TWYLA THARP HAS STAR APPEAL

by Emma Berry

Lord and Lady Lloyd Webber's Twyla Tharp (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) (lot 1511), dam of this year's

Twyla Tharp
Tattersalls.com

G1 Nassau Stakes winner The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}), packed the ring and stole the show on the first day of Tattersalls' December Mares' Sale when selling for 1.7 million guineas. Her whopping sales tag aided a 7% increase in turnover to 11,369,500gns on a day when the clearance rate rose by 11% to 81% but the average declined marginally to 61,126gns (-3%) along with the median, to 30,000gns (-2%).

Nicolas de Watrigant of Mandore International Agency saw off determined efforts from Tomoyuki Nakamura of K I Farm and underbidder David Ingordo, but could not confirm that the daughter of Sadler's Wells carrying to Oasis Dream (GB) was for his major client Sheikh Joann bin Hamad Al-Thani of Qatar.

"She's the mother of a champion and she had the best pedigree of the day," was de Watrigant's succinct summary of his desirable purchase, one of six mares bought by the Frenchman during the session.

Paying tribute to Twyla Tharp, whose dam Sumoto (GB) was the third-most expensive mare at the 2000 December Sale when bought for 920,000gns by Charlie Gordon-Watson, the Lloyd Webbers' manager Simon Marsh said: "She's been a wonderful mare to us and we still have her daughters The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Susan Stroman (GB) (Monsun {Ger}), and two of her half-sisters. I believe very firmly in the family and in many ways it's sad to have sold her but I'm delighted she was bought by Mandore--they are fantastic people and are doing great things for the business and I know they'll mate her well. I think it was a fair price." Cont.

Twyla Tharp Has Star Appeal (cont. from p1)

Sumoto was bought the December before her son Summoner (GB) (Inchinator {GB}) won the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S., becoming the second top-level winner for his dam after Eclipse Stakes winner Compton Admiral (GB) (Suave Dancer). Twyla Tharp was herself runner-up in the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes, a performance echoed this season by The Fugue, who was also placed in the Oaks before securing her major victory at Glorious Goodwood.

Sapphire Pendant

“We’ve been trying to get into this family for a while, but there are not that many opportunities,” said Pierre-Yves Bureau. “We’re very pleased to have her. She has an early foaling date, so we might not take her straight back to France. I don’t want to take any chances.”

Sapphire a Gem for Wertheimers

Pierre-Yves Bureau
Tattersalls.com

Another mare who will eventually be heading to France is Sapphire Pendant (Ire) (lot 1431), a daughter of Danehill Dancer (Ire) carrying to Sea The Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Apart from being by a good broodmare sire and in foal to one of the most exciting young stallions in Europe, Sapphire Pendant has extra appeal as a descendant of Best In Show and is what attracted Alain and Gerard Wertheimer to her. The brothers’ racing manager, Pierre-Yves Bureau, outbid Reiley McDonald of Eaton Sales to sign the docket at 480,000gns.

Nessina to Sayif

Tony Nereses, who represents owners Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar, was busy during the opening mares’ session, buying five lots for a total of 703,000gns.

His purchases included Nessina (lot 1433), a four-year-old daughter of Hennessy sold in foal to Invincible Spirit (Ire) for 300,000gns--treble the price she was sold for last year by her breeder Juddmonte. Nessina is another to trace back to Best In Show, who features as her fourth dam, while her dam Didina is the grandam of G1 Dubai Duty Free Stakes winner Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk).

“She’s a lovely addition to our broodmare band--she has a lovely page and a good covering--and I believe she’s carrying a colt,” said Nereses, who added that Nessina would become the first of his clients’ mares to set foot on their newly purchased Chevington Stud at Six Mile Bottom just outside Newmarket. Cont. p4

Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar have tasted Classic success via Derby winner Authorized and Irish 2,000 Guineas winner Araafa (Ire) (Mull Of Kintyre {Ire}) and, while those two stallions were sold to other operations, they plan to stand

G2 Diadem S. winner Sayif (Ire) (Kheleyf) at David Hodge's Llety Farm in Wales from 2013, with Nessina among the mares intended for him during his first season. Nerses later added Native Picture (Ire) (lot 1518) to his list of purchases at 200,000gns. The daughter of Kodiak (GB) is a half-sister to dual G1-winning sprinter Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil) and was sold in foal to High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler's Wells).

Matthews Branches Out

A mare with appeal to both the European and American markets was the selection of Rory Matthews, who manages Barouche Stud for Barbara Facchino, but who was buying for his own Mattock Equine operation. His 300,000gns purchase was the 4-year-old Rochitta (Arch) (lot 1486), who was sold in foal to Gainesway stallion Hat Trick (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) and offered by Baroda & Colbinstown Studs.

"I've bought her for myself but Mrs. Facchino was standing beside me urging me on," said Matthews. "She was my pick of the [first] two days. There are stallions all the way down the page and she has a commercial family for both Europe and the US--she is by Arch, a very good broodmare sire in America."

Rochitta's family also includes Action This Day (Kris S.), Pisco Sour (Lemon Drop Kid) and new WinStar recruit Bodemeister (Empire Maker).

"She cost more than I had intended, but it is a very strong market and you have to push for what you want," continued

Matthews. "She'll go back to Ireland from here and then we'll decide what to do. Her foal might be offered here or in the U.S." Cont. p5

The 11-year-old Hat Trick sired the unbeaten 2-year-old Dabirsim (Fr), the winner of the G1 Prix Morny and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, in his first crop, which also features recent G1 Jamaica H. winner King David.

Matthews didn't have to stretch quite so far to secure Fairy Flight (lot 1329), a 5-year-old Fusaichi Pegasus half-sister to listed winner Le Rossignol, who was knocked down for 21,000gns and is in foal to the dependable sales sire Royal Applause (GB).

Bobby Flay in the Spirit

Celebrity chef Bobby Flay is establishing a fine broodmare band in the U.S. and he purchased his first British-based mare through agent James Delahooke, who went to 240,000gns for American Spirit (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}). The unraced mare is a half-sister to Derby winner Authorized (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and recent Tattersalls October sales-topper Hydrogen (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who sold for 2.5 million guineas to Sheikh Fahad.

"Bobby Flay has a share in Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and he wanted a mare to send to him," confirmed Delahooke, who outbid Richard Venn for the 5-year-old.

American Spirit has already produced a colt to Halling (Diesis {GB}) and was sold in foal to Makfi (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who, like her, is a descendant of Green Valley (Fr). Her dam Funsie (Fr) (Saumarez {GB}) is a half-sister to Brooklyn's Dance (Fr), whose daughter Solemia (Ire) (Poliglote {GB}) won this year's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and has recently been retired.

She is booked to be covered by Dubawi in 2013.

Late in the session, Makfi's 3-year-old half-brother Eltifaat (Ire) (Medicean {GB}), who has been placed twice this year in four starts for Sir Michael Stoute, was sold by his breeder Shadwell Stud for 16,000gns to Abdul Aziz Al Buainain.

Historic Home for Appeal

The historic Haras de Saint Pair in Normandy, the birthplace of the great dual Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Ksar, is now home to 20 mares, including G1 Prix Vermeille winner Pearly Shells (Fr) (Efisio {GB}), and has two new residents following Monday's session.

Andreas Putsch, the owner of the stud since 2007, set aside 240,000gns for Appeal (lot 1523), a grey daughter of Selkirk in foal to Fastnet Rock (Aus) from the family of French Group winners Amilynx (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), Zinziberine (Zieten) and her son Zanzibari (Smart Strike). An hour earlier he had purchased a filly with very current French form, the 2-year-old Faithfilly (Ire) (lot 1495), a daughter of the late Red Clubs (Ire) who won the Listed Prix de la Valle de l'Auge at Deauville in August. Consigned by Three Chimneys, the former Ed Walker trainee was sold for 160,000gns. Three Chimneys Sales enjoyed a good first day, selling eight mares and fillies for a total of 797,000gns. Cont.

Another filly en route to Normandy is Teofilo's unraced daughter You Don't Love Me (Ire). Bought as a yearling for 100,000gns by Paul Makin, the 3-year-old's lack of performance did not decrease her value as she is a daughter of Lanwades Stud's Alleluia (GB) (Caerleon) and a three-quarter-sister to the G1 Prix Royal-Oak winner Allegretto (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Such a solid pedigree saw her sell to Henri Bozo of Haras des Monceaux for 140,000gns.

Ponte Tresa (Fr) (Sicyos) (lot 1423) was led out of the rung unsold at 180,000gns but the G2 Prix Kergorlay winner, offered in foal to New Approach (Ire), was later bought privately by Ronald Rauscher for 200,000gns.

Little Book, Big Price

A filly whose page has benefitted from a major update this year is Little Book (GB) (lot 1516), a Librettist half-sister to Donna Blini (GB) (Bertolini), the dam of recent Japan Cup and Triple Crown-winning filly Gentildonna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}). Bought as a yearling by Rabbah Bloodstock for 60,000gns, she was resold by Darley at last year's July Sale for 7,000gns. Winless in 10 starts, she was re-offered in foal to Invincible Spirit (Ire) and her price leapt to 230,000gns. Unsurprisingly, she has been bought for Japanese interests by Keisuke Onishi of JS Company.

On Wednesday, her Averti half-sibling Sister Moonshine (GB) is set to sell as lot 1946 and is in-foal to Sakhee's Secret (GB) (Sakhee).

Familiar Names Combine

Both Dukes Stud and Overbury Stud are familiar names as consignors and buyers, but yesterday saw the pair join forces to consign mares, selling a pair for 183,000gns. Charlie Wyatt of the Newmarket-based Dukes Stud and Simon Sweeting of Overbury Stud in Gloucestershire have had shares in mares and foals together for a decade now, after the venture got off to a flying start with the listed winner Firebelly (GB) (Nicolotte {GB}).

"We bought Firebelly 10 years ago as a foal and leased her," said Sweeting. "She went on to be a listed winner so we started breeding from her. She's been very lucky for us at stud."

Twice a winner at two in Britain, Firebelly gained her black type as a juvenile in a listed contest at San Siro. Since retiring to the paddocks, the daughter of Nicolotte has produced the smart Cadeaux Genereux performer Firebeam (GB), who notched a hat-trick of victories last year, before gaining his black type when runner-up in the Group 3 Hackwood Stakes at Newbury in July, as well as placing in a pair of listed contests. In the meantime, Firebelly's Aqlaam yearling colt was snapped up by Shadwell Estates Limited for 125,000gns during Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sales.

While Firebelly was earning her reputation in the paddocks, Sweeting and Wyatt decided to add to their venture by purchasing mares with a view to selling the progeny as a joint venture. Cont. p7

STAY THIRSTY

The highest earner by Bernardini and like his sire he was a brilliant winner of the Travers Stakes-Gr.1.

HANSEN

Champion 2yo, Breeders' Cup Juvenile-Gr.1 winner and the highest earning colt in America by Tapit.

"It slightly snowballed and we ended up with five mares last year. A couple were not in foal, so we realized that with one thing and another we wouldn't have anything to sell. We decided to pinhook a couple of mares specifically to resell now," Sweeting explains.

Syann (Ire) (lot 1357), a winning Listed-placed daughter of Daylami (Ire) was purchased for 57,000gns at the same venue last year from the draft of Ballylinch Stud, and was put in foal to Manduro (Ger). Diamond Run (GB) (lot 1358), a winning mare by Hurricane Run, cost just 35,000gns, but her attractive covering to Poet's Voice (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) made her a popular choice on her return to Park Paddocks yesterday.

"Breeders couldn't get in to Poet's Voice last year so everyone wants a mare in foal to him now," Wyatt commented. "One thing we have learned from this is that you have to go to a first-season sire with these mares—you can't give anyone a reason not to like them."

Both Sweeting and Wyatt give full credit to Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock for his advice in selecting the mares, and are now looking to reinvest their profits with the help of the agent.

Away from the sales ring, Sweeting is eagerly anticipating next year's breeding season, having just taken delivery of a new stallion in the form of the Group 2 winner Delegator (GB), who will stand at Overbury Stud next season for £5,000. The son of Dansili (GB) proved himself a performer out of the top drawer when runner-up to Sea The Stars (Ire) in the 2,000 Guineas and Mastercraftsman (Ire) in the St James's Palace Stakes, prior to landing the G2 Duke of York Stakes last year.

"He's a fabulous Dansili horse, and I've been delighted with the interest we have had in him already," Sweeting said. "He just got to the stud two days ago, and he's been going out for a pick of grass twice a day, just getting used to the quiet life at stud!"

Libyan Horsemen Resurrect Stud Book

Should ambassadors from the United Nations ever want to hold a world peace summit they could do worse than to attend a session of the Tattersalls December Mares' Sale. Buyers from 16 different countries, including America, Argentina, Australia, France, Japan, Russia, Italy, Qatar and Dubai, were active during yesterday's strong session, at all levels of the market.

Among those in action for several lots were brothers Dr. Amad and Radwan Al Shaab of Al Shaab Stud in Libya. The pair signed for seven lots for a total of 40,500gns, headed by the Sadler's Wells mare Dalisay (Ire) from the family of Darshaan, purchased in foal to Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) for 14,000gns.

Dr. Amad has been at the forefront of the bid to restore the Libyan Stud Book, following the fall of the Gaddafi regime, a move which ultimately proved successful last month. The Stud Book was abandoned in 1972, but after sustained pressure from the Libyan Horseman Association, the minister for agriculture has given the green light to reinstate it, committing 10 million Libyan dinar (US $7,987,220.45) to the effort. Al Shaab is now working to achieve international recognition for the Libyan Stud Book so that its horses can race and be sold abroad.

"The Libyan Horsemen Association has around 1,600 members, all owners and breeders, who collected together to put pressure on the government to restart the Stud Book," Amad explains.

"We are working to support the Libyan owners and breeders," Amad continued. "For example, we bought the Sadler's Wells mare Sakkara [at Tattersalls December Mares' in 2009] in foal to Holy Roman Emperor for 30,000gns or about 85,000 Libyan dinar. We sold her filly foal for about 36,000 dinar and sold the mare in foal to Churchill Downs (Aus) for 50,000 dinar.

"We need to have our Stud Book so Libyan owners can select better mares and breed from good families so we can race in Europe and maybe even sell horses abroad as well."

Racing inevitably suffered during the civil war last year, but Libyan buyers have remained as active buyers, particularly of in-foal mares.

The Al Shaab brothers have been regular buyers at Tattersalls since 2000, buying up to 12 mares annually at the July and December Sales. Al Shaab Stud stands six stallions and also has around 30 mares, based around 10 km from Tripoli.

The stud's stallions include the Australian-bred Group 1-placed Danehill stallion Churchill Downs, and the Group 3 winner Raise A Grand (Ire) (Grand Lodge), who was purchased as an established stallion during the 2009 December Sales by the brothers. The stud holds two sales, in March and October, and boasts a well-equipped veterinary clinic to support breeders.

With a new government in place, Dr. Al Shaab is hopeful that Libyan racing and breeding will be well-supported in the future. Cont. p9

Purchased by BBA Ireland

Scooped up for 15,000gns by Emerald Bloodstock as a horse in training here a year ago, Sister Red never made it back to the track, but, consigned by Dermot and Catherine Dwan's Kellsgrange Stud this time, she returned 10 times what she did in 2011 carrying a Raven's Pass foal on a £22,500 cover.

Tuesday's Outs: 1584, 1593, 1595, 1597, 1599, 1610, 1621, 1623, 1630, 1654, 1670, 1672, 1673, 1685, 1686, 1687, 1688, 1690, 1696, 1700, 1701, 1702, 1711, 1712, 1713, 1748, 1754, 1756, 1764, 1767, 1779, 1788, 1789, 1796, 1797, 1822, 1823, 1834, 1844.

Selling for €95,000 to JMC Bloodstock at last year's Arqana December sale, Laurelei brought nearly 2 1/2 times that sum here carrying her first foal by €35,000-stallion Acclamation. Laurelei's half-brother Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) covered a U.S. high of 220 mares at Coolmore's Ashford Stud this year.

 Purchased by Haras De Saint Pair

Bought by bloodstock firm SackvilleDonald for 25,000gns as a Tattersalls October yearling in 2011, Faithfilly's most notable accomplishment this term was a victorious trip to Deauville for the listed Prix de la Vallee D'Auge. An earner of £38,169 for owner Laurence Bellman and Newmarket-based trainer Ed Walker, the bay will return to France after being secured by Andreas Putsch's Haras De Saint Pair.

TATTERSALLS DECEMBER MARES--DAY TWO

1790, Wedding Morn (Ire), m, 11, Sadler's Wells--Wedding Bouquet (Ire), by Kings Lake

Consigned by The Castlebridge Consignment

Strictly a one-man woman so far, Wedding Morn has been as a faithful as her name suggests to Danehill Dancer (Ire) and one of her seven foals by the Coolmore stalwart is this year's G2 Railway S. winner and G2 Beresford S. third Probably (Ire). In foal to him again, her yearling sold for €220,000 at Arqana In August and her foal for 350,000gns here last week.

1804, Banimpire (Ire), f, 4, Holy Roman Emperor (Ire)--My Renee, by Kris S.

Consigned by European Sales Management

Just over 12 months since selling for $2.3 million to Martin Schwartz, the ex-Jim Bolger luminary Banimpire is back under the hammer after failing to fire Stateside. Successful on five occasions at Pattern level last term, the descendant of Detroit (Fr) has a lot to offer in the paddocks.

1807, Secret Garden (Ire), m, 13, Danehill--Chalamont (Ire), by Kris (GB)

Consigned by The National Stud

Secret Garden, a granddaughter of the champion Durtal (GB), carried the famed Sangster silks to success in the Listed October S. 10 years ago before making her mark in the States. Her progeny include the Group-placed Weatherstaff (Elusive Quality) and last year's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas hero Roderic O'Connor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). She is sold carrying a full-sibling of that former Ballydoyle talent and also to the 925,000gns yearling foal purchased by Blandford Bloodstock here in October.

1814, Sea of Heartbreak (Ire), m, 5, Rock of Gibraltar (Ire)--Top Forty (GB), by Rainbow Quest

Consigned by Beckhampton House Stables (Roger Charlton)

Just shy of the very top level, Sea of Heartbreak was nonetheless the winner of last year's G2 Prix de Royallieu and a consistent performer in black-type company. Fourth in the G1 Nassau S. in August, the descendant of the Classic-winning Sarah Siddons (Fr) hails from the same dynasty as Excelebration (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}).

1815, Manieree (Ire), f, 4, Medicean (GB)--Sheer Spirit (Ire), by Caerleon

Consigned by Currabeg Stables (John Oxx)

Another in a close sequence of classy performers to sell today, Manieree was the winner of last year's G2 Blandford S. and G3 Kilboy Estate S. and bowed out for her current connections with a seven-length verdict in the Listed Garnet S. on her preferred testing ground. Out of close relations to the Group 1-winning sires Pelder (Ire) and Oath (Ire), her page also includes the all-conquering Snow Fairy (Ire) (Intikhab).

1818, Moonstone Magic (GB), f, 3, Trade Fair (GB)--Woodcock Moon (GB), by Kyllachy (GB)

Consigned by Kimpton Down Stables (Ralph Beckett)

Significantly now sold in training rather than out of training as the catalogue stated, this is the impressive winner of this year's G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury, who has not revisited the racecourse after her only start since when unplaced in the G1 1000 Guineas. At Newbury, she had the subsequent G2 German 1000 Guineas winner Electrelane (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) 13 lengths back in third and she comes one lot after that talented stable companion in the bidding this afternoon.

1820, Hazel Lavery (Ire), f, 3, Excellent Art (GB)--Reprise (GB), by Darshaan (GB)

Consigned by Faringdon Place Stables (Charles Hills)

One of the most significant form updates in the book, Hazel Lavery has beaten Frankel's brother Noble Mission (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G3 St Simon S. at Newbury in October. Also runner-up in Doncaster's G2 Park Hill S., she remains a work in progress and one of the more interesting horses in training to be offered.

IN LINGERIE RETIRED; BOOKED TO FRANKEL

Grade I winner In Lingerie (Empire Maker--Cat Chat, by Storm Cat) has been retired from racing and will be bred to champion Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the spring. The 3-year-old filly, racing for Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Gary Barber, won the GIII Bourbonette Oaks at Turfway in March and followed up with a victory in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. in May. She was third in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks and second in the GI Alabama S. before recording a two-length triumph in the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. at Keeneland in October.

In Lingerie
Horsephotos

On the board in seven of eight starts, In Lingerie retires with four wins and earnings of $712,265.

"It was a true privilege to be able to campaign In Lingerie this past season," Eclipse President Aron Wellman and Barber said in a joint statement. "She is a magnificent filly and took us to the top of the mountain from coast to coast, providing many glorious thrills along the way. Being in this game for the sport of it, it is difficult to let go of such a phenomenal racehorse capable of headlining major races in coming seasons, but when the opportunity to breed In Lingerie to Frankel became a reality, the decision was a no-brainer. Seeing as though In Lingerie is by a Juddmonte colorbearer in Empire Maker and won the marquis Grade I race sponsored by Juddmonte, it is apropos for her to be bred to Juddmonte's All-World stud, Frankel. We are honored and thankful to Juddmonte for this opportunity and we look forward to following the offspring of In Lingerie and Frankel."

In Lingerie RNA'd for $2.2 million at last month's Fasig-Tipton November sale.

I'LL HAVE ANOTHER TO STAND FOR $38,900

I'll Have Another (Flower Alley--Arch's Gal Edith, by Arch), winner of this year's GI Kentucky Derby, GI Preakness S., and GI Santa Anita Derby, will stand his first season next year at Big Red Farm in Hokkaido, Japan for a fee of $38,900 (¥3,200,000). Campaigned by Paul Reddam and trained by Doug O'Neill, I'll Have Another earned more than $2.6 million before his untimely retirement due to tendonitis the day before his Triple Crown bid in the GI Belmont S. in June. Big Red Farm also stands G1 Dubai World Cup and GI Whitney H. winner Roses in May (Devil His Due), who will stand for $12,000 in 2013, and dual GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner Conduit (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), who will command a fee of $30,400 next year.

SHADAI FARM SNARES OVAMBO QUEEN

Dr Hans-Hermann Leimbach's G2 Hansa-Preis victress Ovambo Queen (Ger) (Kalatos {Ger}--Oxalaguna {Ger}, by Lagunas {GB}) has been acquired by Teruya Yoshida to join his Shadai Farm broodmare band. Bred by Gestut Rietberg, the 5-year-old distaffler complemented that Hansa-Preis triumph by striking twice at Group 3 level, and she also annexed a trio of listed contests in four European campaigns. Ovambo Queen was off the board in just two of 15 stakes starts for trainer Andreas Bolte, and her three latest efforts were all on the highest platform. She finished fourth in the July 22 G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin at Hoppegarten, was a half-length runner-up to Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB})--herself a Yoshida acquisition--in the Sept. 2 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, and ran seventh--eased down by her concerned jockey--when favorite for the Sept. 23 G1 Preis von Europa at Cologne. She ships to Japan with a career record of 18-7-6-2, and earnings of €289,368.

FLORIDA TRACKS AT ODDS

Horsemen at Calder Race Course continue to battle with racecourse management over newly imposed stall fees, and the dispute has now encircled Gulfstream Park, which began its four-month meet Saturday.

At the core of the issue is the decision by Calder management, announced in October, to charge horsemen choosing to stable at the Miami Gardens track beyond the end of the meet, which ended Friday, $10 per horse, per day, to continue stabling at Calder. It is the first time in 40 years that horsemen have been charged to stable at Calder. Because Calder-based horsemen have been responsible for about 44% of the entries at Gulfstream in recent years, the horsemen have pursued an agreement with Gulfstream officials to have stall fees reimbursed for running horses at the Hallandale Beach oval. Such terms have not been agreed upon by Gulfstream management, causing some Calder horsemen to withhold entries from Gulfstream.

Tim Ritvo, Chief Operating Officer of the Racing Division at Gulfstream Park, explained that Gulfstream would have liked to have assisted the Calder horsemen by giving them stalls, but the late announcement of Calder's decision to charge a stall fee made matters difficult, because stalls had already been allocated for the Gulfstream meet.

"If we knew early on that Calder was going to charge stall rent, then we would have allocated stalls differently," Ritvo said. "In other words, maybe the guys that came from New Jersey and everywhere else, we would have told them to go to Palm Meadows [Training Center in Boynton Beach], and we would have brought over the guys that run the most and put them in the Gulfstream stalls. But for 40 years there's been no charge, so what normally happens is the people that are stabled at Calder stay at Calder, and the other people that come down are assigned to a different area."

"If they knew they were going to be charged, they could have applied for stalls here," Ritvo continued. "We wouldn't have been able to accommodate them all, but we could have accommodated that majority of them that run a lot."

Calder horsemen have also pointed out that horsemen who stable at Palm Meadows which, like Gulfstream, is owned by The Stronach Group, and run their horses at Gulfstream are reimbursed their stall fees, but Ritvo pointed out the differences with that agreement.

"At Palm Meadows, it costs $450 per month to keep your horse there," Ritvo noted. "What we do is, if that horse participates one time in the month, they get a rebate on that $450. If they don't run or run at another venue, then they must pay the fee. And we own that property, unlike Calder [which is owned by Churchill Downs]."

Two attempts to reach Kent Stirling, executive director of the Florida division of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association, were unsuccessful.

After hosting a 10-race card for its opening day Saturday and a nine-race card Sunday, Gulfstream will conduct eight races tomorrow and Thursday, and nine races Friday. Ritvo noted that there were some Calder horsemen among the entries for this week's races, and that a lack of participation from them had not affected the number of races carded.

"I could have run more races," he explained. "What happened is we had scheduled five days of racing a week in December in comparison to four days a week last year, and we're just being cautious. We had enough races to fill 10-race programs all those days, but going to the five days a week, we wanted to be careful. We want to make sure the field sizes stay high, because we know large fields are what the public wants."

Ritvo noted that Gulfstream is open to further dialogue with the Calder horsemen.

"We have an open door policy." He said. "The Stronach Group has always been horsemen-friendly, so we will try to do whatever we can to help them out."

Lunching with an old school friend one day last week, I felt incredibly old when he informed the waitress--for no obvious reason--that it was 52 years since we had met. I received another reminder of my advancing years a few days later on studying the result of the GIII Tropical Turf H. in the TDN. The third dam of the winner Philly Ace is Dunce Cap II, winner of the Lowther S. at York on Aug. 22, 1962. That was the day I paid my first visit to the races, struggling to watch the action from the packed cheap enclosure.

It was a good day to start my association with this great sport. The day's feature race, the Ebor H., was won by Sostenuto, a colt owned and bred by Phil Bull, who was to become my future employer at Timeform 10 years later. And I still remember the thrill of seeing the future St Leger winner Hethersett flash past me, locked in battle with Miralgo, the first winner of the innovative Timeform Gold Cup.

My interest in bloodlines flourished as I began to follow Hethersett's foals, headed by the Derby winner Blakeney, and my knowledge of American racing and breeding benefited from keeping an eye on Dunce Cap and her progeny.

A well-named daughter of Tom Fool, belonging to Jock Whitney, Dunce Cap went on to finish second in the Cheveley Park S. and fourth to the exceptional Hula Dancer in the 1,000 Guineas. She also took advantage of a big weight concession to win the Hungerford S. from Queen's Hussar, the colt who went on to sire the brilliant Brigadier Gerard.

Dunce Cap's history--and that of her great-grandson Philly Ace--provides some valuable lessons about not being too dogmatic in several key areas.

1) Don't be in a rush to write off a very talented, well-connected broodmare, even if she makes a slow start.

2) If you like a mating well enough to do it once, you should consider repeating it.

3) Don't dismiss the progeny of a veteran mare, especially if the mare has produced several important performers.

4) And, if you are of a patient disposition, don't be put off by a late foaling date.

Taking these points one at a time, Dunce Cap started her career so disappointingly that many of today's breeders would have dispatched her to the sales. None of her first six foals, which included three by the excellent Hail To Reason, so much as placed in a stakes race (however, they did give their owner some nice naming opportunities, as her Outing Class gelding was named Detention and another son was Sit In The Corner).

Her fifth foal, Frillery, was by Whitney's champion three-year-old Stage Door Johnny, who carried the Greentree Stable colors to victory over Forward Pass in the 1968 Belmont S. Although Frillery was good enough to win two of her five starts, it is doubtful that her record in itself would have earned Dunce Cap another visit to Stage Door Johnny. It was just as well, then, that Dunce Cap had already been returned to Stage Door Johnny in 1972 and 1973, before Frillery's limitations were exposed.

The 1972 covering resulted in Johnny Appleseed, who won the GII Louisiana Derby before being injured soon afterwards. The 1973 mating produced an even better winner in the aptly-named Late Bloomer.

According to Bill Munn's report in the Bloodstock Breeders' Review, Late Bloomer was bothered by bad ankles at two, when she failed to win in three starts, and a bad back restricted her to five 3-year-old starts, of which she won three. The filly more than made up for lost time at four, when she amassed six stakes victories, including Grade I wins in the Delaware H., Ruffian H. and Beldame S., with two of these GI wins coming over a mile and a quarter. At the end of the year Late Bloomer was voted champion older filly.

By the time Dunce Cap made her last visit to Stage Door Johnny she was 18 years old, but she again did well, producing the durable gelding Late Act, a multiple GIII winner who was GI placed. Cont. p14

During my association with Juddmonte, we have done numerous repeat matings, often to support the home stallions, and the lesson has been that the same mating can produce wide variations--anything from a Group 1 winner to a cripple. So, if the first foal fails to meet expectations, breeders shouldn't necessarily be deterred from trying again.

Late Bloomer added further chapters to the Dunce Cap story. Her first two foals were those very smart colts Ends Wells (GI United Nations H.) and Fred Astaire (GII Rutgers H. and third in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile). Unfortunately, her breeding record became very patchy, with eight fruitless years because of dead foals, slipped foals and failures to conceive. Undeterred, her connections kept trying and Late Bloomer was 21 when she foaled a filly by Kingmambo and 23 when she produced her last foal, a daughter of Polish Numbers.

The Kingmambo filly, Zagora (USA), never raced but she produced a stakes-winning colt to A.P. Indy and her A.P. Indy filly Romantic Comedy is now the dam of Matthewsburg, winner of the GIII Kentucky Cup Sprint in 2011.

The Polish Numbers filly, Bloomy, finished first or second in seven of her 11 starts and is now making her mark as a broodmare. Her 2006 Grand Slam gelding Spring of Fame earned a Timeform rating of 118 while racing in Dubai earlier this year. And now her 2008 Smart Strike gelding Philly Ace has become a GIII winner, with a record of 14-7-2-2.

It has taken Philly Ace a while to reach graded-winner status but he can be forgiven for this, as he has a May 23 birth date. No wonder the TDN report on the Tropical Turf H. described the Brushwood color-bearer as progressive – a word which could equally be applied to Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno), with his June 15 birthday, and Point of Entry (Dynaformer), a May 10 foal.

Bloomy's 2011 Elusive Quality filly failed to find a buyer at $150,000 at Saratoga, but I guess that Brushwood will be happy to keep her now.

Incidentally, Philly Ace is another reminder of Smart Strike's propensity for mares from the Danzig male line. The Lane's End stallion sired Soaring Free, High Strike Zone, Smart Bid and this year's GII turf winner Air Support from Danzig mares and he also has Graded winners out of mares by Danzig's sons Belong To Me (the excellent Lookin At Lucky), Boundary, Dayjur (G1 winner Shadow Cast), Danehill, Zieten and now Polish Numbers.

MIDLANTIC SALE A weanling half-sister to recent GI Hollywood Derby winner Unbridled Command (Master Command) attracted top price of $100,000 during Monday's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December Mixed Sale in Timonium. Figures, as expected, were down across the board when compared to last year's sale, which was bolstered by the Flying Zee Stable dispersal. Yesterday, 140 head grossed $1,150,200. The average of $8,216 fell 42.9% from 2011, when 260 horses sold for $3,739,350 and an average of $14,382.

The median fell 23.1% to $4,000. The buy-back rate was 28.2%. Last year's Flying Zee dispersal was responsible for the sale's top two lots and 10 of the top 15.

Monday's sale topper, by Read the Footnotes out of Unbridled Beauty (Unbridled's Song), was bred in New York by Rhapsody Farm and Jon Davis and was consigned by Rhapsody Farm/Hidden Lake Farm, agents, as hip 156. Bloodstock agent Mike McMahon made the winning bid on behalf of Vivien Malloy's Edition Farm.

Malloy said the filly is destined for a return trip through the sales ring as a yearling at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga New York-bred sale in August.

"It is what I call my personal pinhook," she said. "I do a couple of personal pinhooks a year. I don't get sentimental or attached to them as much as I possibly can, because I want to keep a lot of the ones I breed, even though sometimes I shouldn't. And this way, I know that I have some that I will sell. This filly, if she never steps on a racetrack, she is a half-sister to a Grade I winner and she is still valuable."

Unbridled Command, trained by Tom Bush for Lewis Lakin, scored his fifth-straight victory in the Nov. 25 Hollywood Derby and Malloy admitted that that victory was his half-sister's main attraction.

"Tom Bush is my trainer, he's trained for me for years, and he's always liked the half-brother," Malloy explained. "They took a huge step and took him across the country to the Hollywood Derby, and he doesn't do a thing like that unless he is pretty confident it is a wonderful horse. So I just think he is going to do very well with this half-brother for the rest of the year, which will help this weanling when I sell her in August."

Malloy usually limits herself to one pinhooking venture a year, but made an exception to take home the Read the Footnotes filly yesterday after she had already purchased a colt by Tiz Wonderful (hip 1890) for $25,000 out of the Keeneland November sale.

"I usually do just one," she admitted. "But this one tempted me. I already bought a New York-bred at Keeneland, a nice Tiz Wonderful colt and I am very excited about him. He looks better and better in the field now that I've got him home. He looks very good."

Asked what she likes about pinhooking, Malloy said, "It's much more fun than investing in the stock market and it is about as risky. I'd rather do it with a horse than a piece of paper."

It took over a decade, but the New York breeding industry is finally reaping the benefits of the Aqueduct racino. Malloy, whose Edition Farm is based in Hyde Park, New York, is gratified to see the increasing popularity of New York-breds.

Vivien Malloy

"They are beginning to respect the New York-breds now," Malloy said. "I just knew this would happen--it is just exploding. And it is wonderful for all the farms and all the breeders, the ones that hung tough and stayed, and now the chickens are coming home to roost. And this filly is what we call a 20 percenter because she is by a New York stallion."

RTIP SYMPOSIUM KICKS OFF

by Christina Moore

The 39th annual Global Symposium on Racing and Gaming kicks off today and runs through Thursday in Tucson, covering a wide range of topics from account waging to regulation. The conference, presented by the University of Arizona's Race Track Industry Program, takes on a decidedly international flair this year. The opening panel looks at marketing a simulcast product for foreign markets, and nearly every session has a speaker from outside the U.S. Tuesday evening also features the new Global Simulcast Marketplace, providing buyers and sellers of the racing product an opportunity to expand their business in the area of international simulcasting. (Cont. p2)

Also on Tuesday morning is "The Changing Face of Account Wagering," a panel that will take a closer look at the expansion of online wagering in both North America and abroad with speakers from WatchandWager.com, William Hill US, XpressBet, and Harness Tracks of America. The final panel of the day will discuss and explain new digital games designed to attract people to the sport of racing. Representatives from The Stronach Group, 123Gaming, and DerbyJackpot.com, among others, will describe a variety of games, including those played alone and against others, as well as games in which players can advance through several levels of expertise.

Paul Roberts will get the Wednesday sessions started with a presentation detailing the business strategy needed to redevelop North American racetracks and racing organizations. Roberts is the U.K.-based director and founder of Turnberry Consulting. He has worked as a strategic consultant for several racetracks in the UK, Ireland, and Australia, and currently works as a strategic development advisor to NYRA.

Wednesday afternoon will examine two issues very relevant to racing in North America: marketing to new and casual customers and uses for OTTBs. The marketing panel will feature executives from the Daily Racing Form, Keeneland, The Jockey Club, and Grand River Raceway discussing strategies they are using to attract and educate new racing customers, many of which can be immediately implemented at other racing organizations.

The OTTB panel, titled "Back in Fashion," will take a closer look at the many uses of off-the-track Thoroughbreds (OTTBs), as well as how tracks and organizations are working to change the image of the OTTB--from unwanted to an asset. Georganne Hale of the Maryland Jockey Club will discuss the very successful "Totally Thoroughbred Horse Show" that Pimlico hosted in the summer of 2012, while Stuart Pittman of the Retired Racehorse Training Project will describe several efforts his organization is making to bring the Thoroughbred back to prominence in the sport horse world. Other panelists who will provide insight on the situation are Scott Wells, President and General Manager of Remington Park, and Cathy O'Meara, Industry Initiatives Coordinator for The Jockey Club.

Wednesday will also include panels looking at how to decrease racing's reliance on slots, as well as how to address the increase in mobile wagering.

The symposium will wrap up on Thursday with two panel sessions, one of which should be of special interest to regulators, but valuable for anyone associated with the sport. "Barriers to Dealing with the 1%" will discuss the 1% of licensees who account for over 24% of rule violations. Speakers, including those from the New York State Racing and Wagering Board, the New Mexico Racing Commission, and Penn National Gaming, will give real examples in proposing solutions to this problem that many jurisdictions face.

This year's Global Symposium on Racing and Gaming promises to be an innovative one, focusing on bridging the gap between racing in North America and elsewhere, while also addressing many real issues that the industry faces and proving invaluable to those interested in the future of the sport.
