FLAT OUT JOINS SELECT GROUP

Preston Stables LLC's Flat Out (Flatter) added his name to an elite group of horses including Nashua, Kelso, Creme Fraiche, Skip Away and Curlin in successfully defending his title in the prestigious GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, a "Win and You're In" event for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. The athletic 6-year-old ran down pacesetter Stay Thirsty (Bernardini) in the final strides, with GI Whitney H. hero Fort Larned

The champ is back. Besilu Stables' Royal Delta (Empire Maker) signaled her readiness for a defense of her title in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic Nov. 2, coming from just off the pace of market rival It's Tricky (Mineshaft) before accelerating away for a comprehensive 9 1/2-length victory in the GI Beldame Invitational S. at Belmont Park. Cont. p6

'DUDE' AWESOME AGAIN

While Flat Out was busy across the country defending his title in the Jockey Club Gold Cup, Game On Dude (Awesome Again) was following suit at Santa Anita, drawing clear in the final sixteenth of a mile to win the stakes named in honor [formerly Goodwood] of his sire for the second year in a row. Cont. p9-10

BAFFERT, 'RAFFY' SWEEP JUVENILE STAKES

Trainer Bob Baffert and jockey Rafael Bejarano teamed to win both juvenile events Saturday at Santa Anita, taking the GI Chandelier (formerly Oak Leaf) S. with "TDN Rising Star" Executiveprivilege (First Samurai) before following up in the GI FrontRunner (formerly Norfolk) S. with the maiden Power Broker (Pulpit). Cont. p10-11

FRANKEL WORKS AT NEWMARKET

World champion Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) continued his buildup to Ascot's Oct. 20 G1 QIPCO Champion S. with a racecourse gallop under regular partner Tom Queally at Newmarket yesterday. "It felt fine and that is exactly what we were looking for," Queally said. "He's still got a bit to go, he had a nice little blow and he's still a little bit off his race. We're all delighted and it is exactly what we were looking for. We're 100% on target and everybody's happy."

Not To Be Out-Done...

Flat Out was very much under the radar well into his 5-year-old season and was a 13-1 chance when he made his Belmont debut in the GII Suburban H. last July. His 6 1/2-length thrashing (Beyer 113) of Hymn Book (Arch) was followed by runner-up efforts to Tizway (Tiznow) in the GI Whitney H. in August and to eventual Horse of the Year Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) in the GI Woodward S. the next month. His 2 1/4-length success from Drosselmeyer (Distorted Humor) in this catapulted him into tepid favoritism for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, but he could do no better than fifth to the WinStar upsetter and closed the season with a disappointing third behind Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) in the GI Clark H. Nov. 25. Unplaced in the GIII Fort Lauderdale S. on the Gulfstream turf Jan. 14 and behind Hymn Book in the GI Donn H. Feb. 11, the striking bay was transferred to this barn and resumed with a useful runner-up effort in the GII Monmouth Cup S. July 7. Though he was third behind Fort Larned and Ron the Greek (Full Mandate) in the Aug. 4 Whitney, he was running on well in the latter stages, setting him up perfectly for this title defense.

Stay Thirsty, third as the favorite in last year's Gold Cup, was hustled away from the two hole by Ramon Dominguez, but was forced to go hard up front, as Ruler On Ice (Roman Ruler), conqueror of Stay Thirsty in last year's GI Belmont S., and stable companion San Pablo (Jump Start) forced him into an opening quarter in :23.49. Fort Larned took up a perfect position in fourth, while Joel Rosario was able to get Flat Out--drawn one from the outside in nine--down onto the rail and just behind centerfield by the time the field eased into the backstretch.

Stay Thirsty went along evenly through the middle stages of the race and led them into the final turn, but Fort Larned appeared to be traveling ominously well as he rolled up alongside the pacemaker at the five-sixteenths. Flat Out was going nicely a bit further back and came with a run three wide at the head of the stretch. Stay Thirsty was able to absorb the best shot Fort Larned had to offer and disposed of that one at midstretch, but Flat Out came after the Repole runner inside the final sixteenth of a mile and outslugged that one for the victory.

"It looked like [jockey Joel Rosario] let him pick off a couple of horses on the backside, and he was doing it under a hold," said Hall of Famer Bill Mott. "That was a good thing. He hadn't asked him to run. The horse was just striding out and picking up horses. That other horse [Stay Thirsty] fought on pretty well. Todd [Pletcher] looked like he had him ready today, we just had ours a little more ready. And it wasn't by much."

Mott's other runner, GI Santa Anita H. winner Ron the Greek, was a bit of a disappointment, finishing a one-paced sixth as the 3-1 second choice.

"We have to see," said Mott of Ron the Greek, referring to his participation in the Classic. "Hopefully it will be the case where he just had an off day. We know that he likes Santa Anita and maybe five weeks from now it will be his day. You can't ever count him out."

Fort Larned also remains a candidate for the Breeders' Cup, and trainer Ian Wilkes was philosophical in defeat.

"You have to look at the bright side," said Wilkes, who noted that Drosselmeyer and Blame (Seeking the Gold) both placed in the Gold Cup before going on to win the Classic in 2011 and 2010, respectively. "My horse ran. He ran hard. I can't be disappointed; I'm very happy with it."

A nine-time winner from 55 starters on Breeders' Cup day, trainer Shug McGaughey has been represented by just a pair of unplaced runners in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. Point of Entry will ship to California as America's best hope in the 12-furlong event after recording a fifth consecutive victory in Saturday's Joe Hirsch Turf Classic.

Click here to access TDN Sales PPs

A maiden winner [rained off the turf] in five tries on the dirt, Point of Entry cleared his first allowance condition going 11 panels on the Gulfstream grass last December, but was no better than fourth over nine furlongs at the next level Feb. 26. It's been nothing but blue skies since. An easy winner of a 12-furlong Keeneland

allowance Apr. 12,
 he was back on 15
 days' rest for the GII Elkorn S. over the same course and distance and scored by 1 1/2 lengths. Given a breather with an eye on some of the bigger turf marathons later in the season, the homebred proved easily best in the 11-furlong GI Man O'War S. at this venue July 14 and most recently overcame a bit of traffic trouble with a scintillating turn of foot to add Saratoga's GI Sword Dancer Invitational S. by a resounding four lengths Aug. 18.

Adam Coglianesse

Little Mike (Spanish Steps), the GI Arlington Million hero, made an easy lead--as expected--with Treasure Beach handier than normal and Point of Entry forwardly placed while saving ground. The front-runner had things very much his own way and took them past halfway in a pedestrian 1:18.16, but called it a day soon after, and Treasure Beach inherited the lead. The Irish raider took them around the sweeping final turn and drifted out entering the stretch, but he could not resist the onrushing Point of Entry, who struck the front a furlong from home and went on to an easy score.

"The turf scared me more than anything," McGaughey admitted. "I knew it would be a walking race, and he's got enough tactical speed where he can lay where he wants to, and it worked out fine. I hope he comes back fine, and we'll go out there [to Santa Anita Park for the Breeders' Cup Turf] and catch a firm turf out there, and I think they'll really see what he can do."

When last she visited these shores, Nahrain went down by a half-length in second in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Filly/Mare Turf at Churchill Downs. She'll be in with a shout to go one better this season following a stirring success in the Flower Bowl S.

Though the F/M Turf marked her lone defeat in five tries last term, the chestnut carried more suspect form into this, with a ninth in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot June 20 and an eighth in the G1 Nassau S. Aug. 4. Her last-out third in the G2 Blandford S. at The Curragh Sept. 9 suggested better was to come and so it proved.

Nahrain was held up at the back of the field as the pace was slow to develop over the rain-affected turf, officially rated yielding but running closer to soft. Three wide and without cover for most of the backstretch run, she tucked in behind Zagora and followed that one's run into and around the turn. The Schwartz runner was the first to go for home and kicked hard, but was soon joined by her stablemate Dream Peace and Nahrain between them. Zagora kept on very well, but Nahrain was doing the better work and punched through in the final strides for the victory.

"We had a great trip," said winning rider John Velazquez. "We got a really nice position in the first part of the race and then we got hung out a little bit wide on the first turn, but I didn't want to take too much hold of her. The other horse [Dream Peace] came to her outside, then she started to run."

Of jockey Mike Smith's remarkable 15 Breeders' Cup victories, four have come in the Distaff/Ladies' Classic aboard such luminaries as Inside Information (1995), the Bill Mott-trained Ajina (1997), Azeri (2002) and the legendary Zenyatta (2008). In the form of Royal Delta, Smith will be heavily favored to add to that total at Santa Anita in a little less than five weeks.

Famously purchased by Ben Leon's Besilu Stables for $8.5 million just four days after her defeat of It's Tricky in last year's Ladies' Classic, Royal Delta was kept in training with an eye on the G1 Dubai World Cup and prepped for that $10-million event with a distant runner-up effort to an in-form Awesome Maria (Maria's Mon) in the GIII Sabin S. at Gulfstream Feb. 25. She never really got untracked when only ninth at Meydan Mar. 31, and it was out Jose Lezcano and in Mike Smith for the GII Fleur de Lis H. June 16. If there were any cobwebs from the trip abroad, it certainly was not in evidence, as the lanky dark bay thrashed her rivals by eight lengths. She reportedly didn't care much for the Delaware main track, but managed to grind it out and held on for a workmanlike neck success from Tiz Miz Sue (Tiznow) in the July 21 GII Delaware H. She was coming into this off a relatively excuse-free half-length defeat at the hands of Love and Pride (A.P. Indy) in the GI Personal Ensign H. at the Spa Aug. 28.

It's Tricky, who stumbled badly when third in the Personal Ensign, took the bulk of the early money, and was off smartly this time to lead them off, as Royal Delta shadowed her every move from second. It was a leisurely opening couple of furlongs for the front-runner in :24.09, but she sprinted through the next sectional to reach the half in a more demanding :46.70. Smith went for Royal Delta midway on the turn, and the duo rolled up effortlessly alongside It's Tricky, who was hard at it and had little response. From there it was a matter of how far and Smith had his mount well in hand for the final 100 yards, reporting home a condescending winner.

Royal Delta Adam Coglianese

"It's nice to win the race and turn it around a little bit," said her Hall of Fame trainer, Bill Mott. "I'm glad for Royal Delta; she got beat last time, came back, and avenged that loss today. She ran a super race--broke well, took it to the horse on the lead and she was much the best today. Just a very impressive performance."

The Lumber Guy, the less fancied half of a 2-1 entry with Sean Avery (Cherokee Run), hadn't been seen since finishing sixth in the GII Peter Pan S. against fellow sophomores in May, but struck a blow for the Classic division with this comeback score. The Empire-bred won off by a big margin on debut at Aqueduct in January, added the Miracle Wood S. at Laurel Feb. 27, then tired to fifth in the GI Wood Memorial S. back at the Big A Apr. 7. He registered a first graded tally in the one-mile GII Jerome S. Apr. 21, but faltered in the Peter Pan and was shelved. Away a bit slowly, the grey took up a perfect stalking spot from third on the outside with his stablemate alongside. He came wide on the home bend and kept plugging away to strike the front in mid-stretch and report home in front of a fast-closing Caixa Eletronica. The Lumber Guy earned a Breeders' Cup Win and You're In berth for the GI Sprint, and could indeed be headed California. "Why not?" said trainer Mike Hushion. "We'll talk it over with Barry [Schwartz, owner] and look over the competition." Schwartz said he was confident coming in. "We really felt going in that we were going to win today," he said. "I just joked, 'The only bad thing is that we're not going to get 10, 12-1 on him [because he was coupled].' He had a month off on my farm after the Peter Pan because he was knocked out. Mike really took it easy getting him back, and he's just come back better than ever."

Jersey Town was winless since his 34-1 upset of the 2010 GI Cigar Mile H., but you wouldn't have guessed that after watching the 6-year-old book his Win and You're In ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile in impressive fashion. A well-beaten third in this race a year ago to Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) and then sixth in the Dirt Mile at Churchill, Jersey Town kicked off his year with a runner-up finish in the Sir Shackleton S. at Gulfstream in late March. Off for a spell, he returned with an even sixth-place try in a muddy renewal of the six-furlong GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. at Saratoga

Adam Coglianese

Aug. 5, and looked on his way to victory in the Spa's seven-furlong GI Forego S. Sept. 1 before tiring in the final furlong and settling for third, beaten 4 3/4 lengths by Emcee (Unbridled's Song). Adding another panel, he was always traveling sweetly behind an honest pace set by Shackleford and split that foe and pressing Trickmeister at the top of the lane. The Fipke homebred took off from there, and reported home a convincing winner from a staying-on Shackleford. Even-money choice To Honor and Serve (Bernardini), winner of the GI Woodford S. in his most recent, never really got involved after a rough start and settled for fourth. "He just needed to have a couple of races in a row before this one," said winning trainer Barclay Tagg. "I thought he needs that kind of thing. He's a real hefty horse. He needs to train hard, but he really doesn't have the legs and feet to train hard on. You have to hit a happy medium, and things were just coming together real nicely for him this fall, so we took a shot at it." Trainer Dale Romans said of Shackleford afterward, "I've seen him go faster and keep going. It was a little different track today; I told Ramon [Dominguez] to take the race to them and make them pass us. Trickmeister is a fast horse, he was running with us and we were going too fast up front. Jersey Town just ran a big race today. I'd like to have gotten the trophy, but it puts us in a good position going to the Breeders' Cup." Conditioner Bill Mott offered few excuses and said To Honor and Serve is still on track for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. "He was dull, a little dull," said Mott. "He didn't break; Johnny [Velazquez] just said he was a little flat. He didn't put in any kind of effort. I understood the risk in running him today, but I wanted to run him because I felt it was my best shot five weeks from now in the Breeders' Cup. Whether that turns out to be the case or not, I'll have to answer that question myself in five weeks, but I just thought running him today was the best thing for me to get him to the Classic."

Game On Dude defeated the recently retired Awesome Gem to top an Awesome Again exacta in last year's GI Goodwood S., but was dismissed at odds of 14-1 in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Sent to the fore under the lights at Churchill Downs, the dark bay led on a reasonable pace and carried the advantage well into the final furlong before being overhauled late by Drosselmeyer. He returned to action with a smooth 5 1/4-length success in the GII San Antonio S. at this track Feb. 5 and passed the GI Santa Anita H. in early March in favor of the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 31. He never sniffed the lead on that occasion, checked in a distant 12th. The trip left few lingering effects, as Game On Dude came back with a career-best 116 Beyer in the GII Californian S. June 2 and added a 1 1/2-length victory over Richard's Kid (Lemon Drop Kid) in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup July 7. He was the 13-10 chalk in the GI TVG Pacific Classic in his most recent start at Del Mar Aug. 26 and was well clear past the eighth pole, only to be outfinished by the upstart Dullahan (Even the Score).

Content to sit second as GIII Longacres Mile hero Winning Machine (Toccet) set the pace, Game On Dude loped along comfortably and went on the attack when called upon by the in-form Rafael Bejarano nearing the stretch. It looked for a few strides as if Nonios, ground-saving throughout, might make a race of it for the final furlong, but the heavy favorite found another gear and reported home comfortably best.

"This horse is just getting better and better, and when he gets on dirt, he's a different horse," commented winning conditioner Bob Baffert. "[Rafael] rides a lot of favorites, and sometimes it's not going to work, but he handles the pressure really well. When you're 1 to 5, he knows just keep him out of trouble and let them run their race. If they win, they win. If they get beat, give them a chance."

Contrarians who saw Executiveprivilege put to the test in the seven-furlong GI Del Mar Debutante and thought the unbeaten filly was vulnerable in this stretch out were sorely mistaken, and now the Bob Baffert-trained filly heads to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies as the clear-cut favorite. Tabbed as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ winning a 5 1/2-furlong dash at Betfair Hollywood Park June 28, the $650,000 OBSAPR topper took the six-furlong Landaluce S. by daylight July 14, then added her first graded score in Del Mar's GIII Sorrento S. at 6 1/2 panels Aug. 1. Adding a half-panel for the third straight start in the

of :23 4/5, :48 2/5 and 1:13 2/5. She began to get away from them on the far turn and, after building an insurmountable lead, was geared down late under Rafael Bejarano as Scarlet Strike gave game but futile chase. "She impressed me today," said the rider. "When I saw a lot of scratches in the race, especially the speed, I had no choice but to send her. She brought me to the lead easy, and I was concerned a little bit, but after the first turn I knew I had so much horse. She was so relaxed. I think after this race she'll be ready for the Breeders' Cup. She's going to be tough." It was Baffert's eighth win in this race, formerly run as the Oak Leaf S., and he now sits just one off D. Wayne Lukas's record nine. Co-owner Mike Pegram, who heads the team that sent out Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike) to victory on this card three years ago en route to that colt's runner-up finish in the GI BC Juvenile, was on hand to accept the hardware. "We were in a great position like this with Looking At Lucky; that's what makes you realize how tough the Breeders' Cup is to win, because you can have the best horse and may not get the job done," he said. "She's done everything right and she's just so classy. She's our Looking At Lucky without [male equipment]. When we get a call from Bob saying that 'we're buying,' we know not to ask that next question. The first time that came in was Looking At Lucky. You have to take your hat off to Bob. He's got an eye for a horse that's been proven over and over again."

Debutante, she was all out to get up and defeat Beholder (Henny Hughes) by a nose, and there were questions about whether she'd be as effective as the distances got even longer. Aided by easy early splits here in her conventional dirt debut, she cruised through splits

Trainer Bob Baffert collected the second of his three Grade I's on the afternoon with this colt, who was a maiden entering and, after a decisive score, left as the Hall of Famer's record sixth winner in the race formerly known as the Norfolk. Fourth at odds-on in a six-furlong maiden at Del Mar July 28, he was moved to the grass in his next and ran well, finishing a length third after making the pace in a one-mile maiden Aug. 15. Over the same course and distance, he was tried in the Oak Tree Juvenile Turf S. and nearly got in done, finishing a neck adrift in second, and was trying conventional dirt for the first time here under regular rider Rafael Bejarano. Tracking a hot pace set by favored Know More, the chestnut was unleashed in the lane and stormed home a seven-length winner. "I was really high on this horse before we went to Del Mar," said Baffert. "After that last race, I switched him up. It worked out."

While Royal Delta was putting on a show in the GI Beldame S. in New York, the filly that beat her in the GI Personal Ensign H. at Saratoga Aug. 26, Love and Pride, took her own show on the road and came away with a second top-level score. The progressive Love and Pride missed by a head in the GIII Allaire DuPont Distaff S. at Pimlico May 19, then collected a first graded win in the GIII Obeah S. at Delaware June 16. She was a big 29-1 longshot in the GII Delaware H. July 21, and after setting torrid splits, tired to a well-beaten fourth behind Royal Delta. The Personal Ensign was hardly billed as a rematch, but Love and Pride avenged that effort nonetheless, attending honest splits and ultimately holding the champ at bay by a half-length. Given her final drill for this at Saratoga Sept. 22 and shipped west, the 4-year-old, off at relatively generous 4-1 odds in the race previously known as the Lady's Secret, was soon in front and laid down pressured splits of :23.98 and :48.47. She inched to a daylight lead on the turn, and at the quarter pole it was clear she wasn't for catching as Martin Garcia just pointed her in the right direction. Fellow shipper Joyful Victory took second over favored Include Me Out. "This filly, when she gets a chance to settle into a rhythm, she's obviously able to finish off her races," said Mike McCarthy, assistant to winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "I think you saw that today. Provided everything goes well, I believe this filly and the horse we run tomorrow [Turbo Compressor in the John Henry] will stick around [for the Breeders' Cup]." Love and Pride was produced by Bernardini's Grade I-placed half-sister Ile de France. The mare has 3-year-old ridgling named French Storm, a $250,000 FTFFEB juvenile who ran fourth in a maiden special for trainer Mike Harrington in July in his latest. Ile de France did not produce a foal in 2010, and had a Street Cry (Ire) filly in 2011. The last crop of A.P. Indy recently went through the ring at Keeneland September. Lane's End living legend is the top-ranked sire by yearling average on the TDN Insta-Tistics, with his nine yearlings sold averaging $466,111.

After knocking on the door of Grade I success a couple of times, Glen Hill Farm's Marketing Mix finally walked through, registering an eye-catching victory in the race formerly known as the Yellow Ribbon S.

Admirably consistent in 2011, the Ontario-bred landed the valuable Wonder Where S. in her grass debut last July and sandwiched wins in the GIII Pucker Up S. and GII Mrs. Revere S. around a runner-up effort to Together (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland. The dark bay returned with a victory over Queen's Plate winner Inglorious (Hennessy) and Hungry Island (More Than Ready) in a stakes-quality Keeneland allowance Apr. 11, but was only fourth to Hungry Island in the GII Distaff Turf Mile at Churchill May 5. She returned to Woodbine for her next two, leaving Toronto with victories in the GII Nassau S. June 2 and the GII Dance Smartly S. July 8 and was exiting a near-miss second in the GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington Aug. 18.

Settled in midpack as Vivo Per Lei (Empire Maker) and Let's Go Cheyenne (Tiznow) went a suicidal pace on the engine, Marketing Mix was given a bit of rein by Garrett Gomez and began to gain on those spent front runners in hand approaching the stretch. She took command turning for home and cruised under the wire an easy winner.

EUROPEAN GROUP RESULTS

THE GALLIC LEAGUE

Following the lead of her now-retired compatriot Sahpresa (Sahm), Robert Jeffcock's Siyouma (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) made it a fourth straight French success in Newmarket's G1 Kingdom of Bahrain Sun Chariot S. while causing a 12-1 upset in the process. Only fifth behind the brilliant Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab) in Deauville's G1 Prix Jean Romanet last time Aug. 19, the bay took a lead from the runaway pacesetter Laugh Out Loud (GB) (Clodovil {Ire}) against the far rail and, after passing that rival with a furlong remaining, was always holding the errant runner-up Elusive Kate (Elusive Quality) to score by 3/4 of a length. "She was very well today and we were pretty confident, although we expected softer ground," jockey Gerald Mosse commented. "I was lucky, as the pace was good in front of me, and she picked up from the four and went to the line. She is definitely better at a mile."

Sun Chariot S. cont.

Like the eventual triple winner of this race Sahpresa, Siyouma started out under the radar in the formative part of her career in her native country and was making her black-type debut when fourth in the 10-furlong Listed Le Vase d'Argent at Toulouse Apr. 27. Producing a strong finish to be third in the G2 Prix Corrida over 1 5/16 miles at Saint-Cloud May 28, she delivered the same late flourish to fill the same spot behind Giofra (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Elusive Kate in the G1 Falmouth S. on the July Course here July 13. Again nearest at the finish against the best of her sex in the Jean Romanet, she was ridden closer to the pace by Gerald Mosse and that proved decisive as the Rowley Mile bias continued to favor prominent runners. As the Cheveley Park S. one-two had done minutes earlier, Laugh Out Loud and Siyouma raced against the far rail with Elusive Kate chasing after stumbling badly at the start. While the leader paid for her over-exuberance and the eventual runner-up veered markedly left as she had done when winning last year's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac, Siyouma was in the perfect spot to benefit and had the race in safe keeping by the time William Buick straightened Elusive Kate, who lost a plate at the start. "I was worried about the ground, because she is better on a softer surface," trainer Francois Doumen told PA Sport. "Every time she's done a bit of work on the soft, she's flown. She has been improving through the year, and only came to herself when she came over to run in the Falmouth. She was quite immature and hardly ran at three. She is easy to train, has an easy temperament, and Gerald said he won more easily that it may have looked." ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Beauty Parlour (GB) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), who was sent off the 13-8 favorite on her first start for Sir Henry Cecil, failed to pick up after traveling smoothly and was seventh. Siyouma is the second foal to race--and more importantly the second Group 1 winner--for her 10-year-old stakes-winning dam Sichilla, whose first foal is the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere-Gran Criterium hero Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}). Sichilla is a granddaughter of G1 Yellow Ribbon Country Queen (Explodent) and is a half-sister to the four-time Group 1 winner and sire Slickly (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}).

WHO'S QUEEN?

Entering yesterday's G1 Cheveley Park S. on the back of a win in the G2 Lowther S. at York Aug. 23, Clipper Logistics' Rosdhu Queen (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) stretched her perfect record to four in a display of pillar-to-post speed on Newmarket's Rowley Mile. Sent off the 4-1 second choice, the bay soon enjoyed the overall lead on the far-side rail and found extra late to ward off the eventual third Baileys Jubilee (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) and score by a length from Winning Express (Ire) (Camacho {GB}), who nosed out Baileys Jubilee for second. "It was a very similar performance to York, as she traveled well on her own and battled well when they came to her," jockey Johnny Murtagh said. "She had no hassle against the rail for the first three or four furlongs, and I knew she would be hard to catch as she had loads left in reserve two out. She is pretty fast, but it's a fast mile here, so she deserves a chance in the Guineas."

Rosdhu Queen showed trainer William Haggas that she possessed abundant ability when making all over five furlongs at Ripon July 21 and made light work of her first black-type examination in Newbury's Listed St Hugh's S. Aug. 17. Reappearing just six days afterwards in the Lowther, she again led at every step to see off the battle-hardened Baileys Jubilee and repeated the dose here. Quickly away against the far rail to tow along two rivals, including the similarly unbeaten Winning Express, she freewheeled to the approach to the "dip" and Johnny Murtagh used the downhill run there to gain more momentum. As Baileys Jubilee emerged from the main pack racing down the centre, Rosdhu Queen found another surge as that rival's stamina ran out. Maureen (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) was sent off the 2-1 favorite, but never looked like making a serious impact and finished a disappointing ninth. "She's a very tough and genuine filly," trainer William Haggas told PA Sport. "To be fair, I didn't think she'd stay six furlongs, but in the Lowther she did and went again, and I think there's a bit more to come. Whether she's a Guineas filly, I don't know, but she's a Group 1 winner now."

Steeler earned himself a berth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf after capturing the race that yielded last year's winner Wrote (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}). Steeler was too green for his own good on debut at Haydock July 21, but still made up significant ground late on to be a head second to the subsequent listed scorer Deauville Prince (Fr) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) over seven furlongs, and built on that promise when opening his account over that trip at Goodwood Aug. 4. Beaten 3/4 of a length when second to Dundonnell (First Defence) in York's G3 Acomb S. Aug. 22, the bay beat the subsequent £100,000 Tattersalls Millions Median Auction Trophy scorer Tamayuz Star (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) in the Listed Stardom S. back at Goodwood Sept. 4, and toughness saw him through a third test in quick succession here. Prominent early as Artigiano and Birdman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) shared the pacesetting duties, he was placed between that pair with a half mile remaining and edged ahead soon after. Despite the persistent presence of Artigiano as the duo pulled clear of one-paced rivals, he was able assert his superior stamina in the final yards. "He seems to be getting better and better, and the extra furlong suited him," jockey Kieren Fallon said. "He's a horse that keeps finding for you and, although the pace was sensible for the first half, we really picked up then, and he really wants to run for you. He'll come into his own next year and could be a Derby horse." Connections are looking at the Oct. 27 G1 Racing Post Trophy, with a possible tilt at the Breeders' Cup on hold until after that Doncaster contest. ## BLACK-TYPE PREVIEWS

UP FOR GRABS

Today's G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua at the San Siro is another case of a top-level event in Italy and Germany not meeting the required standard, and is almost certain to fall to the Classic generation, who dominate this weak-looking renewal. Gestut Winterhauch's Amaron (GB) (Shamardal) could be the answer to a tricky puzzle, having beaten the subsequent Royal Ascot winner Energizer (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) in Krefeld's G3 Dr Busch-Memorial over 8 1/2 furlongs Apr. 22 and finished a neck fourth in the blanket finish to the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 13. Off the board in both the June 3 G1 Prix du Jockey Club over 1 5/16 miles at Chantilly and the G2 Oettingen-Rennen back at a mile at Baden-Baden Aug. 30, he was given a lot to do on the latter occasion and will benefit from more positive tactics here. Stall Nizza's Amarillo (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) was a place ahead of Amaron in that latter contest, having shown he could also mix it in a Classic when finishing runner-up in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen at Cologne May 28. One who has won a race of that nature is the Apr. 29 G3 Premio Parioli scorer Malossol (Rahy), and the form of that Capannelle version of the 2000 Guineas has been boosted by the subsequent success of the runner-up Vedelago (Ire) (Red Clubs {Ire}) in this venue's G2 Premio Carlo Vittadini. Despite that, there was nothing positive to take out of Malossol's next performance when last of eight in the G3 Prix Paul de Moussac over this trip at Chantilly June 9, and he also has a question mark over him here. ‘KATIE’ AIMS FOR PERFECTION IN MATRON

Stonestreet Stables's “TDN Rising Star” ⊕ Kauai Katie (Malibu Moon) puts her unbeaten streak on the line in today's GII Matron S. at Belmont. The $490,000 Fasig-Tipton Florida buy stole the spotlight on Saratoga's Opening Day card July 20, romping home a 12-length winner and earning a gaudy 100 Beyer Speed Figure. She returned at 2-5 in the Aug. 12 GII Adirondack S., and got the job done with a 2 3/4-length success. Her Beyer for that performance regressed to an 84, but she still looks imposing on paper and figures tough to beat. “As Stonestreet also has Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy), who seems to be adept at longer distances, obviously you try to separate the two,” trainer Todd Pletcher explained off the decision to run Kauai Katie here instead of next weekend's GI Frizette S. “This seems like a logical spot for Kauai Katie.” Pletcher will also send out Cheyenne and McNeill Stables's Unabashed (Elusive Quality), a 4 1/2-length first out graduate at the Spa Aug. 17. “Unabashed actually surprised us a little bit,” Pletcher revealed. “Not so much that she won, but I didn't anticipate that she would be away a beat slow, find herself behind horses and would handle herself as professionally as she did. She took it all in stride and it was a very professional effort.” Hall of Famer Bill Mott looks best-poised to take down Pletcher with fellow ⊕ “Rising Star” ⊕ Seasoned Warrior (Majestic Warrior). The Live Oak colorbearer was a close second behind loose on the lead Baby J (J Be K) here June 28 before breaking through upstate Aug. 12. She found herself surprisingly far back when fourth in the GI Spinaway S. Sept. 2, and Mott told the TDN earlier this week that he's simply chalking that effort up to a bad day.

‘CARRYING’ ON IN THE FUTURITY

Seth Klarman, William Lawrence and trainer Rick Violette were dealt quite the blow when their GII Saratoga Special S. romper Spurious Precision (High Cotton) was euthanized Sept. 17, and they'll look to move on here with Carried Interest (Henny Hughes). The chestnut was a debut winner going a furlong shorter over this strip July 5, and was subsequently flattered by runner-up Palice Malice (Curlin), who returned to score at Saratoga Aug. 4. “When something like that happens, no question it kicks the living daylights out of you,” Violette told Daily Racing Form of the loss of Spurious Precision. “At home alone I might be sulking and beating myself up, but I have bigger responsibilities, and I've got to get to the barn and get back to work.” Of Carried Interest, he added, “I think he's a nice horse. He'll run great. If he's [good] enough, he's fit enough. He had a terrific breeze the other day.” Red and Black Stable's Weekend Hideaway (Speightstown) was an impressive 6 3/4-length second-out winner in the Saratoga slop Aug. 10, and scored in similarly decisive fashion in the David S. for New York-breds Aug. 29. He faces open company for the first time, but looks like he fits in perfectly on paper. “As impressive as he ran at Saratoga, we got to see what we got here,” trainer Phil Serpe told DRF. “The owners were excited about running him, we're excited about running him.” The omnipresent Todd Pletcher is represented by Repole Stable's GII Three Chimneys Hopeful S. fourth-place finisher Overanalyze (Dixie Union) and GIII Sapling S. show horse Drum Roll (Majestic Warrior), who carries the Coolmore colors.

Off the Hook LLC and P & G Stables Turbo Compressor (Halo’s Image) invades from the East in today’s GII John Henry Turf Championship at Santa Anita. A front-running winner of the Colonial Turf Cup in June and GI United Nations S. at Monmouth July 7, the bay faltered to a well-beaten ninth in the GI Sword Dancer S. at Saratoga last time Aug. 18. “I think he’ll appreciate the firm turf course out there,” trainer Todd Pletcher told DRF from his New York base. “I wasn’t really wanting to run here a mile and a half on a softer turf course against [GI Turf Classic entrant] Little Mike (Spanish Steps)--they’re two horses that both want to be on the lead.” Turbo Compressor figures to face his sternest challenges from Gary and Mary West’s Casino Host (Dynaformer), winner of the GII Del Mar H. last time Aug. 25; and accomplished veteran Bourbon Bay (Sligo Bay {Ire}), who took the GII San Luis Rey S. and GII San Juan Capistrano H. in his last two starts here in March and April, respectively.

BATTLE CHARGE

Aidan O’Brien brought his tally of wins in The Curragh’s G2 Juddmonte Beresford S. to 10 last year and could be a step nearer the record of 14 set by Dr Vincent O’Brien if Battle of Marengo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) improves on his latest success in the Listed Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Trial S. over this trip at Leopardstown Sept. 8. On that occasion, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier’s bay had Trading Leather (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) back in second and the form was boosted when the runner-up went on to score by seven lengths in his maiden. “He seems to have come through his last race okay and, hopefully, he can run well,” jockey Joseph O’Brien told PA Sport. “The saddle slipped in his last run, but hopefully that won’t happen again. He seems to be improving with racing.”

Helping to set the pace will be stable companion Kingston Jamaica (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who proved he is a smart colt in his own right when finishing third in the G3 Tyros S. over seven furlongs at Leopardstown July 26 and fourth in the G2 Futurity S. over that trip here last time Aug. 26. Coolmore have a third string to their bow in the shape of Probably (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}), who outstayed Cristoforo Colombo (Henrythenavigator) in deep conditions in this venue’s G2 Railway S. over six furlongs June 30 before finishing fourth in both the G1 Phoenix S. over the same track and trip Aug. 12 and the seven-furlong G1 Vincent O’Brien S. 15 days ago. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum’s Muaanid (GB) (Kheleyf) is an intriguing contender on his debut success over seven furlongs in the mud at the Galway festival Aug. 3.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Frankel in HQ Blowout...

World champion Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) continued his buildup to Ascot's Oct. 20 G1 QIPCO Champion S. with a racecourse gallop under regular partner Tom Queally at Newmarket yesterday. Boxed two miles across town from his Warren Place base, the ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ worked nine furlongs of the Rowley Mile track with his 3/4-brother Bullet Train (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and the Niarchos Family's Specific Gravity (Fr) (Dansili {GB}). The former set a decent pace, albeit below full racing tempo, and he cruised by those stable companions approaching the final quarter mile, coasting to the line unextended by his usual margin of daylight. Connections ensured full race conditions were simulated with racing silks worn by all three jockeys and, having paraded in front of a sizeable crowd beforehand, he returned to the winner's enclosure to rapturous applause. "He had a nice blow, but he wanted to because this is not D-Day," commented trainer Sir Henry Cecil. Continuing the theme, Queally added, "It felt fine and that is exactly what we were looking for. He's still got a bit to go, he had a nice little blow and he's still a little bit off his race. We're 100% on target and everybody's happy."

Snow Fairy out for Year; Remains in Training

Cristina Patino's star distaffer Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab) will miss the remainder of this season after suffering another setback Friday, despite pleasing connections in her final serious workout building up to next week's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. The 5-year-old was found to have heat in a foreleg after returning from exercise at Newmarket's Cambridge Road Polytrack, but retirement is not on the agenda for the seven-time Group 1 winner. "We don't know everything yet, but she did her final piece of serious work yesterday and worked very well," trainer Ed Dunlop told Racing Post. "At evening stables we realised she has a bit of heat in her foreleg and, with veterinary advice, we decided risking her in the Arc in a week's time was not an option. As she was missing the Arc, we thought the best thing to do would be to put her away and give her every chance to recover." The owner's Racing Manager Patrick Cooper added, "It is a separate issue to the one which sidelined her earlier this year and, provided that she makes a full recovery, Mrs. Patino has confirmed that Snow Fairy will remain in training next year."

op/ed feedback

NYRA is at the mercy of a state government that does not understand what horses do for the state. Every horse that runs in a race has more than a jockey on its back. In the gambling side of it, each horse is worth the thousands of dollars of bets put on it. Each horse has brought to the table the labor of hundreds in its lifetime, the workers at the farm where it was raised, the ancillary industries that serve the farm. The fencing, the tractors, the trucks, the seed and fertilizer companies... on and on... If one farm shuts down, a little town around it closes its doors.

Until the state realizes how much it OWES a horse, it will not support horse racing. By the way, horses are the biggest agricultural entity in New York State. Bigger than apples, maple syrup, or anything else... Is anyone listening.....????

Martha's Moon kicked off her career for conditioner Manuel Estevez with a seventh in the JJ's Dream S. at Calder June 20 and graduated in her next effort going six panels in the slop July 22. She was sixth in an allowance Aug. 21, but came back with a win in the sloppy Catcharisingstar S. last time out Aug. 25. Stretching out in her first start since being privately purchased and turned over to trainer John Servis, Martha's Moon broke from the outside, hustled to the front and established a clear lead. She stayed in front throughout and, when pressured turning for home, dug in down the stretch for the win. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

Sarava Retired to Old Friends:

Sarava (Wild Again--Rhythm of Life, by Deputy Minister), winner of the 2002 GI Belmont S., has been retired from stallion duty at Bridlewood Farm in Florida and has been relocated to Old Friends Thoroughbred Retirement Center in Georgetown, Kentucky. Owned by Gary Drake and Paul and Susan Roy, the now 13-year-old stallion raced three times in England as a 2-year-old before breaking his maiden in his first North American start for trainer Kenny McPeck at Churchill Downs. He won the Sir Barton S. at Pimlico before his 70-1 upset of the Belmont. As a sire, he is responsible for Grade II winner Gladding, as well as stakes-placed Sarava's Dancer. "Sarava has been a special horse to all of us," said Drake. "He has done his job well on the track and in the breeding shed, and has earned a respectful retirement. We are pleased that Michael [Blowen] and the Old Friends staff will be caring for him. They do a marvelous job with their retired stallions."

She followed that effort with back-to-back graded placings in the GIII Providencia S. going 1 1/8 miles Apr. 7, and the GIII Senorita S. over a mile May 5. She earned her first stakes victory in the Manhattan Beach H. at Betfair Hollywood Park June 9 before finishing fourth to Eden's Moon (Malibu Moon) in the GII San Clemente H. at Del Mar July 22. Byrama was again fourth in the Sandy Blue H. over the same strip Aug. 17, and prepped for this event with a second-place finish to Reneesgotzip (City Zip) in her first try against older fillies and mares in the CERF S. Sept. 5. Sent off as the co-favorite here, Byrama chased a hot pace from midpack early. ## 2.10 Curragh, Mdn, €16,500, 2yo, f, 7fT

HANKY PANKY (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}), who is a half-sister to Giant's Causeway (Storm Cat), gets a second chance to shed maiden status for the Ballydoyle operation following a debut fourth over course and distance in June. Michael Tabor's colorbearer faces a cast of 14, which features Lady O'Reilly's Rebel Force (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), a daughter of the 2002 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup victress Rebelline (Ire) (Robellino), and thus a half-sister to Recharge (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), who was runner-up in that contest two years ago. Other well-related contenders include Tommy Stack trainee Wannabe Better (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}), who is an untried 3/4-sister to the 1998 G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Wannabe Grand (Ire) (Danehill); and Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's homebred Salhooada (Ire) (Nayef), who is a once-raced daughter of the 2000 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third Alshakr (GB) (Bahri), from the in-form Dermot Weld stable.

Bronze Angel took a mile handicap at Doncaster May 19 and owed his place as the second favorite for this historic cavalry charge to an eye-catching third from an unhelpful draw in the Britannia H. at Royal Ascot last time June 21. Rested since then, the bay raced towards the rear of the smallest central group through the early strides and was asked to close passing the three-furlong marker. Veering right across the wide expanse of the Rowley Mile as William Buick brought his whip to bear at the eighth pole, the winner straightened up with sufficient ground remaining to thrust his head in front in the final strides. "This is a real tough race to win, and I thought that I had a good chance this morning, but it's very hard with so many runners," his rider explained. Cont. p8

“They split into three groups, and I stayed where I was, but there weren’t many horses there, and I was lucky that they took me far enough because he doesn’t like to be in front too soon. He’s won really well--he was looking for a bit of company at the end, and I wanted him to race against something. He’s got a big future.” Video, courtesy Racing UK.

LIVERY (IRE) (c, 3, Hurricane Run {Ire}--Cause Celebre {Ire}, by Peintre Celebre) finished third in a Sandown maiden on debut June 7, and tracked the early gallop in third. Nudged to the front at the top of the lane, the 70,000gns TATOCT yearling easily justified 1-4 favoritism by nine lengths from Humungosaur (GB) (Red Ransom). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, £5,704. ENNISTOWN (GB) (c, 2, Authorized {Ire}--Saoirse Abu {MG1SW-Ire & MG1SP-Eng, $687,452}, by Mr. Greeley), who looked a tricky conveyance when sixth in a similar race at Doncaster Sept. 13, was a little keen in mid-division initially. Taking it up going well at the quarter pole, the 11-8 chalk was punched out to win by four easy lengths from Khelac (GB) (Kheleyf).

Ennistown is the first foal from his top-shelf dam, heroine of the G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Phoenix S. as a juvenile in 2007. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, £3,235. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Pushed into a narrow lead after the quarter pole, the 13-2 shot was ridden to assert by 2 1/4 lengths from Northern Star (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). The victress is the first foal from the 2006 G1 Yorkshire Oaks third Trick or Treat. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £3,235. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

APPOINTMENTS

Michael Hardy

- Appointed Farm Manager of Margaux Farm
- Graduated from Darley Flying Start in July.
- Graduated with honors from the University of Limerick in Ireland, and from the Irish National Stud course in 2009, where he received the gold medal.
- "Michael brings a unique international perspective to our operation," said Steve Johnson, Margaux's general manager. "With the revitalized direction we are going with our breeding and training programs, Michael's horse experience and his business acumen will be a huge attribute to Margaux Farm."
