GUYS AND 'DOLL' IN CIGAR MILE

Multiple Grade I-winning filly Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) will make her next start against boys in Saturday's GI Cigar Mile H. at Aqueduct, confirmed her trainer William "Buff" Bradley yesterday.

Groupie Doll
 Coady Photography

Victorious in her most recent start in the seven-furlong GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint at Santa Anita Nov. 3, the chestnut was assigned 118 pounds in this weekend's mile test. Groupie Doll worked a half-mile at Churchill on Saturday, covering the distance in 48.20. Bradley, who bred and co-owns Groupie Doll with his father, Fred, indicated the 4-year-old filly would van to Aqueduct on Thanksgiving Day. "I wasn't looking for another race for her; I wasn't looking for a race against boys," Bradley said by phone from Kentucky. "I thought that trip [to and from California] might knock her back a little, but they had the parade of Breeders' Cup champions here at Churchill last weekend and she was just feeling so good. We took her to the track to train her just to let her down a little. I never even thought about the Cigar Mile until that weekend." Prior to her 4 1/2-length Breeders' Cup score, Groupie Doll recorded four straight victories: the Apr. 12 GI Madison S. at Keeneland; May 5 GI Humana Distaff S. at Churchill Downs; Sept. 8 GII Presque Isle Masters S. and Oct. 6 GII TCA S. at Keeneland. In her sole previous start against males, the homebred was three-quarters of a length behind Boys At Tosconova (Officer) going a mile in a Gulfstream optional claimer Jan. 27. "She came back good and ate up last night," observed Bradley. "Since the layoff over the summer [between the Humana Distaff and Presque Isle Masters], she's only had three starts and she's won all three of them impressively. She'll get a vacation after this regardless, but she's got something left. We want to run her when she's ready to run, and she's ready right now. The one-turn mile is good for her and I feel she can be competitive in a race like this."

2.5M GALILEO COLT TO CHAPPLE-HYAM

Newmarket-based conditioner Peter Chapple-Hyam is to be entrusted with the care of 2.5-million guineas colt Hydrogen (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), it was announced yesterday. Qatar Racing's sibling of 2007 G1 Epsom Derby victor Authorized (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) became the world's highest-priced yearling sold at public auction in 2012 when knocked down to David Redvers at Tattersalls' October Yearling Sale. "It's fantastic news and I am very honoured,"

Hydrogen (GB) at Tattersalls
 Racing Post/E Whitaker

Chapple-Hyam, who trained Authorized to Classic glory, told Racing Post. "I didn't really expect to get him, but thought I might be in with a chance. He was picked by a very good team, so only I can let them down. I had seen him at the sales before today and he looks a lovely horse. It's a long way off, but on his pedigree and everything else there is a big chance he could be a Classic prospect. It's a big boost as we are not a big stable, so this is a real pick-me-up. It's like getting the golden ticket to Willie Wonka and the Chocolate Factory."

Still going strong at the ripe age of 6, California Memory (Highest Honor {Fr}) produced a smart turn of foot late to annex Sunday's G2 Longines Jockey Club Cup at Sha Tin. Reserved off the pace in the early going, the diminutive grey split rivals late to record his first win of the season.

Another Sprint Win for Lucky Nine

According to trainer Caspar Fownes, Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) was only '85%' to defend his title in Sunday's G2 Longines Jockey Club Sprint, and it appeared it was all that was needed for the 5-year-old to stamp his ticket to next month's International festival.

Take Charge Indy Readies for Clark

GI Florida Derby winner Take Charge Indy (A.P. Indy) was given his final major work in advance of Friday's GI Clark H. at Churchill Downs. The handsome bay completed his three-panel tightener over the Louisville oval's main track in :35 2/5.

Sadamu Patek, second behind champion Orfevre (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) in last year's G1 Satsuki Sho, captured the G2 Keio Hai Spring Cup earlier in the year and was coming off an eighth-place finish in the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) in October. Fourth choice in the field of 18, Sadamu Patek settled in mid-pack early while hugging the rail. Tipped out for running room into the stretch, the bay colt powered to the lead and just held off favored Grand Prix Boss.

California Memory showed the Sha Tin faithful that there's more than a little pep left in his step, as he split rivals late to score in advance of a title defense in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup Dec. 9. "They went a bit hard up front which suited us, but we were just running our own race and he finished the race off well enough to win," said winning rider Matthew Chadwick.

G2 JC Cup cont. from p3

After besting Irian by a length on International Day last year, the popular, diminutive gray was third to Ambitious Dragon (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) in the Stewards' Cup in January and the Hong Kong Gold Cup the following month, but was a listless 12th in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. Mar. 31. Fifth over this course and distance in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup Apr. 29, he was rested off a seventh in the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup May 20 and made a splashy return, staying on strongly into fifth behind Ambitious Dragon in the Sha Tin Trophy H. Oct. 28. Snagged back from his widest draw to trail behind a genuine pace, California Memory still had them all to run down as Chadwick tried to plot a course for the final 400 meters. Zaidan had first crack and took them into the ultimate furlong, but California Memory dug in tenaciously and was up in the final stride for the victory. Irian sat a ground-saving trip and rallied stoutly, but just failed. "He's definitely improved for his last run and hopefully he'll pull up sound, and we'll be looking for the big one in December. He's a small horse, but he's got the biggest heart!" Dominant (Ire) (Cacique {Ire}), expected to be a major player, was scratched after suffering an injury during Saturday's trackwork.

Glorious Days had no answer for dual Horse of the Year Ambitious Dragon when they squared off in the Oct. 28 Sha Tin Trophy H. over this track and trip, but trainer John Size had an ace up his sleeve. Equipped with a set of blinkers for the first time, Glorious Days proved easily best here in a 300-meter dash for the wire and stamped himself as a major force for the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile. A head second to Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup going 1400 meters Mar. 4, the gelding narrowly missed at odds-on in the Chairman's Trophy Apr. 1 before running Xtension (Ire) (Xaar {GB}) to a half-length when second in the G1 Champions Mile May 6. Last of 14 in the G1 Yasuda Kinen June 3, he was soundly defeated in the Sha Tin Trophy, but took plenty of support to turn the tables here. On the fence early, Ambitious Dragon was angled off to the two path by Zac Purton and had Glorious Days apparently right where he wanted him, down on his inside. Purton took no chances and sent the favorite outside of traffic, counting on his normal devastating finish, but Glorious Days, given a slightly more dangerous ride by Douglas Whyte, quickened up better still and went on to a convincing score. "I always thought, in the last four runs, that he would need blinkers and that they would really switch him on, but you never know until you get to race day," said Whyte. "I've never travelled so sweetly on him since the first time he ran. He helped me out through the run and when I've pressed the button, he's taken up any slack and taken the gap that I've wanted and just been a man about it."

At the end of the day, 85% was good enough. Trainer Caspar Fownes told anyone who'd listen that he did not have reigning G1 Hong Kong Sprint hero Lucky Nine fully cranked for this lead-up event, but the favorite obliged and looms a serious contender when he goes in search of another Sprint Dec. 9. Subsequently best over Glorious Days in the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup Mar. 4, Lucky Nine was an excellent third in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, then returned home to be a very good third to Xtension in the Champions Mile when stretched to the limits of his pedigree. He was 11th in the Yasuda Kinen and returned to Japan for the Sept. 30 G1 Sprinters' S., but found traffic and was fifth, beaten under two lengths. Settled in midfield behind a relatively easy opening couple furlongs, Lucky Nine gave Melbourne Cup-winning jockey Brett Prebble a rocking-chair ride on the turn. Peeled out for clear running as they cut the corner, the favorite joined Singapore's Super Easy (NZ) (Darci Brahma {NZ}) at the furlong grounds, worked past that one and held on late. cont. p6

Time After Time, slowly away and well back early, came flying late to make a race of it, while Super Easy reportedly lost a shoe and bled en route to a sixth. "Brett gave him a good run, he was jogging on the corner and I think his condition gave out the last 50 meters, but he was good enough to win it," Fownes said. "It was a good run by the second horse, but in saying that, I feel in the next three weeks Lucky Nine's going to really come on for this run, and he has a great record third up. He was a little bit off in his coat and there's nothing like a race to bring on a horse's coat."

Seismos, who ran sixth in Cologne's G1 Preis von Europa on pattern-race debut Sept. 25, was runner-up in the Oct. 8 G3 Baden-Wurtemberg-Trophy at Baden-Baden, and continued his swift rise through the ranks with a five-length triumph in the G3 Hubertus-Liebrecht-Gedachtnispreis back at the Iffezheim track last time Oct. 21. He was settled off the pace in fourth for most of this, Europe's final group race of the year. Improving one spot rounding the home turn, the eventual winner was ridden along to challenge in early stretch and kept on well under a final-furlong drive to assert for a third black-type success. "The trip was just right and it was a brilliant ride by Andrea Atzeni," commented Gestut Karlshof's Bruno Faust. "Seismos may not be done for the season and could still have one more run this year, possibly in France."

"The program that distributes Thoroughbred breeder awards has gained more than $6 million in new revenue since Aqueduct Racetrack's racino opened last fall. An audit released Friday by state Comptroller Thomas DiNapoli says Thoroughbred Breeding and Development Fund revenues are expected to total $17.3 million this year, compared to $10.9 million a year ago." Paul Post, The Record

Brushed by a Star, winner of the Nov. 3 Gil Chilukki S. at Churchill Downs for Team Forster, was sold for $400,000 only a few days later at the Fasig-Tipton November sale in Lexington. Purchased by Unlimited Equine LLC, the 4-year-old has been sent to trainer Eddie Kenneally. "She came to us very good," Kenneally said. "She's sound and healthy. We'll try not to change anything. She just won a Grade II. They did a fine job with her." In the Chilukki, Joyful Victory finished runner-up for the third straight time. "We'll have to see if [Brushed by a Star] improves first time in a new home because sometimes they do that, but maybe [trainer] Grant [Forster] had the key to her," trainer Larry Jones said. "We'll see, but our horse is good and we're ready."

New York-bred Willet came home a 9 1/4-length winner of Belmont's Iroquois S. against statebreds Oct. 20 following a third in an open allowance at the Elmont oval Sept. 23 and a runner-up finish at the Spa Aug. 20. The bay faces graded company for her first attempt at a mile. "She really ran great," said co-owner Jimmy Iselein. "Every once in awhile, things happen on schedule. We wanted to run her once in Saratoga and twice at Belmont and, even though we had a few bumps in the road, we were able to do that. So, this will be the fourth race of that cycle. She's fit, so we just want her to be happy and healthy. I think she'll be well-suited to the distance." R Gypsy Gold, winner of in Belmont's Endear S. July 4, finished third in the July 29 GII Molly Pitcher S. before a sixth and fifth, respectively, in the Aug. 26 GI Personal Ensign H. and GIII Turnbackthe Alarm H. Oct. 27. "On occasion she's run well enough to be competitive in a race like this, and it's a small field," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "She breezed well yesterday. She's puzzled me the last couple of races, because she's breezed very well and not run as well as she's breezed."

Take Charge Indy Readies for Clark

Take Charge Indy (A.P. Indy), winner of last spring's GI Florida Derby, recorded his final major work in advance of Friday's GI Clark H. at Churchill Downs. Accompanied by Johnny Byrne, the bay reeled off opening fractions of :12 and :24 for a half before completing three furlongs in :35 2/5 over the main track. "He did it well and Johnny said he did it in hand," confirmed trainer Pat Byrne. Yesterday's move was the second official work for the colt since a third in the Oct. 27 GII Fayette S. at Keeneland in his most recent start. He negotiated three panels in :35 3/5 over Churchill's main track Nov. 10. "He got so much out of [the Fayette]," said Byrne. "I bet he's five or six lengths better [now]. I was so apprehensive going into the Fayette off a six-month layoff, but I could only train him so much. He nearly pulled it off."

“I don't know if there's enough words to describe how impressive he was that day” Jerry Bailey

FRANKEL'S BROTHER TO STAND IN KENTUCKY

Bullet Train (GB) (Sadler's Wells--Kind {Ire}, by Danehill), a three-quarter brother to undefeated British champion Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), will enter stud in Kentucky in 2013. Winner of the 2010 G3 Lingfield Derby Trial S. before finishing 12th behind Workforce (GB) (King's Best) in the G1 Investec Derby, Bullet Train has become best known as the pacemaker for Frankel, having partnered that two-time Cartier Horse of the Year in all six of his starts in Britain this year. The deal to stand the 5-year-old in Kentucky was brokered by California-based agent Bob Feld and agent Hubert Guy.

"Frankel has been heralded as the greatest ever, and it would be hard to dispute that," Feld commented. "To offer a three-quarter brother to Frankel by Sadler's Wells to American breeders is very exciting. It will be an outstanding opportunity to breed that same Classic bloodline into American mares, at a stud fee considerably less than what Frankel commands." Bullet Train is set to arrive in the U.S. this week, with stud plans to be finalized shortly thereafter.

 Claimed by these connections for $30,000 from Sullivan Lane Stable and Rick Dutrow, Jr. in March, Saginaw has now racked up eight wins and only one out-of-the-exacta finish from 10 tries since the barn switch. He bested subsequent Empire Classic winner Lunar Victory (Speightstown) two back in Belmont's Sept. 23 Promenade All S., and was heavily favored here despite the presence of 2010 Empire Classic winner Friend or Foe, who was coming off a 15-month lay-off. Saginaw was second last time in the Oct. 20 Hudson S. at Big Sandy. Pressing the pace while the gargantuan Friend or Foe galloped along behind, Saginaw took over a half-mile from home and was always doing enough to keep his main rival at bay in a solid effort for both runners. Russell Road has been a picture of consistency competing at Charles Town, taking three stakes over that strip already this year. Those contests, however, were over shorter distances, and he was most recently second, beaten eight lengths, by Lucy's Bob Boy over this track and trip in the West Virginia Breeders' Classic Oct. 20, a race he won last year. Breaking from the outside post, the crowd's third choice established midpack position while traveling wide early. Advancing on the pacesetters approaching the turn, Russell Road gained the lead while three wide at the quarter pole and shook off a stubborn Lucy's Bob Boy to return to the winner's circle.

SAYLER'S CREEK (c, 2, Bernstein--Postulant, by Pulpit) kicked off his career with a fourth-place finish on the Keeneland turf Oct. 10, and switched to the Polytrack 10 days later to finish third. Sent off at odds of 7-1 for his dirt debut after drawing into this oversubscribed field, the homebred raced near the back of the pack early and made a four-wide rally rounding the turn. He gained the lead in deep stretch with a tenacious Golden Soul (Perfect Soul) to his inside, and bested that first-time starter by a head on the wire. Valenzuela To Undergo Knee Surgery:

Jockey Patrick Valenzuela, who returned to riding in April after announcing his retirement at the end of last year, will take some time off to undergo knee surgery, according to his agent Tom Knust. "He injured the [right] knee at Del Mar," Knust explained. "The problem is, he can't work horses right now, so he thought it would be the right time to address the issue." Knust did not specify when Valenzuela, who piloted Sunday Silence to victory in the 1989 GI Kentucky Derby, may return to riding.

Nipissing is yet to find any competition in her four career starts after coming home an easy winner at 1-9 odds here. The homebred earned her diploma first out by three lengths Aug. 24 before annexing an open first-level allowance by 2 1/4 lengths Sept. 28. She handled the stretch-out to take the well-funded Princess Elizabeth S. over this track and trip last time Oct. 28. Guided into the clear by Steven Bahen approaching the first turn, the bay traveled sweetly as she bided her time in third behind moderate fractions. Nipissing inched closer from the three path on the home turn and blew her foes away at the head of the lane to win like a 1-9 shot should. "She loves to run," said Bahen. "She wants to run all day long. I really was impressed when she worked the first time by herself, and she went in a minute, and it was just so easily done." Trainer Rachel Halden echoed Bahen's sentiments, adding, "She's always done everything I've asked her to do. She's been a great filly to be around from day one. Very straightforward, uncomplicated and she's just a pleasure." Halden said she is looking forward to more ground for her stable star in 2013, with an eye towards the Woodbine Oaks and Queen's Plate. "From day one, the way she trains and in her works, she's always galloping out strong, always looking for more ground," she said. "In the race in the afternoon, she's always galloping out strong so that mile and a quarter might be okay." Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

CLODOVIL FILLY STARS AT FAIRYHOUSE

A daughter of Clodovil (Ire) finished up on top at Tattersalls Ireland's November Yearling Sale yesterday when selling to Beliar Bloodstock for €33,000. From Rathasker Stud, hip 116 is a full-sister to the classy hurdler Any Given Day (Ire) and a half to the listed-placed Lujana Boy (Ire) (Lujain).

Of the colts, the main draw proved to be Bruce Lodge Stud's hip 104, a Lawman (Fr) half-brother to last year's G3 Diamond S. scorer Freedom (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) who sold to Con Marnane for €27,000.

Another Clodovil sold for €26,000 to Gill Richardson Bloodstock. Hip 84, who, like the sale topper was from Rathasker Stud, is a half-brother to the 2005 G2 Maurice Lacroix-Trophy winner Ajigolo (GB) (Piccolo {GB}) and the listed performers Silver Guest (GB) (Lujain) and Indiannie Star (GB) (Fraam {GB}).

Cowanstown Stud's hip 97, a daughter of Shamardal whose group-placed dam Bunood (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) is the dam of the smart 2-year-old filly Lanansaak (Ire) (Zamindar), was knocked down to Jimmy Coogan for €21,000.

This auction brought to a close the sale year for the firm and General Manager Roger Casey reflected on the past months. "Tattersalls Ireland has again had an encouraging sales year, keeping figures at a consistent level to the previous two years' significant gains," he said. "Following on from the positive results of last week's National Hunt Sales, a successful change in format for today's November Yearling Sale, concentrating only on yearlings, we have posted the best returns for this sale in six years and it has certainly given us a platform to develop this sale in the future. It has also been heartening to see purchasers here from the UK, Switzerland, Italy and the Czech Republic, in addition to our usual domestic clients. We have been really encouraged by the positive feedback from vendors regarding this sale. We have again proven we can get the purchasers and we need to develop the support of Irish vendors in the years ahead. We look forward to improving the quality of next year's sale even further."

ARQANA STAGE AUTUMN SALE

Arqana's two-day Autumn Sale gets underway at the Elie de Brignac sales complex at Deauville today, with a clutch of horses-in-training and yearlings on offer for both jumps and flat codes. With 534 lots set to go through the ring, cast-offs of the powerful stables of Pascal Bary, Robert Collet, Mikel Delzangles, Andre Fabre, Freddy Head, Elie Lellouche and Alain de Royer Dupre are certain to attract the usual attention, alongside drafts from the breeding operations of His Highness The Aga Khan Studs and Wertheimer et Frere.

Notable lots among the horses in training include hip 75, the winning 3-year-old colt Mr Moonlight (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), a half-brother to the Niarchos family's star performer Bago (Fr) (Nashwan) and smart pattern-race scorer Maxios (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) consigned by Jonathan Pease; and hip 111, Christiane Head-Maarek's sophomore Francastel (Fr) (Gold Away {Ire}), a full-brother to Haras du Quesnay's sire Full of Gold (Fr) and half to the similarly talented Fuisse (Fr) (Green Tune).

Tomorrow's 294-strong yearling collection features some who did not make the cut for the numerically reduced October Sale. Haras d'Haspel's hip 459 is a son of Mr. Greeley whose dam is a half to the 1994 G1 Epsom Derby hero Erhaab and champion Oumaldaaya (Nureyev).

Selling starts at 1 p.m. Full catalogue and updates are available on www.arqana.com.
