A WAVE OF THE WAND

Already successful eight times in the G1 Tattersalls Irish 2000 Guineas, Aidan O'Brien produced the goods once again here as Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's Magician (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) dominated the Curragh Classic and led home Gale Force Ten (GB)

Magician and Joseph O'Brien
Racing Post

(Oasis Dream {GB}) for a stable one-two in the process. Sent off the 10-3 second favorite, the winner of the 10-furlong G3 Dee S. at Chester traveled easily in third under Joseph O'Brien and, after passing the long-time leader Trading Leather (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) approaching the furlong pole, stretched clear to score by 3 1/2 lengths. John Magnier was on hand to run the rule over the performance. "He was impressive and is an improving horse," he said. "Being by Galileo, he should stay further, and there are all kinds of options. We've done crazy things before, so we could run him at Epsom."

BIG TIME GIRL

Trainer Dermot Weld knows what it takes to win the G1 Etihad Airways Irish 1000 Guineas, and the master of Rosewell House has been making some encouraging noises about "TDN Rising Star" Big Break (GB) (Dansili {GB}) ahead of today's latest edition of the Curragh Classic. Successful four times since 1982, the veteran of the Irish training scene has been patient with Khalid Abdullah's full-sister to the voracious Pattern-race scorer Famous Name (GB) and kept her away from the earlier demands of the Newmarket or Longchamp equivalents. While she would prefer a better draw than the outside post she has received and the testing ground on which she emerged center stage in Leopardstown's G3 Killavullan S. over seven furlongs in October, the homebred has the class to adapt.

Big Break Racing Post

"It's probably too firm for her, but I'd be more concerned with the draw," Weld commented. "She's a good filly and is very well, so we just hope she gives a good account of herself."

Another who would prefer the soft ground so often prevalent in this country is the May 6 G3 Athasi S. scorer Viztoria (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}), who had Ballydoyle's Snow Queen (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) 7 1/2 lengths in arrears in the Listed Blenheim S. over six furlongs here in September. Cont. p12

One of O'Brien's slow-burners at two, Magician took three starts to get off the mark, but when it came over this track and trip in October, it was delivered in impressive manner by 6 1/2 lengths. Unable to back up that performance when fading into last in the seven-furlong G3 Killavullan S. at Leopardstown 13 days later, he re-emerged at Chester a wildly contrasting proposition and won the Dee S. with authority to suggest that Epsom could be in the cards. Instead, connections headed back here for a drop in trip, and the bay showed why, traveling with consummate ease off the hard tempo set by Trading Leather. Moving smoothly to that rival with all others struggling behind, he employed his stamina from the furlong marker home and the contest was over bar the shouting.

Magician & Aidan O'Brien
Racing Post

“He’s a very tough horse and tries very hard, stays well and handles fast ground,” said winning jockey Joseph O’Brien. “He is improving every day and has loads of pace. I couldn’t say he wouldn’t get further than 10 furlongs either.” Aidan O’Brien appeared to play down thoughts that he could run in the Derby afterwards. “We always thought he had a lot of class with the movement and the looks,” he offered. “You have to have a lot of speed for Chester, and he was sailing and traveling like a dream for the first half of the race.

“He’s very exciting. The lads are very tactically astute and will decide where he goes, but I’d imagine we might wait a bit with him. We’ll see how the horse is.” Van Der Neer (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) was sent off the 5-2 favorite, but never looked likely to replicate his third placing in Newmarket’s G1 2000 Guineas and trailed in eighth.

All eyes were on Reckless Abandon here, but it was an old-timer in Kingsgate Native who prevailed in this dash. Formerly an exciting stallion prospect for Cheveley Park Stud as a result of his successes in the 2007 G1 Nunthorpe S. and following year's G1 Golden Jubilee S., the bay proved an underachiever in that sphere and was duly sent to Sir Michael Stoute for his return to racing. Victorious in this race three years ago, he was runner-up to Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) the following year, and it was that rival that he surrendered to in his latest start in the G3 Palace House S. over this trip three weeks ago. Traveling with all his old verve among the stand's-side group early, he took over from Sole Power passing the furlong pole and was on top of the far-side leader Reckless Abandon with 100 yards remaining. "He's been an amazing horse, and Robert Cowell has done the most fantastic job with him, as have the vets in Newmarket," the Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson said. "He comes back every time, and the G1 King's Stand S. [at Royal Ascot June 18] would be very possible if he comes out of this okay." Clive Cox was pleased with the effort of the previously unbeaten Reckless Abandon, who was racing under a penalty here and is looking to Royal Ascot now. "That will put him on his game completely," Cox told PA Sport. "He had a Group 1 penalty, and that probably just made the difference."

Tannery concluded her European campaign with trainer David Wachman with a victory in the G3 Kilboy Estate S. last July at The Curragh. Third in her stateside unveiling in the G1 Garden City S. last September, she was eighth in the Oct. 13 G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup before ending 2012 with a close-up fourth-place effort in the Nov. 10 GIII Long Island H. The bay filly was fourth behind reopposing rivals Julie's Love (GB) (Ad Valorem) and Minakshi while making her 2013 debut in the Owsley S. over 1 1/4 miles of this turf course last time out May 1. Minakshi set the early fractions as Tannery tucked in along the rail and settled off the pace. Tannery tracked Julie's Love's inside move on the final bend and kept to the rail as that rival shifted to the outside. Tannery surged clear and held sway over the late-closing Anjaz, while Minakshi held on to be third and Julie's Love tired to fourth. "We have a turf course at [Colts Neck Farm], but we've had such a wet spring and we weren't able to train her over it and had to work her on the dirt," explained winning trainer Alan Goldberg. "We try to have our horses fit, but with her first start of the year being a mile and a quarter, I didn't expect her to be completely ready. She came out of the race great, and I thought she'd handle the conditions today." Winning rider Luis Saez agreed Tannery had moved forward from her last start. "Last time when I rode her, I knew she needed the race," Saez said. "I felt today that I could win. My filly was coming out on the first turn because the wind was so strong. I saved ground and I found the hole on the inside, and I rode her strong."

Obviously, winner of last year's GII Del Mar Mile and GII Arroyo Seco Mile, found only Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) and champion Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) too good after setting the pace in the Nov. 3 GI Breeders' Cup Mile. He was flying on the front end in the down-the-hill GIII San Simeon in his first start of 2013, only to be caught late by Chips All In (North Light {Ire}) in his most recent outing Apr. 20. Obviously skipped out to the early lead and was unchallenged on the front end through fractions of :23.26 and :46.09. He spurted clear effortlessly on the turn, was in front by three lengths in upper stretch and was never in any danger. "He's a good horse, he really is," confirmed winning trainer Mike Mitchell. "He does things like this so easy. He had a nice tune-up under his belt and he went into this really good. The thing is when we first got him, my son-in-law [bloodstock agent Craig Rounsefell] picked him out and bought him. We were going to buy a different horse, but he kept saying, 'There's this horse tomorrow.' So I said, 'Let's go for that horse tomorrow.' When they picked him out, he was totally a sprinter. We thought we had a sprinter on our hands. But when we routed him, now all of a sudden, 'Wow!'" Mitchell is hoping for a return engagement in the Breeders' Cup. "We're going to keep him at a mile, take our time with him and go for the [Breeders' Cup Mile Nov. 2 at Santa Anita] again. He'll have another race here [the June 29 GI Shoemaker Mile]."

Solid Appeal, who broke her maiden over the Woodbine lawn in her seventh start last July, added an allowance win two starts later before concluding her sophomore campaign with a fourth-place effort in the Nov. 17 GII Mrs. Revere S. She returned with a 2 1/2-length allowance win in an off-the-turfer at Keeneland last time Apr. 24. Solid Appeal broke sharply, but was taken in hand to race near the back of the pack. She took closer order down the backstretch and was three wide into the lane, while favored Irish Mission snuck through along the rail. Solid Appeal collared the pacesetter with a sixteenth of a mile to go and then outbattled Irish Mission to the wire to win going away. "She's a better horse than when I rode her last year," said winning rider Jesse Campbell. "I think she took a bit of growing up. She was a little green last year, but she's a stronger horse now, put on a few pounds and obviously her form was good over the winter."

After the withdrawal of Maarek (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), this sprint had a wide-open feel to it and it was left to Hitchens to edge out his rivals and claim a second renewal to his record. Following his first Pattern-race success in this in 2011 with a game fourth 12 months ago, the bay returned on the back of a fruitless spell in Dubai and in his native Britain. Close up behind the stand's-side pace traveling strongly throughout the early stages, he found a gap to enter contention approaching the furlong pole and, after joining Reply with 150 yards remaining, gradually asserted in the run to the line.

Chigun was off the mark by 10 lengths on her fourth start at Salisbury last June and was back in the winner's spot two starts later following a handicap at Ascot in early September before trying black-type company in Newmarket's Listed Rosemary S. later that month. Making it count at the first attempt there, the bay returned to run second to Dank (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in that track's G3 Dahlia S. over nine furlongs May 5 and continued her upward progression under the guidance of Sir Henry Cecil. Racing keenly towards the rear early, she was niggled at by Tom Queally inside the final three furlongs and responded with a flourish to roll by La Collina passing the furlong pole and onto a convincing win. "That ground was lively enough, but this opens up some doors for Royal Ascot," her jockey said. "I had a moment's worry at halfway, but I was reluctant to throw the kitchen sink at her on this quicker ground in case she got unbalanced. She had the class to deal with it and is progressive."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Imposing Grace, a maiden winner over this track last summer, was runner-up in a pair of stakes at Fair Grounds over the winter and was never a threat while checking in sixth in the May 3 GII La Troienne S. The dark bay filly chased pacesetter Lotta Lovin through fractions of :24.83, :49.38 and 1:13.67. She pulled even with the pacesetter at the top of the stretch and those two battled stride for stride before Imposing Grace began opening up in the dying strides to hold the late-closing Sisterhood (Kitten's Joy) at bay. "I wasn't expecting to be so close to the pace, but she broke well and was sitting extremely comfortable on the backstretch," said winning rider Channing Hill. "She gave me all the confidence in the world picking it up at the eighth pole. When she got her head in front, she got to playing around a little bit."

Hogy, claimed for $80,000 from trainer Joel Berndt and Alice Mettler out of a win at Hawthorne last December, was a wire-to-wire winner of a Cicero allowance Mar. 10 in his first start for the new connections, and was coming off a sixth-place effort over the Keeneland lawn in the Apr. 13 GIII Shakertown S. The veteran, a late supplement to the race, broke sharply from the outside gate and angled to the outside, but was outfooted and settled in third behind dueling leaders Nates Mineshaft (Mineshaft) and Hammers Terror. He was the first to overtake the pacesetters, powering to the front turning for home and surging clear to a confident tally. "We knew there were a couple of speed horses in it and this race was wide open," winning rider Chris Emigh said. "I got in the perfect spot where I wanted to be on the outside and he started dragging me turning for home."

Dark Cove, claimed for $50,000 from trainer Ken McPeek and Bob Trussell, Joseph Engelhart and Magdalena Racing out of a fourth-place effort at Keeneland last April, made his first start for the new connections off a nine-month layoff and came home fourth in an off-the-turf optional claimer at Fair Grounds Jan. 5. He won for a $40,000 tag and was second for $50,000 in a pair of outings at Gulfstream Park before earning his first stakes victory with an emphatic 4 1/4-length win in the Apr. 26 GII Elkhorn S. at Keeneland. The Ramsey colorbearer was shuffled back off the pace in the initial skirmish for the lead and settled in mid-pack one off the rail. The bay pulled his way closer to the front down the backstretch, made a quick move to take the lead leaving the final turn and opened a clear advantage before just holding off the closing tandem of Atigun and Najjaar. "The horse gives you 110% every time," Maker said. "He's all heart and class." Winning rider Rosie Napravnik added, "I was in a dream spot--I couldn't have picked a better spot. I knew they were coming, but [Dark Cove] was the class of the race." The Ramseys, who were winning their 14th race and third stakes of the Churchill meeting, have now bankrolled $187,294 with Dark Cove since claiming him last year. Atigun was forced to check on the turn and trainer Ken McPeek thinks that cost his charge the race. "He had a terrible trip," McPeek said. "I think he was several lengths the best horse."

General Election, winner of the Mar. 2 John Battaglia Memorial S., rebounded from a dull 10th-place effort in the Mar. 23 Spiral S. to be second behind Winning Cause (Giant's Causeway) in the Apr. 20 GIII Coolmore Lexington S. last time out. Trying the turf for the first time, the bay colt settled near the back of the field while saving ground. He inched closer along the rail to loom a major threat on the turn, cut the corner into the stretch and found his best stride late to win in a driving finish. General Election then had to survive an inquiry and claim of foul from both Rosemary Homeister and Gennadi Dorochenko, jockey and trainer of Gefest, for drifting out in the final strides. The duo also lodged a claim of foul against third-place finisher Dorsett (Artie Schiller). The steward's disqualified Dorsett from third and placed him fourth, promoting Gefest to third. "I felt it hindered my horse more than he hindered others because when they contacted him, it turned my horse's butt sideways," winning rider Joe Rocco, Jr. said of the infraction. "I feel like we were going to draw off from there, but it made him pause--then he went on from it. I think all the pressure was from the outside [Dorsett]." John Ortiz, assistant to winning trainer Kellyn Gorder was pleased with the result. "We came into this race very confident," Ortiz said. "He's a smart horse; very sensible. He trains unbelievable. He does whatever you ask him to do."

Australia's 3-year-olds have displayed a strong showing in weight-for-age prizes this autumn and, with the recent retirement of star sophomores Pierro (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}) and All Too Hard (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}), Darley homebred Epaulette (Aus) (Commands {Aus}) may have jumped to the top of his generation when recording his second Group 1 victory in the G1 Doomben 10,000 yesterday. Winner of the G1 Golden Rose and G3 Caulfield Guineas Prelude last term, the regally-bred Epaulette failed to emulate his elder brother Helmet in the G1 Caulfield Guineas, finishing third. He returned from an extended layoff to finish second to Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) in the G1 T.J. Smith S. Apr. 13, and was most recently sixth in the wake of that star mare's talented younger brother All Too Hard in the G1 All Aged S. Apr. 27. Chasing a swift pace from the back of the pack here, Epaulette weaved his way through the field in the lane and got to the lead at the 200 meter mark to score a comfortable victory. The result was marred by the fatal breakdown of veteran performer and multiple Group 1 winner Rangirangdoo (NZ) (Pentire {GB}), who broke both front sesamoids at the 600 meter mark. Epaulette's trainer Peter Snowden revealed after the race that the colt, who added a visor to his equipment for this race on advice of jockey Kerrin McEvoy, would be pointed to the G1 Stradbroke H. at Eagle Farm June 8.

Ordak Dan's 95-year-old owner Saturnino Erro described yesterday's victory as "the greatest of my life," and when asked about the possibility of traveling to Santa Anita for the Breeders' Cup, he said, "Of course I will go."

Jockey Pablo Carrizo added: "The horse did great in the mornings, and he ran his best race. I won with him in the maiden last January, but he has improved a lot from that time. To go to the United States and run in the Breeders' Cup would be a dream come true, but first we will wait on his owner and trainer's decision."

Having found What a Winter (SAf) (Western Winter) too strong in both the G1 Cape Flying Championship at Kenilworth Jan. 26 and G1 Computaform Sprint at Turffontein Apr. 27, Via Africa emerged out of the shadow of that contemporary to shine in her own right here. Previously successful in the G2 Southern Cross S. at Kenilworth Dec. 8, the bay moved up a league trying six furlongs for the first time. Quickly up to lead, she was shaken up by Alec Forbes with a quarter mile to race and stamped her authority on a competitive renewal to win geared down.

Captain of All, who broke his maiden by five lengths at Clairwood May 19, showed dazzling speed to make all the running in this prestigious affair. Only Willow Magic came with any sort of serious threat at the business end of the contest, but Sean Cormack was always holding the aces on the trailblazer.

Happy Valentine opened her account by 5 1/2 lengths over five furlongs at Clairwood Apr. 30 and built on that debut by upstaging some promising rivals in this prize. In front soon after the start, the chestnut kicked decisively passing the quarter pole and was in no danger thereafter en route to providing jockey Sean Veale with a first success at this level.

IRISH 1000 GUINEAS

Trainer Eddie Lynam told PA Sport, “[Viztoria]’s unbeaten here in Ireland and the only time she has been beaten was in France [in the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte]. She’s in very good form and everything has gone according to plan. Obviously it will be a very tough race and we’ve got that very good filly from England, Charlie Hills’ Just the Judge. She has got a very good chance and looks the one we all have to beat.”

Trainer John Oxx relies on a pair of smart fillies in Harasiya (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and What Style (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), but the former who sports the silks of His Highness The Aga Khan needs easier ground than she is likely to get here. It was soft when she won the G3 Silver Flash S. over seven furlongs at Leopardstown in July, while What Style will prefer these conditions to the testing ones she encountered when second in the Apr. 14 G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial on only her second start. “Harasiya is a good filly, but may have a preference for softer ground,” Oxx told PA Sport. “She has been a little slow to come to hand, but is pretty ready and we’ll have to see how she goes on what we hope will be good ground.”

Oxx continued, “What Style ran very well in second in the Guineas Trial at Leopardstown, when I didn’t think she’d like the soft ground. This is a big step up again for her and she has a bit to find, but fast ground should suit her. Both her and Harasiya should enjoy a step up to a longer distance in due course.”

Of Aidan O’Brien’s trio, Just Pretending (Giant’s Causeway) could be one with the most to offer having made rapid progress in a hood, and she showed when winning the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial at Leopardstown last time May 12 that she possesses the fight for this type of race.

BLACK-TYPE PREVIEWS

PERFECTLY POISED

Now a vital part of the Irish racing calendar, today's G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh has become the race that relaunches luminaries thanks mainly to the importance that Coolmore have placed on it in recent times. Following the success of Montjeu (Ire) at the turn of the millennium, the likes of Hurricane Run (Ire), Duke of Marmalade (Ire) and So You Think (NZ) have bolstered their already impressive resumes here and there will be some disappointed people among that mighty operation if Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) does not follow suit. For so much of last season the poster boy of the Classic generation, Derrick Smith, Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier's beau ideal came unstuck in the G1 St Leger at Doncaster in September and bowed out with a no-show in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp the following month. Now fully recovered from a life-threatening bout of colic, the G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Epsom and Irish Derby hero looked to have kept all his zip when staging a winning return in easy style in the G3 Mooresbridge S. over this track and trip May 6. "He had a nice comeback run and did exactly what was hoped," jockey Joseph O'Brien told PA Sport. "The small field won't matter to him, it doesn't make a difference if they go quick or slow. If they go quick, he can sit handy and if they go slow he's got that turn of foot. He stays the trip well enough and it will be decent ground, so I'm looking forward to it, as he's a real good-ground horse."

While this race has not been kind to British raiders recently, the presence of Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) makes this race more interesting than it otherwise would have been. Impressive when annexing the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket last May, John Deer's bay returned from a spell on the sidelines to pick up where he left off in Sandown's G3 Gordon Richards S. over 10 furlongs last time Apr. 27. The third on that occasion, Ektihaam (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), has since boosted the form at Ascot and trainer Roger Charlton is expecting a bold show. "I've been hugely impressed by Camelot from the moment I saw him at Tattersalls Sales as a young horse and he's very talented," he told PA Sport. "It would have been disappointing for racing if we hadn't turned up. Realistically, Camelot has won five Group 1s and we are running in one for the first time, so we have a bit to prove, but I think it's fair to say Al Kazeem has improved. It could be a muddle of a race with a small field and obviously Camelot has a good turn of foot, so it's a tough situation."

IN THE EYE OF THE BEHOLDER

☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Beauty Parlour (GB) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) returns to her native France for today's G1 Prix d'Ispehan at Longchamp, where she wowed the crowds last May when extending her unbeaten record in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches. Subsequently runner-up in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly the following month, Ecurie Wildenstein's homebred flopped on her first start for the Sir Henry Cecil stable when seventh in the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket in September. Females have won the last three renewals of this prize, with the double exploits of Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) followed by the surprise defeat of the subsequently disqualified Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) by Golden Lilac (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) 12 months ago. Sheikh Joaan bin Hamad Al Thani's Planteur (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) took the G1 Prix Ganay here in 2011 and that remains his sole score at this level, despite some solid efforts in the sphere. Third last time in the Mar. 30 G1 Dubai World Cup, he may not need to improve on his 1 1/4-length third--before being promoted to second--in this event last year. Another ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ who is now finding his feet after a spell in the wilderness, is the Niarchos family's Maxios (GB) (Monsun {Ger}), and he comes here on the back of a career-best when second in the G1 Prix Ganay over 10 furlongs here Apr. 28, while one who is still unexposed is Princess Zahra Aga Khan's Mandour (Smart Strike). The son of the multiple Group 1 winner Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}) beat last year's G1 2000 Guineas third and G1 St James's Palace S. runner-up Hermival (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in a conditions event over 1 1/16 miles here on his seasonal bow Apr. 25 and he has the pedigree to go far.

STAR IN THE ASCENDANT

🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 Siyenica (Fr) (Azamour {Ire}) steps into the fray for His Highness The Aga Khan and Alain de Royer-Dupre in Longchamp's G1 Pour Moi Coolmore Prix Saint-Alary today, bidding to provide her esteemed owner-breeder with a seventh renewal and her trainer a sixth. Earning the monicker with a smooth winning debut over a mile in a conditions event Apr. 22, the bay has a similar profile to the same combination's 2010 heroine Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}). It almost goes without saying that Andre Fabre holds the record of wins in this race, with eight stretched over a period of 29 years, and he is double-handed this time. Kirsten Rausing's unbeaten Alumna (Mr. Greeley) limbered up for this test with a conditions score over the extended nine-furlong Prix d'Ispahan trip here last time Apr. 25, while her barnmate Artiste Divine (GB) (Peintre Celebre) earned her spot by taking a 10-furlong race at Chantilly four days later. The latter is a Wildenstein homebred daughter of their high-class Aquarelliste (Fr) (Danehill), and is open to much improvement. Carlos Laffon-Parias also saddles a duo headed by the Wertheimers' G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Silasol (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}), who had the re-opposing Parle Moi (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) two short heads behind in fourth when runner-up to the subsequent G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches runner-up Esoterique (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the G3 Prix Vanteaux over those extended nine furlongs here Apr. 28.

DREAM DESTINATION

Despite his admirable tally of big-race wins, Bruno Grizzetti is yet to garner glory in the G2 Oaks d'Italia, and it would be fitting if he could end the drought with one that carries the colors of his longstanding patrons in Scuderia Blueberry in today's renewal. Already successful in the G3 Premio Regina Elena at the Capannelle Apr. 28, the homebred Dancer Destination (GB) (Dubai Destination) tries to stretch her stamina a further three furlongs here for the notable Classic double achieved just 12 months ago by Cherry Collect (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}). Stefano Botti, who enjoyed a one-two-three in last Sunday's G2 Derby Italiano, puts forward Scuderia Effevi's unbeaten Charity Line (Ire) (Manduro {Ger}), and she offered no evidence of stamina deficiency when taking this track's Listed Premio Baggio over 10 furlongs last time May 5.

Interestingly, last week's Derby-winning rider Andrea Atzeni rides another Botti runner in Licia (Ity) (Singspiel {Ire}), who is one of the unexposed types and enters the equation off a convincing conditions score over 1 5/16 mile at the Capannelle last time May 5.

THE LAST-CHANCE SALOON

France's staying program offers the chance for those who fell just below the top standard over middle distances to shine in a new sphere, and one who fits that bill is Last Train (GB) (Rail Link {GB}), who lines up in today's G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier at Longchamp. Juddmonte's son of their Arc winner was initially sent down that path by Andre Fabre and, despite a second in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris over 12 furlongs here in July, he lacked the extra measure of pace required for the country's championship race. He signposted his claims in the marathon league when besting His Highness The Aga Khan's Verema (Fr) (Barathea {Ire}) in the G3 Prix de Barbeville over this track and trip last time Apr. 28 and could be bound for the G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot if he comes through this test. Penalized for his success in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak here in October, Les Beaufs (Fr) (Apsis {GB}) will have to up his game again following a disappointing fifth in the Barbeville last time.

HONING IN

Today's G3 Airlie Stud Gallinule S. was a favorite race of the late Dr. Vincent O'Brien, and although it seems incredible that the maestro's record of 15 wins is under threat, that is the case as the latest composer of the orchestra at Ballydoyle seeks his 12th today. Namesake Aidan has unleashed few of the stable's stars in this Irish Derby prep, but Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Leading Light (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) could yet live up to his name if his latest performance is a guide. Making all to score by seven lengths from the stakes performer Dabayani (Ire) (Shamardal) in a 10-furlong conditions event at Navan on his sophomore debut May 7, he had the re-opposing Fighter Squadron (Medaglia d'Oro) a further 2 1/4 lengths back in third in a striking display. Two colts already proven in black-type company are Neil Jones's Little White Cloud (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and Robert Ng's Sruthan (Ire) (Arakan). The former held his own against the big guns when third in Leopardstown's G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial a fortnight ago, while Sruthan impressed when annexing the Listed Tetrarch S. over seven furlongs at this circuit May 6.

JAPANESE PREVIEW

JUST THE TYPE FOR THE DERBY

The 2400 meters of today's G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) is uncharted territory for many of the country's sophomores, and therefore a field of 18 will line up in search of Classic glory. The top three finishers from the Apr. 14 G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas)--Logotype (Jpn) (Lohengrin {Jpn}), Epiphaneia (Jpn) (Symboli Kris S {Jpn}) and Codino (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) will face off once again here. Logotype kept a four-race win streak alive with his convincing Satsuki Sho victory, but the dark bay has never been farther than that race's 2000-meter distance. Connections have expressed confidence in the colt's ability to add this second jewel to his collection, however, with trainer Tsuyoshi Tanaka noting that his charge has recuperated well from his last outing. "I don't know if he's grown or become leaner but physically, he's improved dramatically," the trainer said. "He put all his weight back on in three days [after the Satsuki Sho]." Epiphaneia was making his first foray into Group 1 company in the Satsuki Sho, and performed admirably there to finish second. Codino, a dual Group 3 winner last term, finished second in the G1 Asahi Hai Futurity S. Dec. 16, and has collected a pair of thirds in two starts this year--the G2 Hochi Hai Yayoi Sho S. Mar. 3, and the Satsuki Sho. Arriving late on the Classic picture with a strong chance is Kizuna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), who proved his affinity for a route of ground when winning the G2 Kyoto Shimbun Hai May 4. Jockey Yutaka Take, who rode Kizuna's sire to victory in this race, says the colt is a lot like Deep Impact. "The way he won [the Shimbun Hai], he reminded me a lot of Deep Impact," Take said.

HONG KONG PREVIEW

‘MEMORY’ STRETCHING OUT

California Memory (Highest Honor {Fr}), two-time defending champion of the G1 Hong Kong Cup over the metric mile and a quarter, tries 2400 meters for the first time in his career in today’s Champions and Chater Cup, the final domestic Group 1 event of the racing season. “There’s a question about the step up to 2400 meters,” admitted trainer Tony Cruz. “But even though it’s a little bit longer than he’s ever been, I reckon he’ll run the distance.” The popular gray gelding suffered from an irregular heartbeat when last but one to Military Attack (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) in the Hong Kong Gold Cup Feb. 24, but bounced back to be second to the subsequent G1 SAI Cup hero in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup Apr. 28. “He wasn’t at his peak condition last time and he’ll be much better this time-- he’s really tuned up for this race,” Cruz added. “I’m very happy with the horse leading up to this race and I’m looking for a good performance from him.” Dominant (Ire) (Cacique {Ire}) looks to be the main danger as he makes his third start off an October layoff. Last of 10 in the Chairman’s Trophy going 1600 meters Apr. 7, he stretched back out to this distance to hand Wille Cazals (Ire) (Aussie Rules) a nose defeat under 131 pounds in the Queen Mother Memorial H. May 5.

BANOFFEE ADDED TO OAKS FIELD

Hughie Morrison yesterday paid the supplementary fee of £30,000 to add the unbeaten Banoffee (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) to Friday’s G1 Investec Oaks at Epsom. Successful in the Listed Cheshire Oaks last time May 8, Michael Kerr-Dineen and Lord Hambleton’s filly took the total of contenders to 12 for the Classic at the six-day stage. “She’s never been over-expressive in her work or movement and, as our grass gallops have not been up to scratch this year because of the weather, we have never tested how good she is at home,” Morrison said on Thursday. “She only ran two weeks ago at Chester, so we haven’t done too much with her since. I think that if you have a filly that wins one of the trials then you have to go for the Investec Oaks. It’s the most important race for fillies in this country. Kieren Fallon is available and keen to ride.” Ralph Beckett will have two runners on Friday in Newsells Park Stud’s impressive May 11 Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial scorer Secret Gesture (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and the May 5 Listed Pretty Polly S. winner Talent (GB) (New Approach {Ire}), while Sir Michael Stoute is set to saddle Ballymacoll Stud’s unbeaten May 15 G3 Musidora S. scorer Liber Nauticus (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}). Aidan O’Brien still has today’s G1 Irish 1,000 Guineas protagonist Snow Queen (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) engaged alongside the May 5 G1 1,000 Guineas third Moth (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and May 10 Cork maiden scorer Say (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

SALES NEWS

MAGIC MILLIONS SALE STARTS MONDAY

The Magic Millions National Sale begins Monday at the Gold Coast with the first of two sessions of the weanling sale, followed by the broodmare sale, with the Select Sessions on Wednesday and Thursday and concluding with the General Session on Friday. The catalogue has 23 group winners and 31 stakes winners with over 700 fillies and mares on offer in total.

Of major interest over the entire National Sale, from the Weanling Sale commencing on Monday through to the Racehorse Sale on June 7th will be the 470 lots as part of the continuing dispersal of Patinack Farm. Patinack Farm was built up since 2008 by coal entrepreneur Nathan Tinkler during boom times for the mineral, but downward market prices over the past two years placed considerable pressure on the financing of the large breeding and racing operations.

Estimates vary as to the amount that Tinkler, 37, spent building the overall operation that included stallions, mares, foals, racing stock, stud and training properties, but figures around $250 million are commonly used.

Tinkler sold his best racehorse, All Too Hard (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}), in January, to a group including Vinery Stud and Neil Werritt, co-owner of the stallion's half-sister champion sprint mare Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}).

All Too Hard, a multiple Group 1 winner, has been retired to stud at Vinery Stud. The deal was reputed to be worth $20 million, but it was not enough to prevent the further dispersal of bloodstock and horses in training.

Among the 470 lots from Patinack Farm are 110 broodmares and a number of race fillies, including Group 1 winners Nechita (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) (lot 590); Pear Tart (Aus) (Dehere) (lot 592) and Group 2 winner Longport (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}) (lot 589). All the lots will be offered unreserved.

Other lots from the Patinack Farm draft are stakes winners Kneeling (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) (lot 587), Pane in the Glass (Aus) (Testa Rossa {Aus}) (lot 591) and Real Stolle (Aus) (Elusive Quality) (lot 595).

Among the broodmares catalogued are Trewoman (GB) (Midyan) (lot 1003), dam of Group 1 winner Road to Rock (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) and in foal to Lope de Vega {Ire}); Maha Chakri (Aus) (Beautiful Crown) (lot 818), dam of stakes winner Whittington (Aus) (Tale of the Cat) and in foal to Trusting (Aus); and the unraced Endless (GB) (Sadler's Wells) (lot 706), a half-sister to the dam of superstar Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), who is in foal to Husson (Arg).

Patinack Farm sires Casino Prince (Aus), Husson, Murtajill (Aus) and Raheeb (Aus) are well represented with yearlings and weanlings in the sale as well as youngsters by More Than Ready, Medaglia d'Oro, Sebring (Aus), Bel Esprit (Aus), Big Brown, Testa Rossa (Aus), Manduro (Ger), Exceed and Excel (Aus), High Chaparral (Ire) and Stratum (Aus).

Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox said the Patinack Farm sale would be a highlight.

"It will be a great opportunity for prospective buyers with an outstanding line up of horses of all ages to go under the hammer," Cox said. "From proven stakes-winning fillies to beautifully bred weanlings and yearlings, the sale has a great cross section of stock. Without doubt, it will be the most significant racehorse sale ever held in Australia."

Cox continued, "The overall catalogue is truly outstanding with a first-class line up of fillies and mares. As well as the obvious stakes mares and proven producers, there are some brilliantly bred stock, including a half-sister to Pierro's dam in foal to Lonhro [lot 963] and a half-sister to the dam of world champion Frankel," he said.

DUFFY APPOINTED GM OF KILDANGAN STUD

Darley has announced that Gerry Duffy, a native of County Kildare in Ireland and a graduate of Darley Flying Start, has been appointed General Manager of its Kildangan Stud in Ireland.

Gerry Duffy

After graduating Darley Flying Start in 2007, Duffy, who also holds a Masters in Business Administration, spent almost five years working for the Darley America nominations team before taking up his current position of Stallion Seasons Director at WinStar Farm. As part of his role at Kildangan, Duffy will assist with the management of Darley's seven Irish farms, and will work with newly appointed Nominations

Manager Eamon Moloney to oversee the management of Darley's Irish stallion roster.

"We are very pleased that Gerry will be joining us," said Joe Osborne, Managing Director of Kildangan Stud. "He brings with him a great deal of experience given his nearly five years in our nominations team in Kentucky and current position at WinStar. Gerry's roots and time with us on Flying Start means he is familiar with Darley, our stallions, the Irish market and many of our clients. His experience combined with his business knowledge mean that he will make significant contribution to our management team."

Duffy added: "I am very thankful to the many people I have gotten to know here in Kentucky for their support in my roles at both Darley and WinStar. I am especially grateful to Elliott Walden for giving me the opportunity to be a part of the WinStar team and wish them the very best going forward. With that said, I am thrilled to be coming home to join the team at Darley in Ireland."

I'm a Kittyhawk was runner-up in her debut here Aug. 17 and came back to win last out going six furlongs May 5. Overlooked in her stakes debut, she stalked early from just off the rail, went wide on the turn to challenge the leader, and pulled ahead late under a steady drive. "I think there's more to come from her, she galloped out beautifully after the race," jockey David Moran said. "She's one to look forward to." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Run down late by Fast In the Wind (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) on debut over this track-and-trip Apr. 7, Coach House was off the mark by 6 1/2 lengths over the same distance at Tipperary May 2 and justified market support to get Ballydoyle off to a flyer in the juvenile category. Tracking Abbakova's fast early tempo in third early under a patient Joseph O'Brien, the bay worked his way past Club Wexford and to the front with a furlong remaining and drew away for a decisive score. "We thought he was a nice horse and he has speed enough for five, so he has all the options open to him at Royal Ascot," Aidan O'Brien commented. "Joseph said he showed lots of speed and that he even got there a bit early on him. He'll maybe get six or seven furlongs in time."

Weaving her way into a clear passage approaching the final furlong, the 33-1 outsider finished powerfully under a late drive to nail long-time leader Bye Bye Birdie (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) by a neck on the line. "She is very smart and has shown us plenty from the start at home," said winning trainer Michael Halford. "I thought she might need the run, but she has come to hand quickly. I do like her and she could go on to better things." Glassatura is a half to Kilmore Quay (Ire) (Traditionally), GSP-US, $107,517. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €10,350. HENRY AND DYLAN TO SHUTTLE TO CHILE

Coolmore has announced that both Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo--Sequoyah {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells) and Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill--Lagrion, by Diesis {GB}) will shuttle to Haras Don Alberto in Chile for the upcoming Southern Hemisphere breeding season. Following in the steps of Rock of Gibraltar (Ire), they will stand alongside another former Ballydoyle representative in Viscount Nelson as well as Fusaichi Pegasus. Henrythenavigator, who is the sire of the Pattern-race performers George Vancouver, Pedro the Great and Cristoforo Colombo from his first crop, had previously stood at the Australian branch of the operation.

SIR JOHN HAWKINS (Henrythenavigator) makes his debut for Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier and Aidan O'Brien and is a son of the stable's celebrated performer Peeping Fawn (Danehill). The second foal out of the G1 Irish and Yorkshire Oaks, Nassau S. and Pretty Polly S. heroine may be a slow starter if his dam is anything to go by, as she took four outings to break her maiden before her meteoric rise.

Shamalgan hit the board in the 2010 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and earned a stack of minor prizes in pattern-race company since that high, including a win in the 2011 G2 Oettingen-Rennen. He has dropped through the ranks and lined up for this off a conditions-race third going one mile here on seasonal return Apr. 12. Racing keenly in midfield halfway, he was roused along at the top of the two-furlong straight to challenge wide approaching the final eighth and was driven out from there to prevail in game fashion.
