OBS MARCH MADNESS

The record-setting two-day OBS March Selected Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training concluded with an exclamation point when an eye-catching steel-grey son of Smart Strike brought $1.8 million from John Moynihan, acting on behalf of Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Stables.

King's Equine's Raul Reyes
L Marquardt

Things got off in a hurry for the first foal out of the graded stakes winning Pulpit mare Mini Sermon with an opening bid of $400,000. Moynihan, doing his bidding from OBS President Tom Ventura's office, outlasted a fierce battle with Canadian Nat Rea to bring home the prized colt, causing a loud eruption from the packed pavilion once the dust finally cleared. Bloodstock agent Dennis O'Neil was another underbidder.

Stonestreet's love for Lane's End leading sire Smart Strike isn't much of a secret after campaigning two-time Horse of the Year Curlin, champion My Miss Aurelia and multiple graded stakes winner Dominus.

"We loved the horse," Moynihan commented. "We've had a great deal of luck with Smart Strike and [the topper] has a great pedigree. I don't think we'll see many more that go like he did at the remaining 2-year-old sales this year."

Bred in Virginia by the Estate of Edward P. Evans, the Apr. 12 foal glided through a visually impressive bullet in :9 4/5.

"He prepped incredible into a headwind, then came back and worked amazing during the breeze show," Moynihan added. "He looks like a big, two-turn, long-striding horse. Hopefully, he can get us to some of the big dances as a 3-year-old. We're putting together a partnership headed by Barbara; we're still working out the details." OBS March cont. p3

DISCREETLY MINE

[ Mineshaft – Pretty Discreet, by Private Account ]

Carries the legacy of A.P. Indy

Enthusiastic reports on his first foals, now yearlings . . .

"I have a lot of faith in DISCREETLY MINE who is beautifully bred and had speed to burn. I have a cracking colt by him out of a mare that has already produced a multiple Grade 1 winner." – George Bolton

"We have an outstanding, athletic yearling by DISCREETLY MINE and are excited about owning a share in the stallion. We think he has tremendous potential to make a top sire. Therefore, we bred two of our best mares the first year, including Unlimited Pleasure, dam of Unlimited Budget."

– David O'Farrell, Ocala Stud

"We are thrilled with our DISCREETLY MINE colt. He is handsome and very well balanced. Looking forward to his racing career." – Ed Gaylord

"I love DISCREETLY MINE. He had speed, could carry it two turns and has a terrific pedigree. In my opinion he has all of the tools to make a sire. The yearling I have with Pope McLean is terrific. He has a great top line and is very athletic and correct. I couldn't be more pleased with him. Another mare I bred to the stallion is due to foal soon and I can't wait to see that one." – Bob McCann

Go East, Young Man

Bloodstock agent Gary Young has become a huge fan of Spendthrift Farm's Malibu Moon and went to $485,000 for a Peter Blum-bred son of the stallion out of the Unbridled's Song mare My Way from a deep family including champion Tomahawk and Grade I winners Golden Ticket and Well Chosen. Deron Pearson, who has horses in training in California with Jim Cassidy, was the successful bidder. "I told him this horse wasn't going to be cheap--they paid $230,000 for him as a yearling--but he said to go ahead, and I think we got a really nice horse," said Young. "I like Malibu Moon as a stud--who wouldn't?"

The consignment of Dr. Barry and Shari Eisaman's Eisaman Equine celebrated an outstanding two-day run at OBS, closing as the sale's leading consignor, with just over $4 million in turnover, just over 14% of the total gross receipts. The key to success was elementary. "We bought a load of really nice horses," Shari Eisaman said toward the end of selling yesterday. "The market's telling us that's what we have to do here, and we got rewarded."

Moynihan concluded, "We're a little in shock that he brought that much money, but we're very excited."

The topper, who equaled the previous OBS record set by Garifine (Belong to Me) at the 2006 March Sale, was consigned by Raul Reyes's King's Equine as hip 333. He was picked up for $115,000 as a FTKOCT yearling on behalf of Reyes' King's Equine venture, which is made up of five undisclosed partners. Reyes's previous top seller was a $500,000 Arch filly at the 2005 FTFEB sale.

"Really good horses deserve to sell for that much," said an elated Reyes while taking a break from a BBQ celebration back at the barn. "Everybody that picks out good horses was on him. As the sale progressed, I knew that he'd bring over a million dollars based on who was looking at him. He made my job very easy. All you needed to do was treat him right--he was a very simple horse to train. He was a big kid that was a little bit overweight as a yearling. But I could tell that he'd be very good-looking once he grew up."

The numbers for the two-day sale were impressive. The cumulative average of $158,632 was a March record, and up 15.4% from 2012's sale. The median of $127,500 was also a new top, compared with the previous sale record of $100,000 equaled a year ago and first set in 2008. The buyback percentage was also extremely strong at 22.9%; it was 25% last year.

"There was an appetite for quality horses here and it seemed like if there was anybody in the industry that was looking for one, they were here," OBS Director of Sales Tod Wojciechowski commented. "You have to contribute it to a lot of the consignors stepping their game up and having a lot of nice horses for this sale. The momentum that has been built over the past few years just keeps coming--it's been an upward spiral effect for this sale. Having a quantity of horses that buyers can spread out on helps--they don't have to focus on just one or two."

For the session 83 juveniles brought $15,077,000 for an average of $181,651, up 22.8% from last year. The median soared to $135,000 from $110,000 in 2012. The buyback percentage was 27.2%.

"We thought that there were a few more bullets left for today, and there sure were," Wojciechowski continued. "It was a great two days and a great horse sale. The enthusiasm from the buyers and consignors led to a great day. Everybody knew that the Smart Strike colt was one of the better colts in the sale. I don't know if you ever go into a sale expecting to get $1.8 million for a horse, but we were really excited for him and happy for Raul and King's Equine. They do a great job and are deserved of the success."

War Redux at OBS March...

A year ago, a colt by War Front out of the Horse Chestnut (SAf) mare Henna topped OBS March, selling to Frank Fletcher for $800,000. A full-brother to that colt didn't quite reach those heights yesterday, but still attracted buyers in droves, and ultimately brought the auction's second-highest price when selling to bloodstock agent Steve Young for $600,000. Young was buying on behalf of an undisclosed client.

This year, as with last, the colt was sold by Robert and Mary Harris's Harris Training Center on behalf of breeder Seth Hancock's Cherry Valley Farm.

"We're very honored to sell a horse for such a fine outfit as Mr. Hancock's," said Robbie Harris. "They raise such a good horse. They always treat them like horses."

Catalogued as hip 276, the colt breezed an eighth in :10 1/5 at the under-tack show. His full-brother, now named Boss Man Rocket, graduated in his fourth career start in a Fair Grounds maiden special weight Jan. 11 and most recently was third in a Oaklawn Park optional claimer Mar. 10.

"He's a different type than the brother," added Harris. "He's more of a two-turn type--he's stands over more ground, and has a lot more length and stretch to him. We really liked him."

So did Young, who knows a thing or two about War Fronts. Young has enjoyed a strong run in recent years, and the Claiborne sire has played no small part. Young has purchased, among others, GSW & MGISP Summer Front, a $475,000 buy at the 2011 KEEAPR sale; and SW & GSP Doctor Chit, a $375,000 buy at this sale the same year.

Young said he was glad to add another War Front into the fold. "He's by the best sire in America, and he's as advertised," Young said of the colt. "The horse didn't have a real big run to the pole, but had tremendous mechanics once he got running. I hope he's brave and lucky, but he's a very good horse."

Asked if the good War Fronts have a similar look, Young said, "That's the great thing about that sire. It doesn't really matter what kind of mare they're out of, and it doesn't really matter what they look like. This colt's a big, strong horse--probably bigger and stronger than Doctor Chit and Summer Front--but all three have quality. I think some people probably want to compare him to his brother, but he's a better physical than his brother."

Young said he bid on Boss Man Rocket a year ago, "But we didn't get that close."

Hancock is the president of Claiborne, and has had remarkable success with the War Front colt's family. He acquired the colt's third dam, Nahema (Believe It), for $40,000 at the 1993 Keeneland January Sale. He owned her for four years before selling her in 1997 for $30,000, but not before breeding Questress, a 1994 model by the farm's Seeking the Gold and the War Front colt's second dam. From Questress, Hancock bred Grade I winner Pomeroy (Boundary), as well as the War Front colt's dam Henna. Hancock sold Questress, in foal to Ghostzapper, to Blandford Bloodstock for $925,000 in 2006. -LM

For Those About to Rock...

Scott and Joe Ford's Westrock Stables went to $425,000 to land the highest-priced filly on day two, a daughter of Discreet Cat. Produced by a half-sister to the stakes winner Smoke Mountain (Smoke Glacken), the dark bay worked a quarter of a mile in :21 at the breeze show. Bob Baffert, who trains Westrock's GII Generous S. winner and GII Robert B. Lewis S. runner-up Den's Legacy (Medaglia d'Oro), signed the slip while seated alongside owner Bernie Schiappa. "I was looking for a really good filly," Baffert commented. "She's very sound, worked fast and galloped out well--pretty impressive. They bid pretty high for the good horses. You never overpay for a good horse. We're excited." Consigned as hip 318 by Eddie Woods, she was acquired for $90,000 as a KEESEP yearling. "Beautiful filly," said Woods from the back ring. "She trained great, breezed great and vetted great. Everything about her was great, and that's what it takes here. She showed herself well and all the stars aligned. It was for me and a couple of buddies. She's just a bigger version of what she was as a yearling--she has a lot of quality." Woods concluded, "It's been a great sale. Across the board it looks like it's been wonderful here." -SS

Young Nabs Malibu Moon Colt for Pearson...

Bloodstock agent Gary Young has had success with Malibu Moon as a sire, most notably as an advisor in the deal that led Candy DeBartolo to purchase MGISW Life at Ten. So when California businessman Deron Pearson, the CEO of the telecommunications firm Nexus IS, Inc., asked Young to pick out a 2-year-old for him, Young knew he'd found his horse when he laid eyes on hip 343, a colt by the Spendthrift stallion who was consigned to March by Eisaman Equine. A spirited Young, bidding in the sales pavilion and on the cell phone, outlasted Mark Casse to purchase the colt for $485,000. That was the third-highest price of the sale.

"I told him this horse wasn't going to be cheap--they paid $230,000 for him as a yearling--but he said to go ahead, and I think we got a really nice horse," said Young. "I like Malibu Moon as a stud--who wouldn't? He's starting to get good colts in addition to fillies--that was always the knock on him--and I really liked this horse. It's a little bit more than I like to spend. I like the $150,000--$250,000 range, but he was so nice."

He said the colt, named Peregrine Falcon, was a different physical type than Life at Ten. "He's not a fullback like Life at Ten was," he said. "He's built more like Scottie Pippen--real athletic. He'll go out to California with [trainer] James Cassidy, and hopefully, we'll get lucky with him."

Malibu Moon is the sire of this year's GI Kentucky Derby hopeful Orb, winner of the GII Besilu Stables Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream. Cont. p7

From $75,000 to $475,000 for Birdstone Colt...

A colt by Birdstone sold to Conquest Stables yesterday for $475,000, giving Florida horseman Paul Sharp another big pinhooking score a year after he achieved a similar result with a Tiz Wonderful colt. Hip 331, by the sire of Classic winners Birdstone and Summer Bird, was purchased by Sharp for $75,000 last year at Keeneland September, and realized more than six times that price at March.

"We bought him from Gainesway, and he was a very attractive horse when we got him," said Sharp, who sent the colt out to a :10 move at the under-tack show.

The colt, bred by Michael Edward Connelly, was produced by the unraced 8-year-old mare Miner's Secret (Mineshaft), whom Connelly had purchased as a broodmare in 2009 for $52,000. Miner's Secret is a half to the Grade III winner Woodlander (Forestry), and to the promising if curiously managed Admiral Alex (Afleet Alex). It's the extended family of Grade I winner Twilight Agenda.

"I really liked the fact the pedigree would let him get the distance," said Sharp. "I made a real effort last year to buy some horses with two-turn pedigrees, while still having the athleticism I like, and it worked out. He had all the things I like about a horse. He was a very intelligent, brilliant kind of horse. He wanted to work, he wanted to train. He was a very easy horse to be around."

Last year at OBS, Sharp sold Tiz Chris, an $82,000 yearling acquisition from the first crop of Tiz Wonderful, to Stonestreet Stables for $525,000. That was the second-highest price of the auction. Tiz Chris ran second to Normandy Invasion (Tapit) on debut at Aqueduct last November.

Trainer Mark Casse signed on behalf on Conquest Stables, and already trains at least one son of Birdstone for the operation. He recently sent out the 3-year-old Gunderman to a rallying victory in a nine-furlong Gulfstream optional claimer Mar. 2. The colt has compiled a record of two wins and three seconds in eight lifetime starts. -LM

Striking Like a Cobra at OBSMAR...

Gary Biszantz's Cobra Farm enjoyed a nice score yesterday when a homebred son of Discreet Cat brought $410,000. The bay breezed an eighth in a bullet :9 4/5. Produced by Biszantz's stakes-winning Southern Halo mare Fontal (Arg) (Southern Halo), the half-brother to Fond (Old Trieste), SW, $113,661, was consigned by Eisaman Equine as hip 248. He went through the ring once before as a yearling, bringing a $62,000 winning bid from Cobra Farm last fall.

Gary Biszantz

"I thought he sold quite well," Barry Eisaman said. "He's a very good horse. He is sound and quick and is an excellent prospect. We knew that he'd sell well. He was very well-liked." Biszantz, one of the principal founders of Cobra Golf, raced talented graded winners Old Trieste and Cobra King. Fontal's Mineshaft brought $430,000 as a KEESEP yearling in 2007. "We've been breaking horses for Gary off and on for 15 years," Eisaman said, before concluding, "It's seems to be a very good market here." Ciaran Dunne signed the ticket on the Discreet Cat colt on behalf of bloodstock agent John McKay and Westrock Stables. Bob Baffert will train. -SS

Congrats Colt to Dobson for $400,000...

Everett Dobson was a hands-on businessman as the founder and executive chairman of Dobson Communications Corp. and later as the director of SandRidge Energy, and is a hands-on horse owner, too. The owner of Cheyenne Stables was at OBS March selecting his own horses, and yesterday came away with a smashing prospect in the form of hip 285, a colt by Congrats who made $400,000.

"This colt had presence to him, and though he didn't have the best of works--he switched leads a couple of times--he's got a big, rangy kind of stride, and I think he'll go two turns," said Dobson. "And that's what I was looking for. I don't buy very many colts, but this one had an incredible family, and I like Congrats. He's an exceptional sire." The colt breezed an eighth in :10 1/5.

Eisaman Equine consigned the Florida-bred chestnut, named Chisholm, on behalf of an undisclosed client who had privately purchased the colt from breeder James F. Webb.

"We've had him since about September," said Shari Eisaman. "He is big, very elegant, and he looks like he could be a stallion. He was very correct--you couldn't pick him apart. He had a real presence about him."

Chisholm was produced by the 24-year-old SW & MGSP Icy Warning (Caveat), a half-sister to GISW Ops Smile and the dam of MSW Snow Cone (Cryptoclearance) and SW & GSP Devotion Unbridled (Unbridled). The latter is herself dam of Grade III winner Unbridled Humor (Distorted Humor).

Dobson has campaigned, among others, Grade II winner Mystical Star (Ghostzapper), and the 2011 GI Breeder's Cup Dirt Mile winner Caleb's Posse (Posse), who currently stands at Three Chimneys. In 2011, Dobson invested as a minority partner in the Clay family's Three Chimneys Farm. He also is a part-owner of the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder, who as of yesterday were second in the Western Conference, a game and a half back of the San Antonio Spurs. Dobson splits his time between Oklahoma and Kentucky. He named Cheyenne in honor of his hometown in western portion of Oklahoma. He sold Dobson Communications in 2007 to AT&T for a reported $2.8 billion and currently sits on the board of directors at the Oklahoma City-based SandRidge Energy. -LM

The 'Road' to a Nice Pinhook...

A Bellamy Road filly out of the winning Tapit mare Candle Maker proved popular in the ring early during the day's second session, attracting a bid of $260,000 from Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert. Selling as hip 192 from the Stephens Thoroughbreds consignment, the chestnut, already named Burns Bright, was acquired for $34,000 as a KEESEP yearling by Pat Madden. Madden was a partner in Bellamy Road's former homes at Hurricane Hall and Pauls Mill. The 2005 GI Wood Memorial hero currently stands at WinStar Farm.

John Stephens
Sherackatthetrack

"She's a really nice filly and when you have one like that, it wouldn't have surprised me if she went for even more," John Stephens said back at Barn 12.

"The sale was great--when they like them, they really like them."

Hip 192 covered an eighth of a mile in :10 during the breeze show. The May 4 foal was bred in Kentucky by Kinsman Farm.

"She galloped out in :33 2/5--she made a really pretty video and showed off her long stride and made it look easy. She got a lot of compliments for the way she moved. She looked racey as a yearling. I like Bellamy Road--I think he's a good sire and gets good horses."

Stephens teamed up with Madden to sell another son of Bellamy Road for $175,000 at last year's FTMMAY sale. "If you have a nice horse the sale's been great," Stephens concluded. "The ones they like they've been stepping up for." -SS

Eisaman On a Roll...

Barry and Shari Eisaman's Eisaman Equine concluded OBS March as the auction's leading consignor, with 22 head sold for $4,110,000--an average of just over $186,818. Concluding things with a bang yesterday, the Eisamans sold three horses for $400,000 or more, including the second-to-last horse through the ring, hip 343, a colt by Malibu Moon--My Way (Unbridled's Song) who sold to Gary Young, agent for Deron Pearson, for $485,000. Only two horses sold for more at March. The Eisamans also sold hip 248, a colt by Discreet Cat--Fontal (Arg) to John McKay, agent, for $410,000; and hip 285, a colt by Congrats--lcy Warning (Caveat), to Cheyenne Stables for $400,000.

"We bought a load of really nice horses," Shari Eisaman said toward the end of selling yesterday. "The market's telling us that's what we have to do here, and we got rewarded."

Eisaman credited an improving economy for the upswing at March, and added, "Horse racing's in a rebound, and it's about time. For five years, it's been tough. The good feeling is contagious. Once it's out there, people seem to say, 'It's time to start pouting.'"

She also gave credit to OBS itself.

"OBS, for the last five years, has been so good and has turned out so many good horses--I'll Have Another, Itsmyluckyday--and everyone knows you can get a good horse here," she said. "The consignors tell the buyers if it's a good horse, the buyers believe them, and then the horses go on to run well. It's just a good place to buy a racehorse. Ask any trainer here, and they'll have bought a good horse from OBS." -LM

Dodds Cowboy Up on Day Two...

Hip 220, a Cowboy Cal half-brother to last year's GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint heroine Mizdirection (Mizzen Mast), was being shown Tuesday at the OBS sales grounds when a tire on a nearby 18-wheeler blew out. It sounded like a cannon going off, and the colt's consignor, Karen Dodd, nearly jumped out of her skin. The colt? He barely turned a hair and just kept on walking, undeterred.

"I thought, now that's a nice horse," laughed Dodd.

The son of the 14-year-old mare Deceptive (Clever Trick) showed how nice during yesterday's finale at March, bringing a bid of $410,000 from Narvick International's Emmanuel de Seroux and capping a huge sale for Dodd and her husband Greg, who together operate Southern Chase Farm. The price was the joint sixth-highest of the session.

De Seroux stood out back during the bidding alongside a Japanese client, and confirmed the horse is heading to Japan.

"We thought he was a real athlete--he is a great mover and a very nice horse," said de Seroux. "We haven't seen many horses by Cowboy Cal, but he was a very nice horse himself. He's going to Japan, so we hope he can run on turf."

The horse has already shown he can run on both dirt and synthetic. After impressing the Dodds at home, he shipped to OBS and breezed a quarter in :20 4/5, the fastest two-furlong drill last Friday. Only one horse worked a quarter faster in the entire sale--a stablemate by Henny Hughes--Sea Gift who breezed in :20 3/5 and sold Tuesday for $300,000.

Both horses represented lucrative pinhooks for Southern Chase. The Cowboy Cal colt was acquired for $75,000 last year at Keeneland September, while the Henny Hughes colt went for $67,000 at the same sale.

"It's been a great horse sale," said Karen Dodd shortly after congratulating de Seroux yesterday. "They all had performed very well at home, and when we got them over here, everything came together. We though OBS did a great job with this sale. We thought it was one of the best groups of horses [at March], and that's a little intimidating. But we thought these horses could stand out. They worked like great horses, and they galloped out great."

Dodd added, "We've got a great crew at the farm--we couldn't do it without them."

In addition to being a half to Mizdirection, who since the catalogue showed a new dimension stretching out to a mile to win the GII Buena Vista H., the Cowboy Cal colt is a half to SW Hurricane Bernie (Sea of Secrets). This is the first crop from the Giant's Causeway stallion, who stands at Pin Oak Stud for a 2013 fee of $7,500.

"When we first bought him, and what maybe stopped from other people from buying him, was that he was more stout, and didn't have the length he does now. But he still had a lot of pedigree, and we figured at $75,000, we couldn't get hurt on him, and even the way he was, probably make money on him. And if he went the right way, it could be really good. He grew up and got some length, and went the right way. He's got a tremendous walk, and is smart beyond words."

In talking about Southern Chase's big March sale, Dodd had special praise for her husband. "He works so hard, and he's very humble and doesn't take any credit," she said. "He's always busy with the horses and does such a great job." -LM

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

HOUSE SUBCOMMITTEE TO HOLD GUEST WORKER PROGRAM HEARING

The House Subcommittee on Workforce Protections will hold a hearing on Thursday, March 14 on Capitol Hill entitled "Examining the Role of Lower-Skilled Guest Worker Programs in Today's Economy."

The subcommittee's goal at the hearing is to educate its members about lower-skilled, non-agricultural guest workers and guest worker programs. As part of this process, they will examine the issues that employers have with the H-2B visa program, including practical and regulatory actions and the Department of Labor's administration of the program. Additionally, the subcommittee is interested in thoughts on the DOL's proposed wage and program rules.

The subcommittee will consider the views of members of the H-2B Workforce Coalition which includes the NTRA as well as other associations representing industries such as forestry, seafood processing, resort/hospitality and landscaping - industries that rely upon lower-skilled, non-agricultural guest workers.

In the horse racing industry, trainers regularly use the H-2B visa program to hire stable help. The program is at risk due to recent efforts by the DOL to impose onerous changes that would severely limit the usefulness of the H-2B program.

Rosario Retains Mount on Animal Kingdom...

Despite wide criticism of his ride aboard Team Valor International's Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) in the G1 Gulfstream Park Turf H. Feb. 9, Joel Rosario will keep the mount aboard the 5-year-old in the G1 Dubai World Cup at Meydan Mar. 30, trainer Graham Motion confirmed Wednesday. The Dominican jockey was aboard the 2011 G1 Kentucky Derby winner for the first time and made what many deemed to be a premature move into a slow pace to challenge for the lead inside of horses approaching the half-mile pole of the nine-furlong test. He briefly matched strides with Point of Entry (Dynaformer), but was ultimately forced to settle for second. "I've never been a big believer of taking riders off horses just because they make one mistake," Motion explained. "It's not a science. Sometimes it takes an experience like that to get to know a horse better. I think all riders are open to making the odd mistake." Animal Kingdom was having his first start in the Turf H. since his stirring runner-up effort behind Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile Nov. 3, and Motion thinks he'll improve for the effort. "I'd like to think it gave him a really good, solid race under his belt," he commented. "He seems like he's sharper and perhaps a little more focused. His works since then have been good. I'd like to think that put him right where we wanted him to be." Animal Kingdom works this coming Monday and is scheduled to leave for Dubai the following day.

Frederick Engels Preps Nicely for Golden Shaheen...

Frederick Engels (GB) (Iceman {GB}) turned in a serious piece of work ahead of an anticipated start in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, taking a 1050-meter barrier trial over the Sha Tin all-weather track Tuesday morning. Partnered by South African Weichong Marwing, who has the call on World Cup night, Frederick Engels was a bit restless in stall two, then eased back and switched off nicely in the run to the turn. Shuffled back to last entering the bend, he was guided to the grandstand side leaving the quarter pole and flashed home impressively to 'win' the heat by a head (video). The winner of the Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot in 2011, Frederick Engels won a Class 3 and a pair of Class 2 tests at Sha Tin, and has acquitted himself nicely at the top domestic level in two starts since. He came from 14th and last to finish runner-up to the G1 Al Quoz Sprint-bound Eagle Regiment (Aus) (El Moxie) in the Centenary Sprint Cup up the 1000-meter straight course and motored home to be a last-out second to Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the Chairman's Sprint Prize over the Golden Shaheen distance of 1200 meters Feb. 17.

Mr Big Singapore's Lone Chance at Meydan...

With Rocket Man (Aus) (Viscount {Aus}) not quite up for a third straight trip to Dubai, Mr Big (Aus) (Elusive Quality) will be the lone Singapore-based horse to compete on World Cup night. He is scheduled for a start in the G1 Al Quoz Sprint over 1000 meters on turf. Winner of 10 of his 19 career starts, but unraced since a victory in the Malaysian 2012 Magic Millions Classic at Penang Dec. 30, Mr Big was ultra-impressive in taking a 1000-meter barrier trial by 7 1/4 lengths (video, trial 2). The effort came with blinkers on, and trainer Michael Freedman intends on using the equipment on the 4-year-old on World Cup night as well. "The big grandstand will be on his right side and going up the straight for the first time, I just feel the blinkers will be a help for him," said Freedman. "It can be a bit daunting going up there. We'll see how he is when he gets there but I might give him a canter up the straight just to have a look at it. He goes over [to Dubai] on Saturday week [Mar. 23] and will run the following Saturday. We'll give him a gallop sometime next week and then give him an easy week on arrival and have him fresh." An A$21,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast yearling acquisition, Mr Big has amassed earnings of $1,086,619. Hong Kong-based jockey Zac Purton will ride in the Al Quoz Sprint.

Fort Larned Could Go Back to Track By Weekend...

Fort Larned (E Dubai), the reigning G1 Breeders' Cup Classic winner who tossed jockey Brian Hernandez Jr. just strides out of the gate in last Saturday's G1I Gulfstream Park H., could return to training by this weekend at Palm Meadows, trainer Ian Wilkes commented yesterday. "Everything's good," he said of the Janis Whitham homebred, who grabbed a quarter in the incident. "I'll see how he's doing tomorrow. He'll likely go back on Friday or Saturday, if he's OK." Wilkes confirmed that Fort Larned would be nominated to the G1II Skip Away S., but that there are no firm plans in place. "We're not sure yet, he's not been back to the track yet," said Wilkes, who saddled Fort Larned for a victory in last year's Skip Away. "We'll wait until he goes back to the track and go from there."

GARY STEVENS TO RIDE DULLAHAN IN DWC

Hall of Fame jockey Gary Stevens will have the call aboard Donegal Racing's treble Grade I winner Dullahan (Even the Score) when he takes his spot in the field in the G1 Dubai World Cup at Meydan Racecourse Mar. 30. Additionally, negotiations are in place to make Stevens the contract rider for Donegal. "We are thrilled to have a rider of Gary's caliber," Donegal President Jerry Crawford said in a release. "Gary is a great communicator who will work closely with us to make sure Dullahan gets the kind of ride that will make him a winner in Dubai." He added, "Of even greater significance is the fact that Donegal and Stevens are working on an agreement to make Gary the rider on all of Donegal's horses for the remainder of 2013 and beyond." Crawford noted that Donegal has tremendous expectations for their current 2-year-old crop, saying, "We can't imagine anyone better to get our babies started and headed toward Triple Crown 2014." Stevens is no stranger to the World Cup winner's circle, having guided Silver Charm to victory in 1998. He was also famously aboard Soul of the Matter, who nearly defeated Cigar in the inaugural World Cup in 1996. Added Stevens, "Donegal Racing has become one of the premier and top earning partnerships in America and their confidence in my comeback is very gratifying."

During last year's September sale, Book 1 was held during one session with 132 yearlings catalogued. "We continually adapt the September Sale format to meet the current needs of our consignors and buyers, and these changes reflect the 'market of the moment,'" said Keeneland Vice President of Sales Walt Robertson. "This is a two-week sale that essentially spans three distinct markets. Our goal is to facilitate the process so we can engage buyers from beginning to end." Keeneland's Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell added, "This schedule creates efficiencies, and better fits the demands of our buyers and sellers. The 2012 September Sale was extraordinary in the sheer number of people who attended and the exceptionally high volume of trade they generated, particularly into the sale's final days. The strength of that second week was unlike anything we've recently experienced. These format changes will aid consignors in marketing their horses to their fullest potential, and allow buyers to better navigate today's highly competitive market."

EASTER BROODMARE CATALOGUE ONLINE

The catalogue is now online for the 2013 Australian Easter Broodmare Sale, which will be held at Newmarket in Sydney Apr. 16-18. The Super Select session will take place Tuesday, Apr. 16, followed by the Select Session on Wednesday and Thursday and the General Session Thursday. A total of 557 head are catalogued, including no fewer than four Group 1 producers and young Group 1 winners Cinque Cento (Aus) (Nothin Leica Dane {Aus}), Dizelle (Aus) (Zabeel {NZ}) and Juice (NZ) (Bertolini). "Last year's Super Select Session established itself as the place to offer young stakes winning mares straight off the track or broodmares in foal to the hot sires, and vendor support has again been overwhelming this year," said Inglis Director Jonathan D'Arcy. The sale topper in 2012 was U.S. MGSW and GISP Sharp Susan (Touch Gold), who sold in foal to Street Cry (Ire) for A$1,050,000. She was offered by Tyreel Stud as part of the Paul Fleming Thoroughbreds dispersal and was purchased by British-based Badgers Bloodstock. ## KEENELAND SEPTEMBER GETS MAKEOVER

Keeneland unveiled an adjusted format to its September Yearling Sale Wednesday. Under the 2013 format, Book 1 of the two-week sale will be held over four sessions (Sept. 9-12) with approximately 950 yearlings catalogued alphabetically by dam. Each of the Book 1 sessions will begin at 12 p.m. After a dark day, the sale continues with Book 2 sessions Saturday and Sunday Sept. 14-15, beginning at 10 a.m. Books 3-6 will be held Sept. 16-20.

RODRIGUEZ TO BEGIN SUSPENSION

Rudy Rodriguez, the leading trainer at Aqueduct, will begin serving a 20-day suspension, which will last through Thursday, Apr. 4, for a pair of positive tests for the banned substance Flunixin, in post-race samples taken from a pair of horses in April and November 2012, respectively. The suspension was set to last 40 days, but 20 of those have been stayed, providing no other horses from his barn return drug positives for a year after the suspension expires. Rodriguez, a former assistant to Richard Dutrow Jr., conditions undefeated Vyjack (Into Mischief), who will make his next start in the GI Wood Memorial Apr. 6. Rodriguez will be the trainer of record when entries are taken. Horses from the Rodriguez barn will race in the name of Gustavo Rodriguez, Rudy's brother and assistant.

Gulfstream Announces Purse Hike:

Officials at Gulfstream Park have announced that purses for all races will be raised by 10% effective Mar. 16 and through the rest of the meet, which concludes Apr. 5. Gulfstream is reporting a 25% increase in live handle through Mar. 10 and is up more than 10% on last year. "We continue to show year-over-year growth," said Gulfstream Park President Tim Ritvo. "Our racing has been strong; we've had great weather and that's promoted a healthy number of turf races; and the horsemen have once again been incredibly supportive and have helped us to run a world-class meet." Gulfstream and nearby Calder Race Course are currently embroiled in a dispute over summer racing dates in Florida and are on course to race simultaneously. "The Stronach Group is committed to Thoroughbred racing," Ritvo continued. "We're thrilled with the reaction from the public to our racing and our facility. We look forward to the weeks ahead, including the $1-million [GI Besilu Stables] Florida Derby Mar. 30. We're excited to build on the momentum and excitement of this meet and to keep interest in Thoroughbred racing alive through the summer."

Making her first start on conventional dirt and her second non-turf appearance, the 9-2 shot was unhurried and trailed the field early behind a runaway pacesetter. She took closer order while racing along the rail down the backstretch, cut the corner into the stretch and angled out to surge to the lead in upper stretch and drew clear to score by 1 1/4 lengths. ### Carulli Leaving Maryland Jockey Club:

Frank Carulli, who has served as the lead handicapper and racing analyst for Pimlico Racecourse and Laurel Park since 2002, will be leaving the Maryland Jockey Club as of June 8. He will be relocating to Las Vegas.

"We are sorry to see Frank leave," said Maryland Jockey Club President Tom Chuckas. "He is an extremely hard worker who takes pride in his work, especially establishing the morning line, where he is one of the best in the business. He gave us a year's notice that he was leaving, which has given us the chance to look long and hard for a replacement. We thought this format would be the best way to determine the winner."

Beginning next week, four guest handicappers will audition for the upcoming vacancy. The four contenders are: former jockey Ryan Fogelsonger (Mar. 20); Dylan Smith, who has worked for Dickie Small since 2006 (Mar. 21); Jackie Savoye, an assistant to trainer Dale Capuano (Mar. 22); and Gabby Gaudet, daughter of trainers Eddie and Linda Gaudet (Mar. 23).

Crawfish Boil to Benefit LHRA:

Edited Press Release:

The fourth annual Fair Grounds Crawfish Boil Benefitting the Louisiana Horse Rescue Association is set for Monday evening, Mar. 18, from 5-7 p.m., on the first floor of the Grandstand (west side). A free screening of the award-winning documentary "T-GALOP: A Louisiana Horse Story" will follow at 7 p.m. on the apron next to the winner's circle.

The crawfish boil will feature 800 pounds of crawfish with potatoes and corn, a crawfish eating contest spearheaded by the jockeys and a live auction. Items up for grabs in the auction include jockey silks autographed by Triple Crown-winning jockey Steve Cauthen and a clubhouse dining table for four on Thanksgiving Day, which includes admission and buffet.

Crawfish boil tickets are $25 per person and can be purchased in advance by e-mailing Sandra Salmen in Horsemen's Relations at Sandra.salmen@fgno.com. Tickets will be available at the door as well. Beer will be available for $2, water and soda for $1.

All proceeds go to the Louisiana Horse Rescue Association's efforts to rehabilitate injured or mistreated horses and find new homes for them.

T-GALOP, which explores the ties between Louisianans and horses, was awarded the Louisiana Feature Film Prize at the 2012 New Orleans Film Festival. A portion of the film focuses on the rich history of Cajun jockeys and horse racing at Louisiana's infamous bush tracks, past and present.

Bill Introduced to Prohibit Sale of Horses for Food:Edited Press Release*

On Mar. 12, 2013, Congressman Patrick Meehan (R-PA) introduced the Safeguard American Food Exports Act of 2013 (H.R.1094). The bill would prohibit the sale, transport, export or import of horses or horse meat for human consumption. A Senate version of this bill is expected to be introduced by Senator Mary Landrieu (D-LA).

The House bill would amend the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act to make it illegal for anyone to sell, transport, export or import horses or horse meat if they "know or should have known" the horses were to be slaughtered, or the horse meat was to be used for human consumption. The penalty for the first violation would be a maximum fine of $1,000 and/or up to a year in prison. Subsequent violations could result in up to three years in prison and/or a fine of not more than $10,000.

The bill states that horses in the United States are treated with a number of drugs that are not approved for use in horses intended for human consumption and pose a serious health threat to humans.

This bill is different from other bills introduced in previous years that would have also prohibited the transport or sale of horses intended for human consumption. Those bills would have amended the Horse Protection Act and did not cite health concerns as the justification for the bills.

The House bill has been referred to the House Committee on Energy and Commerce and the Committee on Agriculture.

Online Fact Book Available from Jockey Club:Edited Press Release*

The Jockey Club announced today that the 2013 edition of the Online Fact Book is available within the Publications & Resources section of its website at www.jockeyclub.com.

The Online Fact Book is a statistical and informational guide to Thoroughbred breeding, racing and auction sales in North America and includes some state and provincial analysis.

The 2013 editions of state fact books, which feature detailed breeding, racing and auction sales information specific to numerous states and Canadian provinces, are also available on The Jockey Club website. The state fact books are updated monthly.

"The online fact book and the state fact books are comprehensive resources designed to educate anyone interested in the Thoroughbred breeding and racing industry," said James L. Gagliano, president and chief operating officer of The Jockey Club. "They provide not only a statistical history of the sport but also objective insights into trends related to breeding, racing and sales."

The print edition of the 2013 Fact Book will be published in April.

SPRINTER SOARS TO GLORY
 Cheltenham stood aghast yesterday as Sprinter Sacre (Fr) (Network {Ger}) demolished his rivals in the Queen Mother Champion Chase. Sent off the shortest-priced favorite since the great Arkle in his pomp in the 1960s, the 1-4 crowd's choice looked every inch worthy of that price tag as he powered to a 19-length verdict over the 2011 hero Sizing Europe (Ire) (Pistolet Bleu {Ire}), who had also been runner-up 12 months ago. Partnered by the ice-cool Barry Geraghty, the Nicky Henderson-trained 7-year-old was restrained early but, once outjumping his sole serious threat at the third last, drew clear without being fully extended. "He is a beautiful horse, a natural jumper and things would have to go horribly wrong for him to go wrong," his jockey commented. "I have ridden some brilliant horses over the years, but it is the ease with which he does it that sets him apart. Henderson added, "He is very, very special. He does find it so ridiculously easy that you worry complacency could creep in. We are very lucky to have a horse like him."

DOMESDAY COLT TOPS ADELAIDE FINALE
 A Domesday colt topped the third and final day of selling at the Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale at Morphettville Wednesday, going for A$51,000 (A$52,512) to Victorian-based Blue Moon Racing. The bay was offered by the O'Brien family's Lauriston Thoroughbred Farm as lot 352. A total of A$1.42 million was spent on 132 yearlings during the session, corresponding to an average of $10,773. The clearance rate of 82% improved from 74% last year. "[Wednesday's] session was very vibrant," Magic Millions' Adelaide Representative Adrian Hancock reported. "There was a happy atmosphere around the complex and some competitive bidding." He continued, "It was most pleasing to see the average and gross increase from last year and the boost in the clearance rate to 82% was great."
