

GALLIC GLORY

'DESCENT' TOPS BALLERINA DANCE OFF

With 8-5 morning line choice It's Tricky (Mineshaft) likely to scratch from today's G1 Ballerina S. in favor of Sunday's G1 Personal Ensign, the role of the favorite will likely fall to Turbulent Descent (Congrats). The $500,000 event is a "Win and You're In" race for the G1 Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint at Santa Anita Nov. 2. The 4-year-old filly makes her first start for

PAC-10 CLASSIC

Sunday's $1-million GI TVG Pacific Classic at Del Mar has drawn a field of 10, with Game On Dude (Awesome Again) installed as the 5-2 morning-line favorite after drawing the nine hole. "It's good he's on the outside," said trainer Bob Baffert. "He's speed and I didn't want to get stuck in traffic down on the inside." Richard's Kid

(Lemon Drop Kid), who won this race in 2009-10 for Baffert, will be saddled by Leandro Mora, who will be subbing for the suspended Doug O'Neill. He is listed at 7-2, and will break from the post three. A pair of recent South American imports, Amani (Chi) (Morning Raider {Ire}) and Suggestive Boy (Arg) (Easing Along), were tabbed at 5-1. Amani finished a fast-closing third in her lone U.S. outing in the GI Clement Hirsch S. at this track Aug. 4 for trainer Neil Drysdale. Suggestive Boy, runner-up in the GI Shoemaker Mile June 30, stretches out here after taking the Wickerr H. going a mile on the Del Mar weeds July 25. He breezed five-eighths in 1:03 flat on the Polytrack yesterday morning. "He looked good," said trainer Ron McAnally. "Everything's fine." The 10-furlong Pacific Classic is part of the Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" Challenge. Field p8

Alain de Royer-Dupre has developed an expertise second to none in nurturing The Aga Khan's less-precocious talents down the years, and Shareta was just the latest in a long line of projects at the start of last season. Tried in the G1 Prix de Diane last June, the homebred bay managed a respectable seventh, beaten just over four lengths in that Chantilly Classic before taking the Listed Prix de Thiberville over 12 furlongs at Longchamp the following month and then the G3 Prix Minerve over a half-panel further at Deauville in August. Having proved so effective from the front in those two starts, she was unable to hold on in the G1 Prix Vermeille back at the Bois de Boulogne and was third there in September before outdoing her stable companion Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}) and finishing runner-up in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe over the same track and trip. She was unable to get to the front when seventh in the G1 Japan Cup at Kyoto in November, and positive tactics failed to work on her return when third under a penalty and over an inadequate 10-furlong trip in the G3 Prix Allez France at Chantilly Apr. 30.

Settled behind in the G2 Prix Corrida over an extra 100 meters at Saint-Cloud May 28, her finishing effort came too late as she was nosed out of the win by Solemia (Ire) (Poliglote {GB}) there. Back to front-running in the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, she was outrun late on by Meandre (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}), but still managed to beat the two other fillies in the line-up Galikova (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}) and Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}).

After setting steady fractions for the first half of this contest, she was passed by Seamie Heffernan, who was intent on ensuring a stiffer stamina test on Epsom Oaks heroine Was rounding for the home straight.

As the field crossed over to the stand's rail, it quickly boiled down to a three-horse contest with Was holding on grimly as The Fugue closed in out wide and Shareta wound up into high gear on the fence.

The Fugue looked as if she would shade it inside the final eighth, but Shareta was able to stay on past the favorite in the final yards and was firmly on top at the line.

"In the Arc last year, the ground was very firm and we had a lot of pace in the race, which is what we needed for our filly, and as Danedream won the King George the other day, it was top-level form," Alain de Royer-Dupre explained. "I always felt she had the ability to be up there with the best of the fillies, but we have to see about the colts. If the ground is too soft at the end of the season, it will be not be the best for her. Christophe [Lemaire] let her go to the front, and she won because she stays. It is possible that she will go for the G1 Prix Vermeille [at Longchamp Sept. 16] and the Arc if the ground is right. She's not a filly for America, as her action is too long and the track at Santa Anita is too short."

The Fugue's trainer John Gosden was philosophical in defeat.

"She ran a great race and there are no excuses," he offered. "She prefers quicker ground and so will be aimed at the Breeders' Cup, as she'll get it there."

Rosdhu Queen has been asked some serious questions in a short space of time so far in her career, but has answered every call admirably and continued her momentum by securing this prestigious affair for her Yorkshire-born owner and trainer Steve Parkin and William Haggas, respectively. Sharp when off the mark over five furlongs at Ripon July 21, the bay demonstrated the same professionalism when following up in Newbury's Listed St Hugh's S. over slightly further and was reappearing here just six days after that effort. In front from the outset, she was traveling strongly on the front end as the even-money favorite Newfangled (New Approach {Ire}) was eased before the first quarter mile had been run. As Richard Hughes began to squeeze inside the final quarter, the leader began to veer right, but kept finding late to ward off Baileys Jubilee.

"Plan A was to drop her in, as she was always doing a bit too much at Newbury," Hughes said. "She hit the gate really fast and I wasn't going to interfere with her after that as she was on a nice, even keel. She wasn't keen and I got a soft lead. Initially when I went for her, she looked about, but as soon as I gave her a smack, she galloped all the way. At the furlong pole, I didn't think I'd get home, but at the winning post I thought I could have gone another 100 yards. I was impressed, because she did it the hard way and did it well. She is a very quick filly."

Trainer William Haggas added, "We weren't planning to lead, but he let her bowl along and he did right not to pull her along. I didn't see her as a Guineas filly this morning, but I'll have to look at it."

"She's in the G1 Cheveley Park S. [at Newmarket Sept. 29] and I've put her in the [Oct. 7] G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp also," Haggas continued. "She'll probably run in the G2 Flying Childers S. [at Doncaster Sept. 14] next with a penalty, which will negate her sex allowance, but there is no point going backwards. Lots of Invincible Spirits train on extremely well, but I don't think we'll be waiting for next year with her."

Newfangled, who lost her action in the early stages, was later taken for a scan for a suspected pelvic fracture.

Lady Wingshot, whose finest hour at two came when runner-up in the Listed Flame of Tara S. over a mile at The Curragh in mid-September, was fifth after meeting traffic on her seasonal bow in the Listed Sweet Mimosa S. over six furlong at Naas July 25. She looked to be a shade fortunate to get the better of Yellow Rosebud in the Listed Corrib Fillies S. over seven furlongs at Galway last time Aug. 2, but confirmed that form here to show she is still on the upgrade. Hung out wide early without any cover racing towards mid-division, the bay seized the lead approaching the furlong pole and asserted from there. "I'd say she's improved again from Galway, as she did from Naas," said jockey Kevin Manning. "I was on fresh ground on the outer and she took me into the race very easily. She has a nice turn of foot and put it to bed in a few strides."

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

'Descent' Should Rise to the Occasion

The Florida-bred Turbulent Descent compiled an enviable record last year, winning the GI Santa Anita Oaks and the GI Test S., as well as the GII Beaumont S. She started as the favorite in the Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint, but endured a bad start and a wide trip to finish fifth. "She's gotten to this point in very good order," Pletcher said. "She's very intelligent, and she's got a good disposition. Basically, she's everything she was advertised to be. When I went to California to look at her, [Turbulent Descent's former trainer] Mike Puype was very, very kind and generous, and shared all kinds of information about her. While I kind of knew what to expect, it's always nice to have some extra time to get to know her and get a feel for her early on. She's made the transition very smooth for us." The winner that day was Musical Romance (Concorde's Tune), who was given a good scare in the GI Princess Rooney S. July 7 by Nicole H (Mr. Greeley). She is 4-1 on the morning line for the Ballerina. Nicole H finished just a half-length behind in second on that Calder occasion, and she has been knocking on the door in graded stakes all year. The 5-year-old GEM Inc. owned mare competed for the David Fawkes barn in the Princess Rooney, and returns to the care of Mike Hushion for this race. Marcia Cohen and Steve Klesaris's Derwin's Star (Wildcat Heir) failed to see out the 1 1/16-mile trip of the GII Molly Pitcher S. at Monmouth Park last out July 29, but she returns to a trip she relishes here, as evidenced by her win in the GIII Bed O' Roses H. at Belmont July 1, when she earned a 99 Beyer.

Coolmore Nunthorpe Stakes
WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

WAITING ON THE WEATHER

Unlike the owner's golden boy Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), the fortunes have not been kind to Bated Breath (GB) (Dansili {GB}), and yesterday's heavy rainfall at York was not welcome in the Roger Charlton camp ahead of today's G1 Coolmore Nunthorpe S. Still to win that elusive top-level contest, the 5-year-old certainly has the ability to do so, as he showed when cracking Haydock's track record in the May 26 G2 Temple S. Withdrawn from the G1 July Cup due to the testing ground, after recording an admirable but frustrating fourth runner-up placing in Group 1 company in Royal Ascot's King's Stand S. June 19, the Juddmonte speedster will need the drying weather to return. Khalid Abdullah's racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe told the Racing Post, "It's not ideal, but what can we do. The plan is still to run, I suppose if it got really bad then we'd think about it, but we'll wait and see and look at it tomorrow."

That also applies to Ortensia (Aus) (Testa Rossa {Aus}), who showed the class her native Australian audiences are accustomed to when winning the Mar. 31 G1 Al Quoz Sprint at Meydan and Goodwood's G2 King George S. Aug. 3. Trainer Paul Messara tweeted, "No good news for horses wanting dry ground tomorrow. Far softer than I expected. Would be rated as heavy in Australia. So frustrating."

Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}), who upset Starstangledbanner (Aus) (Choisir {Aus}) in this race when 100-1 two years ago, also needs it to ride quick and has a neck margin to turn around with Bated Breath in the Temple. A length behind that rival when third on ground, which was undoubtedly too soft in the King's Stand, he has missed all outings subsequently as the British summer has wrought havoc.

As for the 3-year-olds, Pearl Bloodstock's unbeaten Pearl Secret (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) remains in the unexposed and exciting category, and showed he can handle dig in the surface when taking a five-furlong handicap when it was officially described as heavy on only his second start Apr. 27. Also successful over this track and trip May 17, the chestnut registered a snug neck success in the Listed Scurry S. at Sandown June 16. "He was plagued with sore shins, but since we started to do some serious work with him at the back-end of last year, we thought he could run a bit," said trainer David Barron. "He's always shown an awful lot at home, and on his last run at Sandown I thought it was a good performance. He used to be a little bit too exuberant and keen for his own good, and it's taken a long while to settle down--we worked him all winter just to keep a lid on him. He's in tremendous form and everything has been fine with him. Probably one day he's going to get beaten, and the biggest thing against him at York is he's the inexperienced one, the boy who is taking on the men, and he will get no quarter there. He is definitely the quickest horse I've ever trained."

IS THERE ‘MOR’ TO COME?

Sheikh Ahmed bin Rashid Al Maktoum’s Morawij (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) was just run out of the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood last time July 31, but he has an extra furlong to put matters right in today’s G2 Irish Thoroughbred Marketing Gimcrack S. at York. Previously, the Roger Charlton trainee had looked a smart sprinter in the making when scoring by 2 1/4 lengths in Sandown’s Listed National S. over five July 6, and his conditioner is keeping the faith. “Morawij has been in great form at home since Goodwood and I am looking forward to running him over a flat six furlongs,” said Charlton. “The race should suit and he should run very well.” Defying a penalty in these juvenile contests is a tough call, but when it comes to toughness Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum’s Heavy Metal (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) is in advance of many of his contemporaries. Unplaced in both the June 19 G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot and July 12 G2 July S. at Newmarket, he rebounded to win the G2 Richmond S. over this trip at Goodwood last time Aug. 2, where Cay Verde (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) was 2 1/2 lengths behind in third. The most inexperienced runner is Matt and Lauren Morgan’s Blaine (GB) (Avonbridge {GB}), who impressed with his attitude when making all to win a course-and-distance maiden on debut July 14.

Breeders' Cup: Will Belmont Ever Host Again?

"In mid-August 2011, at the height of the racing season at Saratoga, Breeders' Cup announced that it had selected Santa Anita Park in Southern California to host its two-day championship event in 2012. Executives of the New York Racing Association winced at the official confirmation that their downstate track, Belmont Park, had been passed over yet again."

Matt Hegarty, Daily Racing Form

N.Y. Horse Racing a Good Bet

"The reflexive analysis that VLTs aren't helping racing because attendance and live handle aren't increasing misses the point and ignores the big picture gains in both the equine and agricultural industries across New York."

Joe Faraldo, Albany Times Union

Thistledown's New Racino to Open in Spring, but Experts Say It's Not Salvation of Horse Racing

"Thistledown Racetrack, the elderly grand dame of Ohio thoroughbred racing, is getting an $88 million face lift that includes a racino and 1,150 VLTs, or slots, that should be ready for gamblers next spring. Veteran Thistledown horsemen say racinos won't necessarily be the salvation of horse racing in Ohio, but they're a good start."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Frankel Secures Historic Rating

Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) has become the first horse to achieve a rating of 140 pounds on two occasions, it was announced yesterday. Following his seven-length victory in Wednesday's G1 Juddmonte International at York, the unbeaten star of the Sir Henry Cecil stable still sits a pound below former Juddmonte great Dancing Brave. "To achieve 140 twice in his career is a ground-breaking performance by the world's best racehorse and he could yet go on to match or even top Dancing Brave's 141, perhaps on Qipco British Champions Day," the British Horseracing Authority's Head of Handicapping Phil Smith commented. "I took into account the ease with which he went seven lengths clear yesterday to equate that to a 9 1/4-length victory, which at 1 3/4lb-per-length puts him 16 lbs clear of the prair who fought out second place."

Mark Cranham/Racing Post

Capo Bastone to Del Mar Futurity

Garrett Gomez aboard, the $175,000 OBSMAR graduate still had plenty to do in the stretch, but finished up full of run when guided off heels late to deliver a well-timed neck decision while under wraps. Capo Bastone has returned to the worktab with a pair of moves at Del Mar, including a five-furlong breeze in 1:00 2/5 Aug. 22. John Velazquez will make the trip to California to ride Capo Bastone in the Futurity. "The Futurity is a very important and prestigious race," Eclipse President Aron Wellman commented. "After huddling up with [trainer] John Sadler, we both agreed that if we could get John [Velazquez] out here to ride Capo Bastone, it would be a no-brainer. With the Saratoga meeting closing a few days prior to the Futurity and Belmont not opening until after, the timing worked out ideally. We are appreciative of John and his agent, Angel Cordero Jr.'s efforts to make this happen."

Brian DiDonato Steve Sherack

CLICK FOR DETAILS

We have given our two TDN crack handicappers, Brian DiDonato and Steve Sherack, a mythical $1000 bankroll and told them they can bet no more than 5% of that on any given day at Saratoga on a straight win bet. The winner, at the end of the meet, gets $100 in a TVG betting account, along with bragging rights until next July.

DiDonato: Thursday - Kamchatka was bet down to an underlaid 7-2 and got bounced around a bit in the lane before settling for fourth. To top it all off, Sherack found another winner in Central Banker. My only hope at this point may be if Bernanke announces QE3 for my bankroll.

Friday - Race 9 - GI Ballerina S. - #2 All Due Respect (20-1)

Ready for the craziest DRF Formulator stat you've ever seen? Over the last five years, trainer Todd Pletcher is two-for-31 with a $0.19 ROI with new acquisitions in graded stakes. That's enough for me to play against heavy favorite Turbulent Descent, who I've always thought was a bit dressed up (going to assume It's Tricky will scratch as expected). Unlike the GII Honorable Miss H. that featured one of the hottest paces you'll see here three weeks ago, there's very little speed in the Ballerina. Turnback All Due Respect figures to be on the lead, and while her 2012 form isn't really up to par with these, she has races further back that fit well. Conditioner Rick Dutrow scores at a 31% clip with a $2.53 ROI turning back and going turf to dirt, and All Due Respect could add to those solid numbers if she gets clear here. Play: $30 Win. Alternate 1: Race 2 - $15 Win on #8 Pure Treasure.

DiDonato Bankroll: $720 - Record: 27-2-4-4

Sherack: Thursday - Nice tally by Central Banker ($7.80) to get us back in the win column and open up some more daylight on DiDonato as we hit the homestretch...My Asmussen firster came running late at 12-1 in that one too, coming within a neck of completing the exacta. Time to start rolling again.

Friday - Race 7 - Clm 20000N2L, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16mT - #3 Frivolous Alex (6-1)

Frivolous Alex looks like the right one here at a very generous morning-line quote of 6-1. She'll certainly appreciate this drop to $20k non-winners of two lifetime after graduating in wire-to-wire fashion in a $40k tagger at Monmouth July 15 and finishing a respectable fifth after leading in the stretch in a $35k beaten claiming event over this course Aug. 2. The bay has some decent early foot, gets a great speed rider in Joel Rosario, and hails from the very dangerous George Weaver barn, which has been rolling throughout the entire meeting. Play: $25 Win (Turf Only). Alternate 1: Race 3 - $14 Win on #3 Perfect Trippi.

Sherack Bankroll: $1,196.80 - Record: 30-7-4-4

Lunar Victory managed just a maiden victory and a handful of minor placings in seven British starts for John Gosden, but has been nothing short of sensational since being repatriated last winter. Runner-up in his U.S. bow in the Aqueduct slop Dec. 7, the scopey bay took state-bred allowance tests Dec. 28 and Feb. 4 before besting open company Mar. 3. Given 4 1/2 months off, he resumed in the July 23 Evan Shipman S. over this track and trip and was a convincing 2 1/2-length winner. Settled back in third as Joan's Choice (Alphabet Soup) set a suicidal pace up front, Lunar Victory began to take closer order rounding the final turn. Golden Gulch had the first crack at the tiring pacesetter and led into the stretch, but the Juddmonte runner, a bit wide off the turn, charged down the middle of the track and on to a comprehensive success.

8th-SAR, $87,000, Alw, NW1X, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:34, fm.

PIANIST (f, 3, More Than Ready--Red Piano, by Red Ransom) nearly overcame the 10 hole before missing by a nose in a single 2-year-old appearance over this turf course last Sept. 4, but went missing for nearly 10 months thereafter. She showed little rust in her July 1 return to action downstate, streaking away to graduate by 5 1/2 lengths, but couldn't repeat the dose in a first-level allowance over a course listed as 'good' July 28, finishing an excuse-free third. While those two last performances came at odds-on, she offered a touch more value here at 13-10 and rewarded the chalk players. In touch while tracking the pace of Kitty Wine (Lemon Drop Kid) from three wide, she required a few strides in the lane to really pick up, but charged past the front-runner and ran out a three-length winner. Antonia Autumn (Bernstein), a half-sister to multiple champion Gio Ponti (Tale of the Cat), stayed on late into second. Sales history: $100,000 yrl '10 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-1, $116,100. chance in an Aug. 3 maiden over 5 1/2 furlongs of this main track and turned in a good performance to finish a distant third to the heavily favored and runaway winner Jocosity (Sharp Humor). Switching to the infield for this one, the 2.90-1 second favorite was eased back off a speed duel between 2.75-1 choice Hightail (Mineshaft) and Redwood Kitten (Kitten's Joy). The latter was getting out noticeably entering the stretch, allowing Hightail to lead on the fence passing the eighth pole, but Central Banker responded nicely to a left-handed whip from Rosie Napravnik, split rivals and was along for a head victory over a stubborn Hightail. The winner, a $200,000 KEESEP yearling acquisition, is a half-brother to Gantry (Pulpit), GSW, $568,245. His dam was an accomplished New York-bred on the grass, with a pair of stakes wins to her credit. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $56,000. SACRISTY (f, 3, Pulpit--Christies Treasure {SP}, by Belong To Me) proved easily best in this very salty allowance, which featured no fewer than four black-type winners and a pair of graded winners. One of those was Sacristy, victorious in the GIII Old Hat S. at Gulfstream this past winter followed by a distant third to Broadway's Alibi (Vindication) in the GII Forward Gal S. Second as the favorite in the GII Beaumont S. at Keeneland Apr. 15, she was less effective at a route of ground, finishing seventh in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 4 and last of six in the GI Acorn S. May 28. Sent off the 2-1 chalk to get back to winning ways here, the dark bay was reserved towards the rear of the pack early on and had just a few behind at the quarter pole. Switched out soon after, she took a few strides to swap her leads, but closed with a rush through the final furlong to take it in hand by a length. OBSERVATIONS on today's European racing scene

1.50 Newmarket, Mdn, £7,000, 2yo, f, 7fT

QAWAAFY (Street Cry {Ire}) is a significant runner today for Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Shadwell operation, as she is the latest progeny of the 2005 Epsom Oaks heroine Eswarah (GB) (Unfuwain), herself a daughter of the 1986 winner of that classic, Midway Lady (Alleged). Trainer Roger Varian has charge of the homebred, as he does her half-sister Firdaws (Mr. Greeley), who was third in last year's G1 Fillies' Mile behind Lyric of Light (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}), who won this maiden 12 months ago. Also in the line-up is Flawless Beauty (GB) (Excellent Art {GB}), Decadent Racing's half-sister to last year's G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Wrote (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}). Trained by Hugo Palmer, she was runner-up on debut at Ascot last month and has an experience edge over Bronte Sisters's newcomer Azelle (GB) (Starcraft {NZ}), a Richard Hannon-trained daughter of the 1998 G1 Ellerslie Sires Produce S. winner Zola (NZ) (Volksraad {GB}).

2.20 Deauville, Debutantes, €24,000, 2yo, f, 7 1/2fT

LA PEDRERA (IRE) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) starts out for owner Chantal Sanglier and trainer Freddy Head and is a half-sister to the 2008 G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Naaqos (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). That former Shadwell star is now standing at Haras du Mezeray, while this filly's half-sister Barastraight (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) was successful in the G3 Prix la Force in 2006 and is resident at Haras des Daslonnets.

Lightly raced and completely unexposed prior to this engagement, Pale Mimosa made it two-for-two for the Dermot Weld stable at this year's Ebor meeting, following the exploits of the handicapper Olympiad (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) on Wednesday. Fourth on debut over an extended mile at Cork in October, the bay staged a belated comeback when extending her trainer's remarkable win tally at the Galway festival by 15 lengths in a 12-furlong maiden run on almost unraceable ground last time Aug. 3. Settled in third initially by Pat Smullen here, she was sent to the front passing the three-furlong pole and drew on her considerable stamina reserves to assert from The Queen's Sequence. "She was on and off the bridle there and showed her inexperience, but she had a nice genuine pace to help," her rider commented. "She is a staying filly that wants to be up to a mile and six and, when the penny dropped in the last furlong and a half she got to the line very well. The ground has also got a bit shifty on top and that was probably a factor as well as her inexperience. When she does get good ground, you'll see even more improvement from her and she might be better at a longer trip. Today's race will do a lot for her, education-wise, and hopefully it's onwards and upwards now." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Away sharply to race in a prominent second from the outset of this first go while stepped up to six furlongs, he was shaken up to take a slender advantage with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and battled on gamely under a drive from there to secure this valuable pot. "It is great for the stable to be winning races like this, it's a better win than your average one, and he's been great for me," claimed winning rider Phillip Makin. "I was looking for a lead really, but he was so enthusiastic and settled great on the front end. Even at [Royal] Ascot he was crying out for the extra furlong, but he knuckled down and got the trip really well."
