MORE RAIN AS ASCOT AWAITS FRANKEL

Ascot received further rainfall into Thursday, leaving Sir Henry Cecil pondering the implications for Khalid Abdullah's Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in tomorrow's G1 QIPCO Champion S. Despite remaining generally upbeat about the prospects of the 4-year-old remaining unbeaten after his probable finale, the master of Warren Place is hopeful that there was no further deterioration of the going. "I am pretty confident he will be fine in soft ground, but if it's heavy we are in no-man's land," Cecil said. "He has never encountered it and, with his action and turn of foot, I cannot be sure that he would appreciate it." Clerk of the course Chris Stickels explained the current state of play yesterday. "We had five millimetres of rain overnight and the going remains soft at the moment," he said. "If we get any further rain, it is likely we will have heavy places on the round course. The forecast is not particularly clear, but there is a chance we could get rain tonight. Friday and Saturday look better and Saturday looks probably dry with some warm sunshine. If we didn't have any more rain at all, there may be some good-to-soft on the straight course but it is not going to dry a huge amount this time of year. The track is taking the rain very well at the moment, so we are not concerned about losing the meeting." As the final declarations were made yesterday, Stickels reflected on the sense of anticipation at the track. "It is tremendously exciting and there is a really good vibe about the whole day," he continued. "I haven't experienced anything quite like it."

NYRA REORGANIZATION BOARD IN PLACE

Dr. David Skorton, president of Cornell University, has been tabbed by New York Governor Andrew Cuomo to be the chair of the New York Racing Association Reorganization Board, it has been announced. The Reorganization Board consists of 17 directors, eight of which were appointed yesterday by the Governor, two each appointed by the State Senate and Assembly and five appointed by the former NYRA Board.

www.cornell.edu

"With the new leadership of the NYRA Reorganization Board, we have an enormously accomplished group to assist us in making New York thoroughbred racing the best in the country," Governor Cuomo said. "The new Board is charged with reforming NYRA for the benefit of taxpayers, fans, track workers, jockeys, and the horses themselves. I am especially grateful to Dr. Skorton for taking on the duties of Chair, and thank him for his hard work as co-chair of the Southern Tier Regional Economic Development Councils, where his efforts have been instrumental in helping craft and put in place a strategic vision for creating jobs and growing the region's economy."

Stars Come Out for Champions Day

Excelebration

Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) may be the star attraction on Saturday's QIPCO Champions Day card at Ascot, but the undercard is dotted with talent aplenty. Excelebration (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) and Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk) take on the filly Elusive Kate (Elusive Quality) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S., while G1 Investec Oaks heroine Was (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and G1 Irish Oaks victress Great Heavens (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) will look to fly the flag for their sire in the G2 Fillies' & Mares' S. Society Rock (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), last seen winning the G1 Sprint Cup at Haydock in September and Wizz Kid (Ire) (Whipper), winner of the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye, feature in the G2 Sprint.

Dr. Skorton, the 12th president of Cornell, is professor of biomedical engineering, and professor in the Departments of Medicine and Pediatrics at Weill Cornell Medical College. Skorton will resign his position as co-chair of the Southern Tier Regional Economic Development Council in order to devote time to the NYRA Board. The Governor's appointment of President Skorton as chair is subject to approval by the new NYRA Board.

"Horse racing is an integral part of our state's culture and economy, and I am honored to be joining the talented members of the New York Racing Association Reorganization Board to improve the industry for the horses, jockeys, backstretch workers, horse owners, bettors and all who enjoy racing and make it happen," Dr. Skorton commented. "With the collective strengths and abilities of my fellow board members, I know we can expand New York State's global leadership in Thoroughbred racing, and I look forward to helping achieve this important goal."

The seven other gubernatorial appointees include:

- Bobby Flay, Chef and Thoroughbred Owner
- Jane Rosenthal, Producer and Co-Founder of the Tribeca Film Festival and CEO of Tribeca Enterprises
- Leonard Riggio, Chairman, Barnes & Noble Inc. and Thoroughbred owner/breeder
- Anthony Bonomo, CEO, Administrators for the Professions Inc and founder of Brooklyn Boyz Stables
- Vincent Tese, Executive Chairman, Bond Street Holdings LLC
- Joseph Spinelli, Managing Director, Navigant
- Robert Megna, New York State Budget Director

Additionally, Cuomo has named Saratoga Springs resident and philanthropist John Hendrickson as Special Advisor to Saratoga. He will serve as the Governor's representative to the NYRA Board on issues involving the Saratoga Race Course and community.

Appointed by the State Senate are Michael Dubb, principal and founder of the Beechwood Organization and a prominent Thoroughbred owner; and Earle Mack, Senior Partner, Mack Company, former member of the NYRA Board of Directors and chairman of the New York Racing Commission. State Assembly appointees are Michael Del Guidice, Chairman, Rockland Capital Energy Investments, LLC; and Rick Cotton, Executive Vice President and General Counsel of NBCUniversal.

The five nominees from the NYRA Board, announced this past Tuesday, were C. Steven Duncker, Stuart Subotnick, Stuart S. Janney III, Barry Ostrager and Charles V. Wait.

The Reorganization Board will conduct a national search for a new CEO and General Counsel for NYRA. The NYRA Reorganization Board will be in effect for three years, following which NYRA will revert back to majority private control.

CUP WINNERS TO CLASH AT CAULFIELD

Americain (Dynaformer) and Dunaden (Fr) (Nicobar {GB}), the last two winners of the G1 Melbourne Cup, square off in Saturday's G1 Caulfield Cup at Caulfield Racecourse in Melbourne. The pair last met in last year's Melbourne Cup, when Dunaden upended Americain's bid to win back-to-back editions of Australia's A$6-million race. After spending the early part of this year competing in Australia, where he went winless in three starts, Americain returned to France for his most recent effort, a sixth place finish in the G2 Prix Kergorlay Aug. 19. Dunaden, who recorded an international Group 1 double when adding last year's G1 Hong Kong Vase, has not won since, and has not been seen since finishing sixth in the G1 King George at Ascot. Southern Speed (Aus) (Southern Image) won this race last year. She will attempt to bounce back from an uncharacteristically poor effort when 15th of 16 in the G1 Turnbull S. at Flemington Oct. 6.

Glencadam Gold (Ire) (Refuse to Bend {Ire}) has been a revelation for trainer Gai Waterhouse this prep since being relocated from Europe. The 5-year-old gelding is undefeated in four starts since arriving in Australia, including the G1 Metropolitan H. at Randwick Oct. 6.

December Draw (Ire) (Medecis {GB}) was injured during last year's Caulfield Cup and finished last as the favorite. He has made an encouraging return this season and has improved with added distance in three starts. He most recently finished third, beaten a 1 1/2 lengths, in the Turnbull. One of the most watched horses will likely be the Luca Cumani-trained My Quest for Peace (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who makes his Australian debut and will use this race as a springboard to the Nov. 6 Melbourne Cup. The Group 3 winner was last seen taking the Listed Windflower March S. at Goodwood in Britain Aug. 25.

Kindergarden Kid joined the likes of Catienus, Furthest Land, Headache and Accredited as mid- to high-priced claims by Ken and Sarah Ramsey to go on to graded-stakes glory. A minor stakes winner last year at four for Lael Stables and Barclay Tagg, the bay was third as the favorite in an Independence Day allowance at Delaware before being haltered for $50,000 out of a runner-up effort in a Saratoga optional-tagger Aug. 2. He stretched out to 12 furlongs for the first time in the GIII Kentucky Turf Cup Sept. 15 and found loya Bigtime and Rahystrada (Rahy) just a touch too good, finishing a close third, and returned on just two weeks' rest to finish a good third to GI Breeders' Cup Turf contender Point of Entry (Dynaformer) in Belmont's GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic. loya Bigtime was in front after 100 yards, dropped his head down onto his chest and took the field along through an opening quarter in :25.57 as Kindergarden Kid switched off nicely back in fifth for Julien Leparoux. The Chicago raider appeared to get aggressive and clicked off his next half-mile in just under :49 seconds, a taxing sectional going this distance. loya Bigtime still led approaching the stretch and successfully and gamely turned back bids from Rahystrada and Miami Deco, but Kindergarden Kid was finding his best stride, came with a strong late run and split rivals late to make the grade.

TATTS BOOK 2 CLOSES STRONG

By Emma Berry

The curtain came down on the extended four-day Book 2 Sale at Tattersalls last night with a 23% increase in aggregate, boosted by the trading of 153 more horses than last year. The turnover, for an 84% clearance rate of the 937 lots offered, stood at 31,039,000gns, while the median also climbed, from 30,000gns in 2011 to 32,000gns. The average declined marginally to 39,390gns, down by just 1%.

The sale recorded the second-highest aggregate of any yearling sale in Europe this year, headed only by its 'big brother,' Book 1, which set a new record in Europe with a turnover of 68,102,500gns for 418 horses sold.

Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony noted the contribution made by the many trainers in action at Park Paddocks through the week, saying: "They have been out in force this week--British, Irish and their European counterparts--all making a huge contribution to a sale which has produced record returns."

He continued, "The astonishing level of trade we experienced at Book 1 last week set the tone and the momentum has carried through to Book 2 with sustained demand at all levels of the market from start to finish. The competition at the top of the market has been particularly intense with many of the leading buyers from last week still active and new faces, notably a strong Hong Kong contingent, making their presence felt, but the key to the success of the sale has been the depth to the trade. Last year's huge tally of 46 lots selling for 100,000gns or more has been bettered and more than 200 lots selling for in excess of 50,000gns is unprecedented at this sale."

Top on Track and In the Ring...

Whitsbury Manor Stud's Sakhee's Secret (GB), currently the leading first-season sire in Europe by number of winners with 19, enjoyed a day in the top spot at the sales too when his son of the Efisio (GB) mare Coffee Time (Ire) (lot 1444) made his way onto the list of Hong Kong Jockey Club purchases at 180,000gns. The January-born colt was offered by Barry Mahon's Mountain View Stud.

"He was pinhooked for 39,000gns and you dream of consigning a horse such as this," said Mahon. "Hopefully, he will be lucky for his new owner." The County Meath-based stud sold three yearlings in Book 2, all purchased as foals, for an average of 89,333gns, along with two Book 1 yearlings, which included a colt by Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) who sold for 140,000gns to Jehan Malherbe of Form Bloodstock.

Shadwell Leads the Way...

The Shadwell Estates team was active again on the final day of Book 2, signing tickets for Cheveley Park Stud's colt (lot 1363) by Dutch Art (GB) from the family of recent G2 Joel S. winner Pentitent at 120,000gns, and also picking up the full-sister to last weekend's G1 Gran Criterium winner Law Enforcement (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) (lot 1380) for 90,000gns. Shadwell ended Book 2 as leading buyer with a total of 27 yearlings for 2,206,000gns. The Castlebridge Consignment, which brought an end to Highclere Stud's rule as leading Book 1 consignor last week, also came out on top in Book 2, selling 31 yearlings for 1,130,000gns.

The popularity of first-season sire Bushranger (Ire) continued, with John Ferguson going to 110,000gns for his Tally Ho Stud-consigned half- brother to dual juvenile winner All On Red (Ire) (Red Ransom) (lot 1417), while Armando Duarte paid 95,000gns on behalf of owner Ken Gundlach for lot 1459, a half-brother to the G3 Solario S. winner Barbajuan (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}).

Kyllachy was another name to feature among the names of sires of six-figure lots. His colt, lot 1448, out of the Danehill mare Complimentary Pass (GB) from the further family of Deep Impact (Jpn), was a 110,000gns purchase for the Peter and Ross Doyle team after being pinhooked for 52,000gns by JC Bloodstock, the same outfit responsible for Thursday's session-topping colt.

In Pursuit of Another Good Juvenile...

As highlighted by Edmond Mahony, a greater number of trainers have been in action this week at Park Paddocks, and William Haggas, who signed for three during Book 1, has added six Book 2 horses to his string for next season. His purchases included lot 1484, Grove Stud's colt by Pastoral Pursuits (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) from the family of Group 2-winning sprinter Tiddliwinks (GB) (Piccolo {GB}), for 85,000gns.

Haggas (right) with wife Maureen and father-in-law Lester Piggott
Emma Berry

"It's been very strong this week, but slightly quieter today--horses have been a bit more buyable," Haggas said. "The trade has really been underpinned by Rabbah and they've been a fantastic support to lots of breeders. I'm sure their participation has helped enormously." He continued, "Last week was the most amazing sale I've ever witnessed. You walk through the white gates of Tattersalls and all thoughts of world recession are put out of your mind. This week has been a bit more realistic. I try to buy what I like and I have bought a few for owners--I don't take many risks."

Last week saw Haggas sign for an Invincible Spirit filly at 180,000gns, and it's no surprise that he has a soft spot for daughters of the Irish National Stud stallion following the success this season of his unbeaten Group 1 winner Rosdhu Queen (Ire). Like the Pastoral Pursuits colt, she too was prepared for auction by Brendan Holland's Grove Stud. Haggas was also named as the future trainer of Law Enforcement's full-sister, who was bought to race in Sheikh Hamdan's colours.

Two Eds are Better Than One...

Second-season trainer Ed Walker has enjoyed a great year on the track and has been busy buying yearlings at Tattersalls with Ed Sackville of SackvilleDonald.

"There have been plenty of nice horses this week and, as always, good-looking correct horses by fashionable sires are hard to get your hands on, but there are plenty of 'trainers' horses' by less fashionable sires that have been easier to buy," said Walker. "I've been a bit braver this year than I have been in the past, and I'm really fortunate that some of my existing owners are reinvesting and we've a few new owners, too, which is really exciting."

Ed Walker Emma Berry

The trainer's star turn this year has been the Group 2-placed Sound Of Guns (GB (Acclamation {Ire})), who has finished for the season, but will return to his Newmarket stable for next year.

"She has bags of scope but as a 3-year-old sprinter things might be a bit tougher for her next year," Walker noted. "I also have some nice older, middle-distance horses, such as Willie Wag Tail, Nicolas Copernicus and Ruscello, who are three nice horses for next year."

Walker also trains for Rabbah Bloodstock, one of the most active buyers in Book 2 with 56 yearlings purchased for 1,920,000gns.

The final session of the October Sale, the 265-lot Book 3, begins today at 10 a.m.

OBITUARIES

JEAN-PIERRE BINET, 85

Jean-Pierre Binet, the owner of Irish 2000 Guineas winners Dickens Hill (Ire) and Kings Lake, died at his home in France on Thursday morning. He was 85. Binet had a close association with the successful Kilfrush Stud in County Limerick, which has bred more than 80 group winners, including GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Last Tycoon (Ire) and, most recently, Immortal Verse (Ire). Kilfrush Stud has been managed since 1980 by Brendan Hayes, who paid tribute to Binet at Tattersalls on Thursday. "He was a great friend, a great sportsman and he had a real energy about him," said Hayes. "There was always a buzz when he was around. As well as being a great winner, he was also a great loser and in racing you have to be able to take those days. He was a remarkable person and his passing has left us all greatly saddened."

Along with Dickens Hill, who won the Irish 2000 Guineas and Eclipse S. in 1979 and was runner-up to Troy (GB) in the Derby and the Irish Derby, Binet also raced Mill Princess (Ire), who was trained in France by Bernard Secly. The daughter of Mill Reef would go on to spawn a tremendously successful dynasty at Kilfrush Stud. Her second foal was Last Tycoon, while her daughters have become successful broodmares in their own right. Save Me The Waltz (Ire) and Tender Is Thenight (Ire) have each produced a Classic winner--the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroines Valentine Waltz (Ire) and Tie Black (Ire), respectively. Save Me The Waltz is also the dam of multiple graded winner Sense Of Style (Thunder Gulch). Side Of Paradise (Sadler's Wells), a half to Last Tycoon, produced Immortal Verse, who won last year's G1 Prix Jacques le Marois and G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

Musical Romance Tunes Up at Calder...

Reigning Eclipse Award-winning female sprinter Musical Romance (Concorde's Tune) worked three-quarters of a mile Thursday morning in 1:14.20 at Calder for trainer Bill Kaplan, who co-owns the 5-year-old mare with Pinnacle Racing Stable. "This morning's work went very well and she came back great," the conditioner commented. "Everything is still going along as planned. We'll probably work her again next Thursday." Kaplan said Musical Romance would van to Kentucky following the workout and is scheduled to fly to California Friday, Oct. 27. He will oversee her final preparations beginning Monday, Oct. 30. Kaplan has mixed emotions as he prepares to saddle Musical Romance for the final time. "But it is a little bittersweet because it's been so great having her in the barn," he acknowledged. "She certainly made my job a lot more fun, and it's a little difficult thinking about her being gone." Musical Romance is set to go under the hammer at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale Nov. 5.

Trainer Wesley Ward sent out two of his potential candidates for Breeders' Cup races for Thursday works over the Keeneland turf course. Great Attack (Greatness), a candidate for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint, and the 2-year-old filly Almost an Angel (Artie Schiller), trying to gain a spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies' Turf, went in company, covering five-eighths of a mile in 1:02.60 and 1:03, respectively. "Very happy," Ward commented when asked about Great Attack's move. The 5-year-old will be having his first start since landing the GIII Turf Sprint S. at Churchill Downs May 5. "He was about ready to run in the [GIII] Woodford [S. Oct. 6], but our ultimate goal is the Breeders' Cup, and I thought it best that we train him into it," Ward added. "I didn't want to send him to California because the turf is hard out there. This is really easy and kind on his feet and plus it's deeper so you get a lot more out of the work. I was really happy with it today." Almost an Angel broke her maiden sprinting over the Belmont turf course June 29, but is exiting a sixth in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. "She doesn't really like the Polytrack that much, but being a Grade I I thought I'd take a shot," Ward said about the decision to race Almost an Angel in the Alcibiades. "She ran a good race but not nearly as good as I know she can do."

Local Drills to Determine Dullahan BC Status...

Donegal Racing's Dullahan (Even the Score), twice a Grade I winner on Polytrack this year, is currently under consideration for both the $5-million GI Breeders' Cup Classic and $3-million GI Breeders' Cup Turf, and his upcoming workouts at Santa Anita will finalize which Nov. 3 race he contests. The big chestnut is slated to breeze on the Arcadia sod Saturday, and will go on the main track seven days later. "Whichever one I decide that he likes the best, that's the one we're going to go with, so I hope I pick the right one," said exercise rider Tammy Fox. Fox came out to oversee the Dale Romans string in preparation of the championship event Nov. 2-3. "The horses got in Monday, and Tuesday was their first day on the race track," she said. They all seem to be training really well and all seem to like the surface. It's been hot here, which is why Dale wanted to get here early and get them used to the weather, because it's cooled off in Kentucky. So far, so good." Joining Dullahan on the flight to California were Mile contender Little Mike (Spanish Steps) and Dirt Mile entrant Shackleford (Forestry), as well as Juvenile Fillies Turf hopefuls Moonwalk (Malibu Moon) and Sustained (War Front).

Fasig-Tipton to Be BC Presenting Sponsor...

Fasig-Tipton will be a presenting partner of the 2012 Breeders' Cup World Championships. As a part of the agreement, Fasig-Tipton will sponsor the Breakfast Marquee at Santa Anita Park, where horsemen and other industry figures gather each morning in the days preceding the event. As an added benefit, Breeders' Cup and Fasig-Tipton have secured a "Auction Air" B737 special charter flight for owners and breeders to depart for Lexington immediately after the Breeders' Cup concludes Saturday evening, Nov. 3 and be flown to Lexington for the Fasig-Tipton November sale the following Monday.

"We are excited with our new agreement with Fasig-Tipton for this year's Championships, which combines a first-class level of hospitality for our participants and an outstanding offer to facilitate our owners and breeders who want to get to the November sale following Breeders' Cup Saturday," said Craig Fravel, Breeders' Cup President and CEO.

"We are pleased to join with the Breeders' Cup to provide customers a great opportunity to attend the 2012 Breeders' Cup in person at Santa Anita and to quickly and easily fly to Kentucky for the star studded 2012 November Sale at Fasig-Tipton," said Boyd Browning, president of the auction house. "In addition, the Breakfast Marquee has proven to be an excellent addition to the Breeders' Cup experience and Fasig-Tipton is proud to be a partner."

The speedy Flashpoint, retired with a suspensory tear last fall, is eyeing a return to the races.

The injury surfaced on the runaway 2011 GIII Hutcheson S. and GIII Jersey Shore S. (video) winner following a fourth-place finish as the favorite in the GIII Phoenix S. at Keeneland last fall. He was being aimed at the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill Downs.

"I really didn't think that he'd come back from an injury like this, but the stallion market being what it is, you have to take a shot at it," Peachtree Stable's John Fort revealed.

Flashpoint, currently under the care of trainer Steve Asmussen, already has 12 workouts under his belt, including a bullet five-furlong breeze in 1:00.47 over the Belmont training track Oct. 16. The gray, previously campaigned by Rick Dutrow Jr. and Wesley Ward, re-appeared on the worktab at Saratoga in August.

"So far, so good," Fort continued. "He's coming back from a suspensory injury, which is not always that easy, but he hasn't missed a beat. We'll probably plan to run some time next month or whenever the opportunity comes up. Steve's great with horses like this that need a little TLC, so that's where I decided to send him."

Fort concluded, "He has trained no different than he ever has. He's a big, beautiful, powerful horse. He looks like the Flashpoint of old right now."

 Masterman (KY); T-Bob Baffert.
 ($120,000 yrl '10 KEESEP)
 Last Start: 4th GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 18

Mamma Kimbo, freshened since suffering her first career defeat when off-the-board as the even-money favorite in Pimlico's GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 18, is likely to resurface toward the end of the current Santa Anita meeting or the Betfair Hollywood Park Autumn stand, according to owner John Fort.

Tabbed as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ following a sparkling 5 1/4-length debut victory at Santa Anita Feb. 18 (video), the bay lived up to the hype while stretching to two turns with an emphatic wire-to-wire tally in Oaklawn's GII Fantasy S. Apr. 11 (video). She tired to finish fourth, beaten 7 1/2 lengths, after setting the early pace in the Black-Eyed Susan.

"We rushed her a little bit last spring," Fort commented. "She ran an unbelievable maiden race--she went so fast (six furlongs in 1:07.94, 101 Beyer)--then we took her right to the Fantasy and she ran great. Those two big races right in a row seemed to take it out of her a little bit. She didn't run her race in the Black-Eyed Susan."

Mamma Kimbo has posted seven workouts dating back to mid-August for Hall of Famer Bob Baffert since, led by a best-of-39 five-furlong bullet in 1:00.60 in Inglewood Oct. 18.

"She had a little bit of bone bruising, no injury or anything like that," Fort explained of the layoff. "We've given her a long time and she's been training very steadily out in California for Bob."

Fort continued, "We'll get her ready for those races that are written for just 4-year-olds at the opening of the Santa Anita spring meeting--that would be our (long-term) goal with her. With this time off, she's going to hit her division next year fresh and sassy, I hope."

 Last Start: 1st OC 50k at FG Dec. 2

☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Applauding, a jaw-dropping heroine of her first two starts by a combined 15 lengths last term, finally appears to be ready to pick up where she left off.

"She seems like her normal self," trainer Al Stall Jr. commented. "She actually was going to run at Keeneland last week, but of all things, kicked a wall and caused herself to miss a couple of days of training."

The chestnut established a new track record for six furlongs at Keeneland when stopping the clock in 1:07.76 in her unveiling last fall (video), then kept her perfect record intact with an equally impressive six-length triumph as the 1-9 favorite in a $50,000 optional tagger at Fair Grounds in December (video). Applauding was scratched the morning of the Silverbulletday S. in January after displaying colic-like symptoms.

Al Stall Jr.
 Horsephotos

"She's very sound and looks great," Stall continued. "We still don't know what happened to her. She got a little inside-out on us in January. We decided to pull the plug and gave her a bunch of time off, and let her put on some weight and all of that stuff. We brought her back gradually and everything's fine now. You're going to look up and she's going to be away from the races for 11 1/2 months and you're going to say to yourself, 'God, that looks like a bowed tendon, a fracture, a condylar with screws, etc,' and it's none of that. There's a whole lot of ways these horses can get themselves behind the eight ball and that's what happened to her."

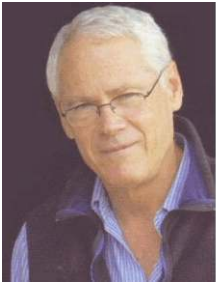

Applauding, bred on the same cross as four-time Grade I winner Turbulent Descent (Congrats), will be aimed at a six-furlong Churchill allowance race Nov. 21. She most recently covered four furlongs over the Keeneland Polytrack in :48.60 Oct. 14.

"She did those first two races in hand--no whip--just pure raw talent," Stall said. "Hopefully, we'll see that again."

IT'S TIME FOR ANOTHER ... AND ANOTHER

A long-time breeder friend phoned recently to say how disappointed he is that I'll Have Another was sold to foreign interests and is lost to American breeders. He went on to say that he sees fewer and fewer top-class options available to commercial breeders and that recent sales of stallions like Empire Maker, Dehere (for the second time), Lion Heart, and Henny Hughes and the deaths or retirement of Indian Charlie, Dixie Union, A.P. Indy, Dynaformer, Grand Slam, and Lawyer Ron make him even more worried about "falling further behind the rest of the world."

My first thought was thank goodness that the purchasers chose I'll Have Another and not his young and already proven sire Flower Alley. My second thought was that there has been a lot of chatter lately about "falling behind" and the quality of American bloodstock compared to the rest of the world.

I'm not sure the quality issue can be sorted out to anyone's satisfaction. It is not possible to get a true or definitive read on the relative merits of America's stallions and pedigrees versus international stallions and pedigrees because the progeny do not race against each other often enough. Only frequent head-to-head racing on the same surfaces under the same set of rules and circumstances can determine overall quality comparisons. So, spending time on which is "best" is rather pointless, as there is no way for anyone to actually prove their opinion. Each reader is free, however, to decide for themselves which basket of 20 representative top stallions they would choose, if they were given one and only one:

Basket A. Awesome Again – Bernardini – Candy Ride – City Zip – Distorted Humor – Elusive Quality – Giant's Causeway – Kitten's Joy – Malibu Moon – Medaglia d'Oro – More Than Ready – Pulpit – Smart Strike – Speightstown – Stormy Atlantic – Street Cry – Tapit – Tiznow – Unbridled's Song – War Front.

Basket B. Danehill Dancer – Dansili – Deep Impact – Dubawi – Empire Maker – Exceed And Excel – Fastnet Rock – Galileo – High Chaparral – Holy Roman Emperor – Invincible Spirit – King Kamehameha – Lonhro – Monsun – New Approach – Oasis Dream – Pivotal – Redoute's Choice – Rock Of Gibraltar – Shamardal.

American bloodstock at a tipping point? Apart from chatter related to the "U.S. vs. the World superiority debate," it is nonetheless fair to ask what effects many years of "taking the money" might have had on the overall quality of today's American bloodstock. It is part of the public record that for nearly 40 years, American horsemen have exported a very large number of top quality foals, yearlings, broodmares, stallion prospects, and proven stallions, with relatively little importation. Given this history and with no unified plan in place for securing a long-term future for American breeding and racing, could it now be time to "pay the piper?"

Generational amnesia. However we answer the above questions, it appears that most modern American horsemen have lost sight of how American bloodstock rose to prominence.

A lyric from Simon and Garfunkel's Mrs. Robinson recently had extra meaning for me: "Where have you gone, Joe Dimaggio? A nation turns its lonely eyes to you. What's that you say, Mrs. Robinson? Jolting Joe has left and gone away." As I finished listening I started thinking, 'Where have you gone Colonel Bradley, Arthur Boyd Hancock, Bull Hancock, John Galbreath, E.P. Taylor, and John Gaines?' These were all extraordinary people with keen vision who understood the importance of reaching across continents for the best bloodlines available in order to bolster and build an American industry that would prosper and endure.

We need to remember how our American industry was established. American breeding and racing grew to a position of world leadership because of importation, not exportation. Without going into a detailed history of the American turf, imagine what Kentucky breeding and the rest of the domestic business would be like if these forefathers had not reached out beyond our shores for bloodstock of the highest quality.

Colonel Bradley of Idle Hour Farm, a constant innovator like Gaines, purchased the French-bred mare, La Troienne, at Newmarket and infused the American gene pool with incredible quality that still percolates through today's graded stakes and Classics. (Ogden Phipps built a successful program for himself and his family on the back of Colonel Bradley and La Troienne by acquiring a number of Bradley's mares after his death, including the great mare's blue-hen daughter, Baby League.)

Arthur Boyd Hancock from his base at Ellerslie Stud and then Claiborne, utilized a consortium to acquire Sir Gallahad III and Blenheim II.

Imagine if Nasrullah was not imported by Bull Hancock, et al. We would not have had Bold Ruler, Secretariat, Ruffian, and a core group of legacy stallions and racehorses.

Without John Galbreath reaching beyond the Bluegrass to import Ribot, we would not have the important stamina influences provided by that great horse and his sons Graustark, His Majesty, and Tom Rolfe (who in turn sired Key to the Mint, Pleasant Colony, and Hoist the Flag, respectively).

If E.P. Taylor had not purchased Hyperion's daughter Lady Angela at Newmarket and then bred her to Nearco before importing her to North America to produce Nearctic, we would have had no Northern Dancer (nor would the world have had Nijinsky, Storm Cat, Sadler's Wells, Danehill, or Galileo).

The last of the great importers who championed the long-term viability of American breeding and racing was the genius innovator, John Gaines. He added Sharpen Up, Vaguely Noble, Blushing Groom, and Irish River to our genetic treasure chest, and repatriated Riverman and Lyphard.

Unfortunately, at present we have no American-based individuals, entity, or groups taking the baton from these historical giants to provide forward reaching stewardship for our industry.

America at a crossroads. Whether or not one believes that the quality of American bloodstock has declined compared to other parts of the world, it is hard to deny the common sense of trying to infuse American pedigrees with the blood of truly superior racehorses and sires wherever they can be found and obtained, after many years of domestic attrition and depletion. Especially during this time of globalization of racing, we need American leadership that can revitalize America's bloodlines in order to maintain our prominent place in a rapidly changing international scene.

It's time to search beyond our boundaries for another La Troienne or Lady Angela. And it's time to find and import the next Sir Gallahad III or Nasrullah.

Men or women of wealth and vision need to step up on behalf of the industry. What has always been mostly a rich person's game is becoming almost exclusively a rich person's game. Therefore, only wealthy American horsemen can lead the way in maintaining a prominent position for American breeding (and racing). If the path to long-term prosperity includes a serious venture into importation as I believe it does, then only people of wealth and financial staying power can succeed at importing because several major obstacles make the journey expensive, drawn-out, and problematic.

First, stallions or stallion prospects of the highest quality typically command very steep prices. Secondly, extended staying power is required because quite a few American horsemen have a bias against foreign horses and families and are often reluctant to accept them commercially. Whether it is a lack of understanding, a fear of the unfamiliar, or a misplaced sense of "nationalism," progeny of imported stallions often do poorly in the marketplace. Engaging in importation, therefore, means that participants must have deep pockets and be able and committed to staying the course.

Our American experience with Candy Stripes is a perfect example of the negative bias that must be extinguished. A Kentucky-bred son of Blushing Groom, Candy Stripes raced in France before becoming an outstanding stallion in Argentina. Imported to the U.S. to stand at stud, he was quickly sent packing back to South America because of non-acceptance by American breeders and buyers. Of course, Candy Stripes subsequently became the sire of American turf champion Leroidesanimaux (sire of Kentucky Derby winner Animal Kingdom) and Breeders' Cup Classic winner Invasor. In addition, the currently successful American stallion, Candy Ride (who was also slow to gain acceptance in the marketplace despite an exceptional race record), is out of a daughter of Candy Stripes.

Going forward, we need to overcome these obstacles in an innovative way. Cont. p14

Gill Sycamore S. Kindergarden Kid (Dynaformer) gets up in time.

A plan of action. As in most instances, innovation does not mean re-inventing the wheel. We have a proven model to follow, one which has given us what we enjoy today. Arthur Boyd Hancock gave us the template nearly a century ago.

Hancock and his buddies William Woodward, Robert Fairbairn, and Marshall Field each took a quarter-interest when they purchased Sir Gallahad III (paying a record price for a French stallion at the time). And of course Sir Gallahad III sired Triple Crown winner Gallant Fox in his first crop before going on to be leading sire four times and leading broodmare sire 12 times, 10 of them consecutively.

A.B. Hancock did it again with four other partners (William du Pont, John Hertz, Warren Wright, and John Hay Whitney) when he acquired Blenheim II who was already a leading sire, and had the 1936 English Derby winner Mahmoud racing at time of purchase. (Blenheim also sired a Triple Crown winner in his first crop, Whirlaway.)

We need a contemporary group of American billionaires and mega-millionaires (and we have quite a few) to step up in a similar way. If American horsemen and horsewomen of wealth can find a way to partner together to purchase and import several outstanding international sires and prospects, it will stimulate additional foreign interest in America's horses and provide a protection against possible negative effects on our domestic gene pool of many years of exportation. As we have frequently observed, imported stallions generally require extra support to have sufficient time and opportunity to develop into successful commercial sires. Therefore, a strong co-op or consortium arrangement should be considered in order to spread the risk and provide a joint marketing effort that is powerful enough to overcome the marketplace mindset against "foreign" horses. Such an effort would be an important short-term investment in maintaining America's prominent place in international sales and racing, and would be a wise long-term investment in the future quality of its bloodstock.

Frost Giant (Giant's Causeway--Takesmybreathaway, by Gone West), currently the leading freshman sire in New York and sixth on the North American list, will move to Keane Stud in Amenia, New York, for the 2013 breeding season. The 9-year-old, represented already by stakes winner West Hills Giant from a crop of 30 juveniles, will stand for $7,500, live foal. "We are proud to announce the addition of such a popular young sire to our stallion roster," said Winslow Stevens, Keane Stud's general manager. "Frost Giant was a group winner at two and three in Ireland and a New York Grade I winner on dirt. He certainly appears to be passing on his precocity and versatility to his runners."

Canterbury Requesting Additional '13 Dates:
Edited press release

Canterbury Park officials have announced their plans to submit to the Minnesota Racing Commission a request to race 68 days in 2013, the longest meet since 2007. In June, Canterbury Park and the Shakopee Mdewakanton Sioux Community entered into a cooperative marketing and purse enhancement agreement that will inject $75 million into the purse fund over the agreement's 10-year span. Projected purses for the 2013 season will show a 25% increase over 2012 and a nearly 100% increase over purses offered in 2011. "The intent of the agreement with SMSC was to revive a once prosperous equine industry in Minnesota," Canterbury Park President Randy Sampson said. "We saw the positive effects this past racing season and anticipate seeing even more in 2013 when we offer additional racing opportunities through an extended season and more races offering higher purses. The entire state will feel the benefits as breeding operations either expand or return to Minnesota. Horse breeding, boarding and training have a tremendous impact on agri-business in this state." The dates request will be submitted to the MRC Thursday at the monthly commission meeting held at University of Minnesota Leatherdale Equine Center, but a vote to approve will not be taken by the commission until their November meeting.

OBSERVATIONS on today's European racing scene

6.30 Dundalk, Mdn, €12,500, 2yo, f, 7f (AWT)
PASTICHES (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}) debuts in the famed maroon-and-white silks of Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum brought back to prominence in this country in recent times by the recently retired Casamento (Ire) (Shamardal). Like that Group 1 winner, this daughter of the 2001 G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Nadia (GB) (Nashwan) is trained by Mick Halford and she will have to be smart to outdo some experienced rivals, including Ben Sangster and Susan Magnier's Group and Listed-placed David Wachman trainee True Verdict (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}), who returns off a break after her flop in Leopardstown's G3 Silver Flash S. in July.

AUTUMN SALE GETS UNDERWAY

Baden-Baden's Sales and Racing Festival kicks off today, with the two-day Autumn Sale launched at the Iffezheim complex. Set this year against the backdrop of the current quarantine situation at Cologne racecourse following the well-publicized case of EIA, all entries are required to have a clean Coggins test for the virus. Today's "premium" session of the auction starts after racing at 5 p.m. and the main attractions look to be the Mario Hofer-consigned hip 65, an Areion (Ger) yearling three-parts brother to the multiple Group-winning sprinter Smooth Operator (Ger) (Big Shuffle) and two further stakes winners; Gestut Fahrhof's hip 54, a daughter of Lomitas (Ger) out of a half to the 2007 G2 Prix de Pomone winner and G1 Prix Royal Oak runner-up Macleya (Ger) (Winged Love {Ire}) from the extended family of the champions Monsun (Ger) and Majoritat (Ger) (Konigsstuhl {Ger}) and Alexander Pereira's hip 41a, the smart 2-year-old filly Celia (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) who has already won a valuable auction race. The full catalogue is available at www.bbag-sales.de.
