FASIG JULY SALE WITH A TWIST

After a spring chock full of record-setting juvenile auctions, the yearling sales season kicks off today in Lexington with Fasig-Tipton's July Sale. The one-day auction will be immediately followed by Fasig-Tipton's inaugural July Horses of Racing Age sale.

"I feel like a kid right before Christmas," reported Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning, Jr. "We have a tremendous group of yearlings on the sales grounds, the new racehorse sale has created a lot of energy and excitement. We can't wait to get started."

The July sale registered gains in 2012, with 189 head grossing $15,364,000. The previous year, 191 yearlings grossed $13,349,000. The average of $81,291 rose 16.3% from 2011, while the median remained constant at $60,000.

The sale continues to churn out graded stakes winners. Graduates from the auction include Grade I winners Include Me Out (Include), Lady of Shamrock (Scat Daddy), Flat Out (Flatter) and Camp Victory (Forest Camp)--all purchased for an average of $90,000. Multiple graded stakes winner Vyjack (Into Mischief) was a $45,000 July purchase in 2011.

"Graduates out of the July sale continue to run great," Browning said.

"It sure was nice to see a graduate like Flat Out have an impressive win [in the GII Suburban H.] the weekend before the sale."

With a slimmed-down catalogue of 258--a decrease of 23.7% from 338 catalogued a year ago--and in the wake of a strong 2-year-old market, consignors were upbeat on a busy morning at the sales barns Sunday.

"The word has been cautiously optimistic for a couple of years now, but this year I am just optimistic," said Mark Taylor of Taylor Made Sales Agency. "I think that the racehorse component of this sale is going to bring in more end-users and it is a relatively small catalogue of good physicals that were hand-picked by Fasig-Tipton and they always do a good job. I think the recipe is there for success." Cont. p4

SUN SETS AT HOLLYWOOD PARK

Betfair Hollywood Park's appropriately named closing day feature, the GIII Sunset H., highlighted Sunday's final card of live racing at a summer meeting. Holding the distinction of taking the Inglewood oval's final stakes event of the season was Glen Hill Farm's Marketing Mix (Medaglia d'Oro), who became only the third filly to annex the 12-furlong turf event. The other two were Typecast in 1972 and Petite Ile in 1992. The victory also marked the third for her jockey Gary Stevens, who previously won in 1994 with Grand Flotilla and Blueprint, who took the race in 2001. "[Trainer] Tom [Proctor] told me in the paddock to just take the race to them," explained winning rider Gary Stevens. "He said this mare can gallop faster than the rest of them. I didn't know what [Hawk's Eyes] was going to do and [his rider] Victor [Espinoza] was intent on getting the lead. I couldn't have paid to have a better rabbit out in front of me. I just let my mare gallop. I had it in my head to two-minute lick her to the three-eighths pole and set her down and work her three eighths of a mile. She was very, very happy." Cont. p3

Al Kazeem to Bypass Fast Ground

Trainer Roger Charlton has ruled out the possibility of Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) running on a quick surface again as he ponders the next race for his stable star. Despite winning all three of his Group 1 contests on good-to-firm, John Deer's homebred will not be asked to contest either the G1 Juddmonte International Aug. 21 or G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 7 if the current hot weather continues. Page 9

TDN Q&A With Bill Nader

The Hong Kong Jockey Club recently concluded one of its most successful seasons ever, reaching a record betting turnover of HK$93.94 billion (about US$12 billion) and experiencing increased attendance of two million spectators over 83 race meetings. With more exciting developments on the way for the nation, including increased prize money and commingled betting pools for next season, the TDN spoke with the Hong Kong Jockey Club's Executive Director of Racing--and former NYRA Chief Operating Officer--Bill Nader to garner some insight into one of the most successful racing programs in the world. Page 10

Castellano/Jacobson Earn Bel Titles

Belmont's spring/summer meet concluded yesterday with David Jacobson and Javier Castellano garnering the leading trainer and jockey titles. Each was taking his respective honor for the first time. Castellano, winner of five previous NYRA titles, wrapped up the meet with 72 victories, highlighted by seven stakes victories, including those aboard Dayatthespa (City Zip) and Samitar (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}). Junior Alvarado finished second with 58 wins, and Joel Rosario third with 48. Page 1 (atw)

War Command to G1 Phoenix S.

War Command (War Front), who was so impressive in the G2 Coventry S., is being aimed at the G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. at The Curragh, trainer Aidan O'Brien announced yesterday. Carrying breeder Joseph Allen's colors to a six-length success in the June 19 Royal Ascot contest, the colt will stay at six furlongs for the Aug. 11 highlight. "We're training War Command with the Phoenix S. in mind--that will be the plan if we're happy with him closer to the time." Page 9

Dhaamer, looking to defend his title, cabooseed the field for the opening six panels, but began to find his best stride approaching the stretch, and the race was the two-horse affair the betting public expected it to be. Carrying two pounds more than Marketing Mix, Dhaamer looked like he had a chance to gun her down, but the winner of last September's GI Rodeo Drive S., ridden mostly hands-and-heels by Stevens late, was never in serious danger and won it by a length and a tail. It was the second victory in as many starts this season for Marketing Mix, who returned from near seven months of inactivity to win this track's GI Gamely S. May 27. She is expected to make her next appearance in the GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington Aug. 17, a race in which she was a closing second last year. The major long-term objective is the GI Breeders' Cup Filly/Mare Turf at Santa Anita, in which she also completed the exacta in 2012.

"I was a little concerned, because she's in season today, but she's run that way before," explained winning trainer Tom Proctor. "It was a combination of things why she ran here. The weight was one. She was given 127 [pounds] for the Modesty [H., which was run July 13 at Arlington Park]. I also wanted to see her run [12 furlongs]. [Gary Stevens] thought she could run that far, and I did, too. It sure worked out. She has a lot of options, but she'll probably go in the [GI] Beverly D. [Aug. 17 at Arlington]. We'll see. Let's hope she comes out of the race well and we have that decision. That's the main thing.

Glen Hill's Craig Bernick & Tom Proctor

As for winning the track's closing feature race, Proctor added, "It's nice to win the last Sunset. A lot of good horses have won it. It means something to me."

Sadler Earns Training Title...

Heading into Sunday's closing day card, John Sadler already had the training title in the bag, having accounted for 27 victories during the 2013 Spring/Summer meeting, six more than Mike Puype and seven more than Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert.

"We've raced here more than 25 years," said Sadler. "This is the last summer here and it's great to be part of history. We've had a good meeting, but we've also been a little unlucky," said Sadler. "We had a ton of seconds [31]."

Sadler also concluded the meet in second with $1,589,551. Baffert held the advantage through Sunday with total purse money of $1,736,381.

Offering his sentiments on leading the track's final live racing card, Sadler added, "This track has been good to us through the years. In a way, winning the title is a way to say thank you to Hollywood Park."

With the available horses limited, the law of supply and demand kicks in, according to Reiley McDonald of Eaton Sales.

“When the numbers are down, it is economy 101, the sale average goes up,” McDonald said. “The numbers are down, there aren’t that many horses, and it seems like there are a lot of people looking.”

Gainesway’s Michael Hernon agreed the market is gaining strength.

Starship Truffles
Coady Photography

“We are operating in a rising market--the 2-year-old sales were buoyant,” Hernon said. “The demand for good prospects is strong. There will still be some polarization in the market, but traditionally this sale has thrown up many graded stakes runners and I expect that trend to continue.”

The inaugural Horses of Racing Age Sale attracted some 90

entries, with 20 out as of Sunday evening. Among the highlights are Starship Truffles (Ghostzapper) (hip 385), who was a late addition to the sale after winning the July 6 GI Princess Rooney H.

Browning said he was happy with the auction’s first line up.

“I’m very pleased with the catalogue--both in terms of quantity and certainly in terms of quality,” Browning said.

Asked what initial expectations for the catalogue were, Browning said, “We thought 50 would be the minimum to have a legitimate core to get started, 50-75 was what I thought would be likely, but we really didn’t know. We don’t have any one large anchor client that supplied 20 or 25 horses, it is a pretty broad group of owners and consignors.”

Fasig-Tipton officials are hoping the two auctions will provide an increased audience for both.

“Our thought process was that the two sales would be complementary to each other and would enhance the participation for each other,” Browning explained. “We’ll see some faces in town we may not have seen for the yearling sale and I think they’ll be some people who will be shopping the horses of racing age sale that don’t normally do it, but they are here for the yearling sale. So we think it’s a combination that will help both sales.”

Taylor Made has consigned 17 yearlings and 15 horses of racing age and Mark Taylor agreed it was a benefit to have a broader audience for both groups.

“I think I have seen a few more trainers,” Taylor said at the sales grounds Sunday. “I think a lot of those trainers may have horses in the sale, so it’s another reason for them to be here and to be looking at horses.”

FASIG-TIPTON JULY YEARLING SALE

019, c, Pioneer of the Nile--Honolulu Heat, by Silver Deputy Consigned by Gainesway, Agent IV

This dark bay colt, from the second crop of the GI Kentucky Derby runner-up, is out of a half-sister to stakes winners Northface (Time for a Change) and Honolulu Gold (Alwuhush) and is from the family of champion Afleet Alex. "Pioneer of the Nile is off to a promising start with three 2-year-old winners already," said Gainesway's Michael Hernon. "This colt has the potential to be a very good horse. He is very balanced and a good mover. He's correct and he is catching the eye of several shrewd horsemen."

029, f, Malibu Moon--Instrumentalist, by Bernstein
Consigned by Paramount Sales, Agent IX

This bay filly is the second foal out of graded stakes placed Instrumentalist. "She has a lot of quality and is very correct," reported Paramount's Pat Castello.

048, c, Tale of the Cat--Lavigne, by Dynaformer
Consigned by Paramount Sales, Agent II

This bay colt is out of a half to Grade I-placed Resplendency (Tale of the Cat) and from the family of Vettori and Hero's Tribute. "He's a beautiful bodied, very athletic colt," said Paramount's Pat Castello. "He barely touches the ground when he walks. Everybody loves him."

072, c, Tapit--Mother Russia, by Mayakovsky
Consigned by Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services Inc. (John Stuart), Agent I

This is the first foal out of multiple stakes winner Mother Russia (Mayakovsky). "He is by the right sire," Bluegrass Thoroughbred's Sandy Stuart remarked. "This colt is very physically forward and we decided to bring him here and have him stand out a little. He's a very mature horse, a very big-striding horse and he covers a lot of ground. He's a first foal out of a very good stakes winner. He might just check all the boxes here." Bluegrass Thoroughbreds bought the colt for $130,000 out of last year's KEENOV sale. "He was the most confident baby we looked at the whole time, he was having fun showing himself out there," Stuart recalled.

131, c, Pioneerof the Nile--Sing for Joy, by Miswaki
Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent LII

This colt is out of a half-sister to stakes winner Joyful Ballad (Saint Ballado). "Everybody knows how well Pioneerof the Nile has started off--he's doing absolutely incredible," commented Mark Taylor. "This colt looks a lot like his dad--very well-balanced, beautiful walk--maybe one of the best-walking colts in our consignment. I think everybody sees a lot of upside; he's kind of what everybody looks for. But he looks like he could be early, too. He's a really nice individual. He's one of those horses you're proud to show."

140, f, Super Saver--Southern Flu, by Dixie Union
Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent XXXVI

From the first crop of GI Kentucky Derby winner Super Saver (Maria's Mon), this youngster is out of graded stakes placed Southern Flu, a half-sister to stakes winner Flower Forest (Kris S.) and multiple graded stakes placed Aldo (Red Ransom). She is from the family of GI Arkansas Derby winner Archarcharch. "She is a really nice Super Saver," Mark Taylor Said. "I liked the Super Savers as foals, but I really like them as yearlings. This is a very active family. There is a new stakes winner under the second dam and this mare's first foal [Miss Betty P (Orientate)] just broke her maiden first time out. So there is a lot going on in the family and she's a nice physical."

188, f, Malibu Moon--Chapena, by Fusaichi Pegasus
Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent

This late addition to the July sale is a half-sister to stakes winner Who is Camille (Dixie Union). Her unraced dam is a half-sister to Grade I winners Chaposa Springs (Baldski) and You and I (Kris S.). "She is one of the best-bred fillies in the sale and she has a very classy, nice walk," said Mark Taylor. "She was one we were thinking about taking to Saratoga, and then at the end of the day we had a couple other Malibu Moons going there and we decided to bring her to July instead, but she is a really nice filly and the sky is the limit with that pedigree."

191, c, Bellamy Road--Affirmed Dancer, by Affirmed
Consigned by Gainesway, Agent V

This chestnut colt, out of stakes winner and graded stakes placed Affirmed Dancer, is a half-brother to graded stakes winner La Gran Bailadora (Afleet Alex). "This is a big rangey, correct smooth-moving colt by GI Wood Memorial winner Bellamy Road," said Gainesway's Michael Heron. "He is out of a graded stakes producer--you'll be writing about him next year and the year after."

203, f, Warrior's Reward--Betty's Baroness, by Smart Jones

Consigned by Dromoland Farm, Inc. (Gerry Dilger), Agent I

This dark bay filly is from the first crop of GI Carter H. winner Warrior's Reward (Medaglia d'Oro) and out of the unraced Betty's Baroness, who is a half-sister to multiple Grade I winner Excellent Meeting (General Meeting). "She is a super mover, well-grown and has done everything right here on the grounds," said Gerry Dilger. "She's a tall, rangey filly with good leg, nice shoulder and long hip."

NEWS TODAY

AL KAZEEM TO AVOID FAST GROUND

Trainer Roger Charlton has ruled out the possibility of Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) running on a quick surface again as he ponders the next race for his stable star.

Al Kazeem Racing Post

Despite winning all three of his Group 1 contests on good-to-firm, John Deer's homebred will not be asked to contest either the G1 Juddmonte International Aug. 21 or G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 7 if the current hot weather continues. "He is on his holidays and he's very happy," Charlton told Racing Post. "We've seen a few races this week when horses haven't produced their form on fast ground, and that can happen. He really wants good or good-to-soft ground and I don't think I'll get away with running him for a fourth time on really quick ground. Hopefully by August or September we'll have some really nice, fresh ground and he can go for the Juddmonte International or the Irish Champion S. There's also the G1 Champion S. [at Ascot Oct. 19], which is a special race, but the Arc is worth £2.2 million to the winner and he is disputing favouritism for that, so that has to be his main aim."

O'BRIEN OUTLINES WAR PLANS

War Command (War Front), who was so impressive in the G2 Coventry S., is being aimed at the G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. at The Curragh, trainer Aidan O'Brien announced yesterday. Carrying breeder Joseph Allen's colors to a six-length success in the June 19 Royal Ascot contest, the colt will stay at six furlongs for the Aug. 11 highlight. "We're training War Command with the Phoenix S. in mind--that will be the plan if we're happy with him closer to the time."

O'Brien also added that Darwin (Big Brown), who made a successful debut for Ballydoyle in a conditions event at Naas last month, may be seen at The Curragh on Saturday. "We're looking at running Darwin in the G3 Minstrel S.," he said.

VERMEILLE TARGET FOR TREVE

Haras du Quesnay's unbeaten Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) is set to return in the G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille at Longchamp in September, trainer Criquelette Head-Maarek said yesterday. Using the race as a prep for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe over the same 12-furlong trip Oct. 6, the impressive G1 Prix de Diane heroine is enjoying a mid-summer break. "She's fine, there is no problem with her and she will run in the Vermeille in September," Head-Maarek told PA Sport. "She will not have a prep race. She will go straight for the Vermeille and if she wins that race, she will go for the Arc."

AUSUS TAKES AIM AT BEVERLY D.

Shadwell Stable's Ausus (Invasor {Arg}) exited Saturday's victory in the GIII Modesty H. in fine fettle and will be targeted at the Aug. 17 GI Beverly D. S., according to her trainer, Danny Peitz. "Hopefully, we have a good month here for the Beverly D.," said Peitz. "I think we're in pretty good shape this morning--she looks good. She will have to take another step forward." Let go at 8-1, the 4-year-old kicked on late to post a 2 1/4-length score over Artemus Kitten (Kitten's Joy). "She's been a grinder before but [Saturday] she showed a big turn of foot," said Peitz, referring to her impressive closing kick. "[Jockey] James [Graham] knew she was in the right spot and she kicked on. She's run so hard and been so competitive before--it's nice to win a race with her. I think she will actually like even more distance. Her best might be a mile and a quarter or even a mile and three-eighths." Kenneth and Sarah Ramsey's runner-up Artemus Kitten also appears likely to move on to Arlington's marquee event for fillies and mares. Conditioner Mike Maker was very pleased with the performance. "She ran a lot better than we expected," said Maker. "She has a good chance of moving forward to the Beverly D."

‘MAGIC’ POSSIBLE FOR SECRETARIAT

Team Valor’s Infinite Magic (More Than Ready), winner of Saturday’s GIII American Derby, could join stablemate First Cornerstone (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) in the GI Secretariat S. on Arlington Million Day. The son of More Than Ready earned a fees-paid entry into the Secretariat after winning by a head over Admiral Kitten (Kitten’s Joy) and Stormy Len for trainer Rick Mettee. “Infinite Magic, yesterday’s upset winner of the American Derby, vans back to Fair Hill [Sunday], “ tweeted Bradley Weisbord. “Next race TBD, maybe [Secretariat S.]. We also have First Cornerstone pointing there.” First Cornerstone, trained by Andy Oliver, finished fifth in the May 25 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas before coming home 15th in the G1Prix de Jockey Club June 2. Also likely to move on to the Secretariat is Ken and Sarah Ramsey’s Admiral’s Kitten. “He came out fine,” confirmed trainer Mike Maker. “Hopefully, he’ll break through the goal line next out in the Secretariat. We are aiming toward that right now.

OBITUARY

MARY TAYLOR

Mary Taylor, wife of the late Joe Taylor--founder of Taylor Made Farm--and mother of Duncan, Ben, Frank and Mark Taylor, died peacefully Saturday at age 85. In addition to the Taylor brothers, Mary Taylor is survived by daughters Mary and Emily, as well as 20 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Born in Frankfort, Kentucky Dec. 24, 1927, Taylor was a lifelong contributor to a number of churches in the area. She was a parishioner of the Cathedral Christ the King for more than 60 years, and was also an adorer for more than 20 years at Eucharistic Adoration Chapel at St. Luke’s Parish in Nicholasville, as well as Christ the King in Lexington. A visitation will be held The Cathedral of Christ the King July 16 at 10 a.m., followed by the Mass of Christian burial at noon. In lieu of flowers, it is requested that donations be made to the Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Maintenance Fund, 299 Colony Blvd., Lexington, Kentucky, 40502. TDN Q&A

...With Bill Nader

The Hong Kong Jockey Club recently concluded one of its most successful seasons ever, reaching a record betting turnover of HK$93.94 billion (about US$12 billion) and experiencing increased attendance of two million spectators over 83 race meetings. With more exciting developments on the way for the nation, including increased prize money and commingled betting pools for next season, the TDN spoke with the Hong Kong Jockey Club’s Executive Director of Racing--and former NYRA Chief Operating Officer--Bill Nader to garner some insight into one of the most successful racing programs in the world.

Bill Nader

TDN: Hong Kong just concluded a very successful racing season, which saw a record betting turnover that surpassed the previous high from 1996/97, and increased attendance. To what do you attribute these gains?

BN: Horse racing in Hong Kong is the clear leader as the number one spectator sport. It is also the world's gold standard for horse racing and betting entertainment based on five key components--quality of racing, uncompromising integrity, attractive field sizes, the world's biggest wagering pools and outstanding customer experience. There was a steady decline here in turnover, which had previously peaked at HK$92.3 billion in season 1996/97 and the low in season 2005/06 at HK$60.05 billion. We have since experienced sustained growth and achieved a new high this season of HK$93.94 billion over 83 race days. The dramatic increase over the past several years is a result of perfecting the key components and providing customers with an experience that covers all the bases.

Happy Valley Racecourse

This includes food and beverage offerings that are of the highest standard and also great value for money, much-improved on-course facilities that are tailored to meet the needs of all customer segments and a greater understanding of what each customer segment needs to deliver a favorable experience. The emphasis is on quality every step of the way, from the standard of racing all the way down to the smallest detail.

TDN: Can you describe for our readers Hong Kong's Racecourse Master Plan? How has that contributed to recent success, and what does the plan entail going forward?

BN: The Racecourse Master Plan is an ongoing multi-billion dollar investment in Hong Kong dollars to make capital improvements at both Sha Tin and Happy Valley racecourses. We have a Members' area and a Public area at both racecourses and we have invested in both. To own a horse in Hong Kong, you must first be a member of the Jockey Club. We have invested heavily in the owners' and members' segments by providing a variety of options that are best described as tasteful to luxurious and provide the right balance of comfort and space to go along with a dining experience that rivals many of the best restaurants in Hong Kong.

This includes better sight lines and balconies to step outside to watch the races, but the main focus has been on renovations of existing venues and creating new venues to match up with the needs of the appropriate customer segment. On the Public side, we have created areas that cater primarily to the demands of a younger segment and have leveraged heavily on the unique strength of Happy Valley as a terrific weeknight destination for locals and tourists. We are also delivering information in a customer-friendly format that gives new customers a chance to learn at their own pace and in a style that is less intimidating. We are determined to continue with this investment, as it is providing a return that has met or exceeded expectations.

Happy Valley betting tables
Liesl King

TDN: Hong Kong also experienced a successful season with its local runners, who represented the nation strongly both domestically and internationally. Can you explain how the local runners are sourced, and what restrictions are placed on importation?

BN: An owner must be a Club member. He or she is limited to a maximum of four horses as either a sole owner or in a partnership, as demand far exceeds supply. A ballot is conducted once a year in June to determine which members will be awarded a permit to import a horse. There are about 1,100 applications chasing 330 permits. To be a horse owner in Hong Kong carries a recognition of prestige and status that is very healthy to our business. There is no breeding in Hong Kong, so all horses are sourced and imported, about 70 percent from the southern hemisphere and the rest from the north. Most horses are Australian and New Zealand breeds, but we also have a fair amount from Europe and America.

TDN Q&A cont. from p11

Good Ba Ba is the Hong Kong poster boy from America, a Keeneland Sales graduate, and we have had a number of top runners from Europe. Most of our best sprinters, and we have had many, are from Australia. Horses can come in unraced and are classified as PPGs and horses that have raced can come in as PPs provided that meet our import criteria. The HK$16 million Hong Kong Derby is for 4-year-olds and, generally, the winner has competed in a Derby as a 3-year-old, such as Akeed Mofeed, winner of this year's Derby. He was imported at a reported price of over US$2 million. We also have our flagship day on the second Sunday in December, the Longines Hong Kong International Races, and all four of the Group 1 races are on turf and featured on the IFHA list of the World's Top 50 races. They are run at 6, 8, 10 and 12 furlongs and they offer big money. Nominations are free and the Club pays all travel-related expenses for horse, owner, trainer, jockey and groom for horses that are invited. It is one of the world's premier racing events.

TDN: The HKJC recently announced that it will be able to offer commingled pools going forward. How will this affect business and turnover going forward?

BN: Earlier this month, the Hong Kong legislature approved two-way commingling. We currently do about HK3.5 billion in overseas wagering in the form of separate pools. It will take a bit of time to establish tote interfaces, particularly as some of our high jackpot bet types are not common in the tote architecture, but we will get there as quickly as possible. I am convinced that the product combination of Hong Kong racing and betting is about as good as it gets, and I am confident others will quickly recognize this once they have the chance to fully experience it. The incredible size of Hong Kong racing, in terms of wagering pools, quality and depth, with field sizes averages 12.6, it is an impressive presentation to customers who like to play. About 85% of the wagering is on Win and Place, Quinella and Quinella Place, but the jackpots in bet types like the Triple Trio and Six-Up will also be of great interest.

TDN: Mr. Engelbrecht-Bresges noted the Club still faces challenges going forward in terms of increasing competition and higher operating costs. Could you elaborate on this?

BN: The challenges we face in increasing competition come from Macau, which is only one hour away, and is, by far, the biggest casino destination in the world. Our wagering experience is much different than casinos in that we are skill-based and we give our customers a wealth of information to exploit this advantage. But Macau is an imposing presence. Controlling costs is also important, primarily because the Government betting duty on horse racing ranges from 72.5 to 75% of the gross margin, leaving us with about 4.4% of the dollars wagered to pay prize money and operating costs. To put that in real dollar terms, our horse racing tax this season was over HK$11 billion to the Government and this is before our contribution to Hong Kong charities. We have to be smart about how we use our share of the margin.

Jacobson, Castellano Collect Belmont Titles:

Belmont's spring/summer meet concluded yesterday with David Jacobson and Javier Castellano garnering the leading trainer and jockey titles. Each was taking his respective honor for the first time. Castellano, winner of five previous NYRA titles, wrapped up the meet with 72 victories, highlighted by seven stakes victories, including those aboard Dayatthespa (City Zip) and Samitar (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}). Junior Alvarado finished second with 58 wins, and Joel Rosario third with 48.

Jacobson's 44 wins for the meet set a new record, surpassing Todd Pletcher's previous tally of 40 set in 2003. Among the highlights for Jacobson, who was gathering his seventh NYRA title, included the Affirmed S. score with Saginaw (Peruvian). Pletcher finished second with 27 victories, and Chad Brown third with 23. Drawing Away Stable, owner of Saginaw in partnership with Jacobson, collected the leading owner title with 27 wins. Darley Stable and Midwest Thoroughbreds tied for second with 11 wins each.

Saratoga 150 Opens With Free Concert:

The New York Racing Association yesterday held a free family concert at Saratoga to launch the opening of the racetrack's 150th meeting. Marylou Whitney was on hand alongside NYRA Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer Rodnell Workman to greet the crowd of 21,981 patrons. The concert was highlighted by Disney Channel star and Dancing With the Stars runner-up Zendaya. "I am delighted that we were able to showcase our facility to thousands of people who might otherwise have never experienced Saratoga Race Course," said Workman. "The atmosphere was electric and Zendaya was fabulous. The day really got the 150th anniversary off to a flying start."

 + CHARMED HOUR (f, 2, Harlan's Holiday--Voodoo Lily {GSW, $250,370}, by Baldski) was sent off at 7-2 for this debut off a series of promising works at Churchill. Smoothly away from an outside stall, Charmed Hour chased the pace from a three wide perch, just to the outside of favored Zen Lava (Zensational). Those two made moves toward the lead in tandem approaching the final eighth of a mile, both full of run, and Charmed Hour was able to find the wire a head to the good of favored Zen Lava. beaten sixth against a strong group in an optional claimer here in her seasonal debut June 15, and was let go the longest shot on the board for her turf debut here. Sitting on the heels of the pacesetter through the early stages, Surtsey lost a few positions rounding the bend. Swinging four-wide at the top of the lane, she powered down the center of the track to grab the lead in midstretch and go on to a decisive victory. "Heatseeker's are running really well on the turf," said winning trainer Kevin Attard. "We had an opportunity to work her on the turf last week and she worked really well. She's a little bit of a lazy horse, but she handled the turf really well, her stride was nice, and she came into the race in good order." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Stopshoppingdebbie carried a perfect three-for-three record into Sunday's Kent H. at Emerald Downs, and the public sent her off as the 1-5 chalk to make it four on the bounce. A half-step slow to begin, Jere Paxton's homebred crossed across her three rivals, including two stablemates bearing the same colors, but she was grabbed hold of by Rocco Bowen, and that allowed the reluctant-to-load Goin to the Windows to apply pressure to her outside. The two literally matched strides around the far turn and leaving the quarter pole, it appeared that Stopshoppingdebbie was on her way to her first defeat. However, she plugged on with dour determination and was able to punch back and get her head home first. A debut winner by seven lengths last Aug. 12, Stopshoppingdebbie made a successful seasonal debut by defeating Goin to the Window in the May 26 Seattle H. and bested her foe by 6 3/4 lengths when stretched to two turns for the first time in the Irish Day H. Sea Siren needs little introduction as the winner of three Group 1 races in her native Australia, most recently the Oct. 26 Manikato S. at Moonee Valley, and the only question mark was how she would adapt to her new stable on the back of a disappointing eighth in Royal Ascot's G1 Diamond Jubilee S. June 22. Brushing aside any doubts on her debut for Ballydoyle, the bay looked set to continue the sterling work of former trainer John O'Shea as she overcame the potential obstacle of a seven-pound penalty. Unhurried early by Joseph O'Brien, she always had the front quartet covered and, when asked to go about her business on the outer, struck the front 1 1/2 furlongs out before asserting for a straightforward score. "She is an exciting filly for the big sprints, as she has loads of pace and a great attitude," her rider explained. "She was a bit idle in front, but when I gave her a smack she went away."

Having opened his stakes account in September's Listed Prix de Boulogne at Longchamp, Dance Moves, a full brother to yesterday's G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Flintshire (GB), closed last term with a fourth in the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris back there Oct. 21, and occupied the same berth in the Listed Le Vase d'Argent at Toulouse on seasonal return Apr. 26. Juddmonte's homebred bay enjoyed odds-on favoritism here, coming back off a fifth in the June 2 G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly, and was steadied in rear off an early crawl. Making headway into fourth on the home turn, he came under pressure passing the quarter-mile marker and was driven out inside the final furlong to edge in front in the dying strides.

Vichy's La Grande Semaine de Galop, a week-long festival, plays host to a class act today as Godolphin's Sky Hunter (GB) (Motivator {GB}) takes in the Listed Prix Frederic de Lagrange. Unbeaten prior to his fine third, when beaten two lengths and a neck by stable companion Intello (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}) and Morandi (Fr) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly June 2, the homebred should relish this step up to 12 furlongs for the first time. Haras de Saint Pair's homebred Kapour (GB) (Toylsome {GB}) should ensure he does not enjoy a victory lap of honor, as he showed smart form when beating the solid yardstick Park Reel (Fr) (Country Reel) in the 10-furlong Listed Prix Maurice Caillault on heavy ground at Saint-Cloud Mar. 16, before finishing runner-up to Sky Hunter's stable companion Tableaux (Giant's Causeway) in the G2 Prix Noailles over 1 5/16 miles at Longchamp Apr. 22.

Though short of peak fitness while having her first run since a seventh in the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup May 19, Better Life was sent off the heavy favorite and overcame some traffic in the stretch to prove much the best. The victory celebration was punctuated with the announcement that the champion had likely made her final trip to the races and would be sent to Australia to be bred to 2008 G1 Golden Slipper S. winner Sebring (Aus) (More Than Ready). Better Life progressed through the ranks in 2012, stamping herself a serious horse with an upset win over subsequent Horse of the Year Super Easy (NZ) (Darci Brahma {NZ}) in the Kranji Mile Oct. 7. Spelled off a popular victory in the Nov. 11 Singapore Gold Cup, the richest domestic event, she was in need of the race when third in the Moonbeam Vase Apr. 7 but bounced back in the Apr. 26 QE II Cup ahead of her seventh to Military Attack (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) in the SAI Cup. Away without incident from the two hole, Better Life settled right off the pace set by Goodpack (Aus) (Elvstroem {Aus}), the mount of visiting American rider David Flores. Shuffled back a bit into fifth down the backstretch, she traveled well around the turn and into the stretch and just needed some room entering the final 400 meters. The gap came one off the inside at the eighth pole and the filly was joined by Wild Geese, who looked a late threat, but couldn't quite crack the favorite. "The plan was to run one deep and sit off the speed, but [jockey Barend] Vorster's horse [Greenstone, by Agnes World (Jpn)] pushed us back on the rails," said the British jockey, who rode Generous (Ire) to win the G1 Epsom Derby some 22 years ago. "There was a tense moment coming to the home turn when I committed to go to the inside, but El Milagro (Aus) (Red Dazzler {Aus}) rolled back in and I had to ease back. "Once she saw daylight she just quickened away." The winner's dam, a daughter of champion Storm Song (Summer Squall), was a $300,000 purchase by Vin Cox when in foal to E Dubai at Keeneland November in 2006. Quiet Life is the dam of a newly turned 2-year-old filly by High Chaparral (Ire) and a yearling filly by Bernardini. Click for the Singapore Turf Club chart. VIDEO.

B-Gestut Schlenderhan. *G1SW-Aus, GSW-Ger, G1SP-Sin. A Group 3 winner in his native Germany, Mawingo upset the 2012 G1 Doomben Cup at odds of 7-1. His previous best Australian effort this season came in the G1 C. F. Orr S. Feb. 9, where he was defeated a half-length into second by All Too Hard (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}). He was sent to Singapore

turfclub.com.sg

to continue his career and made a very favorable impression in the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup, finishing gamely for third, beaten 3 1/2 lengths, to Military Attack (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}). Mawingo was forced to do two weeks of off-site quarantine following that effort and returned to the Michael Freedman stable about six weeks ago. Favored at 4-5 with this cutback in trip, Mawingo was fifth and along the inside hooking up with the course proper, but was pulled out to about the three path to race in the clear to the far turn. He began to creep into contention with cover on the bend, came out three abreast at the 400-meter mark and refused to swap his leads, but proved 1 1/2 lengths too good. "He's done a pretty good job," said Freedman. "He raced at Rosehill in April, came up here to run in the SIA Cup then had to go off-site and do his quarantine to come back in here as a local horse. I think this win will also do his confidence the world of good. It's been something like 14 months since his last win and sometimes with these older horses they can lose their way a bit. But on that win today he looks like a great pick-up for the stable. He looked a little ring-rusty and he's going to get a lot of benefit from the run as he hadn't raced for a while." Freedman indicated that Mawingo could return in as little as two weeks in the Chairman's Trophy over 1800 meters. VIDEO.
