereign Award-winning trainer and conditioner of three Canadian Triple Crown winners, called the induction "a very, very special moment." He thanked all the people who had worked with him over the years, the owners, and, of course, the horses. "They are noble, beautiful animals," Attfield said. "If they are kept healthy and sound and well, they will always run their best for you. I think it is very very important that we respect this."

Attfield cautioned that racing needs to get back to its roots. "The best horse should be able to win," he said. "We have got to clean up some of the stuff that is going on out there, get rid of the rubbish. I feel really really strongly about that. You only need two or three bad apples in the basket and a fresh basket is ruined."

Roger Attfield got his start in Newbury, England as a steeplechase jockey and show jump rider. He emigrated to Canada in 1970 and won his first Canadian race as a conditioner in 1972. He has saddled over 1,500 winners, won 369 stakes and took the Canadian Triple Crown three times with Izvestia (Icecapade), With Approval (Caro {Ire}) and Peteski (Affirmed). The 1999 Canadian Hall of Fame inductee also scored in the 2011 GI BC F/M Turf with Perfect Shirl. Attfield has won the Sovereign Award for Outstanding Canadian Trainer eight times.

Elfrida Stronach and her son Andy accepted 2004 Horse of the Year Ghostzapper's induction into the Hall of Fame on behalf of her husband Frank Stronach. Elfrida Stronach recalled Ghostzapper's racing career and her experiences with the stallion's late Hall of Fame trainer Bobby Frankel. "When I would call Bobby and ask, 'How is the horse?' He would say, 'He is in good order and he will run very well.' And then he would sort of switch the conversation to his dogs. I loved dogs, too, so we would talk about dogs for a while." She added, "I miss Bobby very much."

Ghostzapper (Awesome Again) is the lone equine member of the 2012 Hall of Fame class. The multiple grade I winner set a stakes record in the 2004 GI Breeders' Cup Classic, covering 1 1/4 miles in 1:59.02. The Bobby Frankel trainee accumulated nine wins in eleven career starts, was named the 2004 Horse of the Year and amassed $3,446,120 in earnings. The versatile Frank Stronach homebred could both sprint and route, winning contests at distances ranging from six furlongs to 1 1/4 miles. He currently stands as a stallion at Adena Springs Farm.

Trainer Robert Wheeler was also admitted into the Hall of Fame Friday. Wheeler's induction was accepted by his grandson Jeff, who said, "The family is extremely proud of gramps." Wheeler described his grandfather as a man who "honored his profession," "respected above all his horses, as well as his family and his owners," and was "devoted to what he did."

Sarah Wright, great granddaughter of owner Maj.

Nebraska native Robert Wheeler got his start working with horses as a teenager breaking yearlings. After some time riding in the rodeo circuit, he began training Thoroughbreds in 1938, and enjoyed a career that spanned 54 years and included 1,336 wins. 1959 Santa Anita Derby winner Silver Spoon (Citation) and 1982 champion Track Robbery (No Robbery) are among the 56 stakes-winning horses Wheeler saddled in his career. He is currently ranked fifth for all time stakes wins at Santa Anita. He passed away in 1992.

Thomas Doswell, accepted the induction of the pre-Civil War star Planet. Wright explained that she had grown up with stories and photos of the horse who was known as "The Great Red Fox." "I thought of Planet as a member of the family," she said.

Also inducted in the historic review category was jockey Anthony Hamilton. Hamilton won many of the nation's most prestigious races in the 1880s and '90s.

Among fans in attendance at the induction ceremony were trainers Graham Motion and Dallas Stewart, Roy and Gretchen Jackson, as well as bloodstock agents Gerry Dilger and Mike and Mary Ryan.

SALES NEWS

SLIMMER CATALOGUE FOR GOFFS ORBY

Beginning Monday, the catalogue for the Goffs Orby Sale, held in Ireland Oct. 3-4, will be available online at www.goffs.com. A total of 400 Irish-bred yearlings will be on offer. That's down over 40% from last year's 675, a reduction Goffs officials say was a result of stressing quality over quantity. "There are many factors that go into the compilation of a sale, but the key feature is the make-up of the catalogue," Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby said. "Following last year's renewal we took a long look at our Orby Sale, which has resulted in a different approach this year. The consensus was that, as Ireland's premier yearling sale, the Orby should represent all that is best about Irish bloodstock, and we made the decision to cut numbers and offer a concise handpicked selection of yearlings over two days, thereby ensuring a consistently high standard from start to finish. There is no doubt that our vendors have really stepped up to the mark in terms of quality, and having inspected a good percentage of the catalogue myself, I can vouch that this is one of the best in terms of pedigree and individuals that we have produced. There really is no sale quite like the Orby for top-class yearlings, potential winners, and hospitality, and we look forward to promoting the sale around the world over the coming months and to welcoming buyers to the unrivaled Goffs complex on the first week of October." The Orby Sale will be followed by the one-day Sportsman's Yearling Sale on Friday, Oct. 5.

The Magic Is Still There!

"Allen Jerkens is an old man and he's always been on the eccentric side, and that seems to be all that matters to the vast majority of people who own good racehorses. When perception faces off with reality at the racetrack reality never seems to win. And that can be the only reason one of the greatest trainers ever only has 15 horses in his barn."

"More than a billion dollars bet by more than a million customers last month is the latest evidence that the "racino" at Aqueduct Racetrack in New York City is capitalizing on its prime location and drawing dollars and gamblers from neighboring states' casinos." Verena Dobnik and Michael Hill, South Coast Today

Churchill Downs turns to a harness track for the slots

America's most famous thoroughbred racing company is buying a harness track. But the lure isn't the two-wheeled sulkies and their drivers pulled by standardbred trotters and pacers—it's the potential for as many as 2,500 slots-like video lottery terminals that Ohio now allows at its seven racetracks. Churchill Downs Inc., partnering with Delaware North Cos. Gaming and Entertainment, is investing half of the expected $225 million to move Lebanon Raceway from the Warren County Fairgrounds to a site closer to Interstate 75 that can draw more people from Cincinnati and Dayton. Gregory Hall, The Courier-Journal

Handicapping the
meet with:

Brian DiDonato Steve Sherack

We have given our two TDN crack handicappers, Brian DiDonato and Steve Sherack, a mythical $1000 bankroll and told them they can bet no more than 5% of that on any given day at Saratoga on a straight win bet. The winner, at the end of the meet, gets $100 in a TVG betting account, along with bragging rights until next July.

DiDonato: Friday - Didn't have a bet yesterday as two of my runners scratched, and the other, Insolvent in the fifth, was forced off the turf. Really regretted giving her the "turf only" distinction, and felt even worse when she scored at a very generous 7-2 considering there was no other speed in the race. Really hoping the weather clears up for tomorrow.

Today - Race 2 - Msw, 1 1/16mT, 2yo - #5 Draw Two (3-1)

Let me preface this by saying that it pains me greatly to pick such a chalky horse. I wrote this up before the morning line came out and was expecting a better price after looking at other handicappers' picks for this race. Hopefully he drifts or at least stays close to the morning line, because I think 7-5 or so is probably fair. Draw Two had a very tough trip on debut (video) going seven furlongs over the Belmont sod July 15, but managed to finish a much-the-best third behind Craving Carats, who returned to don cap and gown here last week. Off very slowly from his outside post, the big grey was kept out wide in no-man's land around the turn, covering a ton of extra ground while trying to chip away at his disadvantage. Still clearly a bit green in the lane, Draw Two covered his final furlong in :11.97 (vs. the top two finishers' :12.39) to get up for third. Trainer Michelle Nihei's stats with second timers aren't great, but she does well overall and usually stays under the radar. Draw Two has some 2-year-old quality on his dam's side (he hails from the family of 1987 champion juvenile filly Epitome and last year's GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity winner Shared Property) and should prove clearly best here with any kind of trip unless there's a really good firster waiting in the wings. Play: $47 Win ($27 if off turf). Alternate 1: Race 7 - $15 Win on #9 Davins Ticket (Turf Only).

DiDonato Bankroll: $951 - Record: 17-2-2-3

Sherack: Friday - Thought Csaba was a complete lock once the rains forced the Hall of Fame to the main track--and apparently so did the Spa faithful hammering him down to 6-5--but he came up just a nose short after putting on quite a good show in the stretch.

Today - Race 11 - GII Fourstardave H., 3yo/up, 1mT - #7 Corporate Jungle (6-1)

Corporate Jungle put together a three-race winning streak earlier this term, including a solid tally with a career-high 99 Beyer in Gulfstream's GIII Appleton S. in March. Given plenty of time to recover from that effort, the Gary & Mary West colorbearer was along in time to deliver as the chalk in Monmouth's Elkwood S. May 19, and punched his ticket to California for the GI Shoemaker Mile. The dark bay made a strong middle-move while racing wide that day, but was outkicked in the stretch, reporting home a respectable fifth, beaten three lengths, to the hard-knocking Jeranimo. The 4-year-old appears to have bounced back from that effort in top form, posting a four-furlong bullet in :48 4/5 over the Oklahoma training track July 22, and reunites with Javier Castellano, who was last aboard in the Appleton. Corporate Jungle also owns a good-looking maiden win over this course over subsequent GI Hollywood Derby runner-up Imagining. Chad Brown has been firing on all cylinders since the meet kicked off, and this guy should present some nice value following an off-the-board finish. Play: $25 Win (Turf Only). Alternate 1: Race 9 - $20 Win on #2 Shankopotamus.

F-T NEW YORK SALE STARTS TODAY

The sales action resumes today in Saratoga when the Fasig-Tipton New York-Bred Yearlings Sale begins its two-day run at 6:30 p.m. in the Humphrey S. Finney Pavilion. A total of 260 yearlings have been catalogued for the auction, which has grown in stature with the advent of slots-inflused purses in the Empire State.

"We are anticipating a strong sale," commented Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning. "Some impact was noticed last year because of the anticipated revenue from the slots. It is important to note that New York racing has been enhanced significantly by the purse supplements in New York for New York-breds. We are optimistic that the sale will receive a bump up from the current racing climate and purse structure that exists in New York."

Boyd Browning Horsephotos

The 260 head catalogued is up from 214 in 2011 and 174 in 2010, but Browning expects that number to go up even more in the coming years. Cont. p2

"This year we are dealing with a small foal crop of New York-breds," he explained. "The benefit from the New York program, in terms of the purse increases, is going to be felt in the crop of 2013. That is because you'll have more mares bred in New York this year than in recent history. So this year, because we are still dealing with a fairly small foal crop, I think there is a little more commercial orientation toward those breeders because they have the expectation that people are going to want to buy those horses."

During last year's New York-bred sale, 124 horses sold for $6,725,500. The average rose 38.7% to $54,238 and the median was up 16.7% to $35,000. The top-priced lot in 2011 was $250,000, compared to top price of $140,000 in 2010.

SARATOGA SNACKS (r, 3, Tale of the Cat--Near and Dear, by Red Ransom) followed a second in the mud on debut here last season with a win last Sept. and an allowance victory at Belmont May 31. The even-money favorite here, Saratoga Snacks broke from the outside, pressed the pace and opened up entering the bend. The bay was wide into the stretch, drifted out, and sharply swerved as Recurring Dream (Lion Heart) moved up on the inside, but straightened out to finish gamely. INSOLVENT (f, 2, Big Brown--Refrain, by Unbridled's Song) made amends for a money-burning third on her Independence Day bow at Monmouth Park to become the fifth winner for her first-crop sire (by Boundary). The grey filly, who showed sharp debut speed at the Jersey Shore before weakening to be beaten over a half-dozen lengths, won the break here and streaked through an opening couple of furlongs in :21.91, as Worthwhilepursuit (Harlan's Holiday) tried in vain to run with her. Insolvent had as many as seven lengths on her rivals on the turn, but the underfoot conditions began to exact their toll and her lead was just three lengths at the furlong grounds. Insolvent kept pulling out more on the engine and found the wire 1 3/4 lengths ahead of Elusive Fate (Elusive Quality) at odds of 7-2. Worthwhilepursuit, the half to GSW Disposablepleasure (Giacomo), weakened to sixth. The winner is a half to Girlfrienontheside (Indian Charlie), GSP, $128,490. Bred top and bottom to love this off going, he was sent off the 9-5 chalk and made no mistakes. Quickest into stride from the middle of the gate, Weekend Hideaway drilled an opening quarter-mile in :21.96, widened his lead past the eighth pole and had 6 3/4 lengths on Shot Rock (Bustin Stones) at the wire. "Battle of Saratoga" Crowns Handicapping Champion:

Emad Himaya, 53, of Lindenhurst, NY cemented his victory in the two-day "Battle of Saratoga" handicapping contest with a $40 wager on 29-1 shot Warrior Up (Desert Warrior) in the last race on Thursday's card. Himaya finished his debut handicapping contest with $1,050 in his bankroll. "All day, I had been trying to build up my bankroll to stay in contention and wait until the last race to place my only $40 wager," said Himaya. "I liked the horse [Warrior Up] because he had drawn three bad posts from the 10 in three races, and he'd also been running against faster horses. I thought with a break in the post, he deserved a shot." Along with the $100,000 grand prize, Himaya will go on to represent Saratoga in the National Thoroughbred Racing Association/Daily Racing Form National Handicapping Championship in Las Vegas next January.

Suffolk Downs to Compete for Gaming License:

Officials at Suffolk Downs announced Friday that the Boston, Massachusetts racetrack will compete for one of the state's commercial gaming licenses, and that the necessary forms and fees have been submitted. The announcement comes on the heels of the unveiling of a $1 billion development plan for Suffolk Downs in June, which calls for the development of a hotel, restaurants, a casino gaming complex, retails, and a multi-use entertainment venue at the racetrack. Suffolk's casino bid includes plans to generate new jobs and revenue for the local economy. "We understand that to earn this license the onus is on us to not only capture revenue currently being lost to neighboring states but to drive visitors to the area, to create thousands of new jobs and to develop long term partnerships with local businesses and cultural institutions," said Suffolk Downs Chief Operating Officer Chip Tuttle.

Champion Louisiana-bred Star Guitar Retires:

Three-time Louisiana-bred Horse of the Year, Star Guitar (Quiet American--Minit Towinit, by Malagra), has been retired due to a reoccurring quarter crack. The 7-year-old tallied 24 wins in 30 career stars including 22 Louisiana stakes races and is the top earning Louisiana-bred with $1,749,862. "I feel happy for the horse, that he's going back home to Clear Creek Stud in Folsom, La. where he was born," trainer Al Stall Jr. told Blood-Horse. "He's been good to us every day of his life. I thought his quarter crack from last year was gone, but it showed up in the same place and would have taken a long time for it to grow back healthy. He'd done enough for us so we sent him on his way."

A typically deep Spa maiden, this race looks particularly wide open, given the fact the many of the favorites have pedigrees to excel going farther. That includes the 7-5 morning-line choice, ARCHWARRIOR (Arch), a son of GSP Winner's Edge (Seeking the Gold) who went for $375K at OBSMAR after working an eighth in :10 2/5. Alto Racing owns the Todd Pletcher-trained colt. Darley homebred Rugged (Distorted Humor), out of GISW Composure (Touch Gold); and Phipps homebred Overwhelming (Hard Spun), out of GISW Oh What a Windfall (Seeking the Gold), also debut, but like that one might need a start or two to show their best. Air Squadron (Curlin) would be no shock. A Mount Joy Stables homebred is a half to MGSW Smooth Air (Smooth Jazz), and to last year's exciting GII Sanford S. winner Overdriven (Tale of the Cat). Gary and Mary West's first-timer Hotter N Blazes (Dixie Union), a $200K KEESEP purchase, sports a good win-early pedigree, and based on trainer Wayne Catalano's 18% first-out strike right, will offer value if he's close to his 8-1 ML price. OBSERVATIONS on today's European racing scene

4.10 Newmarket, Mdn, £7,000, unraced 2yo, f, 7fT
DOWNHILL DANCER (IRE) (Montjeu {Ire}) starts out in the colors of her breeders, Car Colston Hall Stud, for the Brian Meehan yard in this maiden won six years ago by the top-class Passage of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}). The half-sister to the 2008 G1 Racing Post Trophy winner and 2010 GI Pacific Classic runner-up Crowded House (GB) (Rainbow Quest) is taken on by a clutch of intriguing newcomers which include Yvonne Jacques' Savvy Chic (Street Boss), a $220,000 OBSMAR purchase from the Jeremy Nosedo stable whose dam is the 2006 GIII Churchill Downs Distaff Turf Mile runner-up Special Grayce (Smart Strike).

+ ASHDAN (GB) (c, 2, Dansili {GB}--Bonash {GB} {MGSW-Fr, $139,975}, by Rainbow Quest) was quickly into stride from the outside box and raced prominently throughout this first go. Niggled along with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining, the crowd's 7-2 choice led entering the final quarter mile and quickened smartly under mild urging on the uphill climb to go 2 1/4 lengths clear of Mutazamen (GB) (Sakhee's Secret {GB}). The winner is a half to Day Flight (GB) (Sadler's Wells), MGSW-Eng, GSP-Ger, $502,733; and a full to Sense of Joy (GB), GSW-Eng. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £4,528. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

+ RIBAAT (IRE) (c, 2, Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Fonda, by Quiet American), a 130,000gns TATOCT yearling, raced under a tight hold in rear after receiving an early bump in this opening show. Pulling himself into midfield at halfway, the 6-4 favorite quickened to the fore passing the eighth pole and was pushed out to score by an easy 2 1/4 lengths from Seven of Clubs (Ire) (Red Clubs {Ire}). Dutifl Son (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), a son of Grecian Dancer (GB) (Dansili {GB}), raced in a handy position throughout, but was unable to match the winner's late pace and finished fifth. Ribaata is a half to Buxted (Ire) (Dynaformer), SW & GSP-Eng. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £3,235. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Trainer Andrew Oliver sidestepped the orthodox route of sending First Cornerstone back to maiden company after a first-up third at Down Royal July 27, but his bold move to target black type instead reaped immediate dividends as the chestnut lit up the boards with a shock win in this evening highlight. Positioned fourth until moving into third at halfway, he was rousted along at the top of the straight to lead inside the final quarter mile and kept on strongly to shed maiden status with something in hand. "He has always been a horse that showed a bit at home, but we have not rushed him," trainer Andrew Oliver told irishracing.com. "He had a nice run first time at Down Royal, when he was very green, and [jockey] Michael Cleere looked after him. The natural progression would have been to go for a maiden, but I thought this looked a good opportunity. Chris [Hayes] gave him a lovely, patient ride and he always looked to be traveling best in the race. He'll step up to group level now, we'll look at his options, and I'd say there's a good deal more left in him." Video, courtesy attheraces.com.

O'REILLY COLT TOPS SOUTH ISLAND SALE

A Berkley Stud-consigned colt by O'Reilly (NZ) topped yesterday's South Island Sale of Two-Year-Olds & Mixed Bloodstock in New Zealand, fetching a top price of NZ$145,000 from N.C. Chan of Hong Kong. Catalogued as Lot 68, the colt is a full-brother to the triple stakes-winning filly and 2006 New Zealand Bloodstock Southern Filly of the Year Ombre Rose (NZ) and half to 10-time Australian winner Crabs (NZ) (Danasinga {Aus}). Chan said the colt's female family drew him to the 2-year-old. "I liked this colt because the dam line is very strong, and his sire O'Reilly is a very successful stallion in Hong Kong," said Chan. "He will be pre-trained in New Zealand for a year, but I haven't decided where yet and, depending on how he develops, I intend to send him to Hong Kong." Chan was the leading purchaser at a sale that, from a 167 lots through the ring, saw 107 horses sell for NZ$1,171,050 (US$952,498), an average of NZ$11,108 (US$9,034) and a clearance rate of 72%.

2YO SALE STRUGGLES IN TOUGH MARKET

There were mixed results on the first day of South Africa's 2012 Emperors Palace National 2yo Sale, held yesterday in Germiston, South Africa. While the average was up from last year--it rose 17% to R69,185 (US$8,545), compared with last year's corresponding figure of R59,128--prices remained well below what consignors hoped for. Yesterday's opener saw 136 horses from the 163 through the ring sold for R9,340,000 (US$1,153,584). Twenty-six youngsters failed to reach their reserves, an RNA rate of 16%. Topping the session was Lot 7, a colt by Horse of the Year Dynasty (SAf) who was knocked down to top Cape trainer Glen Kotzen for R500,000 (US$61,755). The handsome bay, named Kono (SAf), was consigned by Sandown Stud and is a half-brother to the stakes placed performer Carlito Brigante (SAf) (Windrush). Day one's top-priced filly was Lot 114, a blue-blooded miss by champion sire Western Winter out of G1SW Soft Landing (SAf) (Jet Master {SAf}). She sold to another top Cape conditioner, Mike Bass, for R240,000 (US$29,642). Going by the moniker of Snow and Ice (SAf), this flashy filly was offered by Klipdrif Stud. The TBA's CEO, Tom Callaghan, was optimistic about the sale, commenting afterwards, "I was pleased by an increase in the sale's average, and am hopeful that things will look even better on Sunday. The lengthier session this evening certainly has not hurt the overall stats of this sale, which continues to provide great value for money buys." The sale concludes with a second and final session tomorrow. Full results can be found at www.tba.co.za.
