'RACHEL' REMAINS IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Less than a day after undergoing emergency surgery to address internal injuries and a resulting infection suffered while foaling, the 2009 Horse of the Year Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro) remained in serious condition yesterday at Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital in Lexington. Connections of owner Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Stable, including Banke, broodmare manager Gary Megibben, and bloodstock advisor John Moynihan, came together with Rachel Alexandra's attending veterinarians for a press conference yesterday afternoon at Rood & Riddle, and explained the seriousness of her condition.

"She's got a big mountain to climb," admitted Megibben.

"It's hard, and we're hoping for the best," added an emotional Banke. "We just ask people to send their thoughts and prayers to Rachel."

Barbara Banke

Banke said Rachel Alexandra is far from being out of the woods, but said she appeared "brighter" Thursday afternoon.

On Tuesday, the bay mare foaled a healthy, 140-pound filly by Bernardini, her second foal, but was watched closely because of difficulties during the delivery. By Wednesday afternoon, a change in her demeanor and an excess of fluid in her abdominal cavity was observed--often a sign of infection--and she was rushed to Rood & Riddle where she underwent exploratory surgery Wednesday evening.

Dr. Brett Woodie operated on the 7-year-old mare, and discovered a section of her small colon that had lost its blood supply, likely caused by an injury during foaling. This loss of blood supply appeared to have caused a weakness that allowed bacteria access to the abdominal cavity. Woodie removed the damaged section of her colon, and an extensive lavage--a flushing-out process--was undertaken to remove inflammatory cells and bacteria. Because of the nature and extent of the problem, the surgery was long and technically demanding, but Woodie called Rachel Alexandra's recovery from anesthesia "uncomplicated," and said "she's doing as best as we could expect from this stage in her recovery." Cont. p3

FASIG-TIPTON CATALOGUES 136 FOR FLORIDA

The 2013 Fasig-Tipton Florida Sale of Selected 2-Year-Olds in Training catalogue is now available online. The auction, which will be held at Palm Meadows Training Center Mar. 25, has 136 entries.

"For more than 30 years, The Florida Sale has showcased an elite group of 2-year-olds to the sport's leading buyers, and that tradition continues," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning. "We have a tremendous group of 2-year-olds headed to South Florida again this year with sire power, pedigree, and the looks to match. Florida Sale graduates continue to impress on the racetrack, making it a 'can't-miss' sale for the buyer. Superstars such as Graydar (Unbridled's Song), who turned in an electrifying performance in the GI Donn H. this past Saturday, exemplify the type of quality a buyer can find at Palm Meadows."

Among the freshman sires represented are Grade I winners Colonel John (Tiznow), Pioneer of the Nile (Empire Maker) and Zensational (Unbridled's Song). The catalogue can be viewed online at fasigtipton.com and print catalogues will be mailed Feb. 18.

Dr. Bonnie Barr, an equine internal medicine specialist at Rood & Riddle and one of the first doctors to examine Rachel Alexandra, said it was too early to make a prognosis for recovery.

“We have to see how she responds to treatment and take it pretty much one day at a time,” she said. Barr said it was also premature to comment on whether Rachel Alexandra would be able to have foals in the future, should she make a full recovery.

Rachel Alexandra’s foal, meanwhile, has been put to a nurse mare, a surrogate mother who, if everything goes right, bonds to a foal and allows it to nurse from her. Megibben said the nurse mare was a Quarter Horse mare from another farm who reportedly has quickly accepted Rachel Alexandra’s foal as her own. “We took [the foal] out of the stall to see how she’d respond, and she got pretty angry, so we think they’ve already bonded to each other,” said Megibben. Megibben estimated that, from 80 or 90 mares at Stonestreet, nurse mares are usually required once or twice a year. Even if Rachel Alexandra were to recover exceptionally fast, the foal will remain with the nurse mare until weaned roughly six or seven months from now.

“The filly looks great,” Banke said of the Bernardini foal. “She really wants to run around. She’s just getting used to her nurse mare right now.”

The size of Rachel Alexandra’s foal--140 pounds-- would be considered reasonably large for a Thoroughbred foal, and is the largest born at Stonestreet so far this year. But Woodie said he didn’t believe that was a factor in the mare’s injuries.

“There are certainly foals that are born that size that don’t have this problem, and we also see foals that are much smaller than Rachel’s foal that do,” he said. He added that her injuries are not uncommon in foaling. “It’s a well-recognized potential complication,” he noted.

Rachel Alexandra’s first foal, born last year, is the Curlin colt Jess’s Dream, named in honor of Stonestreet founder Jess Jackson. Rachel Alexandra’s own dam, the Roar mare Lotta Kim, has had foaling issues, but Woodie said he didn’t think the issues Rachel Alexandra faced were hereditary.

Rachel Alexandra is currently receiving antibiotics, fluids, nutrition and medications by IV, and is also being given anti-inflammatory agents. Medications are also being administered to aid in the prevention of scar tissue in the abdominal cavity. A standing lavage utilizing abdominal drains is also being performed several times a day.

Stonestreet said it would provide continual updates in the coming days on Rachel Alexandra’s condition.

A winner of 13 of 19 starts and over $3.5 million in earnings, Rachel Alexandra won all eight of her starts during an historic 3-year-old campaign in 2009, when her victories included the GI Preakness S., GI Woodward S., GI Haskell Invitational and GI Kentucky Oaks.

Boasting a perfect record in South Africa that earned him champion juvenile honors last term, Soft Falling Rain's campaign culminated in an impressive display in Turffontein's G1 SA Nursery in April. He had advertised his class with another facile score in the seven-furlong UAE 2000 Guineas Trial last time Jan. 17, and had no trouble maintaining his unbeaten streak here.

Soft Falling Rain A Watkins/DRC

Soon up into a stalking second under Paul Hanagan here, the enthusiastic racer took control passing the quarter pole and was driven out to assert his superiority as Snowboarder made ground out wide to claim the silver medal. "He is a really nice horse and we will have to decide where he runs next," said winning owner Sheikh Hamdan. "This 1600 meters really seems to suit him on this surface and we could stick to this trip. The [1900-meter Mar. 30 G2] UAE Derby is possible, but he has a lot of speed. Wherever he runs here next, we are keen to take him to England, and Royal Ascot would be a possibility for him." Trainer Mike de Kock added, "We were a bit concerned about his stamina, but he has seen it out well, and we will have to think about his next race."

BAFFERT FIELDS 50% OF SAN VICENTE

Trainer Bob Baffert has three chances to win the $150,000 GII San Vicente S. at Santa Anita Sunday. The seven-furlong test drew a six-horse field, and Baffert's trio drew the first three spots in the gate. From the rail out, they are Belvin (Empire Maker), a game winner last out Dec. 26; Shakin It Up (Midnight Lute), who has been off since running third by 3/4 of length in another Baffert intramural contest, the GIII Hollywood Prevue S. Nov. 22; and War Academy (Giant's Causeway), who hasn't seen action since taking his career opener Nov. 9.

"Belvin and Shakin It Up broke their maidens here," the Hall of Fame trainer said. "The horses haven't run in a while, but they're all doing well and they've worked well. There weren't any allowance races, so I went here."

Triple Threats

'Normandy' Ready for New Orleans Invasion

Fox Hill Farms' Normandy Invasion (Tapit) will make his 3-year-old debut in the GII Risen Star S. at Fair Grounds next Saturday. The bay has not faced the starter since closing like a freight train to be second by a nose in the GII Remsen S. at Aqueduct Nov. 24 (video).

"He ran good in the Remsen," said trainer Chad Brown, "and he's been training real good down here in Florida. But he hasn't had a lot of experience, and I know the [speed-favoring] track at Gulfstream wouldn't be conducive to his style. We're searching for a better situation."

Normandy Invasion, a $230,000 KEEAPR juvenile, most recently breezed five-eighths in 1:00.40 at Palm Meadows last Sunday.

"We're cranking him right now," Brown added.

- In other Risen Star reports, jockey Gary Stevens will fly in to ride Proud Strike (Smart Strike).
- Other sophomores expected to part in the $400,000 race are: Agent (Dehere), Bethel (Pulpit), Departing (War Front), Golden Soul (Perfect Soul {Ire}), Ive Struck a Nerve (Yankee Gentleman), Mylute (Midnight Lute), Oxbow (Awesome Again), Palace Malice (Curlin) and Sunbean (Brahms).

'Duke', Capo Bastone to Clash at Gulfstream

George and Lori Hall's Duke of the City (Bernardini), second to the promising Orb (Malibu Moon) going 1 1/8 miles at Gulfstream Jan. 26 off a four-month layoff, returns to action at the Hallandale oval tomorrow in a 1 1/16-mile allowance optional claimer for 3-year-olds.

"I kind of wish [this] race was 1 1/8 miles," said Kelly Breen, trainer of Duke of the City. "I think he needed his first race, and hopefully he'll improve off that. There looks like there is a bit more speed in this race. He's a very big horse with a long stride, so I think the longer distance suits him better."

Breen has Triple Crown aspirations for Duke of the City, who he purchased for $130,000 for the Halls at Keeneland September in 2011. The bay finished third on debut going 5 1/2 furlongs at Monmouth Park Sept. 3, and returned 11 days later to graduate going a mile at Laurel.

"He's a big horse with a really long stride," Breen commented. "I knew he wasn't going to win going five furlongs, but at the time, it was either that or keep him in the barn for another two months. We started him out knowing he was going to need more distance."

The son of Grade I winner Meadow Breeze (Meadowlake) will face stiff competition in the form of dual Grade I-placed Capo Bastone (Street Boss), last seen finishing third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Santa Anita Nov. 3.

Woodbine to Restructure, Reduce Workforce

Woodbine Entertainment Group has announced that it will significantly restructure its operating model based on new transitional agreements with the Ontario government and the Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation to continue live racing at the Etobicoke oval. The revenue from the new agreements will be significantly less than previous agreements, resulting in the need to take steps to reduce costs.

The actions include the reduction of the WEG workforce by 109 salaried and hourly positions. These reductions began in late 2012, and range from executive personnel to front line employees.

"Today is a very difficult day for Woodbine Entertainment Group," said Nick Eaves, President and CEO of WEG. "The people we are saying goodbye to have helped build WEG into a world-class horse racing and entertainment company. As we confront these difficult but changes to our company, we remain committed to delivering a superior experience to our customers and demonstrating vital leadership to the Ontario horse racing industry to ensure its long-term sustainability."

The new operating model will align with Woodbine's reduced live racing schedule announced Jan. 24. Woodbine will host 133 days of live racing in 2013, compared to 155 days last year. The new model will also include the elimination of some services at Woodbine and Mohawk, a nearby standardbred racetrack also owned by WEG.

"This restructuring of our operations is absolutely necessary to ensure the viability of our business during this period of transition," said WEG Chairman Jim Lawson. "WEG and its government partners must continue to work together in order to achieve the only sustainable solution--the integration of horse racing into Ontario's overall gaming strategy, which needs to include expanded gaming, operated by WEG, at Woodbine and Mohawk racetracks."

Romans Maps Out a Plan

It was less than a month ago that Dale Romans received the Eclipse Award as champion trainer of 2012 during ceremonies at Gulfstream Park for his work with stable stars such as Little Mike (Spanish Steps), Shackleford (Forestry), Dullahan (Even the Score) and Silver Max (Badge of Silver) to name a few. Now Romans is gearing up his stable to make national headlines once again in 2013.

The Louisville, Kentucky native has a number of promising 3-year-olds once again in his barn led by a couple of sophomores owned and bred by Sienna Farm LLC--the colt Dewey Square (Bernardini) and the filly Private Ensign (A.P. Indy). Both are nearing starts in graded stakes races at Gulfstream with the goal being a trip to Churchill Downs the first weekend in May for a start in the GI Kentucky Derby for Dewey Square and the GI Kentucky Oaks for Private Ensign. Private Ensign is scheduled to start in the $250,000 GII Davona Dale S. Feb. 23, while Dewey Square is expected to run in the $150,000 GIII Palm Beach S. Mar. 3.

Romans admits Private Ensign "takes a big step up to run in the stakes," a race in which the likely favorite will be Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy), a top 2-year-old filly developed last year by trainer Todd Pletcher.

Dewey Square came to South Florida this winter with a big reputation after winning his first two starts in Kentucky before a strong third-place finish in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. at Churchill Nov. 24.

But he finished a distant seventh in the GIII Holy Bull S. here Jan. 26 behind Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron) and Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday) in his 3-year-old debut. Romans and jockey Corey Lanerie attributed the dull try to not handling kickback. While Romans has not wavered in his faith in Dewey Square's ability, he has altered plans on a schedule to get him to the Derby.

"He worked on the turf here [1:01 4/5 Feb. 10]," said Romans. "It looked like he handled it just fine. He's still on the Derby trail, this race and then the Blue Grass." The $750,000 GI Blue Grass S. will be run at Keeneland Saturday Apr. 13.

While Romans prepares his 3-year-olds for their next start, he has nearly completed the serious training for older stars Little Mike and Dullahan for their long trip to Dubai to prepare for the Mar. 30 G1 Dubai World Cup.

"The plane leaves from Miami on Feb. 27," Romans said. "They'll run in different races Mar. 9." Both races will be run on the synthetic Tapeta surface at Meydan.

Priscilla Vaccarezza's 6-year-old gelding Little Mike and Donegal Racing's 4-year-old Dullahan, who between them won five Grade I stakes last year, have posted a steady series of works over the Gulfstream track in recent weeks ahead of their trip.

While Dullahan will definitely go in the $10-million Dubai World Cup, a decision on Little Mike's choice of races on World Cup Day will depend on how he handles a synthetic surface for the first time Mar. 9. Also to be run on World Cup Day are the $5-million G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at 1 1/2 miles on turf and $5-million G1 Dubai Duty Free at 1 1/8 miles on turf.

Romans won the 2005 renewal of the World Cup with Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Roses in May (Devil His Due) after finishing second in the GI Donn H. behind Saint Liam (Saint Ballado), the latter going on to be voted Horse of the Year that season.

Another older star back for another season in the Romans barn will be Mark Bacon and Dana Wells' Silver Max, who posted his first workout of the year here Feb. 9 (half-mile in :50 3/5).

The 4-year-old won six straight races on turf last year, beginning with an allowance race early in the season at Gulfstream before five straight stakes races, including the GII American Turf at Churchill, Arlington Classic and rich GII Virginia Derby at Colonial Downs in July.

A Jealous Woman Answers Prayers

Courtesy Ed Golden/Santa Anita

The 7-year-old mare A Jealous Woman (Muqtarib), who goes postward in Monday's GII Buena Vista S. at Santa Anita, is proof that in racing good things can come to anyone with a few good friends and a dream.

A Jealous Woman, who goes for her second straight victory after collecting the Megahertz S. here Jan. 19, is campaigned by Nick Tamborrino and Richard Reid--both retired mailmen--under the moniker Three Cent Stable.

A Jealous Woman and connections

"We're just little guys enjoying the game," Reid commented.

Trained for two seasons by Bill Spawr, the chestnut suffered a bowed tendon in March 2010, and was transferred to conditioner Francis Meza, who has also been a pastor for 20 years. A Jealous Woman returned to the races in November 2011, and has since recorded four victories. Second in the GII Goldikova S. Nov. 4, she landed her first stakes win in the Megahertz. Cont. p11

“A Jealous Woman was a challenge for us,” noted Meza, who learned her trade working for trainers Richard Mandella and Craig Lewis. “Three Cent Stable gave us the opportunity to bring her back to health, and she responded really well for us. I mention it to the owners all the time that she’s one in a million.”

Francis is assisted by her husband Eddie, chaplain for the Race Track Chaplaincy of America. “We got involved when we were counseled by the racing chaplaincy about 21 years ago,” he explained. “Thanks to them and God, it changed our lives completely.”

The California-bred, who was co-bred by Tamborrino, displayed her readiness for Monday’s test Feb. 7 when firing a bullet for five furlongs in :59.00 over the Santa Anita turf.

“Right now, she’s at her peak. She’s at her best,” Eddie Meza said. “Being involved with horses for the last 25 years, you don’t see them come back from these kind of tendon injuries. Now, A Jealous Woman is 100%. I’m not talking 90, 80%. You look at her, and you don’t know what tendon was injured. And the attitude she has, she doesn’t look like a 7-year-old mare. She looks like a 3-year-old filly. She’s a joy to have in the barn. It’s opened up a lot of doors in different areas. Now we have a stable of over 20 horses.”

Juddmonte announced that their homebred six-time Group/Grade 1 heroine Middy (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) will be the first to be covered by Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}). The 7-year-old recently produced her first foal, a colt by Galileo

Highcliff Stallions to Stand at McMahon:

Edited press release

Joe and Anne McMahon, owners of McMahon of Saratoga Thoroughbreds, announced yesterday the addition of the Highcliff Stallions to the farm for 2013. C. Lynwood O'Cain, DVM and Suzie O'Cain, Stallion Development, commented, "We could not be more thrilled. We have always dreamed of bringing Saratoga Thoroughbred breeders to the forefront in the state, and with 14 stallions, including the sire of a 2012 Eclipse winner and the sire of a 2012 Grade I stakes winner, we felt now was the time to make the dreams of both families a reality."

Joe McMahon and Suzie O'Cain have spent many years working together on the boards of several state organizations, including the New York Thoroughbred Breeders. Dr. O'Cain adds his vast knowledge of reproductive therapy, while Anne McMahon continues her role in hands on horsemanship and farm management.

Suzie O'Cain added, "Doc and I spent 26 years 45 minutes away from Saratoga, and with the closing of Highcliff Farm after Carl Lizza's passing, we wanted our friends and clients to know we would always be close and involved with their bloodstock investments. Anne and Joe are not only two of our good friends, their farm is just five minutes down the road, and Doc and I will be there on a regular basis. We all feel this will be the best Thoroughbred stallion station in the Northeast."

Highcliff stallions Bob and John (Seeking the Gold), Congaree (Arazi), Cosmonaut (Lemon Drop Kid), Maybry's Boy (Broad Brush), Smart Bid (Smart Strike), and Stonesider (Giant's Causeway) join McMahon stallions Alphabet Soup (Cozzene), Catienus (Storm Cat), Here Comes Ben (Street Cry {Ire}), Justenuffhumor (Distorted Humor), Mr. Sekiguchi (Storm Cat), Teufflesberg (Johannesburg), Touch Gold (Deputy Minister), and Utopia (Jpn) (Forty Niner) for the 2013 breeding season.

NYRA Launches Redesigned Website:

The New York Racing Association has unveiled its redesigned website, featuring a user-friendly layout and multimedia platforms, at www.NYRA.com.

The new layout prominently displays links to entries, results, replays, picks, scratches, track conditions and more. The site is designed to be accessible to all visitors, regardless of racing knowledge. The "Wagering 101" tutorial will help newcomers learn how to wager, while experienced horsemen and horseplayers will have access to extensive information. Integration with Equibase ensures that all stats are updated regularly.

NYRA Photo

"We are thrilled to debut a wholly redesigned and mobile-enabled NYRA.com," said NYRA President and Chief Operating Officer Ellen McClain. "The new site combines design, technology and deep racing knowledge to deliver an intuitive display of relevant information, including an extensive video library, for fans, handicappers, and horsemen alike."

The new design also utilizes increased photo and video content. A "Video Corner" displays NYRA TV programs and features, and race replays for all three NYRA tracks dating back to 2007 are available. NYRA's social media feeds--Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and YouTube--are integrated at the bottom of the page, giving fans real-time updates. The new website is also mobile-enabled, allowing users a straightforward interface for on-the-go use.

Old Friends Along the Kentucky Bourbon Trail Set for Feb. 23:

The fifth annual "Old Friends Along the Kentucky Bourbon Trail" dinner and Bourbon tasting will take place Feb. 23 at the Seelbach Hilton Hotel in Louisville, Kentucky. The festivities will begin at 6 p.m., and will include a four-course Bourbon-themed dinner with live and silent auctions of exclusive equine artwork, autographed Bourbon items, racing memorabilia, fine jewelry and more. Tickets are $100 per person, and the hotel is offering attendants a special room rate of $119 per night. "We can't thank the Seelbach and the Kentucky Distillers Association enough for their support," said Old Friends President and Founder Michael Blowen. "This is one of the most exciting evenings on our fund-raising calendar, and we hope everyone will come out and join us."

Texas HORSE Survey Results Bleak for In-State Racing:

The Texas Horse Organizations for Racing, Showing and Eventing have discovered, through a recent survey of Texas horsemen, that a substantial portion of Texas racehorse breeders, owners, and trainers are leaving the state to work elsewhere. Of the 287 horsemen surveyed, 81% currently race out of state, half said that 75% or more of their racing is conducted out of state and 43% said they will reduce their investments in Texas racing in 2013. "This is very clear proof that our Texas racehorse breeders, owners and trainers are moving their racing operations primarily to the surrounding states of Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma, where the purses and breeders awards are significantly increased by slot machines at the racetracks," said Dan Fick, executive director of Texas HORSE. Texas HORSE is asking that the Texas legislation pass an amendment that will allow a state vote whether slot machines should be allowed at Texas tracks, which could bolster Texas purses so they could be competitive with surrounding states.

CANDLE LIGHTS UP GOFFS ACTION

Goffs' February Sale was enlivened by a well-connected member of Moyglare Stud's draft yesterday, when Candle Lit (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) became the sole lot to reach six figures at the Kill venue when selling for €100,000. Consigned as hip 444, the unraced 3-year-old has considerable residual value emanating from one of the operation's leading distaff brigades. A three-parts sister to the triple Pattern-race scorer and 2010 G1 Irish St Leger runner-up Profound Beauty (Ire) (Danehill), her Listed-winning dam Diamond Trim (Ire) (Highest Honor {Fr}) is a full-sibling of the 2002 G2 Ribblesdale S. heroine and G1 Prix de l'Opera bridesmaid Irresistible Jewel (Ire) (Danehill) and hails from the family of the similarly top-class Princess Highway (Street Cry {Ire}) and Mad About You (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}). Cathy Grassick, acting on behalf of an existing client, prevailed as she had for another blueblood earlier in the afternoon.

That was the Castlebridge Consignment's 5-year-old Morning Bride (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), another unraced gem who is a full-sister to last year's G2 Railway S. scorer Probably (Ire). Hip 373, whose lineage traces back to Doff the Derby and whose page also features more of last year's luminaries in Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Hawaafez (GB) (Nayef), was secured for €40,000.

A third high-profile purchase in the name of Brian Grassick Bloodstock was another from that draft in hip 412, the winning 3-year-old Bay Laurel (Ire) (Baltic King {GB}) who is a half-sister to the dam of last term's G1 July Cup hero Mayson (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Also a half to the 2012 Listed scorer Bathwick Bear (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), she was bought for €36,000. Interrupting the Grassick domination was Rosehill Stud, who paid €40,000 late in the session for Coolagown Stud's hip 472, the 10-year-old Mimiteh (Maria's Mon). Covered by Showcasing (GB), she is a half-sister to last year's unbeaten G1 Cheveley Park S. and G2 Lowther S. scorer Rosdhu Queen (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

With no stand-out mare to match last year's €500,000 record-setter Teo's Sister (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the average was always likely to suffer and so it proved, with the cumulative figure of €9,729 down by 27% on 2012.

"The Goffs February Sale is a regular market leader and has again outperformed every other sale at this time of year with a two-day sale of consistent vibrancy," Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby said. "Whilst some of the statistics may not have matched last year, we have returned a strong trade on both days and welcomed another international audience to Goffs following a coordinated approach from Goffs and Irish Thoroughbred Marketing. The €500,000 top price of 2012 was a real stand-out and it was always going to be difficult to match, although we are very happy to see our great supporters Moyglare top today with an impressive €100,000 to Cathy Grassick's bid. The fact is that this year has returned the second best set of results since the pre-downturn highs of February 2008 and over 50 per cent ahead of 2011. Of course we would have preferred to advance again in all sectors, but an improved clearance rate and steady median price clearly show that we continue to develop the sale." BALLYLINCH WELCOME GOLDEN LILAC

Dietrich Von Boetticher's triple Group 1 heroine Golden Lilac (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) has arrived at Ballylinch Stud, where she will be covered by her owner's former dual Classic-winning homebred Lope de Vega (Ire). Successful in the 2011 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane and last year's G1 Prix d'Isphahan, where she inflicted a rare defeat on compatriot Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}), Golden Lilac--a daughter of fellow top-level scorer Grey Lilas (Ire) (Danehill)--adds further support to Lope de Vega, whose first crop includes 20 Ammerland yearlings headed by a half-brother to the champion Hurricane Run (Ire). All those yearlings in Von Boetticher's ownership by Lope de Vega will be retained and put into training with Andre Fabre, Sir Henry Cecil and Peter Schiergen. This year, the renowned German breeding operation has a band of 14 mares scheduled to visit 2010 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Hot Blood (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a 3/4-sister to Hurricane Run, and the pattern-race scorer Navarra Queen (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}).

Italy

COUNTRY FACES ANOTHER BLANK SPELL

Italy's racing crisis has been upped a notch after it was revealed that another strike could begin next Friday if the government refuses to meet with industry leaders. Minister Mario Catania has been met with an ultimatum from Rappresentanza Unitaria dell'Ipica, which is the umbrella group for owners, breeders, trainers, jockeys, stable staff and other professionals but which does not include the racecourses' organisation Federippodromi. While payment of arrears from 2012 has been promised, it is set to be made over a three-year period and will affect the budgets for that period. A statement from Rappresentanza Unitaria dell'Ipica read: "We require an urgent meeting with Mario Catania, minister for agriculture, food and forestry, but if that does not happen we will, because of the lack of financial resources, stop all racing from February 22. The minister's decision at the end of January to implement an act which put just €30 million into racing to cover a six-figure shortfall from 2012 was unacceptable, as is the fact that it is being deducted from the 2013 budget. We are also calling for a stop to the transmission of foreign races, as that is taking away valuable betting turnover from Italian racing."

Australasia

SNOWDEN, SH. MOHAMMED REACH MILESTONE

Trainer Peter Snowden scored his 1000th win for Sheikh Mohammed in Australia Wednesday when Sail (Aus) (Canny Lad {Aus}) broke her maiden at Gosford. Starting in 2008, the conditioner has won an average of 210 races per season, highlighted by 20 Group 1 wins and 61 additional Group races for Sheikh Mohammed. "Peter and his team have an extraordinary work ethic," Henry Plumptre, Darley's managing director in Australia, said. "Their high degree of horsemanship and organization have been considerable contributing factors. Peter oversees three training operations for Sheikh Mohammed that include 120 racehorses at Crown Lodge, Warwick Farm; 88 at Osborne Park, Agnes Banks and 60 at Carbine Lodge, Flemington. He has a highly experienced team of assistants who run those sites for him. It is Peter's work ethic and the support that he receives from his team that delivers the success for Sheikh Mohammed. We inherited some significant assets with the buyout of the Woodlands racing and breeding operations, but none were more important than Peter and the intellectual property he brought to the table." John Ferguson, Sheikh Mohammed's Bloodstock Advisor, added, "To have trained 1000 winners in such a short time is quite an achievement. Sheikh Mohammed is very grateful to Peter and to all of our team and is looking forward to many more winners in the years to come."

SNITZEL FILLY ON TOP IN TASMANIA

A filly by Snitzel (Aus) topped all offerings at Thursday's Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale, selling for A$55,000 (US$56,964) to former trainer John Blacker. Catalogued as lot 15, the chestnut was consigned by Armidale Stud, agent for Reibey Lodge. "She's a nice filly and she is by Snitzel and they have sold for plenty at sales around the country in recent times," said Blacker of the topper. "I trained her dam [six-time winner and stakes-placed Butzie {Aus} {Delago Broom {Aus}}] and she had plenty of ability and should have won a couple of times in Melbourne. Her mum won over a mile and placed past 2000 meters and with the Snitzel coming through I think it will make her into a nice filly." A total of 93 yearlings sold for a gross of A$1,140,750, good for an average of A$12,266 and median of A$10,000. The average represented a 5.4% improvement year-over-year, while the median increased by 43%. The clearance rate dropped slightly from 79% to 74%. "It was a very satisfactory day at the office," Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox said. "For any average to go up over 5% in the market is an outstanding result. Obviously we would have liked a higher clearance rate, but we were coming off a record clearance for the auction last year." Visit magicmillions.com.au for more information.

INGLIS TO HOST SYNDICATION OPEN DAY

Edited Press Release

Inglis will be opening the gates at their Newmarket complex on Sunday May 5 for a new Syndication Open Day where prospective investors can view a parade of newly acquired yearlings that are being offered for syndication. "Many professional syndicators are great supporters of Inglis' Select Yearling Sales, and we are very keen to assist them in bringing new people into the industry," said Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster. Licensed syndicators and authorized representatives that have already thrown their support behind the Open Day include Australian Bloodstock, Belhus Racing Stables, BlueBlood Thoroughbreds, Champion Thoroughbreds, Darby Racing, Dynamic Syndications, Elite Thoroughbreds, Grand Syndicates, Hunter Thoroughbred Management, Hurst Park, Ontrack Thoroughbreds, OZ Racing, Prime Thoroughbreds, Proven Thoroughbreds, Quality Thoroughbred Syndications, Slade Bloodstock, Star Thoroughbreds, Topline, Trainer Connections and Triple Crown Syndications. Gates will open at 10:30 a.m. for inspections before a new owners seminar under the famous Moreton Bay Figtree around 11 a.m. Syndicators will be allocated up to 10 boxes each with select yearlings to be paraded in Inglis' sales ring from noon onwards for all potential buyers to see. During the parades, the syndicators will be given the opportunity to discuss the individual horses with a member of the Inglis team to all the keen onlookers. "We have had great feedback from syndicators so far and are very pleased to be offering them this additional platform to exhibit their purchases from the 2013 Australasian yearling sales," Webster said. The bar, BBQ and Inglis Shop will be in full operation during the day, with families welcomed as there will be plenty of activities available for children. More information on the event, including a list of the yearlings to be paraded, will be made available in the weeks after the 2013 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale in April. Syndicators wishing to be involved should contact James Price at +61 2 9399 7999 or james@inglis.com.au.
