JUST DESSERTS

So unlucky when third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains, Intello (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}) made amends with a straightforward success in yesterday's G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly to supply the Wertheimer brothers with a first win in this Classic and yet another day at the top of the sport. Sent off the 23-10 crowd's choice despite being drawn in 10, the bay was able to use the speed that got him into the places in the May 12 Longchamp contest to quickly gain a perfect stalking position in third under Olivier Peslier. As the pacemakers folded in early stretch, the

homebred shrugged off his stable companion and eventual third Sky Hunter (GB) (Motivator {GB}) with just over 300 meters remaining and was driven out to assert for a two-length success from the closer Morandi (Fr) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}). "He is a great horse and this is a great moment, as we have waited a very long time to win this since taking over from our father," Alain Wertheimer commented as he finally emulated the victory of Jacques' Val de l'Orne (Fr) in 1975. Cont. p3

ORB GETS GREEN LIGHT FOR BELMONT

G1 Kentucky Derby winner Orb (Malibu Moon) was given the go-ahead yesterday to start in next Saturday's G1 Belmont S. The colt, fourth in the G1 Preakness S., satisfied trainer Shug McGaughey with a half-mile work in :48.30 over Belmont Park's main track Sunday. Working in company with Grade I winner Hymn Book \(Arch\), Orb recorded his first quarter in :25.01 after an opening split of :13.05. After pulling away from Hymn Book in the final yards, Orb galloped out five furlongs in 1:00.48. "He hasn't missed a beat," McGaughey said. "Everything has been A-1 forward. If it wasn't, I wouldn't be standing here talking to you. I think the Belmont is a race that stands on its own and we would love to be able to compete in it and love to be able to have a good chance to win, and go from there." Cont. p8

Brought along steadily by Andre Fabre at two, Intello was restricted to a pair of mile conditions races at Longchamp in September and at Maisons-Laffitte the following month and emerged with a perfect record without being asked a serious question.

Intello strides away from the field
Racing Post

Interestingly, the homebred was sent to Newmarket for livelier ground than was prevalent in his native France for the nine-furlong Listed Feilden S. and he was again unextended to stretch his unbeaten tally Apr. 17. Despite the exploits of his stable's

Ocovango (GB) (Monsun {Ger}), Triple Threat (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}) and Tableaux (Giant's Causeway) in the country's main Derby trials, the vibes for Intello were strong and he underlined the impression that he was the best in the barn with his dramatic flourish from far behind in the Poulains. Whereas he lost a shoe and was struck into during that rough-house Classic, this experience proved a much happier one from the outset as he was guided to the head of what became the main field as the pacemaking duo Beyond Thankful (Ire) (Whipper) and Superplex (Fr) (Multiplex {GB}) were essentially ignored. Sky Hunter, who had shadowed him throughout, looked a real threat as Maxime Guyon loomed large on his outer with a quarter mile remaining, but as the pair got to work, it was soon clear that the favorite had his measure.

Establishing a clear advantage by the furlong pole, Intello was out of reach as Christophe Soumillon wound Morandi up for his effort and nothing from behind was able to get on terms. "That was a very good run. We knew he was a horse with plenty of speed, so I didn't want to take any chances," Peslier commented. "He traveled very well and once I asked him he jumped to it and won nicely." Andre Fabre was toying with the idea of bringing him back to a mile afterwards. "This was a really good winner of the French Derby and he has a lot of qualities--he has speed, he stays well, has a good turn of foot and a very good temperament," Fabre commented after celebrating his third renewal. "He was unlucky last time and has the pace to win over a mile, so although he might have a break and come back for an autumn campaign, there is the possibility that he could run in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois [at Deauville Aug. 11]."

Olivier Peslier celebrates
Racing Post

Morandi's owner Daniel-Yves Treves was heartened by the improved performance of the runner-up, who had failed to shine over a mile on two starts since his emphatic success in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud. "Hats off to the winner, as he is a very good horse and I am happy for my friends the Wertheimers," he said. "Our horse is back to his best and is definitely better at this distance--he could be better over a mile and a half, so we'll look forward to the rest of the season."

Unbeaten since his debut defeat at Longchamp last May, Now We Can earned a tilt at black-type with a six-length conditions win over 14 1/2 furlongs on his seasonal bow on the Polytrack here Mar. 22. Proving up to the test by annexing the Listed Prix Lord Seymour over this trip back at Longchamp Apr. 18, the bay continued his forward progression in this prestigious affair. Full of enthusiasm early as he tanked his way into second tracking Remus de la Tour, Now We Can eventually found an easy rhythm, but was caught flat-footed inside the final quarter as the long-time leader began the sprint to the line. Fighting hard in between that rival and Haya Landa, he gained the lead with 50 meters remaining and had his head down first among the five-horse blanket. "He is a very courageous horse who is a bit lazy in the mornings," trainer Nicolas Clement commented. "He stays very well and has improved with every run. The [June 23] G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud might come a bit soon and he has entries in German Group 1 races, which he might take up as his owner is German, but long-term the aim is the [Nov. 5] G1 Melbourne Cup."

Establishing himself among the better sprinters in Europe last term when runner-up in Goodwood's G2 King George S. and the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York in August, Spirit Quartz had not fired on all cylinders so far this season when fifth in both the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket May 4 and the G2 Temple S. at Haydock three weeks later. Showing bright early speed from his wide berth to stalk the trail-blazing Hamish McGonagall (GB) (Namid {GB}) just off the rail, the bay took over on the bridle at halfway and kept enough in reserve to hold the strong-finishing Catcall. "He didn't quite run his race last time, but bounced back today and will run in the G1 King's Stand S. [at Royal Ascot June 18] next," trainer Robert Cowell said. "Longer-term, we'd like to come back for the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 6] as the ground was too soft for him last year and it came at the end of a long season."

This race contained many of the best 3-year-old miling fillies in France and Peace Burg was the freshest coming here on the back of a 59-day break following her fourth in the G3 Prix Imprudence over seven furlongs at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 4. Last term she had advertised her class for trainer Jacques Heloury when beating the subsequent Group 1 performer Alterite (Fr) (Literato {Fr}) in a conditions event over 7 1/2 furlongs at Deauville in August before annexing the G3 Prix d'Aumale over this track and trip the following month. She was a touch unlucky when fifth in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp on Arc day, but appeared to have no excuses on her first start for the Jean-Claude Rouget stable when fourth to What a Name (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) in the Imprudence.

Keen early towards the fore, the bay settled in third for Christophe Soumillon after that favored rival had tugged her way to the front. Taking over approaching the furlong pole, she had made the decisive move there as the strong closer Topaze Blanche ran out of time with her challenge. "After her first run I passed on the [G1] Poule d'Essai des Pouliches in order to target this race and I am very happy it worked out," Rouget said. "She is a fighter, as I think a mile is as far as she wants to go and she had to really dig deep to hold on. I love this kind of horse and there may be better to come. I could shorten her up or stay at a mile and take her to Deauville for the [July 28] G1 Prix Rothschild." Topaze Blanche's chance was undone again by the tepid tempo and her trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias was philosophical afterwards. "We feared beforehand that there would be a lack of pace and unfortunately that is exactly what happened," he commented.

Seemingly exposed entering this test, the well-regarded Eleuthera had proven black-type form and this breakthrough success was not the upset the tote returns suggested. Fourth in the Listed Prix Rose de Mai over 10 furlongs at Saint-Cloud Mar. 16, the chestnut was the chief victim of the interference caused by Orion Love that resulted in her being promoted a place from fifth in that venue's G3 Prix Penelope over another 100 meters a month later. On her third visit to that track for the May 15 G3 Prix Cleopatre, she was third to Baltic Baroness (Ger) (Shamardal) and came here to settle old scores with the filly that had cost her in the Penelope. Settled with only one behind early by the little-known Eddy Hardouin, she was traveling best of all early in the stretch and delivered a sustained surge to overhaul Orion Love with 150 meters remaining. "This was not a surprise to me at all, as I always believed in her," trainer Philippe Demercastel explained. "I knew a mile and a half would suit her well and she goes on any ground. Her jockey is not yet among the top riders in France, but will be soon. All being well, she will go for the G2 Prix de Malleret [at Saint-Cloud June 23]."

Stephen Young's S A Y Racing and trainer Paul Aguirre claimed Tiz a Minister for $40,000 out of a runner-up effort at Del Mar last August. The Cal-bred graduated four starts later in November and added the California Breeders' Champion S. in January before taking his chance at a Kentucky Derby berth with a third-place effort in the Mar. 9 GII San Felipe S. and a fourth-place finish in the Apr. 6 GI Santa Anita Derby. He was sidelined after a third-place finish in the Apr. 27 Snow Chief S., but came back running Sunday. Unhurried out of the gate, Tiz a Minister was soon trailing the field as Manando took charge into the first turn. Manando tugged his way through fractions of :23.36 and :46.74 with Tiz a Minister some 15 lengths back in last. The pacesetting favorite opened a clear lead turning for home, but began to shorten stride and stablemate Den's Legacy looked the main threat, but Tiz a Minister closed powerfully along the rail and spurted clear. "If they give him an opportunity, he'll take it," Aguirre, who was winning his first graded stakes since Coconut Girl won the GIII Desert Stormer H. in 2004, said. "When he was turning for home, I thought we could hit the board. And then at the sixteenth, I was thinking he might get there. I told [Corey Nakatani] that was a great Calvin Borel imitation." Nakatani added, "As good as he was moving, I had them in my sights and all they had to do was come back to him a little bit. I knew he was going to put in a tremendous run like he's been doing in the morning." As for what is next, Aguirre added, "I've always had the opinion that he's a middle distance horse, but we'll absolutely consider the [July 4 GII] Swaps S. if everything goes right." Young, who lives in Monrovia, is half-owner of the Baldwin Park-based recycling business Allan Company.

Laugh Track, a maiden winner over this track last August, ended 2012 with a Woodbine allowance tally Oct. 14 and returned with a 1 1/4-length Keeneland allowance victory Apr. 5. He was fifth, promoted to fourth via disqualification, while making his stakes debut in the May 3 GII Alysheba S. at Churchill Downs. Laugh Track chased pacesetting favorite Essence Hit Man through an opening quarter in :23.17 and a half in :45.02. He challenged the favorite on the turn, but Essence Hit Man skipped clear in upper stretch. Undaunted, Laugh Track battled back to just overtake the favorite in the shadow of the wire. "I just wanted to stay where the horse wants to be and be patient," said winning rider Luis Contreras. "[Essence Hit Man] moved a little early at the quarter pole and that gave me the opportunity to close at the end."

Lord Kanaloe, Japan's reigning Champion Sprinter/Miler and winner of last year's G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint, extended his win streak to five while collecting yet another coveted prize here. Remarkably consistent, Lord Kanaloe has yet to finish off the board in 15 starts, and he recorded his first victory at the highest level in last September's G1 Sprinters S. going six furlongs at Nakayama. In his first venture outside his native country for the Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin Dec. 9, the bay was simply too good for his 11 international rivals, sitting off the pace before blitzing the opposition by 2 1/2 widening lengths. The 5-year-old returned to action with a victory in the G3 Hankyu Hai Feb. 24, and most recently swept the G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen Mar. 24. Favored for this extended mile trip, Lord Kanaloe broke with the leaders before dropping back to travel midfield. Hung wide around the turn, he hit the lead in the center of the track inside the final sixteenth in a perfectly timed move by jockey Yasunari Iwata and held off a fast-finishing Shonan Mighty for the victory. "My horse drifted out at one point and I would have liked to give a clean ride, but I couldn't risk his losing momentum as he tends to get a little lost when he leads on his own," said Iwata, who won this race in 2007 aboard Vodka (Jpn). "He had plenty in the tank and stretched even more in the last strides. He's a world champion in sprint races and the fall season will give him the chance to prove that he's also a champion over a mile." Trainer Yasuda Takayuki noted that Lord Kanaloe's targets this year will include a title defense in the Sprinters S., a tilt at the G1 Mile Championship and a return trip to Hong Kong, where he could attempt either the Sprint or Mile.

PLETCHER BELMONT CONTENDERS WORK

All five potential GI Belmont S. contenders from the Todd Pletcher barn worked yesterday in Elmont. While Overanalyze (Dixie Union), Palace Malice (Curlin) and Revolutionary (War Pass) are confirmed for the 1 1/2-mile Classic, the Mike Repole-owned duo of Unlimited Budget (Street Sense) and Midnight Taboo (Langfuhr) remain on the fence. Unlimited Budget, coming off a third-place effort in the GI Kentucky Oaks, worked a bullet half-mile in :47.55 in company with Capo Bastone (Street Boss). "She worked well, really well," Pletcher said. "I thought she was full of run throughout and finished up strongly and galloped out well, and seemed to cool out well. It wasn't so much about who she was with, it was trying to execute the work properly. The biggest difference was with her on the outside today, she seemed to get over the ground well." Pletcher said the filly was "80-90%" certain to run in the Belmont. Midnight Taboo, a maiden winner at Aqueduct in April and coming off a runner-up effort in a May 8 optional claimer, went five furlongs Sunday morning in 1:00.88 and is "50-50" to run, according to Pletcher. "Basically, [Repole] is holding the cards in terms of how many we end up running," said Pletcher. "With Midnight Taboo, the Easy Goer S. is an option that day. It's just a matter of how aggressive Mike wants to be, and take a shot with a horse that's lightly raced, but has some talent. It would be asking lot for him to win the Belmont in his fourth start, but stranger things have happened."

Unlimited Budget
A Coglinese

Dogwood Stable's Palace Malice went four furlongs in :47.56, Repole's Overanalyze went in :48.01 and WinStar Farm's Revolutionary worked in :48.51. "I thought we had a very good morning," Pletcher said. "All the horses seemed to work pretty well; they were all almost mirror images of each other. I can't say that one stood out from the others."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Incognito on Track

Incognito (A.P. Indy), who will carry Godolphin's colors for the first time in Saturday's G1 Belmont S., tuned up for the Classic with a four-furlong breeze in company in :48.25 under jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr. "He galloped out well and worked with a nice horse, Irsaal (More Than Ready)," said McLaughlin. "He basically hasn't missed any days of training or racing all year. We weren't there to get him fit. Just what we wanted." Incognito is coming off a fifth-place effort in the May 11 GII Peter Pan S. Irsaal beat Midnight Taboo in a May 8 optional claimer.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

TIME OFF FOR DAWN APPROACH

Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford yesterday ruled out a quick return for Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) after Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby flop. Sent off the 5-4 favorite for the blue riband, the previously unbeaten G1 2,000 Guineas hero pulled hard throughout the first mile and eventually trailed in last. Reflecting on the deflating experience, he told the Racing Post, "I think something happened when he came out of the gates which set him alight. I've seen a picture of Kevin Manning sitting very awkwardly as he jumped out as if he banged his iron or something. Something set him alight and we think that's what it might have been. But once he got set alight that was it, the race was over. It's back to the drawing board. He'll need some time now."

PENN MILE CARD SETS RECORDS

Saturday night's card at Penn National, featuring the inaugural running of the $500,000 Penn Mile, smashed the track's handle records. All-sources wagering on the Penn Mile was $1,139,478, obliterating the previous one-race record of $377,365 set in 2009. Total all-sources wagering on the entire 10-race card was $3,658,996, besting the previous all-sources handle record for a single card of $2,173,921, which was set in 1998. On-track wagering on the Penn National card was a record $225,136. "On every possible level, [Saturday night] was a huge success," said Dan Silver, director of racing operations at Hollywood Casino at Penn National Race Course. "The racing department here—including racing secretary Dave Bailey, stakes coordinator Craig Lytel, and assistant racing secretary Jenny Bowman—put together the best card in the history of Penn National Race Course, and it was great to see people on track and around the country respond so enthusiastically. We're thankful for the strong support demonstrated for our races by the horsemen and it was exciting to see so many tremendous stakes performances tonight, highlighted by Rydilluc's thrilling win in the first ever Penn Mile. The on-track atmosphere was electric, and we are thrilled that so many fans came to the track to enjoy a terrific night of racing."

MORE JOYOUS RETIRED; TO VISIT FRANKEL

Eight-time Australian Group 1 winner More Joyous (NZ) (More Than Ready--Sunday Joy {Aus}, by Sunday Silence) has been retired from racing and will visit Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in September to be covered on Southern Hemisphere time, according to published reports. Now a 6-year-old, More Joyous, bred and campaigned by John Singleton and trained by Gai Waterhouse, established herself as one of the greatest mares ever to grace the Australian turf. She recorded her first Group 1 victory as a 3-year-old in the G1 Flight S., and later added such coveted titles as the G1 Futurity S., Canterbury S., Doncaster Mile, Queen Elizabeth S. and George Main S. The dark bay won at a variety of distances between 1100 and 2000 meters. She retired with 21 wins from 33 starts and earnings of A$4,592,450 (US$4,395,910).

"She has nothing left to prove on the track," Duncan Grimley, racing manager for Singleton, told Fox Sports. "She has been a great mare for us and we don't want to go over the top with her." Grimley noted that More Joyous would travel to England with stablemate and multiple Group 2 winner More Strawberries (Aus) (More Than Ready--Milva, by Strawberry Road), who will also be served by Frankel.

"The plan is to then bring More Joyous and More Strawberries home around January or February so they can have their foals at Strawberry Hills Stud later next year," Grimley explained. "It would be ideal if both mares can produce fillies by Frankel. More Joyous is special to John because not only did he breed her to win eight Group 1 races and 20 stakes races, which is phenomenal, but he also raced her mother, Sunday Joy. We have everything else in the family and when you start breeding horses you dream of getting one as good as More Joyous."

TROPHY WIFE (f, 4, Giant's Causeway--Pleasant Home {GISW, $1,378,070}, by Seeking the Gold), who broke her maiden in the mud here last June, came back two starts later to add another win on the Saratoga sod in August. Sixth in the nine-furlong GI Garden City S. the following month, the homebred rounded out the season with a runner-up finish in a Keeneland allowance Oct. 7. This term, she tired in the late stages to be second at Churchill Downs Apr. 20 and was given a 3-1 chance to go one better this time. The dark bay broke evenly and settled in a stalking position between horses through an opening quarter in :23.25. Moving well in the three path down the backstretch, she was asked for more turning for home, split rivals late and nailed pacesetter Free as a Bird (Hard Spun) in the final strides to eke out a nose victory. JUVENILE LEAD (IRE) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) takes up the distinguished role of being the first representative of his brilliant sire to hit the track. Intriguingly, Sir Michael Stoute has opted for a sprint trip to start off Ballymacoll Stud's stoutly bred half-brother to that operation's pattern-race performers Eleanora Duse (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) and Scottish Stage (Ire) (Selkirk), so he has obviously been showing pace at home.

Successful in a Mar. 17 conditions event at Rome, Clorofilla stepped up to run second in the G3 Premio Carlo Chiesa back at the Capanelle Apr. 14, and was a brave third in the G3 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) there once more last time Apr. 28. Jumping straight to the front after a sharp getaway in this step down to seven panels, she was last off the bridle inside the final quarter mile and required negligible coaxing in the latter stages to easily claim a first black-type rosette.

First Winner for Freshman Sire

Milan, 15.35, Mdn, €13,500, unraced 2yo, c/g, 7fT, 1:29.00, gd.

+ DRESS DRIVE (IRE) (c, 2, Yeats {Ire}--Diagon Alley {Fr}, by Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), sent postward as a 12-1 shot, raced a little keenly in second through the early strides of this first go. Taking over with two furlongs to race, the €7,000 ITYSEP yearling was punched out to notch a comfortable two-length score from Inasa (Ire) (Orpen). She becomes the first winner as the first starter for her freshman sire (by Sadler's Wells). VIDEO. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €6,375.

AustralasiaPHILIPPI SOLD TO HONG KONG

In a deal brokered by Dermot Farrington and Chris McNulty, Group 1 performer Philippi (Aus) (Host {Chi}) has been sold to race in Hong Kong. Bred and raced by Rick Jamieson's Gilgai Farm--the breeder of Black Caviar (Aus) and All Too Hard (Aus)--the 3-year-old former Michael Kent trainee won the G2 Tulloch S. at Rosehill Apr. 6 before finishing second in the G1 Australian Derby at Randwick a week later. "It's rare to find a horse that looks as good as this fellow," said Farrington. "He was a paddock mate of All Too Hard as a yearling and we always rated him an equal on conformation, a long way ahead of the rest."
