VERRAZANO HAS FINAL WOOD WORK

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Verrazano (More Than Ready) turned in his final morning drill at Palm Meadows yesterday before he puts his undefeated record on the line in Aqueduct's GI Wood Memorial S. Saturday. Working in company with stablemate Discreet Dancer (Discreet Cat), who will contest the GI Carter H. on the Wood undercard, Verrazano was clocked in a fastest-of-17 1:01.17 for five furlongs.

Verrazano Courtney Heeney

"I thought it was another excellent work, pretty much what we have come to expect of [Verrazano] in the morning," trainer Todd Pletcher said of Let's Go

Stable, Michael Tabor, Mrs. John Magnier and Derrick Smith's GII Tampa Bay Derby victor. "It was very good, and a strong gallop out; very pleased. Discreet Dancer also worked well and is on schedule for the Carter."

Verrazano, a half-brother to Let's Go's 2012 GII Risen Star S. winner El Padrino (Pulpit), earned his diploma by 7 3/4 lengths when unveiled sprinting at Gulfstream Jan. 1. He had no problem with the stretch-out to a mile in a Feb. 2 optional claimer at Hallandale, romping by a head-turning 16 1/4 lengths, and justified 2-5 favoritism in the Mar. 9 Tampa Bay Derby with a decisive three-length tally. Pletcher was pleased with the added experience Verrazano gained in his black-type debut, and is hoping the bay will have the opportunity for another lesson in the Wood as he prepares for the GI Kentucky Derby May 3.

"We felt like he got a little bit of experience in Tampa in that he got behind a horse and got a little bit of dirt," Pletcher explained. "Some experience certainly can help you in what I'm sure will be a full gate at Churchill. [Additional experience in the Wood], and the mile-and-an-eighth distance should also be helpful, hopefully, in preparing him for the Derby if we're fortunate enough to go that route." Verrazano and Discreet Dancer are expected to arrive in New York from Florida Wednesday. Wood Works cont. p3

ALL'S WELL FOR ORB AFTER FLORIDA DERBY

Trainer Shug McGaughey reported yesterday that Orb (Malibu Moon) was no worse for wear following his 2 3/4-length score in Saturday's GI Besilu Stables Florida Derby. "I'm kind of surprised how well he bounced out of his race, to tell you the truth," said the Hall of Famer. Orb is a homebred for McGaughey's longtime clients Stuart S. Janney III and Phipps Stable, and he was quick to put the owners at the forefront Sunday. "It's about them and the horse, and not about me, as far as I'm concerned," McGaughey said. "I'm glad they're able to do it together. It makes it all that much better." While little has gone wrong recently with Orb, who has won his last four starts, the bay's connections may need to find a new rider depending on what happens in the GI Wood Memorial, as pilot John Velazquez also rides the undefeated Verrazano (More Than Ready). "We're going to have to wait until next week," McGaughey said of the situation. "It's not a problem. I knew going in." While McGaughey's stable will be relocating to Keeneland in the coming days, the conditioner said that Orb will remain at Payson Park for at least another week.

Still on cloud nine after Animal Kingdom (Leroi) animaux {Brz}'s romp in Saturday's G1 Dubai World Cup, Arrowfield Stud's John Messara is contemplating the prospects of seeing the chestnut compete Down Under. "In my heart of hearts, I'd like to see him in the [G1] Queen Elizabeth S. It would be an ideal race," Messara told The Daily Telegraph.

Triple Threats

Vyjack Practices Relaxing...

GII Jerome S. and GIII Gotham S. winner Vyjack (Into Mischief) worked Saturday at the Big A as he prepares to take on Verrazano (More Than Ready) in the

Vyjack NYRA/Coglianesse

GI Wood Memorial S. there one week later. Piloted by trainer Gustavo Rodriguez, deputizing for his suspended brother Rudy, Vyjack broke off two or three lengths behind stablemate Aussi Austin (Forestry), picked him up midway through the work and finished a head in front at the end with both runners under restraint. The Pick Six Racing colorbearer was clocked in 1:12.63 for six furlongs, with his stablemate receiving the same time (click for video). They were the only two workers Saturday at the distance.

"He came home good, was relaxed, and set himself up perfectly for the race," said owner David Wilkenfeld, who himself timed the work in 1:13 3/5. Rodriguez, who was looking to see Vyjack settle behind another horse in the drill, added, "We wanted the other horse to go and for [Vyjack] to relax. We want him to be relaxed, because when he runs in the Wood we want him to come from behind. I'm very, very happy with the work."

Vyjack took his first two starts on the main track at Aqueduct before switching to the winterized inner track for the Jerome and Gotham. The Wood will be contested over the former. "His first two races were on the main track, and he ran well in both of those races," noted Wilkenfeld. "I think the wider turns will suit him better, and hopefully we'll have an even, honest racetrack for the Wood and that the best horse will win." As for facing the formidable Verrazano, Wilkenfeld said, "I think Vyjack will be the best horse Verrazano has faced to date. There are some other quality 3-year-olds in the race, so I think it's going to be one of the better prep races."

Normandy Invasion Fires Warning Shot...

Fox Hills Farms's Normandy Invasion (Tapit) worked a bullet four furlongs in :47.95 at Palm Meadows Sunday morning as he looks to bounce back from a fifth-place finish in the Feb. 23 GII Risen Star S. in Saturday's Wood Memorial. "He went very well," trainer Chad Brown said. "Although the time was very quick, he did it very easy. I'm happy with the way he was moving and the way he came back." Normandy Invasion was beaten a nose here in the Nov. 24 GII Remsen S., and Brown said that effort was what went into the decision to point to the Wood. "We're confident he likes the track," said Brown. "It takes away one element of guess work."

West Hills Giant to Miss Wood...

GIII Gotham S. runner-up West Hills Giant (Frost Giant) has been ruled out of the Wood after he was forced to miss a workout Saturday because of a lung infection. "He scoped dirty after his last work [Mar. 24] and missed a couple of days. It was in his best interests to skip this work," explained Tonja Terranova, who assists her husband, trainer John Terranova. West Hills Giant is being considered for either the GI Blue Grass S. or GII Lexington S. at Keeneland Apr. 13 and Apr. 20, respectively.

Also on the Wood Worktab...

Elnawi (Street Sense), 5f in :59.80 (1/68) at Belmont Training Track Mar. 30.

Assistant trainer Art Magnuson: "He was strong through the lane... Last summer he was definitely quirky; he's very professional right now."

Mr Palmer (Pulpit), 4f in :48.93 (55/149) at Belmont Training Track Mar. 30.

Assistant trainer Leana Willaford: "He looked great. He went off nice and finished very well. [Exercise rider] Steve [Schmez] was just sitting on him, and he came back jumping around and feeling good."

Itsmyluckyday ‘110%’ Sunday...

Trainer Eddie Plesa, Jr. said yesterday that Trilogy Stables and Laurie Plesa’s Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron) was ‘110%’ following his second-place finish as the favorite in Gulfstream’s GI Besilu Stables Florida Derby Saturday. He will press on to the GI Kentucky Derby May 3. “I really wanted to win the Florida Derby,” said Plesa from his Calder base. “It would have meant so much to me and the other owners, but I was very pleased with his race and Orb was the best horse Saturday. As important as Saturday’s race was to us, it wasn’t the ultimate goal.” Plesa continued, “I had my reasons to give him the 60-plus days between the [GIII] Holy Bull and the Florida Derby and I still wouldn’t change anything with having made that decision. It may have made some difference in how he ran Saturday, but it was just a stepping stone. I believe he has the points to get into the Derby. I haven’t thought a lot about when we’ll take him up there [to Churchill Downs], but I’d imagine probably about a week before.”

Options Open for Merit Man...

Conditioner Bob Hess, Jr. was keeping all options open Sunday for surprise Florida Derby third-place finisher Merit Man (With Distinction), who was making his first two-turn start Saturday. “I’m really proud of him,” Hess said. “He got beat by two very good horses. He had a good winter here and he will go to New York from here. There are a number of options we’ll consider like the [May 11 GII] Peter Pan, which is a one-turn, mile-and-an-eighth at Belmont Park, the [June 8 seven-furlong GII] Woody Stephens, or even the [May 17 GI] Preakness could be a possibility.”

Power Broker Preps for Santa Anita Derby...

Gary and Mary West's Power Broker (Pulpit) got in his final workout at Santa Anita yesterday morning before he makes his seasonal debut in Saturday's GI Santa

Anita Derby. Working in company with older stakes-winning stablemate Bank the Eight (Distorted Humor), the $360,000 KEESEP yearling was clocked in :47.40, good for the fourth-fastest of 43 spins at the distance. Bank the Eight was credited with a :47.80 time. A five-length winner of the GI FrontRunner S. in Arcadia Sept. 29, Power Broker hasn't been seen since finishing fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile here Nov. 3. "The workout was very nice," said trainer Bob Baffert, who will also enter expected race favorite and fellow West representative Flashback (Tapit) and Tanma Corporation's Super Ninety Nine (Pulpit) in the nine-furlong feature. "I got him going out [five furlongs] in :59 4/5. He hasn't lost any of his conditioning, because he really hasn't been away. He's just been away from the action, but he has a really good foundation on him. The Breeders' Cup race was a disaster. I gave Bejarano bad instructions." Additional probable runners for the Santa Anita Derby include: Goldencents (Into Mischief), Hear the Ghost (Ghostzapper), Tiz a Minister (Minister's Wild Cat), Storm Fighter (Stormin Fever) and Dirty Swagg (Street Hero).

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Messara Not Ruling Out Aussie Campaign for AK...

Arrowfield Stud Chairman John Messara is considering an Australian campaign for Saturday's G1 Dubai World Cup winner Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}), reports The Daily Telegraph. Animal Kingdom is slated to travel from Dubai to Britain for quarantine and a potential start at Royal Ascot. Arrowfield, who purchased a controlling interest in the 2011 GI Kentucky Derby winner from Team Valor International late last year, was expected to stand the 5-year-old at its New South Wales farm for the 2013 Southern Hemisphere breeding season, but the lure of more moments like Saturday might lead to a change of plans. "He has never been beaten over a mile and a quarter and he is the best horse racing in the world over that distance," Messara told the publication. "The push is on now to take him to Royal Ascot for either the G1 Prince of Wales's S. or the G1 Queen Anne S. I wouldn't mind having a go as you don't often get a horse good enough to win at Royal Ascot and this horse is good enough."

Animal Kingdom Liesl King

Messara is also Chairman of Racing NSW, which is expected to hold a Breeders' Cup-style meeting in Sydney in approximately a year from now. The event will feature the G1 Queen Elizabeth S. to be run over 2000 meters at Randwick and carry a purse of at least A$2 million. "In my heart of hearts, I'd like to see him in the Queen Elizabeth S. It would be an ideal race," Messara said. "He likes the turf and a Group 1 over 2000 meters at Randwick would certainly suit the horse. The way he won the World Cup also suggests to me he would be hard to beat in the G1 Cox Plate. It is more a question of working out the logistics of it all."

Japan's 2011 Horse of the Year and Triple Crown winner Orfevre was due for a win after two brutal beats in the most prestigious of spots. The chestnut took Longchamp's G2 Prix Foy last September and looked home free when he struck the front and started to pull away in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe the following month. He came up empty in the waning moments, however, and longshot filly Solemia (Ire) (Poliglote {GB}) swooped in in the shadow of the wire to deny him. Orfevre got revenge on Solemia when she ventured to his home turf for the Nov. 25 G1 Japan Cup at Tokyo and could no better than 13th, but another member of the fairer sex in Fillies Triple Crown winner Gentildonna (Jpn) brought down Orfevre, besting him by just a nose and subsequently earning Horse of the Year honors. Gentildonna was second Saturday in Meydan's G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. A prohibitive favorite here in his first start of 2013, Orfevre was allowed to find his stride in the back half of the pack early along the inside. He was maneuvered into the clear by pilot Kenichi Ikezoe and began picking off horses ominously along the turn for home. The chalk spun four or five wide into the lane, struck the front in midstretch under confident handling and was geared down in the waning moments to win with something left in the tank.

Coarsegold finally broke out of the maiden ranks last time in start number six going five panels over this turf course Mar. 7 and, with some help from the stewards, got her diploma and first stakes win all in the same month. Checked back to last in the early going, the bay was a bit eager as she tugged her way into the pocket on the first turn. She began to make a move alongside Swear Me In entering the lane, but when that rival angled wider-than-necessary turning for home, she took Coarsegold with her, who in turn brushed with favored Coffee Clique. Swear Me In righted the ship in the lane to hold off Coarsegold and Coffee Clique, but she was taken down from first to third after a lengthy deliberation by the stewards. "I'll take it," said Mark Hennig, trainer of Coarsegold. "I once won a stakes in New York a few years back with a horse that finished third and they took the first two down." Of his runner's trip, he added, "She got pinched in the first turn and I think she took the worst of it at the top of the stretch when the other horse came out. I was proud of her re-rallying after that. They can't take the black-type away now." Hennig trainee Exchange Funds (Speightstown) was put up from third to first in Belmont's Stormy West S. in October of 2011. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

MARACUYA (f, 3, Big Brown--Jealous and Jaded, by Jade Hunter), a half-sister to Payton d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro), GSW & MGISP, $573,035, was backed down to 3-1 here from a 10-1 morning line and soon showed why. The chestnut was coming off a local one-length debut tally going six panels as 2-1 chalk Mar. 6. Tugging her way to the front early, the chestnut carved out honest fractions of :22.96, :46.25 and 1:10.95. Her pursuers lined up to challenge at the top of the lane, but a glance back from pilot John Velazquez hinted that Maracuya had more in the tank, and she kept finding to strike the wire 1 1/4 lengths clear. Longshot Street Girl (Street Hero) ran on for second. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $53,910. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Gulfstream Sets Derby Day Attendance Record:

A record 20,382 people were on hand at Gulfstream Park Saturday to see Orb (Malibu Moon) take the GI Besilu Stables Florida Derby, surpassing the Hallandale Beach oval's attendance mark of 18,224 set on Florida Derby day in 2012. Total handle on the track's 13-race card was $24.67 million--nearly equaling last year's total of $24.69 million. On-track handle rose by 7.16% or $1.37 million. Florida Derby Day was an incredible experience," said Gulfstream President Tim Ritvo. "From our Derby Day breakfast to the Derby undercard to Orb's electrifying performance, Derby Day was very special. We continue to buck industry trends with our on-track handle and attendance figures. Obviously, without the horsemen, none of this is possible. Their support has been much appreciated and we are anxious to build our partnership with them throughout the year." Ritvo continued, "The vision of our Chairman, Mr. Frank Stronach, has always been to build the sport of Thoroughbred racing in Florida while making it an exciting experience for the entire family. We see this vision coming true on a daily basis at Gulfstream Park. We will continue to build Gulfstream into a year-round destination throughout the summer and fall while continuing to gain valuable feedback from horsemen, fans and the local community."

In and among horses in a tightly bunched field down the backside, the homebred loomed on the outside entering the stretch. He raced erratically for several strides as he struggled with his lead changes, but once that was sorted out, the grey kicked on to beat Make a Fortune (Elusive Quality) by three lengths. Liaison finished off his juvenile campaign with a win in the GI CashCall Futurity, but never quite built on that early potential at three. He was sixth in both the GI Santa Anita Derby and GI Kentucky Derby, and subsequently finished second in the GIII Affirmed H. and third in the GIII Swaps S. The bay turned in another solid effort when third behind Alpha (Bernardini) and Neck 'n Neck (Flower Alley) in Saratoga's GII Jim Dandy S. in July, but could do no better than ninth when the former dead heated for the win in the GI Travers S. in August. Showing an upbeat worktab at Betfair Hollywood Park for his 4-year-old bow, Liaison was kept off the rail by pilot Martin Garcia as he tracked in third. Requiring energetic handling to assert three-wide at the head of the lane, the Zetcher colorbearer got the jump on Midnight Transfer and dug deep to deny that favored foe in the run to the line. "He's a good horse," said Garcia of the winner. "Sometimes he breaks a little slow, but today he broke sharp. I let those other two horses go and he was very comfortable in third. When it was time, I asked him and he really ran hard. When [Midnight Transfer] came to us on the outside, he really dug in." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Slow Pace was acting as a pacemaker for his esteemed stable companion Galikova (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville in August and exceeded expectations to fill second spot behind her. Unplaced on four his next five starts, including a quartet of outings during a brief sojourn Stateside with Todd Pletcher, the bay was returned to France and Freddy Head for his 5-year-old campaign. That began with a revival of form when third--before being disqualified and placed sixth--behind Don Bosco (Fr) (Barathea {Ire}) on his comeback in a conditions race on Chantilly's Polytrack last time Mar. 2. Content to stalk the pace in second early, the homebred was committed on the inner at the top of the stretch and, after gaining command with a quarter mile to race, was pushed out for a comfortable score.
