ROYAL DELTA PREPS FOR PERSONAL ENSIGN

Trainer Bill Mott sent out several pupils Monday morning, including reigning champion 3-year-old filly Royal Delta (Empire Maker). Campaigned by Besilu Stables, the dark bay worked five furlongs over the Oklahoma training track in 1:00.66 for the GI Personal Ensign H. Aug. 26. "Royal Delta had a very good work," confirmed Mott. The 4-year-old filly heads into the 1 1/8-mile Personal Ensign off victories in the GII Delaware H. and GII Fleur de Lis H. at Churchill Downs.

"I think 1:01 and change would have been fine, but she went along pretty well," said Mott. "She went off the right way and finished up nice, too. We're two weeks away, so a decent work was in order."

Also put through his paces Monday, To Honor and Serve (Bernardini) breezed five furlongs over the Oklahoma track in 1:01.60 in advance of a possible tilt in the Sept. 1 GI Woodward. To Honor and Serve, winner of the 2011 GI Cigar Mile H., was most recently fourth in the July 7 GII Suburban H. at Belmont Park. "There is a very good possibility To Honor and Serve could run in the Woodward," said Mott.

To Honor and Serve
Adam Coglianesse

"He's starting to act better; more like himself. With the weather being cooler, he's eating better and acting better." Mott indicated GI Whitney third-place finisher Flat Out (Flatter) could also start in the Woodward. "He's not definite, but he's a definite maybe," said Mott.

Also sent to the Oklahoma track Monday morning were GI Sword Dancer H. hopefuls Al Khali (Medaglia d'Oro) and Newsdad (Arch). The former worked a half-mile in :50.22, while the latter negotiated five panels in 1:02.11.

PAYNTER TO MISS TRAVERS; LIAISON UP

Zayat Stables' Paynter (Awesome Again) will not contest the Aug. 25 GI Travers S. at Saratoga, confirmed trainer Bob Baffert yesterday. The stable, which also campaigns

Paynter
Benoit Photo

GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. runner-up Bodemeister (Empire Maker)--will be represented by Liaison (Indian Charlie) in the 'Mid-Summer Derby.'

"[Ahmed Zayat and Baffert] talked [Sunday and Monday] morning about it," Baffert said of Paynter, winner of Monmouth's GI Haskell Invitational July 29. "It was going to be tough. I wouldn't be able to get a work into him, and it would be too much. We'll just get him right and get him back to full steam and nominate him everywhere." Among possibilities for Paynter are the GII Pennsylvania Derby at Parx Sept. 22 or the Sept. 29 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont.

Liaison, third in his latest start in the July 28 GII Jim Dandy S., worked five panels in 1:00.38 on Saratoga's main track yesterday morning. "Liaison is doing well," confirmed Baffert of last year's GI CashCall Futurity winner. The move was the sixth fastest of 41 at the distance Monday.

CRACKERJACK KING, JAKKALBERRY ARRIVE

The Marco Botti-trained Group 1-winning half-brothers Crackerjack King (Shamardal) and Jakkalberry (Storming Home)--slated to contest Saturday's Arlington International Festival--arrived safely at Arlington Park Sunday. The duo remained in quarantine at the end of training hours Monday morning. Jakkalberry, owned by Australian Thoroughbred Bloodstock, will contest the GI American St. Leger, while Crackerjack King (ATB owns a 50% share), will contest the GI Arlington Million. The pair had their final gallops in Newmarket Saturday.

"Crackerjack King and Jakkalberry are both in good order and I am confident that they will cope well with the journey to America," trainer Marco Botti said Saturday.

The pair is expected to head straight into quarantine on their return to the U.K. before a tilt at Melbourne's Spring Carnival.

"Although I currently have no confirmed jockey, Ryan Moore is a possibility," said Botti. "We shall assess the well being of both horses on their return to the U.K. and if everything is in order we will take them to Australia."

Working in advance of a possible start in the Million, Vertiformer (Dynaformer), who is also pre-entered for the American St. Leger, breezed five furlongs in 1:06.80 Monday over Arlington's turf course, which was listed as "good" with the "dogs" off the rail. Jeffrey Sanchez was aboard for the move. Also taken out for a spin was Cherokee Lord (Sir Cherokee), who negotiated six panels in 1:16.80 with Francisco Torres in the irons.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Hopefuls Ready for 'Mid-Summer Derby'

Several hopefuls for the Aug. 25 GI Travers S. at Saratoga tuned up Monday morning, including Stealcase (Lawyer Ron). Campaigned by John Oxley, the chestnut--accompanied by jockey Shaun

Travers hopeful Atigun
Horsephotos

Bridgmohan--breezed six furlongs in 1:12.53 over Saratoga's main track. "We were looking for a big work, and he delivered that," said Norman Casse, son and assistant of trainer Mark Casse. "He went out three quarters in 1:12 and seven eighths in 1:25. You really can't work better any better than that, so it seems like we're on track for the Travers at this point." Stealcase, who won going a mile at Churchill Downs May 31, was third--beaten 8 1/4 lengths-- by Paynter in the GI Haskell Invitational July 29 at Monmouth. "We've had several good horses this year, including one [Prospective] who actually made the Derby," said Casse. "Stealcase has always been our favorite 3-year-old from the very beginning. It just seems like he's his own worst enemy, and he hasn't really put everything together. Even in the Haskell, had he broke better [hit the gate at the start], he probably would have finished second. I don't think we would have beaten Paynter that day, but we were going to be a lot closer. He's always been knocking on the door; we're just waiting for him to put it all together one time."

Stealcase was fourth in his sole start at the Spa in his career debut in July of 2011. "He's always liked this racetrack," said Casse. "He's only had one start over it, and it was his first start as a 2-year-old. He broke badly and the race was compromised from the beginning. He's spent the last two summers up here and has never not worked well, so we know he likes the surface."

Also working Monday morning ahead of a tilt at the Travers was Five Sixteen (Invasor {Arg}), runner-up in the restricted Curlin S. at the Spa July 27 and GI Belmont S. third Atigun (Istan), who was sixth most recently in the July 28 GI Jim Dandy S. The former covered five furlongs in 1:00.35 over the main track, while the latter went four panels in :48.55 over the Oklahoma training track.

Ready to 'Zo'

Live Oak Plantation's Zo Impressive (Hard Spun) was one of three sophomore fillies tuning up for Saturday's GI Alabama S. Monday morning. The powerful grey covered five furlongs in 1:01.90. "She worked very well this morning," confirmed trainer Tom Albertrani. "It looks like she's keeping in good form, and that's all we can ask for." Zo Impressive, victorious in the May 28 GI Acorn S. at Belmont, had to settle for second behind Questing (GB) (Hard Spun), in the July 21 GI TVG Coaching Club American Oaks. "I don't think [Zo Impressive will] have a problem with [the Alabama's 1 1/4-mile distance]," opined Albertrani. "It looked like she was finishing in the last eighth of a mile in the Coaching Club. She was gaining a little bit late in the race. Maybe that was from [Questing] starting to get tired and drifting out, but I don't see why she wouldn't go a little further. She's been very consistent; she's been 1-2 in all of her starts. Hopefully, she'll run her race again."

Also breezing over the main track was GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Believe You Can (Proud Citizen), who negotiated four furlongs in 1:02.78 with jockey Rosie Napravnik aboard. Phipps Stable's Sea Island (Pulpit) earned a bullet for her :48.20 four-panel breeze on the Oklahoma training track, while Grace Hall (Empire Maker), winner of the GII Delaware Oaks, arrived in trainer Tony Dutrow's Saratoga barn from Delaware Park Monday. Dutrow confirmed that Grace Hall will visit the track for a jog Tuesday.

Dullahan to Pacific Classic

Dullahan (Even the Score), winner of the GI Blue Grass S. over Keeneland Polytrack Apr. 14, will head to west to contest the Aug. 26 Pacific Classic at Del Mar, according to published reports. Campaigned by Donegal Racing, the chestnut failed to hit the board in his two latest starts on the dirt, including a fifth in the July 29 GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth, prompting connections to revisit a synthetic surface. "He obviously likes the Polytrack and the [Pacific Classic] was our best opportunity to get him back on it in a big race," trainer Dale Romans told the Bradenton Herald. Third in the GI Kentucky Derby early this spring, Dullahan registered his final work in Kentucky Saturday, going five furlongs in 1:00.20 with regular rider Faustino Aguilar in the saddle. Joel Rosario, now based on the east coast, will fly out for the mount.

Champagne for Spurious Precision

Spurious Precision (High Cotton) emerged from last Sunday's GII Saratoga Special S. victory in good order and is expected to make his next start in the Oct. 6 GI Foxwoods Champagne S. at Belmont Park, trainer Rick Violette Jr. confirmed Monday. "All is well so far," said Violette, who trains the colt for Klaravich Stables and William Lawrence. "He walked [Monday] morning, and he was a little tired. Our plan is to chill out a bit and have him ready for the Champagne, hopefully, have a fresh horse again going into the fall. It pays being nimble though--sometimes horses just don't cooperate with the best-laid plans."

According to Violette, he originally had planned to send Carried Interest (Henny Hughes), a debut maiden winner at Belmont July 5, to the Saratoga Special, but the colt developed a sore shin, so the decision was made to reroute him to GII Three Chimneys Hopeful S. Sept. 3. Violette indicated that Carried Interest will likely begin galloping next week for his Hopeful engagement. "He's going to jog for another week or so," Violette said. "I'll just jog the pants off him. The shin, knock on wood, is really good, and we'll start galloping him in another week. He'll be fit enough to head over across the street [for the Hopeful]. We're sparing nothing, it's just that jogging doesn't pound on the shin quite as much as galloping does, that's all. Actually, it will be perfect, going to the Hopeful with him, but if the Hopeful had [still] been a Grade I, we might not have run [Spurious Precision] yesterday. It does alter plans."

Game on Dude Readies for Pacific Classic

Game On Dude (Awesome Again), with Rafael Bejarano aboard, recorded his penultimate work in advance of the Aug. 26 GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar. Last month's GI Hollywood Gold Cup winner completed six panels in 1:12.60. "He went really good," trainer Bob Baffert told Daily Racing Form. "Just breezing. I didn't want to empty him out..He's just a different horse this year."

Coolmore's global operation enjoyed an excellent time in the European Group 1 races contested on Sunday. Danehill's admirably tough son Oratorio, currently exiled in Australia, was responsible for Temida, shock winner of the Grosser Preis von Bayern.

Then the Keeneland Phoenix S. rather unexpectedly provided freshman sire Henrythenavigator with his first group winner, Pedro The Great, after another Henrythenavigator colt, the much shorter-priced Cristoforo Colombo, had hit the deck.

The third Group 1 race, the Prix Jacques le Marois, was won by a son of a Darley stallion, but even that was no setback to Coolmore, as the winning Exceed and Excel colt Excelebration now races in the colors of Coolmore partner Derrick Smith. The 4-year-old is surely destined to join the Coolmore stallion team.

It is 3 1/2 years since I last wrote about Exceed and Excel in this column, so what has changed since then? Quite a lot, actually.

In that column, centered around Exceed and Excel's Blue Diamond S. winner Reward For Effort, I charted some of the stallion's history.

I pointed out that he had ended the 2007/08 Australian season as champion first-season sire, with a total of five 2-year-old stakes winners. He was also going very well with his second-crop juveniles, with the Group 1-winning Reward For Effort being one of four stakes-winning juveniles at up to that point.

These two crops had been sired at fees of A$55,000, but those early successes sent his fee soaring to A$110,000 for 2008 and 2009. It has since been cut back to A$66,000 in the harder times of 2010, 2011 and 2012.

Although Exceed And Excel sired five Southern Hemisphere group winners in those first two crops, his third and fourth crops--also sired at A$55,000--have proved less fruitful at group level. They have produced only one group winner between them, but that one group winner was the triple Group 1 winner Helmet, who was on display at Darley's recent stallion show at Dalham Hall Stud.

Exceed And Excel's higher-priced crops, therefore, have a bit of work to do. The 2-year-olds from the first of them raced during the recently completed 2011/12 Australian season and--with three stakes winners among them--they did well enough to earn Exceed and Excel sixth place among Australia's 2-year-old sires. A fourth juvenile enjoyed stakes success in New Zealand.

Even so, there is no getting away from the fact that--against the odds--Exceed And Excel is making a much deeper impact in the Northern Hemisphere. I say "against the odds" because Australian breeders had seen him win seven of his 11 Australian starts, including a record-breaking Group 1 victory over seven furlongs and another Group 1 win in the six-furlong Newmarket H.

However, his venture to Europe didn't pay off after Sheikh Mohammed purchased him for a reported £8 million. Because of a virus Exceed and Excel missed the Royal Ascot sprints that have provided such rich pickings for Australasian-bred sprinters. He probably wasn't at his best in the G1 July Cup, when he faded to the rear after setting out to make the running.

Unbridled Winnings.

The August 15 deadline for the Kentucky Breeders' Incentive Fund is approaching fast. The fund awards Kentucky breeders with cash for winning eligible races all over the world. Since 2006, KBIF has awarded over $75 million. Register today at registerkbif.com or call 888-KYBREDS.

The difference between his form in the two hemispheres meant that there was quite a gulch between his fees in the south and north. Whereas his initial Australian fee was A$55,000, the son of Danehill started his European career at a fee of €10,000. At the relevant exchange rates, this meant that Exceed and Excel was available in Ireland for less than a third of his Australian fee. As none of his five European crops of racing age was sired at more than £12,000, his European achievements seemed likely to pale alongside those of their more expensive Australian counterparts. Remarkably, the opposite has been true.

Whereas he has only six group winners among his 535 Southern Hemisphere foals, he already has twice as many group winners among his 502 Northern Hemisphere foals. That figure could easily rise before the end of the season, thanks to such as the smart and progressive handicapper Fulbright.

Exceed and Excel's Northern Hemisphere runners have confirmed his ability to sire fast, quick-maturing 2-year-olds, such as his G2 Lowther S. winners Best Terms and Infamous Angel and his G3 Cornwallis S. winner Electric Waves. The recent Goodwood festival saw him represented by Bungle Inthejungle and Morawij, who fought out a close finish to the G3 Molecomb S., and Heavy Metal, a tough winner of the G2 Richmond S.

He has also enjoyed Group 1 success with the fast filly Margot Did and the top-class miler Excelebration. I would be surprised if there aren't more Group 1 winners in the pipeline, as he was much in demand in 2012, despite his fee being raised to £22,500.

There's a danger that Excelebration will always be remembered primarily for his defeats against the peerless Frankel, but his record bears close inspection. A winner of two of his three starts at two, he trained on so well that he won the G2 German 2000 Guineas by seven lengths and the G2 Hungerford S. by six. He then joined the likes of Irish River, Miesque, Kingmambo, Rock of Gibraltar and Goldikova as a winner of the G1 Prix du Moulin. He has also won both of his Frankel-free races this year.

In common with Dancing Rain (Oaks and German Oaks) and Nahoodh (Falmouth S.), Excelebration is a Group 1 winner sired by a son of Danehill from a daughter of Indian Ridge. His dam Sun Shower inherited little of Indian Ridge's speed or class. She failed to win at distances up to 1 3/8 miles, despite touring some of the lesser-known tracks in the French Provinces. She was sold for only €10,000 just months after producing Excelebration, but is now also the dam of the successful handicapper Mull of Killough.

However, there is plenty of quality in Excelebration's pedigree, as his fifth dam is Ela Marita. This daughter of Red God and Fantan was good enough--and versatile enough--to win the Fred Darling S. over seven furlongs and the Musidora S. over 1 5/16 miles on consecutive outings. Fantan had already found fame as the dam of Ribot's excellent son Ragusa. Because Ragusa labored under a May 26 birthday, it took him a while to reach his peak, but once he did, he was brilliant. He reeled off wide-margin victories in the Irish Derby, King George and the St leger to earn a Timeform rating of 137 at three, before taking the Eclipse S. at four.

There are several other Classic connections in Excelebration's female line. His fourth dam Mariel was second in the Irish 1000 Guineas, a race later won by his third dam Sarah Siddons. Sarah Siddons also triumphed in the Yorkshire Oaks, before becoming the dam of the Irish Oaks winner Princess Pati. Excelebration's second dam Miss Kemble was a half-sister to Princess Pati and to Seymour Hicks, a winner of the G2 Great Voltigeur S. who was inbred 3x4 to Fantan. Another of Sarah Siddons' descendants produced Leggera, a filly who was second in the 1998 Arc, so this is a high-quality family.

2001 Kentucky Derby winner Monarchos returned home to Nuckols Farm Saturday after undergoing emergency colic surgery July 31. According to Charles Nuckols III, the 14-year-old is "on a strict diet and we are carefully measuring his water intake. We built a pen around the back door of his stall and mowed the grass very low. This way, he can enjoy the outdoors, but not over do it."

Sensible Lady has carved a niche for herself in turf sprints. After recording two wins from five starts as a 2-year-old at Charles Town, she has upped her game this year. An upset winner of The Very One S. at Pimlico on the Preakness undercard May 18, she added the Buckland S. at Colonial Downs June 23, and the July 27 Jenny Wade S. at Penn National, and now owns three straight wins. Content to wait near the back early, Sensible Lady and jockey Xavier Perez made a four-wide bid entering the stretch, sweeping to the lead inside the final furlong and drawing off to a decisive victory. "She tells us when she's ready and you can see she loves what she does," said winning trainer Timothy Salzman. "We are thinking we might run against the boys [in Parx's Turf Monster H. Sept. 3], and that's a 'Win and You're In' to the [GI] Breeders' Cup [Turf Sprint Nov 2. at Santa Anita]. That's a big stretch, but she's a nice filly." Perez added, "The plan was to be a little bit closer because the speed has been holding all day. When we turned for home we tried to be as close as we could. I went wide because I saw everyone packed on the inside. I made that decision and she was running the most at the end. It's a dream to win at Saratoga." This was the first win at The Spa for both trainer and jockey. "When I was a kid, I came up here with my dad a lot. So, it means a lot to win. It really does," said Salzman. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

Barbara Banke to be Honored by BCCA:

Prominent Thoroughbred owner and breeder Barbara Banke of Stonestreet Stables will be honored by the Belmont Child Care Association at its annual Saratoga fundraiser Aug. 22 at The Gideon Putnam Hotel in Saratoga Springs. Banke and her late husband Jess Jackson have been long-time supporters of Anna House, which provides childcare for backstretch workers at Belmont Park. "I think one of the jockeys first told me about Anna House," said Banke. "It's wonderful to be honored by the BCCA, and I am humbled. There are so many people that really support that charity." Tickets for the fundraiser, which will include cocktails, dinner, and a live and silent auction, can be purchased for $250 by visiting <http://bccca.shuttlepod.org>, or by calling Anna House at 516-488-2103.

Central U.S.*Arlington to Host Third Annual Legends Race:

Arlington Park will host its third-annual "Arlington Fab 5" vs. "Legends" race Aug. 17. The event pits five retired jockeys against the five leading riders at the current meet. Coming out of retirement for a day to join the Legends team will be Earlie Fires, Patti Cooksey, Zoe Cadman, Frank Lovato Jr. and Larry Melancon. The Fab 5 team will include Francisco Torres, James Graham, Rosemary Homeister Jr., Seth Martinez and Jeffrey Sanchez. The race will be part of the festivities for the Illinois track's third annual "Dining with the Dynasty" fundraiser to benefit the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund and the Racetrack Chaplaincy of America. For $600, VIP ticket holders will enjoy lunch with legendary riders such as Walter Blum, Jean Cruguet, Pat Day, and Chris McCarron. INDUSTRY INFO*Breeders' Cup Poker Tournament to Benefit CARMA:

Breeders' Cup announced Monday that the California Retirement Management Account, a non-profit organization to benefit retired California racehorses, will be the beneficiary of the 2012 Deepstacks Poker Tour Breeders' Cup Celebrity Invitational, to be held Oct. 30 at Commerce Casino in Commerce, CA. "We are honored to be able to support an organization as committed to Thoroughbred retirement and rehabilitation as CARMA," said Breeders' Cup CEO Craig Fravel. "The importance of the well-being of our athletes extends beyond their racing careers, so it's important that we as an industry are able to provide adequate facilities and resources for these Thoroughbreds."

TAPIT FILLY TOPS AS NATIONAL 2YO SALE ENDS

South Africa's National 2-year-old Sale, sponsored by Emperors Palace, came to a conclusion in Germiston Sunday evening, and while prices remained on the low side, there were some positives, including an average that rose from R58,770 to R70,000. The sales topper, a filly by Tapit, came during Sunday's second and final session. Lot 208, the only youngster in the sale by the leading American sire, brought a bid of R650,000 from Good Hope Racing. The striking bay filly, consigned by Highlands Farm, was produced by the El Prado (Ire) mare Baccarat Babe, whose own dam Family Enterprize (Tri Jet) won the GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga in 1992. The price was well in advance of the top seller in 2011, who brought R350,000.

The catalogue for the 2012 renewal was the sale's smallest since 20003. At 383 catalogued horses, it was well smaller than 2011's 478-strong catalogue, and was held over two days, compared to three last year. By this standard, the 2012 aggregate of R20.02 million compares very well to last year's total of R21.510 million.

There were 38 lots officially not sold as opposed to last year, when 75 horses failed to make their reserve prices. However, this year's new vendor buy-back scheme meant an additional 28 horses were returned to their vendors under that definition. In total, 66 lots failed to find new homes this year.

Overall, TBA's CEO Tom Callaghan was pleased with the outcome of the sale. "We sold 120 fewer horses this year and our aggregate was only R1.5 million down on last year, which showed the catalogue was stronger, and showed the general uptick in the market," said Callaghan. "Good horses sold for good money, and there were some great athletes on sale which were snapped up by astute buyers. This sale is building its stature on a sale that produces champions, and today was no different. Thanks to our loyal vendors and buyers who continue to support us so well. We want to see some overseas buyers here next year, as our export protocols will be lifted by then."

The sales' top-priced colt sold early during Friday's opening session. Lot 7, a Sandown Stud-consigned son of leading South African sire Dynasty (SAf), was knocked down to top Cape trainer Glen Kotzen for R500,000. Leading buyer at the sale was Laurence Wernars, who bought eight juveniles for a gross of R1.615 million. Maine Chance Farms, recently named outstanding breeders for the past season, continued its great run, and topped the vendors list by aggregate. The farm sold 13 lots for a total of R1.605 million. Exciting young sire Sail From Seattle (Gone West) was leading sire by aggregate. The blue-blooded horse, a stakes winner in the U.S. from the wonderful No Class family, sold 12 horses for a gross of R1.175 million. His first crop are 2-year-olds this season.

Most of the buyers were fairly content with the overall quality of the horses on sale. Leading trainer Sean Tarry, who purchased four lots and was one of the leading buyers at the sale, expressed respect for the horses on sale. "I only looked at a few horses on sale, but there were a few real quality lots on offer," said Tarry. "It is hard to compare [the catalogue] to past years, but I bought some really nice horses this year."

Jonathan Snaith, whose Snaith Racing are regularly among the country's top buyers, was appreciative of the bargains to be had at the sale. "This is a really hospitable sale, and we were treated really well," said Snaith. "The 2-year-old sale is a great place to pick up bargain buys, even if I feel this year the quality of the sale has been somewhat diluted by the increase in previous sales this year."
