D. Wayne Lukas hadn't won the GII Rebel S. since 1989, but the Hall of Famer meant business in Hot Springs yesterday, saddling the first two finishers in this year's renewal. Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song), a winner of the Smarty Jones S. two back Jan. 21, was the far less-heralded member of the Lukas charge at 28-1, but he came flying late to best forwardly placed Oxbow (Awesome Again) in a photo finish. "I was feeling pretty good 100 yards from the wire," Lukas said. "The competition was so tough. The hill gets a little steeper from this point."

LOOKING LIKE A MILLION

Fox Hill Farms' Joyful Victory (Tapit) picked a perfect spot to earn her first win at the highest level, becoming a millionaire with a front-running success in Saturday's GI Santa Margarita S. at Santa Anita. With Rosie Napravnik in town for the ride, the even-money favorite took advantage of an inside draw in the field of five and assumed command after given an inviting opening along the inside entering the clubhouse turn. The strapping gray, last seen annexing the $400,000 Houston Ladies Classic S. Jan. 26, was pressed through fractions of :23.02 and :46.50, let it out a notch at the top of the stretch, and powered home as a four-length winner over More Chocolate (Malibu Moon). "We know we want to be back here for the Breeders' Cup," trainer Larry Jones said. "We definitely will not turn her out, but we may go light with her early for the rest of the summer and get serious in the fall and start trying to point to get back out here." Jones continued, "I was starting to wonder if she was ever going to show up at the right time at the right day [to win a Grade I]. She had shown us this brilliance at times, but she's just doing everything better right now. She's grown up a lot mentally, because the Tapits, some of them can be a little high-strung and tough, but she has settled into herself really well, and with the Good Lord's blessings, we're going to have a big year." Tiz Miz Sue (Tiznow) ended a 12-month dry spell with a repeat victory in the GIII Azeri S. at Oaklawn, spoiling a much anticipated match-up between Don't Tell Sophia (Congaree) and My Miss Aurelia (Smart Strike). Across the country, Centre Court (Smart Strike) added a victory in the GII Honey Fox S. at Gulfstream to her tally and, in California, Bright Thought (Hat Trick {Jpn}) made it three in a row, and earned his first graded score in the GII San Luis Rey S. at

Will Take Charge, a son of the talented racemare Take Charge Lady (Dehere), graduated at second asking at Keeneland last October. A well-beaten 13th in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. at Churchill Nov. 24, he

Will Take Charge (outside)

bounced back with a second-place finish behind Texas Bling (Too Much Bling) in the Remington Springboard Mile S. Dec. 9, then turned the tables on that rival with a hard-fought victory in the Smarty Jones S. at Oaklawn Jan. 21. Far back early in the GIII Southwest S. over a sloppy Oaklawn oval Feb. 18, he reported home sixth, beaten 18 lengths. Overlooked to make amends here, Will Take Charge sat within striking distance in sixth as Title Contender (Pulpit) zipped through fractions of :23.36 and :47.19 with favored Super Ninety Nine (Pulpit) in hot pursuit. Will Take Charge was given his cue by Jon Court when finally out of traffic on the far turn and began to make his move. He needed the length of the stretch, but was along in time to gobble up his stablemate at the wire. "Wayne gave me the heads-up about how well he had been doing and he had him tuned up today," Court said. "The race was executed to plan. It worked out perfectly. I was able to position him where we wanted. He was very professional today." Lukas said that owner Willis Horton would have the final say on whether or not Will Take Charge returns for the GI Arkansas Derby Apr. 13. Super Ninety Nine, an 11 1/4-length winner of the Southwest, tired to finish a disappointing fifth at 6-5. "We had the trip we expected," Jim Barnes, assistant trainer to Bob Baffert, said. "He was able to sit off the pace like we wanted. Maybe he asked him a little too early, but no real excuses at this point."

Joyful Victory, heroine of the GIII Honeybee S. and GII Fantasy S. at three, scored in the 2012 Tiffany Lass S. at Fair Grounds, and also added placings in several graded events last term, including the GI Zenyatta S. over this strip in September. She closed out her 4-year-old campaign with a third-place finish in the GII Falls City H. at Churchill Nov. 22, but has been unbeatable since. Napravnik has been aboard Joyful Victory in her last two victories.

"She broke sharp," Napravnik said. "She likes to run freely and doesn't like being restrained, so it was nice that we had plenty of room on the rail to take the lead into the first turn. She was just relaxed and ran a great race." Jones added, "Rosie is a special rider. It's a gift from God, what she's got. She doesn't realize it yet, but she's been anointed with this talent. She is one of the brightest young stars in this game, I can assure you."

Tiz Miz Sue bested She's All In (Include) and yesterday's GI Santa Margarita winner Joyful Victory (Tapit) in this event a year ago, but she hadn't made it to the winner's circle since then and faced a pair of formidable foes here in 2011 champion 2-year-old filly My Miss Aurelia and the in-form Don't Tell Sophia. The bay had run some strong races, though. She was third in the local GI Apple Blossom H. one month after the Azeri, and stretched eventual champion older mare Royal Delta (Empire Maker) to a neck in the Gil Delaware H. in June. She finished off her 2012 campaign with a fourth in Saratoga's GI Personal Ensign H. in August and a fifth in Keeneland's GI Juddmonte Spinster S. in October. The dark bay had last been seen finishing a distant third to Don't Tell Sophia in the track-and-trip Bayakoa S. Feb. 16--one spot behind She's All In. Hugging the rail in third down the backside as Songs and Sonnets (Unbridled's Song) opened up a large lead, Tiz Miz Sue was passed by Don't Tell Sophia entering the home bend as that foe moved to engage My Miss Aurelia. The favorites went by the pacesetter at the top of the lane, but Tiz Miz Sue loomed ominously just behind. Pilot Joe Rocco Jr. steered his mount into the clear, and she unleashed powerful strides to blow by Don't Tell Sophia at the sixteenth pole.

The SkyCard Advantage: The SkyCard program benefits anyone flying at least 5 times per year. With the SkyCard, Blue Star Jets is able to "lock-in" a place at an attractive price. In private aviation, prices will vary based on the date of your trip and the availability of aircraft on that date. By purchasing a SkyCard, you give Blue Star Jets the ability to get you the right jet at the right price.

ADVANTAGES

- No Membership Fee
- No Maintenance Fee
- 24/7 Concierge Services
- Access to 2,500 aircraft
- Flexibility of Aircraft
- No Management Fee
- Guaranteed Availability
- Free Upgrades based on category
- Free Standard Catering
- Transferrable
- No Acquisition Fee
- Personal Travel Consultant
- Use of Multiple Jets
- Refundable

ONE-WAY PRICING

A SkyCard entitles member to receive one-way pricing at time and a half. For example, a one-way trip from New York to Miami is 3 hours of flight time. As a member, your SkyCard would be debited for 4.5 hours (1.5 x 3 hours) rather than being charged for the round trip of 6 hours. One-way pricing applies only to continental U.S. trips, depending on availability.

Keeneland's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. Oct. 13. The dark bay closed out her sophomore campaign with a win in the GII Mrs. Revere S. beneath the Twin Spires Nov. 17. Working bullets at Palm Meadows for this, Centre Court saved ground in fourth through fractions of :23.99 and :47.25, was angled off the fence on the far turn, and kicked on nicely down the lane to start the season in style. "She had trained spectacularly up at Palm Meadows," trainer Rusty Arnold said. "We knew it would be a tough one, but it was to get the year started. We were confident that she'd run well. We're really happy. She's pretty special, I think." Arnold continued, "She hasn't won a Grade I yet; we've got to get that done. A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Trainer Jorge Gutierrez started the day off at Santa Anita on a winning note, taking the first race with 4-year-old filly Warren's Morgan (Extra), and his momentum carried through to the GII San Luis Rey, where he saddled Bright Thought to his third win in a row, and first graded stakes. Gutierrez was the trainer of record when the dark bay made his debut over the Betfair Hollywood Park cushion track last July, finishing a well-beaten seventh behind GI Malibu S. winner Jimmy Creed (Distorted Humor). Off for more than five months thereafter, Bright Thought resurfaced at Laurel for trainer Stephanie Beattie Nov. 16, winning a $25,000 maiden-claimer by 11 lengths. Well-beaten in his first allowance test at Parx Dec. 2, he returned to the winner's circle at Penn National Jan. 11, but was disqualified from that victory. Returned to Gutierrez in California thereafter, he wired a starter-stakes field going a mile in his turf debut here Feb. 3. Stepping up to 1 1/4-miles on the grass next out Feb. 21, he easily annexed that test, too, coming home 5 1/4-lengths the best. Taking up his customary position on the front end leaving the gate here, Bright Thought led the field around the first of three turns and onto the main turf course. Passed by Slim Shadey (GB) (Val Royal {Fr}) passing the stands for the first time, Bright Thought responded kindly, rating off the heels of his rival thereafter. Re-rallying outside Slim Shadey midway around the turn, Bright Thought grabbed the lead at the top of the lane, striding away from the field to win comfortably in course-record time. "His prior races here he did show that he would settle, but we were a little worried about Slim Shadey coming out," Gutierrez said. "I know he breaks a little slow but then he gets to running a little bit. If he did come out running, we wanted to sit off him a little and that's fine. We broke good enough and when Slim Shadey came on the outside of him, he kind of let him go by and relaxed," Gutierrez said. When asked about his charge's next race, he said: "I don't think I'm going to go longer with him. We're going to sit back and see how he comes out of this and change the game plan a little bit. He's a nice horse, but he's had three tough races here back to back, so he needs a little breather between this."

Preparing for the Florida Derby

Two likely contenders for the GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park Mar. 30 worked yesterday morning. Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron), who won the Gulfstream Park Derby on New Year's Day and upset 2-year-old champion Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday) in the GIII Holy Bull S. Jan. 26, worked for trainer Eddie Plesa Jr. The colt breezed five panels in 1:01 at Calder with Elvis Trujillo in the irons. "He worked perfect with Elvis," said Plesa. "He galloped out three-quarters in 1:14. I couldn't be more pleased with him. We're coasting from here. He'll just have an easy half-mile breeze next weekend and that's it. It's been a long wait, but I think we've done the right thing with him."

The Ken McPeek trained Frac Daddy (Scat Daddy) went five furlongs in 1:00.85 at Gulfstream in company with GI Hollywood Starlet S. winner Pure Fun (Pure Prize). "We put her on the outside this week," McPeek said of the work. "We slowed them down. Last week they worked entirely too fast," he said, referring to the five-panel :58.47 bullet Frac Daddy fired last week.

"I'm leaning towards not running him in the [GIII] Spiral [S. at Turfway Park Mar. 23] and probably running him in the Florida Derby. It gives him the extra week for the throat ulcer to heal," McPeek said of the issue he discovered after Frac Daddy's sixth-place finish in the GIII Holy Bull S. last time out.

"It looks good, but I think the extra week will help. He grabbed the quarter in the Holy Bull really bad. I think that was probably more an issue than the throat. Then, again, maybe it was the throat. It's been really a tough one to get together. We've had to wait a long time here. Another week won't hurt him. I'm more inclined to keep him here, because of the extra week and we can school him a little more and he's been training over this track."

Saga Dream, whose career began with defeat in a claimer at the minor track of Challans in 2009, completed his journey from handicap company to Parisian pattern races when third in this race 12 months ago. After placing a further four times at group level, most recently when third behind Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) in Longchamp's G2 Prix Dollar over this trip in October, the grey went on to earn the rewards for his consistency by annexing the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris over 12 furlongs back at that venue later that month. Traveling comfortably in second in the slipstream of the habitual front-runner Don Bosco throughout the early stages, he gradually wore down that rival under considerate riding from Thierry Jarnet to prevail in the final stride. "Beforehand, I thought he might be a little short to win, as he had a little setback three weeks ago and I had to slow down his training, but he's such a brave horse and has such a big heart that he was able to overcome that," commented trainer Freddy Lemercier. "He goes on any ground, so the G2 Prix d'Harcourt [at Longchamp Apr. 7] will probably be next before we move up to Group 1 races."

MID ATLANTIC UNIFORM MEDICATION PROGRAM

Congratulations to the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association and the regulators of Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and West Virginia for their commitment to uniform medication reform.

These are bold steps and they deserve the praise of all participants of the industry.

The Jockey Club and TOBA offer their support to these leaders and to any state racing authority that seriously commits to the movement toward uniform racing medication rules.

One of Roger Varian's leading juveniles of 2011, Farraaj was runner-up in Newmarket's G3 Somerville Tattersall S. before filling third spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Churchill Downs. After a return third in the G3 Premio Parioli at the Capannelle last April, the bay went missing until his comeback when successful in the Listed Churchill S. over this track and trip in November. Held up in fifth early by Andrea Atzeni, the homebred was driven to head Cai Shen inside the final 150 yards and showed determination to hold off the challenge of Robin Hood's Bay to his inner and break the track record.

OBITUARIES

JESSICA GAY BELL (1922-2013)

Prominent owner/breeder Jessica Gay Bell passed away in Naples, Florida Mar. 14 from a brief illness. She was 90. Born in Lexington, Kentucky Aug. 20, 1922, Mrs. Bell graduated from the University of Kentucky with a degree in Journalism. She married her husband John Bell in 1947, and together they established Jonabell Farm. The farm was first located on a leased portion of Hamburg Place, where the Bells raised champion Battlefield and Never Say Die, winner of the 1954 Epsom Derby. The Bells eventually relocated Jonabell to Bowman's Mill Road, where they continued to breed, race, sell and board horses. Damascus, the 1967 Horse of the Year, was raised there, and 1978 Triple Crown winner Affirmed stood stud at Jonabell. Jonabell bred approximately 50 stakes winners individually or in partnerships, including 1987 champion 2-year-old filly Epitome, who won that year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile for the Bells. Sheikh Mohammed purchased Jonabell in 2001. Mrs. Bell was involved with many charities and organizations. She helped establish the The Blue Grass Ball to benefit the Markey Cancer Center at the University of Kentucky. She was also a member of the Lexington Directions committee, the Garden Club of Lexington, Bluegrass Tomorrow and McConnell Springs. Mrs. Bell was a Life Trustee and Board Member at The Lexington School, and also served on boards at the Blue Grass Airport, Chrysalis House and the YWCA. She established the Bell Alcohol and Addictions Endowed Chair at the University of Kentucky with her husband. Mrs. Bell was predeceased by her parents James Gatewood Gay and Harriet McCreary Gay, three siblings and her husband of 60 years. She is survived by four children: Jessica Bell Nicholson (Joe Browne); John A. Bell IV (Nancy); James G. Bell (Wende); Bennett Bell Williams (John); and eight grandchildren, James C. Nicholson (Maegan); Kelsey M. Nicholson; James Gatewood Bell, Jr. (Lauren); Tyler Bell Jones (Bret); Shelby Bell Gressett (Drew); John A. Bell V (Beth); Rhodes P. Bell; Laura R. Bell, and five great-grandchildren. Contributions in Mrs. Bell's memory can be made to Bell Endowed Chair at the University of Kentucky, Office of Development, Sturgill Building, 120 Rose Street, Lexington, Ky. 40504, or to a charity of the individual's choice. Friends may call at 96 Chinoe Road in Lexington Tuesday from 3:00- 8:00 p.m. Graveside services will be held Wednesday at Lexington Cemetery at 11:00 a.m.

FEEL THE NEED FOR MOFEED

When Richard Gibson arrived in Hong Kong at the beginning of the 2011-2012 season, he was something of a known commodity to the locals. After all, the Englishman saddled the globetrotting Doctor Dino (Fr) (Muhtathir) to become just the second horse to win multiple runnings of the G1 Hong Kong Vase in 2007 and 2008. Still, to break into a fraternity including legends like John Moore, John Size and Tony Cruz is no small task, yet Gibson has done just that, and is poised to see his reputation climb exponentially as he saddles three of the top chances in today's HK$16-million (US$2.06 million) Hong Kong Derby. Akeed Mofeed (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) was purchased by successful businessman Pan Sutong for a pricetag reportedly in the vicinity of $2 million with this race in mind, and the colt has been the talking horse in Hong Kong from the word go. The bay, runner-up in last year's G2 Beresford S. and a distant fourth in the G1 Irish Derby, made his first local start over 1400 meters Jan. 12, and got the worst of trips when Olivier Doleuze went for an inside run and the gap did not materialize. Though he was checked sharply, he re-rallied to be third and vied for favoritism with stablemate and Hong Kong Classic Mile hero Gold-Fun (Ire) (Le Vie Dei Colori {GB}) in the Hong Kong Classic Cup Feb. 17. The latter ended up the 23-10 chalk, and neither he nor Akeed Mofeed got the set up they wanted, finishing fourth and sixth, respectively, behind It Has To Be You (NZ) (Volksraad {GB}). Gibson was of the belief that Akeed Mofeed would benefit from one final prep, and the horse obliged at odds-on in a Class 2 going 1800 meters Mar. 2. The conditioner thinks there is more and better to come, and that could spell trouble for his 13 rivals this afternoon. Mizani (Ire) (Bachelor Duke) is the least exposed of the Gibson trio, but brings a perfect local record into this test. The grey stayed on well to take a Class 3 over 1400 meters Jan. 6 and rallied late to validate 7-5 favoritism in a 1600-meter Class 2 event Feb. 2. With Doleuze opting for Gold-Fun, Umberto Rispoli takes over at the controls. Ashkiyr (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) has longshot claims off a decent fourth in the Classic Mile and an even better third last time out in the Classic Cup. Recent winners of the Derby to go on to international glory include Viva Patata (GB), Vengeance of Rain (NZ) and Ambitious Dragon (NZ). Cont. p12

CLASH OF THE TITANS IN QSJC

Rewind 12 months and two weeks. Ambitious Dragon (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) was getting ready for the G1 Dubai Duty Free S., while Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) was using a head victory over rising star Glorious Days (Aus) (Hussonet) in the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup as a springboard to a strong third-place effort from a hopeless barrier in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen S. The paths of these three highly rated rivals converge for the first time in a most intriguing renewal of this seven-furlong affair. On his day, there are few in the world who can dash home with Ambitious Dragon. First-up winner of the Sha Tin Trophy H. Oct. 28, he wasn't as sharp in the G2 Jockey Club Mile Nov. 18 and dropped a 1 1/2-length decision to Glorious Days, who was blinkered for the first time. The Dragon was able to turn the tables in the G1 Hong Kong Mile Dec. 9, but was a flat fourth to Glorious Days in the Stewards' Cup going a mile Jan. 20. A minor setback cost him a start at a title defense in last month's Hong Kong Gold Cup and extinguished any thoughts of a Dubai trip, and he is using this as a steppingstone to the G1 Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup Apr. 28. "I'm pretty relaxed going into the race, I've not squeezed him but he's good enough that if he's going to do it he'll do it because he's a class horse," trainer Tony Millard explained. "He's fresh and I hope he gets an even run, but being practical, those other two horses, it's their distance." Lucky Nine took the G2 Jockey Club Sprint Nov. 18, but could do no better than fifth when trying to go back-to-back in the Hong Kong Sprint. Fifth to the G1 Al Quoz Sprint-bound Eagle Regiment (Aus) (El Moxie) in the Centenary Sprint Cup over an insufficient 1000 meters Jan. 27, he got back around a bend and handed the progressive Frederick Engels (GB) (Iceman {GB}) a 3/4-length defeat in the Chairman's Sprint Prize Feb. 17. Connections feel this trip is his best, but he'll have to prove it against two very formidable foes.

EXCEED AND EXCEL GELDING TOPS HKIS The Sha Tin parade ring played host to part two of the Hong Kong International Sale, and it was a well-related gelding by top sire Exceed and Excel (Aus) who led the way on a final bid of HK$6.2 million (US$799,484).

The September foal, a 3/4-brother to 2012 G1 Blue Diamond S. runner-up No Looking Back (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) was always held in high stead after being purchased by representatives of the Hong Kong Jockey Club for A$350,000 at last year's Magic Millions

Gold Coast Yearling Sale. The winning bidder was Yip Kong Way seated alongside trainer Danny Shum. A son of Shamardal--Mania (Ire) (Danehill) proved to be the second most-popular of the 16 horses on offer, selling to The Fashion Syndicate for an even HK$5 million (US$644,745). By the sire of Dan Excel (Ire), recent runner-up to Glorious Days (Aus) (Hussonet) in the Stewards' Cup, the €210,000 (US$301,938) Arqana August graduate is out of a half-sister to champion Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) and to Creachadoir (Ire) (King's Best), a narrow second in the 2007 G1 Hong Kong Mile. Of the two American-bred horses in the sale, the Stormy Atlantic gelding out of Shiner's Sister (Mr. Greeley) fetched a final bid of HK$2.9 million (US$373,952) from Andrew Kwok. The 16 horses grossed HK$47 million (US$6,125,081) for an average price of HK$2,968,750 (US$373,952). The median price was HK$2,750,000 (US$354,610). This is the first year the HKJC has supplemented its December sale with a second auction, and while the combined results were cash-negative, HKJC officials were not unduly disappointed. Cont. p13

“There were a lot of good choices for owners and it was about what we expected, given that the 2012-13 season has been more of a buyers’ market,” said Bill Nader, the Club’s executive director of racing. “This season the Club has lost money on the two sales, but that’s OK. The true test of these sales is not the money we make or lose at the sale, it’s helping owners go away with a horse that will do them proud in years to come.” Three-time G1 Hong Kong Mile hero Good Ba Ba (Lear Fan) and The Duke (Aus) (Danehill), a dual winner of that event, are both graduates of the HKIS. A winner of last October’s G1 Spring Champion S., It’s a Dundee was going second off a lay-off here after finishing fourth behind Pierro \(Aus\) (Lonhro {Aus}) in Rosehill’s G2 Hobartville S. Mar. 2. Showing slightly more interest with the addition of blinkers here to track in midpack, the bay swung to the outside at the head of the lane out-kicked Proisir to win fairly comfortably. “I thought the blinkers would help, especially at Warwick Farm,” New Zealand-based trainer Murray Baker told Racing and Sports. “He’s worked in them on and off in New Zealand, but it’s hard to tell because he doesn’t do much on the track. It’s nice to know he can race in them but whether we keep them on or not we’ll decide later. Baker continued, “I knew once he got to the front they wouldn’t peg him back.” Baker said his charge would run back in two weeks in the G1 Rosehill Guineas, and is looking forward to sending It’s a Dundee longer in the future. “Over 2000 metres you will see a brilliant horse,” he said. The winner is a grandson of champion 3-year-old filly in New Zealand Staring.

 Magic hour got off the mark in her fourth start at Hoosier Park in September and romped by eight lengths in an optional claimer next out a month later. She was second by a head while routing in a Churchill optional claimer in November and fourth in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Dec. 30. Most recently, she was bumped and stopped and finished last in the seven-panel Manatee S. here Feb. 9. Away well, the chestnut was off the rail in second early and took control midway down the backstretch. Under a tight hold by jockey Ronald Allen to prevent her from drifting in down the stretch, Magic Hour was challenged by Fire Assay but responded gamely to hit the wire in front. "She's still learning," said winning trainer Ian Wilkes. "When they got to the stretch, she sort of put her head up and got a little lost on me. But when [Fire Assay] came to her, she saw her and came on again. She is still figuring the game out. I'll look for some little stakes for her down the road." Elghayoor belied debut odds of 12-1 to run second to Kiss the Lady (Quiet American) on the outer track Nov. 12 and missed by a narrow 3/4 of a length in her second career appearance Dec. 30. Given her chance in the Feb. 17 Dearly Precious S. despite her maiden status, the homebred held off Railtown Girl (Candy Ride {Arg}) by a half-length, but was lightly regarded here with the presence of Highestmaintenance from the Todd Pletcher barn. Allowed to settle in third as I'm Mom's Favorite and Highestmaintenance slugged it out up front, Elghayoor took aim on those two in upper stretch and gradually reeled them in for the victory. Elghayoor is out of a half-sister to English highweight Mujahid. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

6th-AQU, $65,000, Msw, 3yo, 1m, 1:37 3/5, ft. INCOGNITO (c, 3, A.P. Indy--Octave {MGISW, $1,660,934}, by Unbridled's Song) was a distant fifth to his entymate Long River (A. P. Indy) and Mr Palmer (Pulpit) in his Dec. 15 bow over this track, then improved to be third behind subsequent GSP Elnaawi (Street Sense) over a muddy strip Jan. 5. He continued his progression last time out, finishing just a neck short of Mr Palmer Feb. 17. The form of that heat was franked when Mr Palmer annexed the Private Terms S. at Laurel Mar. 9, and Incognito was 4-5 to get it done here. Florida raider Tapulous (Tapit) showed the way early and took them along at an easy clip, but Mike Luzzi came to quicken at the half-mile pole and the duo raced as a team into the turn. Incognito eased past the frontrunner midway on the bend and was never seriously threatened en route to a 3 1/4-length tally from Rap d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro). Ghareeb (Tapit) was third after lugging in repeatedly in deep stretch. On behalf of Sheikh Mohammed, John Ferguson acquired Octave for $4 million out of the 2007 Fasig-Tipton November sale. This is her second foal. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $60,510. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

The homebred was bet into 5-2 second favoritism from a morning line of 4-1 and turned in a promising debut. Busily ridden from the start by David Cohen, Billy the Bull was in need of room approaching the stretch. But pacesetting Do I Amuse You (Sharp Humor) drifted well off the inside, and the grey raced up the fence and on to a 3 1/4-length success. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $30,000. Icon Ike was coming off a career-best 93 Beyer in the Champion Energy Services S. at Sam Houston Jan. 26. The homebred was last but one early and improved his position entering the lane. He angled off the rail in midstretch, took command and finished well clear. Chamberlain Bridge, the 2010 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint hero, went in the air at the start, effectively losing all chance, and did well to finish third, while favored Sum of the Parts (Speightstown) led early and faded to finish last of seven in his first start since a fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Nov. 4. The Florida-bred reappeared in a first-level allowance over this track and trip Feb. 8 and picked up where he left off, leading throughout for a 2 1/2-length triumph. Looking to remain perfect, the 2-1 chalk raced in behind the pacesetter before angling out to attack from the two path on the turn. He struck the front in upper stretch and looked to idle a bit once he made the lead, but reported home a 1 1/2-length winner from Tiz Tee Time (Tiznow). Lifetime Record: 3-3-0-0, $89,700. He added Lasix and showed more speed in a similar test Feb. 3, but faded tamely to finish a distant last of five. Bashaar dropped out last past the judge for the first time and slid up the fence to have two behind as they raced into the backstretch. He crept towards centerfield approaching the second turn, quickened noticeably nearing the stretch, switched out about five wide and clawed back Betweenhereandcool (Unbridled's Song) to take it by a half-length at 23-1. ALYDORABLE (f, 3, Arch--Esprit D'escalier, by Diesis {GB}) was distanced for all intents and purposes when last in her Presque Isle debut Aug. 3, but showed major improvement when runner-up in a two-turn maiden at Turfway Park Dec. 6. Sent off at 5-1 for this turf bow, Alydorable was with the early pace before letting two speeds get away from her to sit a perfect trip from third. She held that position more or less to the stretch, looked a bit one-pace entering the final furlong, but came out three wide and was along close home for a one-length victory. Liz Pendens (Macho Uno) was second best. ### Prix Rose de Mai cont.

Childa took four starts to graduate, but after things finally clicked into gear at Compiègne in early November, she showed she was moving forward when doubling her account at Lyon-Parilly just over a fortnight later. Settled on the outer in fourth early, the grey quickly swept aside Roxanne passing the quarter pole and was driven out to register this initial black-type score. "Christophe Soumillon rode her last year and said she would win a Listed race and she delivered nicely," jockey Stephane Pasquier explained. "I had a very good trip and I really like what she showed here." Click for Equidia VIDEO.

WIGHT IS WIGHT (IRE) (c, 3, Peintre Celebre--Alenteja {Ire}, by Danehill), who bagged a Bordeaux maiden last time Oct. 21, was restrained last of the four runners after the break in this comeback. Coaxed closer on the home turn, the crowd's 6-5 choice challenged wide inside the two pole and kept on strongly under continued urging in the closing stages to prevail by a neck from Spoonful (Fr) (Della Francesca).
