FULL HOUSE AT BELMONT

A total of 14 sophomores will go postward in Saturday's GI Belmont S. Chief among participants in the final jewel of the U.S. Triple Crown are GI Kentucky Derby hero Orb (Malibu Moon), who drew post five,

Morning line choice Orb

and GI Preakness S. winner Oxbow (Awesome Again), who will start out of the seven hole. The former, owned by Phipps and Janney, was made the 3-1 morning line choice, while the latter--campaigned by Calumet Farm--was set at 5-1. "I just didn't want to get down on the inside where maybe we might get stuck around the first turn, like we sort of did in the Preakness," said Orb's trainer Shug McGaughey at Wednesday's draw breakfast at Belmont Park. "I said middle, and that's pretty much the middle. I think, on paper, there is going to be a bit of a pace, so he'll be able to kind of drop out of it and dictate what he wants to do. If there isn't, and they're going in :49 and some change, then he can be laying up there. I just hope he has some place to go when the time comes." In addition to Oxbow, Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas will also be represented by Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) in the 1 1/2-mile event. Owned by Willis Horton, the striking chestnut drew the 10-hole and was established at 20-1 on the morning line. The last time 14 horses contested the Belmont was in 1996, when Lukas also saddled a pair of runners, including winner Editor's Note (Forty Niner) for Bill Young's Overbrook Farm. "I think we overanalyze [the post position draw] a lot," said Lukas. "It's nice for the press to have something to write about today, but, really, at a mile and a half with that long run and the sweeping turns, we have a tendency to overanalyze the post position draw. I'm more concerned about who is around me and what they're going to do than what gate we got." Cont. p3, field p5

ANIMAL KINGDOM WORKS AT "THE LONG"

Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) worked five furlongs in 1:02 over an uphill Polytrack in Lambourn, England known as "The Long" yesterday. This work was in preparation for the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 18. The chestnut worked in company with a horse supplied by John Ferguson, jump trainer and bloodstock advisor to Sheikh Mohammed.

Animal Kingdom
Ascot Diaries

"Once Animal Kingdom put away his company, he idled a bit, but the rider let him know his work was not yet done, and Animal Kingdom responded with a surge that garnered a look of approval and awe from David Lanigan, who has been housing Animal Kingdom at Lambourn," said Barry Irwin, CEO of breeder and co-owner Team Valor International. "You don't see horses handle that incline around here like that," Lanigan said. "When I heard what the plans were after the World Cup to bring him here and run at Royal Ascot, I was very skeptical, because it is a very difficult proposition. But having seen how this horse handled it tells me he is a very special animal. He does everything like a real champion. This move today--he upped his game once again. That move at Ascot really woke him up." AtTheRaces interview with Graham Motion.

King's Stand for Reckless Abandon

Trainer Clive Cox is looking at the G1 King's Stand S. for Reckless Abandon (GB) (Exchange Rate) following his promising comeback effort at Haydock. Last year's G1 Prix Morny and Middle Park S. winner was a close-up third under a penalty in that venue's G2 Temple S. over five furlongs May 25 and is likely to stay at that trip for the opening sprint at Royal Ascot June 18.

A force to be reckoned with in the 'Test of a Champion' is trainer Todd Pletcher, who had five entered yesterday, including Win Star's Revolutionary (War Pass). The likely favorite of the quintet, the winner of the GI Louisiana Derby drew post nine and was earmarked at 9-2 on the early line. Among Pletcher's other runners are Overanalyze (Dixie Union) (Post 3: 12-1);

Palace Malice
Adam Coglianesse

Midnight Taboo (Langfuhr) (Post 8: 30-1); and Palace Malice (Curlin) (Post 12: 15-1).

Pletcher saddles the lone filly in this year's Belmont, Unlimited Budget (Street Sense), who will break from post 13. She is 8-1 on the morning line. "We were kind of hoping Unlimited Budget would draw toward the outside," admitted Pletcher, who collected his sole prior Belmont victory with another filly, Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy), in 2007. "I think Palace Malice, maybe, will show some speed, so we're happy to be outside of Freedom Child and Oxbow."

Unlimited Budget
Adam Coglianesse

Pletcher added, "I think [the distance] will suit [Revolutionary] well. He's a horse who turns off really easily. I think he'll settle in the first part of the race. That's important if you're going to get the mile and a half." Added Mike Repole, who is represented by Midnight Taboo, Overanalyze and Unlimited Budget, "Todd and I spoke about Unlimited Budget being on the outside. She got the 13 post. I actually like that Palace Malice is on the inside [of her]. I think he'll go and she'll follow him. We wanted Midnight Taboo and Overanalyze inside the top eight."

Garnering plenty of pre-race buzz is West Point Thoroughbreds, St. Elias Stable and Spendthrift Farm's Freedom Child (Malibu Moon). Drawing the two hole, the winner of the GII Peter Pan S. is 8-1 on the morning line. "I think we were hoping to get a little farther toward the middle, but we dealt with Post 1 in the Peter Pan, so we'll just deal with Post 2 in the Belmont," said trainer Tom Albertrani. "I don't know if he's the kind of horse that wants to be behind horses, because he's got a free-running style."

Added Albertrani, "He'll probably want to find himself clear into the first turn, whether he has to use himself a little bit into the turn like he did in the Peter Pan when he broke real slow and worked his way to the front. It just depends on how he leaves there. He'll just have to work his way on the inside there and see where he ends up." Of the past 15 runnings of the Belmont, all but two-- Afleet Alex in 2005 and Point Given in 2001-- have been taken by horses who didn't win the the Derby nor the Preakness. Included among those are Golden Soul (Perfect Soul {Ire}), who finished runner-up in the Kentucky Derby, but bypassed the Preakness S. The Charles Fipke hombraed, who is 10-1 on the morning line, drew the outside post. "He's a colt that handles everything that's thrown at him," said trainer Dallas Stewart. "We'll just see. Hopefully, he'll be able to save some ground somehow, some way, and we'll see what happens. It's a bit of a challenge from Post 14, but he's the type of horse that's met a lot of challenges."

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

CONGRESSMAN ANDY BARR INTRODUCES RACEHORSE DEPRECIATION BILL

U.S. Representative Andy Barr (R-KY) introduced the Race Horse Cost Recovery Act (H.R. 2212) on May 24 that would make permanent the 3-year depreciation schedule currently in place for young racehorses. The bill would amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to allow for this faster recovery period that is set to expire at the end of 2013.

"The NTRA applauds Congressman Andy Barr for introducing H.R. 2212," said NTRA President and CEO Alex Waldrop. "If enacted, this much-needed legislation will help the horse industry protect hundreds of thousands of jobs and maintain over $100 billion in annual spending nationwide. Congressman Barr is a true champion for Kentucky's signature equine industry and the NTRA looks forward to working with him to build support for this important legislation."

Since January 1, 2009, members of the horse racing industry have depreciated racehorses 24 months and younger on the same 3-year schedule used for racehorses over 24 months of age. Prior to January 1, 2009, racehorses placed in service at 24 months and younger were depreciated over seven years. The NTRA secured the more favorable 3-year depreciation schedule for these younger horses as part of the Farm Bill.

Drawing a Big Crowd...

Billed as a rubbermatch between the winners of the first two legs of the Triple Crown, Saturday's GI Belmont S. promises to be a good one with a full field of 14 raring to go. After a flurry of activity between 6-6:30 a.m. on a beautiful June morning at Belmont Park, the action shifted to the spacious Garden Terrace Dining Room for the draw. Trainer Shug McGaughey has held up quite well under the spotlight throughout the Triple Crown trail, and continues to enjoy every moment since Orb (Malibu Moon)'s powerful victory in the GI Kentucky Derby and disappointing fourth as the heavy favorite in the GI Preakness S. Orb was installed as the 3-1 choice on Eric Donovan's morning-line.

"I've had a great time," McGaughey commented. "I told everybody that we are going to go have some fun with this. Even though we were disappointed in Maryland, I've enjoyed the whole thing very much and look forward to doing it again [Saturday]."

D. Wayne Lukas
Horsephotos

Fellow Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas will be well-represented by Preakness hero Oxbow (Awesome Again) as well as live longshot Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song).

"If I were a betting man, I would be putting him in my superfecta at least," Lukas warned of Will Take Charge, who was overlooked at 20-1 on the morning-line.

Todd Pletcher will be a busy man shortly after 6 p.m. Saturday. The former Lukas assistant entered five for the big one, including the filly Unlimited Budget (Street Sense), Derby third-place finisher Revolutionary (War Pass), and longshots Midnight Taboo (Langfuhr), Overanalyze (Dixie Union) and Palace Malice (Curlin).

Is Pletcher glad that owner Mike Repole didn't have five more 3-year-olds eligible for the Belmont, NYRA's Andy Serling asked.

"Yeah, we talked about a couple of other ones believe it or not, but I think we finally narrowed it down," he replied.

Repole, a native New Yorker, will have his blue-and-orange silks carried by the trio of Midnight Taboo, Overanalyze and Unlimited Budget.

"I've been coming to Belmont for 30 years and it's the number one race that I want to win," Repole said. "For some people, it's the Derby, but for me, it's the Belmont."

Trainer Tom Albertrani made it no secret of how he felt about the predicted rain in the forecast for this weekend after Freedom Child (Malibu Moon)'s tour-de-force over the sloppy going in the GII Peter Pan S. May 11.

"We've been watching the forecast, and it's getting better for us every day," Albertrani admitted.

Trainer Dallas Stewart remains confident in Golden Soul (Perfect Soul {Ire}), a surprising second at 34-1 in the Derby.

"I thought the race would take a little bit out of him, but he never missed any time," Stewart said. "His energy has been great, and I think the distance should suit him."

Trainer Kiaran McLaughlin was the last to head to the podium to discuss the well-bred Incognito (A.P. Indy)'s chances.

"I'm just happy that there's 14 in there, and that we are one of them," McLaughlin concluded.

PATINACK HORSES REMAIN POPULAR AT MM

The horses being sold as part of the reduction of Nathan Tinkler's Patinack Farm remained the flavor of the day during Wednesday's second session of the

Magic Millions National Yearling Sale at the Gold Coast, accounting for the day's top three offerings, and, therefore, the top five prices of the two-day select portion of the sale. Lot 1705, a half-brother to one of the more talented runners to carry Tinkler's silks in recent memory in the form of Longport (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}), was knocked down to that filly's trainer John Thompson for a session-topping bid of A$300,000 (US$286,311). Longport, who sold last week for A$800,000 to trainer Danny Bougoure, won the G2 Tea Rose S. and was runner-up in the G1 Flight S. in 2012 and added a second-place finish in this year's G1 Vinery Stud S. Thompson was also the trainer of the horses' half-brother Run For Wilson (Aus) (Shamardal), winner of the Listed Breeders' Plate at Randwick in 2009. Lot 1705 was one of 15 horses to reach six figures Wednesday, and was followed by lot 1839, a son of Patinack stallion Husson (Arg) and the second produce from dual champion Sun Classique (Aus) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}). A treble Group 1 winner in South Africa, Sun Classique beat the boys in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic and was acquired for A$2 million in foal to Oasis Dream (GB) at the 2010 Inglis Easter Broodmare Sale. Her first foal is a colt by the Juddmonte stallion that was sold to George Moore Bloodstock for A$875,000 at the 2012 Inglis Easter Yearling Sale. Lot 1839 was hammered down to Magic Millions, as agent, for A$260,000 (US$248,104). The other horse to fetch better than a quarter-million dollars was lot 1781, a daughter of Stratum (Aus) from Sarvon (Aus) (Zabeel {NZ}), that was knocked down to Magic Millions for A$250,000 (US$238,592). Sarvon was a A$400,000 acquisition by Patinack with the Stratum filly in utero in 2011. Buoyed by the Patinack horses, the select portion of the sale grossed over A$12.7 million, up over A$5 million from last year. The average of A$39,976 represented a 24.8% gain over 2012. "It was more of the same from yesterday," Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox reported. "The most rewarding part of the sale was the strong participation of buyers, particularly those from abroad. Our team put in a lot of work in attracting buyers to the sale and it was good to see so many participating," Cox added.

BUTLER FEARS ‘PUBLIC EXECUTION’

Trainer Gerard Butler has spoken out about his upcoming hearing at the British Horseracing Authority, expressing his wish that any ruling “doesn’t become a public execution.” Facing a potential ban as a result of his use of the drug “Sungate” on his horses which contained the prohibited substance stanozolol, the Newmarket-based conditioner is apprehensive about what is to come. “I have no option but to fear for the worst and I’ll just have to pick up the pieces,” he told the Racing Post. “If it’s to be a ban, it will be an absolute disaster for both myself and my family but I won’t walk away from racing in the long term. The BHA have to do their investigation, which is fine, but I just hope any hearing doesn’t become a public execution because everyone loves an execution. All I know is I did what I did in good faith and the vets did what they did in good faith also.”

King’s Stand Favorite for Reckless Abandon...

Trainer Clive Cox is looking at the G1 King’s Stand S. for Reckless Abandon (GB) (Exchange Rate) following his promising comeback effort at Haydock. Last year’s G1 Prix Morny and Middle Park S. winner was a close-up third under a penalty in that venue’s G2 Temple S. over five furlongs May 25 and is likely to stay at that trip for the opening sprint at Royal Ascot June 18. “Reckless Abandon will probably be going for the King’s Stand,” he told the Racing Post. “We have kept him in the Diamond Jubilee to keep our options open, but I think a stiff five furlongs will suit him better. He ran a great race in the Temple S. and has come out of the race very well. I am very pleased with him and he stands a good chance.”

He was runner-up when last seen going 1 1/16 miles on the Keeneland synthetic Apr.19. Sent off at 2-1, the dark bay rated patiently off the leader in the two path. Arc Above crept forward on the home turn and engaged in an intense duel with the pacesetter Wayward Sailor (Kitten's Joy) in the stretch. The pair hit the wire almost in unison, but Arc Above won by a nose after a photo finish. Forever Thing (Tapit) finished seventh. The winner is half to Funfair (More Than Ready), SW. She returned to annex an optional claimer at the Big A Apr. 11 and scored again last out in a 6 1/2-furlong starter allowance at Parx May 13. In for the tag here, the 7-1 shot was bumped at the start, but recovered to sit comfortably in third, keeping the pacesetters in her sights. Teen Pauline (Tapit), making her first start since running third in last year's GI Spinaway S., set a blazing pace in her debut for the Pletcher barn. Jockey John Velazquez tried to rein her in, but she clocked early splits of :22.05 and :45.50 with fellow comebacker Native One (Indian Charlie) in tow. The 2-5 favorite began to fade as they hit the stretch and Bliss came three wide to take over. The gray held off a late challenge by Distortion (Distorted Humor) to hit the wire a half-length in front. Native One was third, while Teen Pauline checked in a disappointing fourth. ITSAGOODTENDOLLARS (g, 7, Tale of the Cat--Goomada Byda Sea, by Sea Hero), claimed for $35,000 from Repole Stable and trainer Bruce Levine out of a fourth-place effort at Aqueduct in January, won a starter handicap in his second start for the new connections Mar. 14 and was narrowly beaten by Point Taken (Point Given) in a May 1 optional claimer over this track and trip last time out. The 6-5 favorite pressed the pace and stuck his head in front on the turn, as Point Taken, the slight favorite, got buried down along the rail. Itsagoodtendollars held on by a half-length over dead-heating rivals Photon (Invasor {Arg}) and Metaurus (Flatter). Point Taken was never able to find running room and came home last of five. The winner is a half-brother to City Broad (City Zip, SP, $252,827); Goombada Guska (Yonaguska, MSW, $333,570). Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO. on today's European racing scene

4.25 Saint-Cloud, Debutantes, €25,000, 3yo, f, 1 5/16mT

DARYSINA (Smart Strike) is a daughter of the 1999 G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Daryaba (Ire) (Night Shift) and therefore a half-sister to the 2009 G1 Hong Kong Vase scorer Daryakana (Fr) (Selkirk) who starts out for His Highness The Aga Khan and Alain de Royer-Dupre. Also representing the esteemed owner-breeder is the Mikel Delzangles trainee Kassama (Fr) (Nayef), a half-sister to last year's G2 Prix Greffulhe winner Kesampour (Fr) (King's Best), while de Royer-Dupre saddles another interesting runner in Ecurie Servat's Saladine (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), a half to the 2004 G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Blue Canari (Fr) (Acatenango {Ger}). Also in the line-up is Christopher Wright's Blue Moonstone (English Channel), a half to the 2011 G1 1000 Guineas, G1 Irish Oaks and G1 Yorkshire Oaks heroine Blue Bunting (Dynaformer).

5.35 Tipperary, Mdn, €12,500, 2yo, 5fT

FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH (IRE) (Oasis Dream {GB}) should have little problem opening his account in this weak affair after his highly promising debut second in a decent six-furlong conditions event at Naas last month. Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's Ballydoyle representative is a 420,000gns TATOCT purchase, and is a son of the luminary Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}).

8.30 Sandown, Mdn, £6,000, 3yo, 10f 7ydsT

ACHTUNG (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) debuts for Peter Makin and Jeremy Noseda and is a full-brother to the 2007 G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Juddmonte International hero Authorized (Ire). Among his opponents is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Deglet Noor (GB) (New Approach {Ire}), a Roger Varian-trained filly whose dam is a half to the 2002 GI Personal Ensign H. winner Summer Colony (Summer Squall).

Piana bagged a Nov. 23 debutantes' heat at Bordeaux-le-Bouscat in her sole juvenile start, doubled up in a Saint-Cloud conditions test Apr. 3, and was a shade over two lengths adrift when sixth in the G3 Prix Cleopatre back there in her only other go last time May 15. She was allowed off at monster odds here, despite that latest testimony, and settled in third after an alert getaway. Enjoying a brief stint in second on the home turn, the dark grey was stoked up with 300 meters remaining and kept on resolutely under a final-furlong drive to oust Belonging on the line for a career high. Margins: 3, HF, 2HF. Odds: 0.70, 4.20, 5.40.
Also Ran: Herve (Ire), Holy Warrior (Ire).

Pilote registered two wins from four starts as a juvenile and opened his sophomore campaign with a conditions second at Saint-Cloud Mar. 31. He then ran fourth in the Apr. 14 G3 Prix de Fontainebleau at Longchamp on black-type bow, and came here off a one-mile conditions win back at Saint-Cloud last time May 15. Pilote stalked the pace under a firm grip in second after the initial exchanges. Ranging upsidest the pacesetter Holy Warrior (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) approaching the final quarter mile, he quickened by that capitulating rival soon after and was pushed out in the closing stages to easily claim a first stakes triumph. + WONDERFULLY (IRE) (f, 2, Galileo {Ire}--Massarra {GB} {SW & GSP-Eng, GSP-Fr}, by Danehill), who drifted from an early morning price of 6-4 out to 7-2 second favorite at the off, was ridden to race behind the early trio off the strong tempo. Game when asked to chase in the stretch, the bay ground her way to the front in the final stride to deny fellow closer Queen of Power (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) by a short head. "They went very quick, but she has plenty of speed and traveled real well," jockey Joseph O'Brien told Irish Racing Online. "She was a bit green early on and I just had to get after her a little bit. She was getting a bit tired near the finish, but she's a nice filly and will hopefully come along with racing." The winner is a half-sister to Nayarra (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), Hwt. 2yo Filly-Ity, G1SW-Ity, MGSP-Eng, MSP-US, $268,624. She is also the full sister to Mars (Ire), who ran with credit when sixth, beaten under four lengths, to Ruler of the World (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in last Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby.
