PLETCHER ASSAULT CONTINUES

Trainer Todd Pletcher's stranglehold on the 2-year-old division continued Saturday evening as Black Rock Thoroughbreds's Violence (Medaglia d'Oro) handled the cross-country ship to remain unbeaten in Betfair Hollywood Park's GI CashCall Futurity. The strapping dark bay, who took heavy late tote action down to 6-5, finished 1 1/4 lengths clear of pace-setting Fury Kapcori (Tiznow). Den's Legacy (Medaglia d'Oro) got up to complete a one-three finish for his sire, while GI Breeders' Cup

Juvenile runner-up He's Had Enough (Tapit) could do no better than a never-involved fifth. "I had a lot of confidence in this colt," said winning rider Javier Castellano. "He is so calm and handles himself very professionally. I think he is a special horse and I am really looking forward to big times." Cont. p3

VINERY PURCHASES ALL TOO HARD

All Too Hard (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}--Helsing {Aus}, by Desert Sun {GB}), a half-brother to the brilliant racemare Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}), has been acquired privately by Vinery Stud, Australia's Racing and Sports reports. Carrying the colors of Nathan Tinkler's Patinack Farm, All Too Hard captured the G1 Caulfield Guineas Oct. 13 and just missed by a neck in the G1 Cox Plate two weeks later. "We have been negotiating this deal for the past six months as we always believed All Too Hard was one of the most exciting stallion prospects we have seen for many years," Vinery General Manager Peter Orton told Racing and Sports. "This horse is the real deal." All Too Hard, the A$1,025,000 INGEAS sales-topper, will remain in training with John Hawkes and his sons Michael and Wayne. "The current race program is for All Too Hard to resume racing in Melbourne with the [G2] Australian Guineas [Mar. 2] as his initial goal before returning to Sydney for the autumn carnival," Orton continued. "It is envisaged All Too Hard will follow his famous half sister Black Caviar's footsteps and race internationally, further enhancing his appeal as a shuttle stallion to the Northern Hemisphere." Financial details of the sale weren't disclosed. "The final outcome is a real win/win for both parties," Patinack's Tony Palmer told Racing and Sports. "While it is disappointing to sell All Too Hard, we have retained an opportunity for him to service some of our mares and naturally, the more success he enjoys on the track and in breeding, the further he will enhance the reputation of his sire, Patinack's Casino Prince."

No Beating Violence...

One of Todd Pletcher's 16 winning juvenile firsters at this year's Saratoga meet when he took a seven-furlong special weight by a neck from impressive next-out winner Titledown Five (Tiznow) Aug. 18, Violence remained on the bench as his stablemate Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday) locked up the Eclipse Award with scores in the GI Champagne S. and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. He showed no signs of rust when resurfacing to take Big A's one-mile GII Nashua S. by two lengths Nov. 4, and saw another one of his teammates in Overanalyze (Dixie Union) take that venue's GII Remsen S. a month later. Not to be upstaged, Violence proved here that two turns, a change in scenery and a surface switch were of no consequence.

Well-placed on the rail behind a four-way pace battle early that went through splits of :22.97 and :46.07, Violence tipped out into the two path to confront the emerging Fury Kapcori at the head of the lane. That foe responded to his pilot's urging, but he couldn't keep Violence at bay past midstretch as the winner lengthened his powerful stride.

Owner Steve Marshall and Benoit Castellano
Benoit Photo

"He's a colt that we've thought a lot of all along," Pletcher said. "He's a big, leggy colt that we felt like was going to continue to improve and mature." Of Violence's 2-year-old campaign, Pletcher explained, "We talked about a couple of strategies. One was to try to make the Breeders' Cup. The other was a more patient strategy. We decided to wait on the Nashua and when he ran so well in the Nashua we started looking whether we wanted to run him back in 20 days in the Remsen, put him away for the winter or something else. We decided that if we were going to run him once more this year, this race made the most sense. Another factor in deciding to ship out here is that he's the kind of horse that has such a great disposition and good mind that shipping wouldn't bother him at all. He'll probably start again at the end of February or the beginning of March."

A consistent Group 3-placed performer for conditioner Jeremy Nosedá in Britain, Grandeur has shown off an exceptional turn-of-foot since relocating to the States. Third in Windsor's G3 Winter Hill S. in August, the grey made his final start in England a winning one in a Sept. 21 conditions heat at Newbury. He got off to a slow start on Breeders' Cup Friday at Santa Anita Nov. 2, but exploded in the lane to take the GII Twilight Derby over fellow European shipper Speaking of Which (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). He was left with a bit too much to do in the GI Hollywood Derby Nov. 25, but came home in :22.63--nearly a second and a half faster than winner Unbridled Command (Master Command)--to complete the exacta. Making his first start for locally based Paddy Gallagher here, Grandeur took up a much closer spot along the rail in mid-pack early as Optimizer carved out sensible splits. Traveling well while he waited for room entering the lane, the sophomore tipped out at the quarter pole and looked home free. Interaction, the 2009 G1 Gran Premio Carlos Pellegrini winner, made things interesting briefly along the rail, but he couldn't match strides with the winner late. "I really didn't do much with him," Gallagher said of taking over Grandeur's training from Nosedá. "I didn't have to. This was his third graded race in six weeks. I'm just thankful that the owner [Yvonne Jacques] left him with me. She lives in Europe and I believe the plan was to take him back there, depending on what he did today and eventually run him in Dubai. I'd sure like to keep him, but he's going back to Jeremy Nosedá."

Brazil arrived to the 2012 G1 Gran Premio Carlos Pellegrini with a four-horse delegation, and it was the least likely entrant Going Somewhere (Brz) (Sulamani

Hipodromo de San Isidro

{Ire}) getting the money. Ridden without any doubt by Nelito Cunha, the Haras Phillipson homebred rallied strongly along the inside in the final meters to beat favored local hopeful Indy Point (Arg) (Indygo Shiner) 1 1/2 lengths. The Pellegrini was the first graded stakes try for Going Somewhere, who broke his maiden in a 2400-meter race at Cidade Jardim Oct. 13 and repeated in a 3000-meter event at the same track most recently Nov. 17. The performance of Brazilian horses in the last three versions of the Pellegrini has been fantastic, with Xin Xu Lin (Brz) (Wondertross) winning in 2010 and Veraneio (Brz) (Signal Tap) giving Expressive Halo (Arg) (Halo Sunshine) all he could handle in 2011. "Some years ago we came in second with Quari Bravo (Brz) (Punk {Arg}), and to have achieved this triumph is great happiness for the whole team," said Benjamin Steinbruch, owner of Haras Phillipson.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Romans Runners Work at Gulfstream...

A pair of promising soon-to-be 3-year-olds from the Dale Romans barn stretched their legs at Gulfstream Park yesterday morning. Mike Rutherford, Michael Lauffer and Kinsman Stable's Gulfport (Unbridled's Song), coming off a second-straight impressive win at Churchill Downs Nov. 24, breezed five panels in an easy 1:02.85. The drill was the 28th-fastest of 31 at the distance. "He looked super," Romans said of the $775,000 FTSAUG yearling, a son of MGISW Dream Supreme (Seeking the Gold) and a half to Grade I winner Majestic Warrior (A.P. Indy). "He's probably going to run in the [GIII] Holy Bull [S. at Gulfstream Jan. 26]."

Romans also sent out Dewey Square (Bernardini), last seen finishing third in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., to a snappy :59.20 work, good for the second-fastest five-furlong clocking of the morning. "He went around there fast," Romans said of the Siena Farms homebred. "He's a good horse. It looks like he's turned the corner and is heading in the right direction." Romans added that Dewey Square's next start is still up in the air.

EBLOUISSANTE SCRATCHES Eric Kronfeld's "TDN Rising Star" Eblouissante (Bernardini) was scratched yesterday from her much-anticipated second appearance--the fourth race at Betfair Hollywood Park--less than 30 minutes before post time after scraping her hip leaving the receiving barn. The half-sister to multiple Grade I winners Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) and Balance (Thunder Gulch) was 1-9 at the time of her scratch from the 1 1/16-mile first-level allowance/optional claiming event for fillies and mares three years old and up. "She bruised her hip," confirmed trainer John Shirreffs. "It's hard to say [if she'll miss any training]. We'll have to see how she is when she walks out of the stall [Sunday]." Eblouissante was a 4 1/4-length debut winner Nov. 16 at the same 1 1/16-mile trip she was scheduled to compete at Saturday.

She finished third in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico May 18, and was fourth in the GI Mother Goose S. at Belmont June 23. She most recently finished seventh in the GI Gazelle S. at Aqueduct Nov. 24. Settling into a stalking position behind tepid early fractions, she overtook the pacesetter chalk Morrow Cove entering the turn and lengthened her advantage in the lane.

Halted last winter for $30,000, Saginaw recorded his 10th win in 12 starts for these connections, with earnings approaching $480,000 since the claim. Sixth off nine days' rest in the GI Met Mile in May, Saginaw regrouped to win the John Morissey S. at Saratoga Aug. 1 and a $25,000 starter-allowance Aug. 23 before besting Lunar Victory (Speightstown) in the Promenade All S. at Belmont Sept. 23. Runner-up at long odds-on in the Oct. 20 Hudson S., he proved best last time in the Fourstars Allstar S. on the outer dirt Nov. 18.

Settled just off the flank of pacesetting Royal Currier, Saginaw had to call on all his class and got the better of a stretch-long duel in the final 50 yards. "That was a legitimate horse he beat [Royal Currier]; Linda [Rice] always does a great job," commented winning trainer David Jacobson. "They ran really fast. I'm happy to see he can compete in open company now." Saginaw may go for his 11th victory of the year in the restricted Alex M. Robb S. LONG RIVER (c, 2, [A.P. The form of that race was franked when Delhomme returned to be a close third in the GII Remsen S., and Long River was part of the favored entry here at 1-4. Allowed to sit the box seat for the opening 3/4 of a mile, the homebred was sent through an opening at the rail in upper stretch. He looked like he might run off and hide, but Mr. Palmer (Pulpit), a last-out third to subsequent GSP Frac Daddy (Scat Daddy), came out past the eighth pole and whittled the winning margin down to 3/4 of a length. Long River is the first foal to race from 2006 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Round Pond, who was acquired by these connections for $5.75 million at FTKNOV in 2008. She slipped her foal of 2009, and currently has a yearling colt by Elusive Quality and a weanling 3/4-sister to Long River by Bernardini. Mystic Love could have waited and faced her peers in the Ginger Brew S. on New Year's Day, but trainer Jessica Campitelli preferred a flat mile for her first two-turn try and entered her against the boys in the Dania Beach. The decision paid dividends when the Maryland-bred miss got through in the stretch and outfooted favored Charming Kitten to the money. Crespano broke his maiden by seven lengths in his sophomore debut at Tampa Bay Downs Mar. 3 for trainer Kirk Ziadie, but went winless throughout the summer. He made two starts for the Todd Pletcher stable in May and June before joining his current trainer Juan Coronel, and on Oct. 7 he returned to the winner's circle at Belmont in a $25,000 optional claimer. He won again under the same conditions over this strip last out, and was sent off the 7-5 co-favorite here. Settling on the rail in third early, he gained the lead at the head of the stretch and held off a late charge from Enchante. The Pennsylvania-bred made her debut in the Donna Freyer S., a non black-type affair, over this track Nov. 18 and dueled for the lead before fading to finish third. The 5-2 second choice was quickest away and led them to the stretch, but looked in some trouble as I'm Mom's Favorite (Indian Charlie) loomed up while wide. Hesitant at the break, Shaler caboosed the field into the first turn and raced with little sense of urgency down the backstretch. Guided into the clear at about the 4 1/2-furlong point, Shaler dropped back down onto the rail, but had plenty to do at the quarter pole. He began to pick off rivals quickly in the stretch and raced a bit greenly, but drove clear to score by 1 1/4 lengths with something left. Shook the Hook (Malibu Moon) was second best.  Hurricane Ike garnered attention as a sophomore when he took the GIII Derby Trial S., and he went on to finish third in that year's GII Super Derby. While he has not hit those levels since, he has not disgraced himself in listed competition this year, scooping the Michael G. Schaefer Memorial Mile at Hoosier Park Oct. 6, and most recently finishing third in the Delta Mile S. at Delta Downs Nov. 17. Hustled to the lead from post two here, he set soft fractions while shadowed by Brethren the entire way around the oval. After a sustained stretch battle with that rival, he managed to hold his advantage at the wire.

France

LONGCHAMP PLANS ARE GO

The long-awaited redevelopment of Longchamp has moved a step closer following the acceptance by Paris' city council of France Galop's proposals to extend the racing authority's lease of the track until 2056. "France Galop has developed a project in order to recreate a racecourse more functional, more comfortable, more welcoming and more green while remaining the International window to French flat racing," commented Henri de Pracomtal in 2009, when the project was in its infancy, and that prophecy appears likelier than ever to be fulfilled. The Conseil Municipal Stand is to be demolished and replaced by a building capable of hosting temporary structures during Arc weekend. There will be reconstructed Presidential and Jockey Club Stands, a redesigned parade ring and new facilities for officials and professionals. Access and links will be improved, and the new structures will house restaurants and facilities capable of hosting conferences and events. A new fibersand track will also be laid to increase the number of race days per year. The cost of the project, which will be borne by France Galop, has jumped from an initial estimate of €75 million to €108 million. The renowned Dominique Perrault Architecture organization has been tasked with the project. Redevelopment work is set to begin after the 2014 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and will be completed in time to host the 2016 renewal. Chantilly is considered the likeliest substitute venue for the 2015 edition, but this has yet to be confirmed.

PAIR OF R1-MILLION LOTS TOP SOUTH AFRICAN SALE

Two lots hit the R1-million (US$116,090) mark to top the inaugural Cape Thoroughbred Sales R2 Million Ready to Run Sale at Durbanville Racecourse in Cape Town, South Africa, Friday. The first 2-year-old to break the R1-million barrier was lot 80, a colt named Exelero (SAf). By leading sire Western Winter (Gone West) out of Landalet (SAf) (Badger Land), the bay, who is a full brother to the MGSP Master Mascus, was consigned by V.H.M. Racing and was purchased by Mayfair Speculators. Matching his price later in the day was lot 105, a filly named Belle Coco (SAf). From the penultimate crop of leading sire Jet Master (SAf) (Rakeen), the bay is out of Page Girl (SAf) (Saumarez {GB}), and is from the family of G1 Queen's Plate winner Trademark (SAf) (Goldmark {SAf}). She was consigned by Klawervlei Stud, and was purchased by A. Van Vuuren. In total, 163 lots grossed R25,865,000 (US$3,002,670). The average was R161,656 (US$18,767).
