

‘ROMANCE, ‘PRETTY TO SELL IN NOVEMBER

Champion Musical Romance (5, Concorde's Tune--Candlelightdinner, by Slew Gin Fizz) and multiple Grade I winner Plum Pretty (4, Medaglia d'Oro--Liszy, by A.P. Indy) will be offered at public auction this fall. Musical Romance, who earned an Eclipse Award following a 2011 campaign capped by victory in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint, will be consigned by Three Chimneys on behalf of Pinnacle Racing Stable and Bill Kaplan at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Peachtree Stable's Plum Pretty, heroine of the 2011 GI Kentucky Oaks and this year's GI Apple Blossom H., will be part of the Taylor

Made draft at Keeneland November.

Musical Romance, winner of 11 of 38 career starts, most recently captured the GI Princess Rooney H. at Calder July 7. She is expected to defend her Breeders' Cup crown at Santa Anita Nov. 2.

"Breeders' Cup winners are an elite group to begin with," said Three Chimneys President Case Clay. "Add to that the fact that Musical Romance is a multiple Grade I winner and has done it on all surfaces, and she becomes part of a truly special group."

Plum Pretty has bankrolled over $1.6 million to date. In addition to her top-level successes, the bay was victorious in the GII Cotillion S. and Sunland Park Oaks.

"Plum Pretty is a multiple Grade I-winning Kentucky Oaks winner that comes from one of the best families in the stud book," said Duncan Taylor, president of Taylor Made Sales. "She has the potential to become a breed-shaping mare and we appreciate the opportunity to sell her this November."

ALL INDICATORS IMPROVE AT KEESEP

Book four closed at the Keeneland September yearling sale on Tuesday with all indicators of market health moving in a positive direction. Tuesday's session was topped by hip 2324, a $260,000 son of Even the Score purchased by Stonestreet Stables from the Penn Sales draft.

With 302 horses sold--the exact same number that sold at the corresponding session last year--total sales improved 21.6% to $11,648,500. Average price improved at the same rate to $38,571, while the median rose 20% to $30,000.

Tuesday's buyback rate was 16.8%, compared with 21.4% last year.

"Looking at book four as a group of horses, all the figures are positive for these two days," said Keeneland's Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "The not-sold rate is down, but the average and median are going up. That's a very positive sign. I don't know if we're on an upswing, but we're on a solid base."

"We had a lot of buyers here today, and a lot of horses sold well above the reserves," Robertson said. "That means the underbidders still need horses. Hopefully we'll have a good day tomorrow." Cont. p5

Even Better

Millennium Farms' stallion Even the Score (Unbridled's Song), sire of this year's GI Pacific Classic hero Dullahan and recent GIII Summer S. winner I'm Boundtoscore, provided Tuesday's session topper at Keeneland September when Stonestreet secured his hip 2324 for $260,000.

ALPHA, QUESTING MAKE PARX STARTS FOR MCLAUGHLIN

Conditioner Kieran McLaughlin will send out two of his stable stars this weekend in a pair of million-dollar races at Parx with Alpha (Bernardini) entered in the GII Pennsylvania Derby and Questing (GB) (Hard Spun) in the GI Cotillion S. "All of our successes for both horses have been in New York," said McLaughlin. "But we're happy to travel to Parx and hope that we perform well there."

The Pennsylvania Derby will be a rematch for Alpha with Golden Ticket (Speightstown), who dead-heated in the GI Travers S. at Saratoga Aug. 25.

Alpha (blue cap) & Golden Ticket (orange) hit the wire together in the Travers Adam Coglianese

"It will be fun to see us run against them again and see how it goes," McLaughlin said. "I think that Golden Ticket ran very well last time and had a great trip. He's improving and that was his first start since May, so I feel like he's one of the main horses as far as for us to meet. I also think Macho Macho (Macho Uno), coming off of the [GII] West Virginia Derby, are probably the two main opponents."

Although Questing will face a small field, with only three other horses entered, she will go up against another speed-favoring opponent in undefeated champion My Miss Aurelia (Smart Strike). "Being that we're [post] two and the other speed, My Miss Aurelia, is [post] three, we will probably go into the first turn on the lead and just see what happens and what Corey Nakatani [aboard My Miss Aurelia] decides to do," McLaughlin offered. "Hopefully, we're in front and he's a length or two behind, not pushing us along too fast, but we've proved we can go fast and keep going. It's going to be interesting race to see how it unfolds. My Miss Aurelia shows pace going longer, so we have to respect her and we're giving her seven pounds." Cont. p4

"It's going to be interesting the first half of the race and, hopefully, we're in front and not going too fast," McLaughlin added.

Another challenge the Godolphin colorbearer will face is turning back to the 1 1/16-mile distance, having most recently raced in the 1 1/4-mile GI Alabama S. at Saratoga Aug. 18 and the 1 1/8-mile GI Coaching Club American Oaks there July 21. "I'm a little concerned," admitted McLaughlin of the turnback in distance. "We probably would have preferred a mile and an eighth, or even further, but it shouldn't be a big deal."

In her last two contests, Questing has ducked in during her stretch run, a problem McLaughlin hopes to fix in this outing. "She ducked from the stick and I kind of thought it was because in England they're not allowed to raise the stick above their shoulder," he explained. "They have to keep it down always and when he raised it, she ducked. In the Coaching Club Oaks she went out pretty bad left-handed and in the Alabama she ducked in, then out, then back and fourth. I will ask Irad not to lift the stick at all until he needs it and then go ahead and do what he has to do, but I'd prefer if he's in front by three or four again to not hit her."

Since Questing's last outing in the Alabama S. Aug. 18 and Alpha's start in the Travers Aug. 25, both have been training clockwise at the Greentree track in Saratoga. "Most of our injuries come from the left-front, right-hind from going left-handed all the time," explained the conditioner. "We went ahead and said, 'Let's go right-handed with some of these horses that show anything left-front/right-hind and just do it to freshen them up and change things. It looks different, but they do it very well. It comes natural to the horse and they just switch over to their right lead and go into the turn. We haven't had any issue whatsoever, and all the horses have gotten happier and better being able to change it up a little bit."

'Romance' Ready for Return

Musical Romance (Concorde's Tune) is scheduled to make her first start since winning Calder's GI Princess Rooney H. July 7 in Saturday's GI Gallant Bloom H. at Belmont, which is a "Win and You're In" race for the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint. The 2011 champion female sprinter vanned from Calder to New York earlier in the week. "Her area filled up with straw to her knees was bigger than her stall back at the barn," said trainer and co-owner Bill Kaplan. "It was a fantastic trip for her." Musical Romance worked three panels Tuesday morning over the wet Belmont track in :35.89 with dogs up. "The work was good," Kaplan stated. "She worked really nicely, really easy. What I did was just work her down the stretch--the quarter pole starts into the stretch and she can get three-eighths of a mile without making a turn. It was a very smooth work, she was very well within herself."

Kaplan's confidence in jockey Juan Leyva has eased his worries about Musical Romance's first trip over the Belmont oval. "Juan's a remarkable rider and has a thing going with this mare that's hard to explain," said the conditioner. "He has a way to know exactly what she can do and she does whatever he tells her to do. She'll try and run through the eye of a needle if he points her that way. I'm not concerned at all about the trip because Juan will make the right moves."

Kaplan, a Brooklyn native, views the start in New York as a positive. "I've got a lot of friends and family there. A lot of our partners in Pinnacle [Racing Stables] are from the New York area, so it's kind of a homecoming. We're not going to a visitors stadium. The way I look at it we're going to a home field advantage."

'Purr' for Paris?

Keeneland September Yearling Sale

Sept. 10-21

Strength in Numbers cont. from p1

Through eight sessions, 1,843 horses have sold for $205,811,000, an average of $111,672, and a median of $70,000. Average is up 3.7%, and the median is 16.7% higher than last year. The cumulative buyback rate is 22.4%.

"By the time the sale is over, the gross is not going to go up, because it's a smaller sale. But the feel of the sale is much better than last year," Russell said. "When you essentially take three of the top buyers from last year out--Ferguson, Besilu and Adena--you would have thought it would have a huge effect, but it hasn't. So in that regard, this market is stronger. New people have fallen into those positions, and that's good. The word for this whole sale is 'competitive.'"

Stonestreet Secures Even the Score Colt

Bloodstock agent John Moynihan, representing Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Stables, bought the $260,000 session-topping colt by Even the Score at the Keeneland September sale on Tuesday.

Catalogued as hip 2342, the gray colt is out of Runaway Grey (Runaway Groom), a winning full-sister to multiple stakes winner November Sunset.

"I looked at a lot of horses yesterday, and he was one of the best horses I've seen here, period," Moynihan said. "Even the Score has shown he can get a good one with Dullahan and Take the Points. He gets a good horse on the grass, and he also can get a pretty good horse on the dirt. This horse looks like he'll run far, he looks like he'll be fast, and he looks really sound."

Mike Moreno was the underbidder. The colt was bred by John R. Penn and consigned by Penn Sales.

"I know the Penns (brothers Frank and John). They raise a really good horse," Moynihan said. "They raise them to be racehorses. They don't baby them. Knowing how this horse was raised had a lot to do with us being on him."

"We're in the business of raising racehorses, and we do a better job of raising them than selling them," said Frank Penn, who owns PennBrook Farm in Lexington. "Our hope is to raise athletes, because when you do that, the rest of it takes care of itself."

The Penns keep their horses outside, except for four hours a day to eat. They believe a stall is a healthy horse's worst enemy.

"Would you raise a football player in the library?" John Penn asked. "Our horses run and they fight and they compete. You fix the damage, hope it isn't too bad, and go on with it."

"A horse that is running and competing in the field is building bone density, muscle strength, and connective tissue strength," John Penn said. "It's beneficial, as long you're able to go out in the field and see who did what to who last night and fix some damage, because they do beat each other up."

John Penn bought the session topper's second dam Whitebread (Gran Xar {Mex}) for $9,200 at the 1987 Keeneland January sale. She produced stakes winners Donut Queen (Badger Land) and November Sunset (Runaway Groom). When Runaway Grey was born, he decided to keep her.

"She was a beautiful foal. She was gorgeous, much prettier than Whitebread was, and very correct," John Penn said. "I didn't want to sell her, so I didn't. We raced her, and got ruled off in Kentucky with her. She dropped a jockey at Churchill, and they wouldn't let me race at Churchill or Kentucky with her."

Runaway Grey's foal of 2009 was Grade III-placed winner Mystic Mama (Scat Daddy). John Penn said the Even the Score colt was tall and lanky as a foal, with an even temper.

The Penn brothers said they were lucky that Dullahan (Even the Score) came along, winning Grade I races at age two and three, including a track record win in the GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar last month.

"If we sold this horse up here last year before Dullahan, he might have sold for $18,000," Frank said. "It's just a matter of timing and luck."

In addition to the roughly 400 acres Frank owns in Lexington, John Penn has an 800-acre farm in Bourbon County. They say their land is their operation's greatest asset.

"This has worked for us for a long time. We're just farmers who love horses, and we are very fortunate to have quite a bit of land," Frank said. "We've been growing our own hay and our own bedding. We're a throwback to the way it was in the '50s and '60s. Grass is important to us. Soil tests are important to us. We believe that 80-90% of what a horse eats is off the ground."

Current graded stakes horses raised on the Penn's land include GI Whitney H. winner Fort Larned (E Dubai) and undefeated GI Spinaway S. winner So Many Ways (Sightseeing), whom they also bred. The Penns also raised Grade I winner Cloudy's Knight (Lord Avie), who raced until he was nine and earned $2,547,835.

The Penns set very realistic reserves. The Even the Score colt's reserve was $29,900.

Their method of raising horses carries risk. They had a half-brother to recent GI Super Derby winner Bourbon Courage (Lion Heart), by Majestic Warrior entered in this sale. The colt broke a hind leg in the field and was euthanized.

"The horses we raise learn to compete by playing with each other," Frank Penn said. "Let them be animals. That's what they are. They have a propensity to compete with each other. Would we be different if we were raising Tapits and (progeny of other high-priced stallions)? I hope not."

"That half to Bourbon Courage, he's in the catalog. That was a very tough day," Frank Penn said. "That's the negative side to having them outside. That happens." -Pete Denk

Lot 47 Immortal Verse

(Rating 121 / 1600m)

f.08 Pivotal x Side Of Paradise

Trained by Robert Collet, IMMORTAL VERSE gave more than a glimpse of her talent at two. A winner first time out at Deauville, she then finished second in the Prix d'Aumale (Gr.3) before really coming into her own over a mile the following year. She took the Prix de Sandringham (Gr.2) at Chantilly before pocketing two of Europe's most prestigious Group 1s over a mile, namely the Coronation Stakes at Ascot and the Prix Jacques Le Marois. In the latter, she triumphed with great authority over champions Goldikova and Sahpresa, winners of 16 Group 1 races between them. A daughter of Pivotal who is really starting to make waves as a broodmare sire (Mayson, Main Sequence, Fire Lily), Immortal Verse is out of Side of Paradise (Sadler's Wells) whose sisters produced the excellent Valentine Waltz, Sense Of Style, Zipping, Zelding, Tie Black. A pedigree to match her exceptional race record...

IMMORTAL VERSE, Prix J. le Marois Gr.1

Lot 12 Amiens

(Rating 104 / 3000m)

c.09 Galileo x Dordogne

AMIENS is the first foal out of a sister to Champion race mare and Breeders' Cup Distaff (Gr.1) winner Spain. Trained by André Fabre, AMIENS is a 3yo full of potential, having run just the three times. An authoritative winner on his second start at Clairefontaine, he then tried his luck at Group level in the Prix de Lutèce (Gr.3) over 3000 m at Longchamp. Running a great race against more hardened rivals, he finished fourth less than two lengths behind the winner, having looked for a long time like he might get third place. He undoubtedly has the potential to become a top class stayer next year.

AMIENS, Prix de la Villa Strassburger

Lot 23 Leupartie

(Rating 109 / 2000 - 2100m)

f.09 Stormy River x Kansa

By promising first season sire Stormy River and from a lovely Lagardère family, LEUPARTIE ran for the first time at three: deemed good enough to run in the Prix de Diane, she ran brilliantly in spite of her inexperience, finishing sixth. Stepping up a grade, she then took the Prix de Psyché (Gr.3) ahead of Romantica and then finished second over the same distance (2000m) at Deauville in the Prix de la Nonette (Gr.2). A very attractive, lightly raced filly with a faultless race record, she has only had five runs and is an exciting racing prospect as well as broodmare prospect.

LEUPARTIE, Prix de Psyché Gr.3

Lot 36 Forces Of Darkness

(Rating 109 / 2400m et plus)

f.09 Lawman x Miss Childrey

Trained by Fabrice Vermeulen, FORCES OF DARKNESS won a B race at two before successfully making the transition to Group level this year. A very close third in the Prix Saint-Alary (Gr.1) at Longchamp, just two short necks away from the winner Sagawara, she then finished fourth in the Prix de Diane behind Valyra and Beauty Parlour. She bagged her first Group race in the Prix Minerve (Gr.3) over 2500 metres at Deauville. A tough and very consistent filly, this daughter of Lawman has all the qualities necessary to keep making her mark at Group level over middle distances and is a very interesting broodmare prospect.

FORCES OF DARKNESS, Prix Minerve Gr.3

Lot 46 Moonwalk in Paris

(Rating 113 / 1600m)

g. 08 Oratorio x Shinning Glory

Jean-Claude Rouget's charge has proved extremely consistent at Group level over a mile this season. A winner on his seasonal debut in the Prix Edmond Blanc (Gr.3) ahead of the talented Evaporation and No Risk At All, he finished second in the Prix du Chemin de Fer du Nord (Gr.3), not beaten far by Vagabond Shoes, then third in the Prix Messidor (Gr.3) on the Maisons-Laffitte straight course. This son of Oratorio was second most recently in the Prix Quincey (Gr.3), just a short head away from Fractional. Very lightly raced for a 4yo, Moonwalk In Paris has only had 11 starts (4 wins and six places) to date.

MOONWALK IN PARIS, Prix E. Blanc Gr.3

Lot 6 Cay Verde

(Rating 104 / 1000 - 1200m)

c.10 Bahamian Bounty x All Quiet

Trained by Mick Channon, the 2yo colt has been consistently making his presence felt in Group company this year. This son of Bahamian Bounty finished third in the Gr.2 Richmond Stakes and Gimcrack Stakes, both run over six furlongs at Goodwood and York respectively. Further proof of his class came even more recently when winning the Prix d'Arenberg (Gr.3, Chantilly) by over four lengths from Baileys Jubilee.

CAY VERDE, Prix d'Arenberg Gr.3

Butzow Buys Parading Colt for $160,000

Barry Butzow has had good luck buying yearlings from Beau Lane Bloodstock, and those past experiences gave him the confidence to go to $160,000 for a colt by Parading at the eighth session of Keeneland September yearling sale.

It was the second highest price of the day. "We've bought five horses from Beau Lane Bloodstock, and all of them won, and one went to the Breeders' Cup," said Butzow, from Eden Prairie, Minnesota.

Butzow bought Grade III winner Hamazing Destiny (Salt Lake) from Beau Lane, agent, for $70,000 at the 2007 Keeneland September yearling sale. A five-time winner and earner of $845,375, Hamazing Destiny finished second in the GI Sentient Jet Breeders' Cup Sprint in 2010 at Churchill Downs. He remains in training, having finished second in the GI Forego S. Sept 1.

Beau Lane consigned the son of Grade II winner Parading (Pulpit) on behalf of his daughter J.B. Orem and her husband Michael, who bred the bay colt in Kentucky. Catalogued as hip 2565, he is out of Glow Ruby Go (Rubiano) and is a half-brother to Canadian Grade II winner Riding the River (Wiseman's Ferry).

"He's always been a very aggressive, forward moving colt," Lane said. "He's fearless. Really, everything out of that mare has been fearless. They have huge hearts, and they try."

Parading's first foals are yearlings of 2012. "Parading stands at Claiborne, and he's a very nice horse who could run on anything," Lane said. "We liked him a lot, and it was a very good match with the mare, and the colt came out right. My daughter and her husband are very happy. That's more money than they knew was in this whole world." -Pete Denk

DEPUTED TESTAMONY DIES

The oldest living winner of a Triple Crown race, Deputed Testamony (Traffic Cop--Proof Requested, by Prove It), who captured the 1983 GI Preakness S., died Tuesday. He was 32. "He was laid to rest at Bonita Farm in Darlington, next to his sire and dam," said J. William (Bill) Boniface, general manager at the Boniface family's Bonita Farm. Bred and campaigned by Bonita Farm and Francis Sears and trained by Bill Boniface, the Maryland-bred won 11 of 20 starts and earned $674,329. In addition to his upset victory in the Preakness, Deputed Testamony also won the GI Haskell Invitational and GIII Governor's Cup. Syndicated for $5 million, he retired to stud in 1984. He sired 21 stakes winners in 25 crops, including graded stakes winners Under Oath, Testafly and Gold Fleece. He is the broodmare sire of Grade I winners Bellamy Road (Concerto) and Whitmore's Conn (Kris S.). "The son of very modestly bred parents, Deputed Testamony reached the highest pinnacle of racing, a true testament to all horse breeders that anything is possible in the great sport of horse racing. A more courageous horse never looked through a bridle," said Boniface.

SILVER HEADING TO PENN NATIONAL

Dan Silver will leave his role as the New York Racing Association's director of communications and media relations in favor of an appointment as director of racing operations at Penn National. The move is effective Oct. 22. "I am very excited to join the terrific team at Hollywood Casino at Penn National Race Course," said Silver, a native of Philadelphia. "I believe that my experiences at NYRA will help me continue the progress being made in the racing program at Penn National on a number of levels, and I am looking forward to the opportunity." Mark Loewe, currently vice president of racing operations for Hollywood Casino at Penn National, will be continuing with Penn National Gaming's racing division in a new role to be announced shortly.

Retro Pay Added to Record Del Mar Purses:

The Thoroughbred Owners of California's board of directors has approved the additional payout of $1,466,532 in Del Mar purses, giving horsemen an extra 10% payout over already record-breaking purse payouts. "For all the owners who had horses that won overnight purse money during Del Mar's record-breaking season, we are extremely pleased to announce such a large retroactive payment to those individuals and stables," said TOC president Lou Raffetto, Jr. "This is just another indication of how successful the recently concluded season at Del Mar was." Mike Ernst, the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club's executive vice president for finance and chief financial officer, added, "Good racing is good business. We had terrific cooperation from our horsemen this summer and it translated into big fields and competitive, entertaining racing. That naturally translates into larger purses for the people who put on the show and this retro payment underscores that reality." The additional payment will be tacked on to all 2012 overnight purse earnings and DMTC will be issuing checks by the end of October.

INDUSTRY INFO

The Jockey Club Announces Scholarship Winners:

Matthew Benton and Christina Moore have been awarded the The Jockey Club Jack Goodman Scholarships for the 2012-2013 academic year. Both are students at the University of Arizona's Race Track Industry Program. Benton, of Saratoga Springs, NY, is a senior studying animal science, while Moore, of Lacon, IL, is a second year graduate student working on a master's in animal science. This is the second Goodman Scholarship for Benton, whose scholarship from last year was renewed for 2012-2013. The scholarship was created in 2007 and is awarded annually to RTIP students based on their academic achievement, career goals and previous involvement in the Thoroughbred industry.

OBSERVATIONS

on today's European racing scene

2.20 Bordeaux-le-Bouscat, Debutantes, €16,000, 2yo, 7fT
CAMARETZ (Mr. Greeley) is a 3/4-brother to Airdrie Stud's Proud Citizen, sire of the likes of Proud Spell, Went the Day Well and Believe You Can. He starts out here in the silks of Ecurie Tagada for the Jean-Claude Rouget barn. In an intriguing race for the provinces, he encounters Berend Van Dalzen's homebred Brooklyn Bowl (Henrythenavigator), a Francois Rohaut-trained son of the owner-breeder's dual group winner and 2002 GI Flower Bowl Invitational runner-up Turtle Bow (Fr) (Turtle Island), herself a half to the ill-fated Age of Aquarius (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and sire Turtle Bowl (Ire) (Dyhim Diamond {Ire}); and the Marquesa de Moratalla's Deux Saisons (GB) (Chineur {Fr}), a half-sister to her 2011 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero Tin Horse (Ire) (Sakhee) trained also by Didier Guillemin.

2.50 Sandown, Mdn, £6,000, 2yo, 1m 14ydsT
ELIDOR (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) is a half-brother to last year's G1 Irish Derby and GI Secretariat S. hero Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) who makes his debut for Jon and Julia Aisbitt and the Mick Channon stable. Among those he meets is Godolphin's Tally Stick (Street Cry {Ire}), a Mahmood Al Zarooni-trained son of the 2003 G2 Sun Chariot S. and 2004 G2 Park Hill S. winner Echoes In Eternity (Ire) (Spinning World). That dam is a half to a litany of stars including Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Great Heavens (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), Playful Act (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Changing Skies (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), and her latest progeny was an encouraging debut sixth after meeting trouble in running over a mile on Kempton's Polytrack earlier this month.

7.45 Kempton, Mdn, £5,000, 2yo, f, 1m (AWT)
HOT SNAP (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) is a notable debutante for the gilt-edged partnership of Khalid Abdullah and Sir Henry Cecil, as she is a half-sister to their six-time Group 1 heroine Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Taking her on is Malih Al Basti's homebred Charm Cry (Street Cry {Ire}), a Mark Johnston-trained daughter of the owner-breeder's 2005 G2 May Hill S. winner Nasheej (Swain {Ire}), who was also placed three times in Group 1 company.

509 YEARLINGS CATALOGUED FOR OCTOBER

A total of 509 yearlings, nearly all of whom are eligible for French owners' premiums, have been catalogued for this year's Arqana October Yearling sale, scheduled for Oct. 22 through Oct. 24 at the Elie de Brignac sales complex in Deauville. The auction will take place in two parts. Part 1 (hips 1-175) will take place Oct. 22, with Part 2 (hip 176-509) comprising the balance of the sale. The October sale has produced the likes of G3 Prix Daphnis winner So Beautiful (Fr) (Zamindar), a €10,000 graduate of the 2010 October sale; and Remus de la Tour (Fr) (Stormy River {Fr}), purchased for just €5,000 in 2010. The entire catalogue is available at www.arqana.com.

HARBOUR WATCH RETIRED TO TWEENHILLS

Harbour Watch (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}--Gorband, by Woodman) has been retired after connections gave up the battle to get him back to the track and he will stand at Tweenhills Stud in Gloucestershire, it was announced yesterday. Unbeaten at two, the Robin Heffer colorbearer registered a maiden and conditions win at Salisbury and Newmarket before adding the G2 Richmond S. to his tally at the Glorious Goodwood meeting. After a share was purchased by Qatar Racing, the highly regarded Richard Hannon trainee sustained a hind-leg fracture in the run-up to the G1 Dewhurst S. and was being prepared for a return since late spring before the decision was made to call time. Hannon paid his own tribute yesterday, saying, "He stood 16.1 hands and was a magnificent-looking specimen with an engine to match. He was right up there with the best horses that we have had here and it was just a shame that he did not get the chance to show everyone just how good he was as a 3-year-old. Harbour Watch is a half-brother to the MG1SW Europa Point (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) and hails from the extended female family of Dubai Millennium (GB). He will join Makfi (GB) and Sleeping Indian (GB) at his new base. No fee has been announced as yet.

RICHARD KNIGHT LAUNCHES BLOODSTOCK AGENCY

After spending the last 12 years working for such top operations as Coolmore, Darley and Juddmonte in a variety of roles, Richard Knight has launched his own bloodstock agency. The services that Richard Knight Bloodstock offer include foal, yearling, HIT and mare purchase/sale, mating plans and nomination booking and racehorse management.

Knight's previous experience includes having worked on the stud farms at Coolmore and Highclere, the pedigree research and advertising office at Primus Advertising and nominations departments at Darley and Juddmonte. Horses purchased to date by Knight include Up in Time (GB) (Noverre), a 24,000gns yearling who went on to win a pair of graded stakes in the U.S. in 2011; and Brazen (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}), a 40,000gns purchase by Knight as a weanling and resold for 80,000gns as a yearling. Brazen recently won his maiden by six lengths in England.

BAKER MOVES TO MANTON

Trainer George Baker is set to move his string to Manton in a sharing arrangement with Brian Meehan, it was announced yesterday. On Meehan's website, the following statement was issued, "I am pleased to welcome George and his team to Manton. There is capacity for 200 horses and I do not have the numbers to fill them all, so it makes sense for there to be a second trainer." Baker added, "As a team, we are very excited to be moving to one of the finest training yards in the country. I've enjoyed my time at Whitsbury and now look forward to the next step in my career."

WEATHERBYS, HAMILTON IN NEW VENTURE

Edited Press Release

Weatherbys has joined forces with insurance entrepreneur Charles Hamilton to launch Weatherbys Hamilton. The new firm will act as a specialist intermediary, providing bloodstock and private client insurance. Weatherbys Hamilton will combine the expertise of Charles Hamilton, a major player in this sector for more than 30 years, and Weatherbys, which has provided services to the British racing and breeding industry since 1770.

With offices initially in Wellingborough and Newmarket, the new company promises to bring a compelling combination of tradition and innovation to the bloodstock and insurance worlds. With Hamilton at the helm, Weatherbys Hamilton has a CEO with a considerable reputation in the insurance market and a CV that includes starting and growing three successful brokers, including Hamilton and Partners.

As part of the Weatherbys 'family,' the new venture will have powerful links with all sectors of the bloodstock industry and is structured as an LLP in order to maximise the entrepreneurial opportunity for its staff.

"We have been looking at ways to expand our insurance business for some time, and the opportunity to form a joint venture with Charles Hamilton is a natural fit," commented Roger Weatherby, Chief Executive of Weatherbys Bank and Chairman of Weatherbys Hamilton LLP. "Charles has outstanding experience of the insurance markets and of managing a high net worth broker."

Added Hamilton, "This is a huge opportunity for us to grow a significant private client brand, particularly as Weatherbys has such a tremendous reputation and reach. The high net worth model has become stale, and this is an opportunity to innovate and create something different."

BYWORD TO MIDDLEFIELD STUD

Khalid Abdullah's G1 Prince of Wales's S. winner Byword (GB) (Peintre Celebre--Binche, by Woodman) has been sold to stand at Middlefield Stud in South Africa, Racing Post revealed yesterday. The former Andre Fabre-trained 6-year-old was purchased as a result of a deal brokered by Grant Pritchard-Gordon of Badgers Bloodstock. Successful in the 2010 renewal of the Royal Ascot feature, the half-brother to Proviso (GB) (Dansili {GB}) also won that season's G2 Prix du Muguet and the following term's G3 Prix de Chemin du Fer du Nord and G2 Prix Dollar. He retires as the winner of seven of his 16 starts and €750,000 in prize money.
