By Emma Berry

Somerset nursery Ashbittle Stud consigned the session topper on another buoyant day of trade at Tattersalls, with their homebred colt by Lawman (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), Lot 796, selling for 120,000gns.

Lot 796 tattersalls.com

It was a case of love at first sight for Timmy Hyde, who bought the Valentine's Day-foaled colt with a plan to resell him next year. He is a half-brother to the 100-rated four-time winner Louis The Pious (GB) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), their dam Whole Grain (GB) (Polish Precedent) being a sister to G1 Irish Oaks winner Pure Grain (GB).

A delighted Brendan Boyle, who manages Ashbittle for owner James Rowsell, said: "He's a great-walking colt who showed himself like a true professional the whole way through. He was bred and raised by us and he's gone to a good stud. I hope he brings them lots of luck." Ashbittle Stud, based in Wellington, is home to 25 mares, a third of which are permanent boarders for clients.

Boyle added, "We may increase the number of foals we sell, and we've taken on extra horses to prep for the sales this year." Cont. p3

MEADOWLANDS HIRES P. I.

The Meadowlands Racetrack in East Rutherford, New Jersey, announced yesterday that it will hire a private investigator who will work to ensure the integrity of racing at Meadowlands, Tioga Downs, and Vernon Downs, beginning next year. This new measure was implemented by Meadowlands Chairman Jeff Gural, who operates all three Standardbred tracks. "It has always been one of my top priorities to provide a racing product whose integrity the betting public can be proud of," Gural explained. "I feel that this step is a significant one in achieving that goal. I look forward to working with our field investigator to support the world class, integrity-driven racing product the betting public wants and deserves." Cont. p10-11

FOR NEW YORK-BREDS, SUCCESS ARRIVES EARLY

By Bill Finley

When Unbridled Command (Master Command) won the Hollywood Derby, it didn't seem to strike anyone as unusual that a New York-bred had just won a Grade I race. The way New York-breds have performed this year, perhaps people have just gotten used to it.

It was always a foregone conclusion that once casino gaming came to an NYRA racetrack, the New York breeding industry would soar. But a group of horses born in New York long before the Aqueduct racino became a reality has given the state's breeding program its biggest year ever. Cont. p12-13

Snow Fairy Tests Positive

Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab) has been stripped of her victory in the G1 Prix Jean Romanet after testing positive for a prohibited substance. "Due to the significant tendon injury that she suffered at the end of last year, Snow Fairy has required anti-inflammatory medication to help the injury," trainer Ed Dunlop said in a statement. "Unfortunately, the withdrawal period was longer than we had been advised. The trainer is ultimately responsible and for that we would like to offer our sincerest apologies to all concerned parties."

Ballylinch Bonanza...

Hip 796 sealed a good day for County Kilkenny's Ballylinch Stud, whose resident stallions Lawman (Fr) and Lope de Vega (Ire) (Shamardal) were responsible for three of the four most expensive weanlings sold. There are nine more Lawman foals to be offered during the remaining two days of the sale, and the two sold thus far have both achieved six-figure returns, while the three by first-crop sire Lope de Vega to change hands did so for an average price of 55,000gns. They include the second-top lot (Lot 779), a colt out of black-type producer Woodmaven (Woodman). Denis

Brosnan's Croom House Stud is regularly among the most successful consignors at Tattersalls' October Yearling Sale, and stud manager Paul McCartan selected a key member of next year's draft when signing for the Patrick Cassidy-bred colt from Nafferty Stud.

A shrewd judge of a horse, McCartan's track record is such that it's worth taking note that he deemed the eight-month-old weanling to be "the best foal in the sale". Backing up that opinion financially, he went to 115,000gns to secure him. He wasn't the only member of his family in pursuit of the foal, as his brother, Jim, standing with Brendan Holland of Grove Stud, was the underbidder. "Guess it just runs in the family," said McCartan with a shrug of his shoulders. Cont. p4

The best Woodmaven could achieve during her two-start career was a third-place finish in a Mountaineer maiden, but two of her offspring, Sylvestris (Ire) (Arch) and Roof Fiddle (Cat Thief) are Listed-placed winners, while a third, Trumpet Voluntary (Ire) (Red Clubs {Ire}) was a winner last year as a juvenile.

Two colts shared the third-top slot with yet more bold pinhookers prepared to go to 110,000gns to secure the sons of Exceed and Excel (Aus) (Danehill) and Lawman. While the Lawman colt hailed from the extensive draft of The Castlebridge Consignment, the Exceed and Excel first foal of dual winner Wise Melody (GB) (Zamindar), Lot 544, represented the sole offering by local Redgate Bloodstock after the Kirtling-based operation withdrew its other two catalogued lots.

There were plenty of interested parties attempting to bag the February colt early in the session, but Peter and Michelle Morgan of Carmel Stud eventually prevailed. They too felt they had the pick of Park Paddocks, with Peter Morgan declaring, "we thought he was the best foal in the sale. We like the sire and did well with Exceed and Excel in the autumn."

The Exceed and Excel colt out of Gower Song (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}), bought by the couple this time last year for 70,000gns, returned a handsome profit in October when selling for 200,000gns to Charlie Gordon-Watson. Tattersalls December Foals cont. p5

Patience Pays For Norris...

Having had to give way for the Exceed and Excel colt in the morning, Liam Norris, who runs new operation Clairemont Stud in partnership with his wife, Jenny, and Dancing Rain (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) owners Martin and Lee Taylor, made a determined play for a weanling by G1 Prix du Jockey-Club winner Lawman (Lot 964). Out of 370,000gns breeze-up purchase Fonda (Quiet American), who is a half-sister to French group winner Layman (Sunday Silence), the grey colt has plenty of sire power in his family, which also boasts Cape Cross (Ire) (Green Desert), Diktat (GB) (Warning) and Iffraaj (GB) (Zafonic). He is another who will be returning to the sales as a yearling.

"I love him and I just wasn't going to be beaten on him," said a delighted Norris. "We have a lovely homebred Montjeu filly back at the farm, so we might try to buy a filly to keep her company, and we bought an Equiano colt last week at Goffs. I really like the Equiano foals as a group. They look precocious and I've seen some nice first foals by Lope de Vega, too."

Late in the day, Norris found his paddock mate for the Montjeu filly, and finally bagged his own Exceed And Excel when paying 75,000gns for Jockey Hall Stud's daughter of Trans Island (GB) (Selkirk)'s Group 3-winning sister Welsh Diva (GB) (Selkirk {GB}) (Lot 791). The mare was sold carrying the filly at last year's December Mares' Sale, when she was bought by Maurice Burns for 50,000gns.

Can't Pass Up Raven...

The other six-figure sum paid during the second session was by Darley's John Ferguson for a son of the stud's exciting young stallion Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality), who has sired 14 first-crop winners, including G2 Royal Lodge S. winner Steeler (Ire). Another Castlebridge consignee, the bay colt, Lot 638, cost 100,000gns, and is out of Superfonic (Fr) (Zafonic), a winning half-sister to the great Goldikova (Ire).

Arcano (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) was retired to Derrinstown Stud at a fee of €6,000 for 2011, and his first offerings on the market are being well-received, with a top price of €140,000 at the Goffs Foal Sale. Four have sold this week at Tattersalls for an average of 43,750gns, including the Trickle-down Stud-consigned colt out of the Distant View mare Cefira (Lot 711), who has already produced two juvenile winners. Michael Fitzpatrick took ownership of him at 77,000gns, signing under his JC Bloodstock banner.

Another son of Oasis Dream making an eye-catching start is G2 Gimcrack S. winner Approve (Ire). The Morristown Lattin Stud resident's five foals sold in the last two days have traded at an average of 31,300gns. Mehmet Kurt of Kingwood Stud plans to race his colt, Lot 735, out of the unraced Selkirk mare Mashie (GB) (Selkirk), and the omens are promising, as his 3/4-brother Four Iron (Aus) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who was foaled in Australia, but is by Oasis Dream, is a five-time winner. Cont. p6

Mashie has been well travelled--she was bought by Paul Makin at Tattersalls in July 2006, exported to Australia, and then returned to Britain in foal to Makin's Starcraft (NZ) (Soviet Star) and resold at the 2009 December Sale for 14,500gns.

Fillies Play Second Fiddle...

The fillies were heavily outnumbered at the top end of the market, with a daughter of Exceed and Excel out of Gay Romance (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}), Lot 577, leading the way at 85,000gns. Her full-brother, the four-time winner Belgian Bill (GB), was runner-up in the Listed Hyde Stakes nine days ago, and the siblings are bred on the same cross as three-time Group 1 winner Helmet (Aus) (Exceed and Excel), who has joined his sire on the Darley roster and will shuttle from his homeland to stand at Kildangan Stud in Ireland in 2013, for a fee of €10,000.

Co-bred and consigned by Wickfield Stud in Gloucestershire, the filly hails from the family of multiple Group 2 winner Hawksley Hill (Ire) (Rahy), whose earnings for his 14 victories in Britain and America saw him become a prize-money millionaire. "It's a family I know well, as I bought Hawksley Hill as a foal," said purchaser Paul Morrison of Jupiter Bloodstock, who is also a television presenter on Racing UK.

His colours were carried to victory twice by Hawksley Hill before his sale to America, but this filly is likely to return to the sales ring next year, having been bought as a pinhooking venture.

Seven Exceed and Excel weanlings have sold throughout the first two sessions for an average of 64,571gns, and there are another 19 catalogued by the sire of Excelebration in the last two days of the sale.

An Acclamation (GB) (Royal Applause) filly out of a winning half-sister to G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Olden Times (Lot 667), offered by Kirsten Rausing's St Simon Stud, found favour with David Ryan of Aran Bloodstock. The pinhooker went to 60,000gns, and also bought a Tweenhills-consigned first-crop son of Hellvelyn (GB) (Ishiguru) for 22,000gns, and Biddestone Stud's colt by Footstepsinthesand (GB) (Giant's Causeway) for 21,000gns.

A first-crop daughter of Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Lot 690 provided yet another good transaction for The Castlebridge Consignment when sold for 55,000gns to veterinarian Patrick Kelly. Dermot Weld bought her dam Truly Mine (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) as a yearling for €200,000 and, running in the colours of his mother Marguerite, she won the Listed Salsabil S. in 2008. Mrs Weld has already bred a winner from the mare, the Sligo maiden victrix Truthwillsetufree (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), and her colt by Shamardal sold for 75,000gns at this sale last year to John Ferguson.

Louise Parry of Pantycloed Stud sold subsequent G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner Saoire (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) at this sale 10 years ago, and while that filly made just 4,000gns as a foal, the stud's daughter of Nayef out of Ring of Esteem (GB) (Mark Of Esteem {GB}), Lot 676, fared better when making 44,000gns.

Her 6-year-old Fantastic Light half-sister, Tinsu (Ire), underlined the family's durability by winning her 10th race at Lingfield yesterday, but to some extent for the foal who sold to Hugo Lascelles of Lofts Hall Stud, it was a case of being in the right place at the right time.

"Hugo was stabled next to us with his foals and he said to me he'd seen our filly for the last three days and she just kept growing on him," explained Parry, who added that Ring of Esteem is in foal to to Darley's first-season sire Poet's Voice (GB) (Dubawi {GB}). "I'm absolutely delighted that she's going to such a good home and that Hugo plans to keep her to race himself. It's just great news."

After dramatic increases on the first day, the second session was largely in line with figures posted for 2011. The clearance rate, at 87%, was again very encouraging, while the turnover increased slightly, up by 2% to 5,508,000gns. The average was down 5% at 26,609gns, and the median held steady at 20,000gns.

The sale continues tomorrow at 10 a.m. with what promises to be the liveliest of the four sessions.

A field of locally based horses will line up for Sunday's G1 Japan Cup Dirt, featuring two past winners of the event. Espoir City (Jpn) (Gold Allure {Jpn}) took down the 2009 running as a 4-year-old, but enters this year's race in arguably career form. Winner of 15 of his 33 career starts, the popular chestnut was victorious in the Kashiwa Kinen over a muddy surface at Funabashi May 2 and was narrowly beaten by Roman Legend (Jpn) (Special Week {Jpn}) in the G3 Elm S. at Sapporo Aug. 25 prior to a three-length success in the Mile Championship Nambu Hai at Morioka Oct. 8. Roman Legend, perfect in five starts this season, has won eight of 11 overall and enters this off a victory in the G3 Miyako S. at Kyoto Nov. 4. Mirco Demuro, who rode Victoire Pisa (Jpn) (Neo Universe {Jpn}) to a landmark win over compatriot Transcend (Jpn) (Wild Rush) in the G1 Dubai World Cup in 2011, has the call. Roman Legend's year-older half-sister, Miracle Legend (Jpn) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}) is also an expected starter this weekend. Both horses were produced by GSW & GISP Personal Legend (Awesome Again). Transcend is the two-time defending champion of the Japan Cup Dirt, but the Koji Maeda homebred is winless in three starts this term, including a well-beaten third behind last year's Japan Cup Dirt runner-up Wonder Acute (Jpn) (Charismatic) in the JBC Classic Nov. 5.

Dancing Rain in Tune for Hong Kong...

Newmarket conditioner William Haggas has issued a brief bulletin on stable star Dancing Rain (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who is pointing at Sha Tin's Dec. 9 G1 Hong Kong Vase. Last year's G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 Preis der Diana heroine was on the shelf after running 16th in last term's G1 Queen Elizabeth II Commemorative Cup at Kyoto, but came back to run a highly encouraging third when attempting to defend her title in the Oct. 20 G2 British Champions Fillies' & Mares' S. at Ascot, her only start of this campaign. "The [Hong Kong] Vase looks like a very hot race this year," Haggas told Racing Post. "It is hotter than last year, but if we have her absolutely right come the big day, she will be very competitive at Sha Tin. She is a strong and very willing filly, and, of course, she's fresh after her light season. Her achievements mean that she is a very special filly in our stable."

A press release issued by the Meadowlands yesterday outlined details of the field investigator's role. It notes that, according to the Meadowlands Racetrack Racing Application, all horsemen applying to enter horses at all three tracks must grant "unfettered access" to track officers, agents and representatives to their stables, including outside training facilities, without prior notice to check on the "well being" of horses. In addition, trainers will be required to produce, at their own expense, blood or urine samples for horses in their care within 24 hours of request by the investigator.

Gural describes this as an "important first step" in "providing an integrity-driven racing product" at the three tracks, which all host racinos.

"I am personally disappointed that so far we have not been able to come up with a program where a small portion of slots money is used for testing and marketing purposes," he explained. "Anything less than a level playing field is unacceptable."

While most state racing commissions have investigative units, such efforts by individual track operators have not yet been adopted in the Thoroughbred industry. Jim Gagliano, the president and chief operating officer of The Jockey Club, said he believes that the initiative taken by Gural, as a private racetrack operator, will be a positive step for the three harness tracks.

"It's terrific," Gagliano noted. "We applaud Mr. Gural for taking a significant step towards ensuring fair and clean competition." In terms of what similar measures would mean for Thoroughbred racing, Gagliano said, "Any time that we can bring forward new methods to combat doping, such as the addition of investigators, it will only bring more confidence to the integrity of our racing product."

Gagliano noted that Gural's initiative is similar to actions taken by the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency, as described by that organization's Chief Executive Officer, Travis Tygart, at The Jockey Club's Annual Round Table Conference in Saratoga Springs, New York, in August.

Tygart noted that investigative programs can work effectively in conjunction with state-of-the-art chemical testing programs. Because drug compositions are ever-evolving, having investigators in place provides added assurance that integrity is being upheld. Tygart also noted that Olympic athletes have surrendered a certain amount of privacy with the knowledge that the information being gained by investigators will work towards the good of their sports.

Trainer Gary Contessa noted that if such measures were to be taken in Thoroughbred racing, it would be important to hire investigators who understand racing.

"I think that if they do it the right way and they hire people who know horses and racing and understand trainers and owners, and they're going to go in there and keep transparency and maybe put an end to some of those who are cheating, I'm all for it," Contessa explained. "My feeling is that anything that keeps the game on the up-and-up, anything that keeps the playing field level, anything that makes it transparent is good. The betting public has lost faith in horse racing. So I think anything that a racetrack can do that is legal and that does not harm the horses or that does not become ignorant is a positive." --Kelsey Riley

SNOW FAIRY LOSES JEAN ROMANET

Cristina Patino's Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab) has been stripped of one of her seven Group 1 successes after testing positive for anti-inflammatory medication following Deauville's G1 Prix Jean Romanet Aug. 19. Successful by three-quarters of a length from Izzi Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) in the 10-furlong contest for fillies and mares, the Ed Dunlop trainee had been returning after a lengthy break due to a serious tendon injury. "We have sadly learnt that Snow Fairy has been disqualified from her victory in the Prix Romanet in Deauville as a result of failing a routine dope test taken after the race," Dunlop revealed in a statement yesterday. "Due to the significant tendon injury that she suffered at the end of last year, Snow Fairy has required anti-inflammatory medication. Unfortunately, the withdrawal period was longer than we had been advised. The trainer is ultimately responsible and for that we would like to offer our sincerest apologies to all concerned parties." Meon Valley Stud's Izzi Top has subsequently been awarded the race, which is her second at the highest level following the G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh the previous month.

CT CLASSIC PURSE INCREASED TO $1.5M

The Gil Charles Town Classic purse has been increased to $1.5 million, making it one of the most lucrative races in North America. "In addition to furthering the Charles Town Classic as a race that positively impacts the overall brand of our racing, we're excited to put on this type of event for our fans in April," said Erich Zimny, the Vice President of Racing Operations at Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races. "We couldn't be more proud for our program to host it." Along with the $500,000 purse increase, the Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races has changed the purse distribution splits and rules on entry fees in an attempt to attract quality horses. The altered distribution will award $1 million to the winner and the remainder split between starters. Horses who have won a grade I contest within the last two years will have their entry and starter fees waived. "We knew we'd always draw a very good field with the $1 million number," said Zimny. "The hope is, by moving it to $1.5 million and giving the seven figure amount to the winner, it makes it that much more attractive to those one or two horses on the fence who have the ability to move the race up another notch." The Charles Town Classic is scheduled for April 20.

HILLENBRAND CRACKS HOLLYWOOD POWER LIST

Laura Hillenbrand, who began her career writing for racing publications such as Turf and Sport Digest, Equus Magazine, The Blood-Horse and the Thoroughbred Times and whose book "Seabiscuit: An American Legend," was made into an Academy Award-nominated film, has been named Hollywood's 19th Most Powerful Author by The Hollywood Reporter in their annual list, published this week. Her current book, "Unbroken," has spent 105 weeks on the New York Times bestseller list. Universal purchased the film rights in 2011. Hillenbrand bested such Hollywood mainstays as Jeff Kinney ("Diary of a Wimpy Kid" series, #20), Candace Bushnell ("Sex and the City," #21), and John Grisham (#24). "This is a very happy surprise, and I'm so honored to be in the company of the other authors on the list," Hillenbrand told the TDN. "I began my career writing on racing, and wrote on racing for many years. It's still my first love." To see The Hollywood Reporter's complete list, click here.

WRITERS UP

Unbridled Command became the fifth New York-bred to win a Grade I race this year. He joined Nearctic S. winner Next Question (Stormy Atlantic); Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup winner Dayatthespa (City Zip); Vosburgh winner The Lumber Guy (Grand Slam); and King's Bishop winner Willy Beamin (Suave) as Grade I winners bred in New York. Though the breeding program has had five Grade I wins in a single year before, never has it had five Grade I winning horses.

The numbers are also impressive when it comes to all graded stakes. Eleven different New York-breds have won graded stakes in 2012, compiling 15 graded wins among them.

That four of the five Grade I winners and six of the 11 overall graded winners were born in 2009 defies logic. They were born at a time when the New York-bred program appeared to be on the decline as it was reeling from the sport's general woes and from the inability of New York's politicians to unclog the gridlock that had so long kept a casino out of Aqueduct. The 2009 crop of New York breds numbered 1,678, the lowest since 2000. (The crop fell to 1,357 in 2010 but is now on the rise).

Jeff Cannizzo, the executive director of the New York Thoroughbred Breeders, thinks the problems New York was experiencing at the time led people to be more selective when they planned matings.

"It's primarily the 3-year-old crop that has blossomed," Cannizzo said. "This is just my own theory, but if you follow the timeline backward those horses were bred during what were some of the hardest years ever for breeding in general and, particularly, for breeding in New York. Cont. p13

At the end of the day you had people narrowing their selections, which meant they had higher standards. There was a turning point here in New York. You either had to get out or step up. That had a lot to do with what we are seeing on the racetrack. Horses that were regally bred just happened to be foaled here in New York. There has been a flight to quality and it happened out of necessity. New York is no different than anywhere else."

Lance Bell is the breeder of Next Question, the 4-year-old Stormy Atlantic colt who won the $500,000 Nearctic at Woodbine before finishing seventh in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. When his horse was conceived in 2007 he didn't need New York to have slot machines to choose to breed in that state.

"Understandably, people are very high on the future of New York breeding because of the slot revenue, but I think people tend to forget that this was already the best state-bred racing program in the country before slots," he said. "It's great to have that extra money but if it were to go away tomorrow it would still be a terrific place to breed a horse. The awards are great. If you own and bred a New York bred by a New York sire you can earn up to 50 percent of the purse above and beyond the purse itself. With where this program is going, racing finally has a place where owners can go into the business with a realistic expectation that they can make money."

Of the six 3-year-old New York-breds that have won graded stakes in 2012 are by sires who were in Kentucky at the time the horses were conceived.

Becky Thomas, who is the co-breeder of Unbridled Command, has gone the Kentucky-sired, New York-foaled route many times.

"My percentage of horses that will foal in Kentucky this year is very, very low," she said. "Maybe foal 5 %. Everything else is New York. There's no reason not to breed in New York. You can breed to the best sires in Kentucky every year under the resident New York mare program. We can go in and out of the state of New York and breed to whoever we want in Kentucky and foal right there in New York. It's a phenomenal program. "

Likely, New York's numbers will get only better. In 2012, which will mark the first full year that the Aqueduct casino has been in operation, New York saw a 43.1 percent increase in the number of active broodmares. New York's sire population grew by 18 percent, from 51 to 60.

"The numbers we've had this year, in ten years I think you'll see that they've been doubled," Cannizzo said. "The way we are improving the quality we put out there on the racetrack there's no reason why that shouldn't happen."

Guidelines Set for Shock-Wave Therapy Use in NY:

By Mike Kane

The New York State Racing and Wagering Board set in motion Thursday the process to enact a rule that will prohibit horses from receiving shock-wave therapy within 10 days of a race.

The treatment is designed to stimulate blood flow and help with healing and reduce soreness, but it is also painkiller that could lead to injuries.

Officials of the Jockeys' Guild encouraged the Board to regulate the use of Extracorporeal Shock Wave Therapy (ESWT). In its report issued in late September, the New York State Task Force on Racehorse Health and Safety recommended that the Board adopt a policy toward ESWT that is consistent with the ARCI Model Rule.

The proposal, voted on during the Board's monthly meeting in Schenectady, moves on to a 45-day comment period and publication in the New York State Register before it can be formally adopted and made law.

While the New York rule would prohibit starting in a race within 10 days of receiving shock-wave treatment, it does allow the horse to remain in regular training while excluding breezing or fast works.

Also, the proposed rule requires that ESWT machines be registered with the Board, that only licensed veterinarians may administer treatments and that all treatments be reported to the state steward within one day.

The Board also formally adopted the purse proportionality rule, which limits the minimum claiming price to 50% of the value of the purse. The Board used its emergency rule making power to put the rule in place earlier in the year when an unusually high number of breakdowns occurred at Aqueduct following a major increase in purses.

A + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Smart Bid to Highcliff/Mill Creek:

George Strawbridge's homebred millionaire Smart Bid (Smart Strike--Recording, by Danzig) has been retired from racing and will embark on his breeding career at Highcliff Stallions at Mill Creek Farm in Stillwater, New York. He will stand for $4,500, live foal. A son of Grade III winner Recording, the 6-year-old captured the 2011 GII Mervin Muniz Jr. Memorial H. this year's GIII Fair Grounds H. He also was runner-up in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic and GI Gulfstream Park Turf H. in 2011, and finished second in the GII San Fernando S. in 2010. "Smart Bid is very correct, and I believe he is the kind of stallion breeders will find tremendously useful," said Highcliff's Suzie O'Cain. "He had a long successful career, he won over a million dollars, and retired sound. He has the right connections, sire line and pedigree. We are honored and delighted to stand a horse of his stature for the 2013 season. He arrived at the farm Tuesday, so we will let him settle in for a few days before scheduling breeder inspections." Smart Bid, trained through his 26-6-8-4 career by Graham Motion, is a sibling to stakes winners Deal Making (Empire Maker) and Representing (Rahy).

He could do no better than fifth after stumbling at the start in a one-mile maiden special weight at Churchill Downs May 5 and he was working bullets for his return for the red-hot Tom Amoss barn here. Favored at 1-2, the gray sat in second after breaking last of seven from his rail draw. Parabellum raced in hand while pinned in traffic on the far turn, pounced when finally able to find room in the stretch and held a late rally on the extreme outside from Steel Guitar (Unbridled's Song) to take it by a neck. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-0, $39,982.

CANDREA (f, 3, Trippi--Burn Brightly (SW, $147,407), by American Chance), runner-up in the GI Oak Leaf S. last fall, was looking for her first win since taking the Phil D. Shepherd S. last September and was exiting a sixth in the Bangles and Beads S. at Fairplex Sept. 21. Settled in third as favored Mamma Kimbo (Discreet Cat) set the pace from the two path, the 10-1 chance advanced into second at the quarter pole. Her stablemate looked like she'd be difficult to gun down in the final stages, but fitness may have caught up to her and Candrea took it by a neck. The winner is a full to Dream of Angels, MSW, $227,090. Sales history: $340,000 2yo '11 OBSMAR. Lifetime Record: SW & GISP, 10-3-2-0, $163,980. QUAINTLY (f, 4, Giant's Causeway--Measure, by Seeking the Gold), third in Hollywood's GIII Beverly Hills H. and GIII Sunset H. earlier this summer, rounded out the trifecta in a Santa Anita allowance last time Nov. 1. Favored at 7-5, the bay sat a stalking trip in second through easy early fractions of :26.20 and :52.96 over the off going. With Julien Leparoux aboard, she gained command as they straightened for home and had enough left in the tank to hold off Warren's Got Game (Ancient Art) by a head. Salez (Ire) (Manduro {Ger}) reported home fifth in her U.S. debut. Lifetime Record: MGSP, 19-3-3-6, $124,289. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales. THE BRAIN (c, 3, Street Sense--Good Student {Arg} {SW & GISP, GSW-Arg, $204,250}, by Louis Quatorze) finished a credible second after setting a swift pace on debut at Santa Anita Apr. 21, but failed to hit the board in two subsequent efforts over the Del Mar Polytrack July 22 and Aug. 2. Sent off the 7-5 favorite for his Cushion Track debut here while removing blinkers, The Brain once again went to the lead, setting honest early fractions before lengthening his advantage in the lane. He won by three lengths over stablemate Indian Gods (Indian Charlie), marking the first of consecutive 1-2 finishes for Baffert on the day.
