IGUGU UPSET AT MEYDAN

All eyes were on South African Horse of the Year Igugu (Aus) (Galileo {Ire}) in yesterday's G2 Balanchine at Meydan, but it was Sajjhaa (GB) (King's Best) who got the money with a one-length tally over Prussian (GB) (Dubai Destination). One of Godolphin's European stalwarts among the distaff brigade in recent years, Sajjhaa had a sole Pattern-race success to her name before the start of 2013 in the G3 Premio Sergio Cumani at the San Siro as a sophomore. The runner-up in the last two renewals of the G2 Middleton S. had swooped to conquer in the G2 Cape Verdi over a mile here on her 6-year-old bow last time Jan. 24, and stepped up off that building block here. Taking a perfect tow in a share of third early as Igugu over-raced on the front end, the bay traveled smoothly into contention on the final turn, and when sent to the lead with a quarter mile remaining, kicked decisively before holding off the charge of Prussian. Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented, "She's really thrived since she got to Dubai and that was a good performance. We'll take her back to Europe; her main targets will be in North America in the second half of the season." Cont. p3

CAVIAR INTO AUSTRALIAN HALL OF FAME

Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}), the world's highest-ever rated sprinter and dual Horse of the Year in her native country, has been inducted into the Australian Racing Hall of Fame.

The undefeated 6-year-old, who last weekend won her 23rd race with a track record-setting performance in the G1 Black Caviar Lightning S. at Flemington (video), becomes just the second horse to be inducted to the Hall of Fame while still in training. The other was dual G1 Cox Plate heroine Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}), who received the honor in 2002.

Three-times sprint champion Down Under, Black Caviar has won 13 Group 1 races. Last year, she garnered international attention when traveling to England to compete in the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot, which she won by a head (video).

The horses joining Black Caviar in the Hall of Fame yesterday were Melbourne Cup winner Delta; Star Kingdom, sire of the first five G1 Golden Slipper winners; and jumper Crisp. Human inductees are jockeys Hughie Cairns, and Geoff Lane; trainer Bruce McLachlan, and associates Albert O'Cass, a Sydney farrier; David Coles, a South Australian bloodstock agent and administrator, and Sir George Julis, inventor of the totalisator.

Mike de Kock was not too disappointed with the eclipse of Igugu, who was making her first start since capturing the G1 J & B Met at Kenilworth in January of 2012. "She got involved in fairly quick fractions early on and got tired," de Kock said. "It was going to be tough to keep up that gallop the whole way and she ran a bit free and pulled hard. Rebounding from a latest seventh in the G2 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 2 on the Tapeta Feb. 7, Mushreq stamped his authority on this important Carnival staging post to register an impressive first Pattern-race success. Just shy of the very best in his native South Africa, the bay was runner-up in the G1 Golden Horseshoe as a juvenile and fifth in the G1 Cape Derby at Kenilworth last January. On his third start at Meydan, he had registered a win in a 10-furlong handicap on the turf Jan. 31 before his flop on the artificial surface in the Maktoum Challenge. Breaking well on this occasion, he was restrained to race in mid-division by a confident Paul Hanagan early. Unleashed in mid-stretch, he took total command with a furlong to race en route to a convincing defeat of his stable's stalwart Master of Hounds. "He absolutely loves dropping in like that and passing them," Hanagan commented. "He's improved with every run and they went a nice gallop." Mike de Kock added, "He's been a real revelation in the Carnival, and the harder we've been on him, the better he's got. We always rode him handy and one day we got stuck behind in error and flew home and a light went on in my head then so the change of tactics has helped. He's actually got me baffled and the next step is to get him into the Mar. 30 G1 Duty Free. Master of Hounds surprised me more than any, as I thought he'd get tired, but he was gutsy and stayed there."

AUSTRALASIAN PREVIEWS

DIAMOND FOR THE LADIES

With the top three early betting interests being fillies, the boys appear to be up against it in tonight's G1 Blue Diamond S., one of Australia's most important juvenile contests, at Caulfield. Darley homebred Guelph (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) is from the same female family as that operation's Sepoy (Aus) (Elusive Quality), who took this race in 2011 en route to juvenile champion honors. The Peter Snowden charge, two-for-three lifetime, tuned up for this contest with an eye-catching victory in the G3 Blue Diamond Fillies Prelude over this strip Feb. 9, the race that produced last year's winner, Samaready (Aus) (More Than Ready). Stablemate Metastasio (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) has yet to be headed in two starts, her most recent victory coming in the Listed Chairman's S. here Feb. 2 where she bested fellow Blue Diamond entrants Kona Breeze (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}) and Shamus Award (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}). Also undefeated is South Australian import Miracles of Life (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}), who easily annexed two races at Morphetville before lifting the Blue Diamond Fillies Preview Jan. 26. That four-length winning margin was her shortest, and she could prove to be any kind here. In the colts' corner is the Peter Moody charge Dissident (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}), who took the Blue Diamond Colts and Geldings Preview here in his career debut Jan. 26. He finished a close-up and green third in the G3 Prelude last time Feb. 9.

AUSSIE STARS OUT FOR FUTURITY

Tonight's G1 Futurity S. at Caulfield has attracted a top group of consistent gallopers, as well as a few budding stars. All Too Hard (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}) has always been a horse to watch--thanks to his famed elder sister Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus})--but the 3-year-old has now carved his own reputation, establishing himself as one of the world's most sought-after racing and stallion prospects. He earned his breakthrough victory when taking last year's G1 Caulfield Guineas over 2-year-old champion and Triple Crown winner Pierro (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}) and, after being purchased privately by Vinery Stud, All Too Hard finished a game second in the G1 Cox Plate Oct. 27. He opened his 2013 account with a sharp victory over this track and trip in the C.F. Orr S. Feb. 9, and goes off the favorite again here while carrying the lightest load under weight-for-age rules. He faces a good group, with a handful of the country's top routers making their seasonal debuts. Chief amongst that bunch is last year's G1 Melbourne Cup hero Green Moon (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), who has not been seen since that 3200-metre contest 110 days ago. The 6-year-old will be racing at a distance far short of his best, and will likely use this race as a springboard to longer contests later in the calendar. The Peter Moody-trained Lights of Heaven (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) is also making her first run since the Melbourne Cup, where she finished 16th of 24. The 5-year-old has been otherwise consistent throughout her career, although she will running short of her best distance here. Defending race winner King Mufhasa (NZ) (Pentire {GB}) should not be discounted for a return to the winner's circle. The 8-year-old gelding has won six times over this distance, and although he disappointed first up as the second choice in the C.F. Orr, finishing fifth, he was beaten just over a length that day, and should be better for the run. Shanghai Warrior (Aus) (Elvstroem {Aus}) could offer value. The 4-year-old gelding has not won since August, but his last few runs show valid excuses. Checked back at the start of the G1 Rupert Clarke S. Sept. 30, he was never able to get involved after traveling at the back of the pack, and finished last. Rested for 132 days thereafter, he returned here Feb. 9 to finish an encouraging fourth. He holds a fitness advantage over some of the higher-rated runners here.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Think top Australian sprinter, and one's mind automatically goes to unbeaten champion Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}). And rightfully so, but, there is another mare in town. Her name is Ortensia (Aus) (Testa Rossa {Aus}), and, after a testing international campaign that last year saw her win Group 1 races in Dubai and England, she is back to race in her native country for the first time since November 2011. Her last domestic appearance was a victory in the G1 Winterbottom S. at Ascot, after which she headed to Dubai to collect the G1 Al Quoz Sprint Mar. 31. A wet English summer dampened her plans slightly, but, after unplaced efforts in the G1 King's Stand S. and G1 July Cup, the 7-year-old mare came roaring back to scoop the G2 King George S. and the G1 Nunthorpe S. She ended her campaign with an off-the-board showing in the G1 Sprint Cup at Haydock Sept. 8, exiting that race with a bruised foot. The Paul Messara charge returned to Australia for a much-deserved rest, and tuned up for her return with a second-place finish in a Rosehill trial Feb. 5. Ortensia appears poised for another ambitious season. She holds entries for the G1 Newmarket H. Mar. 9 and the G1 William Reid S. Mar. 22. Messara has noted that a return trip to Dubai is unlikely, as connections look to target Black Caviar in the G1 T.J. Smith S. at Randwick Apr. 13.

"We will make up our mind after Saturday, but I would say Dubai is looking doubtful," Messara told Adelaide Now. "The T.J. Smith S. is a race that looks ideal for her, and it still gives us an option to head to Singapore for the KrisFlyer International Sprint if we want to still go overseas."

Ortensia's greatest challenge could come from the unbeaten Barakey (Aus) (Key Business {Aus}), who enters this race off a victory in last year's edition of the Winterbottom. Although he has not won for more than a year, Spirit of Boom (Aus) (Sequalo {Aus}) has shown class at the highest level. He was most recently third in the Winterbottom. Field p6

A WALK IN THE PARK

Ocean Park (NZ) (Thorn Park {Aus}), winner of four successive Group 1 races in New Zealand and Australia last season, will make his first start of the year in his native country when he lines up for the G1 Hanui Farm Classic at Otaki tomorrow. The 4-year-old hit his best stride thus far in the second half of 2012. He kicked off the prep with a win in the G1 Makfi Challenge S. at Hastings in New Zealand before traveling across the Tasman for victories in the G1 Underwood S. and G1 Caulfield Cup at Caulfield Racecourse. He achieved a career best next out when collecting the G1 Cox Plate, Australia's greatest weight-for-age event, over top 3-year-olds All Too Hard (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}) and Pierro (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}) at Moonee Valley Oct. 27. The bay wrapped up the season finishing third in the G1 Mackinnon S. at Flemington Nov. 3. Ocean Park's greatest challenge could come from Final Touch (NZ) (Kashani), winner of two Group 1 races already this prep. The 5-year-old mare kicked off her campaign with a victory in the G1 Telegraph H. at Trenton Jan. 19, and continued the run in the G1 Waikato Sprint Feb. 9. Back in fourth that day was Better Than Ever (NZ) (French Deputy), who was making his first start of the year, and also lines up here. The 6-year-old gelding has won four of five tries going this distance and has previously done well second up, so he will be able to use those stats to his advantage as he attempts to upend the favorites here.

He's Had Enough Gets Familiar with Gulfstream...

Reddam Racing LLC's He's Had Enough (Tapit) galloped over Gulfstream Park's main track yesterday morning as he eyes Saturday's GII Besilu Stables Fountain of Youth S.

"He's settled in great, ate up and gets over the track well," said Jack Sisterson, assistant to trainer Doug O'Neill. "Now, the horse and the staff have to get used to the humidity here."

He's Had Enough

Horsephotos

The grey was cross-entered in Fair Grounds's GII Risen Star S. the same day, but will run in Florida. He's Had Enough has been an in-and-out sort in his brief career, but his connections are hoping he will realize his full potential as he matures. A close second to champion Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Nov. 3, the $200,000 KEESEP yearling could do no better than fifth behind expected Fountain of Youth favorite Violence (Medaglia d'Oro) in Betfair Hollywood Park's GI CashCall Futurity S. Dec. 15. He enters this heat off a third-place run in Santa Anita's GII Robert B. Lewis S. Feb. 2. "He's just a horse who, mentally, if he puts his mind to it, can do whatever he wants," offered Sisterson. "You notice the blinkers [he wears]. He's a very playful soul. I think over time he'll grow out of that and become more focused. The blinkers help him stay more focused." Sisterson continued, "We expect a big performance from him Saturday. We know he has the talent. Obviously, it's tough shipping down here with the top trainers and 3-year-olds that have been competing down here. But if we want to move forward with his future, he's got to be running in this and be competitive in the Fountain of Youth."

ISRAEL ELECTED CHRB CHAIRMAN

David Israel was elected chairman of the California Horse Racing Board by his fellow commissioners during the board's regular meeting Thursday. Israel had assumed the role of vice chairman when Keith Brackpool resigned from his post Jan. 17 to take an equity position in The Stronach Group. Israel, a television and film producer and writer and former syndicated columnist and sports reporter, was appointed to the CHRB by then-governor Arnold Schwarzenegger in 2008. The 61-year-old New York native is also a member of the California Science Center Board. He was a member and president of the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum Commission from 2005 to 2012 and served for three years on the Governor's and First Lady's Conference on Women. Israel is a Democrat. Charles Winner, a CHRB board member since April of last year, was elected vice chairman during the meeting.

Third in his first start for his new connections in the seven-furlong Pasco S. at Tampa Bay Jan. 12, the grey faded to sixth in the Gill Sam F. Davis S. at that track Feb. 2, and he was cutting back to one turn this time. Divine Ambition was listed at 2-1 on the morning line, but drifted up to 6-1 as the bettors flocked to first-out winner Integrity (Hard Spun), who was 1-5 when the gates opened. Integrity prompted Whatabouthonor (Lion Honor) through a testing :44.67 half as Divine Ambition settled several lengths back. The Silverton Hill colorbearer got into gear on the turn, drew even with the chalk in midstretch and put him away late to take it by a length. "The Sam Davis was asking a little too much of him too soon," said winning trainer Darrin Miller. "This was just what he needed after that experience. We still hope to stretch him out at some point. BRIGHT THOUGHT (c, 4, Hat Trick {Jpn}--Smart Thought, by Smart Strike) has had a unique career arc to date. After debuting with a seventh behind Jimmy Creed (Distorted Humor) in a Betfair Hollywood maiden last July for trainer Jorge Gutierrez, the dark bay was turned over to Midlantic-based Stephanie Beattie and romped by 11 lengths when dropped in for a $25,000 tag at Laurel Nov. 26. He ran sixth in a Parx allowance Dec. 2, then was disqualified from purse money after finishing first in an allowance at Penn National Jan. 11. Bright Thought then returned to Gutierrez, who put him on the grass for a starter stakes on this course Feb. 3. The 4-year-old led every step in that one-mile test, and was bet down to 3-2 while stretching out to 10 furlongs here. Bright Thought bowled along merrily on the front end and, asked for a bit more by Rafael Bejarano entering the lane, opened up to score by 5 1/4 lengths. "He's so good right now and he won real easy," Bejarano noted. It's onwards and upwards now for Bright Thought. "I'm kind of debating whether to go in the mile-and-a-half race in March [GII San Louis Rey Mar. 16] or the[GII] San Juan Capistrano on closing day," said Gutierrez. "It's one of the two. That's kind of the plan." Saint Loup (Fr) (Zamindar) rallied to complete the exacta. Lifetime Record: 6-3-0-0, $74,500. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

InCompass Purchases CRM Technology:

Edited Press Release

InCompass Solutions Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of The Jockey Club, has purchased the customer relationship management (CRM) software of Minneapolis-based Redfish Studio, it was announced today by Brad Kimbrell, president of InCompass.

Redfish Studio, owned and founded by Matt Scalzo, has been providing CRM services to racetracks since 1997. Its current customers include Betfair Hollywood Park, Canterbury Park, Del Mar Thoroughbred Club, Fairplex Park, Hawthorne Race Course, Hollywood Park, Keeneland and Santa Anita Park.

"When McKinsey & Company delivered the results of its comprehensive economic study of the industry in 2011, it was apparent that the Thoroughbred industry could benefit with an expanded use of CRM technologies," said Kimbrell. "Through this acquisition, racetracks will now be able to gather data that will help them better understand customers and then leverage that knowledge to tailor appropriate marketing and rewards programs."

InCompass360 will enable racetrack management personnel to view customer activity with advanced deposit wagering, live wagering, attendance, ticketing, group sales, marketing, point-of-sale systems and racing data.

"In our continued efforts to always put our fans and patrons first, Keeneland wanted to take a more targeted, active approach to communicating with our customers with an aim toward delivering the best fan rewards program in the industry," said Vince Gabbert, vice president, chief operating officer of Keeneland. "When InCompass approached us with the idea of offering CRM software and consulting, we were happy to work with a well-established business partner."

pace, the grey was committed at the top of the straight and, after forging his way to the front passing the quarter pole, dug in to ward off the threat of Sandagiyr (Fr) (Dr Fong) by 3/4 of a length. "He was a bit hot when he came to the yard and he's a free-going horse at home, so the boss and the lads have done a great job getting him to relax," jockey Richard Mullen said. "His work has been very good and we knew that if they went a strong pace it would play into his hands." Trainer Satish Seemar added, "First of all, no horse has won from stall 14 or 15 in the history of Meydan and we thought we would be lucky if Richard could jump out and get a good spot, but he was very impressive."
