NEXT PHASE FOR ORB

Stuart Janney III and Phipps Stable's Orb (Malibu Moon) faces eight foes as he seeks to keep the racing world's Triple Crown hopes alive in today's 138th running of the GI Preakness S. Little has gone wrong for the homebred in 2013, with four victories from as many tries, and it has been more of the same in the two weeks since his 2 1/2-length defeat of Golden Soul (Perfect Soul {Ire}) in the GI Kentucky Derby (video). The grandson of local 1996 GII Black-Eyed Susan S. winner Mesabi Maiden (Cox's Ridge) turned in a :47.18 breeze (video) at Big Sandy Monday that his usually understated Hall of Fame conditioner Shug McGaughey deemed "breathtaking."

Orb Splashes Home in Derby
Horsephotos

McGaughey has been around racing long enough to know its ups and downs, but he's supremely confident in his charge barring some unforeseen bad luck.

"There are a lot of ways to lose, as we all know," he offered. "Freaky things can happen. I think we're in the position where we can kind of dictate the race and hope, if we don't get in trouble, that he can make his run and then see what happens. We hope he doesn't get in trouble; we hope he handles the track; we hope he handles the kickback of dirt; we hope he handles the day. If he does all that, I would have to think it's going to take a pretty darn good horse to beat him."

Fresh face Departing (War Front) may be squaring off against Orb for the first time, but that's not to say they aren't familiar with each other. Both were foaled, raised and hung out in the same paddock at historic Claiborne Farm in Paris, Ky.

Departing, who carries the colors of Claiborne and Adele Dilschneider, boasts an overall record of 5-4-0-1.

'FIFTY' NIFTY IN BLACK-EYED SUSAN

Fans of Orb were surely pleased to see his pilot Joel Rosario find the winner's circle aboard Pegram, Watson and Weitman's Fiftyshadesofhay (Pulpit) in Friday's GII Black-Eyed Susan S., but they will probably be hoping for a slightly less eventful trip in today's Preakness. Fiftyshadesofhay was adding blinkers for trainer Bob Baffert, but she showed a new dimension here, settling kindly in sixth of seven while an eager Maracuya (Big Brown) put up honest splits. The 2-1 shot began to inch closer as the field bunched entering the far turn, but three-deep longshot Marathon Lady (Graeme Hall) looked like she would be tough to collar as she swept up to challenge for command. That runner was in front at the top of the lane and, perhaps reacting to Rosario's right-handers, Fiftyshadesofhay angled in directly behind Toasting (Congrats) and Maracuya, who were chasing in vain. But Rosario quickly yanked Fiftyshadesofgray back to the outside and she reeled in Marathon Lady to score by a neck. Toasting and Maracuya managed to hold on for third and fourth, respectively, while 4-5 favorite Emollient (Empire Maker) never looked comfortable and settled for a disappointing sixth. "Right when I went past the three-eighths pole before turning for home, she kind of got away from me a little bit," explained Rosario. "I was kind of worried about it, but she was able to get it back together and she kept going." Cont. p8

Next Phase for Orb cont. from p1

After graduating and clearing his first-level allowance condition at Fair Grounds, Departing justified 3-5 favoritism in Sam Houston's Texas Heritage S. Mar. 2. Third with minor, but probably inconsequential trouble behind Derby third Revolutionary (War Pass) and fifth Myalute (Midnight Lute) in the Mar. 30 GII Louisiana Derby, Departing easily defeated 13 overmatched opponents by 3 1/4 lengths in Hawthorne's GIII Illinois Derby Apr. 20 despite a wide journey.

While the connections of Derby runner-up Golden Soul, third-place finisher Revolutionary and early-moving fourth Normandy Invasion (Tapit) have opted to skip the Preakness, five other runners from the Derby will hope that new surroundings and a dry strip will help them turn the tables on Orb.

Goldcents (Into Mischief) was a disappointing 17th--beaten almost 50 lengths--in the Derby as the 79-10 third choice, but the bettors are likely to give him a pass. The speedy GI Santa Anita Derby hero figured to have to find a way to avoid a meltdown at Churchill, but he did not, chasing the freewheeling Palace Malice (Curlin) through impossible splits, including an opening quarter in :22.57 and half in :45.33. He must again contend with other speed types here if he is to secure back-to-back Preakness trophies for trainer Doug O'Neill after failing to score the Derby double for his conditioner.

"We haven't closed our eyes and just said, 'Oh, we'll do the exact same thing that we did going into the Derby,'" O'Neill said of preparations leading up to this. We tweaked a few things and I just think, with the track looking like it's going to be a nice, safe, fast track, that's one less excuse, too. But when they throw in a head-scratcher, the next time, as confident as you may be, it's tempered a little bit."

Trilogy Stable and Laurie Plesa's Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron) was a talking horse all Derby week, but checked in 15th after being backed down to 9-1 from a 15-1 morning line. A decisive winner of the Jan. 1 Gulfstream Park Derby and Jan. 26 GIII Holy Bull S., he was no match for Orb when handed a 2 3/4-length defeat as the favorite in the Mar. 30 GI Besilu Stables Florida Derby. The argument from many Itsmyluckyday supporters heading into the Derby was that perhaps the dark bay wasn't fully cranked for the Florida Derby, but he failed to prove their hypothesis after not seeming to love the sloppy going in Louisville. Unwilling to accept that his charge could run so poorly after training so well leading up to the "First Saturday in May," conditioner Eddie Plesa is back for more after working Itsmyluckyday four furlongs in :47 1/5 in between races at Monmouth Sunday. Preakness cont.

Five-time Preakness-winning trainer D. Wayne Lukas has three chances at number six. Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) is likely to take the most support after he was completely stopped by a fading Verrazano (More Than Ready) when moving alongside Orb in the Derby stretch and had to settle for eighth. He had been off since besting stablemate Oxbow (Awesome Again) in Oaklawn's Mar. 16 GII Rebel S., and may have the freshest legs of the Derby returnees. Oxbow, on the other hand, has not had a break since October. He finished best of the pace players in the Derby to be a game sixth, but not have much left in the tank.

Titletown Five (Tiznow) should add to what looks to be at least an honest Preakness pace. He dueled and faded to ninth in the Louisiana Derby, and is coming off a fourth-place run in the one-mile GIII Derby Trial S. Apr. 27.

Mylute will again be piloted by Rosie Napravnik, who won her first race as a jockey at Pimlico in 2005 and has multiple local riding titles on her resume. Mylute came from farther back than Orb to be fifth in the Derby, and having less ground to work with may not be to the grey's advantage if he again finds himself behind the favorite early.

Bob Baffert has five Preakness wins of his own--most recently with short-priced Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike) in 2010--but enters this year with a longshot. Baffert removed Govenor Charlie (Midnight Lute) from Derby consideration after a minor foot injury interfered with his training. He appears to be in fine fettle now if a six-furlong breeze at Churchill Monday in 1:10 4/5 is any indication.

‘TAKE’ ANOTHER LOOK

Owner Willis D. Horton is no stranger to pulling off an upset on the big stage.

The 73-year-old native of Arkansas registered a monumental 47-1 shocker with Lemons Forever (Lemon Drop Kid) in the 2006 GI Kentucky Oaks, and he will be attempting to play the role of spoiler once again in today’s GI Preakness S. courtesy Will Take Charge (Unbridled’s Song).

Willis Horton

The flashy 17-hand chestnut, listed at 12-1 on the morning-line, appeared to be making a winning move as he rallied in tandem with Orb (Malibu Moon) on the far turn in the Run for the Roses, but was stopped cold in the stretch as Verrazano (More Than Ready) began to back out of it. Will Take Charge had to settle for eighth that day, beaten by a misleading margin of 12 1/4 lengths. Trained by Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas, the half-brother to millionaire Take Charge Indy (A.P. Indy) switches to jockey Mike Smith for the first time.

“We had a rough trip, but it really was a privilege to be there,” Horton commented. “There were probably about 30 of us there. To run in the Derby for the first time was a big honor.”

What was Horton’s reaction while seeing his black-and-white silks carried for the first time in the historic GI Kentucky Derby?

“Actually, I couldn’t even tell what was going on--it was raining all day and it was just so cloudy and foggy,” Horton admitted. “All of the horses started to look alike covered in mud when they came around the last turn, and I really couldn’t tell where he was.”

After catching the replay on television, Horton may’ve wished that he just stuck to his initial viewing from the stands.

“I really didn’t realize what had happened until I got home that day and they showed the replay of the overhead view,” Horton said. “It was a bad situation. My horse lost all of his momentum and it takes those bigger horses a little bit of time to get back into rhythm. We would’ve either have won the race or finished second [without the trouble]. We were ahead of Orb when all this took place.” Cont. p6

He continued, "The horse came out of the race in excellent shape. I'm just hoping for the weather to be nice this time and to have an opportunity to run our race."

Horton signed the ticket on the well-bred son of Take Charge Lady (Dehere), MGISW, $2,480,377, for $425,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. He encountered some unexpected competition from a friendly face when hip 17 entered the ring.

"I picked out Will Take Charge, and Wayne [Lukas] picked him out too, apparently, and was actually bidding against me," Horton revealed. "I was sitting down in front of him, and once he saw me bidding, he quit."

Horton continued, "He was a big horse for a yearling and the conformation on him was perfect. He had a lot of length and also a good head. Everything about him fit me perfectly in what I look for when buying yearlings."

Will Take Charge, hero of the Smarty Jones S. at Oaklawn Jan. 21, punched his ticket to Louisville with a hard-charging win over stablemate Oxbow (Awesome Again) in the GII Rebel S. in Hot Springs Mar. 16 (video).

Will Take Charge
Sherackatthetrack

"It was a special day winning in front of the home crowd," Horton reflected of the Rebel victory. "I went to Oaklawn a whole lot when I first got started in racing 50 years ago."

His family owned D R Horton Custom Homes, the largest builder of single-family dwellings. The company was sold in 1992. In addition to Lemons Forever and Will Take Charge, Horton also campaigned the talented sprinter Partner's Hero (Danzig), hero of the 1997 GII Kentucky Cup Sprint S. at Turfway. He currently owns approximately 13 horses, including a couple of broodmares, and will be represented by Laurie's Rocket (Bluegrass Cat) in today's GIII Maryland Sprint H. on the Preakness undercard. Lemons Forever, campaigned in partnership with trainer Dallas Stewart, later brought $2.5 million as a broodmare prospect at the 2007 Keeneland November Sale.

"It's the only sport that I have anything to do with and it's exciting," Horton concluded. "You've got a lot of highs and a lot of lows in this game. But when you do have a high, it really is a high. I just love the sport and I love my horses."

FOR PREAKNESS, NO OUT-OF-COMPETITION TESTING by Lucas Marquardt

Security and drug-testing measures for today's Preakness vary noticeably from what they were two weeks ago at the GI Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs, a review by the Thoroughbred Daily News has determined. The protocols are set by respective state commissions. The Maryland Racing Commission (MRC) has jurisdiction at Pimlico, while the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission (KHRC) handles testing at Churchill.

The most notable difference between the two Triple Crown races is the absence of an out-of-competition component to Maryland's Preakness testing. According to J. Michael Hopkins, executive director of the MRC, none of the nine horses slated to line up in the Preakness will have been subject to out-of-competition sampling. By contrast, nearly all the horses in the Kentucky Derby had blood samples drawn roughly three weeks in advance of the Derby, and again about 10 days out.

Out-of-competition sampling is useful in identifying illegal substances whose detectability is limited, such as EPO, which can be hard to detect in blood as short as two days after application. Hopkins said Maryland's out-of-competition testing is limited to horses that are required to register an official work after a poor performance. "If they're on the stewards' or vet list, they have to come back and have a satisfactory work, and they'll be tested then," said Hopkins.

For its TCO2 and post-race sample analysis, Maryland follows the American Graded Stakes Committee 2013 Drug Testing Protocol, said Hopkins. Those guidelines call for pre-race TCO2 testing on all horses participating in a graded or listed stakes event. High TCO2 levels can indicate that a horse has been subjected to bicarbonate loading, more commonly known as "milkshaking." The guidelines also require testing for no fewer than 159 identified drugs. Maryland regularly tests for 900, according to Hopkins, though ups the number to 925 to comply with drugs listed in the protocol.

Pimlico is unique among the three Triple Crown host tracks in that it features a designated stakes barn in which nearly all of the Preakness horses are stabled. The MRC doesn't assign a police officer to each horse, like the KHRC does, but, "the horses are under security 24/7 the moment the first horse shows up," said Hopkins. "People who have access to the barns must sign in, and we have security cameras--not in each stall--but covering the entrances to and the shedrows of the barns."

Beginning roughly 24 hours before the Preakness, all needles used to give a Preakness horse an injection will be collected by state officials. The KHRC also collected needles prior to the Derby, but began collecting 72 hours out. Among the needles that will be collected are those used to administer Lasix on raceday. In Maryland, Lasix is given by private vets. Last year, Kentucky changed its regulations so that only commission-appointed vets could administer Lasix. Cont. p8

Another difference between Maryland’s policy at Pimlico and those in Kentucky and New York is that horses racing in the Preakness don’t have to report to Pimlico until the day of the race and could therefore avoid monitoring. Horses racing in the Derby and GI Belmont S. at Belmont must arrive by noon on the Wednesday before the races.

Fiftyshadesofhay took four races to break her maiden, earning her diploma going 8 1/2 panels over the Betfair Hollywood Park Cushion Track in November. Eighth in Santa Anita’s turf Blue Norther S. Jan. 1, the bay looked like a new horse when she dueled through hot splits before drawing off by 5 3/4 lengths in the GIII Santa Ysabel S. over a wet/fast track in Arcadia Jan. 26. Second and third behind champion Beholder (Henny Hughes) in the GI Las Virgenes S. and GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 2 and Apr. 6, respectively, Fiftyshadesofhay was shipped to Churchill to prepare for the GI Kentucky Oaks two weeks ago, but her connections instead opted for this spot and it paid off.

“I wasn’t sure turning for home because I told Rosario that she usually runs 1-2-3, but ride her the way you feel you should ride her,” said Baffert, who took the 1999 running of this race with Pegram’s Hall of Famer Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) and the 2004 renewal with Yearly Report (General Meeting). “Rosario sort of did his own thing today, but it was the right thing.”

Rosario, Baffert and Pegram Celebrate
Jerry Dzierwinski, MJC

Pegram, Watson, Weitman and Baffert were responsible for 2010 Preakness winner Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike), and Pegram and Baffert partnered to take the 1998 Preakness with Fiftyshadesofhay’s dam sire Real Quiet (Quiet American). Fiftyshadesofhay hails from the extended family of 2006 Preakness runner-up Sweetnorthernssaint (Sweetsouthernssaint).

Steve Hobby, trainer of the runner-up, said of his charge, “She ran huge. She ran her tail off. She had a great trip. I don’t know what we could have done any different.” Emollient’s rider Mike Smith summed up his mount’s performance: “She stumbled out of the gate really bad, and she caught her leg. It was pretty much over for us after that.”

The complexion of this changed when it was announced early Friday that G3 Dubai Gold Cup hero Cavalryman (Fr) (Halling) was to be scratched because of ease in the ground. That opened the door for Glen's Diamond, who was successful in the G3 Dee S. at Chester in May 2011, then went missing after a subsequent seventh placing in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot and made little impact during a spell at last year's Spring Carnival at Meydan. Revisiting old promise when runner-up to Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) in this race 12 months ago, he was unable to build on that and finished up his latest campaign with a fourth placing in a handicap over an extended 12-furlong trip back at Chester in September. Allowed to dictate here, he traveled with ease into the straight with Joshua Tree (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Royal Diamond applying the pressure and the favorite Top Trip apparently struggling in behind. As soon as he had shrugged off the former duo, he had the French raider to contend with and, despite looking likely to surrender his advantage in the drive to the line, kept digging in to prevail in the bobber. "He can be quite keen and they left tactics to me today, but I found myself in front," jockey Tony Hamilton said. "He ran on bad ground all last year and we nearly pulled him out today because of it. We've always liked him and he's very hard on himself. He did everything in a relaxed manner today and was tough and able to finish his race well." Trainer Richard Fahey's assistant Robin O'Ryan, "He didn't have the best of experiences in Dubai last year and he relaxed in front today."

Last Gunfighter has been unstoppable since joining the Chad Brown barn, and proved he could take his show on the road with a sixth-straight win and first outside of New York. Winless, but never off the board in his first four tries for Helen Pitts early last year, the John Gunther homebred donned cap and gown going a mile at Belmont off the bench for his new outfit last October. He cleared his first allowance condition at the Big A the following month, and proved too much for four foes to handle in the sloppy-track Raymond Earl S. Dec. 9. The dark bay continued winning ways at four with a narrow victory in the Jan. 19 Evening Attire S., and had no problem with the stretch out to nine furlongs when overcoming some traffic trouble to take Aqueduct's Mar. 23 Gill Excelsior S. last time.

The odds-on choice traveled well in a joint second as expected pacesetter Eighttofasttocatch loped along uncontested through splits of :24.56, :49.91 and 1:14.18. The frontrunner looked like he might be getting away from Last Gunfighter along the turn for home, and Javier Castellano was very energetic in the saddle to encourage his mount for all he had. Last Gunfighter responded with bounding strides, and he prevailed in the final eight of a mile to win comfortably. Maryland-bred Richard's Kid, who hadn't raced at Pimlico since 2009, was a distant third.

DECLARATION OF INTENT

Aidan O'Brien unleashed a reinvigorated Hawk Wing in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury 10 years ago, and there are strong vibes that the stable's ex-French project Declaration of War (War Front) could be about to take center stage this afternoon. Taken from Jean-Claude Rouget and given plentiful time to mature, Susan Magnier, Michel Tabor, Derrick Smith and Joseph Allen's 4-year-old was initially shaping as a middle-distance performer when winning a 10-furlong Curragh conditions event in September and the G3 Diamond S. over 150 yards further on Dundalk's Polytrack the following month. Reinvented as a miler this term, the bay captured the Listed Heritage S. at Leopardstown in convincing style Apr. 14 and has attracted significant money in the betting market this week. Now that Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and Excelebration (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) are out of the way, Khalid Abdullah's Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk) has the opportunity to shine in the major domestic mile contests. Impressive in the G1 Dubai Duty Free at Meydan last March, he failed to see out 10 furlongs when fourth in the G1 Eclipse at Sandown in July before running second to Excelebration in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville in August and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot in October either side of a third placing in the G1 Woodbine Mile in September. "On official ratings, he's the best miler in Europe," trainer Roger Charlton told PA Sport. "Obviously there are a few new kids on the block this year like Declaration of War, so he'll need to maintain his form. He ran against Wise Dan at Woodbine and I knew he was the one to beat going out there, but we had to give him weight, despite it being a Grade I. There's no doubt Wise Dan is right up there with the best."

Declarations of War Racing Post

Godolphin have won this four times, and rely on Farhh (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who stays at the mile trip over which he was second in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp when last seen in September. Previously second to Frankel in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood and York's G1 Juddmonte International in August, he also filled that berth in the Eclipse and has looked to be booked for a top-level success for some time. "Farhh had a small chip removed from his ankle after he ran in France and we gave him time to recover," Saeed bin Suroor commented. "He has been working nicely and seems happy and fresh, although he will improve for the run. I am hoping that there is some rain before Saturday, because he prefers cut in the ground but I think that he will be fine on good going." Sir Henry Cecil also boasts four renewals of this race and puts forward Ecurie Wildenstein's Beauty Parlour (GB) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) this time. The ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ has Classic-winning form over this trip after annexing last year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp and is better than her latest seventh in the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket suggests. One who could come under the radar is George Strawbridge's newly gelded Fencing (Street Cry {Ire}), who has always suggested he could be a top performer like his dam Lattice (Ire) (Inchinnor {GB}) and who looked a different proposition when winning the Listed Paradise S. over this trip at Ascot May 1.

WHO WILL WIN DIXIE?

A field of 13 will line up for Pimlico's GII Dixie H. today, just one race before the featured Preakness. Conditioner D. Wayne Lukas will send out Optimizer (English Channel), who put in a solid effort when runner-up to reigning Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) in Churchill's GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic over the yielding course on Derby Day. He was a wide fourth in the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 13 and fifth in the GII Mervin H. Muniz Jr. H. Mar. 30 after beginning the year with wins in the GIII Colonel E.R. Bradley H. Jan. 26 and the GIII Fair Grounds H. Feb. 23. Although the Calumet Farm colorbearer should have company up front early, he has run well enough lately to justify his 7-2 morning-line favoritism. Before trainer Shug McGaughey and the Phipps Stable (along with Staurt Janney III) take on the Preakness with Orb, they will send out the speedy Imagining (Giant's Causeway). After Belmont wins last May and June, he closed out the season with a fifth in Woodbine's GII Nijinsky S. July 22. The homebred returned with a strong Keeneland allowance win in his seasonal debut Apr. 13. James Covello's Swift Warrior (First Samurai) is a sharp two-for-two this year with wins in Sam Houston's GIII John B. Connally Turf Cup S. going this distance Jan. 26 and in the GIII Tampa Bay S. Feb. 16. Freshened off a layoff, he should be ready to go in this one.

‘VIEW’ LOOKS FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT

It took Laue Ranch homebred Glorious View (Pleasant Tap) nine starts to earn her diploma, but now that she has, she’s been unstoppable. The bay will look to keep her streak alive when she makes her black-type debut in Belmont’s GII Vagrancy H. today. Donning cap and gown by 6 1/4 lengths on the Aqueduct inner track Feb. 15, Glorious View was a five-length victress in an allowance back at that venue Mar. 10. She’s coming off a six-length romp going a sixteenth shorter at the Big A Apr. 11. “It seems like she’s just figured it out,” said Leana Willaford, assistant to trainer Bill Mott. “She’s always shown some talent, and this winter she hit the right spots. It seems like she’s moved forward, so it’s time to test the deeper waters. She’s fast, there’s no doubt about that. She’s training very, very aggressively. Over the winter she had become more aggressive in her training, and it seems to be working for her. The nice thing about is that if she’s in front, she’s in front, but she can track a horse, too.” Glorious View breaks from the rail, but she’ll likely have to employ rating tactics due to the presence of fleet-footed Florida invader Spectacular Sky (Sky Mesa). The Marty Wolfson trainee took Tampa’s Manatee S. Feb. 9 before finding only subsequent GI Humana Distaff S. winner Aubby K (Street Sense) too tough in Gulfstream’s GII Inside Information S. last time Mar. 17. The connections of these runners were surely relieved by the absence of undefeated Cluster of Stars (Greeley’s Galaxy), who bested Miss d’Oro (Medaglia d’Oro) by 2 3/4 lengths in the Apr. 13 GII Distaff H.

MORE CHOCOLATE BACK QUICK

Michael Talla’s More Chocolate (Malibu Moon) returns off just two weeks’ rest in today’s GII Marjorie L. Everett H. at Betfair Hollywood Park. She was all but eliminated after being squeezed out at the start of Churchill’s GII La Troienne S. on GI Kentucky Oaks day May 3, settling for fifth. Pilot Garrett Gomez climbs back aboard for the first time since the bay upset Book Review (Giant’s Causeway) in her dirt debut in Santa Anita’s GII La Canada S. Jan. 20, and she earned a field’s-best 101 Beyer Speed Figure when second to Joyful Victory (Tapit) in the GI Santa Margarita S. Mar. 16. In addition to More Chocolate, trainer John Sadler also sends out I Dazzle (Hold That Tiger) to her synthetic-track debut. The 5-year-old was last seen taking Santa Anita’s turf American Beauty S. off the trainer change from Jack Van Berg and was forced into this spot when an allowance race didn’t fill.

Everett cont.

Hall of Famer Jerry Hollendorfer has three chances in this race, most notably morning-line second choice Lady of Fifty (After Market). That runner bested Open Water (Include) decisively in her only Cushion Track try in the GII Bayakoa H. Dec. 8. She was fourth behind More Chocolate in the La Canada and third in the GII Santa Margarita H. last time Feb. 16.

SAME OLD TUNE?

A wide-open field of 10 will vie for the top spot in the GIII Gallorette H. this afternoon. Brazilian import Old Tune (Brz) (Wild Event) was victorious in her last three Group 1 races at Gavea, then won Tampa’s GIII Endeavour S. Feb. 2 and the GIII Hillsborough S. Mar. 9 in her first two stateside starts before finishing seventh in Keeneland’s GI Jenny Wiley S. Apr. 13. If she gets back to form, she’ll be tough to beat. The Chad Brown-trained Samitar (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) closed out her sophomore season with a narrow victory in Belmont’s GI Garden City S. Sept. 15 and a fourth in Keeneland’s GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup Oct. 13. She took the winter off and returned as a runner-up in Gulfstream’s GII Honey Fox S. Mar. 16. She rallied to complete the Jenny Wiley trifecta last out and has been given the 5-2 morning-line nod. Brown will also send out Pianist (More Than Ready). Winner of her seasonal debut at Gulfstream Feb. 7, the chestnut was fifth when stepping up in the GII Honey Fox last out.

WILL BROWN HEAR APPLAUSE IN DUPONT?

Chad Brown trainee Summer Applause (Harlan's Holiday) hopes to bounce back with a win in Saturday's GIII Allaire Dupont Distaff S. at Pimlico after finishing fourth last out in the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Apr. 12. Fourth in last year's GI Kentucky Oaks, took Aqueduct's GII Top Flight H. Mar. 2 on seasonal debut in her first start for Brown. She was conditioned by Bret Calhoun in 2012 for a three-year-old campaign that included a victory in the GIII Rachel Alexandra S. and runner-up finish to Believe You Can (Proud Citizen) in the GII Fair Ground Oaks. Country Life Farm's Moon Philly (Malibu Moon) is on a hot streak with four wins and three seconds from her last seven starts. Her last victory was a 9 1/4-length score in the Maryland Racing Media S. at Laurel last out Feb. 23. Phipps homebred Sea Island (Pulpit) was runner-up in her last three starts, including a solid effort behind Dance Card (Tapit) two back in the GI Gazelle S. at Aqueduct. The McGaughey trainee has previous wins at this distance and proven versatility on a variety of surfaces.

SAGE VALLEY LOOKS TO STAY HOT OFF BENCH

Michael Dubb's Sage Valley (Discreet Cat) looks to run his winning streak to four in Saturday's GIII Maryland Sprint H. at Pimlico. The 5-2 morning-line favorite boasts the highest Beyer Speed Figure in the field after earning a 105 in his most recent victory in the Mr. Nasty S. at Aqueduct Nov. 9. Trainer Rudy Rodriguez has a high success rate with horses coming off a layoff and the expert guidance of John Velazquez only adds to the colt's chances. New Farm homebred Hardened Wildcat (Hard Spun) will give Sage Valley a run for his money. The Fred 'Cappy' Capossela S. victor and GIII Bay Shore S. runner-up comes into this off a win at the Big A in optional claiming company, where he ran a career-best 101 Beyer. The Chad Brown trainee's off-the-pace running style will help him in what looks to be a speed-laden race. Willis Horton's Laurie's Rocket (Bluegrass Cat) is also an off-the-pace runner that could have a late say. Hero of the Hot Springs S. two back at Oaklawn, he was third most recently in the GII Churchill Downs S. May 4. The bay was runner-up in the Chick Lang S. over track and trip a year ago.

STAKES TEST FOR MEZZANO

Richard Santulli's Mezzano (Mizzen Mast) faces as many as 11 rivals as he makes his black-type bow in Monmouth's GIII Red Bank S. this afternoon. The victim of a slow pace when narrowly beaten on seasonal debut in a main-track Parx optional claimer Mar. 23, the $350,000 OBSMAR 2-year-old buy put it all together last time. Heavily backed down to 2-1 favoritism in an 8 1/2-furlong allowance on the Keeneland Polytrack Apr. 13, the grey seized command early and streaked to a 4 1/2-length victory. For the effort, he earned a 99 Beyer Speed Figure--the best of this bunch (bar main track only entrant Ruler On Ice {Roman Ruler}). The 10-1 morning-line quote on the Al Goldberg trainee, who broke his maiden over the Parx sod last September, seems a bit generous. Patricia Generazio's Tune Me In (Concorde's Tune) took the GIII Oceanport S. and GIII Cliff Hanger S. here last meet, and returns to trainer Bruce Alexander after off-the-board tries for Jimmy Ryerson and Jane Cibelli. "He just got here on Apr. 17 and 30 days is not a lot of time to get ready for a race like this," said Alexander from the Oceanport oval, just a short drive from Red Bank, home of the TDN. "But [Tune Me In is] a good horse, and he's good here. He's run well fresh in the past." Live Oak Plantation homebred Za Approval (Ghostzapper) comes in off a victory in Gulfstream's Mar. 30 GIII Appleton S. and figures to be flying late.

Trackside at the Singapore International Racing Festival... with Liesl King

COUNTDOWN BEGINS IN SINGAPORE

by Liesl King

Thankfully, after the rain of Thursday, dawn broke over Kranji Friday with clear skies and a slight easing in the heat. The most interesting observation to come out of the morning's trackwork was the different training styles of the various countries--a phenomenon that only becomes apparent when you have a congregation of international horses.

Kavanagh (SAf) (Tiger Ridge), trained by Mike de Kock, appeared first, opting for the heath track with Kranji-based South African Greg Cheyne, doing duty for compatriot and raceday jockey Glyn Schofield. South African trainers prefer to do their last speed work two days out and de Kock is no exception, with Kavanagh producing a blistering 35.1 seconds over the final 600 meters. Assistant trainer Trevor Brown confirmed that it was the last work the gelding will do. "It's all systems go and he is done now," Brown said. "We have drawn barrier three and we are delighted with that. It's as good as two lengths in front."

Pastorius

Pastorius (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) was the talk of the day as he did his very first and also his final piece of fast work on the turf track with trainer Mario Hofer's daughter Stephanie aboard. With trainer and owner in attendance, the handsome bay put in a solid gallop with consummate ease, clocking 38.1 over the final 600 meters. Despite the colt drawing barrier 11, the connections remain very confident, with Hofer explaining that not only will Pastorius have the services of a very good jockey in Frenchman Olivier Peslier, but he has the ability to come from anywhere in the field.

In stark contrast, the Australian and Hong Kong contenders are visibly winding down as the week progresses. After trotting in the ring for 10 minutes, Bel Sprinter (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) appeared on the turf track for a leisurely stroll, with track rider Carly Thomas allowing the gelding frequent stops to inspect the various photographers and TV cameras. Trainer Jason Warren was happy with his charge, but added that he hoped the weather stayed cool, as Bel Sprinter was slightly dehydrated.

The Hong Kong pair of Military Attack (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) and Dan Excel (Ire) (Shamardal) also eased their morning workout, with the pair doing a slow canter on the Poly for 1 1/2 laps. While Dan Excel was quite content to lope along, Military Attack made it very clear that the pace was far too pedestrian for his liking with an interesting display of leaping, bucking and bouncing down the main straight. Trainer

Military Attack

John Moore's son George was on hand to witness the bay gelding's exuberance. "I am happy with where they are at," he said. "They have improved steadily though the week and are now pretty close to their right racing weights."

Then there are the "distance horses," who come out day in and day out to complete at least 1 1/2 or two laps of the Kranji Poly (1500 meter circumference) at a steady pace. In this category we have Hunter's Light (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), Meandre (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}) and Dux Scholar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB})--whose daily routine includes a 2000-meter steady canter--Mawingo (Ger) (Tertullian), with an even more impressive 3000-meter daily canter and, surprisingly, the sprinter Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who also clocks up the miles with an impressive 2000-meter canter daily.

Lastly, we have the lone Japanese contender, Dasher Go Go (Jpn) (Sakura Bakushin O {Jpn}), who in contrast has been steadily increasing the speed of his daily workouts. After a steady canter on the turf yesterday, assistant trainer Keiichiro Yasuda stepped up the pace today with a strong canter down the main turf straight, coming in at around 18 seconds a furlong. A final blowout over 200 meters on the turf is planned for tomorrow in order to fully wind him up just prior to the race. Yasuda explained that Dasher Go Go is nearing his ideal race weight of 1,179 pounds, and that despite his bad draw in barrier nine, the entire has the speed to put himself into any spot and that they will just go with the pace.

With race day now only two days away, the mounting tension is palpable and with most of the contenders' preparations done and dusted, it now becomes a game of just keeping them hydrated, keeping them eating up and counting the hours in muggy Singapore.

NEWS TODAY

SUNGATE SAGA ROLLS ON

The British Horseracing Authority yesterday announced that it is to investigate a number of trainers regarding the administration of the drug known as Sungate. After Newmarket trainer Gerard Butler announced last month that he had used the substance, which contains anabolic steroids, on veterinary advice to treat the joints of some of his horses, Britain's governing body have been at work in uncovering the extent of the problem. A statement from the BHA read, "Sungate is a product developed by an Italian company, produced and licensed for equine use in Italy. Its use in the UK is legal, but only when imported under the Special Import Certificate scheme administered by the Veterinary Medicines Directorate. The product is intended to assist in the treatment and management of joint disease in horses. Sungate contains stanozolol, an anabolic steroid and consequently a prohibited substance under the Rules of Racing. The BHA became aware of the use of the product on horses in training following a visit to Gerard Butler's yard in February 2013 as part of its testing in training sampling programme. Subsequently, it became apparent that a veterinary practice, which had legally imported Sungate into the UK, had recommended its initial administration to horses in the care of Gerard Butler. The BHA has met with representatives of the veterinary practice in question. As a result of that meeting, the BHA believes that Gerard Butler was not the only trainer to whom the administration of Sungate was recommended. Veterinary surgeons are not bound by the Rules of Racing, but are subject to their own rules of professional conduct. Therefore, in order to establish the extent of the use of the product, BHA investigating officers will be interviewing trainers who are known to use the same veterinary practice. Under the Rules of Racing, licensed trainers are strictly liable for the administration of any prohibited substances administered to horses under their care and control."

DADO ELECTED TO NTRA BOARD

Craig Dado was elected to the Board of Directors of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association at their meeting in Maryland yesterday. Dado is the executive vice president and chief marketing officer of Del Mar Thoroughbred Club and worked at Santa Anita prior to that. Other decisions made at the NTRA meeting include: the approval of audited financial results for the fiscal year, the receipt of a report on federal legislative activities for their lobbying group The Alpine Group, and updates on the National Handicapping Championship, NTRA Advantage group purchasing, sponsorship, and other programs.

DETTORI RETURN DELAYED

Frankie Dettori's planned comeback from his six-month suspension on Monday has been put on hold after the British Horseracing Authority revealed that France Galop have not given the all-clear. Due to ride at Leicester, the 42-year-old will not be able to take up his mounts after the French organization refused to allow him to ride there. As a result, the BHA is unable to reciprocate and Dettori is set to face a further interview with France Galop on May 26. A statement from the BHA read yesterday, "The BHA has received notification from France-Galop that they are not prepared to sanction Frankie Dettori as fit to race until he has had a meeting with their Medical Committee. Consequently, in line with the position outlined to Dettori by the BHA's Licensing Committee at their meeting on Tuesday 14th May, and in the absence of clearance from France, no licence will be issued while such matters remain outstanding. BHA is seeking further clarification from France Galop, but is unable to make any additional comment at this time." Dettori had spent four days in France last month undergoing a medical examination and a series of tests and was under the impression that he had the green light.

Genetically Modified Organisms in Our Horse Feed:from Joanne Nor, vitatracwellness.com*

One of the greatest things impacting the future of the Thoroughbred breeding and racing performance industry is the FDA's approval of alfalfa and bluegrass hay as a GMO (Bio-genetically engineered) crop.

The crops of soy, corn (whether in oil or grain form) and sugar beets (used in sweet feed mixes) have been GMO crops since 1996 when they were introduced into the American food chain.

The genetically engineered crops amount to a large portion of the daily food intake of our Thoroughbreds and are negatively affecting the health of present and future generations. According to a recent Russian clinical study, the third generation, fed predominant GMO diets, are completely sterile and are suffering, along the way, with lowered immune function, allergies, foal deaths, birth defects (if survived), stomach torsions, cancer and ultimately death. The DNA is altered by the herbicide glyphosphate. Other studies have confirmed the health risks for animals. Dr. Mae-Won Ho and senior scientists in America have directly linked more than 40 diseases to glyphosphate. The interruptions of bodily enzyme functions is one of the effects. Since glyphosphate is so widely used, it is tested and found in rainwater and air in the atmosphere and fertilizer runoff.

As far as the pharmaceutical abuse in racing, unfortunately the cake has already baked its DNA prior to the horse stepping onto the racetrack and the pharmaceuticals add icing to the cake. Together--glyphosphate and pharmacology--the combination is wildly destructive, if not ultimately fatal, and bears scrutiny in the sudden deaths of racehorses.

Our beloved Thoroughbreds, who literally lay their lives on the line every time they run their hearts out for us, are not deserving of the suffering being dealt to them, nor are they able to perform under these circumstances of complete destruction of their health, well-being and productivity.

The Thoroughbreds are the stars and core of our industry. This is criminal that they are subjected to this, and the use of these toxic GMOs for corporate biotech profit with no regard for our planet's beings, be they horse or human.

Read the Eco Watch article from the link below entitled Us State Department Exposed for Pushing Biotech Seed Industry and the connected links. Pamm Larry, a major campaigner for the mandatory labeling of GMOs in our food chain and the instigator for Proposition 37 in California, has informed us as to our right to know.  CJZ Racing Stable is no stranger to the Pimlico winner's circle, as principle Charles Zacney was part of the ownership group that campaigned Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet) to a most-dramatic victory in the 2005 GI Preakness S. Zacney and those who bet I'm Mom's Favorite into even-money favoritism had to hold their collective breath, as she found the wire just ahead of hard-charging longshot Flattering Bea for a first black-type victory. I'm Mom's Favorite graduated second out over the Aqueduct inner track Feb. 1 and finished a solid third in the Cicada S. at that venue next out Mar. 16. Most recently, the bay took an optional claimer over this track and trip by seven lengths Apr. 13. Crowded back at the start here, she was last but one through the opening stages. Entering the bend, she took aim on the tiring front-runners and looked on her way to victory, only to have to sweat out a photo after Flattering Bea flew home from the backfield. I'm Mom's Favorite is out of a half-sibling to GI Matriarch and Del Mar Oaks winner Tout Charmant (Slewvescent). Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

 Fifth to her entrymate Kittens Dumplings (Kitten's Joy) in the La Seniorita S. at Retama Park Nov. 9, Emotional Kitten comfortably defeated $75,000 maidens over the Gulfstream turf Dec. 9. A troubled third in a first-level allowance in Hallandale Mar. 3, the homebred got an ideal set-up in a Keeneland turf test Apr. 7 and was up in the final jump to score by a nose. Speaking of her nose, it just about touched the Pimlico turf a stride out of the stalls, but Emotional Kitten picked herself off and dropped out to the tail of the field as Birdlover (GB) (Byron {GB}) was prompted along by Miss Lucky Sevens (Big Brown) through lively splits. Favored Summer of Fun, just behind centerfield in the middle portions of the race, crept into contention on the turn, but Joel Rosario was winding up Emotional Kitten and they swung widest off the turn. The chalk surged to the front leaving the eighth pole and began looking for the wire, but it didn't come quick enough, as Emotional Kitten lunged late to score. Zenzara was a close third in her turf debut. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Sensible Lady had a successful sophomore campaign with four stakes wins including last year's rendition of this contest. She closed out the year with third-place efforts in Parx's Turf American H. Sept. 3 and Keeneland's Buffalo Trace Franklin County S. Oct. 12. The Three Lyons colorbearer returned from a winter layoff to finish fourth in the Giant's Causeway S. there Apr. 20. Sensible Lady was bumped back at the start and rated toward the back of the field early, but steadily improved her position along the rail. Behind rivals in midstretch, she tipped out to the three path and charged late for the victory. "She's just amazing," said winning trainer Tim Salzman. Ben's Cat, winner of the GIII Turf Monster H. two years running, came into this on a hot streak with four wins in his last five starts. His most recent score was the Mister Diz S. at this track-and-trip Apr. 6 for the fourth year in a row. The dark bay regained his championship in this race which he won in 2011, but was a disappointing fifth in last year. Sent off at even-money, Ben Cat sat patiently on the outside a few lengths off the pacesetters. He came wheeling out of the turn and surged down the center of the track to blow by the early leaders and win by a length. "It looks like he's as good as ever as a 7-year-old," trainer King Leatherbury said. "He's not that well bred, I just hit a home run when everything fell into place with this horse. He's super and has stayed totally healthy. He's probably one of the best dirt-grass horses in the country. He'll run in the Governor's Cup at Penn National on June 1." Dance to Bristol has now finished either first or second in 14 of her 15 career starts. Previously this season she was runner-up to Bold Affair (Two Punch) in Laurel's What A Summer S. Jan. 12, then rolled to three straight in a 5 1/2-panels sprint there Feb. 6, an optional claimer Mar. 15 and a nine-length romp in the seven-furlong Sugar Maple S. at Charles Town Apr. 20, for which she earned a career-best 106 Beyer. The prohibitive favorite was wide and unhurried as she rated in third through the opening stages. The Copperville Farm colorbearer moved up to sit in second behind Orange's Lil Sis into the turn and challenged for control entering the stretch. She began to lengthen her advantage by midstretch, ducked in when put under the right-handed whip, but was straightened and finished under a hand ride. Despite a wide journey, she made up a lot of ground in the stretch to finish a creditable fourth. Backed as the 6-5 chalk here, the Pin Oak homebred sat an inside trip just behind the early pacesetters, was stymied for a run cornering into the stretch, but got through at the fence inside the final sixteenth of a mile to break her maiden in her turf and two-turn debuts by a half-length. Not seen until making a winning debut over seven furlongs at Newbury Apr. 19, Pavlosk proved this type of class was well within her grasp by putting her rivals to the sword. Settled behind the leading pair early, the bay was left at the head of affairs passing the three-furlong marker and lengthened clear soon after for an emphatic score. "I didn't want to be there that early, but she took me there and they couldn't lead me any longer," jockey Ryan Moore said. "She is still green and this is as far as she wants to go." Khalid Abdullah's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe added, "She has progressed tremendously well this year, as although she was nice last year, she was a little bit backward. She could go for something like the G3 Jersey S. [at Royal Ascot June 19] and then step up throughout the year." Click for the Racing Post chart. VIDEO, courtesy Racing UK.

Rated highly at three, Mijhaar ran fourth in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot and the following year returned to that meeting to be third in the Listed Wolferton H. over 10 furlongs. After failing to build on that effort and finishing second in conditions events at York and Leicester in October, the bay was gelded and arrived here with a new lease on life to make all and register a belated first black-type success. Soon stamping his authority on affairs, the homebred was reined in by Andrea Atzeni and enjoyed bowling along at a clip that saw most of his rivals struggling halfway down the straight. Only Beaumont's Party and Rawaki could pose any significant threat, but they were always being held by their superior rival. "The main thing with him is to get him to relax and although I probably went too quick early on, if you start pulling him early on he'll pull all the way round," his rider explained. "He came back to me when he came round the bend and relaxed--to be honest with you, this isn't news to us as we've always thought he was a nice horse. There's a long season ahead and getting his head in front will help." Click for the Racing Post result. VIDEO, courtesy Racing UK.

Winsili started off in the manner with a 3 1/2-length success over seven furlongs at Newmarket in August, and after a second to the subsequent Listed UAE 1,000 Guineas winner Lovely Pass (Ire) (Raven's Pass) in a mile conditions event at Ascot the following month, was supplemented for the G1 Fillies' Mile. That plan went awry due to a late setback, but the bay gave some indication as to why that decision had been made with a smooth return in a first-time hood here. Settled in second tracking Valtina (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) throughout the opening stages, the homebred moved up to challenge approaching the three pole and was quickly traveling better of the duo. Sent into the lead over a furlong later, she soon had the measure of her rivals with a powerful display of finishing speed. "I would think she would go for the G2 Ribblesdale S. [at Royal Ascot June 20]," Khalid Abdullah's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe commented. "She injured herself on the day we supplemented her for the Fillies' Mile and it took a while to get that right. She's had a cold winter, so I would think she will still be progressive. She's got a bit of toe and she's done it nicely enough." Click for the Racing Post chart. VIDEO, courtesy Racing UK.

Showing sharp speed to make all on debut at Bath Apr. 19, Beldale Memory extended her record here to book a ticket to Royal Ascot. Settled behind the early pace, the bay traveled strongly and when shaken up took control approaching the furlong pole before drawing away in the run to the line. "She's a very smart filly and I was in front an hour too soon here," jockey Jamie Spencer said. "I could probably play my hand later at Ascot and she's very athletic with a huge stride and a great attitude." Trainer Clive Cox added, "She's a very nice filly and very talented. She's quick enough at five and will stay six and I'm sure she'll handle better ground as she has gears. She has a great approach to life and the [June 19] G2 Queen Mary S. has always been at the back of our mind." Click for the Racing Post chart. VIDEO, courtesy Racing UK.
