UNQUENCHABLE THIRST

Making his final career start before heading off to stud at Coolmore, Stay Thirsty (Bernardini) was up in the final jump to deny the filly Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) in Saturday's GI Cigar Mile H. at Aqueduct. It was the third consecutive graded-stakes win on the card for New Yorker Mike Repole. "I grew up 10 minutes from here. I said, 'this is my Breeders' Cup weekend,'" Repole commented. "We won four graded stakes [since Thursday]. I don't care how long I'm in racing, you're not going to win three graded stakes in a row, two with 2-year-olds and one with Stay Thirsty, who means so much to me." Cigar Mile H. cont. p3

MOUNTING A CHALLENGE

British-based runners don't exactly have a sparkling record in the G1 Japan Cup. They have accounted for just four winners in the 30 year history of the $5.7-million race that is typically dominated by the home team. It is worth noting, however, that when Alkaased (Kingmambo) took the 2005 edition for team Britain, internationally renowned trainer Luca Cumani was at the controls. Cumani returns tomorrow with Dr. Marwan Koukash's

Mount Athos Racing Post

Mount Athos (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), who offers value off a big run in the G1 Melbourne Cup in Australia three weeks ago, where he came from near last in the 24-horse field to finish a fast-closing fifth. "Given how [slowly] they went, I think he did very well," said Mathew Cumani, assistant trainer to his father. "I think we have to just write it off and say that it didn't go our way that day, but he did enough to impress us and to show us that he is in good form." Japan Cup cont. p12

Hey Mikey....He Likes It!...

Winner of the GI Travers S., GII Jim Dandy S. and GIII Gotham S. and runner-up in the GI Belmont S. at three, Stay Thirsty was runner-up to the free-running Trickmeister (Proud Citizen) in the May 17 Vanlandingham S. at Belmont, but faltered to finish a well-beaten fifth behind Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno) and Hymn Book (Arch) in the July 7 Suburban H. in Elmont. He raced evenly en route to a non-threatening fifth behind To Honor and Serve (Bernardini) in the GI Woodward S. at Saratoga Sept. 1, the dark bay took advantage of a track which seemed to favor the inside paths to miss by a head to Flat Out (Flatter) after setting the pace in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Sept. 29. He was one of several horses owned by Repole not to make the trip to California for the Breeders' Cup and was programmed for his final career start here.

Things Don't Always Go As Planned...

Unlike Thursday's GIII Fall Highweight H., where pre-race instructions were provided by Repole, trainer Todd Pletcher was on hand, and the strategy was to ride Stay Thirsty closer to the pace, which figured only moderate in the absence of Associate (Wando). But the 4-year-old was last away and sat fourth out of the chute as Buffum (Bernardini) led inside of Coil and a three-wide Groupie Doll through a very easy opening quarter-mile.

The tempo quickened in the middle stages of the race and Groupie Doll was the first to make her bid three wide at the head of the stretch. Stay Thirsty, who had been steered out to the four path by Ramon Dominguez, was winding up from behind and set his sights on the filly entering the final furlong. Groupie Doll fought hard for every yard, but Stay Thirsty kept taking ground from that one and was able to get his nose down on the wire.

"I would have loved to have been sitting closer, but it turned out I was happy with the position," the winning jockey stated. "When I had a chance to go outside, I did. [Groupie Doll] was game and she was hard to get by. It was great to see him do that and show a different style today. I wasn't sure [in the stretch], but he was running." Buff Bradley, trainer of the runner-up, was philosophical in defeat. "She ran a hell of a race. I'm glad we came," he said. "I knew Stay Thirsty was coming at us, he ran a great race, too. I thought she ran her race and ran very well. I'm very proud of her. I knew she'd gotten nosed out. Tough field." Runner-up to Book Review (Giant's Causeway) in her May 20 bow at Belmont Park, Dance Card graduated by a half-length July 6 and tacked on a first-level allowance victory going nine furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 17. The gray filly negotiated the hike into stakes competition with aplomb, taking the Sept. 23 Belle Cherie S. by 7 1/2 lengths despite drifting out badly in the final stages. A bit slow to leave the gate, Dance Card pressed forward to lead entering the clubhouse turn and set a comfortable tempo while chased by My Wandy's Girl, back just nine days after a victory in the Pentelis S. Dance Card traveled smoothly on the turn and got the better of My Wandy's Girl at the quarter pole, then held safe to the wire despite failing to keep a straight path in the stretch yet again. Sea Island, rank and a tough ride down the backstretch, was last into the lane, but finished willingly to touch My Wandy's Girl out of second. "When she drifted out in the stretch, she was just looking around," commented winning rider Ramon Dominguez, celebrating his 36th birthday. "I'm not worried about it, or complaining about it. She's a beautiful animal with high cruising speed and she can pick it up whenever you ask her. She was perfect through the whole race, and down the lane she wanted to drift out some, but she keeps running. She's special, and I love her."

Perhaps the lesser-preferred of a Mike Repole-owned and Todd Pletcher-trained entry, Overanalyze belied doubts about his ability to stay this distance to photo a game Normandy Invasion in the Remsen. One of a plethora of debut winners for this barn at Saratoga Aug. 9, the bay colt could do no better than fourth behind champion-elect Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday) in the GII Three Chimneys Hopeful S. at Saratoga Sept. 3. The bay overcame some trouble at the start en route to a sweeping 3 1/4-length victory in the GII Futurity S. at Belmont Sept. 30, but was exiting a distant third-place effort behind Uncaptured (Lion Heart) in Churchill's GIII Iroquois S. Oct. 28. Three wide out of the stretch for the first time, Overanalyze tugged Ramon Dominguez up into a stalking second as stablemate Delhomme laid down the fractions up front. Overanalyze still had the pacemaker to catch leaving the quarter pole, but both had Normandy Invasion to worry about, as the Fox Hill runner stormed into contention three wide in upper stretch and looked to have all the momentum. Overanalyze looked a bit one-paced inside the final furlong, but finally drove past Delhomme and outslugged Normandy Invasion to the wire.

Back on just 15 days' rest, Unlimited Budget kicked off a wildly successful afternoon for Team Repole with this front-running victory. Almost in spite of himself, Repole signed the ticket on the Florida-bred filly after she breezed a quarter-mile in :21 3/5 ahead of the OBS March Sale (see related story) and she was brought along slowly by trainer Todd Pletcher. Dismissed at odds of 7-1--double her morning line--for her Nov. 9 debut over a mile of this main track, the bay tracked the pace and stormed away to score by 9 1/2 lengths, earning ♣ "TDN Rising Star" ♣ honors. Ridden for speed here by John Velazquez, the even-money second choice showed the way early through even fractions from Giant Cats Eye and a rail-skimming Emollient, who took a late hit into 4-5 favoritism. Velazquez allowed Unlimited Budget to set the pace in about the two path, and Junior Alvarado bit hook, line and sinker, attempting to send Emollient through an inviting opening at the fence at about the 4 1/2-furlong point. But Unlimited Budget quickened into the turn and though she began to look for the wire about a furlong out, held sway late over a green Emollient. "You're always concerned running back a little quick, but she seemed to bounce out of the race pretty well, physically and mentally," Pletcher explained of the decision to race right back. "She did everything right, never seemed to turn a hair, and came back with a really good work the other day. We felt it was a calculated risk.

Uncaptured annexed the first four starts of his career, with black-type scores in the June 30 Clarendon S. and July 28 Vandal S. against restricted company ahead of a 3 1/4-length success in the Sept. 9 Swynford S. He lost his unbeaten record when fifth in the Oct. 7 GIII Grey S. at Woodbine, but bounced back with an impressive 5 1/2-length tally from Positively (Distorted Humor) in the GIII Iroquois S. here Oct. 28. Uncaptured broke well and was guided immediately down to the fence, conceding the early lead to Track Rocker (Rock Hard Ten) before coming off the inside to chase outside from second down the backstretch. The favorite poked a head in front at the three-furlong marker, but was confronted immediately by Frac Daddy, and the two raced side by side for the final quarter mile. Frac Daddy appeared to have the advantage with Uncaptured pinned down to his inside, but the Oxley runner would simply not be denied in the final stages. Dewey Square came with an eye-catching finish to be a promising third. "Honestly, at the eighth pole I thought he was beat," Casse said. "Very seldom does a 2-year-old get headed, be on the inside and come back and win. He showed his gameness today. Good horses can win, when things don't go perfect."

Seaneen Girl, who had made the majority of her starts to date in claiming company, belied class questions to cause a boilover in the Golden Rod. An easy winner of her June 22 debut against $50,000 maiden claimers at Woodbine, the May foal was fifth of six in the Aug. 11 Ontario Debutante S. prior to a third in a $40,000 tagger Aug. 18. Fourth, beaten under a length in what has emerged a key $40,000 claimer in Toronto Sept. 12, she gave an outstanding account of herself when completing the exactor for her freshman sire in the GIII Mazarine S. in her first two-turn journey Oct. 6. Acquired privately by Naveen Chowhan, who raced Runway Model (Petionville) to a win in the 2004 Golden Rod, she was easily the longest shot while trying a conventional dirt surface for the first time in her career. Seaneen Girl was four wide around the first turn, then slid up into a midfield position following Gal About Town down the backstretch. She tipped outside of that favored rival as they cornered for home, drew on even terms at the eighth pole and won the sprint to the line. Asked how the winner compares to Runway Model, Flint commented, "She's very much like her. She's laid back and she's not a big, imposing filly, but she's extremely sound and when she trains, whatever you want her to do she'll do. If you want her to breeze, she'll breeze. If you want her to gallop, she'll gallop. She's just a nice horse all around."

Twilight Eclipse got a perfect trip and led home a trio of double-digit horses as the big guns failed to fire. Visually impressive in winning his first two career starts at Indiana Downs for owner and trainer John Langemeier, he was then purchased privately by this coast-to-coast outfit. A better-than-it-looks sixth in the Aug. 30 Equalize S. going a mile at Saratoga, the bay had plenty of pace to run at in the GIII Kent S. at Delaware Sept. 22, but stayed on at one pace in the stretch to finish a midpack fifth. Switched to the dirt for the Temperance Hill S. at Belmont Oct. 21, Twilight Eclipse showed much-improved early speed and battled on gamely to finish third by a length. Taking full advantage of his inside stall, Ioya Bigtime (Dynaformer) made a reasonably easy lead and set a moderate pace as Twilight Eclipse was his closest pursuer. The Illinois-bred, as has become his custom, got aggressive in the middle stages of the race, covering the second half-mile in :47 4/5, and Forte Dei Marmi (GB) (Selkirk), third last time in the GI Canadian International S., crept into contention approaching the end of the backstretch. But that one came off the bridle nearing the lane, and it was clear that Twilight Eclipse was going best of all and was the main danger. He tackled Ioya Bigtime right at the eighth pole and ran out a comfortable winner, as longshots Mucho Mas Macho and Vertiformer completed a trifecta worth $11,677 and some change. "I knew the horse I wanted to follow around and that was the number one horse," victorious jockey Manoel Cruz said. "And once I got in behind him, my horse settled so nice. We had such good position through the whole race and I just waited. And when I wanted to go, he just took off for me and he finished so, so strong."

Magic Broomstick ran her record on synthetic tracks to three wins from five appearances with this good-looking victory. Ninth to Never Retreat (Smart Strike) in the GII Canadian S. last September and third in the River Memories S. the following month, the dark bay made a successful first start for this barn when scoring by three lengths in the Sept. 30 Avowal S. sprinting over the local turf. She returned to the Polytrack for the first time in nearly 2 1/2 years last time out, coming from behind to land the off-turf River Memories S. by a half-length Oct. 27. A bit hesitant from the stalls, Magic Broomstick was in sixth and at the tail end of the leading group as they sprinted into the far turn. Full of run, but committed to a wide trip into the lane, she was switched out, kicked over to her right lead and finished nicely for the victory.

Csaba, who missed by a nose in an off-turf renewal of the GII Hall of Fame S. at Saratoga Aug. 10, was heavily favored off a career-best 106 Beyer in winning the Tropical Park Derby by 14 lengths Oct. 13. His main rival in the market was Ducduc, victorious two back in the Sept. 8 Our Dear Peg S., also off the grass, and exiting a runner-up effort in the GIII Spend A Buck H. Oct. 13. Csaba jumped nicely and took them along at a reasonable clip, but had some company, as Ducduc raced in fourth, about 10 from the front. Csaba got the better of the pace battle up front, but Ducduc was finding his best stride further back, and the table was set for an interesting final quarter mile. Csaba was put to a Luis Saez drive entering the ultimate furlong, but Ducduc kept plugging away and goosed Csaba on the wire.

Den's Legacy missed by a nose in a July 21 maiden sprinting at Del Mar, then overcame a bobble at the break to graduate by a neck at the seaside oval Aug. 26. An overmatched fifth in the Sept. 29 GI FrontRunner S. won by stablemate Power Broker (Pulpit), the bay missed by a half length to Gervinho (Unusual Heat) in the Zuma Beach S. Oct. 8 and was exiting a runner-up effort to Gabriel Charles (Street Hero) in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint Preview S. Nov. 3. Tucked in at the rail in fourth here, Den's Legacy was patiently handled by Garrett Gomez, waiting for somewhere to go in the stretch. The gap came at the fence at the three-sixteenths, and Den's Legacy punched through in an instant, then held off a solid late run from Rising Legend for the victory. "I knew this horse would go through wherever I pointed him. He's pretty handy that way," Gomez confirmed. "He was hitting the hole that wasn't there yet. When the hole opened up, I told him, 'Let's go.' I just didn't want to go from zero to 100 as fast as I could. I kind of pushed the gas pedal down and he kicked on. I didn't want to get into him any more than needed. I didn't think (Rising Legend) could get to me."

Travesura debuted with a third--albeit beaten by eight lengths--behind "TDN Rising Star"

Executiveprivilege (First Samurai) in their mutual career debut on the Betfair Hollywood Park Cushion Track June 28. Fifth as the favorite on Del Mar's Polytrack July 29, the chestnut missed some time, but resurfaced to don cap and gown on the Santa Anita hill Oct. 7. Though listed at 5-1 on the morning line here, she drifted up to 11-1 by the time the gates flew open. Travesura was eager to get things under way on the front end and was still in front when the challenges began to mount at the head of the lane. Euro shipper Pussycat Lips experienced some traffic trouble, but Travesura stayed on gamely to notch her first graded trophy. "I wasn't really expecting to be on the lead," said winning rider Tyler Baze. "If they let me go easy, I'm going to take it. I really thought she could route after her last race. I knew she would be tough to beat today. This is a nice filly." Winning trainer Jeff Mullins was confident that his charge would prefer the green stuff. "My only worry was the distance," he said. "I know she can run and I knew she'd like the grass, it just took forever to get her there."

BLACK-TYPE PREVIEWS

Foreign Raiders Face Tall Task in Japan Cup...

Prior to his journey down under, Mount Athos strung together three straight victories going a route in England. He opened his 5-year-old campaign May 19 with a victory going 1 3/4 miles at the handicap level at Newmarket. Two months later he added the listed John Smith's Silver Cup over the same trip at York, and he made it a hat trick Aug. 18 with a victory over Brown
 Panther (GB) (Shirocco {Ger}) in the G3 Geoffrey Freer
 S. at Newbury. Mount Athos will have to contend with a firm course and a shorter trip in today's 1 1/2-mile race, but Mathew Cumani believes the conditions will be to the gelding's liking.

"The ground won't be a problem," Cumani stated.
 "Fast going is what he likes. He showed that at Melbourne. Normally the Japan Cup is run at a good clip from the start, and we saw that in his race at Newbury. He enjoys a strong gallop, which we obviously didn't get at Melbourne, but he ran the fastest final 800 metres home."

Mount Athos will be joined in the Japan Cup by fellow Melbourne Cup competitors Jakkalberry (Ire)
 (Storming Home {GB}) and Red Cadeaux {GB}
 (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), who finished third and eighth, respectively. With the presence of local heroes
Orfevre (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) and Gentildonna (Jpn)
 (Deep Impact {Jpn}), as well as G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Solemia (Ire) (Poliglote {GB}), Mount
 Athos will likely face his stiffest test to date.

GRAND ENTRANCE

Today's GI Hollywood Derby at Betfair Hollywood Park has drawn an evenly matched field of 3-year-olds, and Yvonne Jacques' Grandeur (Ire) (Verglas {Ire}) has been installed the lukewarm morning-line favorite at 7-2. The gelding seeks his third-straight victory, having taken the Dubai Duty Free Conditions S. at Newbury in England Sept. 21 before adding the GII Twilight Derby Nov. 2 in his stateside debut at Santa Anita. Behind Grandeur in the Twilight Derby was Speaking of Which (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who stamped himself as one to watch in Ireland earlier this year with a nine-length victory over this distance in the G3 Gallinule S. at the Curragh May 27. The Moyglare Stud homebred was the favorite last time, and should enjoy the return to this trip. Magic City Thoroughbred Partners' Golden Ticket (Speightstown) is the lone Grade I winner in the field, a victory he had to share with Alpha (Bernardini) when dead-heating in the GI Travers S. at Saratoga Aug. 25. He returns to the turf for the first time since a second-place finish in maiden company at Gulfstream Jan. 1. Waterford Stables' Summer Front (War Front) has been a consistent player in this division throughout the latter half of the year, but has yet to break through at the highest level. He finished third in the GI Secretariat S. over 10 furlongs at Arlington Aug. 18, and filled that position again Oct. 6 in the GI Jamaica H. at Belmont. He will have to contend with a wide draw in his Southern California debut.

DAY TO SHINE

Dayatthespa (City Zip), the 2-1 morning-line favorite for today's GI Matriarch S. at Hollywood Park, signaled she was a filly with potential as a juvenile last year, winning on debut at Saratoga before finishing second in the GIII Natalma S. north of the border. This year, however, the Bradley Thoroughbreds, Frankel, and Laymon-owned 3-year-old has been a revelation, going unbeaten in five outings for trainer Chad Brown. She recorded a career-high last out, using her customary front-running style to take the GI Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Keeneland Oct. 13. Behind Dayatthespa in third that day was Godolphin's Better Lucky (Ghostzapper), who was also making her first Grade I foray. The form of that race was boosted when second-place finisher Centre Court (Smart Strike) resurfaced to win the GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill last weekend. Juddmonte Farms' homebred Emulous (GB) (Dansili {GB}) makes her North American debut here. Winner of the G1 Matron S. last year in Ireland over the talented fillies Together (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Misty for Me (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the Dermot Weld charge won the G3 Ridgewood Pearl S. at the Curragh May 26, and most recently finished third while attempting to defend her title in the Matron at Leopardstown Sept. 8. Team Valor International's Grade I winner Summer Soiree (War Front) will attempt to regain her best form after failing to find the winner's circle in two tries this year. The 4-year-old was most recently fourth in the GI First Lady S. at Keeneland Oct. 6.

Second in the 2011 GI Forego S. and third in this year's renewal, Jersey Town returned to peak form when he bested Friday's GI Clark H. hero and fellow future Darby Dan resident Shackelford (Forestry) in Belmont's Sept. 29 GI Kelso H. with a 110 Beyer Speed Figure. The chestnut was fifth last time in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile. "He's been a lovely horse--he's a tremendous horse to work with," Tagg continued. "He had minor little problems his whole career that took a lot of work, but he's very fast, very strong, very competitive, and he loves to run. Those are the kinds of horses you want. We liked everything about him. We had him since he was a 2-year-old, and he will be missed around the barn. He's like a big, old teddy bear. I would say his two best races were the 2010 Cigar Mile and the Kelso just a few weeks ago." Jersey Town retires with an overall record of 21-6-8-3 and earnings of $819,668.

NEWS TODAY

EBINA ON TOP AFTER WSJS DAY ONE

Locally based rider Masayoshi Ebina finished on top after day one of the World Super Jockey Series at Tokyo Saturday thanks to a third-place finish on Niji Bloom (Jpn) (Dance in the Dark {Jpn}) in the Excellent Jockeys Trophy and runner-up finish aboard West End (Jpn) (Pivotal {GB}) in the Fantastic Jockeys Trophy. Hong Kong representative Zachary Purton rode the winner of the Excellent Jockeys Trophy while Japan-based Isao Yamaguchi took the Fantastic Jockeys Trophy, and those two are currently second and third respectively in the overall standings. The event features 15 riders from around the world squaring off against each other in a four-race series in which points are accumulated based on finish position in each race. The 26th WSJS culminates Sunday with the Marvelous Jockeys Trophy and Prominent Jockeys Trophy.

RETIRED

JERSEY TOWN SCRATCHED FROM CIGAR MILE

Charles Fipke homebred Jersey Town (Speightstown --Jersey Girl, by Belong to Me) was expected to make the final start of his career in yesterday's GI Cigar Mile H., but a fever forced the 6-year-old to be scratched from that event and he will instead be retired and head to John Phillips's Darby Dan Farm in Lexington, Kentucky for the 2013 breeding season as previously announced. "He came up with a slight temperature and was off his feed a little bit," explained trainer Barclay Tagg. "We decided to scratch him rather than run him when he wasn't 100%. We were very disappointed at not being able to run him. He'll go to Darby Dan Farm on Monday--if he's healthy enough to travel--and be a stallion." Out of MGISW Jersey Girl, Jersey Town took the 2010 Cigar Mile as a 31-1 outsider.

Third at Keeneland Oct. 7, the Bluegrass Hall homebred was second over the same course 20 days later while wearing blinkers for the first time. The 2-1 favorite was a bit headstrong while skimming the hedge in the early stages, but was always in a handy spot. Though stuck behind a wall of horses in the lane, the bay bulled his way through and continued strongly on the inside to defeat Prado Cat (Kitten's Joy) by a half-length. Ore Pass, looking to become the seventh winner for his ill-fated freshman sire (by Cherokee Run), had been training promisingly at Fair Hill and went postward at 9-2. The dark bay colt cruised along on the front end through a :45.85 half while facing some mild pressure. He gave himself some breathing room entering the stretch and found yet another gear when jockey Julian Pimental waved the stick at him, ultimately strolling home a 10 3/4-length winner. Favored We Found Love (Not for Love) rallied for second. The winner sold for $25,000 as a weanling at a reduction of Pam and Martin Wygod's California bloodstock at Barretts in 2010, and resold 13 months ago for $100,000 at KEESEP. Zapper Belle gained black-type when finishing third in the Hatoof S. at Arlington Aug. 18, and finished seventh next out Sept. 15 in her graded stakes debut in the GIII Pucker Up S. over the same course. She gained a graded placing when finishing third most recently in the GIII Valley View S. at Keeneland Oct. 19. Settling in fourth off the rail early, the homebred was under pressure rounding the turn and used the length of the stretch to reel in Cat Lore. Francisca made a late run to grab second. Trainer Daniel Pietz, who also conditioned Zapper Belle's dam for the Lows, watched the race from Churchill Downs. "Capote Belle was probably the best horse I ever trained," said Pietz by phone. "She was a Grade I winner that the Lows had, a very good sprinting filly, and she's had very few foals make it to the races, so it's nice to finally get one that could really run a little bit and win a little stake with her." Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

OBITUARIES

JOHN TAYLOR RANKIN

John Taylor Rankin, son of Kentucky-based Upson Downs Farm owners Alex and Sarah Rankin, died Wednesday, Nov. 21, at age 31. Rankin was born in Louisville and graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2003. He worked for the Commonwealth Bank and Trust in Louisville and assisted in the formation of the Eclipse Bank. He obtained a masters in business administration from the Kenan Flagler Business School at the University of North Carolina, and most recently took up a position as an Associate at the investment banking firm Lazard in New York. A funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow at St. Francis in the Fields Episcopal Church in Harrods Creek, Kentucky, with burial to follow in Cave Hill Cemetery. A visitation will be held at the church from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Expressions of sympathy may be made to the Family & Children Place, or the John Taylor Rankin Memorial Fund, Kenan Flagler Business School at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

GOFFS NOVEMBER CLOSES WITH TRADE UP

Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby was in a justifiably positive mood at the close of Goffs' November Sale yesterday. While individual lots did not match last year's record-laden editions of the foal and breeding stock books, solid trade boosted turnover beyond the 2011 aggregate of both sales. The final session of the breeding stock section was never going to match the heady heights of the previous evening's transactions, and so it proved as the Darley's Hip 1233, the 4-year-old mare Charmstone (Dynaformer), topped the closing-day sheets when knocked down to Gaurav Rampal for €29,000. Offered in foal to Cape Cross, she is from the family of the MGISW Classy Cathy (Private Account).

Despite a negligible dip in the final-session average, increases were registered across the board with the two-day aggregate making the biggest jump, surging over 17% to €8,154,000. Turnover for the six-day sale advanced over 7% to €23,158,350.

"The Goffs rallying cry for some time now has been that Irish breeders need not travel to sell as Goffs will achieve the very best prices for the best Irish horses," commented Beeby. "Our only real difficulty has sometimes been attracting the quality that would justify the price. Last year we proved some massive points in this respect at this sale, and none more so than with Europe's highest priced filly Banimpire who made €2.3 million. Her sale allowed us to promote our breeding stock sale on a different basis and attract a significantly better catalogue of mares that we could promote to a global audience.

Several major Irish breeders stepped up to the mark with some excellent drafts and we are just so pleased that their faith in Goffs has been richly rewarded by a trade of depth and consistency. That is best illustrated by the number of six-figure lots rising from six last year to 17 at this sale. That those 17 lots were spread across 12 different buyers also points to the wide diversification of buyers who were attracted to the sale by the ongoing efforts of the Goffs marketing team working side by side with Irish Thoroughbred Marketing.

Indeed this year, Goffs representatives have travelled the globe to promote our catalogues with trips to the likes of Argentina, Australia, China, Dubai, Hong Kong, India, New Zealand, Qatar, Scandinavia, Singapore, South Africa, USA, all over Europe and endless visits to the UK--not forgetting daily interaction with local buyers--to ensure the Goffs word is spread to any potential purchasers of the excellent Irish horses we promote every day of the year.

Those Goffs trips complement the work of ITM, some of them are joint initiatives and some solo runs, but it should be clear to Irish vendors that they are getting unrivalled promotion from two very proactive teams at Goffs and ITM, now enthusiastically led by Elaine Hatton who has slotted in to her new role so impressively.

At the start of the week it may have been hard to foresee building on a sale that was so impressive last year with the highlights of Banimpire and the highest priced foals in Europe. Whilst those individual highs have not been matched, the 2012 renewal of the Goffs November Sale, for mares, foals and yearlings have all made more significant advances, especially at the top and middle of the market, with the week's totals all improving.

These results follow superb editions of the Orby and Sportsman's yearlings sales where, again, those Irish vendors that sent us their best reaped the dividend. As ever, we are indebted to our international band of buyers and to every single vendor for entrusting us with their stock, whether it made €1,000 or €450,000.

Goffs exists to serve the Irish breeder, and we will not rest in our quest to persuade more and more to sell in Ireland at Goffs." Full results are available at www.goffs.com.
