

‘CENTER’ OF ATTENTION

Belmont Stakes week officially kicked off with the traditional Media Luncheon held in Rockefeller Center in Manhattan Tuesday afternoon.

Shug McGaughey

Hall of Fame trainer Shug McGaughey was the first to head to the podium to discuss Saturday’s main event with NYRA’s Andy Serling after a replay of the GI Kentucky Derby stretch run played on a pair of in-house monitors.

How many times has McGaughey watched the video of his first Derby win?

“That was the first time,” McGaughey joked, getting a good rise out of the crowd, including celebrity chef and NYRA Board Member Bobby Flay.

As he’s been asked to do throughout the Triple Crown trail, McGaughey recalled the unforgettable rivalry between Easy Goer and Sunday Silence in 1989, and Orb (Malibu Moon)’s somewhat unexpected rise to the top of the division earlier this spring.

“Easy Goer was a precocious 2-year-old champion, and Orb didn’t really starting showing us anything like that until probably Jan. 1, and he just kept improving as time went along,” McGaughey commented.

As for the task at hand this weekend following a disappointing performance in the GI Preakness S., McGaughey continued of the Phipps Stable/Stuart S. Janney III colorbearer, “Anytime you have a come-from-the-back horse, you’d like to see a solid pace. In a 1 1/2-mile race at Belmont Park, the rider is really going to have to be able to read the race. You turn down that backside at Belmont Park--it’s not like Churchill Downs or anywhere else. You’ve got a long way to go, and you better be patient. If not, it’ll get you.”

McGaughey concluded by paying the ultimate tribute to his staff, including Orb’s exercise rider Jennifer Patterson.

“Everybody at the barn has had my back,” McGaughey said proudly. “I don’t think I’d be standing up here today if it weren’t for her.”

Hall of Famers D. Wayne Lukas and Gary Stevens were next up to bat. The duo last shared the stage in Pimlico’s winner’s circle courtesy Calumet Farm’s Oxbow

MANDURO FILLY TOPS MM YEARLINGS

A well-related filly by Manduro (Ger) from the Patinack Farm reduction realized a final bid of A$500,000 (US$481,845) to top the first session of the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale Tuesday on the Gold Coast. Catalogued as lot 1529, the Oct. 14 foal is a daughter of Endless (GB) (Sadler’s Wells), a half-sister to MGI/GISW Powerscourt (GB) and half-sister to the dam of undefeated champion Frankel (GB). (Galileo {Ire}). Endless was part of the Patinack reduction as well and was sold at last week’s National Broodmare Sale to Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa al Maktoum for A$1.05 million. Patinack had acquired Endless for 105,000gns as a horse in training at Tattersalls December in 2009, then bred her to Manduro on Southern Hemisphere time in late 2010. Lot 1529 is her first foal. Magic Millions signed the winning ticket on lot 1529 on behalf of an undisclosed buyer. The session’s second most-expensive youngster, lot 1497, also emerged from the Patinack reduction. A daughter of More Than Ready, the Sept. 9 foal is a daughter of the stakes-winning Danehill Smile (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and is bred on the same cross as Group 1 winners Sebring (Aus) (champion), Perfectly Ready (Aus) and Dreamaway (Aus). Magic Millions signed the winning ticket for lot 1497 as well on a bid of A$280,000 (US$269,552). Cont. p8

At the Belmont Stakes...

...with Steve Sherack

"I didn't look at it as redemption," Lukas commented. "I was a lot happier for Gary than I was for myself." Lukas now stands alone as the all-time winning trainer in Triple Crown history with 14 victories. Oxbow became his first Classic winner since Commendable (Gone West) upset the 2000 Belmont.

"I got congratulatory messages from everybody but NYRA and NBC," Lukas quipped. "We've got a chance for two out of three; Meat Loaf had a pretty good song about that."

Stevens reflected on a phone call that he received from Lukas back in January regarding Oxbow and his potential as a Derby horse just as he was beginning his monumental comeback to the saddle.

"He's always been a huge supporter of mine and we've got a lot of confidence in each other," Stevens said of his relationship with the Coach. "After all these years--I've been away for seven years--why am I getting this phone call? It was pretty cool."

Stevens continued, "Oxbow took two steps forward that day [in the Preakness]. He reminds me a lot of a horse that surprised me back in 1995, [Derby/Belmont winner] Thunder Gulch."

West Point Thoroughbreds, St. Elias Stable and Spendthrift Farm LLC's Freedom Child (Malibu Moon) seeks to become the first GII Peter Pan S./Belmont hero since A.P. Indy pulled off the feat in 1992. West Point head Terry Finley was quick to pay homage to Dogwood Stable's Cot Campbell and his key role in creating horse racing partnerships.

"We have eight partners on Freedom Child, and every one of them owns this horse," Finley said. "In other words, when they're at church or in the office, they're talking about their horse, and it spreads around. They're on Twitter and Facebook, and they bring their family and friends to the track, and they bet, eat, etc. They really make it a good experience. I'm very thankful to Cot Campbell for inventing the partnership back in the late '60s. I think we all owe him a debt of gratitude."

Vyjack Tunes Up for Belmont S...

Pick Six Racing's Vyjack (Into Mischief) put in his final work before Saturday's GI Belmont S. with trainer Rudy Rodriguez aboard (video). The GI Jerome S. and GI Gotham S. winner went five furlongs in :59.00. The bay was scheduled to breeze Monday, but due to heavy rain the work was postponed until Tuesday. "I just wanted him to work the right way, and he did what we asked him to do," Rodriguez said. "I was happy with the way he did it, nice and comfortable. He looked good, and he seemed happy. He looks like he came back good, not blowing or anything. Beautiful. He looked like he handled the track better than Churchill [when 18th in the GI Kentucky Derby]. He looked a lot more smooth. Over there, he changed leads a couple times, but that track was a little hard for him. He's doing great. Now, we have to hope he brings his 'A' game.

"He's got very, very good energy," Rodriguez continued. "Yesterday, we tried to graze him a little bit and he was bucking and kicking. He's been very happy. Maybe he likes Belmont. I hope so."

Giant Finish Puts in Final Work...

Giant Finish (Frost Giant) covered four panels in :49.04 under Hall of Fame jockey Edgar Prado at Big Sandy Tuesday morning in his last work before Saturday's Classic (video). "He did it nice and easy to the pole, and I let him out a little bit," said Prado. "He got over the track well and finished up good. It was really a maintenance work."

Home Field Advantage Could Help Orb...

GI Kentucky Derby winner Orb (Malibu Moon) continues to re-establish himself well at this home track of Belmont Park this week, according to trainer Shug McGaughey. Since the bay breezed four panels in :48.30 over the track on Sunday he has continued to settle in well. "I think it's got to be a lot more comfortable than shipping to Kentucky or to Maryland," said McGaughey. "From here, all he has to do is walk from here [the barn] to there [the track]. He walks through the paddock every morning and trains over the racetrack every day, which he did as a 2-year-old and 3-year-old, except when we were in Florida. He's been here for three weeks, and I think it has to be a help not only mentally but being familiar with the footing as well. He's done well here and trained well here." cont. p5

McGaughey believes the home-field advantage will not just effect Orb, but jockey Joel Rosario and himself, as well.

“Some jockeys don’t ride here on a regular basis and they might not be as familiar with what’s going on,” McGaughey explained. “When they turn down that backstretch, they’ve got a long way to go. A lot of them, I think, will move a little early.

“As long as I’ve been up here, I understand my surroundings and I understand Belmont Park,” he added, “and I think Rosario is going to be the same way.”

When asked about the distance question, McGaughey seemed quite confident that the 1 1/2-mile race shouldn’t pose a problem for Orb. “He’s by Malibu Moon, who’s by A.P. Indy, who would run a distance of ground and gets horses who run a distance of ground,” answered McGaughey. “He’s out of a deep female family that’s all bred for go long on the dirt. He’ll run all day, and I don’t think that’s going to be a problem.”

Oxbow, Will Take Charge Arrive in Elmont...

GI Preakness S. hero Oxbow (Awesome Again) and stablemate Will Take Charge (Unbridled’s Song), who are set to start in the GI Belmont S. and Optimizer (English Channel), who will run in Saturday’s GI Woodford Reserve Manhattan S., arrived at Belmont Park Monday evening. “Everything was fine,” said Hall of Fame conditioner D. Wayne Lukas said of the ship. “They trained well, had good energy this morning. Everything was in good order. They just jogged. They’ll gallop this week. Everything’s done now. Just keep them happy.”

“He’s a tough little horse,” Lukas said of Oxbow. “The Preakness took nothing out of him. He’s full of himself. He’ll be tough again.”

Freedom Child Gallops...

Freedom Child (Malibu Moon), winner of the GII Peter Pan S., galloped over the Belmont track Tuesday morning. The West Point colorbearer is ready for a start in Saturday’s GI Belmont S., according to conditioner Tom Albertrani. “It was just an uneventful jog and gallop, his normal routine,” Albertrani said. “He jogged back to the three-quarter pole, turned around and galloped a mile and a half. It went well. He couldn’t be better. He’s in great condition, and he’s giving us all the right signals. Now, we just have to lead him over there.”

All's Well in the Pletcher Barn...

Todd Pletcher's Belmont quintet of Midnight Taboo (Langfuhr), Overanalyze (Dixie Union), Palace Malice (Curlin), Revolutionary (War Pass) and Unlimited Budget (Street Sense) walked the shedrow Tuesday morning. "They all went to the gate yesterday, so there wasn't a lot of action around here," said Michael McCarthy, Pletcher's assistant. Three of those possible starters--Midnight Taboo, Overanalyze and Unlimited Budget--are owned by Mike Repole. "Midnight Taboo was talented as a 2-year-old [when runner-up in a Saratoga maiden special weight in August] before he went back to the farm," the Queens native said of his decision to run Langfuhr colt. "He won his first race back [at Aqueduct Apr. 6], and he was a really good second in his next race [going 1 1/16 miles in a Belmont optional claimer May 8], a race he was never going to win. I think he would have won the Easy Goer [on the Belmont undercard], but you get one chance in your life to run in the Belmont S., and he's getting his chance." Jockey Garret Gomez will get the ride about Midnight Taboo.

Overanalyze, who finished 11th in the Kentucky Derby, will have jockey Johnny Velazquez in the irons come Saturday. "Overanalyze is a Grade I winner, and he beat Oxbow by 5 1/4 lengths in the [GI] Arkansas Derby [at Oaklawn Park Apr. 13]," said Repole. "He ran a sneaky-good race in the Kentucky Derby where he was shuffled back but ran on, and I don't think he loved the track."

Pilot Rosie Napravnik, who will get aboard Unlimited Budget on Saturday, said that "It's exciting," as a female rider of the filly. "I think it's great to bring some attention to the sport. She's a big, strong filly, and obviously she's been training well [firing a four-furlong bullet in :47.55 at Belmont Sunday]. With a big field, it's going to be a tough race for everyone. But I don't think [she will be intimidated]--she looks more like a colt. Plus, she can sit close to the pace, or close into it."

Always in a Tiz to Easy Goer S...

The Dominick Schettino-trained Always in a Tiz (Tiznow) will be sent to the Easy Goer S. on the Belmont S. Day undercard instead of the GI Belmont S. Radio host Steve Byk was ready to interview Schettino to ask about the colt, but he begged off, saying that he and his owners were going to discuss whether to run or not. By mid-afternoon, the decision had been made.

Tuscany, Travers and Tickets to the Tony Awards up for Auction at Belmont Stakes Charity Celebration...

Thursday's Belmont Stakes Charity Celebration, featuring "The Foods of Bobby Flay," will feature not only gourmet fare at Bar Americain in New York City but also a host of unique auction items.

The Belmont Stakes Charity Celebration benefits the Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation, which is the nation's leading source of private equine research funding and helps all breeds of horses, and the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation (TRF), which is the largest equine sanctuary in the world and is devoted to the rescue, retirement, rehabilitation and retraining of Thoroughbreds.

Among the items to be auctioned off will be stallion seasons to Animal Kingdom, Ghostzapper, Kitten's Joy and Mineshaft, and travel experiences to the American Music Awards in Los Angeles, the Tony Awards in New York City, a Breeders' Cup Extravaganza package including private round-trip jet travel to Southern California, a one-week dream vacation in a villa in Tuscany, and a Travers Weekend Spectacular in Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

"These items offer opportunities that attendees at our event may not otherwise get to experience," said Ed Bowen, president of the Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation. "More importantly, the winning bids will benefit two worthwhile charities in the Thoroughbred industry."

"Equine retirement is extremely important to me, and I think everyone involved in the Thoroughbred industry bears some responsibility for the well-being of horses," said Flay. "Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation and the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation are both terrific equine charities and I'm proud to support them through this event."

Flay has also created a special drink called Bobby's Belmont Tea, which contains gin, iced tea, white peach puree, agave syrup, lemon, and mint. A special refillable cup of the cocktail will be available with a $500 donation (also benefitting the TRF and Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation). At the end of the night, the refillable cup can be exchanged for a pair of lead-glass crystal glasses signed by Flay.

Bar Americain is located at 152 W. 52nd Street between Sixth and Seventh Avenues in New York City. Tickets for the charity celebration are priced at $400 per person and can be purchased here. Flay to Receive Earle Mack Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation Champion Award...

Also on Thursday night, chef and racehorse owner Bobby Flay will receive the Earle I. Mack Thoroughbred Champion Award, annually given to an individual for outstanding efforts and influence on Thoroughbred racehorse welfare, safety and retirement.

Flay has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for Thoroughbred retirement, primarily through the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation. In 2008, after donating unique experiences centered around his food or restaurants to TRF auctions for many years, he served as the chef for a TRF fundraiser that raised over $300,000 in ticket sales alone. He is an outspoken proponent of owner responsibility to their horses, and has repurchased and retired several of his own homebreds and former racehorses to guarantee them a permanent lifetime home.

Flay follows in the footsteps of Ogden Mills Phipps (2012) and Frank Stronach (2011) as recipients of the award.

The award is an original sculpture by one of the world's most sought-after equine sculptors, the UK-based Nic Fiddian-Green. Fiddian-Green, who works primarily in bronze and in beaten lead, held his first exhibition in 1986, and has since been in demand by galleries and collectors alike: his work is now shown regularly in London, New York and Australia. He is best-known for his massive, classically inspired equine heads which are exhibited and installed around the world.

Mack said that the choice of Flay as the recipient was a fitting one. "The award suits him," said Mack. "It's a true original, just like he is."

The day's top-priced colt is off to Hong Kong after trainer Manfred Man signed the winning ticket at A$160,000 (US$154,112) on lot 1462. Consigned by Coolmore Australia, the bay is a son of Tale of the Cat and the first living foal out of Casino Snip (Aus) (High Rolling {Aus}), a half-sister to Sort It Out (Aus) (Rancho Ruler {Aus}). A total of 165 horses changed hands for gross receipts of A$6,565,500 (US$6,324,165). Though the average price was A$39,791 (US$38,331) represented a gain of 18.3%, Magic Millions' Managing Director Vin Cox said it was tough sledding. "It was a very patchy market," he reported. "There were plenty of good sales but vendors must realise the market is what it is. There's plenty of people here to participate and we look forward to the realignment of the market tomorrow," Cox added. For full results, visit www.magicmillions.com.au.

APPLEBY SET TO TAKE OVER AT MOULTON

Mahmood Al Zarooni's former assistant Charlie Appleby was yesterday named as the intended trainer of the horses at Godolphin's Moulton Paddocks as the operation seek a long-term solution to the crisis left by their disgraced former conditioner. On the day that the yard sent out its first runners since the scandal unfolded five weeks ago, it was announced that the moves to establish the long-serving Appleby as the licence holder are in place. "It's impossible for Saeed to train so many, so Sheikh Mohammed would like Charlie Appleby to step in while he considers what arrangements he makes long-term," Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford told The Daily Telegraph. Appleby, who has worked under David Loder and as senior head groom for Saeed bin Suroor, has begun an official training course at the British Racing School yesterday as he pursues a licence from the British Horseracing Authority.

BUTLER SET TO BE CHARGED OVER SUNGATE

Newmarket trainer Gerard Butler is likely be charged for the use of the drug "Sungate", which contains the banned steroid stanozolol, the British Horseracing Authority announced yesterday. While the circumstances surrounding the administering of the substance differ from those involving Mahmood Al Zarooni, the ruling body has outlined the likelihood of action against the conditioner as part of a wide-ranging investigation into its use across the town. Used to treat the joints of one of his subsequent runners and winners Little Black Book (Ire) (Shamardal) as well as other horses under his care on veterinary advice, the substance had not been picked up on by the BHA initially despite being entered in official medical records. It was only after the regulator had performed a series of tests at his stables in February that the trainer began to fear the consequences of the action. A statement from the BHA read yesterday, "The BHA can confirm it is likely that charges will be brought against Gerard Butler within the next few days. Further to our update on May 17, the wider investigation into the use of Sungate in other yards continues. The BHA is currently gathering all relevant information in order to establish the extent of the use of the product, which has included interviews with several trainers. This information will determine how we will proceed with this investigation."

Sheikh Joaan Buys Vendome...

Sheikh Joaan Al Thani has purchased the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero Style Vendome (Fr) (Anabaa), it was revealed yesterday. Having carried the colors of Andre de Ganay to glory in the Longchamp mile Classic May 12, the Nicolas Clement trainee will now join the likes of Olympic Glory (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) and Toronado (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in representing the son of the Emir of Qatar. Sheikh Joaan's bloodstock consultant Nicolas de Watrigant, who confirmed the June 30 G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly as the intended next start for the colt, told the Racing Post, "The horse has been bought by Sheikh Joaan Al Thani and he will stay with Nicolas Clement. The [French] 2,000 Guineas was a great race and was confirmed with Intello (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}) winning the French Derby. He is an exciting prospect and I think there's more to come with him. It's a good investment for him and maybe the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois [at Deauville Aug. 11] is an option later in the season."

Bolger Pair on Easy List...

Jim Bolger yesterday gave the lowdown on his two weekend Derby flops Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) and Loch Garman (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), with both colts expected to be out of action for the immediate future. Godolphin's G1 2000 Guineas winner dropped to last of the dozen in Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby after running too free, while his G1 Criterion International winner Loch Garman trailed in 10th in Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly. "Dawn Approach collided with another horse jumping out of the stalls and that seemed to set him alight," he told the Racing Post yesterday. "You wouldn't expect something like that to happen to a horse who had raced seven times before Saturday, but it did and that's why he refused to settle and didn't run his race. He definitely won't be going to Ascot and we'll wait a while and give him time before running him again. He's in the G1 Sussex S. [at Goodwood July 31], but there are no plans as such at this stage other than that he will be dropping back in distance. Loch Garman was struck into early in the race and suffered a fair bit of damage behind. He won't be seen out again for some time. He was sutured at the racecourse and was very sore this morning."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Lucky Nine to Race in Melbourne...

Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), last-out winner of the G1 KrisFlyer International Sprint at Singapore's Kranji Racecourse May 19, is set to be campaigned in Australia this fall, according to the South China Morning Post. The gelding, who has previously spent part of his early season in Japan over the past two years, will instead be sent to Melbourne for a two races. "He will go to the [G1] Manikato S. at Moonee Valley Oct. 26, and then on to the straight six at Flemington Nov. 9 [G1 Patinack Farm Classic]--and there will still be time to come back for international day at home," Fownes told SCMP, referring to the

Lucky Nine turfclub.com.sg

G1 Hong Kong Sprint, a race he won in 2011. "I've wanted to go [to Australia] for a few years now, but it comes at the wrong time for us because we look forward to our international races--but he's already won one of them, so we can play around with him there. He is in great form--you can be confident to travel with him, you're not going to get any egg on your face. He doesn't know how to run a bad race, the only time he ever runs a bad race is when there is a problem with him."

GALILEO EXPLOSION

Just two weeks ago, Galileo had not sired a Northern Hemisphere Group 1 winner in 2013. Then, ten days ago, Magician won the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, and Galileo ranked 45th on the TDN General Sire List. Now he ranks third (click here--TDN 2013 General Sire List--All Sires, behind only G1 Dubai World Cup winner Animal Kingdom's sire, Leroidesanimaux, and G1 Kentucky Derby winner Orb's sire, Malibu Moon, with three 2013 Group 1 winners--all Classic-winning 3-year-olds.

There were three Classics last weekend: the G1 Epsom Oaks on Friday; the G1 Epsom Derby on Saturday; and the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club French Derby on Sunday. In those three races, 12 horses, of course, filled the first four places. Six of the 12 places were filled by 3-year-old colts and fillies by Galileo. Two more were filled by first-crop 3-year-olds by Galileo's son, New Approach.

Ruler of the World
Racing Post

Two more were also from the Sadler's Wells sire line: Sky Hunter, third in the Jockey-Club, is by Motivator, by Montjeu, by Sadler's Wells; and Jockey-Club fourth Mshawish is by Medaglia d'Oro, by El Prado, by Sadler's Wells. So, out of 12 horses filling the first four places, 6 were by Galileo himself, 2 by New Approach, and 2 more by other Sadler's Wells-line sires: that's ten out of twelve. One of the other two, Epsom Oaks third The Lark, is by Pivotal out of a mare by In the Wings--by Sadler's Wells. Only French Derby second Morandi, by Holy Roman Emperor out of a Bering mare, has no Sadler's Wells in his pedigree; the other 11 do, and ten of them are in tail-male. That's mighty convincing.

The Epsom Derby and the French Derby were won by Galileo's sons Ruler of the World (RPR 121) and Intello (RPR 120), respectively. Libertarian, by New Approach, was second in the Epsom Derby, with Galileo sons Galileo's Rock and Battle of Marengo third and fourth. In Friday's Oaks, Talent, by New Approach, was the shock 20-1 winner, upsetting stablemate Secret Gesture, by Galileo, with Moth, by Galileo, fourth. See the accompanying table for the blow-by-blow. To say Galileo had a monster weekend would be seriously understating it; moving from 45th on the General Sire List into third just about sums it up.

Galileo is such a dominant Classic sire now that it is tempting to compare his record thus far to that of his sire, the incomparable, 14-time Champion Sire, Sadler's Wells. cont. p11

QUALITY ROAD

[Elusive Quality-Kobla]

"We have four QUALITY ROAD yearlings and a foal by him. The yearlings are all big, strong, forward types with the scope and athleticism of their sire; the best of them is one of our 'top 5 physical' colts. The foal is an 'A' in every way and well above average in height and weight. If his offspring run the way they look, QUALITY ROAD is sure to ring some bells as a sire."

Given that Galileo's 3-year-olds aren't even halfway through their 3-year-old years, it's entirely possible by the end of the year Galileo will have even more Group 1 winners. Comparing him now to Sadler's Wells and Danehill puts Galileo at a seven-month disadvantage; a fairer comparison will be at the end of the year, when his eighth crop of 3-year-olds will have finished their 3-year-old careers. With that perspective, it has to be said he compares pretty favorably with the other two top European sires of the last 25 years.

Galileo's son New Approach, unbeaten Champion European 2-year-old of 2007 and winner of the 2008 G1 Epsom Derby, had a pretty amazing weekend himself, even given the total eclipse of the previously unbeaten 2012 Champion European 2-year-old of 2012 and 2013 G1 English 2000 Guineas winner, Dawn Approach. With the surprise Epsom Oaks winner and the Derby second, Libertarian, New Approach moved up to fourth on the 2013 YTD Second-Crop Sire List (click here--2013 YTD Second-Crop Sires--All), relegating the previous European 2013 leader, Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality), like New Approach a Darley stallion, but based at Kildangan Stud in Ireland, to second in Europe (sixth overall). Talent and Dawn Approach make two Classic winners in his first crop, and Derby second Libertarian had won the important G2 Dante S. in his previous start, so that makes three 2013 graded stakes winners (GSW) for New Approach, and four overall.

Meanwhile, Hill 'n' Dale's Midnight Lute (Real Quiet) edged past Ashford's Majestic Warrior for overall leadership among second-crop sires by 2013 progeny earnings--the margin was $7,000 in yesterday's table--though Majestic Warrior still leads the cumulative second-crop sire list. Hard Spun (Danzig) moved back into second, back ahead of Discreet Cat (Forestry), on the 2013 YTD Third-Crop Sire List (click here--2013 YTD Third-Crop Sires --All) as Darley maintained their 1-2-3-4 placings, though Ashford's Scat Daddy (Johannesburg) moved into fifth, just $15,000 behind fourth-placed Any Given Saturday (Distorted Humor). cont. p12

"The North American sector accounts for 80% of the 2-year-old market's gross, the European sector 20%, therefore just by sheer weight of money trends in North America will be more significant in the 2-year-old market. The NA gross is up 18% this year, though it is still 5% below the corresponding 2008 gross. The 2013 NA average is up 15% over 2008, though with 18% fewer sold from 29% - over 1,100 - fewer catalogued than in 2008. The clearance rate from the catalogues has correspondingly improved massively, though, from 50% to 58%."

Street Sense (Street Cry), now at Darley Japan, maintains his position at the top of the list, and is tied with two other Darley sires, Discreet Cat and leading 2013 European third-crop sire, Teofilo (Galileo), with six 2013 black-type winners each; Street Sense is also tied for the lead by 2013 GSW, with four, along with Scat Daddy.

Coolmore's Mastercraftsman, a son of Danehill Dancer who was a dual Group 1 winner at two and again at three, when he won the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St. James's Palace S., became the first 2013 Freshman sire of a black-type winner when the colt Pablosky, now 3-for-3, won a listed race in Italy on Sunday. That moved Mastercraftsman up to third on the fledgling 2013 Freshman Sire table (click here--2013 YTD First-Crop sires--All), behind two other European sires, Ireland's Ballyhane Stud's Dandy Man (Mozart)--who had his ninth winner Monday night--and the Italian-based GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner, Red Rocks (Galileo). Ireland's Ballylinch Stud's Intense Focus (Giant's Causeway), in fifth, makes it four of the top five, at the moment, anyway, in Europe, the only exception being California-based Time to Get Even (Stephen Got Even), but that's just on the basis of two winners. American 2-year-old racing hasn't got going to any great extent yet, which is also reflected in the 2013 Two-Year-Old Sire List (click here--2013 YTD 2-Year-Old Sires--All), in which the top six are all European sires. Leading the way at the moment is Coolmore's Footstepsinthesand (Giant's Causeway), who had a black-type winner in Ireland Monday night. Darley's Kheleyf (Green Desert) and Ireland's Tally-Ho Stud's three-quarter brother to Invincible Spirit, Kodiak (Danehill), are tied with freshman sire Dandy Man with nine 2013 two-year-old winners each, so far. All three of those are Danzig-line sires.

The New York Racing Association will host its first ever public hearing at Belmont Park June 15. The meeting will begin with a brief introduction and recap of recent events, before moving on to the question-and-answer period. Fans must RSVP to attend. Thompson's love affair with horse racing began with Quarter Horses that he raced and sold with his college friend Tommy Vaughn before he moved to Kentucky. He was a skilled bloodstock agent, adept at finding stallions, broodmares, and racehorses in all price ranges to sell to clients. He assisted in launching the stud careers of Bernstein and Doneraile Court, which included promoting them and supervising them in the breeding shed.

Open House will take place from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., with the concert beginning at 3 p.m. The concert celebrates the 150th anniversary of the first organized Thoroughbred race meeting in Saratoga. The annual day of family fun and attractions will be billed as the Opening Ceremonies for the 150th anniversary season at Saratoga, which officially opens its gates on Friday, July 19 for 40 days of racing through Labor Day, Sept. 2. Admission to both Open House and the concert, including reserved clubhouse and grandstand seats, is free. Out of a listed-winning half-sister to Invincible Spirit (Ire), she is a half-sister to the 2011 G1 Gran Criterium winner Nayarra (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and a full sibling to the stable's classy Mars (Ire). WAR CORRESPONDENT (c, 3, War Front--Tempo West, by Rahy) debuted victoriously as the favorite in a newcomers' test traveling 7 1/2 furlongs over the Deauville all-weather surface Mar. 1, but was exiting a close third to stable companion Star Prince (Fr) (Green Tune) in a one-mile try on the turf at Bordeaux-le-Bouscat Apr. 7. The 9-10 favorite was fourth under the wire this time beneath a patient Christophe Soumillon and raced one off the inside with cover down the backstretch. He rallied up into contention three wide off the home turn and drifted out towards the stands in the lane, but was mostly hand-ridden late en route to a two-length victory from Prince Suhail (Ire) (Marju {Ire}). The winner, a full brother to Declaration of War, GSW-Ire, $138,202; and a half to Vertiformer (Dynaformer), is out of a half-sister to last year's GI Belmont S. hero Union Rags (Dixie Union).
