SHANGHAI BOBBY remains undefeated in the Champagne S. (G1).

WILLCOX INN runs 2nd to WISE DAN in the Shadwell Turf Mile (G1).

THE BEST IS YET TO COME.

PLETCHER PUTS UP ACES AT BELMONT

Trainer Todd Pletcher saddled a pair of unbeaten juveniles to victory in Belmont's Grade I races Saturday afternoon, both of which were "Win and You're In" events for the Breeders' Cup.

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★
Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy) outbattled My Happy Face (Tiz Wonderful) to kick off the double in the GI Frizette S.

"We hope [to run in the Breeders' Cup]; we were looking at today as a prep, so we hope she comes out of it well," Pletcher said afterwards. Thirty minutes later, Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday) maintained his flawless record with a sharp GI Foxwoods Champagne S. victory. "That was fun!" enthused Jack Wolf of owner Starlight Racing.

"When I saw we drew the two [post] I wasn't too excited, especially with the speed inside, but it actually worked out well for us. You could [have made] a case for any of the horses in here, and I'm very proud of the way he performed against this bunch. We'll talk to Todd [about the Breeders' Cup] and see how the horse comes out." Cont. p7-8

MAKE THAT A DOUBLE

Trainer Mike Maker had a Grade I double of his own. Bluegrass Equine Bloodstock's Joha (Johar) led the field on a merry chase in the GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland to start the festivities. That colt was 8-1, but new stablemate King David (Hat Trick {Jpn}) lit up the toteboard at 28-1 a little while later in the GI Jamaica H. at Belmont. Rider Rosie Napravni piloted Shanghai Bobby in the Champagne, and booted King David home as well. "I was on a private plane with Ramon [Dominguez] to New York last night," said Napravnik. "He had ridden the horse before and had won on him, and we were just talking about the race he was running in. I said, 'You know what? Mike does this all the time. He's very good at turning it around, turning horses over, and doing a great job with them, especially on the turf.'" Cont. p10

DAN'S STILL THE MAN

Morton Fink's Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) is Santa Anita-bound after taking the GI Shadwell Turf Mile at Keeneland yesterday, but his exact target has yet to be decided. Cont. p6

THE FRANKIE FACTOR

There was a sense of inevitability when Frankie Dettori was handed the spare ride of the season on Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), and a flying dismount after today's G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe would be a dream end to an unusually average year for the famed Italian. The record of the 3-year-old generation in this Longchamp feature speaks for itself, and G1 Epsom Derby winners to have come here and triumphed in recent times include Sinndar (Ire), Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Workforce (GB) (King's Best), while Frankie's first of his three Arcs came on the "Blue Riband" winner Lammtarra 17 years ago. If he is able to guide Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's talented and much-vaunted colt to the post first, he will also equal the joint-record of four winning rides held by Jacques Doyasbere, Freddy Head, Yves Saint-Martin and Pat Eddery. Trainer Aidan O'Brien was unequivocal in his praise for the rider at Dundalk on Friday evening. "We're delighted to have got a great rider like Frankie--as everybody knows, he has all the experience in the world," O'Brien said. Dettori was in New York to ride yesterday, but was luckless in three Belmont mounts. Arc coverage cont. p3-5

MUTIN TOPS ARC SALE

Arqana.com

Arqana's Arc Horses-In-Training Sale was highlighted by the sale of the unbeaten Haras du Quesnay homebred 2-year-old colt Mutin (Fr) (Kentucky Dynamite) to de Burgh Equine for €700,000. "He is for an established client," William de Burgh told Racing Post. "I am really impressed by him. He will make a lovely 3-year-old and, hopefully, a French Derby prospect."

More Sophomores...

If trends are to be trusted, Pascal Treyve and Jean-Pierre Gauvin's Saonois (Fr) (Chichicastenango {Fr}) should be favorite, as he has charted the proven path of G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G2 Prix Niel with an aplomb that belies his humble background. In the June 3 Chantilly Classic, the diminutive bay was best equipped to handle the rough-house environment, and again in his Sept. 16 course-and-distance prep he showed an ability to nip between narrow gaps. Fifteen of the last 18 winners were 3-year-olds, and another sophomore with less obvious claims, but who could feature, is Godolphin's Masterstroke (Monsun {Ger}), who emerged late on this scene when winning the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville over 1 9/16 miles Aug. 26. Andre Fabre, who also saddles the Rothschild Family's triple Group 1 scorer Meandre (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}), has a record seven renewals in the bag already, and six were from the younger brigade. Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented, "Masterstroke has enjoyed a good preparation and soft ground will suit him well--the softer the better for him. He is an improving 3-year-old colt who has progressed very well throughout the season. He has been extremely consistent, and we hope that he can continue to go forward. Masterstroke is drawn in stall 17, which is not great, but he is in sparkling form."

Sea Change...

Workforce gave Sir Michael Stoute a belated first victory in this race two years ago and a fourth for Khalid Abdullah as that owner-breeder creeps ever closer to the record of six set by Marcel Boussac. They combine this year with Sea Moon (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}), who remains unexposed and lightly raced, and who showed when recording an impressive success in last year's G2 Great Voltigeur S. that he relishes ease in the ground. Second to St Nicholas Abbey on a surface that was too quick at Churchill Downs, the homebred looked to be coming of age when running away with the G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot June 23 before failing to get involved when fifth in the King George. Jockey Ryan Moore said on his betfair blog, "Longchamp is clay-based, and when it rains there, it can get very testing, and that would be a concern for Camelot supporters, as he wasn't overly impressive in the Irish Derby. The draw is an obvious negative for Sea Moon, but if it remains soft that is an obvious positive. He goes on any ground, but is most effective with plenty of cut. Very impressive in the Hardwicke, the race didn't unfold the way I would have liked for us in the King George last time, and I had to come from too far back. He has to improve to win this if the principals run to their best, and that draw has to dampen the enthusiasm as well. But he is not a horse to dismiss lightly." Cont. p5

Frizette Stakes (G1), etc.
Eclipse Champion

GI Champagne (BEL) Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday) earns Grade I glory.

GI Frizette (BEL) Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy) holds on in a thriller, remains unbeaten.

GI Shadwell Turf Mile (KEE) Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) records back-to-back Grade I's.

GI First Lady (KEE) Tapitsfly (Tapit) overcomes wide trip to earn second Grade I victory.

GI Breeders' Futurity (KEE) Joha (Johar) springs at upset, earns Grade I victory.

GI Jamaica (BEL) King David (Hat Trick {Jpn}) earns a Grade I win off the claim.

GI SA Sprint Championship Coil (Point Given) uses a big late run to earn Breeders' Cup berth.

3rd-BEL (Msw) Darwin (Big Brown), the $1.3-million FTFFEB topper, is tabbed a TDN Rising Star.

O'Brien also has St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) to fall back on should Camelot fail to make the expected impact against his elders, and that triple Group 1 scorer has much to commend him. Prominently ridden when fifth here 12 months ago, the 5-year-old has since won the GI Breeders' Cup Turf, a second renewal of the G1 Coronation Cup and finished placed in a raft of top events including the Mar. 31 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic, July 21 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S., Aug. 22 G1 Juddmonte International and Sept. 8 G1 Irish Champion S. By a twist of fate, none of those who finished in front of him in those races reoppose here so he brings leading formlines to the table. "His preparation has gone brilliantly all year, even though he hasn't been winning," the Ballydoyle conditioner added. "We think he'll love going back to a mile and a half, and Joseph has been looking forward to this race since he rode him in it last year. Everything has gone well, and nobody knows him better. We have a couple of horses to bowl along and there is a Japanese pacemaker in there as well, so hopefully it will be a nice, evenly run race, and everybody gets a fair shot at it."

The Bridesmaid Returns...

Second last year when the fillies dominated, His Highness The Aga Khan's Shareta (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) is back again without the weight-for-age concession, but has improved from three to four. After outbattling The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the Aug. 23 G1 Yorkshire Oaks, she produced the most impressive of the three Arc trial performances when adding the G1 Prix Vermeille to her tally over this track and trip last time Sept. 16. Jockey Christophe Lemaire is hoping her natural progression will make her a leading player once more. "I think she has matured and has some extra power compared to last year," he said. "She really impressed me in the Vermeille, and when I asked her in the stretch she reacted very well. She is better on good ground and can express herself very well on it, so she will not accelerate as well on soft, but I won't be worried except if the ground is very deep."

Wise Dan confirmed his status as the finest miler in the nation--and possibly the best horse in training--with his second consecutive top-level tally. The chestnut took the overland route with Jose Lezcano subbing for regular rider John Velazquez. Pacesetter Silver Max (Badge of Silver) packed it in at the top of the stretch, and Wise Dan made a five-wide move to take over. Lezcano rode him a bit aggressively in the final furlong, but the result was never really in doubt. Morton Fink's homebred will now head to Santa Anita, though it remains to be seen whether he targets the GI Breeders' Cup Mile or the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. "We'll lean toward the Mile, but we won't rule out the Classic," said winning trainer Charles Lopresti. "Listening to everybody talk, I think he deserves to run in the Classic. I'm a little worried about Santa Anita. It's the same kind of speed-oriented track, but it's a little deeper and looser. I don't know if he'll handle that. I know he'll handle the turf. We'll talk about it. We've got some options anyway." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. NOT JUST FUN BOBBY

Starlight Racing's Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday) maintained his unbeaten record with perhaps his most impressive effort to date. Rider Rosie Napravnik settled the favorite in a perfect spot in second as California shipper Goldencents (Into Mischief) cut out a :23.55 opening quarter. He ranged up to challenge as they passed the half-mile pole in :47.45, and opened up down the lane. "He was taking me to the lead before I wanted to go, but he was full of it and did it as easy as could be," Napravnik offered. "He's just gotten better and more mature with every start, and I think he's just going to continue to grow and exceed our expectations." Shanghai Bobby already secured a spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile by virtue of his GII Three Chimneys Hopeful S., and earned some more towards his cross-country plane fare with this "Win and You're In" contest.

Shanghai Bobby, freshened up after a successful bow at Aqueduct Apr. 19, picked up where he left off by wiring the 5 1/2-furlong Track Barron S. at Belmont June 27. He completed his tour of NYRA tracks by reporting home sharply in the GII Three Chimneys Hopeful S. at Saratoga on Labor Day, and was favored in this competitive affair. (Click here for a Sept. 8 feature on Shanghai Bobby's breeders).

Winning trainer Todd Pletcher also had sharp maiden winners Archwarrior (Arch) and Micromanage (Medaglia d'Oro) in the field, and said that both colts showed their inexperience. "[They] ran like horses who had only one start," he explained. "Archwarrior got stuck down inside, a position he's never been in. He got some dirt and just sort of ran evenly down the backside. I thought he showed some interest late when he got in the clear. Micromanage needed to do a little more. He was a little bit wide around the turn, and I think we learned a little something about the way he needs to be ridden; we probably need to place him in the race a little more. The one thing we felt Shanghai Bobby had going for him coming into the race was seasoning. Those three starts, sometimes, are really important."

The start here was delayed significantly when Roveing Patrol (Nacheezmo) flipped in the gate, and Sweet Shirley Mae (Broken Vow) was also a late scratch. That led to just a four-horse field with all show wagers refunded, and it developed into two separate races, with ★ "TDN Rising Stars" ★ My Happy Face and Dreaming of Julia separating themselves from the others. My Happy Face, coming off a 21 1/4-length maiden win at Saratoga Aug. 31, secured the slight advantage down the backstretch. She was shadowed by Dreaming of Julia, who added to her growing reputation with a 16 1/4-length win in the Meadow Star S. over this track and trip Sept. 9. The 1-9 chalk ranged up turning for home and looked to be on her way to certain victory, but My Happy Face dug in grimly on the fence and made the favorite work for it. "With the track starting to dry out a little bit and with the long wait [at the starting gate], it was demanding," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "I think with the scratches, on paper, it turned into a virtual match race. In most match races, the speed horse has the edge, so we had to kind of take it to her a little bit."

Tapitsfly, the 2009 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf heroine, belatedly earned her first graded stakes victory earlier this year in the GIII Honey Fox H. at Gulfstream. Third to Daisy Devine over this course in the GI Jenny Wiley S. in April, the nearly white mare showed a clean pair of heels to her rivals to annex the GI Just a Game S. on the GI Belmont S. undercard June 9. She could only manage fourth to Winter Memories (El Prado {Ire}) in the GI Diana H. at Saratoga July 28, and never got involved when fading to sixth in the GII Ballston Spa H. over that same sod Aug. 25. Tapitsfly has done her best running when forwardly placed, but was content to settle in fourth as Summer Soiree (War Front) showed the way from Daisy Devine. Revved up by jockey Jose Lezcano on the far turn, the 5-year-old came six wide to challenge Daisy Devine, and finally got the better of her in the final strides. "She's probably going to retire at the end of this year," said winning trainer Dale Romans. "She's going to have one or two more starts left, so we've got to pick some place that's going to count. The Breeders' Cup is tough because for the fillies, she has to run so far [1 1/4 miles in the GI BC F/Mare Turf], unless we decide to put her in against the colts [in the GI BC Mile]. But we've done sillier things."

King David continued his improvement and slayed the giant known as 8-5 favorite Dullahan (Even the Score) here. The dark bay paired up $25,000 claiming wins at Arlington for owner/trainer Larry Rivelli and added another score at that level at Saratoga Aug. 13. He was claimed out of that victory by owner Danny Gargan and trainer Nick Canani. Upped to $35,000 over this course Sept. 13, he pressed the pace and was halted by his current connections. He utilized the same tactics this time as well as fellow longshot King Kreesa put up splits of :52.29 and 1:18.15 over the rain-softened ground. Dullahan, a two-time Grade I winner on Polytrack this season, was spinning his wheels on the turn. Second-choice Summer Front attempted to sneak up the fence in the lane, but wasn't quite willing to do so, and King David continued on strongly on the outside to cap a big day for both rider Rosie Napravnik and trainer Mike Maker. Napravnik came through on Shanghai Bobby one race earlier in the GI Foxwoods Champagne S., while Maker was at Keeneland to saddle Joha (Johar) to a mild upset in the GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity. "Mike saw this horse at Saratoga, and lost a shake [to claim him] there, so he claimed him at Belmont," explained assistant trainer Pearl Hagadorn. "He looks for an athlete that he thinks can improve with his program, and he's brilliant at it."

After a pair of on-the-board finishes going 4 1/2 furlongs here in the spring, Joha broke through with a 2 3/4-length graduation over the Belmont sod May 24. He followed that up with a tight score going six panels over the Woodbine Polytrack in the July 14 Colin S., and was run down last time in the shadow of the wire by today's Gill Bourbon S. contender Balance the Books (Lemon Drop Kid) in Saratoga's grassy GII With Anticipation S. at this distance Aug. 30. His connections also had him cross-entered in the Bourbon, but the more aggressive spotting paid off handsomely. Nudged to the lead and glued to the rail on the first turn, the homebred controlled things on the front end through six panels in 1:12.86. He was still going strong at the top of the lane and was always doing enough to keep a green Dynamic Sky at bay. "I got the lead and I got to slow it down going down the backstretch," said winning pilot Rajiv Maragh. "He had a lot in the tank. He just kept on fighting when they came to him. He had a lot of power today." Joha's dam Mujado was purchased for $8,300 by trainer Chuck Simon for BEC Bloodstock at the 2008 Keeneland January Sale while carrying a full-sister to Joha. Coil couldn't hold off stablemate Capital Account last out in the seven-furlong GII Pat O'Brien H. at Del Mar Aug. 26, but got first run on him here to provide an exacta for trainer Bob Baffert. After winning the GI Haskell Invitational last summer, the chestnut was a desultory 10th in the GI Travers S., but redeemed himself with a third in the GI Goodwood S. at Santa Anita, though he wouldn't face the starter for a long time thereafter. The Pegram/Watson/Weitman colorbearer looked sharp in his return, an optional claimer at Del Mar July 26, and acquitted himself well four weeks later. With blinkers added this time, Coil settled well off the early pace contested by Castletown (Orientate) and Reneesgotzip (City Zip). Taken four wide on the turn, he surged past defending champion Amazombie (Northern Afleet), and stayed on determinedly for his second career Grade I score. Amazombie flattened out a bit to wind up fourth. "I'm sure [trainer] Bill [Spawr] didn't have him screwed down exactly as tight as he wanted for this one," said rider Mike Smith. "You'd certainly like to win, but with these types of horses you're talking about the first two finishers probably being one of the favorites going to the Breeders' Cup. It's a tough race and we knew it was going to be tough going in. In saying that, the important thing was to get a good race in him and move forward."

Groupie Doll looked like an overwhelming favorite on paper, and ran to the billing. The GI Vinery Madison S.

and GI Humana Distaff heroine returned from a summer vacation to land the GII Presque Isle Downs Masters S. Sept. 8, and restated her GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint claims emphatically here. Jockey Rajiv Maragh allowed his mount to settle into stride several lengths from the front as Honey Chile showed the way. The heavy chalk was full of run and in need of room turning for home, and she found a seam in the two path at the top of the stretch. That was pretty much it for the others as Maragh rode his mount out

Pool Play, upset winner of the 2011 GI Stephen Foster H., had faced the starter only three times since streaking under the Twin Spires with his career high, including a fourth-place finish in Woodbine's GIII Seagram Cup S. Pool Play was in no hurry early, trailing the field of six through a half mile in :49.40. Pool Play came into the picture as they straightened for home while widest of all and kept on coming in the stretch to pull off the upset. "After the Stephen Foster we were thinking of big things for this horse--Breeders' Cup Classic or something--and then he got hurt," jockey Miguel Mena told Daily Racing Form. "He felt 10 times better on dirt. From the three-eighths pole to the finish, he was fantastic."

Neck 'n Neck remained on the edges in graded stakes tries leading up to the GI Kentucky Derby, but put it all together when he romped home a 6 1/2-length victor in a Churchill allowance May 10. He followed that up with an equally emphatic score in the GIII Matt Winn S. back under the Twin Spires June 16, but couldn't down subsequent GI Travers S. winner Alpha (Bernardini) when second in the sloppy GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga July 28. The homebred was looking to bounce back from a rough-trip sixth in the Aug. 25 "Midsummer Derby," and bounce back he did. Content to caboose the field early as Fed Biz dueled on the lead, Neck 'n Neck rapidly picked off horses on the far turn, but had to spin seven wide for clear sailing at the top of the lane. He continued his relentless advance to blow past Fed Biz at the sixteenth pole, and held off late-running Millionaire Grace Hall got back on track in a big way following a head-scratching fifth-place finish as the even-money favorite in the GI Alabama S. Aug. 18. Backed as the chalk, the bay stayed in hot pursuit on the outside of Eden's Moon through fractions of :23.67 and :47.31. With Brian Hernandez Jr. filling in to ride for Ramon Dominguez, the GII Gulfstream/Delaware Oaks heroine gained command while under a hand ride on the turn for home and showed her class down the Hoosier Park stretch. "I was just a passenger, she did it all on her own and very effortlessly," Hernandez told Daily Racing Form. "I felt kind of bad, I used the whip once to make sure her mind was on business, and she took off again. She is some kind of filly."

Obviously, a two-time winner in his native Ireland for conditioner Peter Fahey, has been unbeatable since stretching to a mile. Second in Betfair Hollywood Park's six-furlong Robert K. Bridgetown, benched after taking the Troy S. at Saratoga last summer, kicked off 2012 with a narrow defeat in the GIII Turf Sprint S. at Churchill on the GI Kentucky Derby undercard. Second again in the Parx Dash H. Jun 17, the chestnut rounded out the trifecta in the Willard Straight S. at Saratoga July 21, and found his best form in time for a successful title defense in this year's Troy Aug. 15. He was odds-on here, and came through for his many backers. After skimming the rail in the early stages, Bridgetown shifted off the fence entering the stretch. He took aim at early leader Great Mills in the lane and, confidently handled by Javier Castellano, asserted his superiority late.

Spring Venture continued a banner weekend for her freshman sire (by Silver Deputy) and made a successful shift to Polytrack here. After a handy score in her career bow on the Woodbine weeds

Aug. 18, the chestnut dismissed the late bid of stablemate Spring in the Air (Spring At Last) over the same course in the GII Natalma S. Sept. 15, which was a "Win and You're In"

event for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. That effort looked even better when Spring in the Air made a winning foray for the GI Darley Alcibiades S. Friday at Keeneland, and the prohibitive chalk settled into a spot just off the leaders. She made her move entering the stretch and, though it took her a few strides to hit her best stride, had enough in the tank to lead home a Spring At Last exacta. "Everybody's looking forward to the Breeders' Cup," said winning rider Patrick Husbands, who was also in the irons on Spring in the Air the day before. "I tried to give her an easy, easy race. She was so relaxed, but at the half-mile pole, I squeezed her a little bit and she eased off. At the top of the lane, I got busy and she just got rolling again. It's a great feeling to sit on these good horses. All you can do is smile. Both of them are two good fillies--I'm only the pilot. I'll leave it to Mark Casse to say who is the better one."

Dalkala looked a true Classic prospect when romping away with the G3 Prix Cleopatre over 1 5/16 miles at Saint-Cloud May 15, but was only fifth in the G1 Prix de Diane over that trip at Chantilly June 17. Returning from a subsequent break to be third in the G2 Prix de Pomone over this distance at Deauville last time Aug. 11, the bay suggested on the last occasion that she may be more of a stayer than connections initially believed, and proved that with a determined display from the front. Setting a moderate pace early under Christophe Lemaire, the homebred hung tough when Shirocco Star delivered a strong challenge late to provide His Highness The Aga Khan with a record sixth renewal. "She is a lovely filly who certainly has a love for this type of ground," her owner/breeder said. "She was given a perfect ride from Christophe, who was always a top jockey, but who has been riding with even more confidence since we renewed his contract. Of course, the trainer also has to take his share of the credit, and I am only an observer. She could possibly run again this season, maybe back here in the [Oct. 28] G1 Prix Royal-Oak, but I will discuss it with the trainer and nothing is decided yet." Dalkala hails from the Aga Khan family that produced top-flight runners Daylami (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}) and Dalakhani (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}).

spread eagling the field assembled for his warm-up for a clash with Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) at Ascot in two weeks' time. Much has been written and spoken about his disqualification from second after testing positive for a prohibited substance in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan here May 27, but the evergreen put all the disputes and contention firmly behind him here with a display that suggests he is at least as good as ever. Tanking along early while keeping tabs on the reasonable pace set by the perennial front-runner Don Bosco (Fr) (Baratheia {Ire}), he cruised to the front three out and was sent clear by Olivier Peslier soon after. Crossing the line under wraps, as he had done when annexing the Apr. 29 G1 Prix Ganay, the triple Group 1 winner reduced his trainer Corine Barande-Barbe to tears. "After all we've been through, with disqualification and the setback that ruled him out of the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, it's so nice to see him back on top of his game," she said. "Olivier said he wanted to take off earlier, but he waited longer as he wasn't at 100% today. I don't even know if he's done enough there to get to that, but he will be spot-on for the G1 Champion S., and that's where he's going next."

Canticum was nosed out by Only a Pleasure (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the Listed Prix Michel Houyvet over this trip at Deauville Aug. 15 and lost by just a neck when second behind Verema (Fr) (Baratheia {Ire}) in the G3 Prix de Lutece over this course and distance last time Sept. 9. Racing in third early as Les Beaufs eventually carved out a clear advantage, the homebred needed every ounce of his inherent stamina to reel in that enterprisingly ridden longshot, but delivered for Gregory Benoist to lead in the final yards and register a first black-type success. "He's a fighter who has improved with every run, but who was beaten on his last two runs due to a lack of pace," trainer David Smaga commented. "This time, he was able to get into more of a rhythm and he could be one for the [Oct. 28] G1 Prix Royal-Oak, but we'll see how he comes out of this. He will be a nice Cup horse for next season." and 10th in the G3 Prix Perth at Saint-Cloud at the end of October. Back there on his seasonal bow with a fourth in the Apr. 1 G3 Prix Edmond Blanc, the grey returned on a third occasion to scoop the first prize in the G2 Prix du Muguet before finishing fourth in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan here May 27. Sixth when last seen in the G3 Prix du Chemin de Fer du Nord at Chantilly June 17, he relished this tres souple ground to return to winning ways in a below-average renewal. Settled in third early against the fence, he was shuffled back before the top of the stretch, and after finding a gap wore down the outsider Dux Scholar in the final 50 yards for an ultimately comfortable score. "I have always said that the ground is the key factor with him, and when it's suitable he is a very nice horse," trainer Michel Mace said. "This was not a surprise, and we'll see how he comes out of this before deciding plans."

Mince earned this step up in class by easily winning the Listed Flying Fillies' S. at Pontefract Aug. 19, and by breaking the track record in the Sept. 9 Listed Garrowby S. at York last time. The homebred chestnut, who also broke the course-and-distance track record at the Aug. 11 Shergar Cup meet, headed up the main group towards the stands' side here. Joined by Soul as that wide-running rival looked for company at the two-furlong marker, she was a half a length down soon after, but clawed her way back to the front with 75 yards remaining following a bitter tussle with that Australian import. "Her improvement continues and she was so tough there," commented winning rider James Doyle. "I tried to keep her in a rhythm and not ask too many questions on that ground, but Soul edged ahead of me and I had to ask her to quicken. At first, I thought we were snookered, but she picked up well. She was so tough and won in spite of the ground. She dug deep."

Bungle Inthejungle announced himself as a top sprinting juvenile when he scorched the grass to win the G3 Molecomb S. over this trip at Goodwood July 31 before coming off worst in an argument with the starting stalls when fifth in the G1 Phoenix S. over an extra panel at The Curragh Aug. 12. Back to form when only relegated to second close home by Sir Prancealot (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) in the G2 Flying Childers S. again over this trip at Doncaster Sept. 14, he was sent to the front out of the gates to maximise his raw speed before being asked for his effort with a furlong to race. All out as Garswood ate into his lead in the final strides, he dug in to belie connections' concerns about the testing conditions. "I came here worried about the ground, thinking that on good ground he wouldn't be beaten," jockey Martin Harley commented. "I was happy at halfway, as he traveled well. At The Curragh, on this ground, I didn't know what to make of him, but he hit his head on the gates there, so I put it down to that."

This renewal was seriously weakened by the withdrawal of the only unexposed contender Starboard (GB) (Zamindar) due to the soft ground, and it was left to the uncomplicated Hawaafez to reap dividends. Starting off this year's campaign with a first black-type success in the Listed Aston Park S. over an extended 13-furlong trip at Newbury May 19, the bay was fourth in Goodwood's G3 Lillie Langtry S. over 14 furlongs last time Aug. 2. Sent straight to the lead here by Johnny Murtagh, the homebred set an honest pace in the testing conditions, but still had plenty in reserve to kick on the final bend and soon opened up a sizeable advantage as Camborne darted left and then right in behind. With that rival failing to straighten, Hawaafez stayed true to the line to earn a vital Pattern-race success. "She's big and strong and went through the ground well," Murtagh said. "There is still a bit of improvement in her and she stayed on well and gave everything. When you ask them to go at the two-marker, that's what you need them to do--dig deep and stretch out and that's what she did." Connections are considering a tilt at the G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup at Ascot Oct. 20.

BACK AT THE TOP

After running into Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab) when second in the Aug. 19 G1 Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville last time, Izzi Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) has the ideal circumstances to register another success at the highest level in today's G1 Prix de l'Opera Longines at Longchamp. Previously, the Meon Valley homebred had won the G1 Pretty Polly S. on deep ground at The Curragh July 1 and finished a below-par sixth in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood Aug. 4, which remains the sole flop of her otherwise upwardly mobile career. "Team Clarehaven have produced Izzi Top to run for her life in the Prix de l'Opera, a race that's over her ideal trip of 10 furlongs," jockey William Buick commented. "Just as important, she's very effective with plenty of give in the ground, and she's got a nice draw in five. Her only disappointing run this season was on the turns at Goodwood, and she showed before and after that just how good she is. She won the G1 Pretty Polly on very soft ground at the Curragh, and last time was only just nailed by Snow Fairy at Deauville, so there was no disgrace in that. She's had a nice break since, but I have plenty of respect for the 13 opponents, including Galikova and Giofra, who were behind us at Deauville."

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Galikova (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}) was one of the live contenders for Arc glory 12 months ago, but disappointed in the main event and has failed to fire on all starts so far this term. Third in the Prix Jean Romanet, Goldikova's half-sister was only fifth in the G1 Prix Vermeille over 12 furlongs at this venue last time Sept. 16 and needs a revival of the form that saw her win the latter event last term. Haras de la Perelle's Giofra (GB) (Dansili {GB}) took the G1 Falmouth S. over a mile at Newmarket July 13, but was sixth in the Romanet and has ground to make up with the above duo on that form. Another ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ is Ridasiyna (Fr) (Motivator {GB}), whose unbeaten run was ended when a disappointing fifth in the G2 Prix de la Nonette over this trip at Deauville Aug. 21, but she deserves another chance back on the easy ground which suits.

NO GUTS, NO GLORY

Heading into today's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp, Olympic Glory (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) would boast an unblemished record, but for a lone defeat by Europe's leading juvenile Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot June 19. He has since enhanced his reputation with scores in a heavy-ground G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket July 14, and on a sounder surface in the Aug. 1 G2 Vintage S. at Goodwood. So much so that Sheikh Joaan bin Hamad Al Thani has swooped to purchase him in a private deal from Julie Wood recently, and he will carry his new owner's silver-and-maroon silks in this return to rain-softened track conditions. "Olympic Glory has enjoyed a nice break since winning the Vintage at Goodwood, and he goes to France fresh and well," said veteran trainer Richard Hannon. "There is no such thing as a soft Group 1, but our fellow has some smart form, and he has as good a chance as any. The fact that he handled heavy ground at Newmarket also gives us encouragement." Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa Al Thani's colors will be aboard leading French distaffer What a Name (Ire) (Mr. Greeley), who gets the four-pound gender allowance against her male counterparts. She dished out a seven-length thrashing when shedding maiden status at Deauville Aug. 21, and lines up for her sternest examination to date coming off a win in the Sept. 9 G3 Prix La Rochette over course and distance. Runner-up Avantage (Fr) (Layman) reopposes, but is one pound worse off for a 1 3/4-length defeat. However, ground conditions are cause for worry for the filly's connections. "What a Name won very well at Longchamp on her last start and she is in good form, but the softer ground would be a concern," explained trainer Mikel Delzangles. Aidan O'Brien recorded an astonishing seven renewals between 1997 and 2006, but has failed to saddle a winner since. He is doubly represented with Pedro the Great (Henrythenavigator) and George Vancouver (Henrythenavigator) this time. Pedro the Great, the choice of Joseph O'Brien, returns off an impressive win on soft ground in the Aug. 12 G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh. George Vancouver comes back from a sixth in The Curragh's Sept. 9 G3 Round Tower S., having finished second in the Aug. 19 G1 Prix Morny at Deauville in his penultimate start.

COME WHAT MAY

Heavy ground provided no barrier to Mayson (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in his first try at Group 1 level in Newmarket's July 14 July Cup, and he sluiced through the mud at Headquarters to score by five lengths in that six-furlong test. His bid to follow up in the Sept. 8 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup was scuppered when returning a bad scope in the lead up to that Lancashire feature, but he has been freshened by a break and will attempt to register a 10th British-trained winner in the last 11 renewals of today's G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp. Trainer Richard Fahey is confident his star sprinter, set to break from the inside box, has returned to peak form as the 4-year-old seeks to maintain a 100% record in the top tier dropped back to five furlongs. "Mayson had a bad scope before the Sprint Cup, but he is in great order and we're delighted with him now," Fahey told Racing Post. "The fact he missed that race means he has had a nice break and goes to post without too much mileage on the clock. He has won a [G3] Palace House [S. at Newmarket] over five furlongs, so dropping back to that trip will not be a problem, and he's not ground dependent so that's not an issue." Newmarket conditioner Robert Cowell has earned a good reputation with sprinters, and has two barrels primed here. Spirit Quartz (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) accounted for all bar the Australian speedster Ortensia (Aus) (Testa Rossa {Aus}) in both the Aug. 3 G2 King George S. at Goodwood and the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York three weeks later, but is excused her presence this time. Stablemate Monsieur Joe (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) boasts solid form over this strip, having finished second in the May 13 G3 Prix de Saint-Georges, and lately when annexing the G3 Prix du Petit Couvert three weeks ago.

LOOKING FOR PURR-FECTION

In a perfect world, Purr Along (GB) (Mount Nelson {GB}) would be heading into today's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac with an unbeaten tally against her name, but the juvenile distaffer has been the victim of circumstance since opening her career with a stinging five-length score at Wolverhampton July 10. Quickly out after that debut, she was badly hampered when mounting her bid for the July 26 Listed Star S. at Sandown and crossed the line an unlucky third. Even in victory, all didn't go to plan when she saw too much daylight in the Aug. 18 G3 Prix du Calvados next time, but that Deauville test provided the perfect springboard for Elusive Kate (Elusive Quality) to win this contest last year. Her latest effort was another defeat, although mitigating factors could be offered in that she met with subsequent G1 Fillies' Mile victress Certify (Elusive Quality), going under by a head in the Sept. 14 G2 May Hill S. at Doncaster. That latest performance was enough to entice Sheikh Joaan bin Hamad Al Thani into purchasing a half share, and she will go postward carrying new silks. "All is well with Purr Along and we all know about her form," said trainer William Muir, who has yet to post a top-level score. "She shows no signs that she's had enough for the year and came out of Doncaster in great form. The ground is going to be the unknown. If it ends up heavy, it's going to be a question of who goes on it and we're not going to know until we run. She has a knee action, but then she has a very good turn of foot on fast ground, so we'll just have to see." Britain's other challenger is Jane Chapple-Hyam trainee Agent Allison (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}), who has not been seen since chasing home Newfangled (New Approach {Ire}) in the June 22 G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot. That effort came hot on the heels of a seven-length debut rout at Pontefract 10 days earlier. Aidan O'Brien has annexed two renewals, most recently with Misty For Me (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) two years ago. This time he sends forth another daughter of Galileo, Magical Dream (Ire), who backed up a fourth in the Sept. 9 G1 Moyglare Stud S. with a comfortable score in last week's G3 C L Weld Park S. back at The Curragh. The home team's defence is headed by the unbeaten Peace Burg (Fr) (Sageburg {Ire}), who accounted for three of today's rivals in the Sept. 11 G3 Prix d'Aumale at Chantilly last time.

LORDING IT OVER THEM

He has come from leftfield this season, but Gordon Lord Byron (Ire) (Byron {GB}) showed when second in the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup that he is an emerging force and he tackles today's G1 Qatar Prix de la Foret at Longchamp. Denied by 3/4 of a length by Society Rock (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) in that six-furlong championship event at Haydock Sept. 8, Morgan Cahalan's 4-year-old had previously won with authority over this trip in the Aug. 25 Listed City of York S. Whether Aidan O'Brien can get Starspangledbanner (Aus) (Choisir {Aus}) back to his prior best remains to be seen, but there was much encouragement to be taken from his latest second in The Curragh's G3 Renaissance S. over six furlongs when last seen Sept. 15, and he stayed a mile as a 3-year-old. In an open renewal with nothing of the caliber of last year's one-two Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) and Dream Ahead (Diktat {GB}), Middleham Park Racing's Penitent (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) is impossible to discount on his latest success in the G2 Joel S. over a mile at Newmarket Sept. 28. Of the home team, Blue Soave (Fr) (Soave {Ger}) warrants respect as the winner of the course-and-distance G3 Prix du Pin Sept. 9, where the re-opposing Kendam (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) and Sommerabend (GB) (Shamardal) were back in fourth and fifth, respectively.

TROOPING THE COLOUR

Royal Ascot's G1 Gold Cup hero Colour Vision (Fr) (Rainbow Quest) has enjoyed mixed fortunes since registering a career high in that June 21 event, and returns to the extreme 2 1/2-mile distance for today's G1 Prix du Cadran, which closes Longchamp's very own stamina-sapping Group 1 Arc card. Godolphin's 4-year-old subsequently ran third to Saddler's Rock (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in the Aug. 2 G2 Goodwood Cup, but could manage only seventh in the Sept. 14 G2 Doncaster Cup last time. Connections are hopeful winning form will return, and he will seek to become the operation's first winner of the marathon contest. "Colour Vision was a little disappointing at Doncaster, but he came out of that race sound and healthy," said trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "I expect the return to 2 1/2 miles to play to his strengths, and I am looking for a better run this time." Saddler's Rock, who was third to Colour Vision in the Gold Cup at the Royal meet, exacted revenge in style at Goodwood, but fared only slightly better than his old foe when fifth at Doncaster last time. However, trainer John Oxx knows what it takes to win this having succeeded with Alandi (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) three years ago. That short-head triumph came at the expense of Kasbah Bliss (Fr) (Kahyasi {Ire}), who finally managed to claim an elusive win last year after three consecutive renewals in the money. Francois Doumen's veteran representative will bid to become the first back-to-back winner since Westerner (GB) (Danehill) managed the feat in 2004. Gentoo (Fr) (Loup Solitaire)'s attempt to do so last year returned a sixth-place finish, and he has managed just one win in a dozen outings since following his 2010 success with victory in that season's G1 Prix Royal-Oak.

LINGERIE LOOKING TO SLIP HOME IN SPINSTER

Gary Barber and Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' In Lingerie (Empire Maker), perfect in two starts on Polytrack, will take on her elders this afternoon in the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. at Keeneland. The blaze-faced bay paired up wins in the GIII Bourbonette Oaks at Turfway and Pimlico's GII Black-Eyed Susan S., and comes here off a distant second to Questing (GB) (Hard Spun) in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga Aug. 18. A full field is on tap for this "Win and You're In" race, including defending champion Aruna (Mr. Greeley), who had a world of trouble last out in the GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington. "She stumbled at the start and it was basically game over, especially with those kind," said Dave Rock, assistant to trainer Graham Motion. "She came out of the race with some little nicks that were superficial, but did not miss any time." He added, "I think she is as good as ever. The field this year looks tough with a little more depth than last year." Mystical Star (Ghostzapper), an allowance winner over this track and trip in April, edged Aruna in the GII New York H. on the Belmont sod June 30. She too comes in from the Beverly D., finishing eighth after a wide trip.

A BALANCED BOURBON

Today's GIII Bourbon S. at Keeneland, a "Win and You're In" for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Santa Anita Nov. 3, features a full field of youngsters. Klaravich Stables and William Lawrence's Balance the Books (Lemon Drop Kid), who put in a stern rally to deny Joha (Johar)--Saturday's GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity upsetter--in the GII With Anticipation S. at Saratoga Aug. 30, scratched out of yesterday's marquee event in favor of this spot. Brown Almighty (Big Brown) tries the all-weather after making his first three starts on turf. After a successful debut at Arlington July 14, the chestnut annexed the Sunny's Halo S. at Louisiana Downs Aug. 4, and most recently ran second by a neck over the same course in the Sunday Silence S. Sept. 8.

CAN HE BE CAPTURED?

Fresh off a victory in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland yesterday with Spring in the Air (Spring at Last), owner John Oxley, trainer Mark Casse and jockey Patrick Husbands will team up again today with the heavily favored Uncaptured (Lion Heart) in the GIII Grey S. at Woodbine. Undefeated in four outings on the Woodbine Polytrack, the Ontario-bred broke his maiden May 13 before capturing the Clarendon S. June 30. He returned a month later to capture the Vandal S., and most recently took the Swynford S. by 3 1/4 lengths Sept. 9. The Grey marks a step up in distance for Uncaptured, and his pedigree suggests he should handle the 1 1/16-mile distance. He gives five pounds to his six rivals, which include Donver Stables' Tesseron (Tapit). He showed promise in his lone career start for trainer Josie Carroll, a victory going a mile and 70 yards over this track and trip Sept. 3. Second by a half-length that day was River Seven (Johannesburg), who previously finished third to Uncaptured in the Clarendon, and second in the Vandal. Cont. p23

SALES NEWS

MUTIN TOPS ARC SALE

Arqana's Arc Horses-In-Training Sale was highlighted by the sale of the unbeaten Haras du Quesnay homebred 2-year-old colt Mutin (Fr) (Kentucky Dynamite) to de Burgh Equine for €700,000 (US$960,911). Hip 20, who was one of the wild-card entries, is out of the Listed winner Mytographie (Fr) (Anabaa) and has looked smart for the Criquette Head-Maarek stable when winning at Chantilly in July and at Saint-Cloud in September.

"He is for an established client," William de Burgh told Racing Post. "I am really impressed by him. He will make a lovely 3-year-old and, hopefully, a French Derby prospect. It hasn't been decided if he'll stay in France."

Earlier in the session, the 2-year-old colt Cay Verde (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}), who was consigned by Mick Channon as hip 6, was snapped up by Howard Liang for €320,000. Winner of the Listed Marble Hill S. at The Curragh in May and third in both the G2 Richmond S. and G2 Gimcrack S., he was impressive when winning last month's G3 Prix d'Arenberg at Chantilly and was fourth in the G2 Mill Reef S. He will continue his racing career in Hong Kong, as will another Liang purchase, the €380,000 2-year-old colt Avantage (Fr) (Layman). Consigned by as hip 52, Pia Brandt's chestnut was runner-up to What a Name (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) in the G3 Prix la Rochette at Longchamp last month.

Brandt also sold hip 7, the dual listed-placed 4-year-old filly Street Secret (Street Cry {Ire}), whose page includes Urban Sea and all her great progeny, to Oceanic Bloodstock for €260,000. Rupert Pritchard-Gordon was active and paid €205,000 for hip 12, the Andre Fabre-consigned 3-year-old colt Amiens (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), who was fourth in the G3 Prix de Lutece at Longchamp last month and whose dam is a sister to Spain (Thunder Gulch). He later purchased the 3-year-old colt Prince Mag (Ire) (Zamindar) for €290,000. Consigned as hip 39 by Alain Couetil, he was most recently second to Starboard (GB) (Zamindar) in the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange at Longchamp. Anthony Stroud paid €310,000 for hip 46, this year's G3 Prix Edmond Blanc winner Moonwalk In Paris (Fr) (Oratorio {Ire}) from Jean-Claude Rouget's stable.

Two of the potential star turns among the broodmare prospects, Fabrice Vermeulen's G3 Prix Minerve winner Forces of Darkness (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) and last year's G1 Prix Royal-Oak runner-up Miss Lago (Ire) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}), were led out unsold at €670,000 and €620,000, respectively. Another not to sell was Francis-Henri Graffard's hip 44, the 2-year-old colt Pearl Flute (Ire) (Piccolo {GB}) who won the G3 Prix des Chenes at Longchamp a fortnight ago. Horse Mistakenly Given Drug on First Day of New Rule

Gregory A. Hall, The Courier-Journal

"A horse was mistakenly given an anti-bleeding drug at Keeneland Race Course on Friday, the first day a new state rule mandated that Kentucky Horse Racing Commission veterinarians administer the shots rather than private practitioners."

Monterey Downs Developers Say Complex Will Fill Numerous Voids Virginia Hennessey, Monterey County The Herald

"The track, envisioned as a Central Coast version of the Del Mar race track, would run three to four days a week mid-August through Thanksgiving weekend, taking the race schedule Golden Gate Fields in Berkeley begrudgingly accepted with the 2008 closure of Bay Meadows in San Mateo."

Keeneland's New President Off and Running

Terri Darr McLean, kyforward.com

"If you run into Bill Thomason at Keeneland, there are a couple of things you can bet on from the racetrack's new president: He will greet you with a warm smile, and if he doesn't already know you by name, it won't take him long to find out."

 Middie took his batting average over all-weather tracks to .750 in this likely springboard to the course-and-distance GII Fayette S. in three weeks' time. Winner of an off-turf allowance at this track last October, the gelding was third to subsequent GISW Fort Larned (E Dubai) in a sloppy second-level Churchill allowance the following month before calling it a season. Middie made his first six starts of this term on the grass, landing a May 20 test at Churchill ahead of a third in the June 9 Sea O' Erin S. at Arlington and a seventh in the West Virginia Speaker's Cup Aug. 4 at Mountaineer. The dark bay was dismissed at 14-1 for the GIII Washington Park H. over the Arlington Poly, but got a terrific ride from Francisco Torres and cleared off to score by 3 1/4 lengths in track-record time. Offered at inviting odds here, Middie tracked a slow pace set by Smart Bid from the inside for the opening seven furlongs. He found running room in upper stretch and accelerated past the front-runner for a good-looking success. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

TVG Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners's MISS LUCKY SEVENS (Big Brown) should take some beating considering she's already crossed the wire first in a maiden race. The Wayne Catalano trainee was a four-length winner at 11-1 in a similar spot at Arlington Sept. 15, but the race was declared no contest due to a rail malfunction that impeded several runners (video). The $50,000 KEESEP yearling is a half to Fancy Point (Point Given), a stakes-winning and graded stakes-placed juvenile, and MGSP El Commodore (El Prado {Ire}). Her second dam is French GSW and MG1SP Fabuleux Jane (Le Fabuleux {Fr}), responsible for Grade I-winning turfer Joyeux Danseur (Nureyev) and the dam of Arazi and Noverre. Brisnet.com PPs

 IEAH Stables purchased this first-crop son of their GI Kentucky Derby-winning sire for $220,000 out of the 2011 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale, and turned him over to Ciaran Dunne to be prepared for the winter's under-tack sales. The athletic bay colt breezed an eighth of a mile in :10 1/5 for this year's Fasig-Tipton Florida auction and was knocked down to Demi O'Byrne for a sales-topping bid of $1.3 million. He wasn't quite ready for the races at Saratoga, but knuckled down as of late and was sent off a prohibitive 7-10 favorite to give his freshman sire (by Boundary) his second debut winner of the afternoon and eighth overall. Quickly into stride, Darwin was allowed a fairly easy time of it up front, covering the opening couple of furlongs in :22.80 while pressured lightly by Transparent (Bernardini). He arrived at the quarter pole after a half in :45.85 and quickened up nicely to best longshot Retrieve (Put It Back) by two lengths. Transparent was a distant third. Darwin is a half-brother to Dagnabit (Freud), MSW, $243,938. Hurrican Ike tallied up four previous wins including the GIII Derby Trial in 2010. Most recently, he was sixth in the Presque Isle Mile Sept. 7 in his last start under the care of conditioner Jeffrey Thornbury. Making his first start since transferring to the barn of trainer Michael Stidham, the dark bay battled for the early lead and shook free in the stretch for the win. Merit Man belied his inexperience and debut odds of 20-1 to register a visually impressive 3/4-length victory over the Del Mar Poly Sept. 2 and was sent off the second favorite here behind 6-5 Scherer Magic (Doneraile Court), a last-out third in the GI Del Mar Futurity last time around. With the pace three wide to the far turn here, Merit Man ranged up to lead leaving the quarter pole and strode home nicely to remain undefeated. "He runs much better on the dirt and we knew that going to Del Mar [Polytrack]," stated winning trainer Bob Hess Jr. And what might be in store for the winner? A Jealous Woman completed the exacta in the American Beauty S. over this track and distance Apr. 7, then switched to the Cushion Track and could do no better than sixth of seven in the B. Thoughtful S. for Cal-breds Apr. 28. Sixth in the June 10 Redondo Beach S. at Hollypark, she made all the running and held on for a half-length allowance victory at Del Mar July 29, but never sniffed the lead in the restricted Solano Beach S. Aug. 19 and beat one home in eighth. Ridden positively this time by Brice Blanc, A Jealous Woman led them into the first turn and put a couple of lengths between herself and her rivals while cutting out fast fractions. She still held a comfortable advantage turning for home and stayed on gamely as Lady Ten whittled away at her advantage late. 🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 Winding Way will use today's L.A. Woman S. as a stepping stone to the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint Nov. 2 at Santa Anita. Undefeated in three starts, the 3-year-old Spendthrift color-bearer broke her maiden at Betfair Hollywood Park June 10 before airing by 7 1/4 lengths in a Del Mar optional claimer July 21. She returned a month later at the surfside oval to take the G3 Rancho Bernardo H., overcoming a very slow start and circling the field to get up in impressive fashion. The homebred, who missed some training after developing a foot abscess after her most recent win, will try dirt for the first time today. "My whole intention is to get a race over the track, and hope she takes to this as well as she takes to the synthetics," trainer Carla Gaines told Daily Racing Form.

Ghurair made an instant impact when scoring over this trip on the July Course, and the form of that July 13 maiden was boosted by the subsequent exploits of the third and fourth Dundonnell (First Defence) and Afonso de Sousa (Henrythenavigator) at group level. Only fifth when too green to his cause justice in the G2 Vintage S. at Goodwood Aug. 1, he was the subject of heavy support for this reintroduction and justified the gamble to beat some highly regarded types in a strong renewal of this prize. Keen early racing towards the fore, the bay cruised alongside Race and Status with three furlongs remaining and started to gain the upper hand over that rival running down into the "dip." Tackled in the final furlong by Havana Gold, he pulled out extra to assert in the run to the line. "We put him away [after the Vintage] and he's grown and filled out," trainer John Gosden said. "Sometimes these sales races can be a little bit false in terms of form, but I think this was solid, and I don't have many 2-year-olds at this stage I would be putting with him. Let's hope he is a horse for the Guineas here next year." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Continuing the remarkable success story of the Richard Hannon stable in valuable sales races, Victrix Ludorum came out on top in a second leg of the Tattersalls Millions series. After an inauspicious debut seventh in a Newbury maiden over six furlongs Aug. 18, she took the necessary step forward to land the £100,000 Tattersalls Millions Fillies' Median Auction S. over that trip here last time Sept. 22. Breaking smartly and soon prominent, the bay was soon at the fore and was not asked a question until the quarter pole. Stretching into a decisive advantage soon after, she was always comfortably holding Miss You Too at bay for an ultimately comfortable success. "It was a career-best performance for her, and she pulled out all the stops," owner Julie Wood said. "It was very different ground to what she experienced here two weeks ago, but she has done well on it. She is a straight-forward filly and you don't have to worry too much about her in a race. She has to be a 1000 Guineas horse for next year--now we can dream about it throughout the winter." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

BREMEN TO CLOSE

Bremen Racecourse has announced that it will be shut down for 2013 due to cash-flow issues. Blaming the high cost of maintenance, with the track needing a €150,000 investment, officials stated that the Oct. 21 fixture could be the last for the near future, if they are not granted a surplus meeting Nov. 25.
