RECORD-SETTING TATTS OPENER

Bidding wars between Sheikh Mohammed and John Magnier have been a rarity in recent years, but racing's two superpowers went head-to-head during the opening session of Tattersalls' October Sale over lot 161, a colt by Darley's exciting young sire Raven's Pass out of Galileo (Ire)'s first Group 1 winner, the Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Nighttime (Ire). Sheikh Mohammed came out best on the first-day topper, going to 800,000gns through his bloodstock advisor John Ferguson to secure the March-foaled chestnut colt, one of 13 yearlings he bought during the opening session for a total of 3,350,000gns. The combination of hefty spending sprees by Sheikh Mohammed and John Magnier, who purchased seven yearlings for 2,740,000gns, helped to push the day's aggregate to a record figure for a single day's trade at October Book 1 of 23,016,000gns. The previous high of 19.1 million gns was set in 2009.

With 139 of the 174 yearlings offered changing hands, the clearance rate fell two points to 80%, but the median was up by 10% on the corresponding session last year at 110,000gns, with the average also rising, by 9.5%, to 165,583 guineas.

Commenting on his most expensive purchase of the day, who was bred by Marguerite Weld and offered by The Castlebridge Consignment, Ferguson said, "Raven's Pass has done very well, and not only have we been delighted with [G2 Juddmonte Royal Lodge S. winner] Steeler, but there are lots in the pipeline coming through and showing all the right signs.

"On top of that, you have a breeder like Mrs. Weld, who has consistently produced top horses over the years and she must be congratulated for that. We've seen this horse at home and he has thrived and thrived over the summer. To have a Raven's Pass out of a Guineas winner from a top breeder, this just made sense--he's an outstanding individual."

Having ended the first day as leading buyer, Ferguson added, "Europe has a phenomenal team of young and proven stallions at the moment, so as a result you can have a book of this size and there is quality right the way through it."

California Dreamin' at Tatts

California-based owner Jon Kelly was shut out on several lots during Tuesday's opening day of bidding at Tattersalls, but ended up the successful bidder on a Sea The Stars (Ire) half-brother to champion Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley), who will be turned over to Luca Cumani in Newmarket. "That is a beautiful horse. He competes with every top colt I own," said Kelly, known best in the States for campaigning the likes of Borrego and Vacare.

Pinar Araci has become a familiar face at the sales alongside her father Ibrahim in recent years, investing in high-quality stock both for the racecourse and the breeding shed, including the Group 3 winner Native Khan (Fr) (Azamour {Ire}). ## Bernardini Filly Tops Saratoga Sale

Fasig-Tipton's inaugural Saratoga Fall Mixed Sale was held Tuesday, with Closing Move, a 3-year-old Bernardini filly, topping the proceedings courtesy of a $100,000 bid from trainer Tom Voss. All told, 119 head successfully changed hands for a gross of $1,933,600, while 82 were led out unsold. The average was $16,249 and the median was $12,000. "I thought it was good and competitive," said Boyd Browning, president of the auction house. "I think there was broad bidding, and it worked reasonably well for the first try"

Montjeu's Name Lives On...

He may be gone, but this sales season, the Coolmore team has certainly kept Montjeu's name in lights and, on the first day of Book 1, a colt by the late dual Derby and Arc winner led the early trade when selling for 700,000 guineas to Demi O'Byrne.

Consigned by Croom House Stud, whose three lots sold at the opening session recorded an average of 511,677gns, the March-foaled son of the Machiavellian mare Lucina (GB) (lot 88) hails from the family of Group 1 winners Luso (GB) and Warrsan (Ire).

O'Byrne also ensured that Newsells Park Stud's Montjeu colt out of the Linamix (Fr) mare Honorlina (Fr) (lot 18) will be heading towards Ballydoyle when seeing off Californian-based buyer Jon Kelly on a bid of 450,000gns.

One of the most eagerly anticipated lots on the first day was the first yearling out of Lord Derby's champion racemare Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) to be offered for sale, and the Galileo (Ire) colt (lot 172), a half-brother to the listed-placed Voodoo Prince, was another on Magnier's shopping list. Knocked down to O'Byrne for 525,000gns, he helped to boost Galileo's average for the day to 270,625gns for 16 yearlings sold. The most expensive among them was a daughter of the listed-winning Oasis Dream (GB) mare La Sylvia (Ire), who was knocked down to Grant Pritchard-Gordon of Badgers Bloodstock for 570,000gns.

Reluctant to reveal the identity of his client, Pritchard-Gordon said, "She's for one of Ed Dunlop's existing clients and I'm pretty sure she will go to Ed to be trained. He was particularly looking for a Galileo filly and this one was not only beautiful, but looked like she might be a bit earlier than some others. She's out of an Oasis Dream mare and we hope she might be out as a 2-year-old."

He added, "Galileo is the most outstanding stallion in the world--the best I've seen in my lifetime and even better than his sire. In my opinion we should be stockpiling his offspring. That's certainly what I say if clients ask."

Californian Dreaming of Classic Glory...

Jon Kelly, buying through Jamie McCalmont, was not deterred by several unsuccessful attempts early in the day to join the list of purchasers and was delighted to be the winning bidder on the Sea The Stars colt out of Musical Treat (lot 144) to the tune of 500,000gns--the top price achieved by the first-season stallion on the day. The half-brother to the dual Classic winner Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) will be trained in Newmarket by Luca Cumani, as will a colt by Galileo (Ire) out of the listed-winning Darshaan (GB) mare Moments Of Joy (GB) (lot 132), whom Kelly secured for 275,000gns. “That is a beautiful horse. He competes with every top colt I own,” Kelly said of the Sea the Stars colt. Pointing to his vet alongside him, he added, “The last horse he wanted me to buy happened to be named Camelot (Ire).”

Yearlings by Sea the Stars have attracted plenty of attention all season and nine of the 11 from his first crop offered--which averaged 277,778gns--found buyers, with Charlie Gordon-Watson being of the opinion that he had secured the best of them.

“This was the nicest of the Sea The Stars yearlings in the sale and the one who was most like him,” he said after bidding 475,000gns for lot 140, the half-brother to G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner Elusive Wave (Ire) (Elusive City) on behalf of owner/breeder Bjorn Nielsen. Describing the bay colt as “a fantastic individual,” Gordon-Watson confirmed that he is to be trained in Lambourn by David Lanigan, who is based at Nielsen’s Kingsdown Stables.

Shadwell Also to the Fore...

Sheikh Hamdan invested heavily at Keeneland’s September Sale and, along with his brother Sheikh Mohammed, he was present at Park Paddocks to oversee the purchase of three colts and a filly for 1.25 million gns. Top of the bunch was lot 84, a Teofilo (Ire) half-brother to Group 3 winner Dunboyne Express (Ire) (Shamardal) and to Race and Status (Ire) (Raven’s Pass), who has won and been placed since the catalogue was printed. Shadwell representative Angus Gold got the better of David Redvers, standing with Sheikh Fahad Al-Thani, to land the successful blow at 600,000gns for the Jockey Hall Stud-consigned colt. Cont. p6

Highclere Stud took up its customary position at the head of the vendors’ list, trading 11 yearlings in the first session for a sum of 2,228,000gns, with Jehan Malherbe’s Form Bloodstock signing for the top-priced lot from Lady Carolynn Warren’s consignment. The South African buyer paid 470,000gns for a Dubawi (Ire) colt out of Manoeuvre (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), whose half-sister Astrophysical Jet (GB) is also by Dubawi.

Norris Delighted with Teofilo Sale...

Just three days after his half-brother finished third in Saturday’s £500,000 Tattersalls Million 2yo Trophy sales race, Jockey Hall Stud’s Teofilo (Ire) colt proved just as popular in the sales ring, eventually being snapped up by Shadwell Estates. At 600,000gns, he became the most expensive yearling of his sire sold at auction.

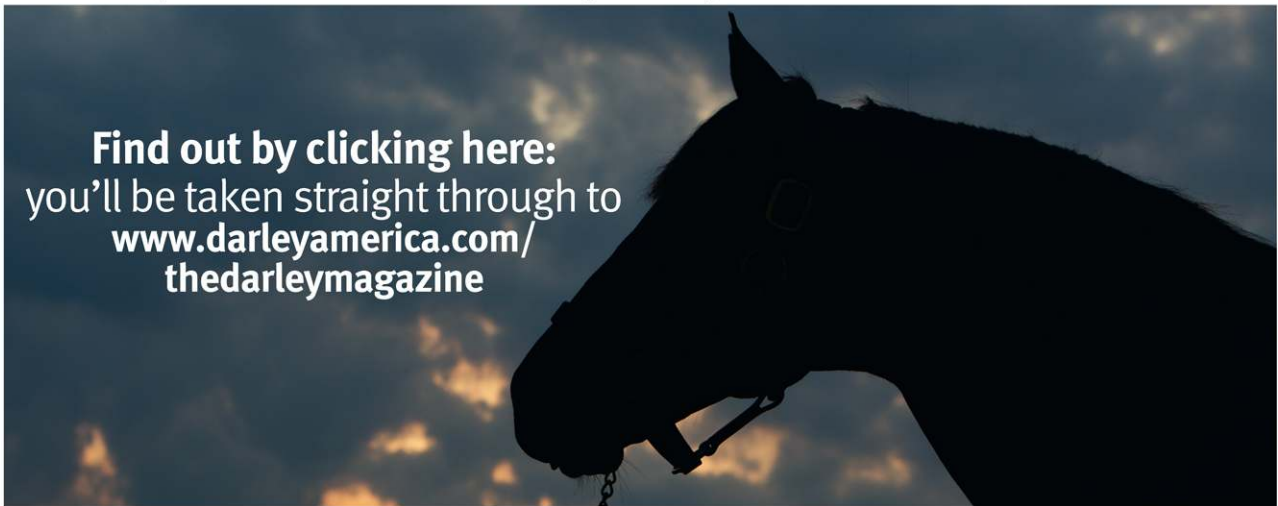

The March foal was offered on behalf of the County Westmeath breeder John Connaughton by Jacqueline Norris’s Jockey Hall Stud. Norris was confident that the colt would prove a popular draw, but his final price tag was a welcome surprise. “We sold his brother [Race and Status] here last year, who I thought was very special, and he made 240,000gns. This colt’s been flat to the boards with people looking at him, but he’s just such a gorgeous horse,” Norris said.

“It’s a great thrill for myself of course, but I’m just so pleased for the breeder who has supported us so well,” she added. “There is a great team behind it; Mr. Connaughton’s great friend Ted Naughton helps select the mares and John O’Shea is the farm manager. The breeder has put together a lovely bunch of mares, and he races his horses as well.”

Araci Turns Vendor...

Pinar Araci has become a familiar face at the sales alongside her father Ibrahim in recent years, investing in high-quality stock both for the racecourse and the breeding shed, including the Group 3 winner Native Khan (Fr) (Azamour {Ire}). This year, however, marked the first time that the Turkish investor has turned consignor at the European yearling sales, offering a Dubawi colt (Ire) (lot 77) yesterday through the outstanding draft of Highclere Stud.

Ibrahim Araci

Out of an unraced full-sister to the GI Hollywood Starlet S. heroine Diplomat Lady, the colt was bought in utero when Pinar purchased his dam, Lion Forest (Forestry), for €160,000 at the Goffs November Mares' Sale in 2010.

Since then, the young mare has produced a filly by Sea The Stars (Ire), and is now back in foal to Oasis Dream (GB).

"I bought her both for her pedigree and for the Dubawi covering," Pinar Araci explained. "Obviously if I had bought her just for the covering, I would have sold her as well, but I'm spending a bit of money on her and she is a gorgeous mare."

Lion Forest's Dubawi son attracted the attention of John Ferguson, who went to 260,000gns to secure the February-born colt.

"He is a gorgeous colt," his breeder says. "As a foal, he was more like his grandad, Dubai Millennium (GB), who I am told used to stick his tongue out; this colt would walk around the field with his tongue hanging out!"

Araci has two more colts to sell, both on Thursday, including a Cape Cross (Ire) half-brother to the high-class filly and producer Zanziberine (lot 391) and an Invincible Spirit (Ire) colt out of an unraced half-sister to the Royal Ascot winner Festivale (Ire), by the same sire.

Araci has enjoyed success as an owner this year with Khubala (Ire), a hat-trick winner under the care of Ed Dunlop, and her colours may well be carried next year by a Sea The Stars colt purchased by her father yesterday for just 75,000gns.

Of the half-brother to the G1 Moyglare S. winner Preseli (Ire) and the high-class duo Kong (Ire) and Mount Kilimanjaro (Ire), Araci said, "I didn't even know we'd bought him until 10 minutes after he had been in the ring, but he was very cheap at that price."

Ouija Board Stars Again...

The Derby family enjoyed numerous red-letter days courtesy of the star mare Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), and another page was added to the memory book yesterday when a Galileo (Ire) colt out of the seven-time Group 1 winner was purchased by John Magnier for 525,000gns.

BRED TO BE BRILLIANT

First time starter Silver Strike, by First Defence, lights up the board at Keeneland with a decisive win at 6 1/2 furlongs on October 5th for trainer David Carroll.

As the first of Ouija Board's three foals to date to be offered at public auction, it could have been a bittersweet moment, but connections were happy with the result.

"We're absolutely delighted," Lord Derby, owner of Ouija Board, commented immediately after the sale. "John Magnier obviously knows the sire very well, and, although I am biased, I thought the colt looked absolutely fantastic! The team at Stanley House have done a great job with him."

Although Ouija Board's own race record speaks for itself, it certainly did not hurt that the mare's first foal, the Kingmambo colt Voodoo Prince (GB), gained black-type at the end of September when third in the Listed Foundation S. at Goodwood.

"It was great that Voodoo Prince picked up the black-type last week. I wish Mr. Magnier the best of luck with him," Lord Derby added.

Lord Derby's brother Peter Stanley, owner of Stanley House Stud where Ouija Board resides and which consigned the colt, added, "We're thrilled that he is going to such a good home. You never know what they're going to make at public auction, but he is a lovely colt."

Ouija Board is in foal to Dubawi (Ire), while her 2-year-old daughter Filia Regina (GB), also by Galileo, is currently on a break at Stanley House Stud, having been in training with Ed Dunlop.

Brook Stud Hoping for Golden Moment...

Bloodstock agent Dwayne Woods is a familiar sight at the sales, but Wednesday marks the first time that a consignment of yearlings has been offered for sale by his Brook Stud, near Newmarket.

"We've been selling yearlings for 20 years, and have always prepped our own, but someone else has taken them up to the sales," Woods explained. "Last year we decided to do our own for the first time, and we had a really good December Foal sale, so we're going from there."

Two of the trio on offer during Book 1 are from the first yearling crop bred by Andrew Tinkler, CEO of the Eddie Stobart transport company, headlined by a full-brother to Tinkler's G2 Celebration Mile victor Dubawi Gold (GB) (lot 240).

"He's an absolute star, a really beautiful horse," Woods enthused. "He's had at least 200 looks this week, but he still comes out every time and gives a great show."

Woods was also active as a buyer at yesterday's sale on behalf of Tinkler, snapping up a Galileo (Ire) colt from the Hascombe & Valiant Stud draft for 110,000gns.

The colt is from the outstanding family of Inchmurrin (Ire), from which also hails Tinkler's G3 Irish St Leger Trial winner Ursa Major (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who went on to run fourth in the Ladbrokes St Leger at Doncaster last month.

"He's a nice horse and of course we've had a lot of luck with the family," Woods says of his purchase. "Ursa Major will be a really smart horse for next year."

375, c, Galileo (Ire)--Alexander Goldrun (Ire), by Gold Away (Ire) Consigned by Mountarmstrong Stud

This January-foaled bay has star quality in his veins, being the first progeny out of the five-time Group 1-winning heroine Alexander Goldrun from the family of Medecis (GB) (Machiavellian) and Getaway (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and fellow German luminaries Guadalupe (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and Guadalajara (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}).

383, f, Galileo (Ire)--Alluring Park (Ire), by Green Desert Consigned by Lodge Park Stud

No apologies are necessary for the heavy emphasis on Galileo at this year's Tattersalls Book One, as the sire of sires has never had an assembly like this at a public auction. Alluring Park--whose dam, the champion Park Express (Ire) (Ahonoora {GB}) has entered folklore as the dam of New Approach (Ire)--produced Was (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who has become one of those rare million guineas-plus yearlings to win a Classic this year.

SOLID TRADE

In yesterday's session, 139 yearlings were listed as sold for the equivalent of $38.6-million and an average a little over $278,000. Thirteen yearlings--not quite one in 10 of those which sold--brought final bids of 450,000gns (roughly $756,000) or more. These were by nine different sires (Galileo 3, Montjeu and Sea The Stars 2 each, six others with one each), and were purchased by 10 different buyers (Demi O'Byrne 3, John Ferguson 2, eight others with one each). It looked and felt like a pretty good spread of high-end players. If they end up with $100-million in sales and 30+ yearlings selling for $750,000-plus, I think--as expected--October Book 1 will be hands-down the international yearling sale of the year.

Of course, the presence of Galileo and his half-brother Sea The Stars helps. Between the two yesterday, they had 35 catalogued, of which 32 went through the ring, and 25 were sold, averaging 270,400gns (about $454,272). Sea The Stars, with nine sold from 11 offered, slightly out-averaged his older brother; his average was 277,778gns ($466,667), whereas Galileo had 16 sell, from 21 offered, for an average of 266,250gns ($447,300)--not much in it, really.

Two other notes from yesterday's session: of course, you are all wondering if Georgia Dollar's incredible pastry collection, presented and overseen by coffee wizard Isobel Anthony in the Newsells Park box, wowed the judges for at least the third or fourth consecutive year, and of course the answer is yes. There is strong competition from Castlebridge (they're especially keen on their carrot cake) and Highclere, who also made the finals. I suggest a tour of the grounds for anybody with any reason to be in the neighborhood today or tomorrow--but just make very sure Newsells Park is on your 'look list.' Oh, and I have a message from ace French trainer Freddy Head, here on the grounds at Tattersalls, to the connections of Wise Dan, who are reportedly debating whether to run in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile on the turf or the 10-furlong GI Breeders' Cup Classic on the dirt--well, really, I should call it 'a word to the Wise': "Run in the Classic," advises Freddy. 'My filly [Moonlight Cloud] is very good.' OK? Message delivered.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Prince Will I Am Set for International...

Casa Farms LLC's Prince Will I Am (Victory Gallop) is set to make his second start off a 14-month layoff in Sunday's GI Pattison Canadian International S. at Toronto's Woodbine Racetrack. The ridgling, a maiden winner in seven starts on the main track, turned the corner with a switch to the infield, winning a Saratoga allowance ahead of a 9-1 upset of the GI Jamaica H. in 2010. Second in an eventful running of the GIII Breeders' Cup Marathon that November, he returned to the turf for scores in the GII W.L. McKnight H. and the GII Mac Diarmida S. "Between the Mac Diarmida and the Jamaica he showed his predisposition for being a good turf horse," said trainer Michelle Nihei. "Both days were different in the way he brought himself into the race. In the Jamaica, it was his standard, way back, coming from out of it at the end, closing in :10 and change. In the Mac Diarmida, he put himself in the race a little bit better sitting fourth or fifth and took a bit of a run at them at the top of the lane. It's a little bit shorter stretch [at Gulfstream, compared to Belmont] so he had to get to that point a little bit earlier in the race." Sideline off a ninth in the GI Manhattan H. last summer, he returned to action with an even sixth to Dominus (Smart Strike) in the GII Bernard Baruch H. at the Spa Sept. 1. Prince Will I Am will be ridden in the International by top local jockey Luis Contreras. "Luis has ridden horses for me [in the morning] at Gulfstream in the winter time, so we have a communicative relationship," said Nihei. "I like Luis a lot. He's a professional and talented rider. And, obviously, this horse isn't selective about who he gets along with. You can put almost anybody on him."

Weekly Sales Ticker

by Bill Oppenheim

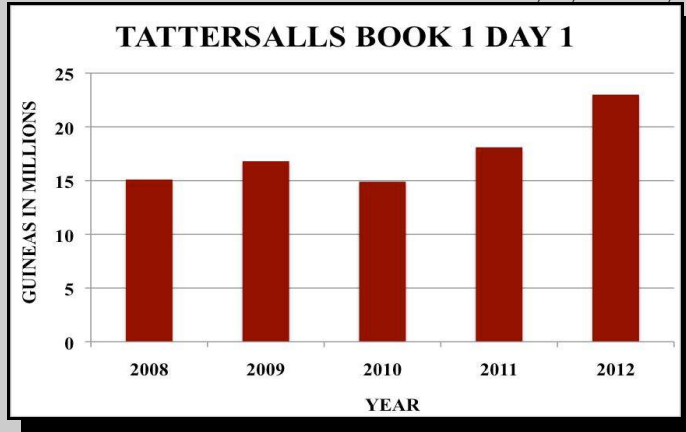

"After Goffs' two best days were up 33% in gross and 46% in average over 2011 last week, with nine percent fewer sold, Tattersalls' opening day of October 1 yesterday saw gains of 27% in gross and 9.5% in average, with 16% more horses sold in comparison to Day 1 last year. The Goffs third day was called Sportsmans this year and in 2009 but was called part of Orby in 2010-2011, so our graph and table here show the 'best' days. Tatts yesterday looked very solid, with 13 yearlings bringing $756,000 (€50,000 gns.) or more."

Writers Up with Richard Zachariah

HORSES AND PAYING FOR THEM

By Richard Zachariah

Throughout history, whether it was Lord Derby or Stavros Niarchos, funding the world's great breeding farms and racing stables has always come down to the benevolence and deep pockets of the proprietor. Or, as Darley Australia's latest company report describes Sheikh Mohammed, 'the ultimate shareholder.'

And according to TDN's recent forensic dismantling of the Kentucky sales figures, nothing is about to change for breeders large and small with $200 million bled all over the Bluegrass. This is no fairytale, TDN readers say, pointing out all the natural obstacles, not to mention elevated stud fees and last minute X-rays that wage war on profitability.

As a breeder, I didn't need to be told, but my curiosity of how anyone in this business makes it pay is always on green alert. So it was on a golden weekend for Darley with their 3-year-olds dominating the first Group 1 of the season and three of their stallions in the top five--nine in the top 30--I got hold of the annual accounts that I hoped would throw light on how the world's largest breeder makes ends meet.

Well, of course, he doesn't--and just as Lord Derby or Niarchos did in their time--an equine indulgence is something the Dubain Prince can and wants to afford. In Australia alone, Sheikh Mohammed has poured in over A$1 billion, and in the company report released in April, Darley had accumulated losses of $425 million.

While this reinforces the importance of 'the ultimate shareholder,' the figures are difficult to interpret in an operating culture where lack of resources is not an excuse. Yet Darley Australia is, according to finance director Andrew Wiles, conscious of the bottom line, even if it's not the boss' obsession.

And it's not all bad, Wiles points out, when you take into account that in 2008, the Sheikh paid the Ingham family A$460 million for our biggest racing and breeding operation and has spent tens of millions developing new studs in NSW and Victoria and recently built a show-place training establishment outside Sydney.

Despite rumors from Dubai that the Sheikh cared little for what happened down under--he has only visited Australia once since his major expansion in 2008--and after five years, if it wasn't working he would walk away, I found the management here resolutely opposed to the scuttlebutt.

Managing director Henry Plumtre, an Englishman who has been in Australia long enough to know his way around and to have survived a stint as bloodstock manager for the irascible racing aficionado Lloyd Williams, reckoned it was a safe bet that anyone who spent a billion plus was here for the long haul.

And Plumtre doesn't have to gild the lily. While their aim to establish 'a self sustainable operation on a cash basis within the short to medium term' is ambitious, last year Darley suffered a loss of just A$7 million, a long way from a reported A$246 million black hole in 2008 after a savage revaluation of livestock values.

The reality is Darley is doing well, both in the breeding barn and the racetrack. In 2010/11 season Darley race horses, led by outstanding colts Sepoy (Elusive Quality) and Helmet (Exceed and Excel) earned A$18 million in prize money and went a long way towards paying for the racing division.

And in the breeding barn, with a combination of its shuttle stallions and those colonials it bought from the Ingham's, Darley has shed its little lost brother look of a decade or more ago and is now very much in the vanguard of Australia's most popular destination for mare owners.

It hasn't been an overnight sensation, nothing is in bloodstock, but it seems to have come with a rush. In stellar year 2010/11 Darley's success on the track was capped by Lonhro (Octaganol) taking out the sires premiership, a major achievement considering he had finished 44th only two seasons before. Cont. p14

While Lonhro won, Danehill sons Commands and Exceed and Excel and shuttlers Elusive Quality (Gone West) and Street Cry (Machiavellian) finished well up in the top 20. While the visitors provided the all-important Golden Slipper winner that year and the Melbourne Cup hero of a couple years previously, suddenly Darley was a leading commercial influence, only shaded by Coolmore, who had five stallions in the first 20, although one of them, Galileo (Sadler's Wells) had ceased live appearances in Australia.

And the Darley juggernaut shows no sign of slowing. While Commands currently leads the sires table, Lonhro, through his son Pierro, increases his visibility, albeit not in a way that would be the favored choice of Sheikh Mohammed and his team. Pierro who goes into this weekend's stallion-making race, the 1600-meter G1 Caulfield Guineas, as red-hot favorite and aiming to be one of the rarest colts--a Golden Slipper and W. S. Cox Plate winner, is the one that got away.

Although Sheikh Mohammed has an international reputation as a fearless hunter, gatherer and collector of Thoroughbreds, he is also at times a seller. In Australia, Darley markets a draft of 40 foals each autumn/winter in order to create interest in the stallions, and, according to Plumptre, 'a couple of outstanding weanlings are included to lead the pack.'

And so it was the handsome son of Lonhro--Miss Right Note (Daylami) was selected to head up the 2011 Magic Millions draft. He was snapped up by a pinhooker for A$120,000 and re-sold later as a yearling for A$230,000 to femme fatale and trainer extraordinaire Gai Waterhouse.

The yearling of course has blossomed under Ms. Waterhouse into the eight-time undefeated Pierro, now conservatively valued at A$25 million and with more financial upside and maybe an international career if and when he wins the Guineas and Cox Plate double.

Given their time over again, the Darley team, of course, would love to have left the Miss Right Note foal on the pastures of their Hunter Valley nursery. But comforted by the fact they still own the mare and what he is doing for his sire, it will be felt at the cash register of forthcoming yearling markets.

Not that anybody at Darley made a glaring mistake. The undistinguished Miss Right Note (Ire) was bred by Darley in Europe and raced in France and Australia with a singular lack of distinction over unfashionable long distances.

Plumptre admits 'the plain grey mare' was an also-ran in the popularity contest between Darley matrons, but has now shot up the poll since delivering the champion son to Lonhro. A bit like the whole Darley operation itself, Pierro is heading up the charts with a red bullet and helping Sheikh Mohammed's Aussie team make ends meet.

BERNARDINI FILLY TOPS INAUGURAL FALL MIXED SALE Fasig-Tipton's inaugural Saratoga Fall Mixed Sale was held Tuesday, with Closing Move, a 3-year-old Bernardini filly, topping the proceedings courtesy of a $100,000 bid from trainer Tom Voss. All told, 119 head successfully changed hands for a gross of $1,933,600, while 82 were led out unsold. The average was $16,249 and the median was $12,000.

"I thought it was good and competitive," said Boyd Browning, president of the auction house. "I think there was broad bidding, and it worked reasonably well for the first try. The market is still very difficult on mares with a little bit of age that don't have a significant or important horse in the production record, or are in foal late, or to a horse that isn't considered particularly desirable at the moment. But that's the same way that those horses are selling in New York, Kentucky, Maryland, Florida, or really anywhere in the world right now, for that matter. So I thought it was a viable marketplace. It felt good, and there was a lot of energy and enthusiasm."

Closing Move, offered as hip 222, had hit the board in four of six starts while racing for breeder Darley and trainer Tom Albertrani. She is the second foal from Show Me the Roses (Storm Cat), a half-sister to champion Johannesburg (Hennessy) and from the immediate family of successful sire Tale of the Cat (Storm Cat) and Group 1 winner Minardi (Boundary).

"I bought her for my wife [Mimi] and Caroline Stautberg," said Voss. "She was just beautiful. I loved the way she looked and, really, everything about her. We might run her one or two times, but she'll make a good broodmare."

Stautberg owns Willow Oaks Farm in Monkton, Maryland. Along with her late husband Gerald, she bred Grade I winner Funny Moon (Malibu Moon).

There was solid trade for weanlings throughout the day. A pair of youngsters from the first crop of multiple graded winner Munnings (Speightstown) proved most popular, with a filly (hip 95) selling for $67,000 to Bernard Stables, and a colt (hip 37) going for $57,000 to Mill Creek Farm as agent. The registered New York-bred babies were both consigned by Vinery.

Carrie Brogden was a prolific buyer on the day, signing for two under the Machmer Hall banner and one under her own name, as well as percentages of several other offerings.

"I bought half of one mare," Brogden said, pointing out hip 11, Leaves of Autumn (Expelled), a $14,000 purchase. "But I only bought her because the foal behind her was so exceptional."

The mare's Not for Love colt sold for $40,000 to Country Life Farm as agent.

"I bought pieces of seven foals," Brogden continued. "They will all be pointed here for the New York Preferred Yearling Sale. This year was our first year [there] with Select Sales. We thought it was solid, not crazy, but it was solid for big, strong horses that walked well and vetted reasonably."

Overall, Brogden was encouraged by the afternoon.

"There are a lot of end-users here, plus the pinhookers," she explained. "Obviously, there's a ton of foals that don't meet the criteria. The foals that jump through the hoops and are commercially sired with big walks--I thought there was plenty of money for them here. The two Munnings were fantastic foals and they sold to their looks."

One of the weanlings that Brogden now has an interest in is hip 144, a son of leading freshman sire Spring At Last purchased in the name of Mad About Stables for $37,000.

"I thought he was unreal," Brogden said of the colt out of Cercis (Forty Niner). "He toed out a little bit up front, but the sire has had two graded stakes winners already. He was bred to very workmanlike mares. There was no expectation, but he's got two of the best fillies in the country. I felt this colt was value at that [price]. I thought the good foals brought what they were worth, if not a little bit more. We put dollars on what we thought we could resell them for, so we tried to stick to our budget pretty tightly."

The weanlings will head to Machmer Hall before "hopefully" returning to this venue next summer.

Early in the day, several mares didn't draw a bid, but, as Brogden pointed out, the current auction environment demands a rigorous standard.

"I think what the regional market misses is culling," she emphasized. "I think with a strong regional market, the horses and the management will follow the money. There's a lot of savvy people that live here in New York, and I think you're seeing a lot of the lower-end mares culled. People don't want to cart them all the way down to Kentucky."

Between racing and upcoming auctions, this new sale tucked into an already busy spot on the calendar

"When you have OBS next weekend, the October yearling sale the week after and then the November sale, there's really no choice but for it to fall right now," Brogden opined. "Are the horses going to be affected, because they don't have the extra 30 days to come out of weaning? Yes, absolutely, but I think the pinhookers here are sharp enough to be aware of and understand that, I really do." Cont. p2

It is a tough time to be in the horse world, Brogden reiterated.

"I need a mare like a hole in the head," she said ruefully. "It's much harder to breed a good horse than to buy one. By the time you spend the stud fee, and carry them and foal them out, then you have to hope they grow up right and vet out..."

The top-priced mare on the day was Song of Broadway (Tiznow), catalogued as hip 83 from Darby Dan as agent. She sold for $55,000 to Anthony Muiccio. A big, handsome 5-year-old in the mold of her sire, she is carrying her first foal by Freud.

Joe Applebaum of Off the Hook was also on hand for future prospects, but came away empty-handed.

"Who doesn't like to come to Saratoga on a beautiful autumn day?" he reasoned. "It was really about the weanlings. There was definitely demand for them, especially the colts, but the broodmare market continues to suffer. I think for a first effort, they got off to a good start."

RETIRED

Lentenor Retired:

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jackson's Lentenor (h, 5, Dynaformer--La Ville Rouge, by Carson City), a full-brother to 2006 GI Kentucky Derby hero Barbaro, has been retired from racing as the result of a tendon injury. A maiden winner in his third career start and first at age three, the bay was a close fourth in the GI Florida Derby and went on to register a pair of allowance victories later that season, including a course record-setting performance at Tampa Bay Downs. In his penultimate career start, Lentenor was victorious in the Kitten's Joy S. at Colonial Downs this past July. Stud plans are under consideration with Headley Bell, Nicoma Bloodstock, long-time bloodstock advisor to the Jacksons.

Make-A-Wish Day at Keeneland:

Edited Press Release

Keeneland has days on which it schedules prestigious races worth a lot of money, but no day is more rewarding than Make-A-Wish Day, which will be held on Wednesday. Since 2008, Keeneland and members of the Thoroughbred industry have teamed up to grant the wishes of children from Central Kentucky who are battling life-threatening medical conditions.

Keeneland partners to host Make-A-Wish Day with the Make-A-Wish Foundation and Casner Racing, Coolmore Farm/Ashford Stud, Darley, Dixiana Farm, Gainesway, Lane's End Farm, Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital, Shadwell Farm and Three Chimneys Farm.

As guests of honor at Keeneland, the Wish Children and their families will enjoy a VIP afternoon at the track highlighted by lunch and a behind-the-scenes tour. Wish Families will meet jockeys in the Paddock and watch a race from the winner's circle. A Wish Child will present the trophy for the race named after his/her sponsoring farm.

The brisnet.com 'Race of the Day' is the 8th Race, $52,000 Allowance, at Keeneland. For pps and a complete race analysis, click here.

Meanwhile, fans will have the opportunity to help grant a 10th wish by placing a donation into the "Wishing Well" that will be set up just outside the Paddock.

This marks the second year of involvement in Make-A-Wish Day for Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital, whose Wish Child, 7-year-old Olivia, wants to swim with dolphins. Rood & Riddle has presented Olivia a gift bag that included a big stuffed horse and horse-related items from around the area. Tomorrow morning, she will visit the veterinary facility, where she'll be able to meet admirers and love on some horses.

In 1982, Dr. Tom Riddle and Dr. Bill Rood founded Rood & Riddle, which since 2005 has sponsored the Fall Meet's $125,000 Dowager. The 1 1/2-mile turf stakes for older fillies and mare will be renewed Oct. 21.

"If you talk to any of the partners, especially Dad or Dr. Rood, they always talk about how blessed we've been and how much the horse industry has given us," said Rood's son, Alex, the firm's public relations and marketing specialist. "We love to give back. It's a huge part of what we do, and it's one of our biggest pushes."

Successful in a May 26 Bordeaux conditions heat, On Call Now slipped to third in a similar event at Toulouse June 15, and arrived here off a fourth in the Listed Prix Millkom at La Teste de Buch on stakes bow Sept. 8. The homebred bay raced under a firm hold and was handily placed in third behind a steady tempo from the outset. Coaxed forward passing the quarter-mile marker, he made his challenge at the eighth pole and was driven out from there to deny the long-time leader Moonday Sun for a career high.
