GROUPIE DOLL DECISION TO COME TODAY

Buff Bradley, Fred Bradley, Carl Hurst and Brent Burns's GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint heroine Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) worked four furlongs in :48.20 under the Twin Spires yesterday morning in preparation for a potential start in Saturday's GI Cigar Mile H. at the Big A. Drilling solo after the renovation break, the likely champion female sprinter went her opening quarter in :24.60 and finished up in :23.60 with a 1:01.40 gallop-out under John McKee. The breeze was the ninth-fastest of 57 at the distance Saturday. "We'll see how she comes back and then probably make a decision [on whether to go to the Cigar Mile Sunday]," trainer Buff Bradley said. "I'm sure the weights will be fair, so I'm thinking that mostly we got this work into her to see that she still wants to do it. I want to wait and see what [Sunday] brings...and see how she comes back."

'SHACK' EYES WEEKEND APPEARANCE

Mike Lauffer, Bill Cubbedge and Phillips Racing Partnership's Shackleford (Forestry) breezed four panels in :47.80 at Churchill Downs yesterday as he eyes a tilt in either Friday's GI Clark H. under the Twin Spires or Saturday's GI Cigar Mile H. at Aqueduct. Clocked in splits of :11.60 and :23 flat with a 1:00.40 gallop-out under Tammy Fox, the versatile multimillionaire's work was the second-fastest of 57 at the distance. Cont. p9

Goldencents Hits the Jackpot...

Goldencents debuted a 7 1/4-length winner sprinting over the Del Mar Polytrack Sept. 2 for Leandro Mora while trainer Doug O'Neill was serving a suspension, earning a 93 Beyer Speed Figure for that auspicious unveiling. Shipped to Belmont for the GI Champagne S., he was no match for likely champion 2-year-old Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday), who returned to edge Goldencents's stablemate He's Had Enough (Tapit) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

Able to clear the field from his outside draw in the long run to the first turn through an opening quarter in :22.64, the bay was able to slow things down a bit through splits of :46.22 and 1:11.18. Mylute caught the eye as he rapidly picked off horses from the back of the pack entering the far turn, but Goldencents dug in at the top of the stretch to keep that foe comfortably at bay. Grade II winner and local Jean Laffitte S. victor Bern Identity gobbled up group in the waning stages, but he was never getting to the sharp winner. Goldencents becomes the black-type and graded winner for his freshman sire (by Harlan's Holiday).

"[Jockey] Kevin [Kriger] did such a great job because there was a lot of speed signed up and this was only our colt's third race in his career and we didn't really know what to expect," said O'Neill. "Kevin was just so calm and cool and rode a beautiful race."

Goldencents earned 10 points in the new Road to the Kentucky Derby points system. "We have the [Kentucky Derby] circled on the calendar and now we just have to have our four-legged friend agree with that and stay injury-free," said O'Neill, who took this year's 'Run for the Roses' with I'll Have Another (Flower Alley). "[Goldencents] is such a nice colt and he's got so much natural speed and handles himself like a seasoned pro. The combination of speed and stamina is such a dangerous thing, and he's got both." O'Neill trainee Basmati (Borrego) finished second in this race a year ago. Krigger added, "It's a pleasure and I'm very happy to find a horse like this and be able to stick with him and ride him through."

Sporting a two-for-two record on the Churchill sod, including a 4 3/4-length graduation score in May and a one-length defeat of Colonial Flag in the GIII Regret S. in June, the consistent Centre Court returned to winning ways here after a pair of runner-up finishes. The homebred took a blanket-finish renewal of Saratoga's GII Lake George S. July 25, but was a close second to Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) in the Aug. 19 GII Lake Placid S. back at the Spa. She resurfaced off a brief freshening to complete the exacta behind Dayatthespa (City Zip) in Keeneland's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup last time. Taking up a front-row seat as longshot English Class (English Channel) sped off to a clear lead, the chalk squeezed through horses leaving the bend and pulled clear at the eighth pole for an easy triumph under just a hand ride. "I rode her like she was the [3-2] favorite," said rider Julien Leparoux. "When I asked her, she kicked away and I knew that if someone could beat me at that point it would have been a very good filly." Trainer Rusty Arnold added, "She's had eight starts on the turf and has never been worse than second. I haven't had one much more consistent. She just hasn't run a bad race on the grass... she's just been there all year for us." Arnold said Centre Court would winter in Florida, but would not run until April. She'll be pointed to Keeneland's GI Jenny Wiley S.

Rose to Gold couldn't have been any more impressive in her first two starts and, after a bump in the road last time, the chestnut returned to winning ways here to earn graded black-type and the lion's share of this lucrative purse. Bypassing the maiden ranks to kick off her career, Rose to Gold took Calder's Aug. 25 Lindsay's Frolic S. and Sept. 15 Brave Raj S. by a combined 26 1/2 lengths. She never seemed like herself, however, when checking in ninth last time over the Polytrack in Keeneland's GI Darley Alcibiades S. Oct. 5. Breaking alertly from her rail draw, the second choice was reined in by pilot Paco Lopez to track from third while in a bit tight. She ranged up three wide to put a head in front leaving the far turn and was immediately confronted by fellow Florida shipper Touch Magic. That pair tussled down to the line, but Rose to Gold was always doing a bit better. Madame Cactus (Cactus Ridge), favored off a victory in the local My Trusty Cat S. Oct. 9, could only muster a rallying fourth-place finish.

With the presence of Grade I winner Willy Beamin in yesterday's GIII Discovery H. at Aqueduct, Marc Ferrell's Called to Serve was let go at odds of 7-2. That price looked like good value when the 3-year-old gelding overtook the heavy favorite at the top of the stretch with a near last-to-first move to earn his first graded victory. A maiden winner at Santa Anita in April, Called to Serve cleared his first allowance condition in his next start at Betfair Hollywood Park May 28. Fifth in his graded stakes debut in the GII Swaps S. over that strip July 4, he returned a month later to finish third in the GII West Virginia Derby at Mountaineer. After another third-place effort in the Oklahoma Derby at Remington Park Sept. 30 behind Politicallycorrect (Kitten's Joy) and Willy Beamin, the dark bay was transferred from trainer Peter Eurton to the barn of Nick Canani. In his first start for that stable he finished second, beaten a nose, by Our Entourage (Street Cry {Ire}) in the Temperance Hill S. at Belmont Oct. 21. Breaking towards the back of the pack, Called to Serve was content to travel off the rail in the rear early with just Stephanoatsee behind him through tepid early fractions. Moving up to challenge on the outside rounding the turn, Called to Serve made a sweeping four-wide bid to pass Willy Beamin at the top of the stretch. He lengthened his lead under a hand ride to win with ease. "It was easy for me," said winning jockey Joel Rosario. "I just had to put him in the right spot. He was all game today. Every time I asked him, he was there. I like to ride that kind of horse."

Runner-up going a sixteenth shorter on debut here in June, Lea broke through with a promising three-length tally at Saratoga July 21 before besting optional claiming foes at the same venue Aug. 30. The homebred was favored in the Oct. 3 GIII Hawthorne Derby, but got uncorked too late and settled for third behind Two Months Rent (Purim) and Film Shot (Distorted Humor) in the driving rain. Stalking in third from the two path, Lea took a joint lead with Finale (Scat Daddy) on the home bend. He disposed of that foe in upper stretch, and showed off his impressive stride in the run to the wire. King David, a 28-1 upsetter of Belmont's GI Jamaica H. last time, was bottled up in traffic until late, but gobbled up ground once clear to complete the exacta. "He left there like he normally does and he fought [rider] Brian [Hernandez] just a hair, which he does," said hot-handed winning trainer Al Stall, Jr. "Once he came back to Brian, it was his race to win or lose. He opened up and then started waiting, but that's what turf horses do, especially ones that lay close." As for future plans for the late bloomer, Stall said, "He'll go to South Carolina and then prep for something in the summer, like the [GII] Firecracker H. [here] and then go to Saratoga." Lea is out of a sister to Graded/Group winners Grassy (El Prado {Ire}), Lady In Waiting (GB) (Kylian) and Savannah Bay (GB) (In The Wings {GB}).

Rollout the Carpet, disqualified from a first-place finish in the G1 Diamond S. at Auckland last March, took command soon after the start here. Waterford gave her a stern challenge turning for home, but the bay fought back gamely on the rails to secure this Classic. "I didn't really want to lead, but she ended up there and she has learned how to relax and find a good kick," winning rider Mark du Plessis told NZ Thoroughbred News. "I was worried when the other filly headed me, but she finished off so strongly and it was a top effort." Rollout the Carpet's dam Out of Egypt, a full-sister to GSW Wandering Star, hails from the immediate family of successful sire Silver Hawk (Roberto). She was exported to New Zealand after selling for €33,000 to Burke/NZB Bloodstock at Goffs February in 2006.

DRAGON LOOKS TOUGH TO SLAY

Ambitious Dragon (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) is still destination unknown for the Longines Hong Kong International

Races in three weeks' time, and today's G2 Longines Jockey Club Mile will have a big say in where the dual Horse of the Year ultimately shows up. Beaten a short head by Destined for Glory (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) as the 2-5 chalk in this event last year, the 'Dragon' pressed on to the G1 Hong Kong Cup over 2000 meters, but was only fourth to California Memory (Highest Honor {Fr}). Possessed of a tremendous turn of foot, the 6-year-old signed off on the 2011-2012 season with a second in the Champions and Chater Cup going 12 panels, but resumed with a sparkling 1 1/2-length victory from Glorious Days (Aus) (Hussonet) under top weight in the Sha Tin Trophy H. Oct. 28. Sweet Orange (War Front) proved a consistent performer last season, first domestically with a win in the Hong Kong Classic Mile and a third to Fay Fay (NZ) (Falkirk) in the prestigious Hong Kong Derby before filling the same spot in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup in April. He makes his first start here since finishing runner-up in the 1400-meter Premier Cup H. in June, but an arthritis problem in a fetlock has forced trainer David Ferraris to bring him along slowly, and though he is probably better at slightly further, Sweet Orange will likely be campaigned at this trip this term. "I can't train him for that sort of distance any more so it looks like he'll have to be a miler now," the conditioner told South China Morning Post. "The condition can't be fixed, the same as arthritis in human beings."

QUESTIONS SURROUND FAVES IN SPRINT

Having run fifth and 10th, respectively, in the G1 Sprinters' S. at Nakayama Sept. 30, Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Little Bridge (NZ) (Faltaat), Hong Kong's top two short-track specialists, appear vulnerable in today's G2 Jockey Club Sprint at Sha Tin. Lucky Nine, last year's G1 Hong Kong Sprint hero, was a very good third in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen last March and third to Xtension (Ire) (Xaar {GB}) in the G1 Champions Mile in May. He was 11th in the G1 Yasuda Kinen June 3 and had a troubled passage in the Sprinters, finishing less than two lengths behind the winner. However, trainer Caspar Fownes warned that his charge is "85% fit" and "not quite right in the coat" in this prep for the HKIR. Little Bridge registered an historic win for Hong Kong in the G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot June 19 and was never a factor at Nakayama, coming home 4 1/2 lengths adrift of the winner. He is the defending champ of this event and was fourth behind Lucky Nine on the big day, but may also be in need of this run. Singapore's Rocket Man (Aus) (Viscount {Aus}) dead-heated for the win in this two years ago, and the nearly untouchable Super Easy (NZ) (Darci Brahma {NZ}) represents the nation this afternoon. He most recently lost his unbeaten record to the superfilly Better Life (Aus) (Smarty Jones) in the Kranji Mile Oct. 7. "I'm very hopeful about Sunday's race--I have a lot of faith in the horse and I just want to see him perform to his best so I can get a gauge on where he sits against some of the better horses," said trainer Michael Freedman.

A TRIP DOWN MEMORY LANE?

California Memory (Highest Honor {Fr}) continues his build-up to a defense of his title in the G1 Hong Kong Cup in the G2 Jockey Club Cup, a race in which he was only fourth as the 3-5 favorite a year ago. But the popular gray has fallen on tougher times since his big-race win last December, with six straight defeats, though his running-on fifth, beaten 2 1/2 lengths behind Ambitious Dragon, in the Sha Tin Trophy H. Oct. 28 over a trip well shy of his best. "What's very important is that he ran fifth, he pulled up good and I'm happy with him," said trainer Tony Cruz. "I didn't expect him to win first up--he was carrying a big weight and it was too short for him." Third to Liberator (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) in the Champions and Chater Cup last May, Dominant (Ire) (Cacique {Ire}) was an even sixth in a domestic Group 3 over 1400 meters Oct. 1, but turned in a much-improved effort in the Sa Sa Ladies' Purse H. Oct. 14, overcoming a slow dispatch to finish second to Packing Whiz (Ire) (Trade Fair {GB}). He is drawn ideally for this in two, while California Memory and Packing Whiz, who figure to take plenty of play, have the two widest alleys.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

The hulking Shackleford was seventh last time in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile Nov. 3. "There are a lot of factors to consider," trainer Dale Romans said of making the decision on where to run. "We'll make a decision by Monday morning because there's a plane to New York on Tuesday." Of the work, Romans added, "He worked really well like he always does, and then cooled out fine." Cubbedge and Lauffer were on hand for the work, and the former offered, "We'll see how he comes out of the work and we also want to look at the weather. We want to run on a nice, fast racetrack. He loves it here [at Churchill Downs] and always runs well here, but he likes it at Aqueduct, too."

TATTERSALLS JOIN FORCES WITH OSARUS

Tattersalls announced that they have formed a strategic alliance with the French sales company Osarus. Tattersalls revealed that they will provide logistics and personnel, as well as administrative and financial support to the firm, which currently stages four auctions annually, including a breeze-up at Pornichet and a yearling sale at La Teste-de-Buch.

Auction at La Teste-de-Buch

Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said, "This new alliance is an exciting venture for both Tattersalls and Osarus. We have been closely observing the progress and development of Osarus for a while now, and have been enormously impressed with the way in which the team has established a niche in the French market in a relatively short space of time. Osarus is a French company working hard for French breeders, and we hope that our new arrangement will allow them to continue to develop and build upon the success that they have worked so hard to achieve in recent years. Our involvement with Osarus also reflects the importance that Tattersalls has always placed on building and strengthening relationships in key markets around the world. The French racing and breeding industry is well-structured and well-funded, and the close ties between Tattersalls and Osarus emphasise the high regard in which we hold both Osarus and the wider French industry."

Emmanuel Viaud, Managing Director of Osarus, added, "This is a very significant moment in the continuing development of Osarus. The strategic alliance between ourselves and the leading bloodstock auctioneers in Europe is a huge endorsement for Osarus and for the French bloodstock industry. We are a young, ambitious team with a vision based on our confidence in the French breeding industry, and we are delighted that Tattersalls shares our vision. Osarus has enjoyed its best ever year in 2012, in particular at our flagship September Yearling Sale at La Teste, and together with our new partners Tattersalls, we look forward to building on this success and to continuing to provide the best possible service to French breeders in the years to come."

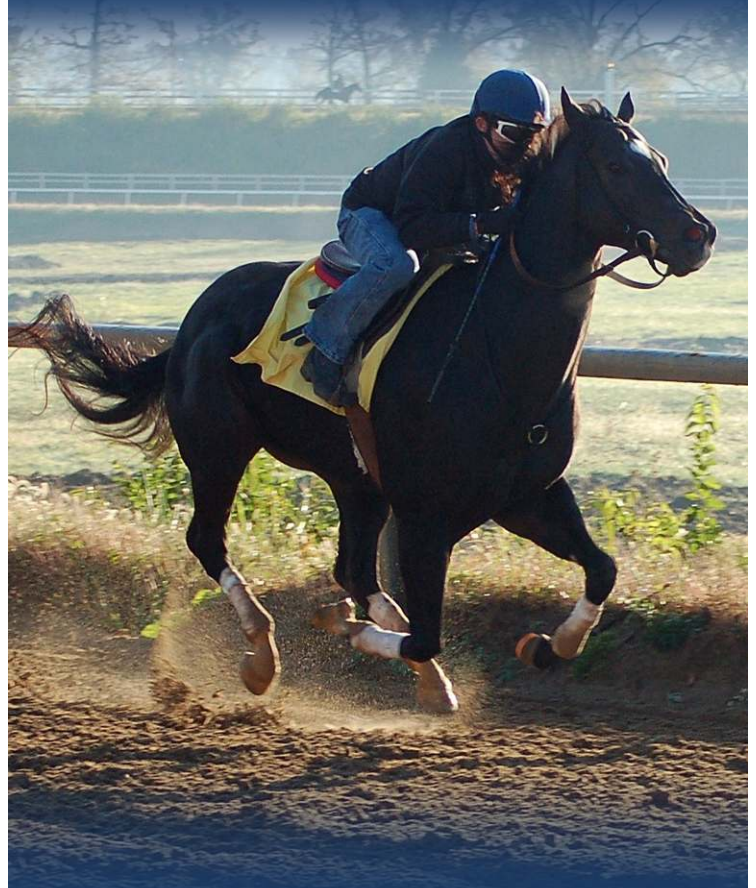

DETTORI HEARING ON TUESDAY

France Galop have announced that the inquiry into Frankie Dettori's positive test for a prohibited substance will take place on Tuesday. The actual findings of the test, which was carried out after racing at Longchamp Sept. 16, are unknown at present, but the Italian was keen to stress this week through his solicitor that it was not for a performance-enhancing drug.

Placed on the sidelines for the next 12 months, the Janney homebred resurfaced with a Keeneland allowance victory Oct. 14. Drawing in off the AE list here, Seal Cove settled in midpack and was ready to roll at the head of the lane. Churchill Downs Honors Governor's Scholars: Edited Press Release

Thirty-one outstanding high school students, members of their families and representatives of their respective schools were saluted at Churchill Downs on Friday as the track held its annual reception for participants in its Churchill Downs Governor's Scholars Program. The participation of each of those students in last summer's overall Kentucky Governor's Scholars Program (KGSP) was funded by Churchill Downs Racetrack and its parent company, Churchill Downs Incorporated. The Churchill Downs corporate partnership with KGSP, now in its 12th year, is unique in that all students who participate as Churchill Downs Governor's Scholars must have overcome personal challenges or adversity to become high achievers in both their personal lives and the classroom. "GSP has been one of the most amazing opportunities of my life, and I'm extremely thankful," said Harrison Kirby, a senior at St. Xavier High School and one of three 2012 CDGS class members to address the gathering. "It's people who have faced difficulty. It's people who have overcome difficulty. And it's every sort of person, and that's what makes it special. It's not sitting in a room with a lot of people who are like you. It's sitting in a room with a lot of people who are different from you, and building a community with a lot of people who are different from you." Dr. Aris Cedeno, Executive Director and Academic Dean of the Kentucky Governor's Scholars Program, added, "Churchill Downs truly represents the epitome of the exemplary community support for our high-achieving future leaders. The unique focus of the Churchill Downs Governor's Scholars initiative is to recognize scholars whose academic achievement has not come easily." With the 31 members of its 2012 class, a total of 339 students have participated in the Churchill Downs Winner's Circle Governor's Scholars program since its inception in 2001. Information on the overall Kentucky Governor's Scholars program is available online at www.GSP.Ky.gov.

NOVEMBER SALE AT FAIRYHOUSE

Tattersalls Ireland host their November Breeders Flat Sale today, which in its former guise was the auction where Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab) and Paco Boy (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) were led around the ring. Twelve months ago, €2,200 was paid for the subsequent Listed Silken Glider S. winner Seolan (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}), who recently sold at the Tattersalls Autumn Horses in Training Sale for 320,000 guineas. Of the 122 yearlings catalogued and an additional two supplementary entries, first-crop sires represented include Aqlaam (GB), Bushranger (Ire), Dandy Man (Ire), Intense Focus, Mastercraftsman (Ire) and Myboycharlie (Ire).
